

The book cover features a deep blue background with a dense, repeating pattern of stylized green vines and small, light blue flowers. This pattern is enclosed within a thin gold border. At the very edge of the cover is a decorative border consisting of a green vine with small red berries. In the center of the cover is a light cream-colored rectangular area with a decorative, wavy top and bottom edge. The title is printed in a large, dark blue, serif font within this central area.

COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

Translation by David H. Stern

COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

An English Version of the Tanakh (Old Testament) and B'rit Hadashah (New Testament)

David H. Stern

“For out of Tziyon will go forth Torah,
the Word of ADONAI from Yerushalayim.”
—Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 2:3

JEWISH NEW TESTAMENT PUBLICATIONS, INC.
Clarksville, Maryland USA    Jerusalem, Israel

About the Book

A fresh English version of the Bible by David H. Stern

Why is this Bible different from all other Bibles? Because it is the only English version fully Jewish in style and presentation. It includes Dr. Stern's new version of the Tanakh ("Old Testament") and his highly acclaimed Jewish New Testament.

The Complete Jewish Bible

- follows the Hebrew Bible order of the Tanakh's books, the order with which Yeshua (Jesus) was familiar
- makes no separation between "Old" and "New" Testaments
- Clarifies misunderstanding by recognizing the Jewish historical/ cultural background of the text.
- offers the original Hebrew names for people, places, and concepts, using easy-to-read English transliterations
- focuses on Messianic prophecy
- gives the traditional weekly and holiday synagogue readings, plus relevant readings from the B'rit Hadashah (New Testament)

The Complete Jewish Bible

- reconnects Christians with their Jewish roots and the Jewish people
- connects Jews with the Jewishness of Messiah Yeshua and Messianic faith

Other features of this Bible: a comprehensive introduction, a pronouncing explanatory glossary, a reverse glossary and special maps to aid Bible understanding.

The Complete Jewish Bible shows that the Word of God, from Genesis to Revelation, is a unified Jewish book meant for everyone—Jew and non-Jew alike.

JEWISH NEW TESTAMENT PUBLICATIONS, INC.
ISBN 978-1-936716-20-3

Copyright © 1998 by David H. Stern

All rights reserved. No portion of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means without prior written permission of the publisher.

Cover illustration by Mickey Klugman Caspi

ISBN 978-1-936716-20-3

Published by JEWISH NEW TESTAMENT PUBLICATIONS an imprint of Messianic Jewish Publishers
6120 Day Long Lane
Clarksville, MD 21029
(410) 531-6644

Distributed by MESSIANIC JEWISH RESOURCES INTERNATIONAL Order line: (800) 410-7367
E-mail: lederer@messianicjewish.net
Website: www.messianicjewish.net

ברוך אתה יהוה אלהינו מלך העולם אשר נותן תורת-אמת
ובשורה-ישועה לעמו ישראל ולכל העמים על-ידי בנו ישוע המשיח אדוננו

Praised are you, Adonai our God, King of the universe, who gives the Torah of truth and the Good News of salvation to his people Israel and to all the peoples through his son Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord.

CONTENTS

Books of the *Tanakh* Listed in Christian Old Testament Order

Books of the Bible Listed in Alphabetical Order

INTRODUCTION

- I.       How the *Complete Jewish Bible* Came to Be
- II.       Translations and Translators
- III.       The Bible
- IV.       Contents of the Bible
- V.       Other Features of the Bible
- VI.       Why the Bible is God's Word
- VII.       Jewish *Tanakh* Versus Christian Old Testament
- VIII.       Original-Language Texts Underlying the *Complete Jewish Bible*
- IX.       Poetry in the *Complete Jewish Bible*
- X.       The Name of God in the *Complete Jewish Bible*
- XI.       The Jewishness of the New Testament
- XII.       How the *Complete Jewish Bible* Expresses the *B'rit Hadashah's* Jewishness
- XIII.       Reasons for Certain *B'rit Hadashah* Renderings
- XIV.       *Tanakh* Prophecies Fulfilled by Yeshua the Messiah
- XV.       Synagogue Usage of the *Complete Jewish Bible*
- XVI.       How to Pronounce the Hebrew Names and Terms
- XVII.       Using the *Complete Jewish Bible*
- XVIII.       Acknowledgements

BOOKS OF THE BIBLE BY SECTION

- I. Torah (Teaching, Law)
  - *B'resheet* \(Genesis\)
  - *Sh'mot* \(Exodus\)
  - *Vayikra* \(Leviticus\)

B'midbar \(Numbers\)
D'varim \(Deuteronomy\)

II. Nevi'im (Prophets)

Nevi'im Rishonim (Early Prophets)

Y'hoshua \(Joshua\)

Shof'tim \(Judges\)

Sh'mu'el (Samuel)

Sh'mu'el Alef \(1 Samuel\)

Sh'mu'el Bet \(2 Samuel\)

M'lakhim (Kings)

M'lakhim Alef \(1 Kings\)

M'lakhim Bet \(2 Kings\)

Nevi'im Acharonim (Later Prophets)

Yesha'yahu \(Isaiah\)

Yirmeyahu \(Jeremiah\)

Yechezk'el \(Ezekiel\)

Shneim-'Asar (The Twelve)

Hoshea \(Hosea\)

Yo'el \(Joel\)

'Amos \(Amos\)

'Ovadyah \(Obadiah\)

Yonah \(Jonah\)

Mikhah \(Micah\)

Nachum \(Nahum\)

Havakuk \(Habakkuk\)

Tz'fanyah \(Zephaniah\)

Hagai \(Haggai\)

Z'kharyah \(Zechariah\)

Mal'akhi \(Malachi\)

III. K'tuvim (Writings)

Tehillim \(Psalms\)

Mishlei \(Proverbs\)

Iyov \(Job\)

The Five Megillot (Scrolls)

Shir-HaShirim \(Song of Solomon/Song of Songs\)

Rut \(Ruth\)
Eikhah \(Lamentations\)
Kohelet \(Ecclesiastes\)
Ester \(Esther\)
Dani'el \(Daniel\)
'Ezra-Nechemyah (Ezra-Nehemiah)
'Ezra \(Ezra\)
Nechemyah \(Nehemiah\)
Divrei-HaYamim (Chronicles)
Divrei-HaYamim Alef \(1 Chronicles\)
Divrei-HaYamim Bet \(2 Chronicles\)

IV. The Good News of Yeshua the Messiah, as Reported by Mattityahu \(Matthew\)

Mark
Luke
Yochanan \(John\)

V. The Acts of the Emissaries of Yeshua the Messiah

VI. Letters/Epistles

Sha'ul's (Paul's) Letters to Communities

Romans
1 Corinthians
2 Corinthians
Galatians
Ephesians
Philippians
Colossians
1 Thessalonians
2 Thessalonians

Sha'ul's (Paul's) Pastoral Letters (to Individuals)

1 Timothy
2 Timothy
Titus
Philemon

General Letters

Messianic Jews \(Hebrews\)

Ya'akov \(James\)

1 Kefa \(1 Peter\)

2 Kefa \(2 Peter\)

1 Yochanan \(1 John\)

2 Yochanan \(2 John\)

1 Yochanan \(3 John\)

Y'hudah \(Jude\)

VII. The Revelation of Yeshua the Messiah to Yochanan \(John\)

APPENDIXES

Pronouncing Explanatory Glossary

“Reverse” Pronouncing Glossary

Index of *Tanakh* Passages Cited in the *B'rit Hadashah*

Scripture Readings

Maps and Map Indexes

Index and Key to *Tanakh* Maps \(Maps 1–3\)

Index and Key to *B'rit Hadashah* Maps \(Maps 4–5\)

Map 1. “The Exodus” \(15th–13th centuries B.C.E.\)

Map 2. “*Eretz-Yisra'el* \(The Land of Israel\) in the Times of Y'hoshua, the Judges, Sh'mu'el and Sha'ul” \(c.1400–1000 B.C.E.\)

Map 3. “*Eretz-Yisra'el* \(The Land of Israel\) in the Times of Kings David and Shlomo and the Divided Kingdoms \(Y'hudah and Isra'el\)” \(1000–586 B.C.E.\)

Map 4. “*Eretz-Yisra'el* \(The Land of Israel\) in the Time of Yeshua” \(1st century C.E.\)

Map 5. “The Eastern Mediterranean and Near East in the Second Temple Period” \(1st century C.E.\)

About the Translator

BOOKS OF THE *TANAKH

Listed in Christian Old Testament Order

PENTATEUCH

Genesis
Exodus
Leviticus Numbers
Deuteronomy

HISTORICAL BOOKS

Joshua
Judges
Ruth
1 Samuel
2 Samuel
1 Kings
2 Kings
1 Chronicles
2 Chronicles
Ezra
Nehemiah Esther

WRITINGS

Job
Psalms
Proverbs
Ecclesiastes
Song of Solomon

PROPHETS

Isaiah
Jeremiah
Lamentations
Ezekiel
Daniel
Hosea
Joel

Amos Obadiah
Jonah
Micah
Nahum
Habakkuk
Zephaniah
Haggai
Zechariah
Malachi

BOOKS OF THE BIBLE Listed in Alphabetical Order

(Including both the Jewish and the Christian names for the books)

Acts of the Emissaries
'Amos/Amos
B'midbar/ Numbers
B'resheet/Genesis
1 Chronicles/Divrei-HaYamim Alef
2 Chronicles/Divrei-HaYamim Bet
Colossians
1 Corinthians
2 Corinthians
Dani'el/Daniel
Deuteronomy/D'varim
Divrei-HaYamim Alef/1 Chronicles
Divrei-HaYamim Bet/2 Chronicles
D'varim/Deuteronomy
Ecclesiastes/Kohelet
Eikhah/Lamentations
Ephesians
Ester/Esther
Exodus/Sh'mot
Ezekiel/Yechezk'el
'Ezra/Ezra

‘Ezra-Nechemyah/Ezra-Nehemiah

Galatians

Genesis/B’resheet

Habakkuk/Havakuk

Hagai/Haggai

Havakuk/Habakkuk

Hebrews/Messianic Jews

Hoshea/Hosea

Isaiah/Yesha‘yahu

Iyov/Job

James/Ya‘akov

Jeremiah/Yirmeyahu

Job/Iyov

Joel/Yo‘el

John/Yochanan

1 John/1 Yochanan

2 John/2 Yochanan

3 John/3 Yochanan

Jonah/Yonah

Joshua/Y’hoshua

Jude/Y’hudah

Judges/Shof’tim

1 Kefa/1 Peter

2 Kefa/2 Peter

1 Kings/M’lakhim Alef

2 Kings/M’lakhim Bet

Kohelet/Ecclesiastes

Lamentations/Eikhah

Leviticus/Vayikra

Luke

Mal’akhi/Malachi

Mark

Mattityahu/Matthew

Messianic Jews/Hebrews

Mikhah/Micah

Mishlei/Proverbs

M’lakhim Alef/1 Kings

M'lakhim Bet/2 Kings
Nachum/Nahum
Nechemyah/Nehemiah
Numbers/B'midbar
'Ovadyah/Obadiah
1 Peter/1 Kefa
2 Peter/2 Kefa
Philemon
Philippians
Proverbs/Mishlei
Psalms/Tehillim
Revelation
Romans
Rut/Ruth
1 Samuel/Sh'mu'el Alef
2 Samuel/Sh'mu'el Bet
Shir-HaShirim/Song of Solomon
Sh'mot/Exodus
Sh'mu'el Alef/1 Samuel
Sh'mu'el Bet/2 Samuel
Shneim-'Asar/The Twelve
Shof'tim/Judges
Song of Solomon/Shir-HaShirim
Song of Songs/Shir-HaShirim
Tehillim/Psalms
1 Thessalonians
2 Thessalonians
1 Timothy
2 Timothy
Titus
The Twelve/Shneim-'Asar
Tz'fanyah/Zephaniah
Vayikra/Leviticus
Ya'akov/James
Yechezk'el/Ezekiel
Yesha'yahu/Isaiah
Y'hoshua/Joshua

Y'hudah/Jude

Yirmeyahu/Jeremiah

Yochanan/John

1 Yochanan/1 John

2 Yochanan/2 John

3 Yochanan/3 John

Yo'el/Joel

Yonah/Jonah

Zechariah/Z'kharyah

Zephaniah/Tz'fanyah

Z'kharyah/Zechariah

INTRODUCTION

Why is this Bible different from all other Bibles? Because it is the only English version of the Bible fully Jewish in style and presentation that includes both the Tanakh (“Old Testament”) and the B’rit Hadashah (New Covenant, “New Testament”). Even its title, the Complete Jewish Bible, challenges both Jews and Christians to see that the whole Bible is Jewish, the B’rit Hadashah as well as the Tanakh. Jews are challenged by the implication that without it the Tanakh is an incomplete Bible. Christians are challenged with the fact that they are joined to the Jewish people through faith in the Jewish Messiah, Yeshua (Jesus) — so that because Christianity can be rightly understood only from a Jewish perspective, anti-Semitism is condemned absolutely and forever. In short, the Complete Jewish Bible restores the Jewish unity of the Bible. Also for the first time the information needed for the synagogue readings from the Torah and the Prophets is completely integrated with similar use of the B’rit Hadashah.

I. HOW THE COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE CAME TO BE

A bit of personal history will give the reader some insight as to why the Complete Jewish Bible exists. Bible introductions are usually more formal, eschewing the use of the first-person singular pronoun, because the seriousness of the Bible seems to call for it — a formal introduction reinforces the authority of the Bible itself. After all, the Bible is God’s Word to humanity, the only completely reliable verbal communication God has given us. It is worthy of acceptance, belief, trust; it is his handbook for faith and practice.<sup>1</sup> Since this is so, the writer of an introduction to the Bible necessarily shoulders a heavy responsibility, one in which informality and focus on oneself seem out of place.

Nevertheless, there is another side: precisely because the Bible deals with such serious topics as sin, judgment, God’s will, repentance and forgiveness, as well as the role in life and history of Yeshua the Messiah (whom Christians call Jesus Christ), readers of translations tend to forget that there is a very specific human input which does not date from Bible times and which both fosters and impedes their understanding of Scripture, namely, the translator. My choice of style for this Introduction, especially in Sections I and II, stems from my desire to have the translator's role in this Bible version and others better understood. Farther on, I will deal with the content of the Bible itself (Sections III–VIII), the specific features of the Complete Jewish Bible (Sections IX–XIV) and how to make the best use of this version (Sections XV–XVII). But here, I am presenting the translator's story.

I am Jewish, was raised in the Jewish religion by Jewish parents and did not come to faith in the Jewish Messiah, Yeshua, until I was thirty-seven years old. As a Messianic Jew (a Jew who honors Yeshua as the Messiah), I saw that the greatest schism in the world is the separation between the Church and the Jewish people; and I experienced it as God's will for my life that I do what I could to resolve this — it would be my contribution to tikkun-ha'olam (repairing the world). Although I had a doctorate in economics, I returned to school to learn more about both Christianity and Judaism — Fuller Theological Seminary for the Christian elements and the University of Judaism for the Jewish.

Thus equipped, I set out in 1977 to write a Messianic Jewish commentary on the New Testament; I wanted to produce a single book that would deal with all the "Jewish issues" I could think of in connection with the New Testament — questions Jews have about Yeshua, the New Testament, and Christianity; questions Christians have about Judaism and the Jewish roots of their own faith; and questions we Messianic Jews have about our own identity and role in the light of two thousand years of separation and conflict between the Church and the Jews. But I quickly discovered that much of what I was writing consisted of arguments with the translator of the English version I was using; they took the form, "Our English version says such-and-such, but what it really means is so-and-so." The idea came to me to attempt my own translation of the New Testament from the ancient Greek original; then, obviously, I would have a version I agreed with, so I could focus exclusively on the subject matter. I did a sample and was pleased with it. Thus was born the Jewish New Testament (JNT), which was published in 1989.

I spent the next three years finishing up the Jewish New Testament Commentary. Meanwhile, the JNT had been well received by Messianic Jews and by Christians open to experiencing the Jewishness of their faith. Bible translation may not be known as a glamorous profession, but I have fans. My fans, who said that they appreciated my re-introduction of Jewishness into the New Testament and that they enjoyed my “informal yet respectful” style of writing, kept asking me, “When are you going to do the Old Testament?” They wanted to have a single book containing the entire Bible that they could bring to their congregational meetings, instead of having to carry the Jewish New Testament plus a second book containing the Tanakh.

I put them off for three more years but finally bowed to the inevitable and got to work. My delay was due to lack of incentive. In translating the Jewish New Testament I had had a strong and directed desire to show everyone, Jews and Christians alike, that the New Testament is a thoroughly Jewish book. But with the Old Testament I had no such motivation — everyone knows it’s Jewish, so what’s to prove? Moreover, at the age of sixty I didn’t care to spend years and years and more years doing a translation from the original Hebrew. Even though I had been living in Israel and speaking Hebrew since 1979, I knew from observing my children that my level of competence in the language was approximately that of a native Israeli fifth-grader. I certainly had no special expertise in biblical Hebrew that would justify my trying to translate the Tanakh.

So I set myself a simpler task. Initially my thought was to acquire the rights to some modern translation of the Tanakh which would be stylistically compatible with my own English style in the JNT. I couldn’t imagine that the owners of any copyrighted Jewish-sponsored translation would permit me to combine it with the New Testament in a single volume having my projected title, so I looked for suitable candidates among the Christian versions. My first choice was rejected by the copyright holders, but my second choice was accepted. However, just as I was ready to move ahead, I realized that if this was to be the Complete Jewish Bible, I couldn’t use any Christian Old Testament, because Christians modify the Masoretic text (the Hebrew text of the Tanakh accepted by Judaism) with information gleaned from the Septuagint and other early versions.<sup>2</sup> Elation was replaced by gloom. Suddenly it occurred to me that the old Jewish Publication Society (JPS) version of the Tanakh, perhaps the best-known and most used Jewish translation in the English-speaking world, had just gone into the public domain — it had been published in 1917, and copyrights run 75 years. But although it had been published in 1917, for various sociological reasons it sounded as if it had been written in 1617! It was full of King James Bible English and was altogether incompatible with the modern English I had used in the JNT.

I tried having this old JPS edition scanned into a computer, with the object of modernizing its English by means of a few global-search-and-replace commands. I wanted to be able to press two buttons and have every “thou” turn into a “you” and “doeth” into “do”; “Abraham” into “Avraham” and “Isaac” into “Yitz’chak.” It proved to be not that simple. Not only the words but the sentence structures were archaic. The more I fiddled with the JPS text the less satisfied I was. It was like restoring an old car with lots of dents. You fix the first three, and the fourth, fifth and sixth stand out. Repair them, and numbers 7, 8, 9 and 10 beg for attention. Eventually you repair all the big dents, and you have a car with thousands of little dents, so it still doesn’t look right.

So I decided to paraphrase the entire JPS Tanakh into modern English, typing in the whole thing by hand, as I decided how to express each word, each phrase, each verse. Though a huge project, it would be much less demanding than a translation. And that is how much of this Tanakh came into existence.

However, there were many places where I questioned the JPS version’s renderings. In such cases I translated the Hebrew of the Masoretic text myself. I also made use of other English versions to assist me in expressing certain verses in modern English. All Bible translators do this — the people who put together the King James Version did it too, acknowledging their debt to those who had gone before them in their famous subtitle, “and with the former translations diligently compared and revised.” So the Tanakh you have in this book is something between a translation and a paraphrase; since it is partly one and partly the other, I refuse to define it as either and instead call it simply a “version.” On the other hand, the books of the New Covenant are my translation from the original Greek.

II. TRANSLATIONS AND TRANSLATORS

Is There Such a Thing as a “Best” Translation of the Bible? While on the subject of the translation-and/or-paraphrasing process, I want to make some general remarks about translations. First, it is a common belief that there is such a thing as a “best” translation of a text from one language to another. I question that. Languages have different words, different syntaxes, different sentence structures, different semantics, different cultures out of which they arise and evolve, and many other differences; so that translation cannot be a simple, automated process. Moreover, readers differ. Some prefer a simple style with a modest vocabulary, while others respond to a more elegant or complex style with a larger vocabulary. Even the concept of accuracy is reader-dependent — what scholars might consider an accurate translation might fail to accurately communicate to less informed readers. If translators fail to consider who their readers are, aren't the translators responsible for the lack of communication? Clearly some translations are, by all reasonable standards, worse, while others are better. But because readers differ, no one version can be best for all.

Translations and Their Purposes. Therefore, one has to ask, “What is the purpose of a given translation, and does it accomplish its purpose well?” The King James Version is unmatched in the beauty of its language; moreover, English would not be what it is without it. But today not everyone can get the sense of the text from its archaic expressions, and, with advances in historical, archeological and linguistic studies, some scholars believe that a number of its renderings are wrong. The newer JPS translation of the Tanakh, from 1985, is particularly useful for noting phrases where the meaning of the original Hebrew is unclear; whereas in my version I have not provided that information. The Today's English Version (“Good News Bible”) produced by the United Bible Societies makes use of a limited vocabulary so that those for whom English is a second language can understand it. The New English Bible has echoes of the great writers — Shakespeare, Milton — which makes it ideal for public reading in Anglican churches. Everett Fox's recent translation of the Torah is unique in giving a feel for Hebrew style and thought-forms, as well as the culture of Bible times. The Living Bible, originally prepared by Ken Taylor for his teenage children, conveys, at least to young Americans, an unmatched energy and presence. No one version could possibly serve all these purposes at once. The beauty of God's Word is that it can be translated in various ways that serve these purposes and others, without obscuring the Bible's own purpose — which is to show people the truth about God, themselves, relationships and the meaning of life, and to call forth the appropriate and necessary responses.

Purposes of This Version of the Bible. Therefore I owe it to my readers to state the purposes of the Complete Jewish Bible (CJB).

- 1) My first purpose is, as I said, to restore the unified Jewishness of the Bible, and, particularly, to show that the books of the New Covenant are Jewish through and through.
- 2) The second aim of the Complete Jewish Bible is to express the Word of God — Tanakh and B'rit Hadashah together — in enjoyable modern English. I want the Bible to be accessible and easy to read, flowing easily from the page into the mind and heart, unimpeded as much as possible by the differences between the environment of the Bible and that of the present.
- 3) My third purpose is to make the CJB fully usable in a Messianic synagogue, where the B'rit Hadashah would be read in the service along with the Torah and the Prophets. (The CJB can be used to follow the readings in a non-Messianic synagogue as well.)
- 4) And finally, I am supplying at last what my fans have been asking me for — a single volume containing my version of the entire Bible.

With the above as background, there are three philosophical points raised in translation work that need to be addressed: (1) formal versus dynamic equivalence (“literal translations” versus “paraphrases”), (2) the degree to which a translator’s interpretation of a text’s meaning should be reflected in his translation, and (3) the pluses and minuses of a version produced by a single individual versus one produced by a translation team.

“Literal Translations” Versus “Paraphrases.” There is a scale on which translations can be measured. At one end of the scale are “literal” translations, which reproduce in the receptor language (English) the grammatical forms of the source language (Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek); translators call these “formally equivalent translations.” The King James Version, the Revised Standard Version, the New American Standard Version and the 1917 Jewish Publication Society version of the Hebrew Bible are examples; an interlinear version (or “pony”), which renders the original-language text word by word, is the ultimate literal translation. At the other end of the scale are “dynamically equivalent translations,” which aim at reproducing in the receptor language not the grammatical forms of the source language but the meanings that the original readers would have understood. Popularly these are sometimes called “paraphrases,” although that term ought to be reserved for documents in which the source and receptor languages are the same (for example, a paraphrase of the Gettysburg Address might begin, “Eighty-seven years ago the founders of our nation . . .”). The Today’s English Version (“Good News Bible”) and the New Jerusalem Bible (Roman Catholic) are examples of dynamically equivalent translations. The New English Bible, the New International Version, and the modern JPS edition fall somewhere between.

On this scale the Complete Jewish Bible tends toward the dynamically equivalent end of the scale. And at certain points especially related to Jewish issues, the New Covenant portion becomes militantly so. For example, the Greek phrase upo nomon (literally, “under law”) is usually rendered “under the law.” But because this phrase has become a buzzword in anti-Torah Christian theology, the Jewish New Testament and now the Complete Jewish Bible spell out the meaning of these two Greek words in thirteen English words: “in subjection to the system which results from perverting the Torah into legalism.”<sup>3</sup>

The Translator and His Interpretations. This example raises the question of whether the translator should “inject his opinions” into his translation. I cautiously answer in the affirmative, on the ground that it inevitably happens anyhow; so that the translator who supposes he “maintains neutrality,” merely channeling ideas from the source language to the receptor language without influencing the result, deludes both himself and his readers. For necessarily every decision as to how to render a word or phrase from another language into English expresses the translator’s opinion. A translator ideologically committed to not intruding his opinions does so in spite of himself, but without taking responsibility for it.

Therefore, I believe a translator should decide what a word or phrase means — in his opinion — and then convey that meaning as clearly as possible. For example, in the case of upo nomon,<sup>4</sup> precisely because wrong meanings have been conveyed in the past, I consider it my responsibility to convey what I believe to be the one and only correct meaning in as unmistakable a way as possible. Even when an expression in the original language seems vague, capable of more than one interpretation, I don't think a translator should transfer the ambiguity into English. Rather, he should decide on one of the possible interpretations and render that one well. In editions that supply alternative readings, ambiguities can be addressed in a marginal note. This edition does a little of that, but very little; that is not one of its major purposes. A commentary is the right place to deal with such matters fully, and that is one of my purposes in the Jewish New Testament Commentary.

On the other side of the picture, this approach lends itself to abuse. The fact that the translator's opinions will necessarily be reflected in his translation does not mean that he should exploit his role, attempting with a partisan rendering to sway his readers toward a partisan position.

Since this is my philosophy and my working rule, I caution readers who want to check whether a word or phrase means what the CJB says it means to look at other versions, to use concordances and other Bible helps, and to go back to the Hebrew/Aramaic and Greek originals. To expect that the CJB will render perfectly, and with all the necessary nuances for every reader, the sense of every word and phrase in the Bible to ask for more than it or any translation can do.

Lone Translator Versus Translation Team. A number of people have asked whether it would not have been better to have had a translation team produce the Jewish New Testament, and of course the same question can be raised about the CJB's Tanakh. My answer is framed in terms of available resources, both human and financial. Certainly the best known Bible translations have been a team product, including the King James Version, the Revised Standard Version, the New International Version, both JPS versions, and others. Traditionally, even the first translation of the Tanakh into Greek, the Septuagint, was produced by a team of seventy (hence the name, which means "seventy") in the third century B.C.E.<sup>5</sup> A team allows for peer review, discussion of problematical texts, and style control; while a single translator may come up with a more unified product (provided he can remember how he translated similar passages). Frankly, I can admit that a team might have done a better job; but I have done the best I can. I hope readers will not be disappointed.<sup>6</sup>

III. THE BIBLE

The Central Message of the Bible. In telling about God, his people Israel, and his Messiah Yeshua, the Bible's constant theme is that human beings need to be saved, and that God provides salvation. The purpose of life and the meaning of history is that God will deliver humanity from the misery of sin and restore the conditions that enable individuals and peoples to relate rightly with him. Morality and happiness are inseparably linked with salvation.

The Tanakh. For according to the Tanakh,<sup>7</sup> God created human beings in his image to be in intimate, loving and obedient fellowship with him.<sup>8</sup> But humanity rebelled — people chose their own way instead of God's<sup>9</sup> — and still do.<sup>10</sup> The name for such rebellion is sin, and the penalty for sin is death<sup>11</sup> — not only cessation of physical life but everlasting separation from God.<sup>12</sup> However, God, who is merciful as well as just, wills to save human beings from the eternal death they have earned and deserve. To this end God chose one person, Avraham, and through him brought forth a people, the Jews, commissioning them to “be a blessing” and “a light to the nations.”<sup>13</sup> Through Moshe he gave them a Torah (literally, “teaching” or “instruction,” though usually translated “law”), making known his standards for righteousness. Through judges, kings and prophets he encouraged them, disciplined them and promised that final salvation would come to them and the other peoples through an “anointed one” (Hebrew mashiach, which has come over into English as “messiah”; the Greek word for “mashiach” is “christos,” which evolved into the English word “Christ”).

The B'rit Hadashah and Yeshua. Continuing this chronicle, the books of the New Covenant proclaim that the Messiah of Israel prophesied in the Tanakh is Yeshua, a real, historical person who, like others, was born, lived and died. However, unlike others, he had no human father but was given birth by a virgin named Miryam (Mary). Also unlike others, he did not die simply because his life ended or because of his own sin (he had committed none), but in order to redeem us from our sins. Finally, again unlike others, he was resurrected from the dead, is alive now “at the right hand of God”<sup>14</sup> and will come a second time to rule as King of Israel and bring peace to the world. In explaining why he alone was qualified to be the final sacrifice for sins the B'rit Hadashah calls him both Son of Man and Son of God. The first term, taken from the Tanakh,<sup>15</sup> means that he is fully and ideally human, sinless, “a lamb without blemish.”<sup>16</sup> Since he did not owe his life for his own sins, he could be “God’s lamb. . .taking away the sin of the world.”<sup>17</sup> The second term, hinted at in the Tanakh,<sup>18</sup> means not only that God’s Holy Spirit (the Ruach HaKodesh), supernaturally caused Miryam to become pregnant,<sup>19</sup> but also that “in him, bodily, lives the fullness of all that God is”;<sup>20</sup> so that he is uniquely able to express God’s love to humanity.<sup>21</sup>

The Messianic Community. The B'rit Hadashah also describes formative events among the early Jewish and Gentile followers of Yeshua and explains how this new Messianic Community or “Church” is related to the Jewish people. Unlike much Christian theology, the B'rit Hadashah does not say that the Messianic Community replaces the Jews as God’s people. Nor does it say that the Messianic Community stands alongside the Jews as a second eternal people of God with a separate destiny and separate promises. Rather, the relationship is more complex: Gentiles are grafted as “wild olive branches” into a Jewish “cultivated olive tree,” some of whose branches “fell off” but will one day be “grafted back into their own olive tree,” so that in the end, “all Israel will be saved.”<sup>22</sup> Thus the Jews are not, as many Christians think, and as many Jews fear, annihilated as a people by being “absorbed into the Church.” On the contrary, as Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) states — in the same passage as where he announces that God will make a New Covenant with the house of Isra’el and the house of Y’hudah — the Jews remain God’s people forever, for as long as the sun, moon and stars give light to the earth.<sup>23</sup> But the Jews will become a people who honor the Messiah for whom they have hoped and waited so long: Yeshua. It is on this basis that unity will be restored between the Messianic Community and the Jewish people and the great schism finally healed.

Breadth of Vision. The Bible’s concept of salvation is both individual and corporate, so that the Tanakh and B'rit Hadashah speak to the full range of human activity — family life, class struggle, social concerns, commerce, agriculture, the environment, national identity, government, justice, repentance, forgiveness, interpersonal relationships, personal identity, gender issues, worship, prayer, physical health, emotional well-being, the inner life of the spirit, death, the after-life and final judgment. In all of these areas the Bible informs us that right response to God's initiatives will bring salvation to every part of our lives — individually, socially, communally, nationally and universally.

Covenants and Testaments, Old and New. Christians call the Tanakh the Old Testament and the B'rit Hadashah the New Testament. But the English word “testament” reflects a tension between the Hebrew language of the Tanakh and the Greek of the B'rit Hadashah. The Hebrew word b'rit means “covenant, contract.” The Greek word for “covenant” or “b'rit” is “diathêkê.” But “diathêkê” can also mean “testament” in the sense of “will.”<sup>24</sup> The Hebrew words “b'rit hadashah” can be translated only as “new covenant,” but the equivalent Greek words can also be translated “new testament” — and usually are. So although Jeremiah foretold a new foundational “contract” between God and the Jewish people, not a “will” — a covenant, not a testament — the term “New Testament” has become standard terminology which obscures the meaning of the original Hebrew, “new covenant.” For this reason, in this Introduction, I generally write about the Tanakh instead of the Old Testament and the B'rit Hadashah or “books of the New Covenant” instead of the New Testament.

Moreover, a “new” covenant implies an “old” one, in this case the Mosaic Covenant made by God with the Jewish people at Mount Sinai.<sup>25</sup> The B'rit Hadashah makes this explicit at Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 8:6–13, where, in context, “old” does not imply “bad” but merely “earlier.” Since the books constituting the Tanakh, in which the Mosaic Covenant is pivotal, date from between 1500 and 300 B.C.E., Christians call it the Old Testament, distinguishing it from the first-century C.E. writings which constitute the New Testament.

Two “Testaments,” One Bible. Nevertheless, the two parts of the Bible, the Tanakh and the B'rit Hadashah, form one Bible. These two parts deal with parallel material in complementary ways. History, having commenced with the creation of heaven and earth and the sinless paradise of ‘Eden in the first two chapters of the Tanakh, ends with the sinless paradise of “a new heaven and a new earth”<sup>26</sup> in the last two chapters of the B'rit Hadashah. The B'rit Hadashah, continuing the salvation history set forth in the Tanakh on the basis of covenants made with Noach (Noah), Avraham (Abraham), Moshe (Moses) and David, presents itself as encompassing the “new covenant” which God promised in the Tanakh to make “with the house of Isra’el and the house of Y’hudah (Judah)”<sup>27</sup> and presents Yeshua as consummating the systems of kings, prophets, cohanim (priests) and sacrifices described therein, as well as being himself the sum and substance of the Torah. Thus the New Testament apart from the Old is heretical, and the Old Testament apart from the New is incomplete — two testaments, one Bible.

The Complete Jewish Bible Presents the Bible’s Unity. The Complete Jewish Bible graphically presents this unity by eliminating all separation between the Tanakh and the B’rit Hadashah. Most Christian translations insert a special title page to divide the Old Testament from the New and even number the pages separately, so that the book of Mattityahu (Matthew) starts on the New Testament’s own Page 1. The Complete Jewish Bible divides the entire Bible into seven sections: the Torah, the Prophets, the Writings, the Gospels, the Acts of the Emissaries, the Letters, and the Book of Revelation. Pagination is continuous. There is no need to collect the first three-quarters of the Bible into the “Old Testament” and the last quarter into the “New.” Rather, the Bible is presented as a seamless whole, a unified Word of God, a complete Jewish Bible for all humanity.

IV. CONTENTS OF THE BIBLE

Of the seven sections of the Bible, the Tanakh consists of the first three, and the B’rit Hadashah the remaining four.

The Torah. The first five books of the Bible constitute the Pentateuch, the Five Books of Moshe (Moses), traditionally attributed to Moshe himself; some scholars believe that later writers modified what Moses wrote or even wrote the books themselves. B’resheet (Genesis) contains the creation narratives, the story of the Flood and the prehistoric dispersion of the nations. With Genesis 12 commences the story of the Jewish People, first with the Patriarchs Avraham (Abraham), Yitz’chak (Isaac) and Ya’akov (Jacob), and finally with the story of Yosef (Joseph) in Egypt. Sh’mot (Exodus) tells of Moshe rescuing the Jewish people from slavery, of the ten plagues, of the exodus from Egypt through the Yam Suf (Red Sea) into the Sinai Desert, and of God, appearing on Mount Sinai, giving the Ten Words and other regulations. There follow God's instructions to Moses as to how the tabernacle was to be constructed. This is interrupted by the apostasy of the people through making the golden calf. Afterwards, the tabernacle is constructed and dedicated, and the system of cohanim (priests) is set up. Vayikra (Leviticus) gives instructions concerning the sacrificial system and other aspects of life. B'midbar (Numbers) describes the people's journeys through the desert for forty years, together with their rebellious ways, as God molds a people for himself. In D'varim (Deuteronomy), Moshe conveys additional laws in the context of reviewing the previous forty years of history. He appoints Y'hoshua (Joshua) his successor and concludes with a cautionary poem and blessings for the twelve tribes. The Torah ends with the death of Moshe at some point in the 15th to 13th centuries B.C.E. (scholars disagree over the dating).

The Prophets. The Prophets are generally divided into the Early Prophets (Nevi'im Rishonim) and the Later Prophets (Nevi'im Acharonim). The first group consists of the four books of Y'hoshua (Joshua), Shoftim (Judges), Sh'mu'el Alef and Bet (1–2 Samuel) and M'lakhim Alef and Bet (1–2 Kings). The book of Y'hoshua tells of the people of Israel under Y'hoshua as they enter the Land of Israel, conquer it and divide it among the twelve tribes. Shof'tim tells of the next several centuries under various "judges," such as Gid'on (Gideon) and Shimshon (Samson). The last of these judges, Sh'mu'el (Samuel), has his name attached to 1–2 Samuel, which describes the rulership of the first two kings, Sha'ul (Saul) and David. Then 1–2 Kings recount the remaining history of the kingship, starting shortly after 1000 B.C.E. with Shlomo (Solomon); continuing with the dividing up of the territory he ruled into the Northern Kingdom, Isra'el, and the Southern Kingdom, Y'hudah (Judah); proceeding with the stories of the prophets Eliyahu (Elijah) and Elisha and a series of kings to the destruction by Ashur (Assyria) of the Northern Kingdom in 732 B.C.E. and on to the Babylonian conquest of Y'hudah in 586 B.C.E.

The Later Prophets also consists of four books — a book by each of the three "major prophets," Yesha'yahu (Isaiah), Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) and Yechezk'el (Ezekiel), and a book containing the writings of the Shneim-'Asar (the Twelve), known also as the "minor prophets." These books contain warnings to the people of Isra'el and ethical advice. Often through these prophets God pleads with Israel to remain faithful to him, to turn away from false gods and wrong aims. Through them God often promises rewards for obedience and punishments for disobedience. How God's love is combined with his holiness is constantly displayed. While sometimes the Prophets make predictions, they are less foretellers than forth-tellers, boldly announcing God's word to people not always willing to hear it.

The Writings. The Writings include a variety of different forms. Tehillim (Psalms) consists of 150 poems or songs expressing the deepest spiritual yearnings and truths. Mishlei (Proverbs) falls in the category of "wisdom literature," in which wisdom is encapsulated in pithy sayings, as does Kohelet (Ecclesiastes). The book of Iyov (Job) addresses the question of why bad things happen to good people; its poetry is unsurpassed in any language. Its Hebrew is the most difficult in the Tanakh, because it contains a great many words that appear nowhere else. The five Megillot (Scrolls) are short books; each "whole megillah" is read on a particular holiday in the Jewish year — Shir-HaShirim (Song of Songs, called the Song of Solomon in Christian Bibles) at Passover; Rut (Ruth) at Shavu'ot, because it's a harvest festival; Eikhah (Lamentations) on the Ninth of Av, which is a day of fasting in memory of the destruction of both temples; Kohelet (Ecclesiastes) at Sh'mini 'Atzeret, the festival anticipating winter, which immediately follows Sukkot; and Ester (Esther) at Purim, since the book tells the story of that holiday. Dani'el and 'Ezra-Nechemyah (Ezra-Nehemiah) evoke life in and after the Babylonian Exile, while Divrei HaYamim Alef and Bet (1–2 Chronicles) review from a priestly viewpoint the history detailed in Sh'mu'el (Samuel) and M'lakhim (Kings). The beginning of 'Ezra and the end of 2 Chronicles show that 'Ezra is the sequel to Chronicles.

The Gospels. The twenty-seven books of the B'rit Hadashah were written in the first century of the Common Era by at least eight authors.<sup>28</sup> Of these, the first four present four distinct views of Yeshua's life and purpose in "salvation history" (God's involvement in human history for the purpose of saving mankind). The first and fourth Gospels are understood to have been written by two of Yeshua's twelve talmidim (disciples), Mattityahu (Matthew) and Yochanan (John). The second is attributed to Mark, who accompanied another of Yeshua's talmidim, Kefa (Peter). The author of the third was Luke, an associate of Sha'ul (Saul/Paul).

The old English word "gospel" means "good news." Therefore, in a significant sense there are not four gospels but one, namely, the Good News of who Yeshua is and what he has done. But each of the four Gospels presents this Good News in its own way, just as four honest witnesses to an event will each have his own version of what happened. Broadly speaking, one may say that Mattityahu has a Jewish readership in mind, while it seems that Luke is writing for Gentiles.<sup>29</sup> Mark's version is fast-paced and filled with human-interest details. Yochanan's never loses sight of Yeshua's heavenly origin, portraying him clearly as not only Son of Man but Son of God.

The first three are known as the Synoptic Gospels (the word "synoptic" means "same viewpoint"), since many of the same incidents are reported in two or three of them, often in similar or even identical language. Scholars have attempted to explain the differences and similarities in the Synoptics, often by postulating that one writer copied from another, or, more sophisticatedly, that two or all three of them had direct or indirect access to some of the same oral or written sources.

The Acts of the Emissaries. Luke is also the author of "The Acts of the Emissaries," which could as well be called "Luke, Part II" (see the opening verses of both Luke and Acts). This book, in which Yeshua's emissaries ("apostles") Kefa and Sha'ul are the chief protagonists, describes the history of the early Messianic Community (that is, the Church) from about 30 C.E. to 65 C.E. The setting is first Yerushalayim, where believing in Yeshua was entirely an internal Jewish matter, and then, as the Gospel spread, "Y'hudah, Shomron, indeed . . . the ends of the earth,"<sup>30</sup> that is, Rome, the pagan antithesis of Yerushalayim. A major purpose of the book of Acts is to prove that Gentiles can become Messianic without converting to Judaism. It is ironic that today popular opinion requires a reverse application of the book of Acts to show that Jews can become Messianic without "converting" to what has become identified as an alien religion, Christianity.

The Letters. The rest of the B'rit Hadashah, except for the last book, consists of letters. The first thirteen are by Sha'ul, the "emissary to the Gentiles."<sup>31</sup> Five are to Messianic communities which he founded in Greece

— two to Corinth, one to Philippi and two to Thessalonica (modern Salonika). Two are to communities he founded in what is now Turkey — Galatia and Ephesus; and two are to communities established by others — Colosse (near Ephesus), and Rome. These nine letters deal with issues of behavior and belief which arose in the several congregations. Of the remaining four, known as the Pastoral Letters, three are to his trainees Timothy (two) and Titus, and one, to Philemon, requests him to welcome back as a free brother a slave of his who ran away.

Next is “A Letter to a Group of Messianic Jews,” otherwise known as “To the Hebrews.” Though sometimes attributed to Sha’ul, Apollos or Priscilla and Aquila, its authorship is uncertain. Addressing a Messianic Jewish readership, it relates the new dispensation brought by Yeshua to the themes of the Tanakh. Following are a letter from Ya’akov (James), the brother of Yeshua and leader of the Messianic community in Yerushalayim; two letters from Kefa (Peter); three from Yochanan (John); and one from Y’hudah (Jude), another brother of Yeshua. As a group these are called the General Letters and are concerned with matters of faith and practice.

Revelation. The final book of the B’rit Hadashah is “The Revelation of Yeshua the Messiah to Yochanan,” which contains descriptions of visions revealed by the resurrected and glorified Messiah to the emissary Yochanan (John), or, some believe, to a different Yochanan. It is also known as the Apocalypse, since it describes “apocalyptic” events, that is, end-time disasters and interventions of God in history connected with the final judgment of humankind. Containing over five hundred quotations from and allusions to the Tanakh, more than any other New Testament book, it resembles and draws on the visions of such writers as Yesha’yahu (Isaiah), Yechezk’el (Ezekiel), Z’kharyah (Zechariah) and Dani’el. Some consider it to be speaking of what today is still in the future, others regard it as describing the whole age of history which began two thousand years ago, and still others believe its primary reference is to first-century events. Its figurative language gives room for such different interpretive approaches or for a combination thereof.

V. OTHER FEATURES OF THE BIBLE

Dating. Traditionally the Torah dates from the 15th to 13th centuries B.C.E., depending on when Moshe lived. The Early Prophets traditionally date from the 14th to 10th centuries B.C.E., the Later Prophets from the 9th to 4th centuries B.C.E., and the Writings from the 10th to 3rd centuries B.C.E. Many scholars accept later dates, up to the 2nd century B.C.E.

The earliest B'rit Hadashah books, such as Sha'ul's letters to the Galatians, Thessalonians and Corinthians, and probably the letter of Ya'akov, were written around 50 C.E., some twenty years after Yeshua's death and resurrection. Sha'ul's other letters date from the 50s and 60s, the Gospels and Acts in their essentially final form from between 65 and 85, and the other General Letters and Revelation from between 65 and 100. Some scholars believe that some New Testament books underwent final editing in the early second century C.E.

The Canon. Scholars agree that the canon of the Torah achieved its present form before the time of 'Ezra (around 445 B.C.E.), the Prophets later and the Writings last. But the final review of the canon was made by the Council of Yavneh (Jamnia) convened around 90 C.E. by Rabbi Yochanan Ben-Zakkai in the wake of the destruction of the temple by the Romans twenty years earlier. Several books now included in the Tanakh were questioned — Daniel and Ezekiel, because of their startling visions and experiences; Esther, because God is not mentioned in it; Song of Songs, because of its overtly sexual character; and Ecclesiastes, because of its depressed world-viewpoint (except for the last two verses, which redeemed it). Ecclesiasticus (not the same as Ecclesiastes) was rejected by the rabbis of Yavneh but is found in the Apocrypha, a collection of fifteen ancient Jewish books that include Tobit, Judith, 1–2 Maccabees and the Wisdom of Solomon. Catholic and Anglican Bibles include the Apocrypha. Some sixty other ancient books are collectively called the Pseudepigrapha. English-language editions of the Apocrypha<sup>32</sup> and the Pseudepigrapha<sup>33</sup> are available.

Besides the documents which now form the New Testament, there were written other versions of the Good News, other histories of events in the early Messianic Community, other discussions of doctrine and practice and other apocalypses.<sup>34</sup> It was the early Messianic Community which exercised the spiritual discernment necessary to decide which books truly brought God's message to humanity and which were lesser creations, perhaps of historical or spiritual value but not God-breathed. Quotations from B'rit

Hadashah books are found already in the non-canonical “Teaching of the Apostles” (80–100 C.E.), but the first list including books of the B’rit Hadashah was made by the heretic Marcion around 150 C.E. This product of error surely stimulated the development of an orthodox canon, such as appears in the Muratorian Fragment at the end of the second century, while the earliest known enumeration of exactly the twenty-seven books constituting today’s B’rit Hadashah, with neither additions nor omissions, is in the Thirty-Ninth Paschal Letter of Athanasius (367 C.E.). Though the list is late, the books themselves were used in Messianic congregations from the time they were written, just as the books of the Tanakh were an integral part of Judaism centuries before its canon was authoritatively determined by the Council of Yavneh.

Tradition and Scholarship. The above introductory material reflects mainstream conservative Bible scholarship, which confirms most of the traditional views on these subjects. But during the past two centuries all the authorships have been challenged, likewise all the datings, and the historicity of most of the events.

The debate continues but ought to be confined within certain limits controlled by facts and aware of assumptions. For example, there are handwritten manuscripts of portions of the New Testament from as early as the first half of the second century, disproving the more extreme suggestions that the New Testament was written two, three or four hundred years after Yeshua. Also some of the criticism is based on presuppositions which are religious in character but in opposition to the Bible, thus determining a negative conclusion a priori, e.g., a world-view of doubt or “scientism” that precludes the possibility of such miracles as the crossing of the Yam Suf (Red Sea) on dry land,<sup>35</sup> or a disbelief in the ability of the ancient writers to distinguish between real and imaginary events, or a too willing confidence that the early Messianic communities altered reports to fit their agenda.

Although there is no lack of unanswered questions, many respected scholars nevertheless believe that the traditional authors are in fact the authors, that the early datings are correct, and, most importantly in the case of the B’rit Hadashah, that Yeshua really lived, “died for our sins, . . . and . . . was raised on the third day, in accordance with what the Tanakh says.”<sup>36</sup>

VI. WHY THE BIBLE IS GOD'S WORD

In the first paragraph of Section I, I wrote that “the Bible is God’s Word to humanity, the only completely reliable verbal communication God has given us. It is worthy of acceptance, belief, trust; it is his handbook for faith and practice.” I owe readers who are not convinced of this an explanation of why I believe that behind the several authors of the Bible, the true Author is God; afterwards I will say why it makes a difference to think so.

Theologians call this topic the “divine inspiration of Scripture,” where the word “inspiration” has its literal meaning, “breathing into.” Thus in regarding God as the ultimate Author of the Bible, they do not mean that he dictated every word, so that the human “authors” were really only secretaries, but rather, that the authors often expressed what God had breathed into them through their own personalities in their own words. The alternative view is that the Bible may contain beautiful thoughts, high moral sentiments, wonderful stories and great literature, “inspired” in the ordinary, humanistic sense, “worthy of genius”; but that it is not God himself speaking, telling us about himself, about ourselves, and about how to live.

There are three reasons for considering the Bible inspired by God, God-breathed: it claims to be, it seems to be, and it proves to be.

The Bible Claims to be God’s Word. Over and over appear the words, “ADONAI says,” or, in the thunderous phrase from the King James Version, “Thus saith the LORD.” These words are found in the Bible some 2,500 times, placed there by numerous authors over a period of more than a thousand years. By itself this claim proves nothing — anyone can write, “God says.” But this claim is not made so very often; hence when it is made — and when many people believe it — it could be worth investigating to find out if it is true.

The Bible Seems to be God’s Word. Its breadth of subject matter, its wisdom, its deeply felt honesty, its understanding of the human condition, its expressions of joy, wonder, sadness, anger and every other emotion, its way of dealing with history and politics all delineate as the character underlying the Bible an entity, a person, worthy of being called and honored as God, lover and creator of you and me and the universe. Some readers may find portions which seem less than divine or even contrary to their view of what God ought to say. I suggest that these readers consider changing their concept of God. For only in the Bible will one find the authoritative description of the God of the Bible, who he is and what he “ought” to be. It is there where one should look for the paradoxes to be resolved — and also where it becomes clear that some antinomies (contradictory elements that resist resolution) will not be fully resolved, at least not in this world (two examples: free will and predestination, and Job’s problem — why bad things happen to good people).

The Bible Proves to be God’s Word. While not every statement in the Bible can be scientifically verified, some can. Historical and archeological studies are repeatedly providing evidence that places, events and customs the Bible reports about were real. Since I moved to Israel in 1979, the newspapers have reported the discovery at Tel Dan, in the north of the country, of the first independent witness to the existence of King David, an ostrakon from his time inscribed with that name (it proves, of course, only that the name existed, not the king). Another discovery was of one of the pomegranates that hung from the robe of the cohen gadol (high priest),<sup>37</sup> and a third was a seal from the sixth century B.C.E. having on it the tetragrammaton — the oldest such evidence. These do not prove the existence of God, but they demonstrate the reliability of the writers and suggest that what they say about the unverifiable might also be trustworthy.

Why It Makes a Difference to Believe that God ‘Wrote the Bible.’ On principle I would not give science the last word in determining truth, because I don’t think faith should be relegated to a category of knowledge inferior to science. The philosophical underpinnings of the Western World are centered on two cities — Athens and Jerusalem. The Greeks developed philosophy in a rational manner, but largely at the expense of separating heart and head. Many psychological and spiritual ills stem from this separation (one can also speak of this separation as between body and soul). The Jews kept head and heart, body and soul, together, and the Bible reflects this unitary view of human nature. The head has its way of knowing, and the heart has its way of knowing, and neither should be ignored. If head and heart are connected, there is the possibility that what the Bible claims, seems and proves to be will move the heart to respond in faith. If one believes that in the Bible God is speaking, one will be much more likely to take seriously its promises, threats, suggestions and commands; and the result, I propose, will be a better life for oneself and the others one meets.

VII. JEWISH TANAKH VERSUS CHRISTIAN OLD TESTAMENT

The title of this Section of the Introduction may perplex some readers, especially after the remarks in Section V, because it is usual to think of the Christian Old Testament and the Jewish Tanakh as the same. Actually, there are important differences; and for purposes of understanding the Complete Jewish Bible, these must now be addressed.

Different Order for the Books. The most obvious difference, clear from the Table of Contents, is that the books of the Tanakh appear in a different order than those of the Old Testament (OT), as any Christian looking for the book of Malachi at the end of the Tanakh will quickly discover. As the acronym TaNakH reminds us, the Hebrew Bible is divided into three parts — Torah (Law, Teaching), Nevi'im (Prophets) and K'tuvim (Writings). But Christians divide the OT into four parts — Pentateuch, Historical Books, Writings and Prophets. Both OT and Tanakh have the five books of Moses first, whether one calls them the Torah or the Pentateuch. The Prophets section of the Tanakh is divided into the Early and Later Prophets. The Early Prophets correspond to the Historical Books of the OT minus the books of Ruth, 1–2 Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, and Esther, which are placed with the Writings. The Later Prophets are the same as the “Prophets” section of the OT, except that the Hebrew Bible places Lamentations and Daniel with the Writings. The Tanakh’s “Writings” section is larger than that of the OT, because it includes the eight books which in the OT are located elsewhere. Finally, in the Tanakh the Later Prophets come immediately after the Early Prophets, but in the OT the Prophets come last.

Why these differences? Because the Christian OT follows the order found in the oldest manuscripts of the Septuagint, the translation of the Tanakh into Greek made by Greek-speaking Jews in Alexandria, Egypt, two or three centuries before Yeshua’s birth; while the Tanakh sequence was finalized in the Land of Israel after the time of Ezra. This is the order Yeshua knew, as evidenced by his referring in Luke 24:44 to “the Torah of Moshe, the Prophets and the Psalms” (by “Psalms” he referred to the Writings section, which in the Tanakh begins with the book of Psalms, not Job, as in the OT).

Different Number of Books. A second difference is that by Jewish reckoning the Tanakh consists of twenty-four books, whereas Christians count thirty-nine in the Old Testament. This is because the Tanakh considers each of the following to be a single book: 1–2 Samuel, 1–2 Kings, the twelve Minor Prophets (so called because their books are short—Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi), Ezra-Nehemiah, and 1–2 Chronicles. Thus what the OT counts as twenty books appears in the Tanakh as five.

Different Names for the Books. A third difference is in the names. Many of the Tanakh books are simply called by their first words. What the OT calls Genesis the Tanakh calls B’resheet (“In the beginning”); and Exodus (the book about the Jewish exodus from Egypt) is called Sh’mot (“Names”), because the book starts out, “These are the names. . . .” Leviticus (about the Levitical priesthood) is called Vayikra (“And he called”), from its initial words “And he [God] called to Moshe. . . .” Lamentations is called Eikhah (“How”); it begins, “How lonely lies the city. . . .”

The reader wanting further clarification on these three points of difference should examine carefully the tables of contents; the main one lists the books of the Bible by both their Hebrew and usual English names in the order followed in Jewish Bibles and in the Complete Jewish Bible; the second lists the books of the Tanakh by their usual English names in the Old Testament/Septuagint order familiar to Christians; the third table of contents lists all the books of the Bible by all the names, in alphabetical order.

Why did I choose the Jewish order and names for the CJB? To emphasize the Jewish unity of the Tanakh and the B’rit Hadashah — not just the “unity,” which all Christians recognize, but the “Jewish unity,” the fact that both Tanakh and B’rit Hadashah are Jewish through and through. When the Tanakh is dissected, with its parts rearranged and renamed, its Jewishness is also being taken apart. This is, then, just one more way in which the CJB reminds Christians that their faith is Jewish.

At the same time, by presenting, as fully as the English language allows, the Jewishness of both Tanakh and B'rit Hadashah together in a single volume, I am placing the Jewishness of the B'rit Hadashah squarely in front of Jewish people who have absorbed the false idea that the New Testament is the Christian Bible and therefore has nothing to do with them as Jews. This is also why I wrote the Jewish New Testament Commentary — to deal with the various reservations about Yeshua, the New Testament and Christianity that have become an almost inseparable part of Jewish culture and thinking, and show that they are based on misunderstandings, so that Jewish people can hear what God has to say to them in both the Tanakh and the B'rit Hadashah—in the complete Jewish Bible.

Different Chapter and Verse Numbering. A fourth difference is in the numbering of chapters and verses. The Jewish and Christian chapter and verse numbers differ here and there throughout the Tanakh. My general rule is that where they are not the same I include both, the chapter and verse numbers found in the Hebrew Bible first, with the dissenting numberings in parentheses afterwards. Thus the reference, “Psalm 69:9(8),” means that what Hebrew Bibles call verse 9 of Psalm 69 is called verse 8 in at least some other Bibles. Similarly, “Joel 3:1–5(2:28–32)” is the consequence of the fact that the Hebrew Bible makes a separate Chapter 3 out of what the OT has as the last five verses of Chapter 2. A number of the Psalms have titles such as Psalm 21’s, “For the leader. A psalm of David.” The Hebrew Bible often considers them to be Verse 1, but the OT does not assign them verse numbers at all. In this case, the CJB assigns them “Christian” verse number zero: Psalm 21:1(0).

Different Endings for Four of the Books. A small detail which nevertheless epitomizes a characteristic of the Jewish approach to life is that in the case of the four books in the Tanakh with a negative-sounding last verse, it is customary to accentuate the positive by printing the next-to-last verse a second time at the end of the book. The CJB does this, using brackets and smaller type.

Different Underlying Texts. The final difference is that the Tanakh consists of the traditionally preserved “Masoretic Text” of the Hebrew Bible, while the Christian “Old Testament” draws on scholarly studies and other ancient texts of the Bible to arrive at a presumed more accurate Hebrew text. The details are discussed in Section VIII below.

More Alike Than Different. In spite of these differences, the Christian Old Testament is much more like the Tanakh than different from it; and for this reason I will continue in this Introduction to use the terms “Tanakh” and “Old Testament” more or less interchangeably.

VIII. ORIGINAL-LANGUAGE TEXTS UNDERLYING THE COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

Hebrew/Aramaic Text Used for the Tanakh. Except for the Dead Sea Scrolls, which are more than two thousand years old, the oldest extant Hebrew and Aramaic manuscripts of the Tanakh date back to the 9th to 11th centuries C.E. The Tanakh was written originally with only consonants, and the Torah scrolls read today in the synagogue contain only consonants.

In the 6th to 9th centuries a group of scribes called the Masoretes (the word comes from Hebrew masoret, which means “tradition”) developed a system of notation for recording the vowels traditionally used when reading the consonantal text of the Tanakh. Without these, the consonants of most Hebrew words could be pronounced in several ways and given several meanings. For example, if English were written with only consonants, how would you pronounce “st”? Would it be “sat,” “set,” “sit,” “sot,” “sate,” “seat,” “site,” “soot” or “suit”? From context you would know. But there developed a need to make the meanings crystal-clear as Hebrew fell into disuse and not all contexts were understood. So the Masoretes recorded the traditional “vowel pointings,” as they are called today; and printed editions of the Tanakh all have them. Moreover, Hebrew is taught with them; and while a modern Israeli reads his newspaper without vowel pointings, a new immigrant to Israel learns how to pronounce Hebrew with their aid. Moreover, they continue to be used in published editions of Hebrew poetry and in the Jewish prayerbooks.

In addition, the Masoretes codified a system of punctuation, also included in printed editions of the Tanakh. These “cantillation marks” are used when the Torah is chanted in the synagogue; but their more important use is to clarify which words of the text go together. For example, in a passage familiar to Christians as well as Jews, because the New Testament makes use of it, Yeshu' yahu (Isaiah) 40:3 says, “A voice cries out: ‘Clear a road through the desert for ADONAI [the LORD].’” But at Mattityahu (Matthew) 3:3 many translations have something like, “A voice cries out in the desert, ‘Clear a road for ADONAI.’” However, the cantillation marks show that “in the desert” tells about the road, not the voice.

The Masoretes modified the written text (the k'tiv, pronounced kuh-teev) in a number of places, so that what is read aloud in the synagogue today (the kere, pronounced keh-ray) differs at these points from what appears in the Torah scroll. One example comes from Psalm 100:3. The King James Version, following the k'tiv, reads, “Know ye that the LORD, he is God; it is he who hath made us, and not we ourselves.” But most other versions, Jewish and Christian alike, follow the kere; thus the CJB has, “it is he who made us; and we are his.” If the Hebrew word lo in lo anachnu is spelled lamed-alef (לא), it means “not we,” but if it’s spelled lamed-vav (לו), it means “we are his.” The Masoretes evidently concluded that the author had written “his,” and a scribe had mis-copied the word.

From a Jewish religious point of view, the Masoretic alterations embodied in the kere are the only permitted changes to the received written consonantal text, the k'tiv. But Christian and non-Orthodox Jewish scholars are not constrained by this restriction. Thus they apply the criteria of historical and linguistic scholarship to the Masoretic text in determining its reliability. Moreover, from ancient versions such as the Greek Septuagint they can infer the existence of alternative underlying Hebrew texts, vowel-pointing or punctuation. Here is a well-known instance of how significant this can be.

In Psalm 22, verse 17 of Jewish versions reads, “Like a lion [at] my hands and feet,” while the corresponding verse 16 of Christian versions says, “They pierced my hands and feet.” If this passage prophesies Yeshua’s crucifixion, as Messianic Jews and Christians believe it does, the prophecy is certainly clearer in the Christian versions, since the B’rit Hadashah reports that Yeshua’s hands and feet were nailed to the execution-stake (as the CJB calls the cross), but says nothing about lions at his hands and feet. How can two such different meanings arise from the same text? They don’t; the texts are different. The Masoretic text has the Hebrew word k’ari (כארי, “like a lion”); while the Christian versions make use of the Septuagint, where the Greek word implies an underlying Hebrew text with the word karu (כרו, “they pierced”). The differences — the presence in the Masoretic

Hebrew of the letter alef (א), and of the letter yud (י) instead of vav (ו) — are both easily explainable as scribal errors (in one direction or the other). In this case, as in virtually all cases, the CJB adheres to the Masoretic text, but a footnote gives the alternative rendering and refers to this paragraph of the Introduction. There are hundreds of similar differences, although few are as important for Messianic understanding of the Bible. In general I have not indicated where these differences are, because that is outside the scope of my purposes in preparing the Complete Jewish Bible.

The scholars also use other early versions — Jerome’s Latin Vulgate (430 C.E.), the Syriac, Targum Yonatan, and others dating from the fifth century C.E. or earlier. These offer still more readings which add to the possibilities and to the confusion. Scholars frequently find historical, archeological, literary, theological or logical justification for emending the text itself — that is, correcting it to what they believe it must have originally said. It may well be that the scholars often approach the Hebrew original more closely than the Masoretic text does. However, my choosing to render the Jewish Tanakh obligates me to use the Masoretic text; very rarely do I deviate from it.

The Greek of the B’rit Hadashah. While the Tanakh was written largely in Hebrew (portions of ‘Ezra-Nechemyah and Dani’el are in a related Semitic language, Aramaic), most of the early manuscripts of the New Testament are in Greek — not the classical language of Homer or of Plato, but koinê (“common”) Greek, the lingua franca of everyday affairs throughout the Eastern Mediterranean and Middle East during the first century.

Nevertheless, there is good reason to think that several of the books of the New Testament were written in either Hebrew or Aramaic, or drew upon source materials in those languages; this case has been made by one scholar or another for all four Gospels, Acts, Revelation and several of the General Letters. Moreover, Sha’ul, whose letters were composed in Greek, clearly drew on his native Jewish and Hebraic thought-forms when he wrote. In fact, some phrases in the New Testament manuscripts make no sense unless one reaches through the Greek to the underlying Hebrew expressions. Here is an example, only one of many.<sup>38</sup> Yeshua says in the Sermon on the Mount,<sup>39</sup> literally, “If your eye be evil, your whole body will be dark.”<sup>40</sup> What is an evil eye? Someone not knowing the Jewish background might suppose Yeshua was talking about casting spells.

However, in Hebrew, having an ‘ayin ra’ah, an “evil eye,” means being stingy; while having an ‘ayin tovah, a “good eye,” means being generous. Yeshua is simply urging generosity against stinginess. And this understanding fits with the surrounding verses: “Where your wealth is, there your heart will be also. . . . You can’t be a slave to both God and money.”<sup>41</sup>

Greek Text Used for the B’rit Hadashah. There are more than five thousand ancient manuscripts of all or part of the New Testament, more than for any other document from antiquity. Due to scribal errors and other factors, they do not agree with each other at every point. Textual criticism, which sets out to determine the correct reading of a text from disagreeing and imperfect sources, is far beyond the competence of most Bible translators, including me. Fortunately there exist critical editions of the Greek text of the New Testament, wherein specialists have investigated, compared and judged the accuracy of the differing textual readings found in the manuscripts. My translation of the B’rit Hadashah is based primarily on the United Bible Societies’ The Greek New Testament;<sup>42</sup> but I also consulted a number of English and Hebrew versions and commentaries.

IX. POETRY IN THE COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

Frequency and Character of the Bible’s Poetry. About thirty percent of the Tanakh is written in the form of poetry, mostly in the Later Prophets and in the Writings. This often surprises people, because many editions of the Bible hide the poetry by layout that doesn’t show it. Because so much of the power, drama and nuance of what is being communicated is inseparable from the poetic form the writers use, I have given high priority to making it as easy as possible for readers to see and feel the poetry in the Bible. (Apart from Tanakh citations, the B’rit Hadashah is at most one or two percent poetry, with the book of Revelation having the highest proportion.)

This is why I have chosen to typeset the CJB in one column rather than two — it makes it possible for each line of poetry to take only one line of type. When lines of poetry require two lines of type, the reader’s attention is taken with determining where a line of poetry ends, leaving him less energy for scanning the line and finding its underlying rhythm. I know that for some the one-column format will make the prose reading more difficult, since the eye must follow a wider line of type across the page. But I decided in favor of easing the more difficult task of reading poetry.

Aids to Reading the Bible's Poetry. The key to Biblical Hebrew poetry is not primarily rhythm, but parallelism. The poetry is generally divided into two-line stanzas. The second line usually does one of three things: it expresses essentially the same idea as the first, or it presents a contrasting idea, or it adds to the first line's thought. The table below gives examples of all three.

However, English poetry is characterized by repeated rhythms (except for free verse), and this is what most English-speakers expect from poetry. To this end, I have tried to make it possible to scan every line of poetry into four beats. In the examples below I show where I understand the beats are by placing a superscript number before the emphasized syllable. Sometimes there will be silent beats; these are shown below by superscript-four at the end of the line; in fact these lines have three beats, but it makes the poetry read better to allow them four, with one of them silent. Occasionally you may find that there are too many syllables in a line to squeeze them comfortably into four beats; in this case, I suggest slowing the pace enough to find four main beats while allowing the words to be read without rushing. Moreover, keep in mind that there can be more than one right way to scan a line; for example, see the three ways of scanning Proverbs 2:21b below.

Verse	Type of Parallelism	Location of Beats in the Text
Psalms 38:22(21)	Thought Same thought	<sup>1</sup> Don't abandon me, <sup>3</sup> ADO <sup>4</sup> NAI! My <sup>1</sup> God, <sup>2</sup> don't be <sup>3</sup> far from me! <sup>4</sup>
Proverbs 2:21	Thought Same thought (second scan) (third scan)	For the <sup>1</sup> upright will <sup>2</sup> live in the <sup>3</sup> land, <sup>4</sup> the <sup>1</sup> pure-hearted <sup>2</sup> will re <sup>3</sup> main there; <sup>4</sup> the <sup>1</sup> pure- <sup>2</sup> hearted will re <sup>3</sup> main <sup>4</sup> there; the <sup>1</sup> pure- <sup>2</sup> hearted <sup>3</sup> will re <sup>4</sup> main there;
Proverbs 10:2	Thought Contrasting thought	No <sup>1</sup> good <sup>2</sup> comes from <sup>3</sup> ill-gotten <sup>4</sup> wealth, but <sup>1</sup> righteousness <sup>2</sup> rescues from <sup>3</sup> death. <sup>4</sup>
Isaiah 54:10	Thought  Contrasting thought	For the <sup>1</sup> mountains may <sup>2</sup> leave and the <sup>3</sup> hills be re <sup>4</sup> moved, but my <sup>1</sup> grace will <sup>2</sup> never <sup>3</sup> leave you, <sup>4</sup>
Proverbs 23:29	Thought	<sup>1</sup> Who gets <sup>2</sup> bruised for <sup>3</sup> no good <sup>4</sup> reason?

	Addition to the thought	<sup>1</sup> Who has <sup>2</sup> bloodshot <sup>3</sup> eyes? <sup>4</sup>
Job 13:5	Thought	I <sup>1</sup> wish you would <sup>2</sup> just stay <sup>3</sup> silent; <sup>4</sup>
	Addition to the thought	for <sup>1</sup> you, <sup>2</sup> that would be <sup>3</sup> wisdom! <sup>4</sup>
Malachi 2:10	Thought #1	<sup>1</sup> Don't we <sup>2</sup> all have the <sup>3</sup> same <sup>4</sup> father?
	Same thought	<sup>1</sup> Didn't one <sup>2</sup> God cre <sup>3</sup> ate us <sup>4</sup> all?
	Thought #2	Then <sup>1</sup> why do <sup>2</sup> we break <sup>3</sup> faith with each <sup>4</sup> other,
	Addition to thought #2	pro <sup>1</sup> faning the <sup>2</sup> covenant of our <sup>3</sup> ancestors? <sup>4</sup>

Finally, although awareness of poetry's rhythm will enhance its reading, one should not let it degenerate into singsong that overwhelms the meaning of the text.

X. THE NAME OF GOD IN THE COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

The Basic Problem: God's Personal Name is Never Spoken. When Moshe turned aside in the wilderness of Midyan to see the bush that burned without being consumed, God revealed himself to him and told him his own personal Name. That Name in Hebrew consists of the four letters Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh (יהוה) and is therefore called the tetragrammaton (four-letter writing). The Bible makes it clear that this Name was not to be used casually. The third commandment prohibits taking God's Name in vain,<sup>43</sup> and the man who used it in a curse was put to death at God's explicit instruction.<sup>44</sup> Already by Yeshua's time, no one ever spoke God's name except the cohen hagadol (high priest) when he entered the Especially Holy Place in the temple to make atonement for the sins of Isra'el on Yom Kippur. So strictly was this rule enforced that when the Masoretes wrote down the vowel points for the Torah, they did not write the actual vowels to be used in pronouncing the tetragrammaton. By then, the word Adonai, which is a term for God found frequently in the Bible and which means "my Lord," was said instead of the Name whenever the Torah was read; so the Masoretes put the vowel pointing for "Adonai" under the letters Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh. To this day, when the Torah is read in the synagogue, "Adonai" is substituted for the Name. The English word "Jehovah" is an English representation of the Name (J-H-V-H) combined with the vowel sounds of "Adonai," a hybrid word without historical foundation. Most English translations represent the Name by "LORD," written as it is here, in large and small capital letters. More than six thousand times the Complete Jewish Bible uses the Hebrew word ADONAI also in large and small capital letters (and italicized, like other Hebrew words) to represent the tetragrammaton.

Other Problems. But a number of problems remain. First, there are places in the Bible where the Hebrew text reads, “Adonai Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh.” To avoid having the word “Adonai” read twice in a row, the Jewish practice in these cases is to say, “Adonai ELOHIM”; and the CJB does the same in some 270 places. The word “Elohim” means “God” and is so translated elsewhere in the CJB, as in other Bible versions.

Second, there are three places in the Bible where, in my judgment, it is necessary to present the Name in a form as close to the original as possible—Exodus 3:13–17, 6:2–3, and 34:6–7. In these places the CJB has “Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh.” Otherwise the force of what is being communicated would be greatly compromised.

Third, Jewish religious practice, especially among the ultra-Orthodox, has withdrawn even from using such words as “Adonai” and “Elohim” except in specific religious settings. Euphemisms such as “HaShem” (the Name), “Adoshem” (a combination of “Adonai” with “HaShem”), and “Elokim” (an intentional mispronunciation of “Elohim”) are used instead; and if the tetragrammaton has to be spelled out, it is pronounced, “Yud-kay-vav-kay.” I considered using “HaShem” but eventually decided against it on the ground that the CJB constitutes a justifiable “religious setting.” At the same time, I did not use “Yahweh” or “Yahveh,” as some versions do, on the grounds, first, that Jews, as explained, don’t pronounce the Name at all; second, that we don’t really know if these are good representations of how the Name was pronounced; and, third, that these words sound too strange in the ears of most Jews, who are not accustomed to hearing them in any context. I avoided “the LORD,” simply because English-speakers have become so used to this phrase in Bibles that, in my judgment, it no longer can be counted on to evoke the awareness and reverence for God that it should. But it won’t hurt my feelings if others say for the Name something other than what the CJB has in print.

The Tetragrammaton in the New Testament. Finally, the problem of God’s name takes on a further dimension of uncertainty in the B’rit Hadashah. There the Greek word kurios is frequently ambiguous. It can mean “sir,” “lord” (as in “lord of the manor”, “Lord” (with divine overtones), and “Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh.” Most translations, by always rendering kurios “Lord,” finesse the issue of when it means “Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh.” The CJB and the Jewish New Testament do not—in keeping with the principle stated in Section II above that translators should decide the true meaning of a word and render that meaning clearly, rather than transfer vagueness from one language to another, the word “ADONAI” is used in the B’rit Hadashah wherever I, as the translator, believe “kurios” is the Greek representation of the tetragrammaton.

In several places this approach brings into bold relief a key theological issue separating Messianic from traditional Judaism, namely, whether ADONAI can include Yeshua the Messiah and/or the Holy Spirit. Philippians 2:10–11 informs us that the day is coming when “every knee will bow . . . and every tongue will acknowledge that Yeshua the Messiah is kurios.” Since this passage quotes Isaiah 45:23, where it is explicit that every knee will bow to ADONAI, kurios is here translated “ADONAI.” At 2 Corinthians 3:16–18 Sha’ul (Paul) alludes to Exodus 34:34 in writing that “whenever someone turns to ADONAI, the veil is taken away”; then he explicitly points out that ““ADONAI” in this text means the Spirit,” and uses the phrase, “ADONAI the Spirit.”

XI. THE JEWISHNESS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

So much for the differences between the CJB’s Tanakh and the Old Testament with which Christians are familiar. We turn now to the differences between the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah and other translations of the New Testament. Given that there were already literally hundreds of English versions of the New Testament in existence when the Jewish New Testament came out, why was another one needed? The reason is that my version was the first to express fully the New Testament’s original and essential Jewishness; nearly all the other English translations of the New Testament presented its message in a Gentile-Christian linguistic, cultural and theological framework.<sup>45</sup>

And what was wrong with that? Nothing! For although the Gospel is Jewish in origin, it is not only for Jews but also for Gentiles. The New Testament itself could not be clearer about that,<sup>46</sup> so it is appropriate that its message be communicated to non-Jews in ways that impose on them a minimum of alien cultural baggage.<sup>47</sup> And this approach has been successful: millions of Gentiles have come to trust in the God of Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov and in the Jewish Messiah, Yeshua.<sup>48</sup>

The New Testament Is a Jewish Book. However, the time came for restoring the Jewishness of the New Testament. For the New Testament is in fact a Jewish book—by Jews, mostly about Jews, and for Jews as well as Gentiles. It is all very well to adapt a Jewish book for easier appreciation by non-Jews, but not at the cost of suppressing its inherent Jewishness. The Jewish New Testament expressed this Jewishness first of all in its very name, which, like the name of the evangelistic organization “Jews for Jesus,” unites two ideas that some consider incompatible and would rather keep separate.

But such separation cannot be. For the central figure of the New Testament, Yeshua the Messiah, was a Jew who was born into a Jewish family in Beit-Lechem, grew up among Jews in Natzeret, ministered to Jews in the Galil, and died and rose from the grave in the Jewish capital, Yerushalayim—all in Eretz-Yisra'el, the land God gave the Jewish people. Moreover, Yeshua is still a Jew, since he is still alive; and nowhere does Scripture say or suggest that he has stopped being Jewish. His twelve closest followers were Jews. For years all his talmidim (disciples) were Jews, eventually numbering “tens of thousands” in Yerushalayim alone.<sup>49</sup> The New Testament was written entirely by Jews (Luke being, in all likelihood, a proselyte to Judaism); and its message is directed “to the Jew especially, but equally to the Gentile.”<sup>50</sup> It was Jews who brought the Gospel to non-Jews, not the other way round. Sha'ul “also known as Paul”,<sup>51</sup> the chief emissary to the Gentiles, was a lifelong observant Jew, as is abundantly clear from evidence in the book of Acts.<sup>52</sup> Indeed the main issue in the early Messianic Community — that is, the “Church” — was not whether a Jew could believe in Yeshua, but whether a Gentile could become a Christian without converting to Judaism!<sup>53</sup> The Messiah's vicarious atonement is rooted in the Jewish sacrificial system.<sup>54</sup> The Lord's Supper is rooted in the Jewish Passover. Immersion (baptism) is a Jewish practice. The New Covenant itself was promised by the Jewish prophet Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah).<sup>55</sup> The very concept of a Messiah is exclusively Jewish, and that Jewish Messiah taught that “salvation is from the Jews.”<sup>56</sup> Indeed, as the name Complete Jewish Bible suggests, the B'rit Hadashah completes the Tanakh; so that the New Testament without the Old is as impossible as the second floor of a house without the first, and the Old without the New as unfinished as a house without a roof.

Moreover, much of what is written in the B'rit Hadashah is incomprehensible apart from its Jewish context. I gave one example in Section VIII above, in the paragraph on the Greek of the B'rit Hadashah, and here is another. At Mattityahu (Matthew) 1:21 an angel of ADONAI tells Yosef (Joseph) that Miryam (Mary), his betrothed, will give birth to a son, “and you are to name him Yeshua, because he will save his people from their sins.” In English the reason explains nothing—why not name him “George, because he will save his people from their sins”? Likewise in Greek—the name Iêsous has nothing to do with sotêr, the Greek word for “save.” Only in Hebrew or Aramaic does the explanation explain. The Hebrew name Yeshua (ישוע), which is the masculine form of the word yeshu'ah (ישועה—“salvation”), is based on the same root (yud-shin-'ayin—י-ש-ע) as yoshia (יושיע), which means “he will save.”

But the best demonstration of the New Testament's Jewishness is also the most convincing proof of its truth, namely, the number of Tanakh prophecies, all of them centuries older than the New Testament events, which are fulfilled in the person of Yeshua from Natzeret. The probability that anyone could satisfy dozens of prophetic conditions by mere chance is infinitesimal. No pretender to Messiahship, such as Shim'on Bar-Kokhva,<sup>57</sup> Shabtai Tzvi<sup>58</sup> or, more recently, the late leader of the HaBaD Hasidic movement among ultra-Orthodox Jews, Menachem Schneerson<sup>59</sup> has fulfilled more than a few of them. Yeshua fulfilled every prophecy intended to be fulfilled at his first coming; Section XIV below lists fifty-four of them. The rest of the prophecies he will fulfill when he returns in glory.

Thus the Jewish New Testament began to make it normal to think of the New Testament as Jewish.

There are three additional areas in which the Jewish New Testament and the Complete Jewish Bible can aid in tikkun-ha'olam (fixing the world): Christian anti-Semitism, Jewish failure to receive the Gospel, and the split between the Church and the Jewish people.

Christian Anti-Semitism. First, a vicious circle of Christian anti-Semitism feeds on the New Testament. The New Testament itself contains no anti-Semitism; but since the early days of the Church, anti-Semitism has misused the New Testament to justify itself and infiltrate Christian theology. Translators of the New Testament, steeped in that anti-Semitic theology, produce anti-Jewish translations, even when they themselves are not anti-Semites. Readers of these translations absorb attitudes which are anti-Jewish and alien to Judaism. Some of these readers become theologians who refine and develop the anti-Semitic character of Christian theology (they may even be unaware of the built-in anti-Semitism); while others become anti-Semitic activists who persecute Jews, thinking that by so doing they are serving God. This vicious circle must be broken. The Jewish New Testament, by removing centuries-old anti-Semitic theological biases and positively stressing Jewishness, has contributed to doing so, and now the Complete Jewish Bible continues this effort.

Jewish Misgivings About the Gospel. Second, while there are between 100,000 and 500,000 Messianic Jews in the English-speaking countries (and possibly twice as many in the world — the figures are very uncertain because they depend on whom one counts as Jewish and whom one counts as Messianic), it is obvious that most of the world's 13-to-17 million Jewish people do not accept Yeshua as the Messiah. While the reasons include Christian persecution of Jews, secular worldviews that allow little place for either God or a Messiah, and, as with non-Jews, refusal to turn from sin, a major cause is the perception by Jews that the Gospel is irrelevant to them. This perceived irrelevancy arises partly from the way Christianity presents itself, but also from the alienation induced by most New Testament translations. With their Gentile Christian cultural trappings and their anti-Jewish theological underpinnings, they lead many Jews to see the New Testament as a Gentile book about a Gentile god. The Jesus portrayed therein seems to bear little relationship to Jewish life. It becomes hard for a Jew to experience Yeshua the Messiah as who he really is, namely, a friend to every Jewish heart. While the Jewish New Testament and the Complete Jewish Bible cannot eliminate all the barriers between every Jew and his faith in the Messiah, they do remove some of the linguistic, cultural and theological obstacles. A Jewish person reading the JNT or the CJB should be able to see clearly that Yeshua is indeed the Messiah promised by the Tanakh to the Jewish people, that the B'rit Hadashah is for Jews as much as for Gentiles, and that the message of the Bible as a whole, both testaments together, is true, important and worthy of acceptance, the key to both individual and Jewish national salvation.

The Split Between the Messianic Community and the Jewish People.

Finally, centuries of Jewish rejection of Yeshua and Christian rejection of Jews has produced today's conventional wisdom that Christianity is Christianity, and Judaism is Judaism, and never the twain shall meet. Moreover, many Jews and Christians are perfectly satisfied with this arrangement. Most Jews accept the false assumption that receiving Yeshua as the Messiah implies ceasing to be a Jew, so that if Jews do this in significant numbers, it is equivalent to annihilation of themselves as a people and—as Jewish philosopher Emil Fackenheim put it—giving Hitler a posthumous victory. But it was never meant to be so, never God's will that for a Jew to believe in Yeshua meant that he could no longer be Jewish, and never God's will that there be two separate peoples of God, the Jews and the Christians. Yet only in the past two or three decades, with the emergence of Messianic Judaism and this movement's acceptance by significant parts of the Church, has there developed an effective institutional framework for preserving the identity of the Jewish people within the Messianic Community. Gentile Christians who recognize that they have joined Israel, not replaced it, and Messianic Jews who identify fully with both the Jewish people and the Jewish Messiah, Yeshua, are now working together to heal the split between the Church and the Jewish people. The Complete Jewish Bible with the Jewish New Testament are forwarding this great work by presenting Jews and Gentiles alike with the Jewish unity of the Tanakh and the B'rit Hadashah.

XII. HOW THE COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE EXPRESSES THE B'RIT HADASHAH'S JEWISHNESS

Three Ways of Bringing Out the Jewishness of the B'rit Hadashah. This translation accomplishes its goal of bringing out the Jewishness of the B'rit Hadashah in three somewhat overlapping ways — cosmetically (or superficially), culturally and religiously, and theologically.

- Cosmetically. Cosmetic changes from the usual renderings are the most frequent and obvious. The names “Jesus,” “John,” “James” and “Peter” never appear, only “Yeshua,” “Yochanan,” “Ya‘akov” and “Kefa.” The terms “immersion,” “emissary,” “execution-stake” and “Messianic community” (or “congregation”) replace “baptism,” “apostle,” “cross” and “church.” Semitic terms which belong to “Jewish English” (see below) substitute for certain English words — for example, “talmid” instead of “disciple” and “do tzedakah” instead of “give to charity.” Many of these alterations replace “church language,” in which buzzwords produce automatic responses, with neutral terminology that encourages the reader to think. Although any one of these changes is superficial, the sheer quantity of them impresses on the reader that the B’rit Hadashah is indeed a Jewish book, and this true and genuine effect is not superficial.

- Culturally and Religiously. Cultural-religious changes strengthen the reader’s awareness of the Jewish cultural or religious context in which events of the B’rit Hadashah took place. One example is at Mattityahu 9:20, where the lady seeking to be healed touches not merely the “fringe” or “edge” of Yeshua’s robe, but his “tzitzit,” the ritual tassel which the Torah instructs Jewish men to wear on the corners of their garments as a reminder to obey all of God’s mitzvot (commandments).<sup>60</sup> Another is at Acts 20:7, where the evening meeting of Sha’ul with the believers in Ephesus on (literally) “the one of the week,” usually rendered, “the first day of the week,” was probably held not on Sunday but, reflecting the Jewish, biblical way of organizing the calendar, on “Motza’ei-Shabbat,” that is, “the going-out of the Sabbath,” which takes place Saturday night.
- Theologically. Theological changes are the most penetrating, since New Testament translating has been thoroughly permeated by Gentile Christian theologies which de-emphasize the Jews as still God’s people, the Torah as still valid, and God as still One. An example of such a change is at Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 8:6, where the Greek word nenomothetêtai means not merely that the New Covenant “has been enacted” on the basis of better promises, but on those promises “has been made Torah” Another is at Romans 10:4, where the word telos does not mean that the Messiah terminates the Law, but that he is “the goal at which the Torah aims.” Theological implications of these and some other CJB New Testament renderings are discussed in Section XIII below.

“Jewish English.” Besides systematically using the original Semitic names for persons and places in and near the land of Israel the Complete Jewish Bible’s New Testament draws on what I call “Jewish English,” defined as Hebrew and Yiddish expressions which many English-speaking Jews incorporate into everyday speech. While meant to bring the Jewishness of the B’rit Hadashah into clearer focus, some readers may find this aspect of the translation unfamiliar or anachronistic and therefore exhausting or jarring; or they may take exception to particular decisions — for example, to using the word “shalom” instead of “peace,” or “talmid” instead of “disciple,” or the Yiddish word “tsuris” instead of “troubles” — or to generally not using “Mashiach” in place of “Messiah.” I expect such objections, because “Jewish English” is an ad hoc concept, so that each English-speaking Jew creates his own version of it. Some Jews are unaware of these speech patterns. Some regard certain phrases as second nature but are unacquainted with others. Some who know the expressions may find them uncongenial in a Bible, while others may tire from seeing too many unfamiliar terms scattered through the book. But since “Jewish English” in its manifold variety is widely used, I appeal for tolerance of those elements included in the CJB.

However, there are more Hebrew terms and more “Jewish English” in the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah than in its Tanakh because, as I indicated earlier, I don’t need to stress the Tanakh’s Jewishness. True, all the names in the Tanakh are presented in their Hebrew form, more than three thousand of them; and this may be difficult for some readers. But it shouldn’t be any harder to say “Achazyah” than “Ahaziah” or “Ya‘akov” than “Jacob”; and it seems more authentic to point readers toward the actual Hebrew names than toward the English mispronunciations of them! To help out, I have included Section XVI below on how to pronounce Hebrew; and at the end is an Pronouncing Explanatory Glossary which defines the terms, in addition to showing their pronunciation.

Jewish New Testament Commentary. I mentioned in Section I that I wrote the Jewish New Testament Commentary as a companion volume to the Jewish New Testament. This verse-by-verse commentary, which can be used with the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah, defends controversial B’rit Hadashah renderings and provides background of interest to both Jews and Christians. Passages which are problematical from a Jewish viewpoint are treated, such as Mattityahu 27:25 “His blood is on us and on our children!” and Yochanan’s remarks in his gospel about “the Jews” (in my translation frequently “the Judeans”). Likewise, present-day points of friction between Jews and Christians are discussed at some appropriate place — for instance, the issue of whether evangelizing Jews is in principle unethical is treated in the context of 2 Corinthians 4:2 “We refuse to make use of shameful underhanded methods, employing deception or distorting God’s message.”). Section XIII below deals briefly with a few topics of this kind, providing a taste of what Jewish New Testament Commentary readers can expect in its 930 pages.

Minor Differences between the Jewish New Testament and the Complete Jewish Bible’s B’rit Hadashah. My “fans,” the people who have come to know and like the Jewish New Testament, may notice some minor differences between the JNT and the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah. Actually, there would have been more of them had I not felt constrained to make as few modifications as possible for two reasons: (1) there may be public reading at congregation meetings and Bible studies where some will have this book and others will have the JNT, so that too many differences would cause confusion; and (2) I want this book to be easily usable with the Jewish New Testament Commentary, which is keyed to the JNT; again, differences might confuse JNTC users. So I limited changes primarily to conforming the spelling of some words to the pattern I decided on for the CJB’s Tanakh; in particular, no Hebrew names or terms that begin with the Hebrew letter het start with “ch”; see Section XVI below. The word “Adonai” is now printed in large and small capital letters, as explained in Section X. I also reformatted some of the poetry. There are a very few textual changes.

This is also why I did not respond to the desire of a number of readers that I reduce my use of Yiddish words in the text of the B’rit Hadashah. For them the Yiddish did not enhance the New Testament’s Jewishness but intruded an anachronistic element — it made them think not of Bible times but of the Eastern European shtetl (rural Jewish village where Yiddish was spoken). Also, because Yiddish often has a humorous valence for English-speakers, it demeaned for them the seriousness of God’s Word. Although there are only eleven purely Yiddish words in the JNT, and most of them are used only once, they are admittedly a strong spice. In their favor is the fact that they do convey the sense of the Greek original as well as or better than equivalent English words.

I also left unchanged the names which include the Hebrew words “Bar” and “Ben” (son of) and “Bat” (daughter of), even though in the Tanakh I use the English equivalents. Because these words are used so often in the Hebrew genealogies and elsewhere, too many “Bens” would overly disrupt the flow of the English.

XIII. REASONS FOR CERTAIN B’RIT HADASHAH RENDERINGS

A number of the renderings in the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah differ from those found in most versions of the New Testament and have significant implications for theology. While there is not space in the CJB to defend all the controversial renderings and outline their theological implications, the following material is intended to demonstrate that such defenses exist, and it constitutes a sample of what is discussed more fully in the Jewish New Testament Commentary. Much of this material is presented topically in my Messianic Jewish Manifesto, or its abridgement, Restoring the Jewishness of the Gospel: A Message for Christians.<sup>61</sup>

Did Yeshua “Fill” or “Fulfill” the Torah? The common Greek word plerôsai means “to fill.” At Mattityahu 5:17 most translations render it “to fulfill.” The theological implication often drawn is that Yeshua fulfilled all the prophecies of the Tanakh, so that none remain today for the Jews, and that he obeyed every relevant Torah command, so that no one needs to observe the Torah today. But these conclusions do not follow logically, and in fact they contradict Yeshua’s immediately preceding statement that he did not come to abolish (or destroy) the Torah. More fundamental, however, is the translation issue of whether plerôsai ought to be rendered “to fulfill” at all. My view<sup>62</sup> is that Yeshua came not to fulfill, but to fill the Torah and the ethical pronouncements of the Prophets full with their complete meaning, so that everyone can know all that obedience entails. For this reason the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah says that Yeshua came “not to abolish but to complete.” In fact, this is the theme of the entire Sermon on the Mount;<sup>63</sup> and Mattityahu 5:17, understood in this way, is its theme sentence; for Yeshua goes on from there to give specifics. Interestingly, this understanding is concordant with Jewish tradition, which says that when the Messiah comes he will both explain obscure passages of Torah and actually change it.

Binding and Loosing: Who Has the Authority to Determine Halakhah?

At Mattityahu 18:18 the Greek words usually rendered “bind” and “loose” are translated “prohibit” and “permit.” This reflects the first-century Jewish application of these concepts to their leaders, who were understood as having authority from God to decide what practices should be followed by the community, i.e., to determine halakhah (“Jewish law,” although this meaning dates from a later period). In verses 18–20 the Messiah transfers this power from the rabbis to his own talmidim (disciples). This authority was not assumed instantaneously,<sup>64</sup> nor was it assumed later when it should have been. But the fact that Messianic Jews and Gentiles have hitherto made little use of Yeshua’s far-reaching grant of authority does not cancel it. Moreover, this understanding gives verses 19–20 a different meaning from what most Christians understand—they say that two or three Messianic Community leaders suffice to determine proper practice (Messianic halakhah). The usual Christian application is that when two or three believers pray together, God listens. Though true, it is not the point of these verses.

Does the Messiah Bring the Torah to an End, or Is He Its Goal? At Romans 10:4 the King James Version gives a translation typical of most versions: “For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth.” But Greek telos, which gives us the English word “teleology,” usually means “goal, purpose, consummation,” not “termination.” The Messiah did not bring the Torah to an end. Rather, as the CJB’s B’rit Hadashah renders it, “the goal at which the Torah aims is the Messiah, who offers righteousness to everyone who trusts.” This is the point which Sha’ul is making in the entire passage, Romans 9:30–10:13. For this reason the Greek word de at the beginning of Romans 10:6 is rendered as a continuative, “moreover,” rather than as an adversative, “but”; for the latter could imply that there are two paths to righteousness—through deeds (i.e., obeying the Torah apart from faith, verse 5) and through faith (verses 6–10). However, Sha’ul’s point throughout the passage, and indeed throughout Romans, is that for Jews and Gentiles alike there has never been more than one route to righteousness, namely, trusting God; so that the Torah is built on trusting God and from beginning to end has always required faith.<sup>65</sup>

The New Testament Has Been Given as Torah. At Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 8:6 most translations inform us that the New Covenant has been “enacted” or “legislated” on the basis of better promises. This would be an adequate translation were the subject matter Athenian legislation or Roman decrees. But the Greek word used here, nenomothetêtai, is a compound of nomos, which can mean “law” generally but in the book of Messianic Jews always means the Torah specifically, and tithêmi, a common word meaning “put” or “place.” The only other appearance of nenomothetêtai in the New Testament is a few verses earlier, at 7:11, where all agree that it refers to the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai, as do the related words nomothesia (Romans 9:4) and nomothetês (Ya‘akov 4:12).

Therefore the CJB says that the New Covenant “has been given as Torah on the basis of better promises.” This not only strengthens the theological contention that the Torah remains in force, but makes it clear that the New Covenant given through Yeshua is Torah just as much as the Sinaitic Covenant given through Moshe.

“Works of the Law” and “Under the Law”: Is the Torah Legalistic? The Greek phrases erga nomou and upo nomon were coined by Sha’ul and used by him in three of his letters — Romans, Galatians and 1 Corinthians; each appears ten times in the New Testament. They are usually translated “works of the law” and “under the law,” respectively. This often causes the reader to infer that keeping the Torah is bad, and that being within the framework of Torah-observance is bad. The CJB’s B’rit Hadashah, following the lead of Cranfield,<sup>66</sup> takes these phrases as referring not to the Torah itself but to man’s legalistic perversion of it. Therefore erga nomou is rendered, “legalistic observance of Torah commands,” and upo nomon, “in subjection to the system which results from perverting the Torah into legalism.” The reader can then infer, correctly, that according to the New Testament teaching of Sha’ul, legalism — whether Jewish, Christian or other — is bad, but living according to God’s Torah is good.

The Land of Israel in the New Covenant. The Greek phrase ê gê is usually translated “the earth,” but eighteen times in the New Testament it refers to the land of Israel. Two are explicit — Mattityahu 2:20–21 calls the Holy Land Eretz-Yisra’el (the land of Isra’el). Four are citations from the Tanakh — Mattityahu 5:5 (Psalm 37:11), Mattityahu 24:30 and Revelation 1:7 (Zechariah 12:10–14), and Ephesians 6:3 (Deuteronomy 5:16). Five are based on the Tanakh — Luke 4:25 and Ya’akov 5:17–18 (1 Kings 17:1, 18:1, 41–45), Messianic Jews 11:9 (Genesis 12, 13, 15, 20, 23), and Revelation 20:9 (Ezekiel 38–39). The remaining eight are implied by the context — Mattityahu 5:13, 10:34, 27:45; Mark 15:33; Luke 12:51, 21:23, 23:44; and Revelation 11:10. In an age when many Christian theologians use “replacement theology” (which asserts that the Church has replaced the Jews as God’s people) in an attempt to prove that the land of Isra’el is no longer promised by God to the Jewish people, it is important to see that the physical land of Israel plays a significant role in the New Testament’s portrayals of God’s plan for the Jews in particular and for humanity in general, past, present and future.

XIV. TANAKH PROPHECIES FULFILLED BY YESHUA THE MESSIAH

As noted in Section XI, the most convincing evidence of Yeshua’s being Isra’el’s Messiah is the number of prophecies in the Tanakh that he fulfilled at his first coming. Following is a partial list of these Messianic prophecies, along with the New Testament verses verifying Yeshua’s fulfillment of them.

Space does not permit showing why each of these prophecies should be understood as referring to Yeshua the Messiah. Many books discuss this subject in detail, mentioning other Tanakh prophecies which point to Yeshua.<sup>67</sup>

Besides prophecies there are incidents in the Tanakh which function as pictures in advance, or “types,” of Yeshua. What is known in Judaism as the akedah (“binding”), the near-sacrifice of Yitz’chak by Avraham, is explicitly called a type of Yeshua the Messiah at Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 11:17–19. The life of Yosef provides another example: his brothers tried to kill him, but in the end he saved them from death, even though they did not recognize him at first. This does not mean that Genesis 22 contains a “prophecy” that Yeshua would be raised from the dead, or that Genesis 37–45 states that the Jewish people, as a nation, would initially reject their Savior. Rather it shows that God’s salvation plan unfolding itself in history has a unity determined by him from the beginning to be consummated in Yeshua the Messiah. Indeed Yeshua himself explained it this way to two of his talmidim.<sup>68</sup>

PROPHECY: THE MESSIAH MUST. . .	SOURCE IN THE TANAKH	FULFILLMENT IN THE B’RIT HADASHAH
Be the “seed of the woman” that would “bruise” or “crush” the serpent’s “head”	Genesis 3:15	Galatians 4:4; 1 Yochanan 3:8
Be the “seed of Avraham”	Genesis 12:3	Mattityahu 1:1; Acts 3:25; Galatians 3:16
Be the “seed of Yitz’chak”	Genesis 17:19; 21:12	Mattityahu 1:2; Luke 3:34; Messianic Jews 11:17–19
Be the “seed of Ya‘akov” and the “star out of Ya‘akov” who will “have dominion”	Genesis 28:14; Numbers 24:17, 19	Mattityahu 1:2; Luke 3:34; Revelation 22:16
Be a descendant of Y’hudah	Genesis 49:10	Mattityahu 1:2–3; Luke 3:33; Messianic Jews 7:14
Be a descendant of David and heir to his throne	2 Samuel 7:12–13; Isaiah 9:6(7); 11:1–5; Jeremiah 23:5	Mattityahu 1:1, 6; Acts 13:22– 23; Romans 1:3
Have eternal existence	Micah 5:1(2)	Yochanan 1:1, 14; 8:58; Ephesians 1:3–4; Colossians 1:15–19; Revelation 1:18
Be the Son of God	Psalm 2:7; Proverbs 30:4	Mattityahu 3:17; Luke 1:32
Have God’s own name, Yud- Heh-Vav-Heh , applied to him	Isaiah 9:5–6(6–7); Jeremiah 23:5–6	Philippians 2:9–11
Come 69 x 7 years (483 years) after the rebuilding of the wall of Yerushalayim	Daniel 9:24–26	Mattityahu 2:1, 16, 19; Luke 3:1, 23
Be born of a virgin <sup>69</sup>	Isaiah 7:14	Mattityahu 1:18–2:1; Luke 1:26–35
Be born in Beit-Lechem, in Y’hudah	Micah 5:1(2)	Mattityahu 2:1; Luke 2:4–7
Be adored by great persons	Psalm 72:10–11	Mattityahu 2:1–11
Be preceded by one who would announce him	Isaiah 40:3–5; Malachi 3:1	Mattityahu 3:1–3; Luke 1:17; 3:2–6
Be anointed with the Spirit of God	Isaiah 11:2, 61:1; Psalm 45:8(7)	Mattityahu 3:16; Yochanan 3:34; Acts 10:38
Be a prophet like Moshe	Deuteronomy 18:15, 18	Acts 3:20–22
Have a ministry of binding up the brokenhearted, proclaiming liberty to the	Isaiah 61:1–2	Luke 4:18–19

captives and announcing the acceptable year of the Lord
Have a ministry of healing	Isaiah 35:5–6; 42:18	Mattityahu 11:5; throughout the Gospels
Have a ministry in the Galil	Isaiah 8:23–9:1(9:1–2)	Mattityahu 4:12–16
Be tender and compassionate	Isaiah 40:11; 42:3	Mattityahu 12:15, 20; Messianic Jews 4:15
Be meek and unostentatious	Isaiah 42:2	Mattityahu 12:15–16, 19
Be sinless and without guile	Isaiah 53:9	1 Kefa 2:22
Bear the reproaches due others	Isaiah 53:11–12; Psalm 69:10(9)	Romans 15:3
Be a priest	Psalm 110:4	Messianic Jews 5:5–6; 6:20; 7:15–17
Enter publicly into Yerushalayim on a donkey	Zechariah 9:9	Mattityahu 21:1–11; Mark 11:1–11
Enter the Temple with authority	Malachi 3:1	Mattityahu 21:12–24:1; Luke 2:27–38, 45–50; Yochanan 2:13–22
Be hated without cause	Isaiah 49:7; Psalm 69:5(4)	Yochanan 15:24–25
Be undesired and rejected by his own people	Isaiah 53:2–3; 63:3, 5; Psalm 69:9(8)	Mark 6:3; Luke 9:58; Yochanan 1:11; 7:3–5
Be rejected by the Jewish leadership	Psalm 118:22	Mattityahu 21:42; Yochanan 7:48
Be plotted against by Jews and Gentiles together	Psalm 2:1–2	Acts 4:27
Be betrayed by a friend	Psalm 41:10(9); 55:13–15(12–14)	Mattityahu 26:21–25, 47–50; Yochanan 13:18–21; Acts 1:16–18
Be sold for 30 pieces of silver	Zechariah 11:12	Mattityahu 26:15
Have his price thrown into the Temple treasury	Zechariah 11:13	Mattityahu 27:6–7
Be forsaken by his talmidim	Zechariah 13:7	Mattityahu 26:31, 56
Be struck on the cheek	Micah 4:14 (5:1)	Mattityahu 27:30
Be spat on	Isaiah 50:6	Mattityahu 26:67; 27:30
Be mocked	Psalm 22:8–9(7–8)	Mattityahu 26:67–68; 27:31, 39–44
Be beaten	Isaiah 50:6	Mattityahu 26:67; 27:26, 30
Be executed by crucifixion, by having his hands and feet pierced <sup>70</sup>	Psalm 22:17(16); Zechariah 12:10	Mattityahu 27:35; Luke 24:39; Yochanan 19:18, 34–37; 20:20–28; Revelation 1:7
Be thirsty during his execution	Psalm 22:16(15)	Yochanan 19:28
Be given vinegar to quench that thirst	Psalm 69:22(21)	Mattityahu 27:34

Be executed without having a bone broken	Exodus 12:46; Psalm 34:21(20)	Yochanan 19:33–36
Be considered a transgressor	Isaiah 53:12	Mattityahu 27:3; Luke 23:32
Be “cut off and have nothing...” 69 x 7 years after rebuilding of the wall of Jerusalem	Daniel 9:24–26	Romans 5:6; 1 Kefa 3:18
Be the one whose death would atone for sins of mankind	Isaiah 53:5–7, 12	Mark 10:45; Yochanan 1:29; 3:16; Acts 8:30–35
Be buried with the rich when dead	Isaiah 53:9	Mattityahu 27:57–60
Be raised from the dead	Isaiah 53:9–10; Psalm 2:7–8; 16:10	Mattityahu 28:1–20; Acts 2:23–36; 13:33–37; 1 Corinthians 15:4–6
Ascend to the right hand of God	Psalm 16:11; 68:19(18); 110:1	Luke 24:51; Acts 1:9–11; 7:55 Messianic Jews 1:3
Exercise his priestly office in heaven	Zechariah 6:13	Romans 8:34; Messianic Jews 7:25–8:2
Be the cornerstone of God’s Messianic Community	Isaiah 28:16; Psalm 118:22–23	Mattityahu 21:42; Ephesians 2:20; 1 Kefa 2:5–7
Be sought after by Gentiles as well as Jews	Isaiah 11:10; 42:1	Acts 10:45–46; 13:46–48
Be accepted by the Gentiles	Isaiah 11:10; 42:1–4; 49:1–6	Mattityahu 12:18–21; Romans 9:30; 10:20; 11:11; 15:10
Be the king	Psalm 2:6	Yochanan 18:33–37
Be seen by Israel as pierced <sup>71</sup>	Zechariah 12:10; Psalm 22:17(16)	Luke 24:39; Yochanan 19:34–37 Revelation 1:7

XV. SYNAGOGUE USAGE OF THE COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

Reading in the Synagogue from the Torah, the Prophets and the B’rit Hadashah. Every Saturday morning, in synagogues all over the world, Torah scrolls are ceremoniously removed from arks, carried through the aisles to be touched reverently by the congregants (the custom symbolizes devotion to the Word of God), and then placed on the bimah (pulpit). Seven persons are called up to recite blessings before and after they or more experienced readers read the sacred Hebrew text of the Torah from the scroll. The practice of public reading from the Torah dates back at least to the time of Ezra,<sup>72</sup> if not to King Y’hoshafat<sup>73</sup> or King Yoshiyahu;<sup>74</sup> and the B’rit Hadashah attests it as well.<sup>75</sup> The portion (parashah) read each week, anywhere between one and six chapters long, is not picked on the spur of the moment but follows a prescribed sequence tied to the Jewish year. Fifty-four parashot are read in order, commencing with B'resheet (Genesis) 1 on the autumn holiday Simchat-Torah (Rejoicing of the Torah) and ending with D'varim (Deuteronomy) 34 on Simchat-Torah the following year, when with great joy the scroll is immediately re-rolled, and B'resheet 1 is read again.

Moreover, the reading from the Bible does not end with the Torah portion. After the Torah, a related section from the Prophets is read; this is called the haftarah (completion), since it completes the prescribed synagogue Scripture reading. The B'rit Hadashah reports that in Natzeret (Nazareth) Yeshua was invited to read the haftarah, which that week was from the book of Isaiah, and he daringly applied the passage to himself.<sup>76</sup> In times past there was also a reading from the Writings section of the Bible, but this custom has fallen away.

Being called up to the bimah for the Torah reading is an honor. The Hebrew word for such an invitation is 'aliyah'; it means "going up." (The same word, 'aliyah', means "immigrating to Israel," since it is a spiritual "going up" for a Jew to return to the land God gave to our people.) The first 'aliyah is given to a cohen (priest) if one is present, the second to a Levi (Levite) if present, and the rest to any Jew. The 'oleh (the person called up for an 'aliyah) recites the blessing, stands at the bimah while he or the ba'al-kore (pronounced ba'al ko-ray — the master reader) reads from the scroll; he then recites the closing blessing, remains standing there during the following 'aliyah, shakes hands all around, and then returns to his seat. In Orthodox Judaism only men are given 'aliyot; in Conservative and Reform Judaism both men and women may be called up.

How the Complete Jewish Bible Provides the Necessary Information for Public Reading of the Bible in the Synagogue on Shabbat. The Complete Jewish Bible contains all the information (except Jewish calendar dates) that one needs in order to organize or follow the synagogue readings from the Torah and the Prophets. In addition, I have suggested readings from the B'rit Hadashah that are related to the parashah for each week. I chose them because they either quote or allude to a passage from the parashah or deal with the same subject matter. Since Messianic Judaism is in its formative stages and has not determined "prescribed readings," I have sometimes suggested more material than is needed. Congregations should choose a portion of appropriate length or substitute another passage if it seems more suitable.

At the beginning of each parashah the CJB gives its name and its included Bible verses. Like the books of the Tanakh themselves, each parashah is named for its first words (the English translation of these is supplied). At the end of each parashah are given its haftarah and B'rit Hadashah readings. The table starting on page 1616 summarizes this information for all 54 Shabbats.

Within each Torah portion are bold-face italicized Roman numerals from “ii” to “vii” indicating where each of the ‘aliyot begins (the first ‘aliyah begins at the start of the parashah). Near the end of the seventh ‘aliyah is the word “Maftir”; whoever is to read the haftarah starts by reading these final verses of the Torah portion from the scroll and then reads the Prophets portion from a printed edition of the Bible.

The prescribed readings differ somewhat between the Ashkenazic (European) and Sefardic (Middle Eastern and North African) Jewish communities; where necessary “A” and “S” indicate the differences.

The Jewish calendar also enters the picture. The Jewish calendar is unusual in that its months are lunar, but its year is solar. Since a lunar month is twenty-nine or thirty days long, twelve lunar months take about 354 days. To prevent the year from moving through the seasons (as the Muslim year does), there is a system for leap years; however, the leap year doesn’t add merely a day, but a whole month. This happens seven years out of nineteen—every two or three years the month of “Second Adar” is added in early spring. Thus in leap years, there are four or five more Shabbats than in regular years; so in leap years each of the fifty-four parashot is read separately, but in regular years, with only about fifty Shabbats, some of them are read together. The necessary adjustments are indicated where needed by the abbreviations “RY” for regular years and “LY” for leap years.

Messianic adaptations. At the end of the second, forty-eighth and forty-ninth parashot I have included a “Messianic adaptation” of the prescribed haftarah reading. For reasons not conclusively known, although some have speculated that it was in order to avoid the passage in the Tanakh that most clearly prophesies Yeshua as the Messiah, the rabbis of old did not select Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 52:13–53:12 to be a haftarah reading. The portions before and after are included, but this one is not. I can safely say that it expresses the will and spiritual discernment of the Messianic Jewish community that this passage should not be excluded from the haftarot in the synagogue.

Readings for Jewish Holidays. In addition, there are Torah and haftarah readings prescribed for each of the biblical holidays and for some other Jewish holidays and fast-days. The table starting on page 1616 lists these, along with suggested B'rit Hadashah readings, and with the same “Messianic adaptation” of two of the haftarot. Also it is suggested that the Torah readings for Yom Kippur add Leviticus 17 because of its verse 11, and that the haftarah for Tish‘ah B’Av include Zechariah 12.

The number of aliyot is different on the Holidays. On Yom Kippur morning there are six (except that if it falls on Shabbat, there are seven). On Rosh-HaShanah and the three festivals (Pesach, Shavu‘ot, and Sukkot) there are five. On Rosh-Hodesh (new moon, start of a month) and Hol-HaMo‘ed (middle days of the Sukkot and Pesach festivals) there are four. On Yom Kippur afternoon there are two plus the Maftir.

Blessings Before and After Reading from the B'rit Hadashah. The blessings pronounced before and after the Torah and haftarah readings can be found in virtually any siddur (Jewish prayerbook). Following is a suggested pair of prayers for before and after reading from the B'rit Hadashah:

Before:

Barukh attah ADONAI Eloheinu melekh-ha‘olam, asher natan lanu et Yeshua binkha k’meshichenu goalenu moshi’enu kapporatenu va’adonenu, ve’et sifrei B’rit heChadashah le ‘amenu ulekhoh ha’amim. Barukh attah ADONAI noten yeshu‘ah b’Yeshua HaMashiach.

Praised be you, O LORD our God, king of the universe, who has given us Yeshua your son as our Messiah, our redeemer, our savior, our atonement and our Lord, and the books of the New Covenant to our people and to all the peoples. Praised be you, O LORD, giver of salvation in Yeshua the Messiah.

After:

Barukh attah ADONAI Eloheinu melekh-ha'olam, asher natan et d'varkha haTanakh vaB'rit heChadashah lekhol b'nei-adam. Barukh attah ADONAI mevi et hago'el Yeshua l'ma'an sh'mo b'ahavah.

Praised be you, O LORD our God, king of the universe, who has given your Word, the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Covenant, to all humanity. Praised be you, O LORD, who, for his own name's sake, in love, has brought the Redeemer, Yeshua.

XVI. HOW TO PRONOUNCE THE HEBREW NAMES AND TERMS

There is a “Pronouncing Explanatory Glossary” at the back of the book which shows how to pronounce and accent each Hebrew name and term, gives the usual English forms of all names, and translates all terms. Its first page gives a brief summary of how I transliterate Hebrew into English.

There is also a “Reverse Glossary” for some of the more common English names and terms, from which the reader can learn that the person he is used to calling Isaac is known in the CJB as Yitz'chak, that Mary is called Miryam and that “crucify” is rendered as “execute on a stake (as a criminal).”

But a number of people familiar with the Jewish New Testament have complained that they felt overwhelmed trying to cope with its Hebrew. Therefore in this Section, I do what I can to help readers pronounce Hebrew correctly. I know that some will find it tedious, but others will appreciate my attention to the subject. It is the sort of thing one can safely skip and return to at one's convenience.

I transliterate Hebrew names and terms as most modern Israelis would pronounce them. There is a scholarly way to do this very accurately, but I haven't utilized it because it uses a number of signs that would look strange to most people, only adding to their confusion. Following is an explanation of my system.

Vowels. In my transliteration of Hebrew, the vowels are pronounced as follows:

Vowel	Pronunciation	Examples in Hebrew Words
a	as in “ f ather” (fah-ther)	Adam (ah- dahm )
ai	as in “ a isle,” a long-i sound, like “high,” “pie.” Not a long-a sound	Haggai (hah- guy ) El Shaddai ( el shah- die ) e	as in “ bed ,” a short-e sound “er” sounds like “air,” not “ur”	Hesed ( heh -sehd) Peretz ( peh -retz) Gershon (gehr- shone ) ee	as in “ feed ,” long-e	Sheetim (shee- teem ) ei	as in “ w eigh,” a long-a sound like “day,” “main.” Not a long-i or long-e sound.	‘Ein-Gedi ‘ain- geh -dee) Beit-Lechem (bait- leh -chehm)
i	when accented: as in ma rine, long-e when not accented: as in “ i nvest,” short-i; in last syllable, even if not accented, long-e	cohanim (ko-hah- neem ) Migdal (mig- dahl ) Gershuni (gehr- shoo -nee)
o	as in “ so ,” long-o, like “boat” or as in “ m ore” an “aw” sound	Gat-Rimmon (gaht-rim- moan ) Dor (door)
u	as in “ r ule,” an “oo” sound, like “shoot”	Hizkiyahu (hiz-kee- yah -hoo) Beit-Tzur (bait-tzoor)

’ I use the apostrophe in two ways — to represent the vowel sh’va (:) and the consonant alef (א—see next paragraph). The sh’va is an unaccented dull sort of vowel, an “uh” sound like the “a” in “above,” the second “i” in “similarly,” or the second “o” in “consonant.” Thus Hebrew “G’rar” is pronounced “guh-rahr.” The usual representation, Gerar, gets people to say “geh-rahr,” which isn’t quite right. Sometimes I represent a sh’va by nothing at all; but in this case, “Grar” doesn’t get people to leave quite enough space between the “g” and the “rar.” Similarly, “Y’hudah” should be pronounced somewhere between “yeh-hoo-dah” and “yoo-dah.” I use the apostrophe to represent sh’va only when I feel it’s needed to bring forth the right pronunciation; otherwise, I just leave it out; for example, I write “Gilgal,” not “Gil’gal”; “Shimshon,” not “Shim’shon.” In some cases it’s a hard call whether to stick in an apostrophe or not.

Consonants. The consonants are used and pronounced as follows:

’ As I said, the apostrophe represents the Hebrew letter alef (א) and the Hebrew vowel-sound sh’va (:). Alef is considered a consonant, but it’s best described as a slight break in the flow of sound, like the break between the two “uh’s” of “uh-uh,” which people say when they mean “No,” or the break between “umbrella” and “above” in “Put the umbrella above the table.” So in the Hebrew word “Pa’ran,” the apostrophe makes you separate the “Pa” from the “ran” instead of running the syllables together, which you would otherwise do (pah'-rahn, not parrahn). “Eli’el” is pronounced “elly-’el,” not “elliyell.” “Natan’el” is pronounced “nah-tan-ell,” not “nah-tah-nell.” When a word starts with alef I leave the apostrophe out; thus all transliterated Hebrew words that commence with English vowels start with alef; words commencing with a reverse apostrophe followed by an English vowel start with the Hebrew letter ‘ayin (ע—see next paragraph).

‘ The reverse-apostrophe represents Hebrew letter ‘ayin (ע—pronounced ‘ah-yin), when it isn’t signifying the start of a quote-within-a-quote. This is a glottal stop, a sound not found in English or other Western European languages. It’s a sound produced deep in the throat, a kind of gagging sound. English sometimes represents this sound by the letter “g,” as in “Gaza Strip” or “Gomorrah,” but that’s not really it. Arabic has it, but it’s a hard sound for westerners to produce. However, if nothing else works, make the break-sound for alef described in the preceding paragraph, and that will pass. Many Israelis do no better.

h and ch represent Hebrew letters heh (ה) and het (ח). The letter heh is always represented by “h,” ch since heh is the equivalent of English “h.” At the end of a word it is usually silent, as in English “Hurrah!” and elsewhere it has the ordinary English “h” sound, as in “horse” or “greyhound.” The Hebrew word Halleluyah has both kinds of heh. The het is what causes the problems. It has a guttural sound, like the “ch” in “Johann Sebastian Bach” and “Loch Lomond.” If it occurs in the middle of a word, I represent it by “ch,” as in “Beit-Lechem.” At the beginning of a word, however, I represent it by “h.” My reason is that otherwise, people may give it an English “ch” sound “church” or a French one (“Chanel #5”). Thus the reader can’t determine from the Complete Jewish Bible whether a Hebrew name starts with heh or het. This seems a small price to pay for assuring that no one will say that the Jewish wedding canopy (hupah) is a “tchoopah” or call the city of Hevron (Hebron) by the name of a gas station (“Chevron”).

- kh      represents Hebrew letter kaf (כ) when it’s a “soft” kaf. It too has the sound of “ch” in “Bach.”

- k, c      The letter “k” represents the Hebrew letter kuf (פ) and the letter kaf (כ) when it’s hard. I use the letter “c” for kaf in the word cohen (priest) because the name Cohen is so well known in English.

- g      represents the Hebrew letter gimel (ג) and is always hard, never a j-sound. Thus the “g” in “Gezer” is pronounced as in “get,” not as in “gem.”

- v, b      The letter “v” represents both vav (ו), when it’s a consonant, and soft bet (“vet”—ב), while “b” represents hard “bet” (ב).

- p, f      The letter “p” represents hard peh (פ), while “f” represents soft peh (“feh”—פ).

- z and tz      and The letter “z” represents zayin (ז); while the two letters “tz” represent tzadeh (צ), which has the sound of “ts” in “tsetse fly.”

- r      represents resh (ר), which ideally one should produce from the back of the mouth, somewhat as the French do, so that it sounds somewhere between “r” and hard “g.” If this doesn’t work for you, don’t worry about it.

- s      represents the letters samekh (ס) and sin (ש); both have the “s” sound.

- sh      sh The two letters “sh” represent the Hebrew letter shin (ש).

d, l, m, These represent, respectively, dalet (ד), lamed (ל), mem (מ), nun (נ), and yud (י) and present no problems.

t represents tet (ט) and tav (ת); both have the “t” sound. Ashkenazic pronunciation treats “tav” differently than Israeli (Sephardic) pronunciation—a “tav” at the end of a word will be pronounced “s” by Ashkenazim, who pronounce Shabbat Shab-bes, not Shab-bat.

Accentuation. The last example also highlights the fact that Ashkenazim often move the accent closer to the beginning of a word. For another example, the word Torah is pronounced “toe-rah” by Israelis, but Ashkenazim say “toe-rah,” and some with Polish or other eastern European background say “toy-rah.” The CJB glossary gives Israeli (Sephardic) accentings in nearly all cases; the exceptions are for words and names that are well-known among Jews in America, such as Moshe, which is pronounced “Mo-she” in Israel but “Mo-she” in America. In the glossary it appears as “Mo-she*”; the asterisk means, “If you want to say it the correct Israeli way, accent the last syllable.”

XVII. USING THE *COMPLETE JEWISH BIBLE

In this Section, I explain certain conventions I have adopted for the CJB and describe a number of reader’s helps.

Semitic Terms and Names. Hebrew, Aramaic and Yiddish terms (including names of God) appear in italics (bat-kol, El ‘Elyon), but Semitic names of persons and places do not (Shlomo, Ashdod). Thus “Levi” when it’s a Levite and “Levi” when it’s a person.

Textual Notes. In this edition of the CJB discussion of textual issues is kept to a minimum. About twenty passages in the B’rit Hadashah regarded as inauthentic by most scholars, none more than two verses in length, are absent from the text and placed in footnotes at the bottom of the page. Three passages—Mattityahu 6:13b, Mark 16:9–20 and Yochanan 7:53–8:11—are included in the text but given a footnote briefly explaining the textual problem. In the Tanakh there are fewer issues of this kind; they too are dealt with in footnotes. This edition offers almost no textual variants or alternative readings.

Translator's Interpolations. Words in brackets are explanatory interpolations supplied by the translator and corresponding to nothing in the original text. There are more of these in the Tanakh than in the B'rit Hadashah; however, two examples from the B'rit Hadashah are at Mattityahu (Matthew) 1:21; 6:23. Words in parentheses are parenthetical remarks that are present in the original text; for an example, see Mattityahu 1:23. Certain words or phrases in the original language may be represented by “expanded” renderings<sup>27</sup> which for philosophical reasons<sup>28</sup> are not distinguished from the rest of the translation. Let me say here that there are places in the CJB, especially in the Tanakh, where some might consider the rendering so free that it should have been placed in brackets. On such things opinions differ; but in any case, the reader has been warned.

Other Features. Following is a summary of reader's helps to be found at the front and back of the book:

Three Tables of Contents for the Books of the Bible (pages vii–xi). At the front of the book are three tables of contents to help readers with varying backgrounds to locate Bible books quickly. The first lists the books of the Tanakh in the Jewish order found in Hebrew Bibles and Jewish translations, and in the CJB itself. The second lists them in the order found in the Septuagint and seen in virtually all Christian translations. The third lists all the books of the Bible in alphabetical order by both English and Hebrew names.

Pronouncing Explanatory Glossary (pages 1556–1604). At the back of the book are five items. The first is a comprehensive glossary of Hebrew, Aramaic and Yiddish words and names used in the CJB. Its first page summarizes rules of Hebrew pronunciation (Section XVI above deals with this in more detail). The definitions and explanations vary in length from one line to a paragraph. More information is provided for names and terms in the B'rit Hadashah than for those which appear only in the Tanakh; this is because these entries already existed in the Jewish New Testament, but I decided that providing similar entries for the names and terms in the Tanakh would make the Glossary too long.

“Reverse” Glossary (pages 1605–1609). Readers acquainted with the Bible in other versions may wish to know what the CJB substitutes for names and terms familiar to them. In the Reverse Glossary one may look up words such as “apostle” and “John” to find their CJB equivalents (“emissary” and “Yochanan”).

Tanakh* Passages Cited in the B’rit Hadashah (pages 1610–1615). In order to highlight the connection between the New Testament and the Tanakh, on which it builds, Tanakh verses cited in the B’rit Hadashah are printed there in boldface and their sources given in footnotes at the bottom of the page. The chapter-and-verse numberings and the order of the books of the Tanakh within a given footnote are those found in the CJB’s Tanakh. Where the Christian versions (and some Jewish ones) have a different chapter and verse, these are given afterwards in parentheses, e.g., Joel 3:1–5(2:28–32), Psalm 69:9(8).

The “Index of Tanakh Passages Cited in the B’rit Hadashah” lists every one of the 484 Tanakh verses cited in the text of the B’rit Hadashah and shows for each one all the verses in the B’rit Hadashah citing that Tanakh verse.

Scripture Readings (pages 1616–1623). As explained in Section XV above, these two tables list synagogue readings from the Torah, the Prophets and the B’rit Hadashah for the fifty-four Shabbats and for the festivals and fasts throughout the Jewish calendar year.

Maps and Map Indexes (pages 1624–1631). The Bible narratives are tied to particular places, but it is beyond the scope of the CJB to provide more than the limited geographical information found in the five maps of this section.

XVIII. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My wife Martha has been of inestimable value to me in preparing this version. Besides her encouragement and self-sacrifice in general, she checked the entire second draft of the Tanakh with me word for word, as I read it aloud from the computer screen. Ten years earlier she had similarly read the Jewish New Testament with me. She is truly an eshet-chayil (“a capable wife,” Proverbs 31:10–31) and an ezer k’negdi “a companion suitable for helping me,” Genesis 2:18).

Barry Rubin and Steffi Rubin have been our friends for over twenty years. Barry, who directs Lederer/Messianic Jewish Communications, also manages Jewish New Testament Publications, Inc. Steffi, a fine artist, typeset the entire Complete Jewish Bible. We appreciate their work and friendship.

Paul Ellingworth, translation consultant for the United Bible Societies, spent three weeks with me reviewing an early version of the Jewish New Testament. His advice improved my translation and I thank him for it.

Many others have contributed in ways that have improved this version, and I thank them, too.

Finally, thanks to my God, the God of Avraham, Yitzchak and Ya'akov, and to his Messiah Yeshua, my and the Jewish people's Savior and Lord. Barukh attah, ADONAI Eloheynu, Melekh-ha'olam, shehecheyanu v'kimanu v'higianu lazman hazeh! ("Praised be you, LORD our God, King of the universe, who has kept us alive, preserved us and enabled us to arrive at this point in time!")

May God bless you richly as you read from his Word in this version.

DAVID H. STERN

Jerusalem, Israel
Passover 5758 (April 1998)

B'resheet

GENESIS

Parashah 1: B'resheet (In the beginning) 1:1–6:8

1 <sup>1</sup> In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup> The earth was unformed and void, darkness was on the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God hovered over the surface of the water. <sup>3</sup> Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. <sup>4</sup> God saw that the light was good, and God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup> God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. So there was evening, and there was morning, one day.

<sup>6</sup> God said, “Let there be a dome in the middle of the water; let it divide the water from the water.” <sup>7</sup> God made the dome and divided the water under the dome from the water above the dome; that is how it was, <sup>8</sup> and God called the dome Sky. So there was evening, and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>9</sup> God said, “Let the water under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let dry land appear,” and that is how it was. <sup>10</sup> God called the dry land Earth, the gathering together of the water he called Seas, and God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup> God said, “Let the earth put forth grass, seed-producing plants, and fruit trees, each yielding its own kind of seed-bearing fruit, on the earth”; and that is how it was. <sup>12</sup> The earth brought forth grass, plants each yielding its own kind of seed, and trees each producing its own kind of seed-bearing fruit; and God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup> So there was evening, and there was morning, a third day.

(A: ii) <sup>14</sup> God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to divide the day from the night; let them be for signs, seasons, days and years; <sup>15</sup> and let them be for lights in the dome of the sky to give light to the earth”; and that is how it was. <sup>16</sup> God made the two great lights — the larger light to rule the day and the smaller light to rule the night — and the stars. <sup>17</sup> God put them in the dome of the sky to give light to the earth, <sup>18</sup> to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup> So there was evening, and there was morning, a fourth day.

<sup>20</sup> God said, “Let the water swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open dome of the sky.” <sup>21</sup> God created the great sea creatures and every living thing that creeps, so that the water swarmed with all kinds of them, and there was every kind of winged bird; and God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup> Then God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful, multiply and fill the water of the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” <sup>23</sup> So there was evening, and there was morning, a fifth day.

(A: iii) <sup>24</sup> God said, “Let the earth bring forth each kind of living creature — each kind of livestock, crawling animal and wild beast”; and that is how it was. <sup>25</sup> God made each kind of wild beast, each kind of livestock and every kind of animal that crawls along the ground; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup> Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, in the likeness of ourselves; and let them rule over the fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the animals, and over all the earth, and over every crawling creature that crawls on the earth.”

<sup>27</sup> So God created humankind in his own image;

in the image of God he created him:

male and female he created them.

<sup>28</sup> God blessed them: God said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea, the birds in the air and every living creature that crawls on the earth.” <sup>29</sup> Then God said, “Here! Throughout the whole earth I am giving you as food every seed-bearing plant and every tree with seed-bearing fruit. <sup>30</sup> And to every wild animal, bird in the air and creature crawling on the earth, in which there is a living soul, I am giving as food every kind of green plant.” And that is how it was.

<sup>31</sup> God saw everything that he had made, and indeed it was very good. So there was evening, and there was morning, a sixth day.

2 <sup>1</sup> Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, along with everything in them. <sup>2</sup> On the seventh day God was finished with his work which he had made, so he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. <sup>3</sup> God blessed the seventh day and separated it as holy; because on that day God rested from all his work which he had created, so that it itself could produce.

(A: iv, S: ii) <sup>4</sup> Here is the history of the heavens and the earth when they were created. On the day when ADONAI, God, made earth and heaven, <sup>5</sup> there was as yet no wild bush on the earth, and no wild plant had as yet sprung up; for ADONAI, God, had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no one to cultivate the ground. <sup>6</sup> Rather, a mist went up from the earth which watered the entire surface of the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Then ADONAI, God, formed a person [Hebrew: adam] from the dust of the ground [Hebrew: adamah] and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, so that he became a living being. <sup>8</sup> ADONAI, God, planted a garden toward the east, in 'Eden, and there he put the person whom he had formed. <sup>9</sup> Out of the ground ADONAI, God, caused to grow every tree pleasing in appearance and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup> A river went out of 'Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided into four streams. <sup>11</sup> The name of the first is Pishon; it winds throughout the land of Havilah, where there is gold. <sup>12</sup> The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin and onyx stone are also found there. <sup>13</sup> The name of the second river is Gichon; it winds throughout the land of Kush. <sup>14</sup> The name of the third river is Tigris; it is the one that flows toward the east of Ashur. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup> ADONAI, God, took the person and put him in the garden of 'Eden to cultivate and care for it. <sup>16</sup> ADONAI, God, gave the person this order: "You may freely eat from every tree in the garden <sup>17</sup> except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. You are not to eat from it, because on the day that you eat from it, it will become certain that you will die."

<sup>18</sup> ADONAI, God, said, "It isn't good that the person should be alone. I will make for him a companion suitable for helping him." <sup>19</sup> So from the ground ADONAI, God, formed every wild animal and every bird that flies in the air, and he brought them to the person to see what he would call them. Whatever the person would call each living creature, that was to be its name. (S: iii) <sup>20</sup> So the person gave names to all the livestock, to the birds in the air and to every wild animal. But for Adam there was not found a companion suitable for helping him.

<sup>21</sup> Then God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the person; and while he was sleeping, he took one of his ribs and closed up the place from which he took it with flesh. <sup>22</sup> The rib which ADONAI, God, had taken from the person, he made a woman-person; and he brought her to the man-person. <sup>23</sup> The man-person said, "At last! This is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh. She is to be called Woman [Hebrew: ishah], because she was taken out of Man [Hebrew: ish]." <sup>24</sup> This is why a man is to leave his father and mother and stick with his wife, and they are to be one flesh.

<sup>25</sup> They were both naked, the man and his wife, and they were not ashamed.

3 <sup>1</sup> Now the serpent was more crafty than any wild animal which ADONAI, God, had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You are not to eat from any tree in the garden'?" <sup>2</sup> The woman answered the serpent, "We may eat from the fruit of the trees of the garden, <sup>3</sup> but about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said, 'You are neither to eat from it nor touch it, or you will die.'" <sup>4</sup> The serpent said to the woman, "It is not true that you will surely die; <sup>5</sup> because God knows that on the day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." <sup>6</sup> When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it had a pleasing appearance and that the tree was desirable for making one wise, she took some of its fruit and ate. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her; and he ate. <sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together to make themselves loincloths.

<sup>8</sup> They heard the voice of ADONAI, God, walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, so the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of ADONAI, God, among the trees in the garden. <sup>9</sup> ADONAI, God, called to the man, "Where are you?" <sup>10</sup> He answered, "I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, so I hid myself." <sup>11</sup> He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree from which I ordered you not to eat?" <sup>12</sup> The man replied, "The woman you gave to be with me — she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." <sup>13</sup> ADONAI, God, said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman answered, “The serpent tricked me, so I ate.”

<sup>14</sup> ADONAI, God, said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all livestock and wild animals. You will crawl on your belly and eat dust as long as you live. <sup>15</sup> I will put animosity between you and the woman, and between your descendant and her descendant; he will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel.”

<sup>16</sup> To the woman he said, “I will greatly increase your pain in childbirth. You will bring forth children in pain. Your desire will be toward your husband, but he will rule over you.”

<sup>17</sup> To Adam he said, “Because you listened to what your wife said and ate from the tree about which I gave you the order, ‘You are not to eat from it,’ the ground is cursed on your account; you will work hard to eat from it as long as you live. <sup>18</sup> It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat field plants. <sup>19</sup> You will eat bread by the sweat of your forehead till you return to the ground — for you were taken out of it: you are dust, and you will return to dust.”

<sup>20</sup> The man called his wife Havah [life], because she was the mother of all living.

<sup>21</sup> ADONAI, God, made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them.

(A: v, S: iv) <sup>22</sup>ADONAI, God, said, “See, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, to prevent his putting out his hand and taking also from the tree of life, eating, and living forever —” <sup>23</sup> therefore ADONAI, God, sent him out of the garden of ‘Eden to cultivate the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup> So he drove the man out, and he placed at the east of the garden of ‘Eden the k’ruvim and a flaming sword which turned in every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 <sup>1</sup> The man had sexual relations with Havah his wife; she conceived, gave birth to Kayin [acquisition] and said, “I have acquired a man from ADONAI.” <sup>2</sup> In addition she gave birth to his brother Hevel. Hevel kept sheep, while Kayin worked the soil. <sup>3</sup> In the course of time Kayin brought an offering to ADONAI from the produce of the soil; <sup>4</sup> and Hevel too brought from the firstborn of his sheep, including their fat. ADONAI accepted Hevel and his offering <sup>5</sup> but did not accept Kayin and his offering. Kayin was very angry, and his face fell. <sup>6</sup> ADONAI said to Kayin, “Why are you angry? Why so downcast? <sup>7</sup> If you are doing what is good, shouldn’t you hold your head high? And if you don’t do what is good, sin is crouching at the door — it wants you, but you can rule over it.” <sup>8</sup> Kayin had words with Hevel his brother; then one time, when they were in the field, Kayin turned on Hevel his brother and killed him.

<sup>9</sup> ADONAI said to Kayin, “Where is Hevel your brother?” And he replied, “I don’t know; am I my brother’s guardian?” <sup>10</sup> He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying out to me from the ground! <sup>11</sup> Now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood at your hands. <sup>12</sup> When you farm the ground it will no longer yield its strength to you. You will be a fugitive, wandering the earth.” <sup>13</sup> Kayin said to ADONAI, “My punishment is greater than I can bear. <sup>14</sup> You are banning me today from the land and from your presence. I will be a fugitive wandering the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.”

<sup>15</sup> ADONAI answered him, “Therefore, whoever kills Kayin will receive vengeance sevenfold,” and ADONAI put a sign on Kayin, so that no one who found him would kill him. <sup>16</sup> So Kayin left the presence of ADONAI and lived in the land of Nod [wandering], east of ‘Eden.

<sup>17</sup> Kayin had sexual relations with his wife; she conceived and gave birth to Hanokh. Kayin built a city and named the city after his son Hanokh. <sup>18</sup> To Hanokh was born ‘Irada. ‘Irada fathered Mechuya’el, Mechuya’el fathered Metusha’el, and Metusha’el fathered Lemekh.

(S: v) <sup>19</sup> Lemekh took himself two wives; the name of the one was ‘Adah, while the name of the other was Tzilah. <sup>20</sup> ‘Adah gave birth to Yaval; he was the ancestor of those who live in tents and have cattle. <sup>21</sup> His brother’s name was Yuval; and he was the ancestor of all who play lyre and flute. <sup>22</sup> Tzilah gave birth to Tuval-Kayin, who forged all kinds of tools from brass and iron; the sister of Tuval-Kayin was Na’amah. <sup>23</sup> Lemekh said to his wives, wives of Lemekh, hear what I say:

“‘Adah and Tzilah, listen to me;

I killed a man for wounding me,

a young man who injured me.

<sup>24</sup> If Kayin will be avenged sevenfold, then Lemekh seventy-sevenfold!”

<sup>25</sup> Adam again had sexual relations with his wife, and she gave birth to a son whom she named Shet [granted], “For God has granted me another seed in place of Hevel, since Kayin killed him.” <sup>26</sup> To Shet too was born a son, whom he called Enosh. That is when people began to call on the name of ADONAI.

5 (vi) <sup>1</sup> Here is the genealogy of Adam. On the day that God created man he made him in the likeness of God; <sup>2</sup> he created them male and female; he blessed them and called them Adam [humankind, man] on the day they were created. <sup>3</sup> After Adam lived 130 years he fathered a son like himself and named him Shet. <sup>4</sup> After Shet was born, Adam lived another 800 years and had both sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> In all, Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

<sup>6</sup> Shet lived 105 years and fathered Enosh. <sup>7</sup> After Enosh was born, Shet lived another 807 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup> In all, Shet lived 912 years; then he died.

<sup>9</sup> Enosh lived ninety years and fathered Kenan. <sup>10</sup> After Kenan was born, Enosh lived another 815 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> In all, Enosh lived 905 years; then he died.

<sup>12</sup> Kenan lived seventy years and fathered Mahalal’el. <sup>13</sup> After Mahalal’el was born, Kenan lived another 840 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup> In all, Kenan lived 910 years; then he died.

<sup>15</sup> Mahalal’el lived sixty-five years and fathered Yered. <sup>16</sup> After Yered was born, Mahalal’el lived another 830 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup> In all, Mahalal’el lived 895 years; then he died.

<sup>18</sup> Yered lived 162 years and fathered Hanokh. <sup>19</sup> After Hanokh was born, Yered lived 800 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup> In all, Yered lived 962 years; then he died.

<sup>21</sup> Hanokh lived sixty-five years and fathered Metushelach. <sup>22</sup> After Metushelach was born, Hanokh walked with God 300 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup> In all, Hanokh lived 365 years. <sup>24</sup> Hanokh walked with God, and then he wasn't there, because God took him.

(vii) <sup>25</sup> Metushelach lived 187 years and fathered Lemekh. <sup>26</sup> After Lemekh was born, Metushelach lived 782 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup> In all, Metushelach lived 969 years; then he died.

<sup>28</sup> Lemekh lived 182 years and fathered a son, <sup>29</sup> whom he called Noach [restful]; for he said, "This one will comfort us in our labor, in the hard work we do with our hands [to get what comes] from the ground that ADONAI cursed." <sup>30</sup> After Noach was born, Lemekh lived 595 years and had sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup> In all, Lemekh lived 777 years; then he died.

<sup>32</sup> Noach was 500 years old; and Noach fathered Shem, Ham and Yefet.

6 <sup>1</sup> In time, when men began to multiply on earth, and daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup> the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were attractive; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose. <sup>3</sup> ADONAI said, "My Spirit will not live in human beings forever, for they too are flesh; therefore their life span is to be 120 years." <sup>4</sup> The N'filim were on the earth in those days, and also afterwards, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them; these were the ancient heroes, men of renown.

(Maftir) <sup>5</sup> ADONAI saw that the people on earth were very wicked, that all the imaginings of their hearts were always of evil only. <sup>6</sup> ADONAI regretted that he had made humankind on the earth; it grieved his heart. <sup>7</sup> ADONAI said, "I will wipe out humankind, whom I have created, from the whole earth; and not only human beings, but animals, creeping things and birds in the air; for I regret that I ever made them." <sup>8</sup> But Noach found grace in the sight of ADONAI.

Haftarah B'resheet: Yesha'yahu (Isaiah) 42:5–43:10 (A); 42:5–21 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah B'resheet: Mattityahu (Matthew) 1:1–17; 19:3–9; Mark 10:1–12; Luke 3:23–38; Yochanan (John) 1:1–18; 1 Corinthians 6:15–20; 15:35–58; Romans 5:12–21; Ephesians 5:21–32; Colossians 1:14–17; 1

Timothy 2:11–15; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 1:1–3; 3:7–4:11; 11:1–7; 2 Kefa (2 Peter) 3:3–14; Revelation 21:1–5; 22:1–5

Parashah 2: Noach (Noah) 6:9–11:32

<sup>9</sup> Here is the history of Noach. In his generation, Noach was a man righteous and wholehearted; Noach walked with God. <sup>10</sup> Noach fathered three sons, Shem, Ham and Yefet. <sup>11</sup> The earth was corrupt before God, the earth was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup> God saw the earth, and, yes, it was corrupt; for all living beings had corrupted their ways on the earth.

<sup>13</sup> God said to Noach, “The end of all living beings has come before me, for because of them the earth is filled with violence. I will destroy them along with the earth. <sup>14</sup> Make yourself an ark of gofer-wood; you are to make the ark with rooms and cover it with pitch both outside and inside. <sup>15</sup> Here is how you are to build it: the length of the ark is to be 450 feet, its width seventy-five feet and its height forty-five feet. <sup>16</sup> You are to make an opening for daylight in the ark eighteen inches below its roof. Put a door in its side; and build it with lower, second and third decks.

<sup>17</sup> “Then I myself will bring the flood of water over the earth to destroy from under heaven every living thing that breathes; everything on earth will be destroyed. <sup>18</sup> But I will establish my covenant with you; you will come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife and your sons’ wives with you.

<sup>19</sup> “From everything living, from each kind of living being, you are to bring two into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they are to be male and female. <sup>20</sup> Of each kind of bird, each kind of livestock, and each kind of animal creeping on the ground, two are to come to you, so that they can be kept alive. <sup>21</sup> Also take from all the kinds of food that are eaten, and collect it for yourself; it is to be food for you and for them.” <sup>22</sup> This is what Noach did; he did all that God ordered him to do.

7 (ii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Noach, “Come into the ark, you and all your household; for I have seen that you alone in this generation are righteous before me. <sup>2</sup> Of every clean animal you are to take seven couples, and of the animals that are not clean, one couple; <sup>3</sup> also of the birds in the air take seven couples — in order to preserve their species throughout the earth. <sup>4</sup>

For in seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights; I will wipe out every living thing that I have made from the face of the earth.”<sup>5</sup> Noach did all that ADONAI ordered him to do.

<sup>6</sup> Noach was 600 years old when the water flooded the earth. <sup>7</sup> Noach went into the ark with his sons, his wife and his sons’ wives, because of the floodwaters. <sup>8</sup> Of clean animals, of animals that are not clean, of birds, and of everything that creeps on the ground, <sup>9</sup> couples, male and female, went in to Noach in the ark, as God had ordered Noach.

<sup>10</sup> After seven days the water flooded the earth. <sup>11</sup> On the seventeenth day of the second month of the 600th year of Noach’s life all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of the sky were opened. <sup>12</sup> It rained on the earth forty days and forty nights.

<sup>13</sup> On that same day Noach entered the ark with Shem, Ham and Yefet the sons of Noach, Noach’s wife and the three wives of his sons accompanying them; <sup>14</sup> they, and every animal of every species, all the livestock of every species, every animal that creeps on the ground of every species, and every bird of every species — all sorts of winged creatures. <sup>15</sup> They went in to Noach in the ark, couples from every kind of living thing that breathes. <sup>16</sup> Those that entered went in, male and female, from every kind of living being, as God had ordered him; and ADONAI shut him inside.

(iii) <sup>17</sup> The flood was forty days on the earth; the water grew higher and floated the ark, so that it was lifted up off the earth. <sup>18</sup> The water overflowed the earth and grew deeper, until the ark floated on the surface of the water. <sup>19</sup> The water overpowered the earth mightily; all the high mountains under the entire sky were covered; <sup>20</sup> the water covered the mountains by more than twenty-two-and-a-half feet. <sup>21</sup> All living beings that moved on the earth perished — birds, livestock, other animals, insects, and every human being, <sup>22</sup> everything in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life; whatever was on dry land died. <sup>23</sup> He wiped out every living thing on the surface of the ground — not only human beings, but livestock, creeping animals and birds in the air. They were wiped out from the earth; only Noach was left, along with those who were with him in the ark. <sup>24</sup> The water held power over the earth for 150 days.

8 <sup>1</sup> God remembered Noach, every living thing and all the livestock with him in the ark; so God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water began to go down. <sup>2</sup> Also the fountains of the deep and the windows of the sky were stopped, the rain from the sky was restrained, <sup>3</sup> and the water came back from completely covering the earth. It was after 150 days that the water went down. <sup>4</sup> On the seventeenth day of the seventh month the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup> The water kept going down until the tenth month; on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains were seen.

<sup>6</sup> After forty days Noah opened the window of the ark which he had built; <sup>7</sup> and he sent out a raven, which flew back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then he sent out a dove, to see if the water had gone from the surface of the ground. <sup>9</sup> But the dove found no place for her feet to rest, so she returned to him in the ark, because the water still covered the whole earth. He put out his hand, took her and brought her in to him in the ark. <sup>10</sup> He waited another seven days and again sent the dove out from the ark. <sup>11</sup> The dove came in to him in the evening, and there in her mouth was a freshly plucked olive leaf, so Noah knew that the water had cleared from the earth. <sup>12</sup> He waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, and she didn't return to him any more.

<sup>13</sup> By the first day of the first month of the 601st year the water had dried up from off the earth; so Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked; and, yes, the surface of the ground was dry. <sup>14</sup> It was on the twenty-seventh day of the second month that the earth was dry.

(iv) <sup>15</sup> God said to Noah, <sup>16</sup> "Go out from the ark, you, your wife, your sons and your son's wives with you. <sup>17</sup> Bring out with you every living thing you have with you — birds, livestock and every animal that creeps on the earth — so that they can swarm on the earth, be fruitful and multiply on the earth." <sup>18</sup> So Noah went out with his sons, his wife and his sons' wives; <sup>19</sup> every animal, every creeping thing and every bird, whatever moves on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

<sup>20</sup> Noah built an altar to ADONAI. Then he took from every clean animal and every clean bird, and he offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup> ADONAI smelled the sweet aroma, and ADONAI said in his heart, "I will never again curse the ground because of humankind, since the imaginings of a person's heart are evil from his youth; nor will I ever again destroy all living things, as I have done. <sup>22</sup> So long as the earth exists, sowing time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night will not cease."

9 <sup>1</sup> God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply and fill the earth. <sup>2</sup> The fear and dread of you will be upon every wild animal, every bird in the air, every creature populating the ground, and all the fish in the sea; they have been handed over to you. <sup>3</sup> Every moving thing that lives will be food for you; just as I gave you green plants before, so now I give you everything — <sup>4</sup> only flesh with its life, which is its blood, you are not to eat. <sup>5</sup> I will certainly demand an accounting for the blood of your lives: I will demand it from every animal and from every human being. I will demand from every human being an accounting for the life of his fellow human being. <sup>6</sup> Whoever sheds human blood, by a human being will his own blood be shed; for God made human beings in his image. <sup>7</sup> And you people, be fruitful, multiply, swarm on the earth and multiply on it.”

(v) <sup>8</sup> God spoke to Noah and his sons with him; he said, <sup>9</sup> “As for me — I am herewith establishing my covenant with you, with your descendants after you, <sup>10</sup> and with every living creature that is with you — the birds, the livestock and every wild animal with you, all going out of the ark, every animal on earth. <sup>11</sup> I will establish my covenant with you that never again will all living beings be destroyed by the waters of a flood, and there will never again be a flood to destroy the earth.” <sup>12</sup> God added, “Here is the sign of the covenant I am making between myself and you and every living creature with you, for all generations to come: <sup>13</sup> I am putting my rainbow in the cloud — it will be there as a sign of the covenant between myself and the earth. <sup>14</sup> Whenever I bring clouds over the earth, and the rainbow is seen in the cloud; <sup>15</sup> I will remember my covenant which is between myself and you and every living creature of any kind; and the water will never again become a flood to destroy all living beings. <sup>16</sup> The rainbow will be in the cloud; so that when I look at it, I will remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of any kind on the earth.”

<sup>17</sup> God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between myself and every living creature on the earth.”

(vi) <sup>18</sup> The sons of Noah who went out from the ark were Shem, Ham and Yefet. Ham is the father of Kena'an. <sup>19</sup> These three were the sons of Noah, and the whole earth was populated by them.

<sup>20</sup> Noah, a farmer, was the first to plant a vineyard. <sup>21</sup> He drank so much of the wine that he got drunk and lay uncovered in his tent. <sup>22</sup> Ham, the father of Kena'an, saw his father shamefully exposed, went out and told his two brothers. <sup>23</sup> Shem and Yefet took a cloak, put it over both their shoulders, and, walking backward, went in and covered their naked father. Their faces were turned away, so that they did not see their father lying there shamefully exposed.

<sup>24</sup> When Noach awoke from his wine, he knew what his youngest son had done to him. <sup>25</sup> He said, “Cursed be Kena’an; he will be a servant of servants to his brothers.” <sup>26</sup> Then he said, “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Shem; Kena’an will be their servant. <sup>27</sup> May God enlarge Yefet; he will live in the tents of Shem, but Kena’an will be their servant.”

<sup>28</sup> After the flood Noach lived 350 years. <sup>29</sup> In all, Noach lived 950 years; then he died.

10 <sup>1</sup> Here is the genealogy of the sons of Noach — Shem, Ham and Yefet; sons were born to them after the flood.

<sup>2</sup> The sons of Yefet were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Yavan, Tuval, Meshekh and Tiras. <sup>3</sup> The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Rifat and Togarmah. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Yavan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim. <sup>5</sup> From these the islands of the nations were divided into their lands, each according to its language, according to their families, in their nations.

<sup>6</sup> The sons of Ham were Kush, Mitzrayim, Put and Kena’an. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Kush were S’va, Havilah, Savta, Ra’mah and Savt’kha. The sons of Ra’mah were Sh’va and D’dan.

<sup>8</sup> Kush fathered Nimrod, who was the first powerful ruler on earth. <sup>9</sup> He was a mighty hunter before ADONAI — this is why people say, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before ADONAI.” <sup>10</sup> His kingdom began with Bavel, Erekh, Akkad and Kalneh, in the land of Shin’ar. <sup>11</sup> Ashur went out from that land and built Ninveh, the city Rechovot, Kelach, <sup>12</sup> and Resen between Ninveh and Kelach — that one is the great city.

<sup>13</sup> Mitzrayim fathered the Ludim, the ‘Anamim, the L’havim, the Naftuchim, <sup>14</sup> the Patrusim, the Kasluchim (from whom came the P’lishtim) and the Kaftorim.

<sup>15</sup> Kena’an fathered Tzidon his firstborn, Het, <sup>16</sup> the Y’vusi, the Emori, the Girgashi, <sup>17</sup> the Hivi, the ‘Arki, the Sini, <sup>18</sup> the Arvadi, the Tz’mari and the Hamati. Afterwards, the families of the Kena’ani were dispersed. <sup>19</sup> The border of the Kena’ani was from Tzidon, as you go toward G’rar, to ‘Azah; as you go toward S’dom, ‘Amora, Admah and Tzvoyim, to Lesha.

<sup>20</sup> These were the descendants of Ham, according to their families and languages, in their lands and in their nations.

<sup>21</sup> Children were also born to Shem, ancestor of all the descendants of 'Ever and older brother of Yefet. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Shem were 'Elam, Ashur, Arpakhshad, Lud and Aram. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Aram were 'Utz, Hul, Geter and Mash. <sup>24</sup> Arpakhshad fathered Shelach, and Shelach fathered 'Ever. <sup>25</sup> To 'Ever were born two sons. One was given the name Peleg [division], because during his lifetime the earth was divided. His brother's name was Yoktan. <sup>26</sup> Yoktan fathered Almodad, Shelef, Hatzar-Mavet, Yerach, <sup>27</sup> Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>28</sup> 'Oval, Avima'el, Sheva, <sup>29</sup> Ofir, Havilah and Yovav — all these were the sons of Yoktan. <sup>30</sup> Their territory stretched from Mesha, as you go toward S'far, to the mountain in the east.

<sup>31</sup> These were the descendants of Shem, according to their families and languages, in their lands and in their nations.

<sup>32</sup> These were the families of the sons of Noach, according to their generations, in their nations. From these the nations of the earth were divided up after the flood.

11 (S: vii) <sup>1</sup> The whole earth used the same language, the same words. <sup>2</sup> It came about that as they traveled from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shin'ar and lived there. <sup>3</sup> They said to one another, "Come, let's make bricks and bake them in the fire." So they had bricks for building-stone and clay for mortar. <sup>4</sup> Then they said, "Come, let's build ourselves a city with a tower that has its top reaching up into heaven, so that we can make a name for ourselves and not be scattered all over the earth."

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI came down to see the city and the tower the people were building. <sup>6</sup> ADONAI said, "Look, the people are united, they all have a single language, and see what they're starting to do! At this rate, nothing they set out to accomplish will be impossible for them! <sup>7</sup> Come, let's go down and confuse their language, so that they won't understand each other's speech."

<sup>8</sup> So from there ADONAI scattered them all over the earth, and they stopped building the city. <sup>9</sup> For this reason it is called Bavel [confusion] — because there ADONAI confused the language of the whole earth, and from there ADONAI scattered them all over the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Here is the genealogy of Shem. Shem was 100 years old when he fathered Arpakhshad two years after the flood. <sup>11</sup> After Arpakhshad was born, Shem lived another 500 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> Arpakhshad lived thirty-five years and fathered Shelach. <sup>13</sup> After Shelach was born, Arpakhshad lived another 403 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup> Shelach lived thirty years and fathered 'Ever. <sup>15</sup> After 'Ever was born, Shelach lived another 403 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> 'Ever lived thirty-four years and fathered Peleg. <sup>17</sup> After Peleg was born, 'Ever lived another 430 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup> Peleg lived thirty years and fathered Re'u. <sup>19</sup> After Re'u was born, Peleg lived another 209 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> Re'u lived thirty-two years and fathered S'rug. <sup>21</sup> After S'rug was born, Re'u lived another 207 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup> S'rug lived thirty years and fathered Nachor. <sup>23</sup> After Nachor was born, S'rug lived another 200 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup> Nachor lived twenty-nine years and fathered Terach. <sup>25</sup> After Terach was born, Nachor lived another 119 years and had sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup> Terach lived seventy years and fathered Avram, Nachor and Haran. <sup>27</sup> Here is the genealogy of Terach. Terach fathered Avram, Nachor and Haran; and Haran fathered Lot. <sup>28</sup> Haran died before his father Terach in the land where he was born, in Ur of the Kasdim.

(Maftir) <sup>29</sup> Then Avram and Nachor took wives for themselves. The name of Avram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nachor's wife was Milkah the daughter of Haran. He was the father of Milkah and of Yiskah. <sup>30</sup> Sarai was barren — she had no child. <sup>31</sup> Terach took his son Avram, his son Haran's son Lot, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Avram's wife; and they left Ur of the Kasdim to go to the land of Kena'an. But when they came to Haran, they stayed there. <sup>32</sup> Terach lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

Haftarah Noach: Yesha'yahu (Isaiah) 54:1–55:5 (A); 54:1–10 (S)
[Messianic adaptation: commence the reading at 52:13]

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Noach:
Mattityahu (Matthew) 24:36–44; Luke 17:26–37; Acts 2:1–16; 1
Kefa (1 Peter) 3:18–22; 2 Kefa (2 Peter) 2:5

Parashah 3: Lekh L'kha (Get yourself out) 12:1–17:27

12 <sup>1</sup> Now ADONAI said to Avram, “Get yourself out of your country, away from your kinsmen and away from your father’s house, and go to the land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup> I will make of you a great nation, I will bless you, and I will make your name great; and you are to be a blessing. <sup>3</sup> I will bless those who bless you, but I will curse anyone who curses you; and by you all the families of the earth will be blessed.”

<sup>4</sup> So Avram went, as ADONAI had said to him, and Lot went with him. Avram was 75 years old when he left Haran. <sup>5</sup> Avram took his wife Sarai, his brother’s son Lot, and all their possessions which they had accumulated, as well as the people they had acquired in Haran; then they set out for the land of Kena’an and entered the land of Kena’an.

<sup>6</sup> Avram passed through the land to the place called Sh’khem, to the oak of Moreh. The Kena’ani were then in the land. <sup>7</sup> ADONAI appeared to Avram and said, “To your descendants [Hebrew: l’zer’akha (to your seed)] I will give this land.” So he built an altar there to ADONAI, who had appeared to him.

<sup>8</sup> He left that place, went to the hill east of Beit-El and pitched his tent. With Beit-El to the west and ‘Ai to the east, he built an altar there and called on the name of ADONAI. <sup>9</sup> Then Avram traveled on, continuing toward the Negev. <sup>10</sup> But there was a famine in the land, so Avram went down into Egypt to stay there, because the famine in the land was severe.

<sup>11</sup> When he came close to Egypt and was about to enter, he said to Sarai his wife, “Here now, I know that you are a good-looking woman; <sup>12</sup> so that when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife,’ and kill me but keep you alive. <sup>13</sup> Please say that you are my sister, so that it will go well with me for your sake, and so that I will stay alive because of you.”

(ii) <sup>14</sup> When Avram entered Egypt, the Egyptians did notice that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup> Pharaoh’s princes saw her and commended her to Pharaoh, so the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house. <sup>16</sup> He treated Avram well for her sake, giving him sheep, cattle, male and female donkeys, male and female slaves, and camels.

<sup>17</sup> But ADONAI inflicted great plagues on Pharaoh and his household because of Sarai Avram’s wife. <sup>18</sup> Pharaoh called Avram and said, “What is this that you have done to me? Why didn’t you tell me that she was your wife? <sup>19</sup> Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her to be my own wife? Now therefore, here is your wife! Take her, and go away!” <sup>20</sup> So Pharaoh gave orders concerning him to his men, and they sent him on his way with his wife and everything he had.

13 <sup>1</sup> Avram went up from Egypt — he, his wife and everything he had, and Lot with him — into the Negev. <sup>2</sup> Avram became wealthy, with much cattle, silver and gold. <sup>3</sup> As he went on his travels from the Negev, he came to Beit-El, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beit-El and ‘Ai, <sup>4</sup> where he had first built the altar; and there Avram called on the name of ADONAI.

(iii) <sup>5</sup> Lot, who was traveling with Avram, also had flocks, herds and tents. <sup>6</sup> But the land could not support their living together, because their possessions were too great for them to remain together. <sup>7</sup> Moreover, quarreling arose between Avram’s and Lot’s herdsmen. The Kena‘ani and the P’rizi were then living in the land. <sup>8</sup> Avram said to Lot, “Please, let’s not have quarreling between me and you, or between my herdsmen and yours, since we’re kinsmen. <sup>9</sup> Isn’t the whole land there in front of you? Please separate yourself from me — if you go to the left, I will go to the right; if you go to the right, I will go to the left.” <sup>10</sup> Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Yarden was well watered everywhere, before ADONAI destroyed S’dom and ‘Amora, like the garden of ADONAI, like the land of Egypt in the direction of Tzo‘ar. <sup>11</sup> So Lot chose all the plain of the Yarden for himself, and Lot traveled eastward; thus they separated themselves from each other. <sup>12</sup> Avram lived in the land of Kena‘an; and Lot lived in the cities of the plain, setting up his tent near S’dom. <sup>13</sup> Now the men of S’dom were evil, committing great sins against ADONAI.

<sup>14</sup>ADONAI said to Avram, after Lot had moved away from him, “Look all around you from where you are, to the north, the south, the east and the west. <sup>15</sup> All the land you see I will give to you and your descendants [Hebrew: ul’zer‘akha (and to your seed)] forever, <sup>16</sup> and I will make your descendants as numerous as the specks of dust on the earth — so that if a person can count the specks of dust on the earth, then your descendants can be counted. <sup>17</sup> Get up and walk through the length and breadth of the land, because I will give it to you.” <sup>18</sup> Avram moved his tent and came to live by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hevron. There he built an altar to ADONAI.

14 (iv) <sup>1</sup> When Amrafel was king of Shin'ar, Aryokh king of Elasar, K'dorla'omer king of 'Elam and Tid'al king of Goyim; <sup>2</sup> they made war together against Bera king of S'dom and against Birsha king of 'Amora, Shin'av king of Admah, Shem'ever king of Tzvoyim, and the king of Bela (which is the same as Tzo'ar). <sup>3</sup> All the latter kings joined forces in the Siddim Valley, where the Dead Sea is. <sup>4</sup> They had served K'dorla'omer twelve years, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

<sup>5</sup> In the fourteenth year K'dorla'omer and the kings with him came and defeated the Refa'im in 'Asht'rot-Karnayim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Eimim in Shaveh-Kiryatayim <sup>6</sup> and the Hori at Se'ir, their mountain, all the way to Eil-Pa'ran by the desert. <sup>7</sup> Next they turned back, came to 'Ein-Mishpat (which is the same as Kadesh), and defeated all the country of the 'Amaleki, and also the Emori, who lived in Hatzatzon-Tamar. <sup>8</sup> Then the kings of S'dom, 'Amora, Admah, Tzvoyim and Bela (that is, Tzo'ar) came out and arrayed themselves for battle in the Siddim Valley <sup>9</sup> against K'dorla'omer king of 'Elam, Tid'al king of Goyim, Amrafel king of Admah and Aryokh king of Elasar, four kings against the five.

<sup>10</sup> Now the Siddim Valley was full of clay pits; and when the kings of S'dom and 'Amora fled, some fell into them; while the rest fled to the hills. <sup>11</sup> The victors took all the possessions of S'dom and 'Amora and all their food supply; then they left. <sup>12</sup> But as they left, they took Lot, Avram's brother's son, and his possessions; since he was living in S'dom. <sup>13</sup> Someone who had escaped came and told Avram the Hebrew, who was living by the oaks of Mamre the Emori, brother of Eshkol and brother of 'Aner; all of them allies of Avram. <sup>14</sup> When Avram heard that his nephew had been taken captive, he led out his trained men, who had been born in his house, 318 of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup> During the night he and his servants divided his forces against them, then attacked and pursued them all the way to Hovah, north of Dammeseq. <sup>16</sup> He recovered all the goods and brought back his nephew Lot with his goods, together with the women and the other people. <sup>17</sup> After his return from slaughtering K'dorla'omer and the kings with him, the king of S'dom went out to meet him in the Shaveh Valley, also known as the King's Valley.

<sup>18</sup> Malki-Tzedek king of Shalem brought out bread and wine. He was cohen of El 'Elyon [God Most High], <sup>19</sup> so he blessed him with these words:

“Blessed be Avram by El ‘Elyon, maker of heaven of earth.

<sup>20</sup>

and blessed be El ‘Elyon, who handed your enemies over to you.”

Avram gave him a tenth of everything.

(v) <sup>21</sup> The king of S’dom said to Avram, “Give me the people, and keep the goods for yourself.” <sup>22</sup> But Avram answered the king of S’dom, “I have raised my hand in an oath to ADONAI, El ‘Elyon, maker of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup> that I will not take so much as a thread or a sandal thong of anything that is yours; so that you won’t be able to say, ‘I made Avram rich.’ <sup>24</sup> I will take only what my troops have eaten and the share of the spoil belonging to the men who came with me — ‘Aner, Eshkol and Mamre; let them have their share.”

15 <sup>1</sup> Some time later the word of ADONAI came to Avram in a vision: “Don’t be afraid, Avram. I am your protector; your reward will be very great.” <sup>2</sup> Avram replied, “ADONAI, God, what good will your gifts be to me if I continue childless; and Eli‘ezer from Dammesek inherits my possessions? <sup>3</sup> You haven’t given me a child,” Avram continued, “so someone born in my house will be my heir.” <sup>4</sup> But the word of ADONAI came to him: “This man will not be your heir. No, your heir will be a child from your own body.” <sup>5</sup> Then he brought him outside and said, “Look up at the sky, and count the stars — if you can count them! Your descendants will be that many!” <sup>6</sup> He believed in ADONAI, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

(vi) <sup>7</sup> Then he said to him, “I am ADONAI, who brought you out from Ur-Kasdim to give you this land as your possession.” <sup>8</sup> He replied, “ADONAI, God, how am I to know that I will possess it?” <sup>9</sup> He answered him, “Bring me a three-year-old cow, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a dove and a young pigeon.” <sup>10</sup> He brought him all these, cut the animals in two and placed the pieces opposite each other; but he didn’t cut the birds in half. <sup>11</sup> Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses, but Avram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup> As the sun was about to set, a deep sleep fell on Avram; horror and great darkness came over him. <sup>13</sup> ADONAI said to Avram, “Know this for certain: your descendants will be foreigners in a land that is not theirs. They will be slaves and held in oppression there four hundred years. <sup>14</sup> But I will also judge that nation, the one that makes them slaves. Afterwards, they will leave with many possessions. <sup>15</sup> As for you, you will join your ancestors in peace and be buried at a good old age. <sup>16</sup> Only in the fourth generation will your descendants come back here, because only then will the Emori be ripe for punishment.”

<sup>17</sup> After the sun had set and there was thick darkness, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch appeared, which passed between these animal parts. <sup>18</sup> That day ADONAI made a covenant with Avram: “I have given this land to your descendants — from the Vadi of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River — <sup>19</sup> the territory of the Keni, the K’nizi, the Kadmoni, <sup>20</sup> the Hitti, the P’rizi, the Refa’im, <sup>21</sup> the Emori, the Kena’ani, the Girgashi and the Y’vusi.”

16 <sup>1</sup> Now Sarai Avram’s wife had not borne him a child. But she had an Egyptian slave-girl named Hagar; <sup>2</sup> so Sarai said to Avram, “Here now, ADONAI has kept me from having children; so go in and sleep with my slave-girl. Maybe I’ll be able to have children through her.” Avram listened to what Sarai said.

<sup>3</sup> It was after Avram had lived ten years in the land of Kena’an that Sarai Avram’s wife took Hagar the Egyptian, her slave-girl, and gave her to Avram her husband to be his wife. <sup>4</sup> Avram had sexual relations with Hagar, and she conceived. But when she became aware that she was pregnant, she looked on her mistress with contempt. <sup>5</sup> Sarai said to Avram, “This outrage being done to me is your fault! True, I gave my slave-girl to you to sleep with; but when she saw that she was pregnant, she began holding me in contempt. May ADONAI decide who is right — I or you!” <sup>6</sup> However, Avram answered Sarai, “Look, she’s your slave-girl. Deal with her as you think fit.” Then Sarai treated her so harshly that she ran away from her.

<sup>7</sup> The angel of ADONAI found her by a spring in the desert, the spring on the road to Shur, <sup>8</sup> and said, “Hagar! Sarai’s slave-girl! Where have you come from, and where are you going?” She answered, “I’m running away from my mistress Sarai.” <sup>9</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to her, “Go back to your mistress, and submit to her authority.” <sup>10</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to her, “I will greatly increase your descendants; there will be so many that it will be impossible to count them.” <sup>11</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to her, “Look, you are pregnant, and you will give birth to a son. You are to call him Yishma‘el [God pays attention] because ADONAI has paid attention to your misery. <sup>12</sup> He will be a wild donkey of a man, with his hand against everyone and everyone’s hand against him, living his life at odds with all his kinsmen.”

<sup>13</sup> So she named ADONAI who had spoken with her El Ro’i [God of seeing], because she said, “Have I really seen the One who sees me [and stayed alive]?” <sup>14</sup> This is why the well has been called Be’er-Lachai-Ro’i [well of the one who lives and sees]; it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>15</sup> Hagar bore Avram a son, and Avram called the son whom Hagar had borne Yishma‘el. <sup>16</sup> Avram was 86 years old when Hagar bore Yishma‘el to Avram.

17 <sup>1</sup> When Avram was 99 years old ADONAI appeared to Avram and said to him, “I am El Shaddai [God Almighty]. Walk in my presence and be pure-hearted. <sup>2</sup> I will make my covenant between me and you, and I will increase your numbers greatly.” <sup>3</sup> Avram fell on his face, and God continued speaking with him: <sup>4</sup> “As for me, this is my covenant with you: you will be the father of many nations. <sup>5</sup> Your name will no longer be Avram [exalted father], but your name will be Abraham [father of many], because I have made you the father of many nations. <sup>6</sup> I will cause you to be very fruitful. I will make nations of you, kings will descend from you.

(vii) <sup>7</sup> “I am establishing my covenant between me and you, along with your descendants after you, generation after generation, as an everlasting covenant, to be God for you and for your descendants after you. <sup>8</sup> I will give you and your descendants after you the land in which you are now foreigners, all the land of Kena‘an, as a permanent possession; and I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup> God said to Abraham, “As for you, you are to keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you, generation after generation. <sup>10</sup> Here is my covenant, which you are to keep, between me and you, along with your descendants after you: every male among you is to be circumcised. <sup>11</sup> You are to be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin; this will be the sign of the covenant between me and you. <sup>12</sup> Generation after generation, every male among you who is eight days old is to be circumcised, including slaves born within your household and those bought from a foreigner not descended from you. <sup>13</sup> The slave born in your house and the person bought with your money must be circumcised; thus my covenant will be in your flesh as an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup> Any uncircumcised male who will not let himself be circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin — that person will be cut off from his people, because he has broken my covenant.”

<sup>15</sup> God said to Avraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you are not to call her Sarai [mockery]; her name is to be Sarah [princess]. <sup>16</sup> I will bless her; moreover, I will give you a son by her. Truly I will bless her: she will be a mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her.” <sup>17</sup> At this Avraham fell on his face and laughed — he thought to himself, “Will a child be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah give birth at ninety?” <sup>18</sup> Avraham said to God, “If only Yishma‘el could live in your presence!” <sup>19</sup> God answered, “No, but Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you are to call him Yitz’chak [laughter]. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him. <sup>20</sup> But as for Yishma‘el, I have heard you. I have blessed him. I will make him fruitful and give him many descendants. He will father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>21</sup> But I will establish my covenant with Yitz’chak, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time next year.” <sup>22</sup> With that, God finished speaking with Avraham and went up from him.

<sup>23</sup> Avraham took Yishma‘el his son, all the slaves born in his house and all who had been bought with his money, every male among the people in Avraham’s household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin that very day, just as God had said to him.

(Maftir) <sup>24</sup> Avraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, <sup>25</sup> and Yishma‘el his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup> Avraham and Yishma‘el his son were circumcised on the same day; <sup>27</sup> and all the men in his household, both slaves born in his house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Haftarah Lekh L’kha: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 40:27–41:16

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Lekh L’kha:
Acts 7:1–8; Romans 3:19–5:6; Galatians 3:15–18; 5:1–6;
Colossians 2:11–15; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 7:1–19; 11:8–12

Parashah 4: Vayera (He appeared) 18:1–22:24

18 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI appeared to Avraham by the oaks of Mamre as he sat at the entrance to the tent during the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup> He raised his eyes and looked, and there in front of him stood three men. On seeing them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, prostrated himself on the ground, <sup>3</sup> and said, “My lord, if I have found favor in your sight, please don’t leave your servant. <sup>4</sup> Please let me send for some water, so that you can wash your feet; then rest under the tree, <sup>5</sup> and I will bring a piece of bread. Now that you have come to your servant, refresh yourselves before going on.” “Very well,” they replied, “do what you have said.”

<sup>6</sup> Avraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, “Quickly, three measures of the best flour! Knead it and make cakes.” <sup>7</sup> Avraham ran to the herd, took a good, tender calf and gave it to the servant, who hurried to prepare it. <sup>8</sup> Then he took curds, milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it all before the men; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate. <sup>9</sup> They said to him, “Where is Sarah your wife?” He said, “There, in the tent.” <sup>10</sup> He said, “I will certainly return to you around this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a son.” Sarah heard him from the entrance of the tent, behind him. <sup>11</sup> Avraham and Sarah were old, advanced in years; Sarah was past the age of childbearing. <sup>12</sup> So Sarah laughed to herself, thinking, “I am old, and so is my lord; am I to have pleasure again?” <sup>13</sup> ADONAI said to Avraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and ask, ‘Am I really going to bear a child when I am so old?’ <sup>14</sup> Is anything too hard for ADONAI? At the time set for it, at this season next year, I will return to you; and Sarah will have a son.” (ii) <sup>15</sup> Sarah denied it, saying, “I didn’t either laugh,” because she was afraid. He said, “Not so — you did laugh.”

<sup>16</sup> The men set out from there and looked over toward S’dom, and Avraham went with them to see them on their way. <sup>17</sup> ADONAI said, “Should I hide from Avraham what I am about to do, <sup>18</sup> inasmuch as Avraham is sure to become a great and strong nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed by him? <sup>19</sup> For I have made myself known to him, so that he will give orders to his children and to his household after him to keep the way of ADONAI and to do what is right and just, so that ADONAI may bring about for Avraham what he has promised him.”

<sup>20</sup>ADONAI said, “The outcry against S’dom and ‘Amora is so great and their sin so serious <sup>21</sup> that I will now go down and see whether their deeds warrant the outcry that has reached me; if not, I will know.” <sup>22</sup> The men turned away from there and went toward S’dom, but Avraham remained standing before ADONAI. <sup>23</sup> Avraham approached and said, “Will you actually sweep away the righteous with the wicked? <sup>24</sup> Maybe there are fifty righteous people in the city; will you actually sweep the place away, and not forgive it for the sake of the fifty righteous who are there? <sup>25</sup> Far be it from you to do such a thing — to kill the righteous along with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked are treated alike! Far be it from you! Shouldn’t the judge of all the earth do what is just?” <sup>26</sup> ADONAI said, “If I find in S’dom fifty who are righteous, then I will forgive the whole place for their sake.”

<sup>27</sup> Avraham answered, “Here now, I, who am but dust and ashes, have taken it upon myself to speak to Adonai. <sup>28</sup> What if there are five less than fifty righteous?” He said, “I won’t destroy it if I find forty-five there.”

<sup>29</sup> He spoke to him yet again: “What if forty are found there?” He said, “For the sake of the forty I won’t do it.”

<sup>30</sup> He said, “I hope Adonai won’t be angry if I speak. What if thirty are found there?” He said, “I won’t do it if I find thirty there.”

<sup>31</sup> He said, “Here now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to Adonai. What if twenty are found there?” He said, “For the sake of the twenty I won’t destroy it.”

<sup>32</sup> He said, “I hope Adonai won’t be angry if I speak just once more. What if ten are found there?” He said, “For the sake of the ten I won’t destroy it.” <sup>33</sup>ADONAI went on his way as soon as he had finished speaking to Avraham, and Avraham returned to his place.

19 (iii) <sup>1</sup> The two angels came to S’dom that evening, when Lot was sitting at the gate of S’dom. Lot saw them, got up to greet them and prostrated himself on the ground. <sup>2</sup> He said, “Here now, my lords, please come over to your servant’s house. Spend the night, wash your feet, get up early, and go on your way.” “No,” they answered, “we’ll stay in the square.” <sup>3</sup> But he kept pressing them; so they went home with him; and he made them a meal, baking matzah for their supper, which they ate.

<sup>4</sup> But before they could go to bed, the men of the city surrounded the house — young and old, everyone from every neighborhood of S’dom. <sup>5</sup>

They called Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to stay with you tonight? Bring them out to us! We want to have sex with them!” <sup>6</sup> Lot went out to them and stood in the doorway, closing the door behind him, <sup>7</sup> and said, “Please, my brothers, don’t do such a wicked thing. <sup>8</sup> Look here, I have two daughters who are virgins. Please, let me bring them out to you, and you can do with them what seems good to you; but don’t do anything to these men, since they are guests in my house.” <sup>9</sup> “Stand back!” they replied. “This guy came to live here, and now he’s decided to play judge. For that we’ll deal worse with you than with them!” Then they crowded in on Lot, in order to get close enough to break down the door. <sup>10</sup> But the men inside reached out their hands, brought Lot into the house to them and shut the door. <sup>11</sup> Then they struck the men at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they couldn’t find the doorway.

<sup>12</sup> The men said to Lot, “Do you have any people here besides yourself? Whomever you have in the city — son-in-law, your sons, your daughters — bring them out of this place; <sup>13</sup> because we are going to destroy it. ADONAI has become aware of the great outcry against them, and ADONAI has sent us to destroy it.” <sup>14</sup> Lot went out and spoke with his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, “Get up and leave this place, because ADONAI is going to destroy the city.” But his sons-in-law didn’t take him seriously.

<sup>15</sup> When morning came, the angels told Lot to hurry. “Get up,” they said, “and take your wife and your two daughters who are here; otherwise you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.” <sup>16</sup> But he dallied, so the men took hold of his hand, his wife’s hand and the hands of his two daughters — ADONAI was being merciful to him — and led them, leaving them outside the city. <sup>17</sup> When they had brought them out, he said, “Flee for your life! Don’t look behind you, and don’t stop anywhere in the plain, but escape to the hills! Otherwise you will be swept away.” <sup>18</sup> Lot said to them, “Please, no, my lord! <sup>19</sup> Here, your servant has already found favor in your sight, and you have shown me even greater mercy by saving my life. But I can’t escape to the hills, because I’m afraid the disaster will overtake me, and I will die. <sup>20</sup> Look, there’s a town nearby to flee to, and it’s a small one. Please let me escape there — isn’t it just a small one? — and that way I will stay alive.”

(iv) <sup>21</sup> He replied, “All right, I agree to what you have asked. I won’t overthrow the city of which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup> Hurry, and escape to that place, because I can't do anything until you arrive there." For this reason the city was named Tzo'ar [small].

<sup>23</sup> By the time Lot had come to Tzo'ar, the sun had risen over the land. <sup>24</sup> Then ADONAI caused sulfur and fire to rain down upon S'dom and 'Amora from ADONAI out of the sky. <sup>25</sup> He overthrew those cities, the entire plain, all the inhabitants of the cities and everything growing in the ground. <sup>26</sup> But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a column of salt.

<sup>27</sup> Avraham got up early in the morning, went to the place where he had stood before ADONAI, <sup>28</sup> and looked out toward S'dom and 'Amora, scanning the entire plain. There before him the smoke was rising from the land like smoke from a furnace! <sup>29</sup> But when God destroyed the cities of the plain, he remembered Avraham and sent Lot out, away from the destruction, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

<sup>30</sup> Lot went up from Tzo'ar and lived in the hills with his two daughters, because he was afraid to stay in Tzo'ar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave. <sup>31</sup> The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there isn't a man on earth to come in to us in the manner customary in the world. <sup>32</sup> Come, let's have our father drink wine; then we'll sleep with him, and that way we'll enable our father to have descendants."

<sup>33</sup> So they plied their father with wine that night, and the older one went in and slept with her father; he didn't know when she lay down or when she got up. <sup>34</sup> The following day, the older said to the younger, "Here, I slept last night with my father. Let's make him drink wine again tonight, and you go in and sleep with him, and that way we'll enable our father to have descendants." <sup>35</sup> They plied their father with wine that night also, and the younger one got up and slept with him, and he didn't know when she lay down or when she got up. <sup>36</sup> Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

<sup>37</sup> The older one gave birth to a son and called him Mo'av; he is the ancestor of Mo'av to this day. <sup>38</sup> The younger also gave birth to a son, and she called him Ben-'Ammi; he is the ancestor of the people of 'Amon to this day.

20 <sup>1</sup> Avraham traveled from there toward the Negev and lived between Kadesh and Shur. While living as an alien in G'rar, <sup>2</sup> Avraham was saying of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister"; so Avimelekh king of G'rar sent and took Sarah. <sup>3</sup> But God came to Avimelekh in a dream one night and said to him, “You are about to die because of the woman you have taken, since she is someone’s wife.” <sup>4</sup> Now Avimelekh had not come near her; so he said, “Lord, will you kill even an upright nation? <sup>5</sup> Didn’t he himself say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And even she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ In doing this, my heart has been pure and my hands innocent.” <sup>6</sup> God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that in doing this, your heart has been pure; and I too have kept you from sinning against me. This is why I didn’t let you touch her. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, return the man’s wife to him now. He is a prophet, and he will pray for you, so that you will live. But if you don’t return her, know that you will certainly die — you and all who belong to you.”

<sup>8</sup> Avimelekh got up early in the morning, called all his servants and told them these things; and the men became very afraid. <sup>9</sup> Then Avimelekh called Avraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you to cause you to bring on me and my kingdom a great sin? You have done things to me that are just not done.” <sup>10</sup> Avimelekh went on, asking Avraham, “Whatever could have caused you to do such a thing?” <sup>11</sup> Avraham replied, “It was because I thought, ‘There could not possibly be any fear of God in this place, so they will kill me in order to get my wife.’ <sup>12</sup> But she actually is also my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and so she became my wife. <sup>13</sup> When God had me leave my father’s house, I told her, ‘Do me this favor: wherever we go, say about me, “He is my brother.”’”

<sup>14</sup> Avimelekh took sheep, cattle, and male and female slaves, and gave them to Avraham; and he returned to him Sarah his wife. <sup>15</sup> Then Avimelekh said, “Look, my country lies before you; live where you like.” <sup>16</sup> To Sarah he said, “Here, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. That will allay the suspicions of everyone who is with you. Before everyone you are cleared.” <sup>17</sup> Avraham prayed to God, and God healed Avimelekh and his wife and slave-girls, so that they could have children. <sup>18</sup> For ADONAI had made every woman in Avimelekh’s household infertile on account of Sarah Avraham’s wife.

21 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI remembered Sarah as he had said, and ADONAI did for Sarah what he had promised. <sup>2</sup> Sarah conceived and bore Avraham a son in his old age, at the very time God had said to him. <sup>3</sup> Avraham called his son, born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Yitz'chak. <sup>4</sup> Avraham circumcised his son Yitz'chak when he was eight days old, as God had ordered him to do.

(v) <sup>5</sup> Avraham was one hundred years old when his son Yitz'chak [laughter] was born to him. <sup>6</sup> Sarah said, "God has given me good reason to laugh; now everyone who hears about it will laugh with me." <sup>7</sup> And she said, "Who would have said to Avraham that Sarah would nurse children? Nevertheless, I have borne him a son in his old age!"

<sup>8</sup> The child grew and was weaned, and Avraham gave a great banquet on the day that Yitz'chak was weaned. <sup>9</sup> But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom Hagar had borne to Avraham, making fun of Yitz'chak; <sup>10</sup> so Sarah said to Avraham, "Throw this slave-girl out! And her son! I will not have this slave-girl's son as your heir along with my son Yitz'chak!"

<sup>11</sup> Avraham became very distressed over this matter of his son. <sup>12</sup> But God said to Avraham, "Don't be distressed because of the boy and your slave-girl. Listen to everything Sarah says to you, because it is your descendants through Yitz'chak who will be counted. <sup>13</sup> But I will also make a nation from the son of the slave-girl, since he is descended from you."

<sup>14</sup> Avraham got up early in the morning, took bread and a skin of water and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child; then he sent her away. After leaving, she wandered in the desert around Be'er-Sheva. <sup>15</sup> When the water in the skin was gone, she left the child under a bush, <sup>16</sup> and went and sat down, looking the other way, about a bow-shot's distance from him; because she said, "I can't bear to watch my child die." So she sat there, looking the other way, crying out and weeping. <sup>17</sup> God heard the boy's voice, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What's wrong with you, Hagar? Don't be afraid, because God has heard the voice of the boy in his present situation. <sup>18</sup> Get up, lift the boy up, and hold him tightly in your hand, because I am going to make him a great nation." <sup>19</sup> Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. So she went, filled the skin with water and gave the boy water to drink.

<sup>20</sup> God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the desert and became an archer. <sup>21</sup> He lived in the Pa'ran Desert, and his mother chose a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

(vi) <sup>22</sup> At that time Avimelekh and Pikhoh the commander of his army spoke to Avraham. They said, "God is with you in everything you do. <sup>23</sup> Therefore, swear to me here by God that you will never deal falsely with me or with my son or grandson; but according to the kindness with which I have treated you, you will treat me and the land in which you have lived as a foreigner. <sup>24</sup> Avraham said, “I swear it.”

<sup>25</sup> Now Avraham had complained to Avimelekh about a well which Avimelekh’s servants had seized. <sup>26</sup> Avimelekh answered, “I don’t know who has done this. You didn’t tell me, and I heard about it only today.” <sup>27</sup> Avraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to Avimelekh, and the two of them made a covenant. <sup>28</sup> Avraham put seven female lambs from the flock by themselves. <sup>29</sup> Avimelekh asked Avraham, “What is the meaning of these seven female lambs you have put by themselves?” <sup>30</sup> He answered, “You are to accept these seven female lambs from me as witness that I dug this well.” <sup>31</sup> This is why that place was called Be’er-Sheva [well of seven, well of an oath] — because they both swore an oath there. <sup>32</sup> When they made the covenant at Be’er-Sheva, Avimelekh departed with Pikhoh the commander of his army and returned to the land of the P’lishtim. <sup>33</sup> Avraham planted a tamarisk tree in Be’er-Sheva, and there he called on the name of ADONAI, the everlasting God. <sup>34</sup> Avraham lived for a long time as a foreigner in the land of the P’lishtim.

22 (vii) <sup>1</sup> After these things, God tested Avraham. He said to him, “Avraham!” and he answered, “Here I am.” <sup>2</sup> He said, “Take your son, your only son, whom you love, Yitz’chak; and go to the land of Moriyah. There you are to offer him as a burnt offering on a mountain that I will point out to you.”

<sup>3</sup> Avraham got up early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, together with Yitz’chak his son. He cut the wood for the burnt offering, departed and went toward the place God had told him about. <sup>4</sup> On the third day, Avraham raised his eyes and saw the place in the distance. <sup>5</sup> Avraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey. I and the boy will go there, worship and return to you.” <sup>6</sup> Avraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on Yitz’chak his son. Then he took in his hand the fire and the knife, and they both went on together.

<sup>7</sup> Yitz’chak spoke to Avraham his father: “My father?” He answered, “Here I am, my son.” He said, “I see the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?” <sup>8</sup> Avraham replied, “God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son”; and they both went on together.

<sup>9</sup> They came to the place God had told him about; and Avraham built the altar there, set the wood in order, bound Yitz'chak his son and laid him on the altar, on the wood. <sup>10</sup> Then Avraham put out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.

<sup>11</sup> But the angel of ADONAI called to him out of heaven: "Avraham? Avraham!" He answered, "Here I am." <sup>12</sup> He said, "Don't lay your hand on the boy! Don't do anything to him! For now I know that you are a man who fears God, because you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me." <sup>13</sup> Avraham raised his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in the bushes by its horns. Avraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in place of his son. <sup>14</sup> Avraham called the place ADONAI Yir'eh [ADONAI will see (to it), ADONAI provides] — as it is said to this day, "On the mountain ADONAI is seen."

<sup>15</sup> The angel of ADONAI called to Avraham a second time out of heaven. <sup>16</sup> He said, "I have sworn by myself — says ADONAI — that because you have done this, because you haven't withheld your son, your only son, <sup>17</sup> I will most certainly bless you; and I will most certainly increase your descendants to as many as there are stars in the sky or grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the cities of their enemies, <sup>18</sup> and by your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed — because you obeyed my order."

<sup>19</sup> So Avraham returned to his young men. They got up and went together to Be'er-Sheva, and Avraham settled in Be'er-Sheva.

(Maftir) <sup>20</sup> Afterwards, Avraham was told, "Milkah too has borne children, to your brother Nachor — <sup>21</sup> 'Utz his firstborn, Buz his brother, K'mu'el the father of Aram, <sup>22</sup> Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Yidlaf and B'tu'el. <sup>23</sup> B'tu'el fathered Rivkah. These eight Milkah bore to Nachor Avraham's brother. <sup>24</sup> His concubine, whose name was Re'umah, bore children also: Tevach, Gacham, Tachash and Ma'akhah.

Haftarah Vayera: M'lakhim Bet (2 Kings) 4:1–37 (A); 4:1–23 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Vayera: Luke 17:26–37; Romans 9:6–9; Galatians 4:21–31; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 6:13–20; 11:13–19; Ya'akov (James) 2:14–24; 2 Kefa (2 Peter) 2:4–10

Parashah 5: Hayyei-Sarah (Sarah's life) 23:1–25:18

23 <sup>1</sup> Sarah lived to be 127 years old; these were the years of Sarah's life. <sup>2</sup> Sarah died in Kiryat-Arba, also known as Hevron, in the land of Kena'an; and Avraham came to mourn Sarah and weep for her. <sup>3</sup> Then he got up from his dead one and said to the sons of Het, <sup>4</sup> "I am a foreigner living as an alien with you; let me have a burial site with you, so that I can bury my dead wife." <sup>5</sup> The sons of Het answered Avraham, <sup>6</sup> "Listen to us, my lord. You are a prince of God among us, so choose any of our tombs to bury your dead — not one of us would refuse you his tomb for burying your dead."

<sup>7</sup> Avraham got up, bowed before the people of the land, the sons of Het, <sup>8</sup> and spoke with them. "If it is your desire to help me bury my dead, then listen to me: ask 'Efron the son of Tzochar <sup>9</sup> to give me the cave of Makhpelah, which he owns, the one at the end of his field. He should sell it to me in your presence at its full value; then I will have a burial site of my own."

<sup>10</sup> 'Efron the Hitti was sitting among the sons of Het, and he gave Avraham his answer in the presence of the sons of Het who belonged to the ruling council of the city: <sup>11</sup> "No, my lord, listen to me: I'm giving you the field, with its cave — I'm giving it to you. In the presence of my people I give it to you." <sup>12</sup> Avraham bowed before the people of the land <sup>13</sup> and spoke to 'Efron in their hearing: "Please be good enough to listen to me. I will pay the price of the field; accept it from me, and I will bury my dead there." <sup>14</sup> But 'Efron answered Avraham, <sup>15</sup> "My lord, listen to me. A plot of land worth 400 silver shekels — what is that between me and you? Just bury your dead." <sup>16</sup> Avraham got the point of what 'Efron had said, so he weighed out for 'Efron the amount of money he had specified in the presence of the sons of Het, 400 silver shekels of the weight accepted among merchants [ten pounds].

(ii) <sup>17</sup> Thus the field of 'Efron in Makhpelah, which is by Mamre — the field, its cave and all the trees in and around it — were deeded <sup>18</sup> to Avraham as his possession in the presence of the sons of Het who belonged to the ruling council of the city.

<sup>19</sup> Then Avraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Makhpelah, by Mamre, also known as Hevron, in the land of Kena'an. <sup>20</sup>

The field and its cave had been purchased by Avraham from the sons of Het as a burial-site which would belong to him.

24 <sup>1</sup> By now Avraham was old, advanced in years; and ADONAI had blessed Avraham in everything. <sup>2</sup> Avraham said to the servant who had served him the longest, who was in charge of all he owned, “Put your hand under my thigh; <sup>3</sup> because I want you to swear by ADONAI, God of heaven and God of the earth, that you will not choose a wife for my son from among the women of the Kena‘ani, among whom I am living; <sup>4</sup> but that you will go to my homeland, to my kinsmen, to choose a wife for my son Yitz’chak.” <sup>5</sup> The servant replied, “Suppose the woman isn’t willing to follow me to this land. Must I then bring your son back to the land from which you came?” <sup>6</sup> Avraham said to him, “See to it that you don’t bring my son back there. <sup>7</sup> ADONAI, the God of heaven — who took me away from my father’s house and away from the land I was born in, who spoke to me and swore to me, ‘I will give this land to your descendants’ — he will send his angel ahead of you; and you are to bring a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup> But if the woman is unwilling to follow you, then you are released from your obligation under my oath. Just don’t bring my son back there.” <sup>9</sup> The servant put his hand under the thigh of Avraham his master and swore to him concerning the matter.

(iii) <sup>10</sup> Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and all kinds of gifts from his master, got up and went to Aram-Naharayim, to Nachor’s city. <sup>11</sup> Toward evening, when the women go out to draw water, he had the camels kneel down outside the city by the well. <sup>12</sup> He said, “ADONAI, God of my master Avraham, please let me succeed today; and show your grace to my master Avraham. <sup>13</sup> Here I am, standing by the spring, as the daughters of the townsfolk come out to draw water. <sup>14</sup> I will say to one of the girls, ‘Please lower your jug, so that I can drink.’ If she answers, ‘Yes, drink; and I will water your camels as well,’ then let her be the one you intend for your servant Yitz’chak. This is how I will know that you have shown grace to my master.”

<sup>15</sup> Before he had finished speaking, Rivkah the daughter of B’tu’el son of Milkah the wife of Nachor Avraham’s brother, came out with her jug on her shoulder. <sup>16</sup> The girl was very beautiful, a virgin, never having had sexual relations with any man. She went down to the spring, filled her jug and came up. <sup>17</sup> The servant ran to meet her and said, "Please give me a sip of water from your jug to drink." <sup>18</sup> "Drink, my lord," she replied, and immediately lowered her jug onto her arm and let him drink. <sup>19</sup> When she was through letting him drink, she said, "I will also draw water for your camels until they have drunk their fill." <sup>20</sup> She quickly emptied her jug into the trough, then ran again to the well to draw water, and kept on drawing water for all his camels. <sup>21</sup> The man gazed at her in silence, waiting to find out whether ADONAI had made his trip successful or not.

<sup>22</sup> When the camels were done drinking, the man took a gold nose-ring weighing one-fifth of an ounce and two gold bracelets weighing four ounces <sup>23</sup> and asked, "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please. Is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?" <sup>24</sup> She answered, "I am the daughter of B'tu'el the son Milkah bore to Nachor," <sup>25</sup> adding, "We have plenty of straw and fodder, and room for staying overnight." <sup>26</sup> The man bowed his head and prostrated himself before ADONAI. (iv) <sup>27</sup> Then he said, "Blessed be ADONAI, God of my master Avraham, who has not abandoned his faithful love for my master; because ADONAI has guided me to the house of my master's kinsmen." <sup>28</sup> The girl ran off and told her mother's household what had happened.

<sup>29-30</sup> Rivkah had a brother named Lavan. When he saw the nose-ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists besides, and when he heard his sister Rivkah's report of what the man had said to her, he ran out to the spring and found the man standing there by the camels. <sup>31</sup> "Come on in," he said, "you whom ADONAI has blessed! Why are you standing outside when I have made room in the house and prepared a place for the camels?" <sup>32</sup> So the man went inside, and while the camels were being unloaded and provided straw and fodder, water was brought for him to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him.

<sup>33</sup> But when a meal was set before him, he said, "I won't eat until I say what I have to say." Lavan said, "Speak." <sup>34</sup> He said, "I am Avraham's servant. <sup>35</sup>ADONAI has greatly blessed my master, so that he has grown wealthy. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup> Sarah my master's wife bore my master a son when she was old, and he has given him everything he has. <sup>37</sup> My master made me swear, saying, 'You are not to choose a wife for my son from among the women of the Kena'ani, among whom I am living; <sup>38</sup> rather, you are to go to my father's house, to my kinsmen, to choose a wife for my son.’<sup>39</sup> I said to my master, ‘Suppose the woman isn’t willing to follow me.’<sup>40</sup> Avraham answered me, ‘ADONAI, in whose presence I live, will send his angel with you to make your trip successful; and you are to pick a wife for my son from my kinsmen in my father’s house; <sup>41</sup> this will release you from your obligation under my oath. But if, when you come to my kinsmen, they refuse to give her to you, this too will release you from my oath.’

<sup>42</sup> “So today, I came to the spring and said, ‘ADONAI, God of my master Avraham, if you are causing my trip to succeed in its purpose, <sup>43</sup> then, here I am, standing by the spring. I will say to one of the girls coming out to draw water, “Let me have a sip of water from your jug.” <sup>44</sup> If she answers, “Yes, drink; and I will water your camels as well,” then let her be the woman you intend for my master’s son.’ <sup>45</sup> And even before I had finished speaking to my heart, there came Rivkah, going out with her jug on her shoulder; she went down to the spring and drew water. When I said to her, ‘Please let me have a drink,’ <sup>46</sup> she immediately lowered the jug from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels as well.’ So I drank, and she had the camels drink too.

<sup>47</sup> “I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ and she answered, ‘The daughter of B’tu’el son of Nachor, whom Milkah bore to him.’ Then I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists, <sup>48</sup> bowed my head, prostrated myself before ADONAI and blessed ADONAI, God of my master Avraham, for having led me in the right way to obtain my master’s brother’s [grand]daughter for his son.

<sup>49</sup> “So now if you people intend to show grace and truth to my master, tell me. But if not, tell me, so that I can turn elsewhere.”

<sup>50</sup> Lavan and B’tu’el replied, “Since this comes from ADONAI, we can’t say anything to you either bad or good. <sup>51</sup> Rivkah is here in front of you; take her and go. Let her be your master’s son’s wife, as ADONAI has said.” <sup>52</sup> When Avraham’s servant heard what they said, he prostrated himself on the ground to ADONAI. (v) <sup>53</sup> Then the servant brought out silver and gold jewelry, together with clothing, and gave them to Rivkah. He also gave valuable gifts to her brother and mother. <sup>54</sup> He and his men then ate and drank and stayed the night.

In the morning they got up; and he said, “Send me off to my master.” <sup>55</sup> Her brother and mother said, “Let the girl stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that, she will go.” <sup>56</sup> He answered them, “Don’t delay me, since ADONAI has made my trip successful, but let me go back to my master.”<sup>57</sup> They said, “We will call the girl and see what she says.”<sup>58</sup> They called Rivkah and asked her, “Will you go with this man?” and she replied, “I will.”

<sup>59</sup> So they sent their sister Rivkah away, with her nurse, Avraham’s servant and his men. <sup>60</sup> They blessed Rivkah with these words: “Our sister, may you be the mother of millions, and may your descendants possess the cities of those who hate them.” <sup>61</sup> Then Rivkah and her maids mounted the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rivkah and went on his way.

<sup>62</sup> Meanwhile, Yitz’chak, one evening after coming along the road from Be’er-Lachai-Ro’i — he was living in the Negev — <sup>63</sup> went out walking in the field; and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching. <sup>64</sup> Rivkah too looked up; and when she saw Yitz’chak, she quickly dismounted the camel. <sup>65</sup> She said to the servant, “Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?” When the servant replied, “It’s my master,” she took her veil and covered herself.

<sup>66</sup> The servant told Yitz’chak everything he had done. <sup>67</sup> Then Yitz’chak brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent and took Rivkah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. Thus was Yitz’chak comforted for the loss of his mother.

25 (vi) <sup>1</sup> Avraham took another wife, whose name was K’turah. <sup>2</sup> She bore him Zimran, Yokshan, Medan, Midyan, Yishbak; and Shuach. <sup>3</sup> Yokshan fathered Sh’va and D’dan. The sons of D’dan were Ashurim, L’tushim and L’umim. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Midyan were ‘Eifah, ‘Efer, Hanokh, Avida and Elda’ah. All these were descendants of K’turah.

<sup>5</sup> Avraham gave everything he owned to Yitz’chak. <sup>6</sup> But to the sons of the concubines he made grants while he was still living and sent them off to the east, to the land of Kedem, away from Yitz’chak his son.

<sup>7</sup> This is how long Avraham lived: 175 years. <sup>8</sup> Then Avraham breathed his last, dying at a ripe old age, an old man full of years; and he was gathered to his people. <sup>9</sup> Yitz’chak and Yishma‘el his sons buried him in the cave of Makhpelah, in the field of ‘Efron the son of Tzochar the Hitti, by Mamre, <sup>10</sup> the field which Avraham purchased from the sons of Het. Avraham was buried there with Sarah his wife.

<sup>11</sup> After Avraham died, God blessed Yitz'chak his son, and Yitz'chak lived near Be'er-Lachai-Ro'i.

(vii) <sup>12</sup> Here is the genealogy of Yishma'el, Avraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian woman bore to Avraham. <sup>13</sup> These are the names of the sons of Yishma'el, listed in the order of their birth. The firstborn of Yishma'el was N'vayot; followed by Kedar, Adbe'el, Mivsam, <sup>14</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, <sup>15</sup> Hadad, Teima, Y'tur, Nafish and Kedmah. (Maftir) <sup>16</sup> These are the sons of Yishma'el, and these are their names, according to their settlements and camps, twelve tribal rulers.

<sup>17</sup> This is how long Yishma'el lived: 137 years. Then he breathed his last, died and was gathered to his people.

<sup>18</sup> Yishma 'el's sons lived between Havilah and Shur, near Egypt as you go toward Ashur; he settled near all his kinsmen.

Haftarah Hayyei-Sarah: M'lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 1:1–31

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Hayyei-Sarah:
Mat-tiyahu (Matthew) 8:19–22; 27:3–10; Luke 9:57–62

Parashah 6: Tol'dot (History) 25:19–28:9

<sup>19</sup> Here is the history of Yitz'chak, Avraham's son. Avraham fathered Yitz'chak. <sup>20</sup> Yitz'chak was forty years old when he took Rivkah, the daughter of B'tu'el the Arami from Paddan-Aram and sister of Lavan the Arami, to be his wife. <sup>21</sup> Yitz'chak prayed to ADONAI on behalf of his wife, because she was childless. ADONAI heeded his prayer, and Rivkah became pregnant. <sup>22</sup> The children fought with each other inside her so much that she said, "If it's going to be like this, why go on living?" So she went to inquire of ADONAI, <sup>23</sup> who answered her, "There are two nations in your womb. From birth they will be two rival peoples. One of these peoples will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger."

<sup>24</sup> When the time for her delivery came, there were twins in her womb. <sup>25</sup> The first to come out was reddish and covered all over with hair, like a coat; so they named him 'Esav [completely formed, that is, having hair already].

<sup>26</sup> Then his brother emerged, with his hand holding 'Esav's heel, so he was called Ya'akov [he catches by the heel, he supplants]. Yitz'chak was sixty years old when she bore them.

<sup>27</sup> The boys grew; and 'Esav became a skillful hunter, an outdoorsman; while Ya'akov was a quiet man who stayed in the tents. <sup>28</sup> Yitz'chak favored 'Esav, because he had a taste for game; Rivkah favored Ya'akov.

<sup>29</sup> One day when Ya'akov had cooked some stew, 'Esav came in from the open country, exhausted, <sup>30</sup> and said to Ya'akov, "Please! Let me gulp down some of that red stuff — that red stuff! I'm exhausted!" (This is why he was called Edom [red].) <sup>31</sup> Ya'akov answered, "First sell me your rights as the firstborn." <sup>32</sup> "Look, I'm about to die!" said 'Esav. "What use to me are my rights as the firstborn?" <sup>33</sup> Ya'akov said, "First, swear to me!" So he swore to him, thus selling his birthright to Ya'akov. <sup>34</sup> Then Ya'akov gave him bread and lentil stew; he ate and drank, got up and went on his way. Thus 'Esav showed how little he valued his birthright.

26 <sup>1</sup> A famine came over the land, not the same as the first famine, which had taken place when Avraham was alive. Yitz'chak went to G'rar, to Avimelekh king of the P'lishtim. <sup>2</sup>ADONAI appeared to him and said, "Don't go down into Egypt, but live where I tell you. <sup>3</sup> Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you, because I will give all these lands to you and to your descendants. I will fulfill the oath which I swore to Avraham your father — <sup>4</sup> I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, I will give all these lands to your descendants, and by your descendants all the nations of the earth will bless themselves. <sup>5</sup> All this is because Avraham heeded what I said and did what I told him to do — he followed my mitzvot, my regulations and my teachings."

(ii) <sup>6</sup> So Yitz'chak settled in G'rar. <sup>7</sup> The men of the place asked him about his wife, and out of fear he said, "She is my sister." He thought, "If I tell them she's my wife, they might kill me in order to take Rivkah. After all, she is a beautiful woman." <sup>8</sup> But one day, after he had lived there a long time, Avimelekh king of the P'lishtim happened to be looking out of a window when he spotted Yitz'chak caressing Rivkah his wife. <sup>9</sup> Avimelekh summoned Yitz'chak and said, "So she is your wife, after all! How come you said, 'She is my sister'?" Yitz'chak responded, "Because I thought, 'I could get killed because of her.'" <sup>10</sup> Avimelekh said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people could easily have slept with your wife, and

you would have brought guilt on us!”<sup>11</sup> Then Avimelekh warned all the people: “Whoever touches this man or his wife will certainly be put to death.”

<sup>12</sup> Yitz’chak planted crops in that land and reaped that year a hundred times as much as he had sowed. ADONAI had blessed him.

(iii)<sup>13</sup> The man became rich and prospered more and more, until he had become very wealthy indeed.<sup>14</sup> He had flocks, cattle and a large household; and the P’lishtim envied him.<sup>15</sup> Now the P’lishtim had stopped up and filled with dirt all the wells his father’s servants had dug during the lifetime of Avraham his father.<sup>16</sup> Avimelekh said to Yitz’chak, “You must go away from us, because you have become much more powerful than we are.”<sup>17</sup> So Yitz’chak left, set up camp in Vadi G’rar and lived there.<sup>18</sup> Yitz’chak reopened the wells which had been dug during the lifetime of Avraham his father, the ones the P’lishtim had stopped up after Avraham died, and called them by the names his father had used for them.<sup>19</sup> Yitz’chak’s servants dug in the vadi and uncovered a spring of running water.<sup>20</sup> But the herdsmen of G’rar quarreled with Yitz’chak’s herdsmen, claiming, “That water is ours!” So he called the well ‘Esek [quarrel], because they quarreled with him.<sup>21</sup> They dug another well and quarreled over that one too. So he called it Sitnah [enmity].<sup>22</sup> He went away from there and dug another well, and over that one they didn’t quarrel. So he called it Rechovot [wide open spaces] and said, “Because now ADONAI has made room for us, and we will be productive in the land.”

(iv)<sup>23</sup> From there Yitz’chak went up to Be’er-Sheva.<sup>24</sup> ADONAI appeared to him that same night and said, “I am the God of Avraham your father. Don’t be afraid, because I am with you; I will bless you and increase your descendants for the sake of my servant Avraham.”<sup>25</sup> There he built an altar and called on the name of ADONAI. He pitched his tent there, and there Yitz’chak’s servants dug a well.

<sup>26</sup> Then Avimelekh went to him from G’rar with his friend Achuzat and Pikhoh the commander of his army.<sup>27</sup> Yitz’chak said to them, “Why have you come to me, even though you were unfriendly to me and sent me away?”<sup>28</sup> They answered, “We saw very clearly that ADONAI has been with you; so we said, ‘Let there be an oath between us: let’s make a pact between ourselves and you<sup>29</sup> that you will not harm us, just as we have not caused you offense but have done you nothing but good and sent you on your way in peace. Now you are blessed by ADONAI.’”

(v) <sup>30</sup> Yitz'chak prepared a banquet for them, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup> The next morning, they got up early and swore to each other. Then Yitz'chak sent them on their way, and they left him peacefully. <sup>32</sup> That very day Yitz'chak's servants came and told him about the well they had dug, "We have found water." <sup>33</sup> So he called it Shiv'ah [oath, seven], and for this reason the name of the city is Be'er-Sheva [well of seven, well of an oath] to this day.

<sup>34</sup> When 'Esav was forty years old, he took as wives Y'hudit the daughter of Be'eri the Hitti and Basmat the daughter of Elon the Hitti. <sup>35</sup> But they became a cause for embitterment of spirit to Yitz'chak and Rivkah.

27<sup>1</sup> In the course of time, after Yitz'chak had grown old and his eyes dim, so that he couldn't see, he called 'Esav his older son and said to him, "My son?" and he answered, "Here I am." <sup>2</sup> "Look, I'm old now, I don't know when I will die. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, please take your hunting gear — your quiver of arrows and your bow; go out in the country, and get me some game. <sup>4</sup> Make it tasty, the way I like it; and bring it to me to eat. Then I will bless you [as firstborn], before I die."

<sup>5</sup> Rivkah was listening when Yitz'chak spoke to his son 'Esav. So when 'Esav went out to the country to hunt for game and bring it back, <sup>6</sup> she said to her son Ya'akov, "Listen! I heard your father telling 'Esav your brother, <sup>7</sup> 'Bring me game, and make it tasty, so I can eat it. Then I will give you my blessing in the presence of ADONAI, before my death.' <sup>8</sup> Now pay attention to me, my son; and do what I tell you. <sup>9</sup> Go to the flock, and bring me back two choice kids. I will make it tasty for your father, the way he likes it; <sup>10</sup> and you will bring it to your father to eat; so that he will give his blessing to you before his death." <sup>11</sup> Ya'akov answered Rivkah his mother, "Look, 'Esav is hairy, but I have smooth skin. <sup>12</sup> Suppose my father touches me — he'll know I'm trying to trick him, and I'll bring a curse on myself, not a blessing!" <sup>13</sup> But his mother said, "Let your curse be on me. Just listen to me, and go get me the kids!" <sup>14</sup> So he went, got them and brought them to his mother; and his mother prepared them in the tasty way his father loved. <sup>15</sup> Next, Rivkah took 'Esav her older son's best clothes, which she had with her in the house, and put them on Ya'akov her younger son; <sup>16</sup> and she put the skins of the goats on his hands and on the smooth parts of his neck. <sup>17</sup>

Then she gave the tasty food and the bread she had prepared to her son Ya'akov.

<sup>18</sup> He went to his father and said, "My father?" He replied, "Here I am; who are you, my son?" <sup>19</sup> Ya'akov said to his father, "I am 'Esav your firstborn. I've done what you asked me to do. Get up now, sit down, eat the game, and then give me your blessing." <sup>20</sup> Yitz'chak said to his son, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?" He answered, "ADONAI your God made it happen that way." <sup>21</sup> Yitz'chak said to Ya'akov, "Come here, close to me, so I can touch you, my son, and know whether you are in fact my son 'Esav or not." <sup>22</sup> Ya'akov approached Yitz'chak his father, who touched him and said, "The voice is Ya'akov's voice, but the hands are 'Esav's hands." <sup>23</sup> However, he didn't detect him; because his hands were hairy like his brother 'Esav's hands; so he gave him his blessing. <sup>24</sup> He asked, "Are you really my son 'Esav?" And he replied, "I am." <sup>25</sup> He said, "Bring it here to me, and I will eat my son's game, so that I can give you my blessing." So he brought it up to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup> Then his father Yitz'chak said to him, "Come close now, and kiss me, my son." <sup>27</sup> He approached and kissed him. Yitz'chak smelled his clothes and blessed Ya'akov with these words: "See, my son smells like a field which ADONAI has blessed. (vi) <sup>28</sup> So may God give you dew from heaven, the richness of the earth, and grain and wine in abundance. <sup>29</sup> May peoples serve you and nations bow down to you. May you be lord over your kinsmen, let your mother's descendants bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you!"

<sup>30</sup> But as soon as Yitz'chak had finished giving his blessing to Ya'akov, when Ya'akov had barely left his father's presence, 'Esav his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup> He too had prepared a tasty meal and brought it to his father, and now he said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat from his son's game, so that you may give me your blessing." <sup>32</sup> Yitz'chak his father said to him, "Who are you?" and he answered, "I am your son, your firstborn, 'Esav." <sup>33</sup> Yitz'chak began trembling uncontrollably and said, "Then who was it that took game and brought it to me? I ate it all just before you came, and I gave my blessing to him. That's the truth, and the blessing must stand." <sup>34</sup> When 'Esav heard his father's words he burst into loud, bitter sobbing. "Father, bless me too," he begged. <sup>35</sup> He replied, "Your brother came deceitfully and took away your blessing." <sup>36</sup> 'Esav said, "His name, Ya'akov [he supplants], really suits him — because he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, and here, now he has taken away my blessing!" Then he asked, "Haven't you saved a blessing for me?" <sup>37</sup> Yitz'chak answered 'Esav, "Look, I have made him your lord, I have given him all his kinsmen as servants, and I have given him grain and wine to sustain him. What else is there that I can do for you, my son?" <sup>38</sup> 'Esav said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, my father? Father, bless me too!" 'Esav wept aloud, <sup>39</sup> and Yitz'chak his father answered him: "Here! Your home will be of the richness of the earth and of the dew of heaven from above. <sup>40</sup> You will live by your sword, and you will serve your brother. But when you break loose, you will shake his yoke off your neck."

<sup>41</sup> 'Esav hated his brother because of the blessing his father had given him. 'Esav said to himself, "The time for mourning my father will soon come, and then I will kill my brother Ya'akov." <sup>42</sup> But the words of 'Esav her older son were told to Rivkah. She sent for Ya'akov her younger son and said to him, "Here, your brother 'Esav is comforting himself over you by planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup> Therefore, my son, listen to me: get up and escape to Lavan my brother in Haran. <sup>44</sup> Stay with him a little while, until your brother's anger subsides. <sup>45</sup> Your brother's anger will turn away from you, and he will forget what you did to him. Then I'll send and bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you on the same day?"

<sup>46</sup> Rivkah said to Yitz'chak, "I'm sick to death of Hitti women! If Ya'akov marries one of the Hitti women, like those who live here, my life won't be worth living."

28 <sup>1</sup> So Yitz'chak called Ya'akov, and, after blessing him, charged him: "You are not to choose a wife from the Hitti women. <sup>2</sup> Go now to the home of B'tu'el your mother's father, and choose a wife there from the daughters of Lavan your mother's brother. <sup>3</sup> May El Shaddai bless you, make you fruitful and increase your descendants, until they become a whole assembly of peoples. <sup>4</sup> And may he give you the blessing which he gave Avraham, you and your descendants with you, so that you will possess the land you will travel through, the land God gave to Avraham."

(vii) <sup>5</sup> So Yitz'chak sent Ya'akov away; and he went to Paddan-Aram, to Lavan, son of B'tu'el the Arami, the brother of Rivkah Ya'akov's and 'Esav's mother. <sup>6</sup> Now 'Esav saw that Yitz'chak had blessed Ya'akov and sent him away to Paddan-Aram to choose a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he charged him, “You are not to choose a Kena‘ani woman as your wife,” (Maftir) <sup>7</sup> and that Ya‘akov had listened to his father and mother and gone to Paddan-Aram. <sup>8</sup> ‘Esav also saw that the Kena‘ani women did not please Yitz’chak his father. <sup>9</sup> So ‘Esav went to Yishma‘el and took, in addition to the wives he already had, Machalat the daughter of Yishma‘el Avraham’s son, the sister of N’vayot, to be his wife.

Haftarah Tol’dot: Mal’akhi (Malachi) 1:1–2:7

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Tol’dot: Romans 9:6–16; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 11:20; 12:14–17

Parashah 7: Vayetze (He went out) 28:10–32:3(2)

<sup>10</sup> Ya‘akov went out from Be’er-Sheva and traveled toward Haran. <sup>11</sup> He came to a certain place and stayed the night there, because the sun had set. He took a stone from the place, put it under his head and lay down there to sleep. <sup>12</sup> He dreamt that there before him was a ladder resting on the ground with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of ADONAI were going up and down on it. <sup>13</sup> Then suddenly ADONAI was standing there next to him; and he said, “I am ADONAI, the God of Avraham your [grandfather and the God of Yitz’chak. The land on which you are lying I will give to you and to your descendants. <sup>14</sup> Your descendants will be as numerous as the grains of dust on the earth. You will expand to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. By you and your descendants all the families of the earth will be blessed. <sup>15</sup> Look, I am with you. I will guard you wherever you go, and I will bring you back into this land, because I won’t leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

<sup>16</sup> Ya‘akov awoke from his sleep and said, “Truly, ADONAI is in this place — and I didn’t know it!” <sup>17</sup> Then he became afraid and said, “This place is fearsome! This has to be the house of God! This is the gate of heaven!” <sup>18</sup> Ya‘akov got up early in the morning, took the stone he had put under his head, set it up as a standing-stone, poured olive oil on its top <sup>19</sup> and named the place Beit-El [house of God]; but the town had originally been called Luz.

<sup>20</sup> Ya‘akov took this vow: “If God will be with me and will guard me on this road that I am traveling, giving me bread to eat and clothes to wear, <sup>21</sup> so that I return to my father’s house in peace, then ADONAI will be my God; <sup>22</sup> and this stone, which I have set up as a standing-stone, will be God’s house; and of everything you give me, I will faithfully return one-tenth to you.”

29 (ii) <sup>1</sup> Continuing his journey, Ya‘akov came to the land of the people of the east. <sup>2</sup> As he looked, he saw a well in a field; and there were three flocks of sheep lying there next to it; because they watered the sheep from that well. The stone on the well’s mouth was large, <sup>3</sup> and only when all the flocks had gathered there would they roll the stone away from the opening of the well and water the sheep. Then they would put the stone back in its place on the well’s opening.

<sup>4</sup> Ya'akov said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" They answered, "We're from Haran." <sup>5</sup> He asked them, "Do you know Lavan the [grand]son of Nachor?" They said, "We do." <sup>6</sup> He asked them, "Are things going well with him?" "Yes," they answered, "and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep." <sup>7</sup> He said, "Look, there's still plenty of daylight left; and it isn't time to bring the animals home; so water the sheep; then go, and put them out to pasture." <sup>8</sup> They answered, "We can't, not until all the flocks have been gathered together, and they roll the stone away from the opening of the well. That's when we water the sheep."

<sup>9</sup> While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, because she took care of them. <sup>10</sup> When Ya'akov saw Rachel the daughter of Lavan his mother's brother, and the sheep of Lavan his mother's brother, Ya'akov went up and rolled the stone away from the opening of the well and watered the flock of Lavan his mother's brother. <sup>11</sup> Ya'akov kissed Rachel and wept aloud. <sup>12</sup> Ya'akov told Rachel that he was her father's relative, and that he was Rivkah's son; and she ran and told her father. <sup>13</sup> When Lavan heard the news of Ya'akov his sister's son, he ran to meet him, hugged him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Ya'akov told Lavan all that had happened. <sup>14</sup> Lavan said to him, "You are indeed my own flesh and blood."

After Ya'akov had stayed with him for a whole month, <sup>15</sup> Lavan said to him, "Why should you work for me for nothing, just because you are my relative? Tell me how much I should pay you." <sup>16</sup> Now Lavan had two daughters; the name of the older was Le'ah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup> Le'ah's eyes were weak; but Rachel was good-looking, with beautiful features.

(iii) <sup>18</sup> Ya'akov had fallen in love with Rachel and said, "I will work for you seven years in exchange for Rachel your younger daughter." <sup>19</sup> Lavan answered, "Better that I give her to you than to someone else; stay with me." <sup>20</sup> So Ya'akov worked seven years for Rachel, and it seemed only a few days to him, because he was so much in love with her.

<sup>21</sup> Ya'akov said to Lavan, "Give me my wife, since my time is finished, so that I can start living with her." <sup>22</sup> Lavan gathered all the men of the place and gave a banquet. <sup>23</sup> In the evening he took Le'ah his daughter and brought her to Ya'akov, and he went in and slept with her. <sup>24</sup> Lavan also gave his slave-girl Zilpah to his daughter Le'ah as her slave-girl.

<sup>25</sup> In the morning Ya'akov saw that he was with Le'ah, and he said to Lavan, "What kind of thing is this that you've done to me? Didn't I work for you for Rachel? Why have you deceived me?" <sup>26</sup> Lavan answered, "In our place that isn't how it's done, to give the younger daughter before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup> Finish the marriage week of this one, and we'll give you the other one also in exchange for the work you will do for me during yet another seven years." <sup>28</sup> Ya'akov agreed to this, so he finished her week, and Lavan gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife. <sup>29</sup> Lavan also gave to his daughter Rachel his slave-girl Bilhah as her slave-girl. <sup>30</sup> So not only did Ya'akov go in and sleep with Rachel, but he also loved Rachel more than Le'ah. Then he served Lavan another seven years.

<sup>31</sup> ADONAI saw that Le'ah was unloved, so he made her fertile, while Rachel remained childless. <sup>32</sup> Le'ah conceived and gave birth to a son, whom she named Re'uven [see, a son!], for she said, "It is because ADONAI has seen how humiliated I have been, but now my husband will love me." <sup>33</sup> She conceived again, gave birth to a son and said, "It is because ADONAI has heard that I am unloved; therefore he has given me this son also." So she named him Shim'on [hearing]. <sup>34</sup> Once more she conceived and had a son; and she said, "Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore she named him Levi [joining]. <sup>35</sup> She conceived yet again, had a son and said, "This time I will praise ADONAI"; therefore she named him Y'hudah [praise]. Then she stopped having children.

30 <sup>1</sup> When Rachel saw that she was not bearing children for Ya'akov, she envied her sister and said to Ya'akov, "Give me children, or I will die!" <sup>2</sup> This made Ya'akov angry at Rachel; he answered, "Am I in God's place? He's the one who is denying you children." <sup>3</sup> She said, "Here is my maid Bilhah. Go, sleep with her, and let her give birth to a child that will be laid on my knees, so that through her I too can build a family." <sup>4</sup> So she gave him Bilhah her slave-girl as his wife, and Ya'akov went in and slept with her. <sup>5</sup> Bilhah conceived and bore Ya'akov a son. <sup>6</sup> Rachel said, "God has judged in my favor; indeed he has heard me and given me a son." Therefore she called him Dan [he judged].

<sup>7</sup> Bilhah Rachel's slave-girl conceived again and bore Ya'akov a second son. <sup>8</sup> Rachel said, "I have wrestled mightily with my sister and won," and called him Naftali [my wrestling].

<sup>9</sup> When Le'ah saw that she had stopped having children, she took Zilpah her slave-girl and gave her to Ya'akov as his wife. <sup>10</sup> Zilpah Le'ah's slave-girl bore Ya'akov a son; <sup>11</sup> and Le'ah said, "Good fortune has come," calling him Gad [good fortune].

<sup>12</sup> Zilpah Le'ah's slave-girl bore Ya'akov a second son; <sup>13</sup> and Le'ah said, "How happy I am! Women will say I am happy!" and called him Asher [happy].

(iv) <sup>14</sup> During the wheat harvest season Re'uven went and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Le'ah. Rachel said to Le'ah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes [so that I can be fertile]." <sup>15</sup> She answered, "Isn't it enough that you have taken away my husband? Do you have to take my son's mandrakes too?" Rachel said, "Very well; in exchange for your son's mandrakes, sleep with him tonight." <sup>16</sup> When Ya'akov came in from the field in the evening, Le'ah went out to meet him and said, "You have to come and sleep with me, because I've hired you with my son's mandrakes." So Ya'akov slept with her that night. <sup>17</sup> God listened to Le'ah, and she conceived and bore Ya'akov a fifth son. <sup>18</sup> Le'ah said, "God has given me my hire, because I gave my slave-girl to my husband." So she called him Yissakhar [hire, reward].

<sup>19</sup> Le'ah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Ya'akov. <sup>20</sup> Le'ah said, "God has given me a wonderful gift. Now at last my husband will live with me, since I have borne him six sons." And she called him Z'vulun [living together].

<sup>21</sup> After this, she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah [controversy over rights].

<sup>22</sup> Then God took note of Rachel, heeded her prayer and made her fertile. <sup>23</sup> She conceived, had a son and said, "God has taken away my disgrace." <sup>24</sup> She called him Yosef [may he add], saying, "May ADONAI add to me another son."

<sup>25</sup> After Rachel had given birth to Yosef, Ya'akov said to Lavan, "Send me on my way, so that I can return to my own place, to my own country. <sup>26</sup> Let me take my wives, for whom I have served you, and my children; and let me go. You know very well how faithfully I have served you." <sup>27</sup> Lavan answered him, "If you regard me favorably, then please listen: I have observed the signs that ADONAI has blessed me on account of you. (v) <sup>28</sup> Name your wages," he said; "I will pay them." <sup>29</sup> Ya'akov replied, "You know how faithfully I have served you and how your livestock have prospered under my care. <sup>30</sup> The few you had before I came have increased substantially; ADONAI has blessed you wherever I went. But now, when will I provide for my own household?” <sup>31</sup> Lavan said, “What should I give you?” “Nothing,” answered Ya‘akov, “just do this one thing for me: once more I will pasture your flock and take care of it. <sup>32</sup> I will also go through the flock and pick out every speckled, spotted or brown sheep, and every speckled or spotted goat; these and their offspring will be my wages. <sup>33</sup> And I will let my integrity stand as witness against me in the future: when you come to look over the animals constituting my wages, every goat that isn’t speckled or spotted and every sheep that isn’t brown will count as stolen by me.” <sup>34</sup> Lavan replied, “As you have said, so be it.”

<sup>35</sup> That day Lavan removed the male goats that were streaked or spotted and all the female goats that were speckled or spotted, every one with white on it, and all the brown sheep; turned them over to his sons; <sup>36</sup> and put three days’ distance between himself and Ya‘akov. Ya‘akov fed the rest of Lavan’s flocks.

<sup>37</sup> Ya‘akov took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white streaks on them by peeling off the bark. <sup>38</sup> Then he set the rods he had peeled upright in the watering troughs, so that the animals would see them when they came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink, <sup>39</sup> the animals mated in sight of the rods and gave birth to streaked, speckled and spotted young. <sup>40</sup> Ya‘akov divided the lambs and had the animals mate with the streaked and the brown in the flock of Lavan. He also kept his own livestock separate and did not have them mix with Lavan’s flock. <sup>41</sup> Whenever the hardier animals came into heat, Ya‘akov would set up the rods in the watering troughs; so that the animals would see them and conceive in front of them; <sup>42</sup> but he didn’t set up the rods in front of the weaker animals. Thus the more feeble were Lavan’s and the stronger Ya‘akov’s. <sup>43</sup> In this way the man became very rich and had large flocks, along with male and female slaves, camels and donkeys.

31 <sup>1</sup> But then he heard what Lavan’s sons were saying: “Ya‘akov has taken away everything that our father once had. It’s from what used to belong to our father that he has gotten so rich.” <sup>2</sup> He also saw that Lavan regarded him differently than before. <sup>3</sup> ADONAI said to Ya‘akov, “Return to the land of your ancestors, to your kinsmen; I will be with you.”<sup>4</sup> So Ya‘akov sent for Rachel and Le’ah and had them come to the field where his flock was.<sup>5</sup> He said to them, “I see by the way your father looks that he feels differently toward me than before; but the God of my father has been with me.<sup>6</sup> You know that I have served your father with all my strength,<sup>7</sup> and that your father has belittled me and has changed my wages ten times; but God did not allow him to do me any damage.<sup>8</sup> If he said, ‘The speckled will be your wages,’ then all the animals gave birth to speckled young; and if he said, ‘The streaked will be your wages,’ then all the animals gave birth to streaked young.<sup>9</sup> This is how God has taken away your father’s animals and given them to me.<sup>10</sup> Once, when the animals were mating, I had a dream: I looked up and there in front of me the male goats which mated with the females were streaked, speckled and mottled.<sup>11</sup> Then, in the dream, the angel of God said to me, ‘Ya‘akov!’ and I replied, ‘Here I am.’<sup>12</sup> He continued, ‘Raise your eyes now, and look: all the male goats mating with the females are streaked, speckled and mottled; for I have seen everything Lavan has been doing to you.<sup>13</sup> I am the God of Beit-El, where you anointed a standing-stone with oil, where you vowed your vow to me. Now get up, get out of this land, and return to the land where you were born.’”<sup>14</sup> Rachel and Le’ah answered him, “We no longer have any inheritance from our father’s possessions;<sup>15</sup> and he considers us foreigners, since he has sold us; moreover, he has consumed everything he received in exchange for us.<sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, the wealth which God has taken away from our father has become ours and our children’s anyway; so whatever God has told you to do, do.”

(vi)<sup>17</sup> Then Ya‘akov got up, put his sons and wives on the camels,<sup>18</sup> and carried off all his livestock, along with all the riches he had accumulated, the livestock in his possession which he had acquired in Paddan-Aram, to go to Yitz’chak his father in the land of Kena’an.

<sup>19</sup> Now Lavan had gone to shear his sheep, so Rachel stole the household idols that belonged to her father,<sup>20</sup> and Ya‘akov outwitted Lavan the Arami by not telling him of his intended flight.<sup>21</sup> So he fled with everything he had: he departed, crossed the [Euphrates] River and set out for the hill-country of Gil’ad.<sup>22</sup> Not until the third day was Lavan told that Ya‘akov had fled.

<sup>23</sup> Lavan took his kinsmen with him and spent the next seven days pursuing Ya‘akov, overtaking him in the hill-country of Gil’ad.<sup>24</sup> But God

came to Lavan the Arami in a dream that night and said to him, “Be careful that you don’t say anything to Ya’akov, either good or bad.”

<sup>25</sup> When Lavan caught up with Ya’akov, Ya’akov had set up camp in the hill-country; so Lavan and his kinsmen set up camp in the hill-country of Gil’ad. <sup>26</sup> Lavan said to Ya’akov, “What do you mean by deceiving me and carrying off my daughters as if they were captives taken in war? <sup>27</sup> Why did you flee in secret and deceive me and not tell me? I would have sent you off with joy and singing to the music of tambourines and lyres. <sup>28</sup> You didn’t even let me kiss my sons and daughters good-bye! What a stupid thing to do! <sup>29</sup> I have it in my power to do you harm; but the God of your father spoke to me last night and said, ‘Be careful that you don’t say anything to Ya’akov, either good or bad.’ <sup>30</sup> Granted that you had to leave, because you longed so deeply for your father’s house; but why did you steal my gods?” <sup>31</sup> Ya’akov answered Lavan, “Because I was afraid. I said, ‘Suppose you take your daughters away from me by force?’ <sup>32</sup> But if you find your gods with someone, that person will not remain alive. So with our kinsmen to witness, if you spot anything that I have which belongs to you, take it back.” Ya’akov did not know that Rachel had stolen them. <sup>33</sup> Lavan went into Ya’akov’s tent, then into Le’ah’s tent and into the tent of the two slave-girls; but he did not find them. He left Le’ah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent. <sup>34</sup> Now Rachel had taken the household gods, put them in the saddle of the camel and was sitting on them. Lavan felt all around the tent but did not find them. <sup>35</sup> She said to her father, “Please don’t be angry that I’m not getting up in your presence, but it’s the time of my period.” So he searched, but he didn’t find the household gods.

<sup>36</sup> Then Ya’akov became angry and started arguing with Lavan. “What have I done wrong?” he demanded. “What is my offense, that you have come after me in hot pursuit? <sup>37</sup> You have felt around in all my stuff, but what have you found of all your household goods? Put it here, in front of my kinsmen and yours, so that they can render judgment between the two of us! <sup>38</sup> I have been with you for these twenty years! Your female sheep and goats haven’t aborted their young, and I haven’t eaten the male animals in your flocks. <sup>39</sup> If one of your flock was destroyed by a wild animal, I didn’t bring the carcass to you but bore the loss myself. You demanded that I compensate you for any animal stolen, whether by day or by night. <sup>40</sup> Here’s how it was for me: during the day thirst consumed me, and at night the cold — my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup> These twenty years I’ve been in your house — I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock; and you changed my wages ten times! <sup>42</sup> If the God of my father, the God of Avraham, the one whom Yitz'chak fears, had not been on my side, by now you would certainly have already sent me away with nothing! God has seen how distressed I've been and how hard I've worked, and last night he passed judgment in my favor."

(vii) <sup>43</sup> Lavan answered Ya'akov, "The daughters are mine, the children are mine, the flocks are mine, and everything you see is mine! But what can I do today about these daughters of mine or the children they have borne? <sup>44</sup> So now, come, let's make a covenant, I and you; and let it stand as a testimony between me and you." <sup>45</sup> Ya'akov took a stone and set it upright as a standing-stone. <sup>46</sup> Then Ya'akov said to his kinsmen, "Gather some stones"; and they took stones, made a pile of them and ate there by the pile of stones. <sup>47</sup> Lavan called it Y'gar-Sahaduta ["pile of witness" in Aramaic], while Ya'akov called it Gal-'Ed ["pile of witness" in Hebrew].

<sup>48</sup> Lavan said, "This pile witnesses between me and you today." This is why it is called Gal-'Ed <sup>49</sup> and also HaMitzpah [the watchtower], because he said, "May ADONAI watch between me and you when we are apart from each other. <sup>50</sup> If you cause pain to my daughters, or if you take wives in addition to my daughters, then, even if no one is there with us, still God is witness between me and you." <sup>51</sup> Lavan also said to Ya'akov, "Here is this pile, and here is this standing-stone, which I have set up between me and you. <sup>52</sup> May this pile be a witness, and may the standing-stone be a witness, that I will not pass beyond this pile to you, and you will not pass beyond this pile and this standing-stone to me, to cause harm. <sup>53</sup> May the God of Avraham and also the god of Nachor, the god of their father, judge between us." But Ya'akov swore by the One his father Yitz'chak feared. <sup>54</sup> Ya'akov offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his kinsmen to the meal. They ate the food and spent the whole night on the mountain.

32 (Maftir) <sup>1(31:55)</sup> Early in the morning Lavan got up, kissed his sons and daughters, and blessed them. Then Lavan left and returned to his own place. <sup>2(1)</sup> Ya'akov went on his way, and the angels of God met him. <sup>3(2)</sup> When Ya'akov saw them, he said, "This is God's camp," and called that place Machanayim [two camps].

Haftarah Vayetze: Hoshea (Hosea) 12:13(12)–14:10(9) (A); 11:7–12:12(11) (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Vayetze: Yochanan (John) 1:43–51

Parashah 8: Vayishlach (He sent) 32:4(3) –36:43

<sup>4(3)</sup> Ya‘akov sent messengers ahead of him to ‘Esav his brother toward the land of Se‘ir, the country of Edom, <sup>5(4)</sup> with these instructions: “Here is what you are to say to my lord ‘Esav: ‘Your servant Ya‘akov says, “I have been living with Lavan and have stayed until now. <sup>6(5)</sup> I have cattle, donkeys and flocks, and male and female servants. I am sending to tell this news to my lord, in order to win your favor.” ’” <sup>7(6)</sup> The messengers returned to Ya‘akov saying, “We went to your brother ‘Esav, and he is coming to meet you; with him are four hundred men.”

<sup>8(7)</sup> Ya‘akov became greatly afraid and distressed. He divided the people, flocks, cattle and camels with him into two camps, <sup>9(8)</sup> saying, “If ‘Esav comes to the one camp and attacks it, at least the camp that is left will escape.” <sup>10(9)</sup> Then Ya‘akov said, “God of my father Avraham and God of my father Yitz’chak, ADONAI, who told me, ‘Return to your country and your kinsmen, and I will do you good’; <sup>11(10)</sup> I’m not worthy of all the love and faithfulness you have shown your servant, since I crossed the Yarden with only my staff. But now I have become two camps. <sup>12(11)</sup> Please! Rescue me from my brother ‘Esav! I’m afraid of him, afraid he’ll come and attack me, without regard for mothers or children. <sup>13(12)</sup> You said, ‘I will certainly do you good and make your descendants as numerous as the grains of sand by the sea, which are so many they can’t be counted.’” you, ‘Whose servant are you? Where are you going? And whose animals are these?’ <sup>19(18)</sup> then you are to say, ‘They belong to your servant Ya‘akov, and they are a present he has sent to my lord ‘Esav; and Ya‘akov himself is just behind us.’” <sup>20(19)</sup> He also instructed the second servant, and the third, and all that followed the droves, “When you encounter ‘Esav, you are to speak to him in the same way, <sup>21(20)</sup> and you are to add, ‘And there, just behind us, is your servant Ya‘akov.’” For he said, “I will appease him first with the present that goes ahead of me; then, after that, I will see him myself — and maybe he will be friendly toward me.” <sup>22(21)</sup> So the present crossed over ahead of him, and he himself stayed that night in the camp.

(ii) <sup>14(13)</sup> He stayed there that night; then he chose from among his possessions the following as a present for ‘Esav his brother: <sup>15(14)</sup> two hundred female goats and twenty males, two hundred female sheep and twenty males, <sup>16(15)</sup> thirty milk-camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten colts. <sup>17(16)</sup> He turned them over to his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Cross over in front of me, and keep a space between each drove and the next one.” <sup>18(17)</sup> He instructed the servant in front, “When ‘Esav my brother meets you and asks

<sup>23(22)</sup> He got up that night, took his two wives, his two slave-girls, and his eleven children, and forded the Yabok. <sup>24(23)</sup> He took them and sent them across the stream, then sent his possessions across; <sup>25(24)</sup> and Ya‘akov was left alone. Then some man wrestled with him until daybreak. <sup>26(25)</sup> When he saw that he did not defeat Ya‘akov, he struck Ya‘akov’s hip socket, so that his hip was dislocated while wrestling with him. <sup>27(26)</sup> The man said, “Let me go, because it’s daybreak.” But Ya‘akov replied, “I won’t let you go unless you bless me.” <sup>28(27)</sup> The man asked, “What is your name?” and he answered, “Ya‘akov.” <sup>29(28)</sup> Then the man said, “From now on, you will no longer be called Ya‘akov, but Isra’el; because you have shown your strength to both God and men and have prevailed.” <sup>30(29)</sup> Ya‘akov asked him, “Please tell me your name.” But he answered, “Why are you asking about my name?” and blessed him there.

(iii) <sup>31(30)</sup> Ya‘akov called the place P’ni-El [face of God], “Because I have seen God face to face, yet my life is spared.” <sup>32(31)</sup> As the sun rose upon him he went on past P’ni-El, limping at the hip. <sup>33(32)</sup> This is why, to this day, the people of Isra’el do not eat the thigh muscle that passes along the hip socket — because the man struck Ya‘akov’s hip at its socket.

33 <sup>1</sup> Ya‘akov raised his eyes and looked out; and there was ‘Esav coming, and four hundred men with him. So Ya‘akov divided the children between Le’ah, Rachel and the two slave-girls, <sup>2</sup> putting the slave-girls and their children first, Le’ah and her children second, and Rachel and Yosef last. <sup>3</sup> Then he himself passed on ahead of them and prostrated himself on the ground seven times before approaching his brother. <sup>4</sup> ‘Esav ran to meet him, hugged him, threw his arms around his neck and kissed him; and they wept.

<sup>5</sup> Esav looked up; on seeing the women and children, he asked, “Who are these with you?” Ya‘akov answered, “The children God has graciously given to your servant.”

(iv) <sup>6</sup> Then the slave-girls approached with their children, and they prostrated themselves; <sup>7</sup> Le’ah too and her children approached and prostrated themselves; and last came Yosef and Rachel; and they prostrated themselves. <sup>8</sup> ‘Esav asked, “What was the meaning of this procession of droves I encountered?” and he answered, “It was to win my lord’s favor.” <sup>9</sup> ‘Esav replied, “I have plenty already; my brother, keep your possessions for yourself.” <sup>10</sup> Ya‘akov said, “No, please! If now I have won your favor, then accept my gift. Just seeing your face has been like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me. <sup>11</sup> So please accept the gift I have brought you, for God has dealt kindly with me and I have enough.” Thus he urged him, until he accepted it.

<sup>12</sup> ‘Esav said, “Let’s break camp and get going. I’ll go first.” <sup>13</sup> Ya‘akov said to him, “My lord knows that the children are small, and the sheep and cattle suckling their young concern me, because if they overdrive them even one day, all the flocks will die. <sup>14</sup> Instead, please, let my lord go on ahead of his servant. I will travel more slowly, at the pace of the cattle ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Se‘ir.” <sup>15</sup> ‘Esav replied, “Then let me leave with you some of the people I have with me.” But Ya‘akov said, “There’s no need for my lord to be so kind to me.” <sup>16</sup> So ‘Esav left that day to return to Se‘ir. <sup>17</sup> Ya‘akov went on to Sukkot, where he built himself a house and put up shelters for his cattle. This is why the place is called Sukkot [shelters].

<sup>18</sup> Having traveled from Paddan-Aram, Ya‘akov arrived safely at the city of Sh’khem, in Kena’an, and set up camp near the city. <sup>19</sup> From the sons of Hamor Sh’khem’s father he bought for one hundred pieces of silver the parcel of land where he had pitched his tent. <sup>20</sup> There he put up an altar, which he called El-Elohei-Yisra’el [God, the God of Isra’el].

34 (v) <sup>1</sup> One time Dinah the daughter of Le’ah, whom she had borne to Ya‘akov, went out to visit the local girls; <sup>2</sup> and Sh’khem the son of Hamor the Hivi, the local ruler, saw her, grabbed her, raped her and humiliated her. <sup>3</sup> But actually he was strongly attracted to Dinah the daughter of Ya‘akov; he fell in love with the girl and tried to win her affection. <sup>4</sup> Sh’khem spoke with his father Hamor and said, “Get this girl for me; I want her to be my wife.”

<sup>5</sup> When Ya‘akov heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Ya‘akov restrained himself until they came. <sup>6</sup> Hamor the father of Sh’khem went out to Ya‘akov to speak with him <sup>7</sup> just as Ya‘akov’s sons were coming in from the field. When they heard what had happened, the men were saddened and were very angry at the outrage this man had committed against Isra’el by raping Ya‘akov’s daughter, something that is simply not done. <sup>8</sup> But Hamor said to them, “My son Sh’khem’s heart is set on your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife; <sup>9</sup> and intermarry with us: give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. <sup>10</sup> You will live with us, and the land will be available to you — you’ll live, do business and acquire possessions here.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Sh’khem said to her father and brothers, “Only accept me, and I will give whatever you tell me. <sup>12</sup> Ask as large a bride-price as you like, I’ll pay whatever you tell me. Just let me marry the girl.” <sup>13</sup> The sons of Ya‘akov answered Sh’khem and Hamor his father deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister. <sup>14</sup> They said to them, “We can’t do it, because it would be a disgrace to give our sister to someone who hasn’t been circumcised. <sup>15</sup> Only on this condition will we consent to what you are asking: that you become like us by having every male among you get circumcised. <sup>16</sup> Then we’ll give our daughters to you, and we’ll take your daughters for ourselves, and we’ll live with you and become one people. <sup>17</sup> But if you won’t do as we say and get circumcised, then we’ll take our daughter and go away.” <sup>18</sup> What they said seemed fair to Hamor and Sh’khem the son of Hamor, <sup>19</sup> and the young man did not put off doing what was asked of him, even though he was the most respected member of his father’s family, because he so much wanted Ya‘akov’s daughter.

<sup>20</sup> Hamor and Sh’khem his son came to the entrance of their city and spoke with its leading men: <sup>21</sup> “These people are peaceful toward us; therefore let them live in the land and do business in it; for, as you can see, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives for ourselves, and we’ll give them our daughters. <sup>22</sup> But the people will consent to live with us and become one people only on this condition: that every male among us gets circumcised, as they themselves are circumcised. <sup>23</sup> Won’t their cattle, their possessions and all their animals be ours? Only let’s consent to do what they ask, and then they will live with us.” <sup>24</sup> Everyone going out the city's gate listened to Hamor and Sh'khem his son; so every male was circumcised, every one that went out the gate of the city.

<sup>25</sup> On the third day after the circumcision, when they were in pain, two of Ya'akov's sons, Shim'on and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords, boldly descended on the city and slaughtered all the males. <sup>26</sup> They killed Hamor and Sh'khem his son with their swords, took Dinah out of Sh'khem's house, and left. <sup>27</sup> Then the sons of Ya'akov entered over the dead bodies of those who had been slaughtered and plundered the city in reprisal for defiling their sister. <sup>28</sup> They took their flocks, cattle and donkeys, and everything else, whether in the city or in the field, <sup>29</sup> everything they owned. Their children and wives they took captive, and they looted whatever was in the houses.

<sup>30</sup> But Ya'akov said to Shim'on and Levi, "You have caused me trouble by making me stink in the opinion of the local inhabitants, the Kena'ani and the P'rizi. Since I don't have many people, they'll align themselves together against me and attack me; and I will be destroyed, I and my household." <sup>31</sup> They replied, "Should we let our sister be treated like a whore?"

35 <sup>1</sup> God said to Ya'akov, "Get up, go up to Beit-El and live there, and make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled 'Esav your brother." <sup>2</sup> Then Ya'akov said to his household and all the others with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that you have with you, purify yourselves, and put on fresh clothes. <sup>3</sup> We're going to move on and go up to Beit-El. There I will build an altar to God, who answered me when I was in such distress and stayed with me wherever I went." <sup>4</sup> They gave Ya'akov all the foreign gods in their possession and the earrings they were wearing, and Ya'akov buried them under the pistachio tree near Sh'khem. <sup>5</sup> While they were traveling, a terror from God fell upon the cities around them, so that none of them pursued the sons of Ya'akov.

<sup>6</sup> Ya'akov and all the people with him arrived at Luz (that is, Beit-El) in the land of Kena'an. <sup>7</sup> He built there an altar and called the place El-Beit-El [God of Beit-El], because it was there that God was revealed to him, at the time when he was fleeing from his brother.

<sup>8</sup> Then D'vorah, Rivkah's nurse, died. She was buried below Beit-El under the oak, which was given the name Alon-Bakhut [oak of weeping].

<sup>9</sup> After Ya'akov arrived from Paddan-Aram, God appeared to him again and blessed him. <sup>10</sup> God said to him, "Your name is Ya'akov, but you will be called Ya'akov no longer; your name will be Isra'el." Thus he named him Isra'el. <sup>11</sup> God further said to him, "I am El Shaddai. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation, indeed a group of nations, will come from you; kings will be descended from you. (A: vi) <sup>12</sup> Moreover, the land which I gave to Avraham and Yitz'chak I will give to you, and I will give the land to your descendants after you." <sup>13</sup> Then God went up from him there where he had spoken with him. (S: vi) <sup>14</sup> Ya'akov set up a standing-stone in the place where he had spoken with him, a stone pillar. Then he poured out a drink offering on it and poured oil on it. <sup>15</sup> Ya'akov called the place where God spoke with him Beit-El.

<sup>16</sup> Then they traveled on from Beit-El, and while there was still some distance to go before arriving in Efrat, Rachel went into labor, and she had great difficulty with it. <sup>17</sup> While she was undergoing this hard labor, the midwife said to her, "Don't worry, this is also a son for you." <sup>18</sup> But she died in childbirth. As she was dying she named her son Ben-Oni [son of my grief], but his father called him Binyamin [son of the right hand, son of the south]. <sup>19</sup> So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Efrat (that is, Beit-Lechem). <sup>20</sup> Ya'akov set up a standing-stone on her grave; it is the standing-stone of Rachel's grave to this day.

<sup>21</sup> Isra'el continued his travels and pitched his tent on the other side of Migdal-'Eder. <sup>22</sup> It was while Isra'el was living in that land that Re'uven went and slept with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Isra'el heard about it.

Ya'akov had twelve sons. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Le'ah were Re'uven Ya'akov's firstborn, Shim'on, Levi, Y'hudah, Yissakhar and Z'vulun. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Rachel were Yosef and Binyamin. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Bilhah Rachel's slave-girl were Dan and Naftali. <sup>26</sup> And the sons of Zilpah Le'ah's slave-girl were Gad and Asher. These were Ya'akov's sons, born to him in Paddan-Aram.

<sup>27</sup> Ya'akov came home to his father Yitz'chak at Mamre, near Kiryat-Arba (also known as Hevron), where Avraham and Yitz'chak had lived as foreigners. <sup>28</sup> Yitz'chak lived to be 180 years old. <sup>29</sup> Then he breathed his last, died and was gathered to his people, an old man full of years; and his sons 'Esav and Ya'akov buried him.

36 <sup>1</sup> This is the genealogy of 'Esav (that is, Edom). <sup>2</sup> 'Esav chose Kena'ani women as his wives: 'Adah the daughter of Eilon the Hitti; Oholivamah the daughter of 'Anah the daughter of Tziv'on the Hivi; <sup>3</sup> and Basmat Yishma'el's daughter, sister of N'vayot. <sup>4</sup> 'Adah bore to 'Esav Elifaz, Basmat bore Re'u'el, <sup>5</sup> and Oholivamah bore Ye'ush, Ya'lam and Korach. These were the sons of 'Esav born to him in the land of Kena'an.

<sup>6</sup> 'Esav took his wives, his sons and daughters, the others in his household, his cattle and other animals and everything else he owned, which he had acquired in the land of Kena'an, and went off to a country distant from his brother Ya'akov. <sup>7</sup> For their possessions had become too great for them to live together, and the countryside through which they were traveling couldn't support so much livestock. <sup>8</sup> So 'Esav lived in the hill-country of Se'ir. ('Esav is Edom.)

<sup>9</sup> This is the genealogy of 'Esav the father of Edom in the hill-country of Se'ir. <sup>10</sup> The names of 'Esav's sons were Elifaz, son of 'Adah the wife of 'Esav, and Re'u'el the son of Basmat the wife of 'Esav.

<sup>11</sup> The sons of Elifaz were Teman, Omar, Tzefo, Ga'tam and K'naz. <sup>12</sup> Timnah was the concubine of Elifaz 'Esav's son, and she bore to Elifaz 'Amalek. These were the descendants of 'Adah 'Esav's wife.

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Re'u'el were Nachat, Zerach, Shammah and Mizah. These were the sons of Basmat 'Esav's wife.

<sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Oholivamah, the daughter of 'Anah the daughter of Tziv'on, 'Esav's wife: she bore to 'Esav Ye'ush, Ya'lam and Korach.

<sup>15</sup> The chieftains of the sons of 'Esav were the sons of Elifaz the firstborn of 'Esav and the chieftains of Teman, Omar, Tzefo, K'naz, <sup>16</sup> Korach, Ga'tam and 'Amalek. These were the chieftains descended from Elifaz in Edom and from 'Adah.

<sup>17</sup> The sons of Re'u'el 'Esav's son were the chieftains of Nachat, Zerach, Shammah and Mizah. These were the chieftains descended from Re'u'el in the land of Edom and from Basmat 'Esav's wife.

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Oholivamah 'Esav's wife were the chieftains of Ye'ush, Ya'lam and Korach. These were the chieftains descended from Oholivamah the daughter of 'Anah, 'Esav's wife.

<sup>19</sup> These were the descendants of 'Esav (that is, Edom), and these were their chieftains.

(vii) <sup>20</sup> These were the descendants of Se'ir the Hori, the local inhabitants: Lotan, Shoval, Tziv'on, 'Anah, <sup>21</sup> Dishon, Etzer and Dishan. They were the chieftains descended from the Hori, the people of Se'ir in the land of Edom. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; Lotan's sister was Timnah. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Shoval were 'Alvan, Manachat, 'Eival, Sh'fo and Onam. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Tziv'on were Ayah and 'Anah. This is the 'Anah who found the hot springs in the desert while pasturing his father Tziv'on's donkeys. <sup>25</sup> The children of 'Anah were Dishon and Oholivamah the daughter of 'Anah. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Dishon were Hemdan, Eshban, Yitran and K'ran. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Etzer were Bilhan, Za'avan and 'Akan. <sup>28</sup> The sons of Dishan were 'Utz and Aran. <sup>29</sup> These were the chieftains descended from the Hori: the chieftains of Lotan, Shoval, Tziv'on, 'Anah, <sup>30</sup> Dishon, Etzer and Dishan. They were the chieftains descended from the Hori by their clans in Se'ir.

<sup>31</sup> Following are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king had reigned over the people of Isra'el. <sup>32</sup> Bela the son of B'or reigned in Edom; the name of his city was Dinhavah. <sup>33</sup> When Bela died, Yovav the son of Zerach from Botzrah reigned in his place. <sup>34</sup> When Yovav died, Husham from the land of the Temani reigned in his place. <sup>35</sup> When Husham died, Hadad the son of B'dad, who killed Midyan in the field of Mo'av, reigned in his place; the name of his city was 'Avit. <sup>36</sup> When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. <sup>37</sup> When Samlah died, Sha'ul of Rechovot-by-the-River reigned in his place. <sup>38</sup> When Sha'ul died, Ba'al-Chanan the son of 'Akhbor reigned in his place. <sup>39</sup> When Ba'al-Chanan died, Hadar reigned in his place; the name of his city was Pa'u; and his wife's name was M'heitav'el the daughter of Matred the daughter of Mei-Zahav.

(Maftir) <sup>40</sup> These are the names of the chieftains descended from 'Esav, according to their clans, places and names: the chieftains of Timna, 'Alvah, Y'tet, <sup>41</sup> Oholivamah, Elah, Pinon, <sup>42</sup> Kenaz, Teman, Mivtzar, <sup>43</sup> Magdi'el and 'Iram. These were the chieftains of Edom according to their settlements in the land they owned. This is 'Esav the father of Edom.

Haftarah Vayishlach: Hoshea (Hosea) 11:7–12:12(11) (A);
'Ovadyah (Obadiah) 1–21 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Vayishlach: 1 Corinthians 5:1–13; Revelation 7:1–12

Parashah 9: Vayeshev (He continued living) 37:1–40:23

37 <sup>1</sup> Ya‘akov continued living in the land where his father had lived as a foreigner, the land of Kena‘an.

<sup>2</sup> Here is the history of Ya‘akov. When Yosef was seventeen years old he used to pasture the flock with his brothers, even though he was still a boy. Once when he was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father’s wives, he brought a bad report about them to their father. <sup>3</sup> Now Isra’el loved Yosef the most of all his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a long-sleeved robe. <sup>4</sup> When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they began to hate him and reached the point where they couldn’t even talk with him in a civil manner.

<sup>5</sup> Yosef had a dream which he told his brothers, and that made them hate him all the more. <sup>6</sup> He said to them, “Listen while I tell you about this dream of mine. <sup>7</sup> We were tying up bundles of wheat in the field when suddenly my bundle got up by itself and stood upright; then your bundles came, gathered around mine and prostrated themselves before it.” <sup>8</sup> His brothers retorted, “Yes, you will certainly be our king. You’ll do a great job of bossing us around!” And they hated him still more for his dreams and for what he said.

<sup>9</sup> He had another dream which he told his brothers: “Here, I had another dream, and there were the sun, the moon and eleven stars prostrating themselves before me.” <sup>10</sup> He told his father too, as well as his brothers, but his father rebuked him: “What is this dream you have had? Do you really expect me, your mother and your brothers to come and prostrate ourselves before you on the ground?” <sup>11</sup> His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

(ii) <sup>12</sup> After this, when his brothers had gone to pasture their father’s sheep in Sh’khem, <sup>13</sup> Isra’el asked Yosef, “Aren’t your brothers pasturing the sheep in Sh’khem? Come, I will send you to them.” He answered, “Here I am.” <sup>14</sup> He said to him, “Go now, see whether things are going well with your brothers and with the sheep, and bring word back to me.” So he sent him away from the Hebron Valley, and he went to Sh’khem, <sup>15</sup> where a man found him wandering around in the countryside. The man asked him, “What are you looking for?” <sup>16</sup> “I’m looking for my brothers,” he answered. “Tell me, please, where are they pasturing the sheep?”<sup>17</sup> The man said, “They’ve left here; because I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dotan.’” Yosef went after his brothers and found them in Dotan.

<sup>18</sup> They spotted him in the distance, and before he had arrived where they were, they had already plotted to kill him. <sup>19</sup> They said to each other, “Look, this dreamer is coming! <sup>20</sup> So come now, let’s kill him and throw him into one of these water cisterns here. Then we’ll say some wild animal devoured him. We’ll see then what becomes of his dreams!” <sup>21</sup> But when Re’uven heard this, he saved him from being destroyed by them. He said, “We shouldn’t take his life. <sup>22</sup> Don’t shed blood,” Re’uven added. “Throw him into this cistern here in the wilds, but don’t lay hands on him yourselves.” He intended to rescue him from them later and restore him to his father.

(iii) <sup>23</sup> So it was that when Yosef arrived to be with his brothers, they stripped off his robe, the long-sleeved robe he was wearing, <sup>24</sup> and took him and threw him into the cistern (the cistern was empty; without any water in it). <sup>25</sup> Then they sat down to eat their meal; but as they looked up, they saw in front of them a caravan of Yishma‘elim coming from Gil‘ad, their camels loaded with aromatic gum, healing resin and opium, on their way down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup> Y’hudah said to his brothers, “What advantage is it to us if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? <sup>27</sup> Come, let’s sell him to the Yishma‘elim, instead of putting him to death with our own hands. After all, he is our brother, our own flesh.” His brothers paid attention to him. <sup>28</sup> So when the Midyanim, merchants, passed by, they drew and lifted Yosef up out of the cistern and sold him for half a pound of silver shekels to the Yishma‘elim, who took Yosef on to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup> Re’uven returned to the cistern, and, upon seeing that Yosef wasn’t in it, tore his clothes in mourning. <sup>30</sup> He returned to his brothers and said, “The boy isn’t there! Where can I go now?”

<sup>31</sup> They took Yosef’s robe, killed a male goat and dipped the robe in the blood. <sup>32</sup> Then they sent the long-sleeved robe and brought it to their father, saying, “We found this. Do you know if it’s your son’s robe or not?” <sup>33</sup> He recognized it and cried, “It’s my son’s robe! Some wild animal has torn Yosef in pieces and eaten him!” <sup>34</sup> Ya‘akov tore his clothes and, putting sackcloth around his waist, mourned his son for many days. <sup>35</sup> Though all his sons and daughters tried to comfort him, he refused all consolation, saying, “No, I will go down to the grave, to my son, mourning.” And his father wept for him.

<sup>36</sup> In Egypt the Midyanim sold Yosef to Potifar, one of Pharaoh’s officials, a captain of the guard.

38 (iv) <sup>1</sup> It was at this time that Y’hudah went off from his brothers and settled near a man named Hirah who was an ‘Adulami. <sup>2</sup> There Y’hudah saw one of the daughters of a certain Kena’ani whose name was Shua, and he took her and slept with her. <sup>3</sup> She conceived and had a son, whom he named ‘Er. <sup>4</sup> She conceived again and had a son, and she called him Onan. <sup>5</sup> Then she conceived yet again and had a son whom she called Shelah; he was in K’ziv when she gave birth to him.

<sup>6</sup> Y’hudah took a wife for ‘Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. <sup>7</sup> But ‘Er, Y’hudah’s firstborn, was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so ADONAI killed him. <sup>8</sup> Y’hudah said to Onan, “Go and sleep with your brother’s wife — perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her, and preserve your brother’s line of descent.” <sup>9</sup> However, Onan knew that the child would not count as his; so whenever he had intercourse with his brother’s wife, he spilled the semen on the ground, so as not to give his brother offspring. <sup>10</sup> What he did was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so he killed him too.

<sup>11</sup> Then Y’hudah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, “Stay a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up”; for he thought, “I don’t want him to die too, like his brothers.” So Tamar went and lived at home with her father. <sup>12</sup> In due time, Shua’s daughter, the wife of Y’hudah, died. After Y’hudah had been comforted, he went up to be with his sheep-shearers in Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the ‘Adulami. <sup>13</sup> Tamar was told, “Your father-in-law has gone up to Timnah to shear his sheep.” <sup>14</sup> So she took off her widow’s clothes, completely covered her face with her veil, and sat at the entrance to ‘Einayim, which is on the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah had grown up, but she still was not being given to him as his wife. <sup>15</sup> When Y’hudah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute, because she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup> So he went over to her where she was sitting and said, not realizing that she was his daughter-in-law, “Come, let me sleep with you.” She answered, “What will you pay to sleep with me?” <sup>17</sup> He said, “I will send you a kid from the flock of goats.” She said, “Will you also give me something as a guarantee until you send it” <sup>18</sup> He answered, “What should I give you as a guarantee?” She said, “Your seal, with its cord, and the staff you’re carrying in your hand.” So he gave them to her, then went and slept with her; and she conceived by him.<sup>19</sup> She got up and went away, took off her veil and put on her widow’s clothes.

<sup>20</sup> Y’hudah sent the kid with his friend the ‘Adulami to receive the guarantee items back from the woman, but he couldn’t find her.<sup>21</sup> He asked the people near where she had been, “Where is the prostitute who was on the road at ‘Einayim?” But they answered, “There hasn’t been any prostitute here.”<sup>22</sup> So he returned to Y’hudah and said, “I couldn’t find her; also the people there said, ‘There hasn’t been any prostitute here.’”<sup>23</sup> Y’hudah said, “All right, let her keep the things, so that we won’t be publicly shamed. I sent the kid, but you didn’t find her.”

<sup>24</sup> About three months later Y’hudah was told, “Tamar your daughter-in-law has been acting like a whore; moreover, she is pregnant as a result of her prostitution.” Y’hudah said, “Bring her out, and let her be burned alive!”<sup>25</sup> When she was brought out, she sent this message to her father-in-law: “I am pregnant by the man to whom these things belong. Determine, I beg you, whose these are — the signet, the cord and the staff.”<sup>26</sup> Then Y’hudah acknowledged owning them. He said, “She is more righteous than I, because I didn’t let her become the wife of my son Shelah.” And he never slept with her again.

<sup>27</sup> When she went into labor, it became evident that she was going to have twins.<sup>28</sup> As she was in labor, one of them put out his hand; and the midwife took his hand and tied a scarlet thread on it, saying, “This one came out first.”<sup>29</sup> But then he withdrew his hand, and his brother came out; so she said, “How did you manage to break out first?” Therefore he was named Peretz [breaking out].<sup>30</sup> Then out came his brother, with the scarlet thread on his hand, and he was given the name Zerach [scarlet].

39 (v) <sup>1</sup> Yosef was brought down to Egypt, and Potifar, an officer of Pharaoh’s and captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Yishma’elim who had brought him there.<sup>2</sup> ADONAI was with Yosef, and he became wealthy while he was in the household of his master the Egyptian.<sup>3</sup> His master saw how ADONAI was with him, that ADONAI prospered everything he did.<sup>4</sup> Yosef pleased him as he served him, and his master appointed him manager of his household; he entrusted all his possessions to Yosef.<sup>5</sup> From the time he appointed him manager of his household and all his possessions, ADONAI blessed the Egyptian's household for Yosef's sake; ADONAI's blessing was on all he owned, whether in the house or in the field. <sup>6</sup> So he left all his possessions in Yosef's care; and because he had him, he paid no attention to his affairs, except for the food he ate.

Now Yosef was well-built and handsome as well. (vi) <sup>7</sup> In time, the day came when his master's wife took a look at Yosef and said, "Sleep with me!" <sup>8</sup> But he refused, saying to his master's wife, "Look, because my master has me, he doesn't know what's going on in this house. He has put all his possessions in my charge. <sup>9</sup> In this house I am his equal; he hasn't withheld anything from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?" <sup>10</sup> But she kept pressing him, day after day. Nevertheless, he didn't listen to her; he refused to sleep with her or even be with her.

<sup>11</sup> However, one day, when he went into the house to do his work, and none of the men living in the house was there indoors, <sup>12</sup> she grabbed him by his robe and said, "Sleep with me!" But he fled, leaving his robe in her hand, and got himself outside. <sup>13</sup> When she saw that he had left his robe in her hand and had escaped, <sup>14</sup> she called the men of her house and said to them, "Look at this! My husband brought in a Hebrew to make fools of us. He came in and wanted to sleep with me, but I yelled out loudly. <sup>15</sup> When he heard me yelling like that, he left his robe with me and ran out." <sup>16</sup> She put the robe aside until his master came home. <sup>17</sup> Then she said to him, "This Hebrew slave you brought us came in to make a fool of me. <sup>18</sup> But when I yelled out, he left his robe with me and fled outside." <sup>19</sup> When his master heard what his wife said as she showed him, "Here's what your slave did to me," he became furious. <sup>20</sup> Yosef's master took him and put him in prison, in the place where the king's prisoners were kept; and there he was in the prison.

<sup>21</sup> But ADONAI was with Yosef, showing him grace and giving him favor in the sight of the prison warden. <sup>22</sup> The prison warden made Yosef supervisor of all the prisoners in the prison; so that whatever they did there, he was in charge of it. <sup>23</sup> The prison warden paid no attention to anything Yosef did, because ADONAI was with him; and whatever he did, ADONAI prospered.

40 (vii) <sup>1</sup> Some time later it came about that the Egyptian king's cupbearer and baker gave offense to their lord the king of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> Pharaoh became angry with his two officers the chief cupbearer and the chief baker. <sup>3</sup> So he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, in the same place where Yosef was kept. <sup>4</sup> The captain of the guard charged Yosef to be with them, and he became their attendant while they remained in prison.

<sup>5</sup> One night the two of them, the king of Egypt's cupbearer and his baker, there in prison, both had dreams, each dream with its own meaning. <sup>6</sup> Yosef came in to them in the morning and saw that they looked sad. <sup>7</sup> He asked Pharaoh's officers there with him in the prison of his master's house, "Why are you looking so sad today?" <sup>8</sup> They said to him, "We each had a dream, and there's no one around who can interpret it." Yosef said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Tell it to me, please."

<sup>9</sup> Then the chief cupbearer told Yosef his dream: "In my dream, there in front of me was a vine, <sup>10</sup> and the vine had three branches. The branches budded, then it suddenly began to blossom, and finally clusters of ripe grapes appeared. <sup>11</sup> Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, so I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and gave the cup to Pharaoh." <sup>12</sup> Yosef said to him, "Here is its interpretation: the three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup> Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office: you will be giving Pharaoh his cup as you used to when you were his cupbearer. <sup>14</sup> But remember me when it goes well with you; and show me kindness, please; and mention me to Pharaoh, so that he will release me from this prison. <sup>15</sup> For the truth is that I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and here too I have done nothing wrong that would justify putting me in this dungeon."

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Yosef, "I too saw in my dream: there were three baskets of white bread on my head. <sup>17</sup> In the uppermost basket there were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds ate them out of the basket on my head." <sup>18</sup> Yosef answered, "Here is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup> Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from off of you — he will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you."

(Maftir) <sup>20</sup> On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he gave a party for all his officials, and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his officials. <sup>21</sup> He restored the chief

cupbearer back to his position, so that he again gave Pharaoh his cup. <sup>22</sup> But he hanged the chief baker, as Yosef had interpreted to them. <sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, the chief cupbearer didn't remember Yosef, but forgot him.

Haftarah Vayeshev: 'Amos (Amos) 2:6–3:8

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Vayeshev: Acts 7:9–16 (specifically vv. 9–10)

Parashah 10: Mikketz (At the end) 41:1–44:17

41 <sup>1</sup> At the end of two years, Pharaoh had a dream: he was standing beside the Nile River; <sup>2</sup> and there came up out of the river seven cows, sleek and fat; and they began feeding in swamp grass. <sup>3</sup> After them, there came up out of the river seven more cows, miserable-looking and lean; and they stood by the other cows at the edge of the river. <sup>4</sup> Then the miserable-looking and lean cows ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. At this point Pharaoh woke up. <sup>5</sup> But he went to sleep again and dreamt a second time: seven full, ripe ears of grain grew out of a single stalk. <sup>6</sup> After them, seven ears, thin and blasted by the east wind, sprang up. <sup>7</sup> And the thin ears swallowed up the seven full, ripe ears. Then Pharaoh woke up and realized it had been a dream.

<sup>8</sup> In the morning he found himself so upset that he summoned all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one there could interpret them for him. <sup>9</sup> Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, “Today reminds me of something wherein I am at fault: <sup>10</sup> Pharaoh was angry with his officials and put me in the prison of the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker. <sup>11</sup> One night both I and he had dreams, and each man's dream had its own meaning. <sup>12</sup> There was with us a young man, a Hebrew, a servant of the captain of the guard; and we told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us — he interpreted each man's dream individually. <sup>13</sup> And it came about as he interpreted to us — I was restored to my office, and he was hanged.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Yosef, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came in to Pharaoh.

(A: ii) <sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Yosef, “I had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it; but I’ve heard it said about you that when you hear a dream, you can interpret it.” <sup>16</sup> Yosef answered Pharaoh, “It isn’t in me. God will give Pharaoh an answer that will set his mind at peace.” (S: ii) <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh said to Yosef, “In my dream, I stood at the edge of the river; <sup>18</sup> and there came up out of the river seven cows, fat and sleek; and they began feeding in the swamp grass. <sup>19</sup> After them, there came up out of the river seven more cows, poor, miserable-looking and lean — I’ve never seen such bad-looking cows in all the land of Egypt! <sup>20</sup> Then the lean and miserable-looking cows ate up the first seven fat cows. <sup>21</sup> But after they had eaten them up, one couldn’t tell that they had eaten them; because they were as miserable-looking as before. At this point I woke up. <sup>22</sup> But I dreamed again and saw seven full, ripe ears of grain growing out of a single stalk. <sup>23</sup> After them, seven ears, thin and blasted by the east wind, sprang up. <sup>24</sup> And the thin ears swallowed up the seven ripe ears. I told this to the magicians, but none of them could explain it to me.”

<sup>25</sup> Yosef said to Pharaoh, “The dreams of Pharaoh are the same: God has told Pharaoh what he is about to do. <sup>26</sup> The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears of grain are seven years — the dreams are the same. <sup>27</sup> Likewise the seven lean and miserable-looking cows that came up after them are seven years, and also the seven empty ears blasted by the east wind — there will be seven years of famine. <sup>28</sup> This is what I told Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. <sup>29</sup> Here it is: there will be seven years of abundance throughout the whole land of Egypt; <sup>30</sup> but afterwards, there will come seven years of famine; and Egypt will forget all the abundance. The famine will consume the land, <sup>31</sup> and the abundance will not be known in the land because of the famine that will follow, because it will be truly terrible. <sup>32</sup> Why was the dream doubled for Pharaoh? Because the matter has been fixed by God, and God will shortly cause it to happen.

<sup>33</sup> “Therefore, Pharaoh should look for a man both discreet and wise to put in charge of the land of Egypt. <sup>34</sup> Pharaoh should do this, and he should appoint supervisors over the land to receive a twenty percent tax on the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven years of abundance. <sup>35</sup> They should gather all the food produced during these good years coming up and set aside grain under the supervision of Pharaoh to be used for food in the cities, and they should store it. <sup>36</sup> This will be the land’s food supply for the

seven years of famine that will come over the land of Egypt, so that the land will not perish as a result of the famine.”

<sup>37</sup> The proposal seemed good both to Pharaoh and to all his officials. <sup>38</sup> Pharaoh said to his officials, “Can we find anyone else like him? The Spirit of God lives in him!”

(iii) <sup>39</sup> So Pharaoh said to Yosef, “Since God has shown you all this — there is no one as discerning and wise as you — <sup>40</sup> you will be in charge of my household; all my people will be ruled by what you say. Only when I rule from my throne will I be greater than you.” <sup>41</sup> Pharaoh said to Yosef, “Here, I place you in charge of the whole land of Egypt.” <sup>42</sup> Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Yosef’s hand, had him clothed in fine linen with a gold chain around his neck <sup>43</sup> and had him ride in his second best chariot; and they cried before him, “Bow down!” Thus he placed him in charge of the whole land of Egypt. <sup>44</sup> Pharaoh said to Yosef, “I, Pharaoh, decree that without your approval no one is to raise his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.” <sup>45</sup> Pharaoh called Yosef by the name Tzafnat-Pa’neach and gave him as his wife Osnat the daughter of Poti-Fera priest of On. Then Yosef went out through all the land of Egypt.

<sup>46</sup> Yosef was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt; then he left Pharaoh’s presence and traveled through all the land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup> During the seven years of abundance, the earth brought forth heaps of produce. <sup>48</sup> He collected all the food of these seven years in the land of Egypt and stored it in the cities — the food grown in the fields outside each city he stored in that city. <sup>49</sup> Yosef stored grain in quantities like the sand on the seashore, so much that they stopped counting, because it was beyond measure.

<sup>50</sup> Two sons were born to Yosef before the year of famine came; Osnat the daughter of Poti-Fera priest of On bore them to him. <sup>51</sup> Yosef called the firstborn M’nasheh [causing to forget], “Because God has caused me to forget all the troubles I suffered at the hands of my family.” <sup>52</sup> The second he called Efrayim [fruit], “For God has made me fruitful in the land of my misfortune.”

(iv) <sup>53</sup> The seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt ended; <sup>54</sup> and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Yosef had said. There was famine in all lands, but throughout the land of Egypt there was food. <sup>55</sup> When the whole land of Egypt started feeling the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Yosef, and do what he tells you to do.”<sup>56</sup> The famine was over all the earth, but then Yosef opened all the storehouses and sold food to the Egyptians, since the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.<sup>57</sup> Moreover all countries came to Egypt to Yosef to buy grain, because the famine was severe throughout the earth.

42<sup>1</sup> Now Ya‘akov saw that there was grain in Egypt; so Ya‘akov said to his sons, “Why are you staring at each other?”<sup>2</sup> Look,” he said, “I’ve heard that there’s grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us from there, so that we can stay alive and not die!”<sup>3</sup> Thus Yosef’s ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt,<sup>4</sup> except for Binyamin, Yosef’s brother. Ya‘akov did not send him with his brothers, because he was afraid something might happen to him.

<sup>5</sup> The sons of Isra‘el came to buy along with the others that came, since the famine extended to the land of Kena‘an.<sup>6</sup> Yosef was governor over the land; it was he who sold to all the people of the land. Now when Yosef’s brothers came and prostrated themselves before him on the ground,<sup>7</sup> Yosef saw his brothers and recognized them; but he acted toward them as if he were a stranger and spoke harshly with them. He asked them, “Where are you from?” They answered, “From the land of Kena‘an to buy food.”<sup>8</sup> So Yosef recognized his brothers, but they didn’t recognize him.

<sup>9</sup> Remembering the dreams he had had about them, Yosef said to them, “You are spies! You’ve come to spot our country’s weaknesses!”<sup>10</sup> “No, my lord,” they replied, “your servants have come to buy food.”<sup>11</sup> We’re all the sons of one man, we’re upright men; your servants aren’t spies.”<sup>12</sup> “No,” he said to them, “you’ve come to spy out our country’s weaknesses.”<sup>13</sup> They said, “We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Kena‘an; the youngest stayed with our father, and another one is gone.”<sup>14</sup> “Just as I said,” replied Yosef, “you’re spies!”<sup>15</sup> Here’s how you can prove you’re not lying: as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave here unless your youngest brother comes here.<sup>16</sup> Send one of you, and let him bring your brother. Meanwhile, you will be kept in custody. This will prove whether there is any truth in what you say. Otherwise, as Pharaoh lives, you are certainly spies.”<sup>17</sup> Then he put all of them together in prison for three days.

<sup>18</sup> On the third day, Yosef said to them, “Do what I say, and stay alive, for I fear God. (v)<sup>19</sup> If you are upright men, let one of your brothers remain incarcerated in the prison you're being kept in, while you go and carry grain back to relieve the famine in your homes. <sup>20</sup> But bring your youngest brother to me. In this way your statements will be verified, and you won't die."

So they did it. <sup>21</sup> They said to each other, "We are in fact guilty concerning our brother. He was in distress and pleaded with us; we saw it and wouldn't listen. That's why this distress has come upon us now." <sup>22</sup> Re'uven answered them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't wrong the boy'? But you wouldn't hear of it. Now comes the reckoning for his blood!" <sup>23</sup> They had no idea that Yosef understood them, since an interpreter was translating for them. <sup>24</sup> Yosef turned away from them and wept; then he returned and spoke to them. He took Shim'on from among them and put him in prison before their eyes. <sup>25</sup> Next he ordered that their containers be filled with grain, that every man's money be put back in his pack and that they be given provisions for the journey. When these things had been done for them, <sup>26</sup> they loaded their grain on their donkeys and departed.

<sup>27</sup> But at camp that night, as one of them opened his pack to give fodder to his donkey, he noticed his money — there it was, just inside his pack. <sup>28</sup> He said to his brothers, "My money has been restored — there it is, right in my pack!" At that, their hearts sank; they turned, trembling, to one another and said, "What is this that God has done to us?"

<sup>29</sup> They returned to Ya'akov their father in the land of Kena'an and told him all that had happened to them. <sup>30</sup> "The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us. He took us for spies in his country. <sup>31</sup> We said to him, 'We are upright men, we're not spies; <sup>32</sup> we are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is gone, and the youngest stayed with our father in the land of Kena'an.' <sup>33</sup> But the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'Here is how I will know that you are upright men: leave one of your brothers with me, take grain to relieve the famine in your homes, and go on your way; <sup>34</sup> but bring your youngest brother to me. By this I will know that you aren't spies, but are upright men; then I will return your brother to you; and you will do business in the land.'"

<sup>35</sup> Next, as they emptied their packs, there was each man's bag of money in his pack; and when they and their father saw their bags of money, they became afraid. <sup>36</sup> Ya'akov their father said to them, "You have robbed me of my children! Yosef is gone, Shim'on is gone, now you're taking Binyamin away — it all falls on me!" <sup>37</sup> Re'uven said to his father, "If I don't bring him back to you, you can kill my own two sons! Put him in my care; I will return him to you.” <sup>38</sup> But he replied, “My son will not go down with you. His brother is dead, and he alone is left. If anything were to happen to him while traveling with you, you would bring my gray hair down to Sh’ol with grief.”

43 <sup>1</sup> But the famine was severe in the land; <sup>2</sup> so when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, “Go again, buy us a little food.” <sup>3</sup> Y’hudah said to him, “The man expressly warned us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’” <sup>4</sup> If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food; <sup>5</sup> but if you will not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’” <sup>6</sup> Isra’el said, “Why did you bring such trouble my way by telling the man you had another brother?” <sup>7</sup> They answered, “The man kept questioning us about ourselves and about our kinsmen. He asked, ‘Is your father still alive?’ ‘Do you have another brother?’ and we answered according to the literal meaning of his questions. How were we to know he would say, ‘Bring your brother down’?”

<sup>8</sup> Y’hudah said to Isra’el his father, “Send the boy with me; and we will make preparations and leave; so that we may stay alive and not die, both we and you, and also our little ones. <sup>9</sup> I myself will guarantee his safety; you can hold me responsible. If I fail to bring him to you and present him to your face, let me bear the blame forever. <sup>10</sup> Except for our lengthy delay, we would have been there again by now.”

<sup>11</sup> Their father Isra’el answered them, “If that’s how it is, do this: take in your containers some of the land’s best products, and bring the man a gift — some healing resin, a little honey, aromatic gum, opium, pistachio nuts and almonds. <sup>12</sup> Take twice the amount of money with you; and return the money that came back with you in your packs — it could have been an oversight. <sup>13</sup> Yes, and take your brother too; and get ready; and go again to the man. <sup>14</sup> May El Shaddai give you favor in the man’s sight, so that he will release to you your other brother as well as Binyamin. As for me, if I must lose my children, lose them I will.” <sup>15</sup> The men took that gift, and they took twice the money with them, and Binyamin; then they prepared, went down to Egypt and stood before Yosef.

(iv) <sup>16</sup> When Yosef saw Binyamin with them, he said to his household manager, “Take the men inside the house, kill the animals and prepare the meat. These men will dine with me at noon.” <sup>17</sup> The man did as Yosef ordered and brought the men into Yosef’s house.

<sup>18</sup> Upon being ushered inside Yosef’s house, the men became fearful. They said, “It’s because of the money that was returned in our packs the first time that we have been brought inside — so that he can use it as an excuse to attack us, take us as slaves and seize our donkeys too.” <sup>19</sup> So they approached the manager of Yosef’s household and spoke to him at the entrance of the house: <sup>20</sup> “Please, my lord, the first time we indeed came down to buy food; <sup>21</sup> but when we got to camp, we opened our packs, and there inside our packs was each man’s money, the full amount. We have brought it back with us; <sup>22</sup> moreover, we have brought down other money to buy food. We have no idea who put our money in our packs.” <sup>23</sup> “Stop worrying,” he replied, “don’t be afraid. Your God and the God of your father put treasure in your packs. As for your money — I was the one who received it.” Then he brought Shim’on out to them.

<sup>24</sup> The man brought the men into Yosef’s house and gave them water, and they washed their feet, and he provided fodder for their donkeys. <sup>25</sup> Then they got their gift ready for Yosef’s arrival at noon, for they had heard that they were going to eat a meal there. <sup>26</sup> When Yosef arrived home, they went in the house and presented him with the gift they had brought with them, then prostrated themselves before him on the ground. <sup>27</sup> He asked them how they were and inquired, “Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?” <sup>28</sup> They answered, “Your servant our father is well; yes, he is still alive,” as they bowed in respect. <sup>29</sup> He looked up and saw Binyamin his brother, his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?” and added, “May God be good to you, my son.”

(vii) <sup>30</sup> Then Yosef hurried out, because his feelings toward his brother were so strong that he wanted to cry; he went into his bedroom and there he wept. <sup>31</sup> Then he washed his face and came out, but he controlled himself as he gave the order to serve the meal. <sup>32</sup> They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians included at the meal by themselves — Egyptians don’t eat with Hebrews, because that is abhorrent to them. <sup>33</sup> So they sat there facing him, the firstborn in the place of honor, the youngest in last place; and the men expressed their amazement to each other.<sup>34</sup> Each was given his serving there in front of him, but Binyamin's portion was five times as large as any of theirs. So they drank and enjoyed themselves with him.

44<sup>1</sup> Then he ordered the manager of his household, "Fill the men's packs with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money just inside his pack.<sup>2</sup> And put my goblet, the silver one, just inside the pack of the youngest, along with his grain money." He did what Yosef told him to do.

<sup>3</sup> At daybreak the men were sent off with their donkeys; <sup>4</sup> but before they were far from the city Yosef said to his manager, "Up, go after the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid good with evil? <sup>5</sup> Isn't this the goblet my lord drinks from, indeed the one he uses for divination? What you have done is evil!'" <sup>6</sup> So he caught up with them and said these words to them. <sup>7</sup> They replied, "Why does my lord speak this way? Heaven forbid that we should do such a thing! <sup>8</sup> Why, the money we found inside our packs we brought back to you from the land of Kena'an! So how would we steal silver or gold from your lord's house? <sup>9</sup> Whichever one of us the goblet is found with, let him be put to death — and the rest of us will be my lord's slaves!" <sup>10</sup> He replied, "Fine; let it be as you have said: whichever one it is found with will be my slave. But the rest of you will be blameless." <sup>11</sup> Then each hurried to put his pack down on the ground, and each one opened his pack. <sup>12</sup> He searched, starting with the oldest and ending with the youngest; and the goblet was found in the pack belonging to Binyamin. <sup>13</sup> At this, they tore their clothes from grief. Then each man loaded up his donkey and returned to the city.

(A: Maftir)<sup>14</sup> Y'hudah and his brothers arrived at Yosef's house. He was still there, and they fell down before him on the ground. (S: Maftir)<sup>15</sup> Yosef said to them, "How could you do such a thing? Don't you know that a man such as myself can learn the truth by divination?" <sup>16</sup> Y'hudah said, "There's nothing we can say to my lord! How can we speak? There's no way we can clear ourselves! God has revealed your servants' guilt; so here we are, my lord's slaves — both we and also the one in whose possession the cup was found." <sup>17</sup> But he replied, "Heaven forbid that I should act in such a way. The man in whose possession the goblet was found will be my slave; but as for you, go in peace to your father."

Haftarah Mikketz: M'lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 3:15–4:1

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Mikketz: Acts 7:9–16 (specifically vv. 11–12)

Parashah 11: Vayigash (He approached) 44:18–47:27

<sup>18</sup> Then Y'hudah approached Yosef and said, “Please, my lord! Let your servant say something to you privately; and don’t be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself. <sup>19</sup> My lord asked his servants, ‘Do you have a father? or a brother?’ <sup>20</sup> We answered my lord, ‘We have a father who is an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one whose brother is dead; so that of his mother’s children he alone is left; and his father loves him.’ <sup>21</sup> But you said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me, so that I can see him.’ <sup>22</sup> We answered my lord, ‘The boy can’t leave his father; if he were to leave his father, his father would die.’ <sup>23</sup> You said to your servants, ‘You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.’ <sup>24</sup> We went up to your servant my father and told him what my lord had said; <sup>25</sup> but when our father said, ‘Go again, and buy us some food,’ <sup>26</sup> we answered, ‘We can’t go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go down, because we can’t see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’ <sup>27</sup> Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons: <sup>28</sup> the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he has been torn to pieces,” and I haven’t seen him since. <sup>29</sup> Now if you take this one away from me too, and something happens to him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sh’ol with grief.’ <sup>30</sup> So now if I go to your servant my father, and the boy isn’t with us — seeing how his heart is bound up with the boy’s heart — (ii) <sup>31</sup> when he sees that the boy isn’t with us, he will die; and your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sh’ol with grief. <sup>32</sup> For your servant himself guaranteed his safety; I said, ‘If I fail to bring him to you, then I will bear the blame before my father forever.’ <sup>33</sup> Therefore, I beg you, let your servant stay as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup> For how can I go up to my father if the boy isn’t with me? I couldn’t bear to see my father so overwhelmed by anguish.”

45 <sup>1</sup> At last Yosef could no longer control his feelings in front of his attendants and cried, “Get everybody away from me!” So no one else was with him when Yosef revealed to his brothers who he was. <sup>2</sup> He wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard, and Pharaoh’s household heard. <sup>3</sup> Yosef said to his brothers, “I am Yosef! Is it true that my father is still alive?” His brothers couldn’t answer him, they were so dumbfounded at seeing him. <sup>4</sup> Yosef said to his brothers, “Please! Come closer.” And they came closer. He said, “I am Yosef, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup> But don’t be sad that you sold me into slavery here or angry at yourselves, because it was God who sent me ahead of you to preserve life. <sup>6</sup> The famine has been over the land for the last two years, and for yet another five years there will be neither plowing nor harvest. <sup>7</sup> God sent me ahead of you to ensure that you will have descendants on earth and to save your lives in a great deliverance. (iii) <sup>8</sup> So it was not you who sent me here, but God; and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his household and ruler over the whole land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> Hurry, go up to my father, and tell him, ‘Here is what your son Yosef says: “God has made me lord of all Egypt! Come down to me, don’t delay! <sup>10</sup> You will live in the land of Goshen and be near me — you, your children, your grandchildren, flocks, herds, everything you own. <sup>11</sup> I will provide for you there, so that you won’t become poverty-stricken, you, your household and all that you have; because five years of famine are yet to come.”’ <sup>12</sup> Here! Your own eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Binyamin, that it is my own mouth speaking to you. <sup>13</sup> Tell my father how honored I am in Egypt and everything you have seen, and quickly bring my father down here!” <sup>14</sup> Then he embraced his brother Binyamin and wept, and Binyamin wept on his neck, <sup>15</sup> and he kissed all his brothers and wept on them. After that, his brothers talked with him.

<sup>16</sup> The report of this reached Pharaoh’s house: “Yosef’s brothers have come”; and Pharaoh and his servants were pleased. <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh said to Yosef, “Tell your brothers, ‘Here is what you are to do. Load up your animals, go to the land of Kena’an, <sup>18</sup> take your father and your families, and come back to me. I will give you good property in Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.

(iv) <sup>19</sup> “Moreover — and this is an order — do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt to carry your little ones and your wives, and bring your father, and come. <sup>20</sup> Don’t worry about your stuff, because everything good in the land of Egypt is yours.”

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Isra'el acted accordingly; and Yosef gave them wagons, as Pharaoh had ordered, and gave them provisions for their journey. <sup>22</sup> To each of them he gave a set of new clothes; but to Binyamin he gave seven-and-a-half pounds of silver and five sets of new clothes. <sup>23</sup> Likewise, to his father he sent ten donkeys loaded with the finest goods Egypt produced, as well as ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread and food for his father to eat on the return journey. <sup>24</sup> Thus he sent his brothers on their way, and they left; he said to them, "Don't quarrel among yourselves while you're traveling!"

<sup>25</sup> So they went up out of Egypt, entered the land of Kena'an and came to Ya'akov their father. <sup>26</sup> They told him, "Yosef is still alive! He is ruler over the whole land of Egypt!" He was stunned at the news; he couldn't believe them. <sup>27</sup> So they reported to him everything Yosef had said to them; but it was only when he saw the wagons which Yosef had sent to carry him that the spirit of Ya'akov their father began to revive. (v) <sup>28</sup> Isra'el said, "Enough! My son Yosef is still alive! I must go and see him before I die."

46 <sup>1</sup> Isra'el took everything he owned with him on his journey. He arrived at Be'er-Sheva and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Yitz'chak. <sup>2</sup> In a vision at night God called to Isra'el, "Ya'akov! Ya'akov!" He answered, "Here I am." <sup>3</sup> He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Don't be afraid to go down to Egypt. It is there that I will make you into a great nation. <sup>4</sup> Not only will I go down with you to Egypt; but I will also bring you back here again, after Yosef has closed your eyes."

<sup>5</sup> So Ya'akov left Be'er-Sheva; the sons of Isra'el brought Ya'akov their father, their little ones and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to carry them. <sup>6</sup> They took their cattle and their possessions which they had acquired in the land of Kena'an and arrived in Egypt, Ya'akov and all his descendants with him — <sup>7</sup> his sons, grandsons, daughters, granddaughters and all his descendants he brought with him into Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> These are the names of Isra'el's children who came into Egypt, Ya'akov and his sons: Re'uven Ya'akov's firstborn; <sup>9</sup> and the sons of Re'uven — Hanokh, Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi.

<sup>10</sup> The sons of Shim'on: Y'mu'el, Yamin, Ohad, Yakhin, Tzochar and Sha'ul the son of a Kena'ani woman.

<sup>11</sup> The sons of Levi: Gershon, K'hat and M'rari.

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Y'hudah: 'Er, Onan, Shelah, Peretz and Zerach; but 'Er and Onan died in the land of Kena'an. The sons of Peretz were Hetzron and Hamul.

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Yissakhar: Tola, Puvah, Yov and Shimron.

<sup>14</sup> The sons of Z'vulun: Sered, Elon and Yachle'el.

<sup>15</sup> These were the children of Le'ah whom she bore to Ya'akov in Paddan-Aram, with his daughter Dinah. In sum, his sons and daughters numbered thirty-three.

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Gad: Tzifyon, Haggi, Shuni, Etzbon, 'Eri, Arodi and Ar'eli.

<sup>17</sup> The children of Asher: Yimnah, Yishvah, Yishvi, B'ri'ah, and their sister Serach. The sons of B'ri'ah were Hever and Malki'el.

<sup>18</sup> These were the children of Zilpah, whom Lavan gave to Le'ah his daughter; she bore them to Ya'akov — sixteen people.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Rachel Ya'akov's wife: Yosef and Binyamin.

<sup>20</sup> To Yosef in the land of Egypt were born M'nasheh and Efrayim, whom Osnat the daughter of Poti-Fera priest of On bore to him.

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Binyamin: Bela, Bekher, Ashbel, Gera, Na'aman, Echi, Rosh, Mupim, Hupim and Ard.

<sup>22</sup> These were the children of Rachel who were born to Ya'akov — in sum, fourteen people.

<sup>23</sup> The sons of Dan: Hushim.

<sup>24</sup> The sons of Naftali: Yachtze'el, Guni, Yetzer and Shillem.

<sup>25</sup> These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Lavan gave to Rachel his daughter; she bore them to Ya'akov — in sum, seven people.

<sup>26</sup> All the people belonging to Ya'akov coming into Egypt, his direct descendants (not counting Ya'akov's sons' wives), totaled sixty-six. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Yosef, born to him in Egypt, were two in number. Thus all the people in Ya'akov's family who entered Egypt numbered seventy.

(vi) <sup>28</sup> Ya'akov sent Y'hudah ahead of him to Yosef, so that the latter might guide him on the road to Goshen; thus they arrived in the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup> Yosef prepared his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet Isra'el his father. He presented himself to him, embraced him and wept on his neck for a long time. <sup>30</sup> Then Isra'el said to Yosef, "Now I can die, because I have seen your face and seen that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup> Yosef said to his brothers and his father's family, "I'm going up to tell Pharaoh. I'll say to him, 'My brothers and my father's family, who were in the land of Kena'an, have come to me. <sup>32</sup> The men are shepherds and keepers of livestock; they have brought their flocks, their herds and all their possessions.' <sup>33</sup> Now when Pharaoh summons you and asks, 'What is your occupation?' <sup>34</sup> tell him, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth until now, both we and our ancestors.' This will ensure that you will live in the land of Goshen — for any shepherd is abhorrent to the Egyptians."

47 <sup>1</sup> Then Yosef went in and told Pharaoh, "My father and brothers have come from the land of Kena'an with their flocks, livestock and all their possessions; right now they are in the land of Goshen." <sup>2</sup> He took five of his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup> Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They answered Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our ancestors," <sup>4</sup> and added, "We have come to live in the land, because in the land of Kena'an there is no place to pasture your servant's flocks, the famine is so severe there. Therefore, please, let your servants live in the land of Goshen." <sup>5</sup> Pharaoh said to Yosef, "Your father and brothers have come to you, <sup>6</sup> and the land of Egypt lies before you. Have your father and brothers live on the best property in the country — let them live in the land of Goshen. Moreover, if you know that some of them are particularly competent, put them in charge of my livestock."

<sup>7</sup> Yosef then brought in Ya'akov his father and presented him to Pharaoh, and Ya'akov blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8</sup> Pharaoh asked Ya'akov, "How old are you?" <sup>9</sup> and Ya'akov replied, "The time of my stay on earth has been 130 years; they have been few and difficult, fewer than the years my ancestors lived." <sup>10</sup> Then Ya'akov blessed Pharaoh and left his presence.

(vii) <sup>11</sup> Yosef found a place for his father and brothers and gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best region of the country, in the land of Ra'amses, as Pharaoh had ordered. <sup>12</sup> Yosef provided food for his father, his brothers and all his father's household, taking full care of even the youngest.

<sup>13</sup> There was no food anywhere, for the famine was very severe, so that both Egypt and Kena'an grew weak from hunger. <sup>14</sup> Yosef collected all the money there was in Egypt and Kena'an in exchange for the grain they bought, and put the money in Pharaoh's treasury. <sup>15</sup> When all the money in Egypt had been spent, and likewise in Kena'an, all the Egyptians approached Yosef and said, “Give us something to eat, even though we have no money; why should we die before your eyes?” <sup>16</sup> Yosef replied, “Give me your livestock. If you don’t have money, I will give you food in exchange for your livestock.” <sup>17</sup> So they brought Yosef their livestock; and Yosef gave them food in exchange for the horses, flocks, cattle and donkeys — all that year he provided them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

<sup>18</sup> When that year was over, they approached Yosef again and said to him, “We won’t hide from my lord that all our money is spent, and the herds of livestock belong to my lord. We have nothing left, as my lord can see, but our bodies and our land. <sup>19</sup> Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we and our land will be enslaved to Pharaoh. But also give us seed to plant, so that we can stay alive and not die, and so that the land won’t become barren.” <sup>20</sup> So Yosef acquired all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh, as one by one the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine weighed on them so severely. Thus the land became the property of Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup> As for the people, he reduced them to serfdom city by city, from one end of Egypt’s territory to the other. <sup>22</sup> Only the priests’ land did he not acquire, because the priests were entitled to provisions from Pharaoh, and they ate from what Pharaoh provided them; therefore they did not sell their land.

<sup>23</sup> Then Yosef said to the people, “As of today I have acquired you and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you to sow the land. <sup>24</sup> When harvest time comes, you are to give twenty percent to Pharaoh; eighty percent will be yours to keep for seed to plant in the fields, as well as for your food and for that of your households and your little ones.”

(Maftir) <sup>25</sup> They replied, “You have saved our lives! So if it pleases my lord, we will be Pharaoh’s slaves.” <sup>26</sup> Yosef made it a law for the country of Egypt, valid to this day, that Pharaoh should have twenty percent. Only the property belonging to the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.

<sup>27</sup> Isra’el lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. They acquired possessions in it and were productive, and their numbers multiplied greatly.

Haftarah Vayigash: Yechezk’el (Ezekiel) 37:15–28

B’rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Vayigash: Acts 7:9–16 (specifically vv. 13–15)

Parashah 12: Vayechi (He lived) 47:28–50:26

<sup>28</sup> Ya‘akov lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; thus Ya‘akov lived to be 147 years old. <sup>29</sup> The time came when Isra’el was approaching death; so he called for his son Yosef and said to him, “If you truly love me, please put your hand under my thigh and pledge that, out of consideration for me, you will not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup> Rather, when I sleep with my fathers, you are to carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried.” He replied, “I will do as you have said.” <sup>31</sup> He said, “Swear it to me,” and he swore to him. Then Isra’el bowed down at the head of his bed.

48 <sup>1</sup> Awhile later someone told Yosef that his father was ill. He took with him his two sons, M’nasheh and Efrayim. <sup>2</sup> Ya‘akov was told, “Here comes your son Yosef.” Isra’el gathered his strength and sat up in bed. <sup>3</sup> Ya‘akov said to Yosef, “El Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in the land of Kena’an and blessed me, <sup>4</sup> saying to me, ‘I will make you fruitful and numerous. I will make of you a group of peoples; and I will give this land to your descendants to possess forever.’ <sup>5</sup> Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Efrayim and M’nasheh will be as much mine as Re’uven and Shim’on are. <sup>6</sup> The children born to you after them will be yours, but for purposes of inheritance they are to be counted with their older brothers.

<sup>7</sup> “Now as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died suddenly, as we were traveling through the land of Kena’an, while we were still some distance from Efrat; so I buried her there on the way to Efrat (also known as Beit-Lechem).”

<sup>8</sup> Then Isra’el noticed Yosef’s sons and asked, “Whose are these?” <sup>9</sup> Yosef answered his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” Ya‘akov replied, “I want you to bring them here to me, so that I can bless them.” (ii) <sup>10</sup> Now Isra’el’s eyes were dim with age, so that he could not see. Yosef brought his sons near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup> Isra’el said to Yosef, “I never expected to see even you again, but God has allowed me to see your children too!” <sup>12</sup> Yosef brought them out from between his legs and prostrated himself on the ground. <sup>13</sup> Then Yosef took them both, Efrayim in his right hand toward Isra’el’s left hand and M’nasheh in his left hand toward Isra’el’s right hand, and brought them near to him. <sup>14</sup> But Isra'el put out his right hand and laid it on the head of the younger one, Efrayim, and put his left hand on the head of M'nasheh — he intentionally crossed his hands, even though M'nasheh was the firstborn. <sup>15</sup> Then he blessed Yosef: “The God in whose presence my fathers Avraham and Yitz'chak lived, the God who has been my own shepherd all my life long to this day, <sup>16</sup> the angel who has rescued me from all harm, bless these boys. May they remember who I am and what I stand for, and likewise my fathers Avraham and Yitz'chak, who they were and what they stood for. And may they grow into teeming multitudes on the earth.”

(iii) <sup>17</sup> When Yosef saw that his father was laying his right hand on Efrayim's head, it displeased him, and he lifted up his father's hand to remove it from Efrayim's head and place it instead on M'nasheh's head. <sup>18</sup> Yosef said to his father, “Don't do it that way, my father; for this one is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head.” <sup>19</sup> But his father refused and said, “I know that, my son, I know it. He too will become a people, and he too will be great; nevertheless his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will grow into many nations.” <sup>20</sup> Then he added this blessing on them that day: “Isra'el will speak of you in their own blessings by saying, ‘May God make you like Efrayim and M'nasheh.’” Thus he put Efrayim ahead of M'nasheh.

<sup>21</sup> Isra'el then said to Yosef, “You see that I am dying, but God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your ancestors. <sup>22</sup> Moreover, I am giving to you a sh'khem [shoulder, ridge, share, city of Sh'khem] more than to your brothers; I captured it from the Emori with my sword and bow.”

49 (iv) <sup>1</sup> Then Ya'akov called for his sons and said, “Gather yourselves together, and I will tell you what will happen to you in the acharit-hayamim.

<sup>2</sup> Assemble yourselves and listen, sons of Ya'akov;

pay attention to Isra'el your father.

“Re’uven, you are my firstborn,
my strength, the firstfruits of my manhood.

<sup>4</sup> Though superior in vigor and power
you are unstable as water, so your superiority will end, because you climbed into your father’s bed and defiled it — he climbed onto my concubine’s couch!

<sup>5</sup> “Shim’on and Levi are brothers, related by weapons of violence.

<sup>6</sup> Let me not enter their council,
let my honor not be connected with their people;
for in their anger they killed men,
and at their whim they maimed cattle.

<sup>7</sup> Cursed be their anger, for it has been fierce;
their fury, for it has been cruel.
I will divide them in Ya’akov and scatter them in Isra’el.

<sup>8</sup> “Y’hudah, your brothers will acknowledge you, your hand will be on the neck of your enemies,
your father’s sons will bow down before you.

<sup>9</sup> Y'hudah is a lion's cub;

my son, you stand over the prey.

He crouches down and stretches like a lion;

like a lioness, who dares to provoke him?

<sup>10</sup> The scepter will not pass from Y'hudah, nor the ruler's staff from between his legs, until he comes to whom [obedience] belongs; * and it is he whom the peoples will obey.

<sup>11</sup> Tying his donkey to the vine,

his donkey's colt to the choice grapevine,

he washes his clothes in wine,

his robes in the blood of grapes.

<sup>12</sup> His eyes will be darker than wine,

his teeth whiter than milk.

<sup>13</sup> "Z'vulun will live at the seashore, with ships anchoring along his coast and his border at Tzidon.

<sup>14</sup> "Yissakhar is a strong donkey

lying down in the sheep sheds.

<sup>15</sup> On seeing how good is settled life
and how pleasant the country, he will bend his back to the burden,
and submit to forced labor.

<sup>16</sup> “Dan will judge his people
as one of the tribes of Isra’el.

<sup>17</sup> Dan will be a viper on the road,
a horned snake in the path that bites the horse’s heels
so its rider falls off backward.

<sup>18</sup> I wait for your deliverance, ADONAI .

(v)<sup>19</sup> “Gad [troop] — a troop will troop on him,
but he will troop on their heel.

<sup>20</sup> “Asher’s food is rich —
he will provide food fit for a king.

<sup>21</sup> “Naftali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns. *

<sup>22</sup> “Yosef is a fruitful plant,

a fruitful plant by a spring,
with branches climbing over the wall.

<sup>23</sup> The archers attacked him fiercely, shooting at him and pressing him hard;

<sup>24</sup> but his bow remained taut;
and his arms were made nimble
by the hands of the Mighty One of Ya‘akov, from there, from the Shepherd, the Stone of Isra’el,

<sup>25</sup> by the God of your father, who will help you, by El Shaddai, who will bless you with blessings from heaven above, blessings from the deep, lying below,
blessings from the breasts and the womb.

<sup>26</sup> The blessings of your father are more powerful than the blessings of my parents, extending to the farthest of the everlasting hills;
they will be on the head of Yosef,
on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

(vi) <sup>27</sup> “Binyamin is a ravenous wolf,

in the morning devouring the prey,
in the evening still dividing the spoil.”

<sup>28</sup> All these are the twelve tribes of Isra’el, and this is how their father spoke to them and blessed them, giving each his own individual blessing.

<sup>29</sup> Then he charged them as follows: “I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my ancestors in the cave that is in the field of ‘Efron the Hitti, <sup>30</sup> the cave in the field of Makhpelah, by Mamre, in the land of Kena’an, which Avraham bought together with the field from ‘Efron the Hitti as a burial-place belonging to him — <sup>31</sup> there they buried Avraham and his wife Sarah, there they buried Yitz’chak and his wife Rivkah, and there I buried Le’ah — <sup>32</sup> the field and the cave in it, which was purchased from the sons of Het.”

<sup>33</sup> When Ya‘akov had finished charging his sons, he drew his legs up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

50 <sup>1</sup> Yosef fell on his father’s face, wept over him and kissed him. <sup>2</sup> Then Yosef ordered the physicians in his service to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Isra’el. <sup>3</sup> Forty days were spent at this, the normal amount of time for embalming. Then the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

<sup>4</sup> When the period of mourning was over, Yosef addressed to the household of Pharaoh: “I would like to ask a favor. Tell Pharaoh, <sup>5</sup> ‘My father had me swear an oath. He said, “I am going to die. You are to bury me in my grave, which I dug for myself in the land of Kena’an.” Therefore, I beg you, let me go up and bury my father; I will return.’” <sup>6</sup> Pharaoh responded, “Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear.”

<sup>7</sup> So Yosef went up to bury his father. With him went all Pharaoh’s servants, the leaders of his household and the leaders of the land of Egypt, <sup>8</sup> along with the entire household of Yosef, his brothers and his father’s household; only their little ones, their flocks and their cattle did they leave in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup> Moreover, there went up with him both chariots and horsemen — it was a very large caravan.

<sup>10</sup> When they arrived at the threshing-floor in Atad, beyond the Yarden, they raised a loud and bitter lamentation, mourning for his father seven days. <sup>11</sup> When the local inhabitants, the Kena'ani, saw the mourning on the floor of Atad they said, "How bitterly the Egyptians are mourning!" This is why the place was given the name Avel-Mitzrayim [mourning of Egypt], there beyond the Yarden.

<sup>12</sup> His sons did to him as he had ordered them to do — <sup>13</sup> they carried him into the land of Kena'an and buried him in the cave in the field of Makhpelah, which Avraham had bought, along with the field, as a burial-place belonging to him, from 'Efron the Hitti, by Mamre.

<sup>14</sup> Then, after burying his father, Yosef returned to Egypt, he, his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

<sup>15</sup> Realizing that their father was dead, Yosef's brothers said, "Yosef may hate us now and pay us back in full for all the suffering we caused him." <sup>16</sup> So they sent a message to Yosef which said, "Your father gave this order before he died: <sup>17</sup> 'Say to Yosef, "I beg you now, please forgive your brothers' crime and wickedness in doing you harm."' So now, we beg of you, forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father." Yosef wept when they spoke to him; <sup>18</sup> and his brothers too came, prostrated themselves before him and said, "Here, we are your slaves." <sup>19</sup> But Yosef said to them, "Don't be afraid! Am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup> You meant to do me harm, but God meant it for good — so that it would come about as it is today, with many people's lives being saved. (vii) <sup>21</sup> So don't be afraid — I will provide for you and your little ones." In this way he comforted them, speaking kindly to them.

<sup>22</sup> Yosef continued living in Egypt, he and his father's household. Yosef lived 110 years. (Maftir) <sup>23</sup> Yosef lived to see Efrayim's great-grandchildren, and the children of M'nasheh's son Makhir were born on Yosef's knees.

<sup>24</sup> Yosef said to his brothers, "I am dying. But God will surely remember you and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov." <sup>25</sup> Then Yosef took an oath from the sons of Isra'el: "God will surely remember you, and you are to carry my bones up from here." <sup>26</sup> So Yosef died at the age of 110, and they embalmed him and put him in a coffin in Egypt.

Haftarah Vayechi: M'lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 2:1–12

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Vayechi: Acts 7:9–16 (specifically vv. 15–16); Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 11:21–

22; 1 Kefa (1 Peter) 1:3–9; 2:11–17

Hazak, hazak, v'nit'chazek!

Be strong, be strong, and let us be strengthened!

Sh'mot

EXODUS

Parashah13: Sh'mot (Names) 1:1–6:1

1<sup>1</sup> These are the names of the sons of Isra'el who came into Egypt with Ya'akov; each man came with his household: <sup>2</sup> Re'uven, Shim'on, Levi, Y'hudah, <sup>3</sup> Yissakhar, Z'vulun, Binyamin, <sup>4</sup> Dan, Naftali, Gad and Asher. <sup>5</sup> All told, there were seventy descendants of Ya'akov; Yosef was already in Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> Yosef died, as did all his brothers and all that generation. <sup>7</sup> The descendants of Isra'el were fruitful, increased abundantly, multiplied and grew very powerful; the land became filled with them.

<sup>8</sup> Now there arose a new king over Egypt. He knew nothing about Yosef <sup>9</sup> but said to his people, "Look, the descendants of Isra'el have become a people too numerous and powerful for us. <sup>10</sup> Come, let's use wisdom in dealing with them. Otherwise, they'll continue to multiply; and in the event of war they might ally themselves with our enemies, fight against us and leave the land altogether."

<sup>11</sup> So they put slavemasters over them to oppress them with forced labor, and they built for Pharaoh the storage cities of Pitom and Ra'amses. <sup>12</sup> But the more the Egyptians oppressed them, the more they multiplied and expanded, until the Egyptians came to dread the people of Isra'el <sup>13</sup> and worked them relentlessly, <sup>14</sup> making their lives bitter with hard labor — digging clay, making bricks, all kinds of field work; and in all this toil they were shown no mercy.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was called Shifrah and the other Pu'ah. <sup>16</sup> "When you attend the Hebrew women and see them giving birth," he said, "if it's a boy, kill him; but if it's a girl, let her live." <sup>17</sup> However, the midwives were God-fearing women, so they didn't do as the king of Egypt ordered but let the boys live. (ii) <sup>18</sup> The king of Egypt summoned the midwives and demanded of them, "Why have you done this and let the boys live?" <sup>19</sup> The midwives answered Pharaoh, "It's because the Hebrew women aren't like the Egyptian women

— they go into labor and give birth before the midwife arrives.”<sup>20</sup> Therefore God prospered the midwives, and the people continued to multiply and grow very powerful.<sup>21</sup> Indeed, because the midwives feared God, he made them founders of families.<sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: “Every boy that is born, throw in the river; but let all the girls live.”

2<sup>1</sup> A man from the family of Levi took a woman also descended from Levi as his wife.<sup>2</sup> When she conceived and had a son, upon seeing what a fine child he was, she hid him for three months.<sup>3</sup> When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket, coated it with clay and tar, put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the riverbank.<sup>4</sup> His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

<sup>5</sup> The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe in the river while her maids-in-attendance walked along the riverside. Spotting the basket among the reeds, she sent her slave-girl to get it.<sup>6</sup> She opened it and looked inside, and there in front of her was a crying baby boy! Moved with pity, she said, “This must be one of the Hebrews’ children.”<sup>7</sup> At this point, his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Would you like me to go and find you one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?”<sup>8</sup> Pharaoh’s daughter answered, “Yes, go.” So the girl went and called the baby’s own mother.<sup>9</sup> Pharaoh’s daughter told her, “Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will pay you for doing it.” So the woman took the child and nursed it.<sup>10</sup> Then, when the child had grown some, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter; and she began to raise him as her son. She called him Moshe [pull out], explaining, “Because I pulled him out of the water.”

(iii)<sup>11</sup> One day, when Moshe was a grown man, he went out to visit his kinsmen; and he watched them struggling at forced labor. He saw an Egyptian strike a Hebrew, one of his kinsmen.<sup>12</sup> He looked this way and that; and when he saw that no one was around, he killed the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.<sup>13</sup> The next day, he went out and saw two Hebrew men fighting with each other. To the one in the wrong he said, “Why are you hitting your companion?”<sup>14</sup> He retorted, “Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? Do you intend to kill me the way you killed the Egyptian?” Moshe became frightened. “Clearly,” he thought, “the matter has become known.”<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh heard of it, he tried to have Moshe put to death. But Moshe fled from Pharaoh to live in the land of Midyan.

One day, as he was sitting by a well, <sup>16</sup> the seven daughters of the priest of Midyan came to draw water. They had filled the troughs to water their father's sheep, <sup>17</sup> when the shepherds came and tried to drive them away. But Moshe got up and defended them; then he watered their sheep. <sup>18</sup> When they came to Re'u'el their father, he said, "How come you're back so soon today?" <sup>19</sup> They answered, "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds; more than that, he drew water for us and watered the sheep." <sup>20</sup> He asked his daughters, "Where is he? Why did you leave the man there? Invite him to have something to eat."

<sup>21</sup> Moshe was glad to stay on with the man, and he gave Moshe his daughter Tzipporah in marriage. <sup>22</sup> She gave birth to a son, and he named him Gershom [foreigner there], for he said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land."

<sup>23</sup> Sometime during those many years the king of Egypt died, but the people of Isra'el still groaned under the yoke of slavery, and they cried out, and their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God. <sup>24</sup> God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov. <sup>25</sup> God saw the people of Isra'el, and God acknowledged them.

3(iv) <sup>1</sup> Now Moshe was tending the sheep of Yitro his father-in-law, the priest of Midyan. Leading the flock to the far side of the desert, he came to the mountain of God, to Horev. <sup>2</sup> The angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a fire blazing from the middle of a bush. He looked and saw that although the bush was flaming with fire, yet the bush was not being burned up. <sup>3</sup> Moshe said, "I'm going to go over and see this amazing sight and find out why the bush isn't being burned up." <sup>4</sup> When ADONAI saw that he had gone over to see, God called to him from the middle of the bush, "Moshe! Moshe!" He answered, "Here I am." <sup>5</sup> He said, "Don't come any closer! Take your sandals off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground. <sup>6</sup> I am the God of your father," he continued, "the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz'chak and the God of Ya'akov." Moshe covered his face, because he was afraid to look at God. <sup>7</sup> ADONAI said, "I have seen how my people are being oppressed in Egypt and heard their cry for release from their slavemasters, because I know their pain. <sup>8</sup> I have come down to rescue them from the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that country to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey, the place of the Kena'ani, Hitti, Emori, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi. <sup>9</sup> Yes, the cry of the people of Isra'el has come to me, and I have seen how terribly the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, now, come; and I will send you to Pharaoh; so that you can lead my people, the descendants of Isra'el, out of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> Moshe said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and lead the people of Isra'el out of Egypt?" <sup>12</sup> He replied, "I will surely be with you. Your sign that I have sent you will be that when you have led the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain."

<sup>13</sup> Moshe said to God, "Look, when I appear before the people of Isra'el and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you'; and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what am I to tell them?" <sup>14</sup> God said to Moshe, "Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh [I am/will be what I am/will be]," and added, "Here is what to say to the people of Isra'el: 'Ehyeh [I Am or I Will Be] has sent me to you.'" <sup>15</sup> God said further to Moshe, "Say this to the people of Isra'el: 'Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh [ADONAI], the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz'chak and the God of Ya'akov, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever; this is how I am to be remembered generation after generation. (v) <sup>16</sup> Go, gather the leaders of Isra'el together, and say to them, 'ADONAI, the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov, has appeared to me and said, "I have been paying close attention to you and have seen what is being done to you in Egypt; <sup>17</sup> and I have said that I will lead you up out of the misery of Egypt to the land of the Kena'ani, Hitti, Emori, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi, to a land flowing with milk and honey.'" <sup>18</sup> They will heed what you say. Then you will come, you and the leaders of Isra'el, before the king of Egypt; and you will tell him, 'ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now, please, let us go three days' journey into the desert; so that we can sacrifice to ADONAI our God.' <sup>19</sup> I know that the king of Egypt will not let you leave unless he is forced to do so. <sup>20</sup> But I will reach out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will do there. After that, he will let you go. <sup>21</sup> Moreover, I will make the Egyptians so well-disposed toward this people that when you go, you won't go empty-handed. <sup>22</sup> Rather, all the women will ask their neighbors and house guests for silver and gold jewelry and clothing, with which you will dress your own sons and daughters. In this way you will plunder the Egyptians."

4 <sup>1</sup> Moshe replied, “But I’m certain they won’t believe me, and they won’t listen to what I say, because they’ll say, ‘ADONAI did not appear to you.’” <sup>2</sup>ADONAI answered him, “What is that in your hand?” and he said, “A staff.” <sup>3</sup> He said, “Throw it on the ground!” and he threw it on the ground. It turned into a snake, and Moshe recoiled from it. <sup>4</sup> Then ADONAI said to Moshe, “Put your hand out and take it by the tail.” He reached out with his hand and took hold of it, and it became a staff in his hand. <sup>5</sup> “This is so that they will believe that ADONAI, the God of their fathers, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitz’chak and the God of Ya‘akov, has appeared to you!”

<sup>6</sup> Furthermore ADONAI said to him, “Now put your hand inside your coat.” He put his hand in his coat; and when he took it out his hand was leprous, as white as snow. <sup>7</sup> Then God said, “Now put your hand back in your coat.” He put his hand back in his coat; and when he took it out, it was as healthy as the rest of his body. <sup>8</sup> “If they won’t believe you or heed the evidence of the first sign, they will be convinced by the second. <sup>9</sup> But if they aren’t persuaded even by both these signs and still won’t listen to what you say, then take some water from the river, and pour it on the ground. The water you take from the river will turn into blood on the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup> Moshe said to ADONAI, “Oh, Adonai, I’m a terrible speaker. I always have been, and I’m no better now, even after you’ve spoken to your servant! My words come slowly, my tongue moves slowly.” <sup>11</sup> ADONAI answered him, “Who gives a person a mouth? Who makes a person dumb or deaf, keensighted or blind? Isn’t it I, ADONAI? <sup>12</sup> Now, therefore, go; and I will be with your mouth and will teach you what to say.”

<sup>13</sup> But he replied, “Please, Lord, send someone else — anyone you want!” <sup>14</sup> At this, ADONAI’s anger blazed up against Moshe; he said, “Don’t you have a brother, Aharon the Levi? I know that he’s a good speaker. In fact, here he is now, coming out to meet you; and he’ll be happy to see you. <sup>15</sup> You will speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I will be with your mouth and his, teaching you both what to do. <sup>16</sup> Thus he will be your spokesman to the people, in effect; for you, he will be a mouth; and for him, you will be like God. <sup>17</sup> Now take this staff in your hand, because you need it to perform the signs.”

(vi) <sup>18</sup> Moshe left, returned to Yitro his father-in-law and said to him, “I beg you to let me go and return to my kinsmen in Egypt, to see if they are still alive.” Yitro said to Moshe, “Go in peace.” <sup>19</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe in Midyan, “Go on back to Egypt, because all the men who wanted to kill you are dead.”<sup>20</sup> So Moshe took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey, and started out for Egypt. Moshe took God’s staff in his hand.<sup>21</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “When you get back to Egypt, make sure that you do before Pharaoh every one of the wonders I have enabled you to do. Nevertheless, I am going to make him hardhearted, and he will refuse to let the people go.<sup>22</sup> Then you are to tell Pharaoh: ‘ADONAI says, “Isra’el is my firstborn son.”<sup>23</sup> I have told you to let my son go in order to worship me, but you have refused to let him go. Well, then, I will kill your firstborn son!’””

<sup>24</sup> At a lodging-place on the way, ADONAI met Moshe and would have killed him,<sup>25</sup> had not Tzipporah taken a flintstone and cut off the foreskin of her son. She threw it at his feet, saying, “What a bloody bridegroom you are for me!”<sup>26</sup> But then, God let Moshe be. She added, “A bloody bridegroom because of the circumcision!”

<sup>27</sup> ADONAI said to Aharon, “Go into the desert to meet Moshe.” He went, met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.<sup>28</sup> Moshe told him everything ADONAI had said in sending him, including all the signs he had ordered him to perform.<sup>29</sup> Then Moshe and Aharon went and gathered together all the leaders of the people of Isra’el.<sup>30</sup> Aharon said everything ADONAI had told Moshe, who then performed the signs for the people to see.<sup>31</sup> The people believed; when they heard that ADONAI had remembered the people of Isra’el and seen how they were oppressed, they bowed their heads and worshipped.

5(vii) <sup>1</sup> After that, Moshe and Aharon came and said to Pharaoh, “Here is what ADONAI, the God of Isra’el, says: ‘Let my people go, so that they can celebrate a festival in the desert to honor me.’”<sup>2</sup> But Pharaoh replied, “Who is ADONAI, that I should obey when he says to let Isra’el go? I don’t know ADONAI, and I also won’t let Isra’el go.”<sup>3</sup> They said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days’ journey into the desert, so that we can sacrifice to ADONAI our God. Otherwise, he may strike us with a plague or with the sword.”<sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt answered them, “Moshe and Aharon, what do you mean by taking the people away from their work? Get back to your labor!”<sup>5</sup> Look!” Pharaoh added, “the population of the land has grown, yet you are trying to have them stop working!”

<sup>6</sup> That same day Pharaoh ordered the slavemasters and the people's foremen, <sup>7</sup> "You are no longer to provide straw for the bricks the people are making, as you did before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. <sup>8</sup> But you will require them to produce the same quantity of bricks as before, don't reduce it, because they're lazing around. This is why they're crying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.' <sup>9</sup> Give these people harder work to do. That will keep them too busy to pay attention to speeches full of lies."

<sup>10</sup> The people's slavemasters went out, their foremen too, and said to the people, "Here is what Pharaoh says: 'I will no longer give you straw. <sup>11</sup> You go, yourselves, and get straw wherever you can find it. But your output is not to be reduced.'" <sup>12</sup> So the people were dispersed throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. <sup>13</sup> The slavemasters kept pressing them. "Keep working! Make your daily quota, just as when straw was provided." <sup>14</sup> The foremen of the people of Isra'el, whom Pharaoh's slavemasters had appointed to be over them, were flogged and asked, "Why haven't you fulfilled your quota of bricks yesterday and today, as you did formerly?"

<sup>15</sup> Then the foremen of the people of Isra'el came and complained to Pharaoh: "Why are you treating your servants this way? <sup>16</sup> No straw is given to your servants, yet they keep telling us to make bricks. And now your servants are being flogged, but the fault lies with your own people." <sup>17</sup> "Lazy!" he retorted, "You're just lazy! That's why you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to ADONAI.' <sup>18</sup> Get going now, and get back to work! No straw will be given to you, and you will still deliver the full amount of bricks." <sup>19</sup> When they said, "You are not to reduce your daily production quota of bricks," the foremen of the people of Isra'el could see that they were in deep trouble.

<sup>20</sup> As they were leaving Pharaoh, they encountered Moshe and Aharon standing by the road; <sup>21</sup> and they said to them, "May ADONAI look at you and judge accordingly, because you have made us utterly abhorrent in the view of Pharaoh and his servants, and you have put a sword in their hands to kill us!" (Maftir) <sup>22</sup> Moshe returned to ADONAI and said, "ADONAI, why have you treated this people so terribly? What has been the value of sending me? <sup>23</sup> For ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has dealt terribly with this people! And you haven't rescued your people at all!"

6 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Now you will see what I am going to do to Pharaoh. With a mighty hand he will send them off; with force he will drive them from the land!”

Haftarah Sh’mot: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 27:6–28:13; 29:22–23 (A); Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 1:1–2:3 (S)

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Sh’mot: Mattityahu (Matthew) 22:23–33; 41–46; Mark 12:18–27; 35–37; Luke 20:27–44; Acts 3:12–15; 5:27–32; 7:17–36; 22:12–16; 24:14–16; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 11:23–26

Parashah 14: Va’era (I appeared) 6:2–9:35

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Moshe; he said to him, “I am ADONAI. <sup>3</sup> I appeared to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov as El Shaddai, although I did not make myself known to them by my name, Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh [ADONAI.] <sup>4</sup> Also with them I established my covenant to give them the land of Kena’an, the land where they wandered about and lived as foreigners. <sup>5</sup> Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the people of Isra’el, whom the Egyptians are keeping in slavery; and I have remembered my covenant.

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, say to the people of Isra’el: ‘I am ADONAI. I will free you from the forced labor of the Egyptians, rescue you from their oppression, and redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. <sup>7</sup> I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am ADONAI your God, who freed you from the forced labor of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup> I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov — I will give it to you as your inheritance. I am ADONAI.’”

<sup>9</sup> Moshe said this to the people of Isra’el. But they wouldn’t listen to him, because they were so discouraged, and their slavery was so cruel.

<sup>10</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>11</sup> “Go in; and tell Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to let the people of Isra’el leave his land.” <sup>12</sup> Moshe said to ADONAI, “Look, the people of Isra’el haven’t listened to me; so how will Pharaoh listen to me, poor speaker that I am?”<sup>13</sup> But ADONAI spoke to Moshe and Aharon and gave them orders concerning both the people of Isra'el and Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to bring the people of Isra'el out of the land of Egypt.

(ii) <sup>14</sup> These were the heads of their families: the sons of Re'uven the firstborn of Isra'el were Hanokh, Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi. These were the families of Re'uven.

<sup>15</sup> The sons of Shim'on were Y'mu'el, Yamin, Ohad, Yakhin, Tzochar and Sha'ul the son of a Kena'ani woman. These were the families of Shim'on.

<sup>16</sup> These are the names of the sons of Levi with their descendants: Gershon, K'hat and M'rari. Levi lived to be 137 years old. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Gershon were Livni and Shim'i, with their families. <sup>18</sup> The sons of K'hat were 'Amram, Yitz'har, Hevron and 'Uzi'el. K'hat lived to be 133 years old. <sup>19</sup> The sons of M'rari were Machli and Mushi. These were the families of Levi with their descendants.

<sup>20</sup> 'Amram married Yokheved his father's sister, and she bore him Aharon and Moshe. 'Amram lived to be 137 years old. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Yitz'har were Korach, Nefeg and Zikhri. <sup>22</sup> The sons of 'Uzi'el were Misha'el, Eltzafan and Sitri. <sup>23</sup> Aharon married Elisheva daughter of 'Amminadav and sister of Nachshon, and she bore him Nadav, Avihu, El'azar and Itamar. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Korach were Asir, Elkanah and Avi'asaf. These were the Korchi families. <sup>25</sup> El'azar the son of Aharon married one of the daughters of Puti'el, and she bore him Pinchas. These were the heads of the families of Levi, family by family.

<sup>26</sup> These are the Aharon and Moshe to whom ADONAI said, "Bring the people of Isra'el out of the land of Egypt, division by division," <sup>27</sup> and who told Pharaoh king of Egypt, to let the people of Isra'el leave Egypt. These are the same Moshe and Aharon.

<sup>28</sup> On the day when ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the land of Egypt, (iii) <sup>29</sup> he said, "I am ADONAI. Tell Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything I say to you."

<sup>30</sup> Moshe answered ADONAI, "Look, I'm such a poor speaker that Pharaoh won't listen to me."

7 <sup>1</sup> But ADONAI said to Moshe, "I have put you in the place of God to Pharaoh, and Aharon your brother will be your prophet. <sup>2</sup> You are to say everything I order you, and Aharon your brother is to speak to Pharaoh and tell him to let the people of Isra'el leave his land. <sup>3</sup> But I will make him hardhearted. Even though I will increase my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, <sup>4</sup> Pharaoh will not listen to you. Then I will lay my hand on Egypt and bring my armies, my people the sons of Isra'el, out of the land of Egypt with great acts of judgment. <sup>5</sup> Then, when I stretch out my hand over Egypt and bring the people of Isra'el out from among them, the Egyptians will know that I am ADONAI.”

<sup>6</sup> Moshe and Aharon did exactly what ADONAI ordered them to do. <sup>7</sup> Moshe was eighty years old and Aharon eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

(iv) <sup>8</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>9</sup> “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Perform a miracle,’ tell Aharon to take his staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh, so that it can become a snake.” <sup>10</sup> Moshe and Aharon went in to Pharaoh and did this, as ADONAI had ordered — Aharon threw down his staff in front of Pharaoh and his servants, and it turned into a snake. <sup>11</sup> But Pharaoh in turn called for the sages and sorcerers; and they too, the magicians of Egypt, did the same thing, making use of their secret arts. <sup>12</sup> Each one threw his staff down, and they turned into snakes. But Aharon’s staff swallowed up theirs. <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, Pharaoh was made hardhearted; and he didn’t listen to them, as ADONAI had said would happen.

<sup>14</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Pharaoh is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup> Go to Pharaoh in the morning when he goes out to the water. Stand on the riverbank to confront him, take in your hand the staff which was turned into a snake, <sup>16</sup> and say to him, ‘ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you to say: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me in the desert.” But until now you haven’t listened; <sup>17</sup> so ADONAI says, “This will let you know that I am ADONAI”: I will take the staff in my hand and strike the water in the river, and it will be turned into blood. <sup>18</sup> The fish in the river will die, the river will stink and the Egyptians won’t want to drink water from the river.’”

<sup>19</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, “Say to Aharon, ‘Take your staff, reach out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, canals, ponds and all their reservoirs, so that they can turn into blood. There will be blood throughout the whole land of Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars.’” <sup>20</sup> Moshe and Aharon did exactly what ADONAI had ordered. He raised the staff and, in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, struck the water in the river; and all the water in the river was turned into blood. <sup>21</sup> The fish in the river died, and the river stank so badly that the Egyptians couldn't drink its water. There was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> But the magicians of Egypt did the same with their secret arts, so that Pharaoh was made hardhearted and didn't listen to them, as ADONAI had said would happen. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh just turned and went back to his palace, without taking any of this to heart. <sup>24</sup>All the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink, because they couldn't drink the river water.

<sup>25</sup> Seven days after ADONAI had struck the river, <sup>26(8:1)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, 'Here is what ADONAI says: "Let my people go, so that they can worship me. <sup>27(8:2)</sup> If you refuse to let them go, I will strike all your territory with frogs. <sup>28(8:3)</sup> The river will swarm with frogs. They will go up, enter your palace and go into your bedroom, onto your bed. They will enter the houses of your servants and your people and go into your ovens and kneading bowls. <sup>29(8:4)</sup> The frogs will climb all over you, your people and your servants.'""

8 <sup>1(5)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Say to Aharon, 'Reach out your hand with your staff over the rivers, canals and ponds; and cause frogs to come up onto the land of Egypt.'" <sup>2(6)</sup> Aharon put out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>3(7)</sup> But the magicians did the same with their secret arts and brought up frogs onto the land of Egypt.

<sup>4(8)</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moshe and Aharon and said, "Intercede with ADONAI to take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will let the people go and sacrifice to ADONAI." <sup>5(9)</sup> Moshe said to Pharaoh, "Not only that, but you can have the honor of naming the time when I will pray for you, your servants and your people to be rid of the frogs, both yourselves and your homes, and that they stay only in the river." <sup>6(10)</sup> He answered, "Tomorrow." Moshe said, "It will be as you have said, and from this you will learn that ADONAI our God has no equal. (v) <sup>7(11)</sup> The frogs will leave you and your homes, also your servants and your people; they will stay in the river only." <sup>8(12)</sup> Moshe and Aharon left Pharaoh's presence, and Moshe cried to ADONAI about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh. <sup>9(13)</sup> ADONAI did as Moshe had asked — the frogs died in the houses, courtyards and fields; <sup>10(14)</sup> they gathered them in heaps till the land stank. <sup>11(15)</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that he had been given some relief, he made himself hardhearted and would not listen to them, just as ADONAI had said would happen.

<sup>12(16)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Say to Aharon: ‘Reach out with your staff and strike the dust on the ground; it will become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.’” <sup>13(17)</sup> They did it — Aharon reached out his hand with his staff and struck the dust on the ground, and there were lice on people and animals; all the dust on the ground became lice throughout the whole land of Egypt. <sup>14(18)</sup> The magicians tried with their secret arts to produce lice, but they couldn’t. There were lice on people and animals. <sup>15(19)</sup> Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh was made hardhearted, so that he didn’t listen to them, just as ADONAI had said would happen.

<sup>16(20)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Get up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh when he goes out to the water and say to him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me. <sup>17(21)</sup> Otherwise, if you won’t let my people go, I will send swarms of insects on you, your servants and your people, and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of insects, and likewise the ground they stand on. <sup>18(22)</sup> But I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people live — no swarms of insects will be there — so that you can realize that I am ADONAI, right here in the land. (vi) <sup>19(23)</sup> Yes, I will distinguish between my people and your people, and this sign will happen by tomorrow.”’” <sup>20(24)</sup> ADONAI did it: terrible swarms of insects went into Pharaoh’s palace and into all his servants’ houses — the insects ruined the entire land of Egypt.

<sup>21(25)</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moshe and Aharon and said, “Go, and sacrifice to your God here in the land.” <sup>22(26)</sup> But Moshe replied, “It would be inappropriate for us to do that, because the animal we sacrifice to ADONAI our God is an abomination to the Egyptians. Won’t the Egyptians stone us to death if before their very eyes we sacrifice what they consider an abomination? <sup>23(27)</sup> No, we will go three days’ journey into the desert and sacrifice to ADONAI our God, as he has ordered us to do.” <sup>24(28)</sup> Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, so that you can sacrifice to ADONAI your God in the desert. Only you are not to go very far away. Intercede on my behalf.” <sup>25(29)</sup> Moshe said, “All right, I am going away from you, and I will intercede with ADONAI; so that tomorrow, the swarms of insects will leave Pharaoh, his servants and his people. Just make sure that Pharaoh stops playing games with the people by preventing them from going and sacrificing to ADONAI.”

<sup>26(30)</sup> Moshe left Pharaoh and interceded with ADONAI, <sup>27(31)</sup> and ADONAI did what Moshe had asked: he removed the swarms of insects from Pharaoh,

his servants and his people — not one remained. <sup>28(32)</sup> But this time, too, Pharaoh made himself stubborn and didn't let the people go.

9 <sup>1</sup> Then ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, ‘Here is what ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me. <sup>2</sup> If you refuse to let them go and persist in holding on to them, <sup>3</sup> the hand of ADONAI is on your livestock in the field — on the horses, donkeys, camels, cattle and flocks — and will make them suffer a devastating illness. <sup>4</sup> But ADONAI will distinguish between Egypt's and Isra'el's livestock — nothing belonging to the people of Isra'el will die.’”” <sup>5</sup> ADONAI determined the exact time by saying, “Tomorrow ADONAI will do this in the land.” <sup>6</sup> The following day, ADONAI did it — all the livestock of Egypt died; but not one of the animals belonging to the people of Isra'el died. <sup>7</sup> Pharaoh investigated and found that not even one of the animals of the people of Isra'el had died. Nevertheless, Pharaoh's heart remained stubborn, and he didn't let the people go.

<sup>8</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, “Take handfuls of ashes from a kiln, and let Moshe throw them in the air before Pharaoh's eyes. <sup>9</sup> They will turn into fine dust over all the land of Egypt and become infected sores on men and animals throughout Egypt.” <sup>10</sup> So they took ashes from a kiln, stood in front of Pharaoh and threw them in the air; and they became infected sores on men and animals. <sup>11</sup> The magicians couldn't even stand in Moshe's presence because of the sores, which were on them as well as on the other Egyptians. <sup>12</sup> But ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, so that he didn't listen to them — just as ADONAI had said to Moshe.

<sup>13</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Get up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “Let my people go, so that they can worship me. <sup>14</sup> For this time, I will inflict my plagues on you, yourself, and on your officials and your people; so that you will realize that I am without equal in all the earth. <sup>15</sup> By now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with such severe plagues that you would have been wiped off the earth. <sup>16</sup> But it is for this very reason that I have kept you alive — to show you my power, and so that my name may resound throughout the whole earth. (vii) <sup>17</sup> Since you are still setting yourself up against my people and not letting them go, <sup>18</sup> tomorrow, about this time, I will cause a hailstorm so heavy that Egypt has had nothing like it from the day it was founded until now. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, send and hurry to bring indoors all your livestock and everything else you have in the field. For hail will fall on every human being and animal left in the field that hasn't been brought home, and they will die.”””

<sup>20</sup> Whoever among Pharaoh's servants feared what ADONAI had said had his slaves and livestock escape into the houses; <sup>21</sup> but those who had no regard for what ADONAI had said left their slaves and livestock in the field.

<sup>22</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, “Reach out your hand toward the sky, so that there will be hail in all the land of Egypt, falling on people, animals and everything growing in the field, throughout the land of Egypt.” <sup>23</sup> Moshe reached out with his staff toward the sky, and ADONAI sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. ADONAI caused it to hail on the land of Egypt — <sup>24</sup> it hailed, and fire flashed up with the hail; it was terrible, worse than any hailstorm in all of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>25</sup> Throughout all the land of Egypt, the hail struck everything in the field, people and animals; and the hail struck every plant growing in the field and broke every tree there. <sup>26</sup> But in the land of Goshen, where the people of Isra'el were, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moshe and Aharon and said to them, “This time I have sinned: ADONAI is in the right; I and my people are in the wrong. <sup>28</sup> Intercede with ADONAI — we can't take any more of this terrible thunder and hail; and I will let you go, you will stay no longer.” <sup>29</sup> Moshe said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to ADONAI; the thunder will end, and there won't be any more hail — so that you can know that the earth belongs to ADONAI. <sup>30</sup> But you and your servants, I know you still won't fear ADONAI, God.” <sup>31</sup> The flax and barley were ruined, because the barley was ripe and the flax in bud. <sup>32</sup> But the wheat and buckwheat were not ruined, because they come up later. (Maftir) <sup>33</sup> Moshe went out of the city, away from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands to ADONAI. The thunder and hail ended, and the rain stopped pouring down on the earth. <sup>34</sup> When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail and thunder had ended, he sinned still more by making himself hardhearted, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup> Pharaoh was made hardhearted, and he didn't let the people of Isra'el go, just as ADONAI had said through Moshe.

Haftarah Va'era: Yechezk'el (Ezekiel) 28:25–29:21

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Va'era: Romans 9:14–17; 2 Corinthians 6:14–7:1

Parashah 15: Bo (Go) 10:1–13:16

10 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have made him and his servants hardhearted, so that I can demonstrate these signs of mine among them, <sup>2</sup> so that you can tell your son and grandson about what I did to Egypt and about my signs that I demonstrated among them, and so that you will all know that I am ADONAI.” <sup>3</sup> Moshe and Aharon went in to Pharaoh and said to him, “Here is what ADONAI, God of the Hebrews, says: ‘How much longer will you refuse to submit to me? Let my people go, so that they can worship me. <sup>4</sup> Otherwise, if you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. <sup>5</sup> One won’t be able to see the ground, so completely will the locusts cover it. They will eat anything you still have that escaped the hail, including every tree you have growing in the field. <sup>6</sup> They will fill your houses and those of your servants and of all the Egyptians. It will be like nothing your fathers or their fathers have ever seen since the day they were born until today.’” Then he turned his back and left.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How much longer must this fellow be a snare for us? Let the people go and worship ADONAI their God. Don’t you understand yet that Egypt is being destroyed?” <sup>8</sup> So Moshe and Aharon were brought to Pharaoh again, and he said to them, “Go, worship ADONAI your God. But who exactly is going?” <sup>9</sup> Moshe answered, “We will go with our young and our old, our sons and our daughters; and we will go with our flocks and herds; for we must celebrate a feast to ADONAI.” <sup>10</sup> Pharaoh said to them, “ADONAI certainly will be with you if I ever let you go with your children! It’s clear that you are up to no good. <sup>11</sup> Nothing doing! Just the men among you may go and worship ADONAI. That’s what you want, isn’t it?” And they were driven out of Pharaoh’s presence.

(ii) <sup>12</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Reach out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that locusts will invade the land and eat every plant that the hail has left.” <sup>13</sup> Moshe reached out with his staff over the land of Egypt, and ADONAI caused an east wind to blow on the land all day and all night; and in the morning the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup> The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and settled throughout Egypt’s territory. It was an invasion more severe than there had ever been before or will ever be again.

<sup>15</sup> They completely covered the ground, so that the ground looked black. They ate every plant growing from the ground and all the fruit of the trees left by the hail. Not one green thing remained, not a tree and not a plant in the field, in all the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> Pharaoh hurried to summon Moshe and Aharon and said, “I have sinned against ADONAI your God and against you. <sup>17</sup> Now, therefore, please forgive my sin just this once; and intercede with ADONAI your God, so that he will at least take away from me this deadly plague!” <sup>18</sup> He went out from Pharaoh and interceded with ADONAI. <sup>19</sup> ADONAI reversed the wind and made it blow very strongly from the west. It took up the locusts and drove them into the Sea of Suf; not one locust remained on Egyptian soil. <sup>20</sup> But ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he didn’t let the people of Isra’el go.

<sup>21</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Reach out your hand toward the sky, and there will be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness so thick it can be felt!” <sup>22</sup> Moshe reached out his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in the entire land of Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup> People couldn’t see each other, and no one went anywhere for three days. But all the people of Isra’el had light in their homes.

(iii) <sup>24</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moshe and said, “Go, worship ADONAI; only leave your flocks and herds behind — your children may go with you.” <sup>25</sup> Moshe answered, “You must also see to it that we have sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we can sacrifice to ADONAI our God. <sup>26</sup> Our livestock will also go with us — not a hoof will be left behind — because we must choose some of them to worship ADONAI our God, and we don’t know which ones we will need to worship ADONAI until we get there.” <sup>27</sup> But ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he would not let them go. <sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said to them, “Get away from me! And you had better not see my face again, because the day you see my face, you will die!” <sup>29</sup> Moshe answered, “Well spoken! I will see your face no more.”

11<sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “I’m going to bring still one more plague on Pharaoh and Egypt, and after that he will let you leave here. When he does let you go, he will throw you out completely! <sup>2</sup> Now tell the people that every man is to ask his neighbor and every woman her neighbor for gold and silver jewelry.” <sup>3</sup> ADONAI made the Egyptians favorably disposed toward the people. Moreover, Moshe was regarded by Pharaoh's servants and the people as a very great man in the land of Egypt.

(iv)<sup>4</sup> Moshe said, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'About midnight I will go out into Egypt,<sup>5</sup> and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the slave-girl at the handmill, and all the firstborn of the livestock.<sup>6</sup> There will be a horrendous wailing throughout all the land of Egypt — there has never been another like it, and there never will be again.<sup>7</sup> But not even a dog's growl will be heard against any of the people of Isra'el, neither against people nor against animals. In this way you will realize that ADONAI distinguishes between Egyptians and Isra'el.<sup>8</sup> All your servants will come down to me, prostrate themselves before me and say, "Get out! — you and all the people who follow you!" and after that, I will go out!" And he went out from Pharaoh in the heat of anger.<sup>9</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that still more of my wonders will be shown in the land of Egypt."

<sup>10</sup> Moshe and Aharon did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but ADONAI had made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he didn't let the people of Isra'el leave his land.

12<sup>1</sup> ADONAI spoke to Moshe and Aharon in the land of Egypt; he said,<sup>2</sup> "You are to begin your calendar with this month; it will be the first month of the year for you.<sup>3</sup> Speak to all the assembly of Isra'el and say, 'On the tenth day of this month, each man is to take a lamb or kid for his family, one per household —<sup>4</sup> except that if the household is too small for a whole lamb or kid, then he and his next-door neighbor should share one, dividing it in proportion to the number of people eating it.<sup>5</sup> Your animal must be without defect, a male in its first year, and you may choose it from either the sheep or the goats.

<sup>6</sup> "You are to keep it until the fourteenth day of the month, and then the entire assembly of the community of Isra'el will slaughter it at dusk.<sup>7</sup> They are to take some of the blood and smear it on the two sides and top of the door-frame at the entrance of the house in which they eat it.<sup>8</sup> That night, they are to eat the meat, roasted in the fire; they are to eat it with matzah and maror.<sup>9</sup> Don't eat it raw or boiled, but roasted in the fire, with its head,

the lower parts of its legs and its inner organs. <sup>10</sup> Let nothing of it remain till morning; if any of it does remain, burn it up completely.

<sup>11</sup> “Here is how you are to eat it: with your belt fastened, your shoes on your feet and your staff in your hand; and you are to eat it hurriedly. It is ADONAI’s Pesach [Passover]. <sup>12</sup> For that night, I will pass through the land of Egypt and kill all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both men and animals; and I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt; I am ADONAI. <sup>13</sup> The blood will serve you as a sign marking the houses where you are; when I see the blood, I will pass over [Hebrew: pasach] you — when I strike the land of Egypt, the death blow will not strike you.

<sup>14</sup> “This will be a day for you to remember and celebrate as a festival to ADONAI; from generation to generation you are to celebrate it by a perpetual regulation.

<sup>15</sup> “For seven days you are to eat matzah — on the first day remove the leaven from your houses. For whoever eats hametz [leavened bread] from the first to the seventh day is to be cut off from Isra’el. <sup>16</sup> On the first and seventh days, you are to have an assembly set aside for God. On these days no work is to be done, except what each must do to prepare his food; you may do only that. <sup>17</sup> You are to observe the festival of matzah, for on this very day I brought your divisions out of the land of Egypt. Therefore, you are to observe this day from generation to generation by a perpetual regulation. <sup>18</sup> From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month until the evening of the twenty-first day, you are to eat matzah. <sup>19</sup> During those seven days, no leaven is to be found in your houses. Whoever eats food with hametz in it is to be cut off from the community of Isra’el — it doesn’t matter whether he is a foreigner or a citizen of the land. <sup>20</sup> Eat nothing with hametz in it. Wherever you live, eat matzah.”

(v) <sup>21</sup> Then Moshe called for all the leaders of Isra’el and said, “Select and take lambs for your families, and slaughter the Pesach lamb. <sup>22</sup> Take a bunch of hyssop leaves and dip it in the blood which is in the basin, and smear it on the two sides and top of the door-frame. Then, none of you is to go out the door of his house until morning. <sup>23</sup> For ADONAI will pass through to kill the Egyptians; but when he sees the blood on the top and on the two sides, ADONAI will pass over the door and will not allow the Slaughterer to enter your houses and kill you. <sup>24</sup> You are to observe this as a law, you and your descendants forever.

<sup>25</sup> “When you come to the land which ADONAI will give you, as he has promised, you are to observe this ceremony. <sup>26</sup> When your children ask you, ‘What do you mean by this ceremony?’ <sup>27</sup> say, ‘It is the sacrifice of ADONAI’s Pesach [Passover], because [ADONAI] passed over the houses of the people of Isra’el in Egypt, when he killed the Egyptians but spared our houses.’” The people of Isra’el bowed their heads and worshipped. <sup>28</sup> Then the people of Isra’el went and did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe and Aharon — that is what they did.

(vi)<sup>29</sup> At midnight ADONAI killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock. <sup>30</sup> Pharaoh got up in the night, he, all his servants and all the Egyptians; and there was horrendous wailing in Egypt; for there wasn’t a single house without someone dead in it. <sup>31</sup> He summoned Moshe and Aharon by night and said, “Up and leave my people, both you and the people of Isra’el; and go, serve ADONAI as you said. <sup>32</sup> Take both your flocks and your herds, as you said; and get out of here! But bless me, too.” <sup>33</sup> The Egyptians pressed to send the people out of the land quickly, because they said, “Otherwise we’ll all be dead!”

<sup>34</sup> The people took their dough before it had become leavened and wrapped their kneading bowls in their clothes on their shoulders. <sup>35</sup> The people of Isra’el had done what Moshe had said — they had asked the Egyptians to give them silver and gold jewelry and clothing; <sup>36</sup> and ADONAI had made the Egyptians so favorably disposed toward the people that they had let them have whatever they requested. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

<sup>37</sup> The people of Isra’el traveled from Ra’amases to Sukkot, some six hundred thousand men on foot, not counting children. <sup>38</sup> A mixed crowd also went up with them, as well as livestock in large numbers, both flocks and herds. <sup>39</sup> They baked matzah loaves from the dough they had brought out of Egypt, since it was unleavened; because they had been driven out of Egypt without time to prepare supplies for themselves.

<sup>40</sup> The time the people of Isra’el lived in Egypt was 430 years. <sup>41</sup> At the end of 430 years to the day, all the divisions of ADONAI left the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup> This was a night when ADONAI kept vigil to bring them out of the land of Egypt, and this same night continues to be a night when ADONAI keeps vigil for all the people of Isra’el through all their generations.

<sup>43</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, “This is the regulation for the Pesach lamb: no foreigner is to eat it. <sup>44</sup> But if anyone has a slave he bought for money, when you have circumcised him, he may eat it. <sup>45</sup> Neither a traveler nor a hired servant may eat it. <sup>46</sup> It is to be eaten in one house. You are not to take any of the meat outside the house, and you are not to break any of its bones. <sup>47</sup> The whole community of Isra’el is to keep it. <sup>48</sup> If a foreigner staying with you wants to observe ADONAI’s Pesach, all his males must be circumcised. Then he may take part and observe it; he will be like a citizen of the land. But no uncircumcised person is to eat it. <sup>49</sup> The same teaching is to apply equally to the citizen and to the foreigner living among you.”

<sup>50</sup> All the people of Isra’el did just as ADONAI had ordered Moshe and Aharon. <sup>51</sup> On that very day, ADONAI brought the people of Isra’el out of the land of Egypt by their divisions.

13 (vii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Set aside for me all the firstborn. Whatever is first from the womb among the people of Isra’el, both of humans and of animals, belongs to me.” <sup>3</sup> Moshe said to the people, “Remember this day, on which you left Egypt, the abode of slavery; because ADONAI, by the strength of his hand, has brought you out of this place. Do not eat hametz. <sup>4</sup> You are leaving today, in the month of Aviv. <sup>5</sup> When ADONAI brings you into the land of the Kena’ani, Hitti, Emori, Hivi and Y’vusi, which he swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you are to observe this ceremony in this month. <sup>6</sup> For seven days you are to eat matzah, and the seventh day is to be a festival for ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> Matzah is to be eaten throughout the seven days; neither hametz nor leavening agents are to be seen with you throughout your territory. <sup>8</sup> On that day you are to tell your son, ‘It is because of what ADONAI did for me when I left Egypt.’

<sup>9</sup> “Moreover, it will serve you as a sign on your hand and as a reminder between your eyes, so that ADONAI’s Torah may be on your lips; because with a strong hand ADONAI brought you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> Therefore you are to observe this regulation at its proper time, year after year. <sup>11</sup> When ADONAI brings you into the land of the Kena’ani, as he swore to you and your ancestors, and gives it to you, <sup>12</sup> you are to set apart for ADONAI everything that is first from the womb. Every firstborn male animal will belong to ADONAI.<sup>13</sup> Every firstborn from a donkey, you are to redeem with a lamb; but if you choose not to redeem it, you must break its neck. But from people, you are to redeem every firstborn son. (Maftir)<sup>14</sup> When, at some future time, your son asks you, ‘What is this?’ then say to him, ‘With a strong hand ADONAI brought us out of Egypt, out of the abode of slavery.’<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh was unwilling to let us go, ADONAI killed all the firstborn males in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of humans and the firstborn of animals. This is why I sacrifice to ADONAI any male that is first from the womb of an animal, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’<sup>16</sup> This will serve as a sign on your hand and at the front of a headband around your forehead that with a strong hand ADONAI brought us out of Egypt.”

Haftarah Bo: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 46:13–28

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Bo: Luke 2:22–24; Yochanan (John) 19:31–37; Acts 13:16–17; Revelation 8:6–9:12; 16:1–21

Parashah 16: B’shallach (After he had let go) 13:17–17:16

<sup>17</sup> After Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not guide them to the highway that goes through the land of the P’lishtim, because it was close by — God thought that the people, upon seeing war, might change their minds and return to Egypt.<sup>18</sup> Rather, God led the people by a roundabout route, through the desert by the Sea of Suf. The people of Isra’el went up from the land of Egypt fully armed.

<sup>19</sup> Moshe took the bones of Yosef with him, for Yosef had made the people of Isra’el swear an oath when he said, “God will certainly remember you; and you are to carry my bones up with you, away from here.”

<sup>20</sup> They traveled from Sukkot and set up camp in Etam, at the edge of the desert.<sup>21</sup> ADONAI went ahead of them in a column of cloud during the daytime to lead them on their way, and at night in a column of fire to give them light; thus they could travel both by day and by night.<sup>22</sup> Neither the column of cloud by day nor the column of fire at night went away from in front of the people.

14 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el to turn around and set up camp in front of Pi-Hachiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Ba‘al-Tz’fon; camp opposite it, by the sea. <sup>3</sup> Then Pharaoh will say that the people of Isra’el are wandering aimlessly in the countryside, the desert has closed in on them. <sup>4</sup> I will make Pharaoh so hardhearted that he will pursue them; thus I will win glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will realize at last that I am ADONAI.” The people did as ordered.

<sup>5</sup> When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people. They said, “What have we done, letting Isra’el stop being our slaves?” <sup>6</sup> So he prepared his chariots and took his people with him — <sup>7</sup> he took 600 first-quality chariots, as well as all the other chariots in Egypt, along with their commanders. <sup>8</sup> ADONAI made Pharaoh hardhearted, and he pursued the people of Isra’el, as they left boldly. (ii) <sup>9</sup> The Egyptians went after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, with his cavalry and army, and overtook them as they were encamped by the sea, by Pi-Hachiroth, in front of Ba‘al-Tz’fon. <sup>10</sup> As Pharaoh approached, the people of Isra’el looked up and saw the Egyptians right there, coming after them. In great fear the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI <sup>11</sup> and said to Moshe, “Was it because there weren’t enough graves in Egypt that you brought us out to die in the desert? Why have you done this to us, bringing us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup> Didn’t we tell you in Egypt to let us alone, we’ll just go on being slaves for the Egyptians? It would be better for us to be the Egyptians’ slaves than to die in the desert!” <sup>13</sup> Moshe answered the people, “Stop being so fearful! Remain steady, and you will see how ADONAI is going to save you. He will do it today — today you have seen the Egyptians, but you will never see them again! <sup>14</sup> ADONAI will do battle for you. Just calm yourselves down!”

(A: iii) <sup>15</sup> ADONAI asked Moshe, “Why are you crying to me? Tell the people of Isra’el to go forward! <sup>16</sup> Lift your staff, reach out with your hand over the sea, and divide it in two. The people of Isra’el will advance into the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup> As for me, I will make the Egyptians hardhearted; and they will march in after them; thus I will win glory for myself at the expense of Pharaoh and all his army, chariots and cavalry. <sup>18</sup> Then the Egyptians will realize that I am ADONAI, when I have won myself glory at the expense of Pharaoh, his chariots and his cavalry.”

<sup>19</sup> Next, the angel of God, who was going ahead of the camp of Isra'el, moved away and went behind them; and the column of cloud moved away from in front of them and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup> It stationed itself between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Isra'el — there was cloud and darkness here, but light by night there; so that the one did not come near the other all night long.

<sup>21</sup> Moshe reached his hand out over the sea, and ADONAI caused the sea to go back before a strong east wind all night. He made the sea become dry land, and its water was divided in two. <sup>22</sup> Then the people of Isra'el went into the sea on the dry ground, with the water walled up for them on their right and on their left.

<sup>23</sup> The Egyptians continued their pursuit, going after them into the sea — all Pharaoh's horses, chariots and cavalry. <sup>24</sup> Just before dawn, ADONAI looked out on the Egyptian army through the column of fire and cloud and threw them into a panic. <sup>25</sup> He caused the wheels of their chariots to break off, so that they could move only with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "ADONAI is fighting for Isra'el against the Egyptians! Let's get away from them!"

(A: iv, S: iii) <sup>26</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, "Reach your hand out over the sea, and the water will return and cover the Egyptians with their chariots and cavalry." <sup>27</sup> Moshe reached his hand out over the sea, and by dawn the sea had returned to its former depth. The Egyptians tried to flee, but ADONAI swept them into the sea. <sup>28</sup> The water came back and covered all the chariots and cavalry of Pharaoh's army who had followed them into the sea — not even one of them was left. <sup>29</sup> But the people of Isra'el walked on dry ground in the sea, with the water walled up for them on their right and on their left.

<sup>30</sup> On that day, ADONAI saved Isra'el from the Egyptians; Isra'el saw the Egyptians dead on the shore. <sup>31</sup> When Isra'el saw the mighty deed that ADONAI had performed against the Egyptians, the people feared ADONAI, and they believed in ADONAI and in his servant Moshe.

15 <sup>1</sup> Then Moshe and the people of Isra'el sang this song to ADONAI:

"I will sing to ADONAI, for he is highly exalted:

the horse and its rider he threw in the sea.

Yah is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation.

This is my God: I will glorify him;
my father's God: I will exalt him.

<sup>3</sup>      A<sub>DONAI</sub> is a warrior;

A<sub>DONAI</sub> is his name.

<sup>4</sup>      Pharaoh's chariots and his army

he hurled into the sea.

His elite commanders were drowned in the Sea of Suf.

<sup>5</sup>      The deep waters covered them;

they sank to the depths like a stone.

<sup>6</sup>      Your right hand, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, is sublimely powerful;

our right hand, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, shatters the foe.

<sup>7</sup>      By your great majesty you bring down your enemies;

you send out your wrath to consume them like stubble.

<sup>8</sup>      With a blast from your nostrils the waters piled up —

the waters stood up like a wall,

the depths of the sea became firm ground.

<sup>9</sup> The enemy said, 'I will pursue and overtake, divide the spoil and gorge myself on them.
will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them.'

<sup>10</sup> You blew with your wind, the sea covered them,
they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11</sup> Who is like you, ADONAI, among the mighty?
Who is like you, sublime in holiness, awesome in praises, working wonders?

<sup>12</sup> You reached out with your right hand:
the earth swallowed them.

<sup>13</sup> In your love, you led the people you redeemed;
in your strength, you guided them to your holy abode.

<sup>14</sup> The peoples have heard, and they tremble;
anguish takes hold of those living in P'leshet;

<sup>15</sup> then the chiefs of Edom are dismayed;
trepidation seizes the heads of Mo'av;
all those living in Kena'an are melted away.

<sup>16</sup> Terror and dread fall on them;

by the might of your arm they are still as stone until your people pass over, ADONAI, till the people you purchased pass over.

<sup>17</sup> You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain which is your heritage,
the place, ADONAI, that you made your abode,
the sanctuary, Adonai, which your hands established.

<sup>18</sup> ADONAI will reign forever and ever.

<sup>19</sup> For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and with his cavalry into the sea, but ADONAI brought the sea waters back upon them, while the people of Isra'el walked on dry land in the midst of the sea!"

<sup>20</sup> Also Miryam the prophet, sister of Aharon, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines, dancing, <sup>21</sup> as Miryam sang to them:

"Sing to ADONAI, for he is highly exalted!

The horse and its rider he threw in the sea!"

<sup>22</sup> Moshe led Isra'el onward from the Sea of Suf. They went out into the Shur Desert; but after traveling three days in the desert, they had found no water. <sup>23</sup> They arrived at Marah but couldn't drink the water there, because it was bitter. This is why they called it Marah [bitterness].<sup>24</sup> The people grumbled against Moshe and asked, “What are we to drink?”<sup>25</sup> Moshe cried to ADONAI; and ADONAI showed him a certain piece of wood, which, when he threw it into the water, made the water taste good. There ADONAI made laws and rules of life for them, and there he tested them.<sup>26</sup> He said, “If you will listen intently to the voice of ADONAI your God, do what he considers right, pay attention to his mitzvot and observe his laws, I will not afflict you with any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians; because I am ADONAI your healer.”

(A: v, S: iv)<sup>27</sup> They came to Eilim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and camped there by the water.

16<sup>1</sup> They traveled on from Eilim, and the whole community of the people of Isra’el arrived at the Seen Desert, between Eilim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after leaving the land of Egypt.<sup>2</sup> There in the desert the whole community of the people of Isra’el grumbled against Moshe and Aharon.<sup>3</sup> The people of Isra’el said to them, “We wish ADONAI had used his own hand to kill us off in Egypt! There we used to sit around the pots with the meat boiling, and we had as much food as we wanted. But you have taken us out into this desert to let this whole assembly starve to death!”

<sup>4</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, “Here, I will cause bread to rain down from heaven for you. The people are to go out and gather a day’s ration every day. By this I will test whether they will observe my Torah or not.<sup>5</sup> On the sixth day, when they prepare what they have brought in, it will turn out to be twice as much as they gather on the other days.”<sup>6</sup> Moshe and Aharon said to all the people of Isra’el, “This evening, you will realize that it has been ADONAI who brought you out of Egypt;<sup>7</sup> and in the morning, you will see ADONAI’s glory. For he has listened to your grumblings against ADONAI — what are we that you should grumble against us?”<sup>8</sup> Moshe added, “What I have said will happen when ADONAI gives you meat to eat this evening and your fill of bread tomorrow morning. ADONAI has listened to your complaints and grumblings against him — what are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against ADONAI.”

<sup>9</sup> Moshe said to Aharon, “Say to the whole community of Isra’el, ‘Come close, into the presence of ADONAI, for he has heard your grumblings.’”<sup>10</sup> As

Aharon spoke to the whole community of the people of Isra'el, they looked toward the desert; and there before them the glory of ADONAI appeared in the cloud; (A: vi, S: v) <sup>11</sup> and ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>12</sup> “I have heard the grumblings of the people of Isra'el. Say to them: ‘At dusk you will be eating meat, and in the morning you will have your fill of bread. Then you will realize that I am ADONAI your God.’”

<sup>13</sup> That evening, quails came up and covered the camp; while in the morning there was a layer of dew all around the camp. <sup>14</sup> When the dew had evaporated, there on the surface of the desert was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. <sup>15</sup> When the people of Isra'el saw it, they asked each other, “Man hu? [What is it?]” because they didn’t know what it was. Moshe answered them, “It is the bread which ADONAI has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup> Here is what ADONAI has ordered: each man is to gather according to his appetite — each is to take an ‘omer [two quarts] per person for everyone in his tent.” <sup>17</sup> The people of Isra'el did this. Some gathered more, some less; <sup>18</sup> but when they put it in an ‘omer-measure, whoever had gathered much had no excess; and whoever had gathered little had no shortage; nevertheless each person had gathered according to his appetite.

<sup>19</sup> Moshe told them, “No one is to leave any of it till morning.” <sup>20</sup> But they didn’t pay attention to Moshe, and some kept the leftovers until morning. It bred worms and rotted, which made Moshe angry at them. <sup>21</sup> So they gathered it morning after morning, each person according to his appetite; but as the sun grew hot, it melted.

<sup>22</sup> On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two ‘omers per person; and all the community leaders came and reported to Moshe. <sup>23</sup> He told them, “This is what ADONAI has said: ‘Tomorrow is a holy Shabbat for ADONAI. Bake what you want to bake; boil what you want to boil; and whatever is left over, set aside and keep for the morning.’” <sup>24</sup> They set it aside till morning, as Moshe had ordered; and it didn’t rot or have worms. <sup>25</sup> Moshe said, “Today, eat that; because today is a Shabbat for ADONAI — today you won’t find it in the field. <sup>26</sup> Gather it six days, but the seventh day is the Shabbat — on that day there won’t be any.” <sup>27</sup> However, on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather and found none.

<sup>28</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “How long will you refuse to observe my mitzvot and teachings? <sup>29</sup> Look, ADONAI has given you the Shabbat. This is why he is providing bread for two days on the sixth day. Each of you, stay where you are; no one is to leave his place on the seventh day.” (S: vi) <sup>30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup> The people called the food man. It was like coriander seed, white; and it tasted like honey cakes. <sup>32</sup> Moshe said, “Here is what ADONAI has ordered: ‘Let two quarts of man be kept through all your generations, so that they will be able to see the bread which I fed you in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.’” <sup>33</sup> Moshe said to Aharon, “Take a jar, put in it two quarts of man, and set it aside before ADONAI to be kept through all your generations.” <sup>34</sup> Just as ADONAI ordered Moshe, Aharon set it aside before the testimony to be kept. <sup>35</sup> The people of Isra’el ate man for forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate man until they arrived at the borders of the land of Kena’an. <sup>36</sup> (An ‘omer is one-tenth of an eifah [which is a bushel dry-measure].)

17 (vii) <sup>1</sup> The whole community of the people of Isra’el left the Seen Desert, traveling in stages, as ADONAI had ordered, and camped at Refidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup> The people quarreled with Moshe, demanding, “Give us water to drink!” But Moshe replied, “Why pick a fight with me? Why are you testing ADONAI?” <sup>3</sup> However, the people were thirsty for water there and grumbled against Moshe, “For what did you bring us up from Egypt? To kill us, our children and our livestock with thirst?”

<sup>4</sup> Moshe cried out to ADONAI, “What am I to do with these people? They’re ready to stone me!” <sup>5</sup> ADONAI answered Moshe, “Go on ahead of the people, and bring with you the leaders of Isra’el. Take your staff in your hand, the one you used to strike the river; and go. <sup>6</sup> I will stand in front of you there on the rock in Horev. You are to strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so the people can drink.” Moshe did this in the sight of the leaders of Isra’el. <sup>7</sup> The place was named Massah [testing] and M’rivah [quarreling] because of the quarreling of the people of Isra’el and because they tested ADONAI by asking, “Is ADONAI with us or not?”

<sup>8</sup> Then ‘Amalek came and fought with Isra’el at Refidim. <sup>9</sup> Moshe said to Y’hoshua, “Choose men for us, go out, and fight with ‘Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with God’s staff in my hand.” <sup>10</sup> Y’hoshua did as Moshe had told him and fought with ‘Amalek. Then Moshe, Aharon and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup> When Moshe raised his hand, Isra'el prevailed; but when he let it down, 'Amalek prevailed.<sup>12</sup> However, Moshe's hands grew heavy; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aharon and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side and the other on the other; so that his hands stayed steady until sunset.

<sup>13</sup> Thus Y'hoshua defeated 'Amalek, putting their people to the sword.

(Maftir) <sup>14</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> said to Moshe, "Write this in a book to be remembered, and tell it to Y'hoshua: I will completely blot out any memory of 'Amalek from under heaven." <sup>15</sup> Moshe built an altar, called it A<sub>DONAI</sub> Nissi [A<sub>DONAI</sub> is my banner/miracle], <sup>16</sup> and said, "Because their hand was against the throne of Yah, A<sub>DONAI</sub> will fight 'Amalek generation after generation."

Haftarah B'shallach: Shof'tim (Judges) 4:4–5:31 (A); 5:1–31 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah B'shallach: Luke 2:22–24; Yochanan (John) 6:25–35; 19:31–37; 1
Corinthians 10:1–13; 2 Corinthians 8:1–15; Revelation 15:1–4

Parashah 17: Yitro (Jethro) 18:1–20:23(26)

18 <sup>1</sup> Now Yitro the priest of Midyan, Moshe's father-in-law, heard about all that God had done for Moshe and for Isra'el his people, how A<sub>DONAI</sub> had brought Isra'el out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> After Moshe had sent away his wife Tzipporah and her two sons, Yitro Moshe's father-in-law had taken them back. <sup>3</sup> The name of the one son was Gershom [a foreigner there], for Moshe had said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land." <sup>4</sup> The name of the other was Eli'ezer [my God helps], "because the God of my father helped me by rescuing me from Pharaoh's sword." <sup>5</sup> Yitro Moshe's father-in-law brought Moshe's sons and wife to him in the desert where he was encamped, at the mountain of God. <sup>6</sup> He sent word to Moshe, "I, your father-in-law Yitro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."

<sup>7</sup> Moshe went out to meet his father-in-law, prostrated himself and kissed him. Then, after inquiring of each other's welfare, they entered the tent. <sup>8</sup> Moshe told his father-in-law all that A<sub>DONAI</sub> had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Isra'el's sake, all the hardships they had suffered while traveling and how ADONAI had rescued them. <sup>9</sup> Yitro rejoiced over all the good that ADONAI had done for Isra'el by rescuing them from the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup> Yitro said, "Blessed be ADONAI, who has rescued you from the Egyptians and from Pharaoh, who has rescued the people from the harsh hand of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup> Now I know that ADONAI is greater than all other gods, because he rescued those who were treated so arrogantly." <sup>12</sup> Yitro Moshe's father-in-law brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aharon came with all the leaders of Isra'el to share the meal before God with Moshe's father-in-law.

(ii) <sup>13</sup> The following day Moshe sat to settle disputes for the people, while the people stood around Moshe from morning till evening. <sup>14</sup> When Moshe's father-in-law saw all that he was doing to the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing to the people? Why do you sit there alone, with all the people standing around you from morning till evening?" <sup>15</sup> Moshe answered his father-in-law, "It's because the people come to me seeking God's guidance. <sup>16</sup> Whenever they have a dispute, it comes to me; I judge between one person and another, and I explain to them God's laws and teachings."

<sup>17</sup> Moshe's father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing isn't good. <sup>18</sup> You will certainly wear yourself out — and not only yourself, but these people here with you as well. It's too much for you — you can't do it alone, by yourself. <sup>19</sup> So listen now to what I have to say. I will give you some advice, and God will be with you. You should represent the people before God, and you should bring their cases to God. <sup>20</sup> You should also teach them the laws and the teachings, and show them how to live their lives and what work they should do. <sup>21</sup> But you should choose from among all the people competent men who are God-fearing, honest and incorruptible to be their leaders, in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. <sup>22</sup> Normally, they will settle the people's disputes. They should bring you the difficult cases; but ordinary matters they should decide themselves. In this way, they will make it easier for you and share the load with you. <sup>23</sup> If you do this — and God is directing you to do it — you will be able to endure; and all these people too will arrive at their destination peacefully."

(iii) <sup>24</sup> Moshe paid attention to his father-in-law's counsel and did everything he said. <sup>25</sup> Moshe chose competent men from all Isra'el and made them heads over the people, in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. <sup>26</sup> As a general rule, they settled the people's disputes — the difficult cases they brought to Moshe, but every simple matter they decided themselves.

<sup>27</sup> Then Moshe let his father-in-law leave, and he went off to his own country.

19 (iv) <sup>1</sup> In the third month after the people of Isra'el had left the land of Egypt, the same day they came to the Sinai Desert. <sup>2</sup> After setting out from Refidim and arriving at the Sinai Desert, they set up camp in the desert; there in front of the mountain, Isra'el set up camp.

<sup>3</sup> Moshe went up to God, and ADONAI called to him from the mountain: "Here is what you are to say to the household of Ya'akov, to tell the people of Isra'el: <sup>4</sup> 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. <sup>5</sup> Now if you will pay careful attention to what I say and keep my covenant, then you will be my own treasure from among all the peoples, for all the earth is mine; <sup>6</sup> and you will be a kingdom of cohanim for me, a nation set apart.' These are the words you are to speak to the people of Isra'el."

(v) <sup>7</sup> Moshe came, summoned the leaders of the people and presented them with all these words which ADONAI had ordered him to say. <sup>8</sup> All the people answered as one, "Everything ADONAI has said, we will do." Moshe reported the words of the people to ADONAI. <sup>9</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "See, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, so that the people will be able to hear when I speak with you and also to trust in you forever." Moshe had told ADONAI what the people had said; <sup>10</sup> so ADONAI said to Moshe, "Go to the people; today and tomorrow separate them for me by having them wash their clothing; <sup>11</sup> and prepare for the third day. For on the third day, ADONAI will come down on Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people. <sup>12</sup> You are to set limits for the people all around; and say, 'Be careful not to go up on the mountain or even touch its base; whoever touches the mountain will surely be put to death. <sup>13</sup> No hand is to touch him; for he must be stoned or shot by arrows; neither animal nor human will be allowed to live.' When the shofar sounds, they may go up on the mountain."

(S: vi) <sup>14</sup> Moshe went down from the mountain to the people and separated the people for God, and they washed their clothing. <sup>15</sup> He said to the people, "Prepare for the third day; don't approach a woman."

<sup>16</sup> On the morning of the third day, there was thunder, lightning and a thick cloud on the mountain. Then a shofar blast sounded so loudly that all the people in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup> Moshe brought the people out of the camp to meet God; they stood near the base of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> Mount Sinai was enveloped in smoke, because ADONAI descended onto it in fire — its smoke went up like the smoke from a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently. <sup>19</sup> As the sound of the shofar grew louder and louder, Moshe spoke; and God answered him with a voice.

(A: vi, S: vii) <sup>20</sup>ADONAI came down onto Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; then ADONAI called Moshe to the top of the mountain; and Moshe went up. <sup>21</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go down and warn the people not to force their way through to ADONAI to see him; if they do, many of them will perish. <sup>22</sup> Even the cohanim, who are allowed to approach ADONAI, must keep themselves holy; otherwise, ADONAI may break out against them.” <sup>23</sup> Moshe said to ADONAI, “The people can’t come up to Mount Sinai, because you ordered us to set limits around the mountain and separate it.” <sup>24</sup> But ADONAI answered him, “Go, get down! Then come back up, you and Aharon with you. But don’t let the cohanim and the people force their way through to come up to ADONAI, or he will break out against them.”

<sup>25</sup> So Moshe went down to the people and told them.

20 <sup>1</sup> Then God said all these words:

⌘ <sup>2</sup> “I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the abode of slavery.

⌚ <sup>3</sup> “You are to have no other gods before me. <sup>4</sup> You are not to make for yourselves a carved image or any kind of representation of anything in heaven above, on the earth beneath or in the water below the shoreline. <sup>5</sup> You are not to bow down to them or serve them; for I, ADONAI your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sins of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, <sup>6</sup> but displaying grace to the thousandth generation of those who love me and obey my mitzvot.

⌚ <sup>7</sup> “You are not to use lightly the name of ADONAI your God, because

ADONAI will not leave unpunished someone who uses his name lightly.

7 <sup>8</sup> “Remember the day, Shabbat, to set it apart for God. <sup>9</sup> You have six days to labor and do all your work, <sup>10</sup> but the seventh day is a Shabbat for ADONAI your God. On it, you are not to do any kind of work — not you, your son or your daughter, not your male or female slave, not your livestock, and not the foreigner staying with you inside the gates to your property. <sup>11</sup> For in six days, ADONAI made heaven and earth, the sea and everything in them; but on the seventh day he rested. This is why ADONAI blessed the day, Shabbat, and separated it for himself.

11 <sup>12</sup> “Honor your father and mother, so that you may live long in the land which ADONAI your God is giving you.

1 <sup>13</sup> “Do not murder.

1 <sup>(14)</sup> “Do not commit adultery.

11 <sup>(15)</sup> “Do not steal.

1 <sup>(16)</sup> “Do not give false evidence against your neighbor.

1 <sup>14(17)</sup> “Do not covet your neighbor’s house; do not covet your neighbor’s wife, his male or female slave, his ox, his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

(A: vii) <sup>15(18)</sup> All the people experienced the thunder, the lightning, the sound of the shofar, and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled. Standing at a distance, <sup>16(19)</sup> they said to Moshe, “You, speak with us; and we will listen. But don’t let God speak with us, or we will die.” <sup>17(20)</sup> Moshe answered the people, “Don’t be afraid, because God has come only to test you and make you fear him, so that you won’t commit sins.” <sup>18(21)</sup> So the people stood at a distance, but Moshe approached the thick darkness where God was.

(A: Maftir) <sup>19(22)</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, “Here is what you are to say to the people of Isra’el: ‘You yourselves have seen that I spoke with you from heaven. <sup>20(23)</sup> You are not to make with me gods of silver, nor are you to make gods of gold for yourselves. (S: Maftir) <sup>21(24)</sup> For me you need make only an altar of earth; on it you will sacrifice your burnt offerings, peace offerings, sheep, goats and cattle. In every place where I cause my name to be mentioned, I will come to you and bless you. <sup>22(25)</sup> If you do make me an altar of stone, you are not to build it of cut stones; for if you use a tool on it, you profane it. <sup>23(26)</sup> Likewise, you are not to use steps to go up to my altar; so that you won’t be indecently uncovered.’”

Haftarah Yitro: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 6:1–7:6; 9:5(6)–6(7) (A); 6:1–13 (S)

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Yitro: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:21–30; 15:1–11; 19:16–30; Mark 7:5–15; 10:17–31; Luke 18:18–30; Acts 6:1–7; Romans 2:17–29; 7:7–12; 13:8–10; Ephesians 6:1–3; 1 Timothy 3:1–14; 2 Timothy 2:2; Titus 1:5–9; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 12:18–29; Ya’akov (James) 2:8–13; 1 Kefa (1 Peter) 2:9–10

Parashah 18: Mishpatim (Rulings) 21:1–24:18

21 <sup>1</sup> “These are the rulings you are to present to them:

<sup>2</sup> “If you purchase a Hebrew slave, he is to work six years; but in the seventh, he is to be given his freedom without having to pay anything. <sup>3</sup> If he came single, he is to leave single; if he was married when he came, his wife is to go with him when he leaves. <sup>4</sup> But if his master gave him a wife, and she bore him sons or daughters, then the wife and her children will belong to her master, and he will leave by himself. <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, if the slave declares, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children, so I don’t want to go free,’ <sup>6</sup> then his master is to bring him before God; and there at the door or doorpost, his master is to pierce his ear with an awl; and the man will be his slave for life.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man sells his daughter as a slave, she is not to go free like the men-slaves. <sup>8</sup> If her master married her but decides she no longer pleases him, then he is to allow her to be redeemed. He is not allowed to sell her to a foreign people, because he has treated her unfairly. <sup>9</sup> If he has her marry his son, then he is to treat her like a daughter. <sup>10</sup> If he marries another wife, he is not to reduce her food, clothing or marital rights. <sup>11</sup> If he fails to provide her with these three things, she is to be given her freedom without having to pay anything.

<sup>12</sup> “Whoever attacks a person and causes his death must be put to death. <sup>13</sup> If it was not premeditated but an act of God, then I will designate for you a place to which he can flee. <sup>14</sup> But if someone willfully kills another after deliberate planning, you are to take him even from my altar and put him to death.

<sup>15</sup> “Whoever attacks his father or mother must be put to death.

<sup>16</sup> “Whoever kidnaps someone must be put to death, regardless of whether he has already sold him or the person is found still in his possession.

<sup>17</sup> “Whoever curses his father or mother must be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> “If two people fight, and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist, and the injured party doesn’t die but is confined to his bed; <sup>19</sup> then, if he recovers enough to be able to walk around outside, even if with a cane, the attacker will be free of liability, except to compensate him for his loss of time and take responsibility for his care until his recovery is complete.

(ii)<sup>20</sup> “If a person beats his male or female slave with a stick so severely that he dies, he is to be punished; <sup>21</sup> except that if the slave lives for a day or two, he is not to be punished, since the slave is his property.

<sup>22</sup> “If people are fighting with each other and happen to hurt a pregnant woman so badly that her unborn child dies, then, even if no other harm follows, he must be fined. He must pay the amount set by the woman’s husband and confirmed by judges. <sup>23</sup> But if any harm follows, then you are to give life for life, <sup>24</sup> eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup> burn for burn, wound for wound and bruise for bruise.

<sup>26</sup> “If a person hits his male or female slave’s eye and destroys it, he must let him go free in compensation for his eye. <sup>27</sup> If he knocks out his male or female slave’s tooth, he must let him go free in compensation for his tooth.

<sup>28</sup> “If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox is to be stoned and its flesh not eaten, but the owner of the ox will have no further liability. <sup>29</sup> However, if the ox was in the habit of goring in the past, and the owner was warned but did not confine it, so that it ended up killing a man or a woman; then the ox is to be stoned, and its owner too is to be put to death. <sup>30</sup> However, a ransom may be imposed on him; and the death penalty will be commuted if he pays the amount imposed. <sup>31</sup> If the ox gores a son or daughter, the same rule applies. <sup>32</sup> If the ox gores a male or female slave, its owner must give their master twelve ounces of silver; and the ox is to be stoned to death.

<sup>33</sup> “If someone removes the cover from a cistern or digs one and fails to cover it, and an ox or donkey falls in, <sup>34</sup> the owner of the cistern must make good the loss by compensating the animal’s owner; but the dead animal will be his.

<sup>35</sup> “If one person’s ox hurts another’s, so that it dies, they are to sell the live ox and divide the revenue from the sale; and they are also to divide the dead animal. <sup>36</sup> But if it is known that the ox was in the habit of goring in the past, and the owner did not confine it; he must pay ox for ox, but the dead animal will be his.

<sup>37(22:1)</sup> “If someone steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters or sells it, he is to pay five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

22 <sup>1(2)</sup> “If a thief caught in the act of breaking in is beaten to death, it is not murder; <sup>2(3)</sup> unless it happens after sunrise, in which case it is murder. A thief must make restitution; so if he has nothing, he himself is to be sold to make good the loss from the theft. <sup>3(4)</sup> If what he stole is found alive in his possession, he is to pay double, no matter whether it is an ox, a donkey or a sheep.

(iii) <sup>4(5)</sup> “If a person causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over or lets his animal loose to graze in someone else’s field, he is to make restitution from the best produce of his own field and vineyard.

<sup>5(6)</sup> “If a fire is started and spreads to thorns, so that stacked grain, standing grain or a field is destroyed, the person who lit it must make restitution.

<sup>6(7)</sup> “If a person entrusts a neighbor with money or goods, and they are stolen from the trustee’s house, then, if the thief is found, he must pay double. <sup>7(8)</sup> But if the thief is not found, then the trustee must state before God that he did not take the person’s goods himself. <sup>8(9)</sup> In every case of dispute over ownership, whether of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, clothing, or any missing property, where one person says, ‘This is mine,’ both parties are to come before God; and the one whom God condemns must pay the other one double.

<sup>9(10)</sup> “If a person trusts a neighbor to look after a donkey, ox, sheep or any animal, and it dies, is injured or is driven away unseen, <sup>10(11)</sup> then the neighbor’s oath before A<sub>DONAI</sub> that he has not taken the goods will settle the matter between them — the owner is to accept it without the neighbor’s making restitution. <sup>11(12)</sup> But if it was stolen from the neighbor, he must make restitution to the owner. <sup>12(13)</sup> If it was torn to pieces by an animal, the neighbor must bring it as evidence, and then he doesn’t need to make good the loss.

<sup>13(14)</sup> “If someone borrows something from his neighbor, and it gets injured or dies with the owner not present, he must make restitution. <sup>14(15)</sup> If the owner was present, he need not make good the loss. If the owner hired it out, the loss is covered by the hiring fee.

<sup>15(16)</sup> “If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price for her to be his wife. <sup>16(17)</sup> But if her father refuses to give her to him, he must pay a sum equivalent to the bride-price for virgins.

<sup>17(18)</sup> “You are not to permit a sorceress to live.

<sup>18(19)</sup> “Whoever has sexual relations with an animal must be put to death.

<sup>19(20)</sup> “Anyone who sacrifices to any god other than ADONAI alone is to be completely destroyed.

<sup>20(21)</sup> “You must neither wrong nor oppress a foreigner living among you, for you yourselves were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>21(22)</sup> “You are not to abuse any widow or orphan. <sup>22(23)</sup> If you do abuse them in any way, and they cry to me, I will certainly heed their cry. <sup>23(24)</sup> My anger will burn, and I will kill you with the sword — your own wives will be widows and your own children fatherless.

<sup>24(25)</sup> “If you loan money to one of my people who is poor, you are not to deal with him as would a creditor; and you are not to charge him interest. <sup>25(26)</sup> If you take your neighbor’s coat as collateral, you are to restore it to him by sundown, <sup>26(27)</sup> because it is his only garment — he needs it to wrap his body; what else does he have in which to sleep? Moreover, if he cries out to me, I will listen; because I am compassionate.

(iv) <sup>27(28)</sup> “You are not to curse God, and you are not to curse a leader of your people.

<sup>28(29)</sup> “You are not to delay offering from your harvest of grain, olive oil or wine.

“The firstborn of your sons you are to give to me. <sup>29(30)</sup> You are to do the same with your oxen and your sheep — it is to stay with its mother seven days, and on the eighth day you are to give it to me.

<sup>30(31)</sup> “You are to be my specially separated people. Therefore you are not to eat any flesh torn by wild animals in the countryside; rather, throw it out for the dogs.

23 <sup>1</sup> “You are not to repeat false rumors; do not join hands with the wicked by offering perjured testimony. <sup>2</sup> Do not follow the crowd when it does what is wrong; and don’t allow the popular view to sway you into offering testimony for any cause if the effect will be to pervert justice. <sup>3</sup> On the other hand, don’t favor a person’s lawsuit simply because he is poor.

<sup>4</sup> “If you come upon your enemy’s ox or donkey straying, you must return it to him. <sup>5</sup> If you see the donkey which belongs to someone who hates you lying down helpless under its load, you are not to pass him by but to go and help him free it.

(v) <sup>6</sup> “Do not deny anyone justice in his lawsuit simply because he is poor. <sup>7</sup> Keep away from fraud, and do not cause the death of the innocent and righteous; for I will not justify the wicked. <sup>8</sup> You are not to receive a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and subverts the cause of the righteous.

<sup>9</sup> “You are not to oppress a foreigner, for you know how a foreigner feels, since you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> “For six years, you are to sow your land with seed and gather in its harvest. <sup>11</sup> But the seventh year, you are to let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people can eat; and what they leave, the wild animals in the countryside can eat. Do the same with your vineyard and olive grove.

<sup>12</sup> “For six days, you are to work. But on the seventh day, you are to rest, so that your ox and donkey can rest, and your slave-girl’s son and the foreigner be renewed.

<sup>13</sup> “Pay attention to everything I have said to you; do not invoke the names of other gods or even let them be heard crossing your lips.

<sup>14</sup> “Three times a year, you are to observe a festival for me. <sup>15</sup> Keep the festival of matzah: for seven days, as I ordered you, you are to eat matzah at the time determined in the month of Aviv; for it was in that month that you left Egypt. No one is to appear before me empty-handed. <sup>16</sup> Next, the festival of harvest, the firstfruits of your efforts sowing in the field; and last, the festival of ingathering, at the end of the year, when you gather in from the fields the results of your efforts. <sup>17</sup> Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Lord, ADONAI.

<sup>18</sup> “You are not to offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, nor is the fat of my festival to remain all night until morning.

<sup>19</sup> “You are to bring the best firstfruits of your land into the house of ADONAI your God.

“You are not to boil a young animal in its mother’s milk.

(vi) <sup>20</sup> “I am sending an angel ahead of you to guard you on the way and bring you to the place I have prepared. <sup>21</sup> Pay attention to him, listen to what he says and do not rebel against him; because he will not forgive any wrongdoing of yours, since my name resides in him. <sup>22</sup> But if you listen to what he says and do everything I tell you, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes. <sup>23</sup> When my angel goes ahead of you and brings you to the Emori, Hitti, P’rizi, Kena’ani, Hivi and Y’vusi, I will make an end of them. <sup>24</sup> You are not to worship their gods, serve them or follow their practices; rather, you are to demolish them completely and smash their standing-stones to pieces.

<sup>25</sup> “You are to serve ADONAI your God; and he will bless your food and water. I will take sickness away from among you. (vii) <sup>26</sup> In your land your women will not miscarry or be barren, and you will live out the full span of your lives. <sup>27</sup> I will send terror of me ahead of you, throwing into confusion all the people to whom you come; and I will make all your enemies turn their backs on you. <sup>28</sup> I will send hornets ahead of you to drive out the Hivi, Kena‘ani and Hitti from before you. <sup>29</sup> I will not drive them out from before you in one year, which would cause the land to become desolate and the wild animals too many for you. <sup>30</sup> I will drive them out from before you gradually, until you have grown in number and can take possession of the land. <sup>31</sup> I will set your boundaries from the Sea of Suf to the sea of the P’lishtim and from the desert to the [Euphrates] River, for I will hand the inhabitants of the land over to you, and you will drive them out from before you. <sup>32</sup> You are not to make a covenant with them or with their gods. <sup>33</sup> They are not to live in your land; otherwise they will make you sin against me by ensnaring you to serve their gods.”

24 <sup>1</sup> To Moshe [ADONAI] said, “Come up to ADONAI — you, Aharon, Nadav, Avihu, and seventy of the leaders of Isra’el. Prostrate yourselves at a distance, <sup>2</sup> while Moshe alone approaches ADONAI — the others are not to approach, and the people are not to go up with him.” <sup>3</sup> Moshe came and told the people everything ADONAI had said, including all the rulings. The people answered with one voice: “We will obey every word ADONAI has spoken.”

<sup>4</sup> Moshe wrote down all the words of ADONAI. He rose early in the morning, built an altar at the base of the mountain and set upright twelve large stones to represent the twelve tribes of Isra’el. <sup>5</sup> He sent the young men of the people of Isra’el to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice peace offerings of oxen to ADONAI. <sup>6</sup> Moshe took half of the blood and put it in basins; the other half of the blood he splashed against the altar. <sup>7</sup> Then he took the book of the covenant and read it aloud, so that the people could hear; and they responded, “Everything that ADONAI has spoken, we will do and obey.” <sup>8</sup> Moshe took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, “This is the blood of the covenant which ADONAI has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

<sup>9</sup> Moshe, Aharon, Nadav, Avihu and seventy of the leaders went up; <sup>10</sup> and they saw the God of Isra'el. Under his feet was something like a sapphire stone pavement as clear as the sky itself. <sup>11</sup> He did not reach out his hand against these notables of Isra'el; on the contrary, they saw God, even as they were eating and drinking.

<sup>12</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, "Come up to me on the mountain, and stay there. I will give you the stone tablets with the Torah and the mitzvot I have written on them, so that you can teach them." <sup>13</sup> Moshe got up, also Y'hoshua his assistant; and Moshe went up onto the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup> To the leaders he said, "Stay here for us, until we come back to you. See, Aharon and Hur are with you; whoever has a problem should turn to them." (S: Maftir) <sup>15</sup> Moshe went up onto the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. (A: Maftir) <sup>16</sup> The glory of ADONAI stayed on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day he called to Moshe out of the cloud. <sup>17</sup> To the people of Isra'el the glory of ADONAI looked like a raging fire on the top of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> Moshe entered the cloud and went up on the mountain; he was on the mountain forty days and nights.

Haftarah Mishpatim: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 34:8–22; 33:25–26

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Mishpatim: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:38– 42; 15:1–20; Mark 7:1–23; Acts 23:1–11; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 9:15–22; 10:28–39

Parashah 19: T'rumah (Contribution) 25:1–27:19

25 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> "Tell the people of Isra'el to take up a collection for me — accept a contribution from anyone who wholeheartedly wants to give. <sup>3</sup> The contribution you are to take from them is to consist of gold, silver and bronze; <sup>4</sup> blue, purple and scarlet yarn; fine linen, goat's hair, <sup>5</sup> tanned ram skins and fine leather; acacia-wood; <sup>6</sup> oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; <sup>7</sup> onyx stones and other stones to be set, for the ritual vest and breastplate.

<sup>8</sup> "They are to make me a sanctuary, so that I may live among them. <sup>9</sup> You are to make it according to everything I show you — the design of the tabernacle and the design of its furnishings. This is how you are to make it.

<sup>10</sup> “They are to make an ark of acacia-wood three-and-three-quarters feet long, two-and-a-quarter feet wide and two-and-a-quarter feet high. <sup>11</sup> You are to overlay it with pure gold — overlay it both inside and outside — and put a molding of gold around the top of it. <sup>12</sup> Cast four gold rings for it, and attach them to its four feet, two rings on each side. <sup>13</sup> Make poles of acacia-wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>14</sup> Put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark; you will use them to carry the ark. <sup>15</sup> The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they are not to be removed from it. <sup>16</sup> Into the ark you are to put the testimony which I am about to give you.

(ii) <sup>17</sup> “You are to make a cover for the ark out of pure gold; it is to be three-and-three-quarters feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide. <sup>18</sup> You are to make two k’ruvim of gold. Make them of hammered work for the two ends of the ark-cover. <sup>19</sup> Make one keruv for one end and one keruv for the other end; make the k’ruvim of one piece with the ark-cover at its two ends. <sup>20</sup> The k’ruvim will have their wings spread out above, so that their wings cover the ark, and their faces are toward each other and toward the ark-cover. <sup>21</sup> You are to put the ark-cover on top of the ark.

“Inside the ark you will put the testimony that I am about to give you. <sup>22</sup> There I will meet with you. I will speak with you from above the ark-cover, from between the two k’ruvim which are on the ark for the testimony, about all the orders I am giving you for the people of Isra’el.

<sup>23</sup> “You are to make a table of acacia-wood three feet long, eighteen inches wide and eighteen inches high. <sup>24</sup> Overlay it with pure gold, and put a molding of gold around the top of it. <sup>25</sup> Make around it a rim a handbreadth wide, and put a molding of gold around the rim. <sup>26</sup> Make four gold rings for it, and attach the rings to the four corners, near its four legs. <sup>27</sup> The rings to hold the poles used to carry the table are to be placed close to the rim. <sup>28</sup> Make the poles of acacia-wood, overlay them with gold, and use them to carry the table.

<sup>29</sup> “Make its dishes, pans, bowls and pitchers of pure gold. <sup>30</sup> On the table you are to place the bread of the presence in my presence always.

(S: iii) <sup>31</sup> “You are to make a menorah of pure gold. It is to be made of hammered work; its base, shaft, cups, ring of outer leaves and petals are to be of one piece with it. <sup>32</sup> It is to have six branches extending from its sides, three branches of the menorah on one side of it and three on the other. <sup>33</sup> On one branch are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a ring of outer leaves and petals; likewise on the opposite branch three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with a ring of outer leaves and petals; and similarly for all six branches extending from the menorah.<sup>34</sup> On the central shaft of the menorah are to be four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its ring of outer leaves and petals.<sup>35</sup> Where each pair of branches joins the central shaft is to be a ring of outer leaves of one piece with the pair of branches — thus for all six branches.<sup>36</sup> The rings of outer leaves and their branches are to be of one piece with the shaft. Thus the whole menorah is to be a single piece of hammered work made of pure gold.

<sup>37</sup> “Make seven lamps for the menorah, and mount them so as to give light to the space in front of it.<sup>38</sup> Its tongs and trays are to be of pure gold.<sup>39</sup> The menorah and its utensils are to be made of sixty-six pounds of pure gold.<sup>40</sup> See that you make them according to the design being shown you on the mountain.

26 (A: iii) <sup>1</sup> “You are to make the tabernacle with ten sheets of finely woven linen and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn. You are to make them with k’ruvim worked in, that have been crafted by a skilled artisan.<sup>2</sup> Each one is to be forty-two feet long and six feet wide; all the sheets are to be the same size.<sup>3</sup> Five sheets are to be joined one to another, and the other five sheets are to be joined one to another.<sup>4</sup> Make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set, and do the same on the edge of the outermost sheet in the second set.<sup>5</sup> Make fifty loops on the one sheet, and make fifty loops on the edge of the sheet in the second set; the loops are to be opposite one another.<sup>6</sup> Make fifty fasteners of gold, and couple the sheets to each other with the fasteners, so that the tabernacle forms a single unit.

<sup>7</sup> “You are to make sheets of goat’s hair to be used as a tent covering the tabernacle; make eleven sheets.<sup>8</sup> Each sheet is to be forty-five feet long and six feet wide — all eleven sheets are to be the same size.<sup>9</sup> Join five sheets together and six sheets together, and fold the sixth sheet double at the front of the tent.<sup>10</sup> Make fifty loops on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set and fifty loops on the edge of the outermost sheet in the second set.<sup>11</sup> Make fifty fasteners of bronze, put the fasteners in the loops, and join the tent together, so that it forms a single unit.<sup>12</sup> As for the overhanging part that remains of the sheets forming the tent, the half-sheet remaining is to hang over the back of the tabernacle; <sup>13</sup> and the eighteen inches on the one side and the eighteen inches on the other side of that remaining in the length of the sheets forming the tent is to hang over the tabernacle to cover it on each side.

<sup>14</sup> “You are to make a covering for the tent of tanned ram skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

(iv) <sup>15</sup> “Make the upright planks for the tabernacle out of acacia-wood. <sup>16</sup> Each plank is to be fifteen feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide. <sup>17</sup> There are to be two projections on each plank, and the planks are to be joined one to another. That is how you are to make all the planks for the tabernacle.

<sup>18</sup> “Make the planks for the tabernacle as follows: twenty planks for the south side, facing southward. <sup>19</sup> Make forty silver sockets under the twenty planks, two sockets under one plank for its two projections and two sockets under another plank for its two projections. <sup>20</sup> “For the second side of the tabernacle, to the north, make twenty planks <sup>21</sup> and their forty silver sockets, two sockets under one plank and two under another. <sup>22</sup> “For the rear part of the tabernacle, toward the west, make six planks. <sup>23</sup> For the corners of the tabernacle in the rear, make two planks; <sup>24</sup> these are to be double from the bottom all the way to the top but joined at a single ring. Do the same with both of them; they are to form the two corners. <sup>25</sup> Thus there will be eight planks with their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under one plank and two under another.

<sup>26</sup> “Make crossbars of acacia-wood, five for the planks of the one side of the tabernacle, <sup>27</sup> five crossbars for the planks of the other side of the tabernacle, and five crossbars for the planks at the side of the tabernacle at the rear toward the west. <sup>28</sup> The middle crossbar, halfway up the planks, is to extend from end to end. <sup>29</sup> Overlay the planks with gold, make gold rings for them through which the crossbars will pass, and overlay the crossbars with gold.

<sup>30</sup> “You are to erect the tabernacle according to the design you have been shown on the mountain.

(v) <sup>31</sup> “You are to make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. Make it with k’ruvim worked in, that have been crafted by a skilled artisan. <sup>32</sup> Hang it with gold hooks on four acacia-wood posts overlaid with gold and standing in four silver sockets. <sup>33</sup> Hang the curtain

below the fasteners. Then bring the ark for the testimony inside the curtain; the curtain will be the divider for you between the Holy Place and the Especially Holy Place. <sup>34</sup> You are to put the ark-cover on the ark for the testimony in the Especially Holy Place.

<sup>35</sup> “You are to put the table outside the curtain and the menorah opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; put the table on the north side.

<sup>36</sup> “For the entrance to the tent, make a screen of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen; it should be in colors, the work of a weaver. <sup>37</sup> For the screen, make five posts of acacia-wood; overlay them with gold; and cast for them five sockets of bronze.

27 (vi) <sup>1</sup> “You are to make the altar of acacia-wood, seven-and-a-half feet long and seven-and-a-half feet wide — the altar is to be square and four-and-a-half feet high. <sup>2</sup> Make horns for it on its four corners; the horns are to be of one piece with it; and you are to overlay it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup> “Make its pots for removing ashes, and its shovels, basins, meat-hooks and fire pans; all its utensils you are to make of bronze. <sup>4</sup> Make for it a grate of bronze netting; and on the four corners of the netting, make four bronze rings. <sup>5</sup> Put it under the rim of the altar, so that the netting reaches halfway up the altar. <sup>6</sup> Make poles of acacia-wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup> Its poles are to be put into the rings; the poles are to be on both sides of the altar for carrying it. <sup>8</sup> The altar is to be made of planks and hollow inside. They are to make it just as you were shown on the mountain.

(vii) <sup>9</sup> “Here is how you are to make the courtyard of the tabernacle. On the south side, facing southward, are to be tapestries for the courtyard made of finely woven linen, 150 feet for one side, <sup>10</sup> supported on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets; the hooks on the posts and the attached rings for hanging are to be of silver. <sup>11</sup> Likewise, along the north side are to be tapestries 150 feet long, hung on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets, with silver hooks and rings for the posts. <sup>12</sup> Across the width of the courtyard on the west side are to be tapestries seventy-five feet long, hung on ten posts in ten sockets. <sup>13</sup> The width of the courtyard on the east side, facing east, will be seventy-five feet. <sup>14</sup> The tapestries for one side [of the gateway] will be twenty-two-and-a-half feet long, hung on three posts in three sockets; <sup>15</sup> for the other side there will be tapestries twenty-two-and-a-half feet long on three posts in three sockets.

<sup>16</sup> “For the gateway of the courtyard there is to be a screen thirty feet long made of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. It should be in colors, the work of a weaver. It is to be on four posts in four sockets. (Maftir) <sup>17</sup> All the posts all the way around the courtyard are to be banded with silver and to stand in sockets of bronze. <sup>18</sup> The length of the courtyard is to be 150 feet and the width seventy-five feet everywhere; with the height seven-and-a-half feet. The tapestries and screen are to be of finely woven linen, and the sockets are to be of bronze.

<sup>19</sup> “All the equipment needed for every kind of service in the tabernacle, as well as the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

Haftarah T’rumah: M’lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 5:26(12)–6:13

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah T’rumah:
Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 8:1–6; 9:23–24; 10:1

Parashah 20: Tetzaveh (You are to order) 27:20–30:10

<sup>20</sup> “You are to order the people of Isra’el to bring you pure oil of pounded olives for the light, and to keep a lamp burning continually. <sup>21</sup> Aharon and his sons are to put it in the tent of meeting, outside the curtain in front of the testimony, and keep it burning from evening until morning before ADONAI. This is to be a permanent regulation through all the generations of the people of Isra’el.

28 <sup>1</sup> “You are to summon your brother Aharon and his sons to come from among the people of Isra’el to you, so that they can serve me as cohanim — Aharon and his sons Nadav, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar. <sup>2</sup> You are to make for your brother Aharon garments set apart for serving God, expressing dignity and splendor. <sup>3</sup> Speak to all the craftsmen to whom I have given the spirit of wisdom, and have them make Aharon’s garments to set him apart for me, so that he can serve me in the office of cohen.

<sup>4</sup> “The garments they are to make are these: a breastplate, a ritual vest, a robe, a checkered tunic, a turban and a sash. They are to make holy garments for your brother Aharon and his sons, so that he can serve me in the office of cohen. <sup>5</sup> They are to use gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and fine linen.

<sup>6</sup> “They are to make the ritual vest of gold, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely woven linen, crafted by a skilled artisan. <sup>7</sup> Attached to its front and back edges are to be two shoulder-pieces that can be fastened together. <sup>8</sup> Its decorated belt is to be of the same workmanship and materials — gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely woven linen. <sup>9</sup> Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Isra’el — <sup>10</sup> six of their names on one stone and the six remaining names on the other, in the order of their birth. <sup>11</sup> An engraver should engrave the names of the sons of Isra’el on the two stones as he would engrave a seal. Mount the stones in gold settings, <sup>12</sup> and put the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the vest as stones calling to mind the sons of Isra’el. Aharon is to carry their names before ADONAI on his two shoulders as a reminder.

(ii)<sup>13</sup> “Make gold squares <sup>14</sup> and two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords; attach the cord-like chains to the squares.

<sup>15</sup> “Make a breastplate for judging. Have it crafted by a skilled artisan; make it like the work of the ritual vest — make it of gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely woven linen. <sup>16</sup> When folded double it is to be square — a hand-span by a hand-span. <sup>17</sup> Put on it settings of stones, four rows of stones: the first row is to be a carnelian, a topaz and an emerald; <sup>18</sup> the second row a green feldspar, a sapphire and a diamond; <sup>19</sup> the third row an orange zircon, an agate and an amethyst; <sup>20</sup> and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx and a jasper. They are to be mounted in their gold settings. <sup>21</sup> The stones will correspond to the names of the twelve sons of Isra’el; they are to be engraved with their names as a seal would be engraved, to represent the twelve tribes.

<sup>22</sup> “On the breastplate, make two pure gold chains twisted like cords. <sup>23</sup> Also for the breastplate, make two gold rings; and put the gold rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>24</sup> Put the two twisted gold chains in the two rings at the two ends of the breastplate; <sup>25</sup> attach the other two ends of the twisted chains to the front of the shoulder-pieces of the ritual vest. <sup>26</sup> Make two gold rings and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, at its edge, on the side facing in toward the vest. <sup>27</sup> Also make two gold rings and attach

them low on the front part of the vest's shoulder-pieces, near the join, above the vest's decorated belt. <sup>28</sup> Then bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the vest with a blue cord, so that it can be on the vest's decorated belt, and so that the breastplate won't swing loose from the vest. <sup>29</sup> Aharon will carry the names of the sons of Isra'el on the breastplate for judging, over his heart, when he enters the Holy Place, as a continual reminder before ADONAI. <sup>30</sup> You are to put the urim and the tumim in the breastplate for judging; they will be over Aharon's heart when he goes into the presence of ADONAI. Thus Aharon will always have the means for making decisions for the people of Isra'el over his heart when he is in the presence of ADONAI.

(iii) <sup>31</sup> “You are to make the robe for the ritual vest entirely of blue. <sup>32</sup> It is to have an opening for the head in the middle. Around the opening is to be a border woven like the neck of a coat of mail, so that it won't tear. <sup>33</sup> On its bottom hem make pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet; and put them all the way around, with gold bells between them all the way around — <sup>34</sup> gold bell, pomegranate, gold bell, pomegranate, all the way around the hem of the robe. <sup>35</sup> Aharon is to wear it when he ministers, and its sound will be heard whenever he enters the Holy Place before ADONAI and when he leaves, so that he won't die.

<sup>36</sup> “You are to make an ornament of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal, ‘Set apart for ADONAI.’ <sup>37</sup> Fasten it to the turban with a blue cord, on the front of the turban, <sup>38</sup> over Aharon's forehead. Because Aharon bears the guilt for any errors committed by the people of Isra'el in consecrating their holy gifts, this ornament is always to be on his forehead, so that the gifts for ADONAI will be accepted by him.

<sup>39</sup> “You are to weave the checkered tunic of fine linen, make a turban of fine linen, and make a belt, the work of a weaver in colors. <sup>40</sup> Likewise for Aharon's sons make tunics, sashes and headgear expressing dignity and splendor. <sup>41</sup> With them clothe your brother Aharon and his sons. Then anoint them, inaugurate them, and consecrate them, so that they will be able to serve me in the office of cohen. <sup>42</sup> Also make for them linen shorts reaching from waist to thigh, to cover their bare flesh. <sup>43</sup> Aharon and his sons are to wear them when they go into the tent of meeting and when they approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they won't incur guilt and die. This is to be a perpetual regulation, both for him and for his descendants.

29 (iv) <sup>1</sup> “Here is what you are to do to consecrate them for ministry to me in the office of cohen. Take one young bull and two rams without defect, <sup>2</sup> also matzah, matzah cakes mixed with olive oil, and matzah wafers spread with oil — all made from fine wheat flour; <sup>3</sup> put them together in a basket, and present them in the basket, along with the bull and the two rams.

<sup>4</sup> “Bring Aharon and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them with water. <sup>5</sup> Take the garments, and put on Aharon the tunic, the robe for the ritual vest, the vest itself, and the breastplate. Fasten the vest on him with its belt. <sup>6</sup> Put the turban on his head and attach the holy ornament to the turban. <sup>7</sup> Then take the anointing oil, and anoint him by pouring it on his head. <sup>8</sup> Bring his sons; put tunics on them; <sup>9</sup> wrap sashes around them, Aharon and his sons; and put the headgear on their heads. The office of cohen is to be theirs by a permanent regulation. Thus you will consecrate Aharon and his sons.

<sup>10</sup> “Bring the young bull to the front of the tent of meeting. Aharon and his sons are to lay their hands on the bull’s head, <sup>11</sup> and you are to slaughter the bull in the presence of ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>12</sup> Take some of the bull’s blood, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>13</sup> Take all the fat that covers the inner organs, the covering of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat, and offer them up in smoke on the altar. <sup>14</sup> But the bull’s flesh, skin and dung you are to destroy by fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

<sup>15</sup> “Take one of the rams: Aharon and his sons are to lay their hands on the ram’s head; <sup>16</sup> and you are to slaughter the ram, take its blood, and splash it on all sides of the altar. <sup>17</sup> Quarter the ram, wash the inner organs and the lower parts of the legs, and put them with the quarters and the head. <sup>18</sup> Then offer up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It is a burnt offering for ADONAI, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to ADONAI by fire.

(v) <sup>19</sup> “Take the other ram: Aharon and his sons are to lay their hands on the ram’s head; <sup>20</sup> and you are to slaughter the ram, take some of its blood, and put it on the lobe of Aharon’s right ear, on the lobes of his sons’ right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Take the rest of the blood and splash it on all sides of the altar. <sup>21</sup> Then take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aharon and his clothing and on his sons and the clothing of his sons with him; so that he and his clothing will be consecrated, and with him his sons and his sons' clothing.<sup>22</sup> Also take the fat from the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the inner organs, the two kidneys, the fat covering them and the right thigh — for it is a ram of consecration —<sup>23</sup> along with one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread and one wafer from the basket of matzah which is before ADONAI —<sup>24</sup> and put it all in the hands of Aharon and his sons. They are to wave them as a wave offering in the presence of ADONAI.<sup>25</sup> Then take them back; and burn them up in smoke on the altar, on top of the burnt offering, to be a pleasing aroma before ADONAI; it is an offering made to ADONAI by fire.

<sup>26</sup> “Take the breast of the ram for Aharon's consecration, and wave it as a wave offering before ADONAI; it will be your share.<sup>27</sup> Consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of any contribution that has been waved and raised up, whether from the ram of consecration, or from anything else meant for Aharon or his sons;<sup>28</sup> this will belong to Aharon and his sons as their share perpetually due from the people of Isra'el — it will be a contribution from the people of Isra'el from their peace offerings, their contribution to ADONAI.

<sup>29</sup> “The holy garments of Aharon will be used by his sons after him; they will be anointed and consecrated in them.<sup>30</sup> The son who becomes cohen in his place, who comes into the tent of meeting to serve in the Holy Place, is to wear them for seven days.<sup>31</sup> Take the ram of consecration, and boil its meat in a holy place.<sup>32</sup> Aharon and his sons will eat the ram's meat and the bread in the basket at the entrance to the tent of meeting.<sup>33</sup> They are to eat the things with which atonement was made for them, to inaugurate and consecrate them; no one else may eat this food, because it is holy.<sup>34</sup> If any of the meat for the consecration or any of the bread remains until morning, burn up what remains; it is not to be eaten, because it is holy.<sup>35</sup> Carry out all these orders I have given you concerning Aharon and his sons. You are to spend seven days consecrating them.

<sup>36</sup> “Each day, offer a young bull as a sin offering, besides the other offerings of atonement; offer the sin offering on the altar as your atonement for it; then anoint it to consecrate it.<sup>37</sup> Seven days you will make atonement on the altar and consecrate it; thus the altar will be especially holy, and whatever touches the altar will become holy.

(vi) <sup>38</sup> “Now this is what you are to offer on the altar: two lambs a year old, regularly, every day.<sup>39</sup> The one lamb you are to offer in the morning and the other lamb at dusk.<sup>40</sup> With the one lamb offer two quarts of finely

ground flour mixed with one quart of oil from pressed olives; along with one quart of wine as a drink offering. <sup>41</sup> The other lamb you are to offer at dusk; do with it as with the morning grain and drink offerings — it will be a pleasing aroma, an offering made to ADONAI by fire. <sup>42</sup> Through all your generations this is to be the regular burnt offering at the entrance to the tent of meeting before ADONAI. There is where I will meet with you to speak with you. <sup>43</sup> There I will meet with the people of Isra'el; and the place will be consecrated by my glory. <sup>44</sup> I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar, likewise I will consecrate Aharon and his sons to serve me in the office of cohen. <sup>45</sup> Then I will live with the people of Isra'el and be their God: <sup>46</sup> they will know that I am ADONAI their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt in order to live with them. I am ADONAI their God.

30 (vii) <sup>1</sup> “You are to make an altar on which to burn incense; make it of acacia-wood. <sup>2</sup> It is to be eighteen inches square and three feet high; its horns are to be of one piece with it. <sup>3</sup> Overlay it with pure gold — its top, all around its sides, and its horns; and put around it a molding of gold. <sup>4</sup> Make two gold rings for it under its molding at the two corners on both sides; this is where the carrying-poles will go. <sup>5</sup> Make the poles of acacia-wood, and overlay them with gold.

<sup>6</sup> “Place it in front of the curtain by the ark for the testimony, in front of the ark-cover that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you. <sup>7</sup> Aharon will burn fragrant incense on it as a pleasing aroma every morning; he is to burn it when he prepares the lamps. (Maftir) <sup>8</sup> Aharon is also to burn it when he lights the lamps at dusk; this is the regular burning of incense before ADONAI through all your generations. <sup>9</sup> You are not to offer unauthorized incense on it, or a burnt offering or a grain offering; and you are not to pour a drink offering on it. <sup>10</sup> Aharon is to make atonement on its horns once a year — with the blood of the sin offering of atonement he is to make atonement for it once a year through all your generations; it is especially holy to ADONAI.”

Haftarah Tetzaveh: Yechezk'el (Ezekiel) 43:10–27

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Tetzaveh: Philippians 4:10–20

Parashah 21: Ki Tissa (When you take) 30:11–34:35

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>12</sup> “When you take a census of the people of Isra’el and register them, each, upon registration, is to pay a ransom for his life to ADONAI, to avoid any breakout of plague among them during the time of the census. <sup>13</sup> Everyone subject to the census is to pay as an offering to ADONAI half a shekel [one-fifth of an ounce of silver]— by the standard of the sanctuary shekel (a shekel equals twenty gerahs). <sup>14</sup> Everyone over twenty years of age who is subject to the census is to give this offering to ADONAI — <sup>15</sup> the rich is not to give more or the poor less than the half-shekel when giving ADONAI’s offering to atone for your lives. <sup>16</sup> You are to take the atonement money from the people of Isra’el and use it for the service in the tent of meeting, so that it will be a reminder of the people of Isra’el before ADONAI to atone for your lives.”

<sup>17</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>18</sup> “You are to make a basin of bronze, with a base of bronze, for washing. Place it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. <sup>19</sup> Aharon and his sons will wash their hands and feet there <sup>20</sup> when they enter the tent of meeting — they are to wash with water, so that they won’t die. Also when they approach the altar to minister by burning an offering for ADONAI, <sup>21</sup> they are to wash their hands and feet, so that they won’t die. This is to be a perpetual law for them through all their generations.”

<sup>22</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>23</sup> “Take the best spices — 500 shekels of myrrh [12½ pounds], half this amount (250 shekels) of aromatic cinnamon [6¼ pounds], 250 shekels of aromatic cane, <sup>24</sup> 500 shekels of cassia (use the sanctuary standard), and one gallon of olive oil — <sup>25</sup> and make them into a holy anointing oil; blend it and perfume it as would an expert perfumemaker; it will be a holy anointing oil. <sup>26</sup> Use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark for the testimony, <sup>27</sup> the table and all its utensils, the menorah and all its utensils, the incense altar, <sup>28</sup> the altar for burnt offerings and all its utensils, and the basin with its base. <sup>29</sup> You are to consecrate them — they will be especially holy, and whatever touches them will be holy. <sup>30</sup> Then you are to anoint Aharon and his sons — you are to consecrate them to serve me in the office of cohen.

<sup>31</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘This is to be a holy anointing oil for me through all your generations. <sup>32</sup> It is not to be used for anointing a person’s body; and you are not to make any like it, with the same composition of ingredients — it is holy, and you are to treat it as holy. <sup>33</sup> Whoever makes any like it or uses it on any unauthorized person is to be cut off from his people.’”

<sup>34</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, “Take aromatic plant substances — balsam resin, sweet onycha root and bitter galbanum gum — these spices along with frankincense, all in equal quantities; <sup>35</sup> and make incense, blended and perfumed as would an expert perfume-maker, salted, pure and holy. <sup>36</sup> You are to grind up some of it very finely and put it in front of the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you; you are to regard it as especially holy. <sup>37</sup> You are not to make for your own use any incense like it, with the same composition of ingredients — you are to treat it as holy, for ADONAI. <sup>38</sup> Whoever makes up any like it to use as perfume is to be cut off from his people.”

31<sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “I have singled out B’tzal’el the son of Uri the son of Hur, of the tribe of Y’hudah. <sup>3</sup> I have filled him with the Spirit of God — with wisdom, understanding and knowledge concerning every kind of artisanry. <sup>4</sup> He is a master of design in gold, silver, bronze, <sup>5</sup> cutting precious stones to be set, woodcarving and every other craft.

<sup>6</sup> “I have also appointed as his assistant Oholi’av the son of Achisamakh, of the tribe of Dan. Moreover, I have endowed all the craftsmen with the wisdom to make everything I have ordered you — <sup>7</sup> the tent of meeting, the ark for the testimony, the ark-cover above it, all the furnishings of the tent, <sup>8</sup> the table and its utensils, the pure menorah and all its utensils, the incense altar, <sup>9</sup> the altar for burnt offerings and all its utensils, the basin and its base, <sup>10</sup> the garments for officiating, the holy garments for Aharon the cohen and the garments for his sons, so that they can serve in the office of cohen, <sup>11</sup> the anointing oil and the incense of aromatic spices for the Holy Place: they are to make everything just as I have ordered you.”

<sup>12</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>13</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘You are to observe my Shabbats; for this is a sign between me and you through all your generations; so that you will know that I am ADONAI, who sets you apart for me. <sup>14</sup> Therefore you are to keep my Shabbat, because it is set apart for you. Everyone who treats it as ordinary must be put to death; for whoever does any work on it is to be cut off from his people. <sup>15</sup> On six days work will get done; but the seventh day is Shabbat, for complete rest, set apart for ADONAI. Whoever does any work on the day of Shabbat must be put to death. <sup>16</sup> The people of Isra'el are to keep the Shabbat, to observe Shabbat through all their generations as a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup> It is a sign between me and the people of Isra'el forever; for in six days ADONAI made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day he stopped working and rested.”

(ii) <sup>18</sup> When he had finished speaking with Moshe on Mount Sinai, ADONAI gave him the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

32 <sup>1</sup> When the people saw that Moshe was taking a long time to come down from the mountain, they gathered around Aharon and said to him, “Get busy; and make us gods to go ahead of us; because this Moshe, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt — we don’t know what has become of him.” <sup>2</sup> Aharon said to them, “Have your wives, sons and daughters strip off their gold earrings; and bring them to me.” <sup>3</sup> The people stripped off their gold earrings and brought them to Aharon. <sup>4</sup> He received what they gave him, melted it down, and made it into the shape of a calf. They said, “Isra’el! Here is your god, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!” <sup>5</sup> On seeing this, Aharon built an altar in front of it and proclaimed, “Tomorrow is to be a feast for ADONAI.” <sup>6</sup> Early the next morning they got up and offered burnt offerings and presented peace offerings. Afterwards, the people sat down to eat and drink; then they got up to indulge in revelry.

<sup>7</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, “Go down! Hurry! Your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have become corrupt! <sup>8</sup> So quickly they have turned aside from the way I ordered them to follow! They have cast a metal statue of a calf, worshipped it, sacrificed to it and said, ‘Isra’el! Here is your god, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!’” <sup>9</sup>ADONAI continued speaking to Moshe: “I have been watching these people; and you can see how stiffnecked they are. <sup>10</sup> Now leave me alone, so that my anger can blaze against them, and I can put an end to them! I will make a great nation out of you instead.”

<sup>11</sup> Moshe pleaded with ADONAI his God. He said, “ADONAI, why must your anger blaze against your own people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a strong hand? <sup>12</sup> Why let the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intentions that he led them out, to slaughter them in the hills and wipe them off the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce anger! Relent! Don't bring such disaster on your people! <sup>13</sup> Remember Avraham, Yitz'chak and Isra'el, your servants, to whom you swore by your very self. You promised them, 'I will make your descendants as many as the stars in the sky; and I will give all this land I have spoken about to your descendants; and they will possess it forever.'" <sup>14</sup>ADONAI then changed his mind about the disaster he had planned for his people.

<sup>15</sup> Moshe turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets inscribed on both sides, on the front and on the back. <sup>16</sup> The tablets were the work of God; and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets. <sup>17</sup> When Y'hoshua heard the noise of the people shouting he said to Moshe, "It sounds like war in the camp!" <sup>18</sup> He answered, "That is neither the clamor of victory nor the wailings of defeat; what I hear is the sound of people singing."

<sup>19</sup> But the moment Moshe got near the camp, when he saw the calf and the dancing, his own anger blazed up. He threw down the tablets he had been holding and shattered them at the base of the mountain. <sup>20</sup> Seizing the calf they had made, he melted it in the fire and ground it to powder, which he scattered on the water. Then he made the people of Isra'el drink it.

<sup>21</sup> Moshe said to Aharon, "What did these people do to you to make you lead them into such a terrible sin?" <sup>22</sup> Aharon replied, "My lord shouldn't be so angry. You know what these people are like, that they are determined to do evil. <sup>23</sup> So they said to me, 'Make us gods to go ahead of us; because this Moshe, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt — we don't know what has become of him.' <sup>24</sup> I answered them, 'Anyone with gold, strip it off!' So they gave it to me. I threw it in the fire, and out came this calf!"

<sup>25</sup> When Moshe saw that the people had gotten out of control — because Aharon had allowed them to get out of control, to the derision of their enemies — <sup>26</sup> Moshe stood at the entrance to the camp and shouted, "Whoever is for ADONAI, come to me!" All the descendants of Levi rallied around him. <sup>27</sup> He told them, "Here is what ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, says: 'Each of you, put his sword on his side; and go up and down the camp, from gate to gate; and every man is to kill his own kinsman, his own friend and his own neighbor!'" <sup>28</sup> The sons of Levi did what Moshe said, and that day three thousand of the people died. <sup>29</sup> Moshe said, "You have consecrated yourselves today to ADONAI, because every one of you has been against his own son and against his own kinsman, in order to bring a blessing on yourselves today.”

<sup>30</sup> The next day Moshe said to the people, “You have committed a terrible sin. Now I will go up to ADONAI; maybe I will be able to atone for your sin.” <sup>31</sup> Moshe went back to ADONAI and said, “Please! These people have committed a terrible sin: they have made themselves a god out of gold. <sup>32</sup> Now, if you will just forgive their sin! But if you won’t, then, I beg you, blot me out of your book which you have written!” <sup>33</sup> ADONAI answered Moshe, “Those who have sinned against me are the ones I will blot out of my book. <sup>34</sup> Now go and lead the people to the place I told you about; my angel will go ahead of you. Nevertheless, the time for punishment will come; and then I will punish them for their sin.” <sup>35</sup> ADONAI struck the people with a plague because they had made the calf, the one Aharon made.

33 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Leave, you and the people you brought up from the land of Egypt; and move on from here toward the land of which I swore to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ <sup>2</sup> I will send an angel ahead of you; and I will drive out the Kena’ani, Emori, Hitti, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi. <sup>3</sup> You will go to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I myself will not go with you, because you are such a stiffnecked people that I might destroy you on the way.” <sup>4</sup> When the people heard this bad news, they went into mourning; and no one wore his ornaments. <sup>5</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘You are a stiffnecked people! If I were to go up with you for even one moment, I would exterminate you! Now, keep your ornaments off; then I will decide what to do to you.’” <sup>6</sup> So from Mount Horev onward, the people of Isra’el stripped themselves of their ornaments.

<sup>7</sup> Moshe would take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp. He called it the tent of meeting. Everyone who wanted to consult ADONAI would go out to the tent of meeting, outside the camp. <sup>8</sup> Whenever Moshe went out to the tent, all the people would get up and stand, each man at his tent door, and look at Moshe until he had gone into the tent. <sup>9</sup> Whenever Moshe entered the tent, the column of cloud would descend and station itself at the entrance to the tent; and ADONAI would speak with Moshe. <sup>10</sup> When all the people saw the column of cloud stationed at the entrance to the tent, they would get up and prostrate themselves, each man at his tent door. <sup>11</sup> ADONAI would speak to Moshe face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. Then he would return to the camp; but the young man who was his assistant, Y'hoshua the son of Nun, never left the inside of the tent.

(iii) <sup>12</sup> Moshe said to ADONAI, "Look, you say to me, 'Make these people move on!' But you haven't let me know whom you will be sending with me. Nevertheless you have said, 'I know you by name,' and also, 'You have found favor in my sight.' <sup>13</sup> Now, please, if it is really the case that I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways; so that I will understand you and continue finding favor in your sight. Moreover, keep on seeing this nation as your people." <sup>14</sup> He answered, "Set your mind at rest — my presence will go with you, after all." <sup>15</sup> Moshe replied, "If your presence doesn't go with us, don't make us go on from here. <sup>16</sup> For how else is it to be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, other than by your going with us? That is what distinguishes us, me and your people, from all the other peoples on earth."

(iv) <sup>17</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "I will also do what you have asked me to do, because you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." <sup>18</sup> But Moshe said, "I beg you to show me your glory!" <sup>19</sup> He replied, "I will cause all my goodness to pass before you, and in your presence I will pronounce the name of ADONAI. Moreover, I show favor to whomever I will, and I display mercy to whomever I will. <sup>20</sup> But my face," he continued, "you cannot see, because a human being cannot look at me and remain alive. <sup>21</sup> Here," he said, "is a place near me; stand on the rock. <sup>22</sup> When my glory passes by, I will put you inside a crevice in the rock and cover you with my hand, until I have passed by. <sup>23</sup> Then I will remove my hand, and you will see my back, but my face is not to be seen."

34 (v) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Cut yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones; and I will inscribe on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. <sup>2</sup> Be ready by morning; in the morning you are to ascend Mount Sinai and present yourself to me on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup> No one is to come up with you, and no one is to be seen anywhere on the mountain; don't even let the flocks or herds feed in front of this mountain." <sup>4</sup> Moshe cut two stone tablets like the first. Then he got up early in the morning and, with the two stone tablets in his hands, ascended Mount Sinai, as ADONAI had ordered him to do.

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI descended in the cloud, stood with him there and pronounced the name of ADONAI. <sup>6</sup> ADONAI passed before him and proclaimed: “YUD-HEH-VAV-HEH!!! Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh [ADONAI] is God, merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in grace and truth; <sup>7</sup> showing grace to the thousandth generation, forgiving offenses, crimes and sins; yet not exonerating the guilty, but causing the negative effects of the parents’ offenses to be experienced by their children and grandchildren, and even by the third and fourth generations.” <sup>8</sup> At once Moshe bowed his head to the ground, prostrated himself <sup>9</sup> and said, “If I have now found favor in your view, Adonai, then please let Adonai go with us, even though they are a stiffnecked people; and pardon our offenses and our sin; and take us as your possession.”

(vi) <sup>10</sup> He said, “Here, I am making a covenant; in front of all your people I will do wonders such as have not been created anywhere on earth or in any nation. All the people around you will see the work of ADONAI. What I am going to do through you will be awesome! <sup>11</sup> Observe what I am ordering you to do today. Here! I am driving out ahead of you the Emori, Kena’ani, Hitti, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi. <sup>12</sup> Be careful not to make a covenant with the people living in the land where you are going, so that they won’t become a snare within your own borders. <sup>13</sup> Rather, you are to demolish their altars, smash their standing-stones and cut down their sacred poles; <sup>14</sup> because you are not to bow down to any other god; since ADONAI — whose very name is Jealous — is a jealous God. <sup>15</sup> Do not make a covenant with the people living in the land. It will cause you to go astray after their gods and sacrifice to their gods. Then they will invite you to join them in eating their sacrifices, <sup>16</sup> and you will take their daughters as wives for your sons. Their daughters will prostitute themselves to their own gods and make your sons do the same!

<sup>17</sup> “Do not cast metal gods for yourselves.

<sup>18</sup> “Keep the festival of matzah by eating matzah, as I ordered you, for seven days during the month of Aviv; for it was in the month of Aviv that you came out from Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> “Everything that is first from the womb is mine. Of all your livestock, you are to set aside for me the males, the firstborn of cattle and flock. <sup>20</sup> The firstborn of a donkey you must redeem with a lamb; if you won’t redeem it, break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you are to redeem, and no one is to appear before me empty-handed.

<sup>21</sup> “Six days you will work, but on the seventh day you are to rest — even in plowing time and harvest season you are to rest.

<sup>22</sup> “Observe the festival of Shavu‘ot with the first-gathered produce of the wheat harvest, and the festival of ingathering at the turn of the year. <sup>23</sup> Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Lord, ADONAI, the God of Isra’el. <sup>24</sup> For I am going to expel nations ahead of you and expand your territory, and no one will even covet your land when you go up to appear before ADONAI your God three times a year. <sup>25</sup> You are not to offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the sacrifice of the feast of Pesach is not to be left until morning. <sup>26</sup> You are to bring the best firstfruits of your land into the house of ADONAI your God.

“You are not to boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

(vii) <sup>27</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Write these words down, because they are the terms of the covenant I have made with you and with Isra’el.” <sup>28</sup> Moshe was there with ADONAI forty days and forty nights, during which time he neither ate food nor drank water. [ADONAI] wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Words.

<sup>29</sup> When Moshe came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, he didn’t realize that the skin of his face was sending out rays of light as a result of his talking with [ADONAI]. <sup>30</sup> When Aharon and the people of Isra’el saw Moshe, the skin of his face was shining; and they were afraid to approach him. <sup>31</sup> But Moshe called to them; then Aharon and all the community leaders came back to him, and Moshe spoke to them. <sup>32</sup> Afterwards, all the people of Isra’el came near; and he passed on to them all the orders that ADONAI had told him on Mount Sinai.

(Maftir) <sup>33</sup> Once Moshe had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. <sup>34</sup> But when he went in before ADONAI for him to speak, he would take the veil off until he came out; then, when he came out, he would tell the people of Isra’el what he had been ordered. <sup>35</sup> But when the people of Isra’el saw Moshe’s face, that the skin of Moshe’s face shone, he would put the veil back over his face until he went in again to speak with [ADONAI].

Haftarah Ki Tissa: M’lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 18:1–39 (A); 18:20–39 (S)

B’rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Ki Tissa: Luke 11:14–20; Acts 7:35–8:1; 1 Corinthians 10:1–13; 2 Corinthians

Parashah 22: Vayak’hel (He assembled) 35:1–38:20
[In regular years read with Parashah 23, in leap years read separately]

35 <sup>1</sup> Moshe assembled the whole community of the people of Isra’el and said to them, “These are the things which ADONAI has ordered you to do. <sup>2</sup> In six days work is to be done, but the seventh day is to be a holy day for you, a Shabbat of complete rest in honor of ADONAI. Whoever does any work on it is to be put to death. <sup>3</sup> You are not to kindle a fire in any of your homes on Shabbat.”

<sup>4</sup> Moshe said to the whole community of the people of Isra’el, “Here is what ADONAI has ordered: <sup>5</sup> ‘Take up a collection for ADONAI from among yourselves — anyone whose heart makes him willing is to bring the offering for ADONAI: gold, silver and bronze; <sup>6</sup> blue, purple and scarlet yarn; fine linen, goat’s hair, <sup>7</sup> tanned ram skins and fine leather; acacia-wood; <sup>8</sup> oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense; <sup>9</sup> onyx stones and stones to be set, for the ritual vest and the breastplate.

<sup>10</sup> “‘Then let all the craftsmen among you come and make everything ADONAI has ordered: <sup>11</sup> the tabernacle with its tent, covering, fasteners, planks, crossbars, posts and sockets; <sup>12</sup> the ark with its poles, ark-cover and the curtain to screen it; <sup>13</sup> the table with its poles, all its utensils and the showbread; <sup>14</sup> the menorah for the light, with its utensils and lamps, and the oil for the light; <sup>15</sup> the incense altar with its poles; the anointing oil; the fragrant incense; the screen for the entranceway at the entrance to the tabernacle; <sup>16</sup> the altar for burnt offerings, with its poles and all its utensils; the basin with its base; <sup>17</sup> the tapestries for the courtyard, with their posts and sockets; the screen for the gateway of the courtyard; <sup>18</sup> the tent pegs for the tabernacle; the tent pegs for the courtyard, with their ropes; <sup>19</sup> the garments for officiating, for serving in the Holy Place; and the holy garments for Aharon the cohen and the garments for his sons, so that they can serve in the office of cohen.’”

<sup>20</sup> Then the whole community of the people of Isra’el withdrew from Moshe’s presence; (LY: ii) <sup>21</sup> and they came, everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit made him willing, and brought ADONAI’s offering for the work on the tent of meeting, for the service in it and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup> Both men and women came, as many as had willing hearts; they brought nose-rings, earrings, signet-rings, belts, all kinds of gold jewelry — everyone bringing an offering of gold to ADONAI. <sup>23</sup> Everyone who had blue, purple or scarlet yarn; fine linen; tanned ram skins or fine leather brought them. <sup>24</sup> Everyone contributing silver or bronze brought his offering for ADONAI, and everyone who had acacia-wood suitable for any of the work brought it. <sup>25</sup> All the women who were skilled at spinning got to work and brought what they had spun, the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and the fine linen. <sup>26</sup> Likewise the women whose heart stirred them to use their skill spun the goat's hair. <sup>27</sup> The leaders brought the onyx stones and the stones to be set, for the ritual vest and the breastplate; <sup>28</sup> the spices; and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense. <sup>29</sup> Thus every man and woman of the people of Isra'el whose heart impelled him to contribute to any of the work ADONAI had ordered through Moshe brought it to ADONAI as a voluntary offering.

(RY: ii, LY: iii) <sup>30</sup> Moshe said to the people of Isra'el, "See, ADONAI has singled out B'tzal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Y'hudah. <sup>31</sup> He has filled him with the Spirit of God — with wisdom, understanding and knowledge concerning every kind of artisanry. <sup>32</sup> He is a master of design in gold, silver, bronze, <sup>33</sup> cutting precious stones to be set, woodcarving and every other craft. <sup>34</sup> [ADONAI] has also given him and Oholi'av the son of Achisamakh, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others. <sup>35</sup> He has filled them with the skill needed for every kind of work, whether done by an artisan, a designer, an embroiderer using blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen, or a weaver — they have the skill for every kind of work and design.

36 "B'tzal'el and Oholi'av, along with all the craftsmen whom ADONAI has endowed with the wisdom and skill necessary to carry out the work needed for the sanctuary, are to do exactly according to everything ADONAI has ordered."

<sup>2</sup> Moshe summoned B'tzal'el, Oholi'av and every craftsman to whom ADONAI had given wisdom, everyone whose heart stirred him, to come and take part in the work. <sup>3</sup> They received from Moshe all the offering which the people of Isra'el had brought for the work of building the sanctuary. But they still kept bringing voluntary offerings every morning, <sup>4</sup> until all the craftsmen doing the work for the sanctuary left the work they were involved with <sup>5</sup> to tell Moshe, “The people are bringing far more than is needed to do the work ADONAI has ordered done.” <sup>6</sup> So Moshe gave an order which was proclaimed throughout the camp: “Neither men nor women are to make any further efforts for the sanctuary offering.” In this way, the people were restrained from making additional contributions. <sup>7</sup> For what they had already was not only sufficient for doing all the work, but too much!

(LY: iv) <sup>8</sup> With all the skilled men who were carrying out the work, B’tzal’el made the tabernacle, using ten sheets of finely woven linen and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn. He made them with k’ruvim worked in that had been crafted by a skilled artisan. <sup>9</sup> Each sheet was forty-two feet long and six feet wide; all the sheets were the same size. <sup>10</sup> He joined five sheets one to another, and the other five sheets he joined one to another. <sup>11</sup> He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set and did the same on the edge of the outermost sheet in the second set. <sup>12</sup> He made fifty loops on the one sheet, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the sheet in the second set; the loops were opposite one another. <sup>13</sup> He made fifty fasteners of gold and coupled the sheets to each other with the fasteners, so that the tabernacle formed a single unit.

<sup>14</sup> He made sheets of goat’s hair to be used as a tent covering the tabernacle; he made eleven sheets. <sup>15</sup> Each sheet was forty-five feet long and six feet wide; all eleven sheets were the same size. <sup>16</sup> He joined five sheets together and six sheets together. <sup>17</sup> He made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost sheet in the first set and fifty loops on the outermost sheet in the second set. <sup>18</sup> He made fifty fasteners of bronze to join the tent together, so that it would be a single unit.

<sup>19</sup> He made a covering for the tent of tanned ram skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

(LY: v) <sup>20</sup> He made the upright planks of acacia-wood for the tabernacle. <sup>21</sup> Each plank was fifteen feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide. <sup>22</sup> There were two projections on each plank, and the planks were joined one to another. This is how he made all the planks for the tabernacle.

<sup>23</sup> He made the planks for the tabernacle as follows: twenty planks for the south side, facing southward. <sup>24</sup> He made forty silver sockets under the twenty planks, two sockets under one plank for its two projections and two sockets under another plank for its two projections. <sup>25</sup> For the second side of the tabernacle, to the north, he made twenty planks <sup>26</sup> and their forty silver

sockets, two sockets under one plank and two under another. <sup>27</sup> For the rear part of the tabernacle, toward the west, he made six planks. <sup>28</sup> For the corners of the tabernacle in the rear he made two planks, <sup>29</sup> double from the bottom all the way to the top but joined at a single ring. He did the same with both of them at the two corners. <sup>30</sup> Thus there were eight planks with their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under each plank.

<sup>31</sup> He made crossbars of acacia-wood, five for the planks of the one side of the tabernacle, <sup>32</sup> five crossbars for the planks of the other side of the tabernacle, and five crossbars for the planks at the side of the tabernacle at the rear toward the west. <sup>33</sup> He made the middle crossbar so that it extended from one end of the planks to the other, halfway up. <sup>34</sup> He overlaid the planks with gold, made gold rings for them through which the crossbars could pass and overlaid the crossbars with gold.

<sup>35</sup> He made the curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. He made them with k'ruvim worked in that had been crafted by a skilled artisan. <sup>36</sup> He made for it four posts of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold, and gold hooks; and cast for them four silver sockets.

<sup>37</sup> For the entrance to the tent he made a screen of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen, in colors, the work of a weaver; <sup>38</sup> with its five posts and their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their attached rings for hanging with gold, while their five sockets were of bronze.

37 <sup>1</sup> B'tzal'el made the ark of acacia-wood three-and-three-quarters feet long, two-and-a-quarter feet wide and two-and-a-quarter feet high. <sup>2</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and put a molding of gold for it around the top. <sup>3</sup> He cast four gold rings for it at its four feet, two rings on each side. <sup>4</sup> He made poles of acacia-wood and v put the carrying-poles for the ark in the rings on the sides of the ark.

<sup>6</sup> He made a cover for the ark of pure gold, three-and-three-quarters feet long and two-and-a-quarter feet wide. <sup>7</sup> He made two k'ruvim of gold; he made them of hammered work for the two ends of the ark-cover — <sup>8</sup> one keruv for one end and one keruv for the other end; he made the k'ruvim of one piece with the ark-cover at its two ends. <sup>9</sup> The k'ruvim had their wings spread out above, so that their wings covered the ark; their faces were toward each other and toward the ark-cover.

<sup>10</sup> He made the table of acacia-wood, three feet long, eighteen inches wide and eighteen inches high. <sup>11</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold and put a molding of gold around the top of it. <sup>12</sup> He made around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a molding of gold around the rim. <sup>13</sup> He cast for it four gold rings and attached the rings to the four corners, near its four legs. <sup>14</sup> The rings to hold the carrying-poles for the table were placed close to the rim. <sup>15</sup> He made the carrying-poles for the table of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold. <sup>16</sup> He made the utensils to be put on the table — its dishes, pans, bowls and pitchers — of pure gold.

(RY: iii, LY: vi) <sup>17</sup> He made the menorah of pure gold. He made it of hammered work; its base, shaft, cups, rings of outer leaves and flowers were a single unit. <sup>18</sup> There were six branches extending from its sides, three branches of the menorah on one side of it and three on the other. <sup>19</sup> On one branch were three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a ring of outer leaves and petals; likewise on the opposite branch three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a ring of outer leaves and petals; and similarly for all six branches extending from the menorah. <sup>20</sup> On the central shaft of the menorah were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its ring of outer leaves and petals. <sup>21</sup> Where each pair of branches joined the central shaft was a ring of outer leaves of one piece with the pair of branches — thus for all six branches. <sup>22</sup> Their rings of outer leaves and their branches were of one piece with the shaft. Thus the whole menorah was one piece of hammered work made of pure gold. <sup>23</sup> He made its seven lamps, its tongs and its trays of pure gold. <sup>24</sup> The menorah and its utensils were made of sixty-six pounds of pure gold.

<sup>25</sup> He made the altar on which to burn incense of acacia-wood, eighteen inches square and three feet high; its horns were a single unit. <sup>26</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold — its top, all around its sides and its horns; and he put around it a molding of gold. <sup>27</sup> He made two gold rings for it under its molding at the two corners on both sides, to hold the carrying-poles. <sup>28</sup> He made the poles of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>29</sup> He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of aromatic plant substances as would an expert perfume-maker.

38 (RY: iv, LY: vii) <sup>1</sup> He made the altar for burnt offerings of acacia-wood, seven-and-a-half feet long and seven-and-a-half feet wide — it was square — and four-and-a-half feet high. <sup>2</sup> He made horns for it on its four corners, the horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup> He made all the utensils for the altar — its pots, shovels, basins, meat-hooks and fire pans; all its utensils he made of bronze. <sup>4</sup> He made for the altar a grate of bronze netting, under its rim, reaching halfway up the altar. <sup>5</sup> He cast four rings for the four ends of the bronze grate to hold the poles. <sup>6</sup> He made the poles of acacia-wood and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup> He put the carrying-poles into the rings on the sides of the altar; he made it of planks and hollow inside.

<sup>8</sup> He made the basin of bronze with its base of bronze from the mirrors of the women serving at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

<sup>9</sup> He made the courtyard. On the south side, facing southward, the tapestries for the courtyard were made of finely woven linen, 150 feet long, <sup>10</sup> supported on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets; the hooks on the posts and the attached rings for hanging were of silver. <sup>11</sup> On the north side they were 150 feet long, hung on twenty posts in twenty bronze sockets, with the hooks on the posts and their rings of silver. <sup>12</sup> On the west side were tapestries seventy-five feet long, hung on ten posts in ten sockets, with the hooks on the posts and their rings of silver. <sup>13</sup> On the east side were tapestries seventy-five feet long. <sup>14</sup> The tapestries for the one side [of the gateway] were twenty-two-and-a-half feet long, hung on three posts in three sockets; <sup>15</sup> likewise for the other side — on either side [of the gate] were tapestries twenty-two-and-a-half feet long on three posts in three sockets. <sup>16</sup> All the tapestries for the courtyard, all the way around, were of finely woven linen; <sup>17</sup> the sockets for the posts were of bronze; the hooks on the posts and their rings were of silver; the capitals of the posts were overlaid with silver; and all the posts of the courtyard were banded with silver.

(LY: Maftir) <sup>18</sup> The screen for the gateway to the courtyard was the work of a weaver in colors, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely woven linen. Its length was thirty feet and its height seven-and-a-half feet all the way along, like the tapestries of the courtyard. <sup>19</sup> It had four posts in four bronze sockets, with silver hooks, capitals overlaid with silver and silver fasteners.

<sup>20</sup> The tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard around it were of bronze.

Haftarah Vayak'hel: M'lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 7:40–50 (A); 7:13–26 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Vayak'hel: 2 Corinthians 9:1–15; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 9:1–14; Revelation 11:1–13

Parashah 23: P'kudei (Accounts) 38:21–40:38

[In regular years read with Parashah 22, in leap years read separately]

<sup>21</sup> These are the accounts of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, recorded, as Moshe ordered, by the L'vi'im under the direction of Itamar the son of Aharon, the cohen.

<sup>22</sup> B'tzal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Y'hudah, made everything that ADONAI ordered Moshe to make. <sup>23</sup> Assisting him was Oholi'av the son of Achisamakh, of the tribe of Dan, who was an engraver, a designer and a weaver in colors — in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and in fine linen.

<sup>24</sup> All the gold used for the work in everything needed for the sanctuary, the gold of the offering, weighed 29 talents 730 shekels [1,930 pounds], using the sanctuary shekel.

<sup>25</sup> The silver given by the community weighed 100 talents 1,775 shekels [6,650 pounds], using the sanctuary shekel. <sup>26</sup> This was a beka per person, that is, half a shekel [one-fifth of an ounce], using the sanctuary shekel, for everyone twenty years old or older counted in the census, 603,550 men. <sup>27</sup> The hundred talents of silver were used to cast the sockets for the sanctuary and the sockets for the curtain — one hundred sockets made from the hundred talents, one talent [sixty-six pounds] per socket. <sup>28</sup> The 1,775 shekels [fifty pounds] he used to make hooks for the posts, to overlay their capitals and to make fasteners for them.

<sup>29</sup> The bronze in the offering came to 4,680 pounds. <sup>30</sup> He used it to make the sockets for the entrance to the tent of meeting, the bronze altar, its bronze grate, all the utensils for the altar, <sup>31</sup> the sockets for the courtyard around it, the sockets for the gateway to the courtyard, all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and all the tent pegs for the courtyard around it.

39 <sup>1</sup> From the blue, purple and scarlet yarn they made the garments for officiating, for serving in the Holy Place; and they made the holy garments for Aharon, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. (RY: v, LY: ii) <sup>2</sup> He made the ritual vest of gold, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely woven linen. <sup>3</sup> They hammered the gold into thin plates and cut them into threads in order to work it into the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and the fine linen crafted by the skilled artisan. <sup>4</sup> They made shoulder-pieces for it, joined together; they were joined together at the two ends. <sup>5</sup> The decorated belt on the vest, used to fasten it, was of the same workmanship and materials — gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely twined linen — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. <sup>6</sup> They worked the onyx stones, mounted in gold settings, engraving them with the names of the sons of Isra'el as they would be engraved on a seal. <sup>7</sup> Then he put them on the shoulder-pieces of the vest to be stones calling to mind the sons of Isra'el, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>8</sup> He made the breastplate; it was crafted by a skilled artisan and made like the work of the ritual vest — of gold; blue, purple and scarlet yarn; and finely woven linen. <sup>9</sup> When folded double, the breastplate was square — doubled, it was a hand-span by a hand-span. <sup>10</sup> They put on it four rows of stones: the first row was a carnelian, a topaz and an emerald; <sup>11</sup> the second row a green feldspar, a sapphire and a diamond; <sup>12</sup> the third row an orange zircon, an agate and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup> and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx and a jasper. They were mounted in settings of gold. <sup>14</sup> The stones corresponded to the names of the twelve sons of Isra'el; they were engraved with their names as a seal would be engraved, each name representing one of the twelve tribes.

<sup>15</sup> On the breastplate they made two pure gold chains, twisted like cords. <sup>16</sup> Also for the breastplate they made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and they put the two rings at the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>17</sup> They put the two twisted gold chains in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate <sup>18</sup> and attached the other two ends of the twisted chains to the front of the shoulder-pieces of the ritual vest. <sup>19</sup> They also made two gold rings and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, at its edge, on the side facing in toward the vest. <sup>20</sup> Also they made two gold rings and attached them low on the front part of the vest's shoulder-pieces, near the join, above the vest's decorated belt. <sup>21</sup> Then they bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the vest with a blue cord, so that it could be on the vest's decorated belt, and so that the breastplate would not swing loose from the vest — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(RY: vi, LY: iii) <sup>22</sup> He made the robe for the ritual vest; it was woven entirely of blue, <sup>23</sup> with its opening in the middle, like that of a coat of mail, and with a border around the opening, so that it wouldn't tear. <sup>24</sup> On the bottom hem they made pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet, and woven linen; <sup>25</sup> and they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates all the way around the hem of the robe — between the pomegranates, <sup>26</sup> that is, bell, pomegranate, bell, pomegranate, all the way around the hem of the robe for service — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>27</sup> They made the tunics of finely woven linen for Aharon and his sons, <sup>28</sup> the turban of fine linen, the splendid headgear of fine linen, the linen shorts, <sup>29</sup> and the sash of finely woven linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, the work of a weaver in colors — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>30</sup> They made the ornament for the holy turban of pure gold; wrote on it the words, “Set apart for ADONAI,” like the engraving on a seal; <sup>31</sup> and tied a blue cord on it to fasten it to the front of the turban — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>32</sup> Thus all the work for the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was finished, with the people of Isra'el doing everything exactly as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(LY: iv) <sup>33</sup> Then they brought the tabernacle to Moshe — the tent and all its furnishings, clasps, planks, crossbars, posts and sockets; <sup>34</sup> the covering of tanned ram skins, the covering of fine leather and the curtain for the screen; <sup>35</sup> the ark for the testimony, its poles and the ark-cover; <sup>36</sup> the table, all its utensils and the showbread; <sup>37</sup> the pure menorah, its lamps and their arrangement for display, its accessories and the oil for the light; <sup>38</sup> the gold altar; the anointing oil; the fragrant incense; the screen for the entrance to the tent; <sup>39</sup> the bronze altar with its bronze grate, poles and all its utensils; the basin with its base; <sup>40</sup> the tapestries for the courtyard, with their posts and sockets; the screen for the entrance to the courtyard, with its ropes and tent pegs; all the utensils for the service in the tabernacle, the tent of meeting; <sup>41</sup> the garments for officiating, for serving in the Holy Place; the holy garments for Aharon the cohen; and the garments for his sons to serve in the office of cohen.

<sup>42</sup> The people of Isra'el did all the work just as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. <sup>43</sup> Moshe saw all the work, and — there it was! — they had done it!

Exactly as ADONAI had ordered, they had done it. And Moshe blessed them.

40 (RY: vii, LY: v) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “On the first day of the first month, you are to set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. <sup>3</sup> Put in it the ark for the testimony, and conceal the ark with the curtain. <sup>4</sup> Bring in the table, and arrange its display. Bring in the menorah, and light its lamps. <sup>5</sup> Set the gold altar for incense in front of the ark for the testimony, and set up the screen at the entrance to the tabernacle. <sup>6</sup> Place the altar for burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> Set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it. <sup>8</sup> Set up the courtyard all the way around, and hang up the screen for the entrance to the courtyard.

<sup>9</sup> “Take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it — consecrate it with all its furnishings; then it will be holy. <sup>10</sup> Anoint the altar for burnt offerings with all its utensils — consecrate the altar; then the altar will be especially holy. <sup>11</sup> Anoint the basin and its base, and consecrate it.

<sup>12</sup> “Then bring Aharon and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. <sup>13</sup> Put the holy garments on Aharon, anoint him, and consecrate him, so that he can serve me in the office of cohen. <sup>14</sup> Bring his sons, put tunics on them, <sup>15</sup> and anoint them as you anointed their father, so that they can serve me in the office of cohen. Their anointing will signify that the office of cohen is theirs through all their generations.”

<sup>16</sup> Moshe did this — he acted in accordance with everything ADONAI had ordered him to do.

(LY: vi) <sup>17</sup> On the first day of the first month of the second year, the tabernacle was set up. <sup>18</sup> Moshe erected the tabernacle, put its sockets in place, put up its planks, put in its crossbars and set up its posts. <sup>19</sup> He spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent above it, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. <sup>20</sup> He took and put the testimony inside the ark, put the poles on the ark, and set the ark-cover above, on the ark. <sup>21</sup> Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle, set up the curtain as a screen and concealed the ark for the testimony, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>22</sup> He put the table in the tent of meeting on the side of the tabernacle facing north, outside the curtain. <sup>23</sup> He arranged a row of bread on it before ADONAI, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>24</sup> He put the menorah in the tent of meeting across from the table, on the side of the tabernacle facing south. <sup>25</sup> Then he lit the lamps before ADONAI, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>26</sup> He set the gold altar in the tent of meeting in front of the curtain <sup>27</sup> and burned on it incense made from aromatic spices, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(LY: vii) <sup>28</sup> He set up the screen at the entrance to the tabernacle. <sup>29</sup> The altar for burnt offerings he placed at the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>30</sup> He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing, <sup>31</sup> so that Moshe and Aharon and his sons could wash their hands and feet there — <sup>32</sup> so that they could wash when entering the tent of meeting and when approaching the altar, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>33</sup> Finally, he erected the courtyard around the tabernacle and the altar and set up the screen for the entrance to the courtyard.

(Maftir) <sup>34</sup> Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of ADONAI filled the tabernacle. <sup>35</sup> Moshe was unable to enter the tent of meeting, because the cloud remained on it, and the glory of ADONAI filled the tabernacle.

<sup>36</sup> Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Isra'el continued with all their travels. <sup>37</sup> But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not travel onward until the day when it was taken up. <sup>38</sup> For the cloud of ADONAI was above the tabernacle during the day, and fire was in [the cloud] at night, so that all the house of Isra'el could see it throughout all their travels.

Haftarah P'kudei: M'lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 7:51–8:21 (A); 7:40–50 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah P'kudei: Revelation 15:5–8

Hazak, hazak, v'nit'chazek!
Be strong, be strong, and let us be strengthened!

Vayikra

LEVITICUS

Parashah 24: Vayikra (He called) 1:1–5:26(6:7)

1<sup>1</sup> ADONAI called to Moshe and spoke to him from the tent of meeting. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the people of Isra’el; say to them, ‘When any of you brings an offering to ADONAI, you may bring your animal offering either from the herd or from the flock. <sup>3</sup> If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he must offer a male without defect. He is to bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, so that it can be accepted by ADONAI. <sup>4</sup> He is to lay his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him. <sup>5</sup> He is to slaughter the young bull before ADONAI; and the sons of Aharon, the cohanim, are to present the blood. They are to splash the blood against all sides of the altar, which is by the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>6</sup> He is to skin the burnt offering and cut it in pieces. <sup>7</sup> The descendants of Aharon the cohen are to put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Aharon, the cohanim, are to arrange the pieces, the head and the fat on the wood which is on the fire on the altar. <sup>9</sup> He is to wash the entrails and lower parts of the legs with water, and the cohen is to cause all of it to go up in smoke on the altar as a burnt offering; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

<sup>10</sup> “If his offering is from the flock, whether from the sheep or from the goats, for a burnt offering, he must offer a male without defect. <sup>11</sup> He is to slaughter it on the north side of the altar before ADONAI; and the sons of Aharon, the cohanim, are to splash its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>12</sup> He is to cut it into pieces, and the cohen is to arrange them with the head and fat on the wood which is on the fire on the altar. <sup>13</sup> He is to wash the entrails and lower parts of the legs with water; and the cohen is to offer it all and make it go up in smoke on the altar as a burnt offering; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

(ii) <sup>14</sup> “If his offering to ADONAI is a burnt offering of birds, he must offer a dove or a young pigeon. <sup>15</sup> The cohen is to bring it to the altar, snap off its head and make it go up in smoke on the altar; its blood is to be drained out on the side of the altar. <sup>16</sup> He is to remove the food pouch and its feathers from its neck and discard it on the pile of ashes just east of the altar. <sup>17</sup> He is to pull it open with a wing on each side, but without tearing it in half. The cohen is to make it go up in smoke on the altar, on the wood which is on the fire, as a burnt offering; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

2 <sup>1</sup> ““Anyone who brings a grain offering to ADONAI is to make his offering of fine flour; he is to pour olive oil on it and put frankincense on it. <sup>2</sup> He is to bring it to the sons of Aharon, the cohanim. The cohen is to take a handful of fine flour from it, together with its olive oil and all its frankincense, and make this reminder portion go up in smoke on the altar as an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>3</sup> But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aharon and his sons; it is an especially holy part of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire.

<sup>4</sup> ““When you bring a grain offering which has been baked in the oven, it is to consist of either unleavened cakes made of fine flour mixed with olive oil or matzah spread with olive oil. <sup>5</sup> If your offering is a grain offering cooked on a griddle, it is to consist of unleavened fine flour mixed with olive oil; <sup>6</sup> you are to break it in pieces and pour olive oil on it — it is a grain offering. (iii) <sup>7</sup> If your offering is a grain offering cooked in a pot, it is to consist of fine flour with olive oil.

<sup>8</sup> ““You are to bring the grain offering prepared in any of these ways to ADONAI; it is to be presented to the cohen, and he is to bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup> The cohen is to remove the reminder portion of the grain offering and make it go up in smoke on the altar as an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>10</sup> But the rest of the grain offering will belong to Aharon and his sons; it is an especially holy part of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire.

<sup>11</sup> ““No grain offering that you bring to ADONAI is to be made with leaven, because you are not to cause any leaven or honey to go up in smoke as an offering made by fire to ADONAI. <sup>12</sup> As an offering of firstfruits you may bring these to ADONAI, but they are not to be brought up onto the altar to make a fragrant aroma. <sup>13</sup> You are to season every grain offering of yours with salt — do not omit from your grain offering the salt of the covenant with your God, but offer salt with all your offerings.

<sup>14</sup> “If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to ADONAI, you are to bring as the grain offering from your firstfruits kernels of grain from fresh ears, dry-roasted with fire. <sup>15</sup> Put olive oil on it, and lay frankincense on it; it is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup> The cohen is to cause the reminder portion of it, its grits and olive oil, with all its frankincense, to go up in smoke; it is an offering made by fire for ADONAI.

3 (iv) <sup>1</sup> “If his offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings, then, if he offers before ADONAI an animal from the herd, then, no matter whether it is male or female, it must be without defect. <sup>2</sup> He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aharon, the cohanim, are to splash the blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup> He is to present the sacrifice of the peace offerings as an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is to consist of the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs, <sup>4</sup> the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup> Aharon’s sons will make it go up in smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering which is on the wood on the fire; it is an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

<sup>6</sup> “If his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI is from the flock, then, when he offers it, no matter whether it is male or female, it must be without defect. <sup>7</sup> If he brings a lamb for his offering, then he is to present it before ADONAI. <sup>8</sup> He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aharon are to splash its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>9</sup> From the sacrifices made as peace offerings, he is to present ADONAI with an offering made by fire; it is to consist of its fat, the entire fat tail, which he will remove close to the lower backbone, the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs, <sup>10</sup> the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys. <sup>11</sup> The cohen will make it go up in smoke on the altar; it is food, an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

<sup>12</sup> “If his offering is a goat, then he is to present it before ADONAI. <sup>13</sup> He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aharon are to splash its blood against all sides of the altar. <sup>14</sup> He is to present from it his offering, an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is to consist of the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs, <sup>15</sup> the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys. <sup>16</sup> The cohen will make them go up in smoke on the altar; it is food, an offering made by fire to be a fragrant aroma; all the fat belongs to ADONAI. <sup>17</sup> It is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations wherever you live that you will eat neither fat nor blood.”

4 (v) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el: ‘If anyone sins inadvertently against any of the mitzvot of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, if he does any one of them, <sup>3</sup> then, if it is the anointed cohen who sinned and thus brought guilt on the people, he is to offer ADONAI a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he committed. <sup>4</sup> He must bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before ADONAI, lay his hand on the bull’s head and slaughter the bull in the presence of ADONAI. <sup>5</sup> The anointed cohen is to take some of the bull’s blood and bring it to the tent of meeting. <sup>6</sup> The cohen is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times in the presence of ADONAI in front of the curtain of the sanctuary. <sup>7</sup> The cohen is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar for fragrant incense before ADONAI there in the tent of meeting. All the remaining blood of the bull he is to pour out at the base of the altar for burnt offerings, which is at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>8</sup> He is to remove from the bull for the sin offering all of its fat — the fat covering the inner organs, all the fat above the inner organs, <sup>9</sup> the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys <sup>10</sup> as it is removed from an ox sacrificed as a peace offering; and the cohen is to make these parts go up in smoke on the altar for burnt offerings. <sup>11</sup> But the bull’s hide and all its flesh, with its head, the lower parts of its legs, its inner organs and dung — <sup>12</sup> in other words, the entire bull — he is to bring outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are emptied out. There he is to burn it on wood with fire; there, where the ashes are emptied out, it is to be burned up.

<sup>13</sup> “If the entire community of Isra’el inadvertently makes a mistake, with the assembly being unaware of the matter, and they do something against any of the mitzvot of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, they are guilty. <sup>14</sup> When the sin they have committed becomes known,

then the assembly is to offer a young bull as a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting.<sup>15</sup> The leaders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull's head and slaughter the bull in the presence of ADONAI.<sup>16</sup> The anointed cohen is to bring some of the bull's blood to the tent of meeting.<sup>17</sup> The cohen is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times in the presence of ADONAI in front of the curtain.<sup>18</sup> He is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar before ADONAI, there in the tent of meeting. All the remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar for burnt offerings, which is at the entrance to the tent of meeting.<sup>19</sup> He is to remove all its fat and make it go up in smoke on the altar.<sup>20</sup> This is what he is to do with the bull — he must do the same with this bull as he does with the one for the sin offering. Thus the cohen will make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.<sup>21</sup> He is to bring the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>22</sup> “When a leader sins and inadvertently does something against any of the mitzvot of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, he is guilty.<sup>23</sup> If the sin which he committed becomes known to him, he is to bring as his offering a male goat without defect,<sup>24</sup> lay his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering in the presence of ADONAI; it is a sin offering.<sup>25</sup> The cohen is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. Its remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar for burnt offerings.<sup>26</sup> All its fat he is to make go up in smoke on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice for peace offerings; thus the cohen will make atonement for him in regard to his sin, and he will be forgiven.

(vi)<sup>27</sup> “If an individual among the people commits a sin inadvertently, doing something against any of the mitzvot of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, he is guilty.<sup>28</sup> If the sin he committed becomes known to him, he is to bring as his offering a female goat without defect for the sin he committed,<sup>29</sup> lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter the sin offering in the place of burnt offerings.<sup>30</sup> The cohen is to take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. All its remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar.<sup>31</sup> All its fat he is to remove, as the fat is removed from the sacrifice for peace offerings; and the cohen is to make it go up in smoke on the altar as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. Thus the cohen will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> “If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he is to bring a female without defect, <sup>33</sup> lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it as a sin offering in the place where they slaughter burnt offerings. <sup>34</sup> The cohen is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. All its remaining blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup> All its fat he is to remove, as the fat of a lamb is removed from the sacrifice for peace offerings; and the cohen is to make it go up in smoke on the altar on top of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire. Thus the cohen will make atonement for him in regard to the sin he committed, and he will be forgiven.

5 <sup>1</sup> “If a person who is a witness, sworn to testify, sins by refusing to tell what he has seen or heard about the matter, he must bear the consequences. <sup>2</sup> If a person touches something unclean, whether the carcass of an unclean wild animal, a domestic animal or a reptile, he is guilty, even though he may not be aware that he is unclean. <sup>3</sup> If he touches some human uncleanness, no matter what the source of his uncleanness is, and is unaware of it, then, when he learns of it, he is guilty. <sup>4</sup> If someone allows to slip from his mouth an oath to do evil or to do good, and he doesn’t remember that he clearly spoke this oath, then, no matter what it was about, when he learns of it, he is guilty. <sup>5</sup> A person guilty of any of these things is to confess in what manner he sinned <sup>6</sup> and bring his guilt offering to ADONAI for the sin he committed; it is to be a female from the flock, either a lamb or a goat, as a sin offering; and the cohen will make atonement for him in regard to his sin.

<sup>7</sup> “If he can’t afford a lamb, he is to bring as his guilt offering for the sin he committed two doves or two young pigeons for ADONAI — the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup> He is to bring them to the cohen, who will offer the one for a sin offering first. He is to wring its neck but not remove the head, <sup>9</sup> sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar and drain out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup> He is to prepare the second as a burnt offering in the manner prescribed. Thus the cohen will make atonement for him in regard to the sin which he committed, and he will be forgiven.

(vii) <sup>11</sup> “But if his means are insufficient even for two doves or two young pigeons, then he is to bring as his offering for the sin he committed

two quarts of fine flour for a sin offering; he is not to put any olive oil or frankincense on it, because it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup> He is to bring it to the cohen, and the cohen is to take a handful of it as its reminder portion and make it go up in smoke on the altar on top of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire; it is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup> Thus the cohen will make atonement for him in regard to the sin he committed concerning any of these things, and he will be forgiven. The rest will belong to the cohanim, as with a grain offering.”

<sup>14</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>15</sup> “If anyone acts improperly and inadvertently sins in regard to the holy things of ADONAI, he is to bring as his guilt offering for ADONAI a ram without defect from the flock or its equivalent in silver shekels (using the sanctuary shekel as the standard), according to your appraisal of its value; it is a guilt offering. <sup>16</sup> In addition, he is to make restitution for whatever he did wrong in regard to the holy thing; moreover, he is to add to that one-fifth and give it to the cohen. Then the cohen will make atonement with the ram of the guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>17</sup> “If someone sins by doing something against any of the mitzvot of ADONAI concerning things which should not be done, he is guilty, even if he is unaware of it; and he bears the consequences of his wrongdoing. <sup>18</sup> He must bring a ram without defect from the flock, or its equivalent according to your appraisal, to the cohen for a guilt offering; the cohen will make atonement concerning the error which he committed, even though he was unaware of it; and he will be forgiven. <sup>19</sup> It is a guilt offering — he is certainly guilty before ADONAI.”

<sup>20(6:1)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>21(6:2)</sup> “If someone sins and acts perversely against ADONAI by dealing falsely with his neighbor in regard to a deposit or security entrusted to him, by stealing from him, by extorting him, <sup>22(6:3)</sup> or by dealing falsely in regard to a lost object he has found, or by swearing to a lie — if a person commits any of these sins, <sup>23(6:4)</sup> then, if he sinned and is guilty, he is to restore whatever it was he stole or obtained by extortion, or whatever was deposited with him, or the lost object which he found, (Maftir) <sup>24(6:5)</sup> or anything about which he has sworn falsely. He is to restore it in full plus an additional one-fifth; he must return it to the person who owns it, on the day when he presents his guilt offering. <sup>25(6:6)</sup> He is to bring as his guilt offering to ADONAI a ram without defect from the flock, or its equivalent according to your appraisal, to the cohen; it is a guilt offering. <sup>26(6:7)</sup> Thus the cohen will make atonement for him before ADONAI, and he will be forgiven in regard to whatever it was he did that made him guilty.

Haftarah Vayikra: Yesha'yahu (Isaiah) 43:21–44:23

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Vayikra:
Romans 8:1–13; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 10:1–14; 13:10–16

Parashah 25: Tzav (Give an order) 6:1(8)–8:36

6 <sup>1(8)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2(9)</sup> “Give this order to Aharon and his sons: ‘This is the law for the burnt offering [Hebrew: ‘olah]: it is what goes up [Hebrew: ‘olah] on its firewood upon the altar all night long, until morning; in this way the fire of the altar will be kept burning. <sup>3(10)</sup> When the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, the cohen, having put on his linen garment and covered himself with his linen shorts, is to remove the ashes and put them beside the altar. <sup>4(11)</sup> Then he is to remove those garments and put on others, before carrying the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. <sup>5(12)</sup> In this way, the fire on the altar will be kept burning and not be allowed to go out. Each morning, the cohen is to kindle wood on it, arrange the burnt offering and make the fat of the peace offerings go up in smoke. <sup>6(13)</sup> Fire is to be kept burning on the altar continually; it is not to go out.

<sup>7(14)</sup> “‘This is the law for the grain offering: the sons of Aharon are to offer it before ADONAI in front of the altar. <sup>8(15)</sup> He is to take from the grain offering a handful of its fine flour, some of its olive oil and all of the frankincense which is on the grain offering; and he is to make this reminder portion of it go up in smoke on the altar as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>9(16)</sup> The rest of it Aharon and his sons are to eat; it is to be eaten without leaven in a holy place — they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. <sup>10(17)</sup> It is not to be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire; like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is especially holy. <sup>11(18)</sup> Every male descendant of Aharon may eat from it; it is his share of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire forever through all your generations. Whatever touches those offerings will become holy.’” griddle; then bring it in, break it in pieces and offer the grain offering as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>15(22)</sup> The anointed cohen who will take Aharon's place from among his descendants will offer it; it is a perpetual obligation. It must be entirely made to go up in smoke for ADONAI; <sup>16(23)</sup> every grain offering of the cohen is to be entirely made to go up in smoke — it is not to be eaten.”

(ii) <sup>12(19)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>13(20)</sup> “This is the offering for ADONAI that Aharon and his sons are to offer on the day he is anointed: two quarts of fine flour, half of it in the morning and half in the evening, as a grain offering from then on. <sup>14(21)</sup> It is to be well mixed with olive oil and fried on a

<sup>17(24)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>18(25)</sup> “Tell Aharon and his sons, ‘This is the law for the sin offering: the sin offering is to be slaughtered before ADONAI in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is especially holy. <sup>19(26)</sup> The cohen who offers it for sin is to eat it — it is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. <sup>20(27)</sup> Whatever touches its flesh will become holy; if any of its blood splashes on any item of clothing, you are to wash it in a holy place. <sup>21(28)</sup> The clay pot in which it is cooked must be broken; if it is cooked in a bronze pot, it must be scoured and rinsed in water. <sup>22(29)</sup> Any male from a family of cohanim may eat the sin offering; it is especially holy. <sup>23(30)</sup> But no sin offering which has had any of its blood brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place is to be eaten; it is to be burned up completely.

7 <sup>1</sup> “‘This is the law for the guilt offering: it is especially holy. <sup>2</sup> They are to slaughter the guilt offering in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering, and its blood is to be splashed against all sides of the altar. <sup>3</sup> He is to offer all its fat — the fat tail, the fat covering the inner organs, <sup>4</sup> the two kidneys, the fat on them near the flanks, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup> The cohen will make them go up in smoke on the altar as an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is a guilt offering. <sup>6</sup> Every male from a family of cohanim may eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place; it is especially holy. <sup>7</sup> The guilt offering is like the sin offering; the same law governs them — it will belong to the cohen who uses it to make atonement.

<sup>8</sup> “‘The cohen who offers someone's burnt offering will possess the hide of the burnt offering which he has offered.

<sup>9</sup> “‘Every grain offering baked in the oven, cooked in a pot or fried on a griddle will belong to the cohen who offers it. <sup>10</sup> But every grain offering which is mixed with olive oil or is dry will belong to all the sons of Aharon equally.

(iii) <sup>11</sup> “‘This is the law for sacrificing peace offerings offered to ADONAI: <sup>12</sup> If a person offers it for giving thanks, he is to offer it with the thanksgiving sacrifice of unleavened cakes mixed with olive oil, matzah spread with olive oil, and cakes made of fine flour mixed with olive oil and fried. <sup>13</sup> With cakes of leavened bread he is to present his offering together with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for giving thanks. <sup>14</sup> From each kind of offering he is to present one as a gift for ADONAI; it will belong to the cohen who splashes the blood of the peace offerings against the altar. <sup>15</sup> The meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for giving thanks is to be eaten on the day of his offering; he is not to leave any of it until morning. <sup>16</sup> But if the sacrifice connected with his offering is for a vow or is a voluntary offering, then, while it is to be eaten on the day he offers his sacrifice, what remains of it may be eaten the next day. <sup>17</sup> However, what remains of the meat of the sacrifice on the third day is to be burned up completely. <sup>18</sup> If any of the meat of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten on the third day, the sacrifice will neither be accepted nor credited to the person offering it; rather, it will have become a disgusting thing, and whoever eats it will bear the consequences of his wrongdoing. <sup>19</sup> Meat which touches something unclean is not to be eaten but burned up completely. As for the meat, everyone who is clean may eat it; <sup>20</sup> but a person in a state of uncleanness who eats any meat from the sacrifice of peace offerings made to ADONAI will be cut off from his people. <sup>21</sup> Anyone who touches something unclean — whether the uncleanness be from a person, from an unclean animal or from some other unclean detestable thing — and then eats the meat from the sacrifice of peace offerings for ADONAI, that person will be cut off from his people.’”

<sup>22</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>23</sup> “Say to the people of Isra’el, ‘You are not to eat the fat of bulls, sheep or goats. <sup>24</sup> The fat of animals that die of themselves or are killed by wild animals may be used for any other purpose, but under no circumstances are you to eat it. <sup>25</sup> For whoever eats the fat of animals of the kind used in presenting an offering made by fire to ADONAI will be cut off from his people. <sup>26</sup> You are not to eat any kind of blood, whether from birds or animals, in any of your homes. <sup>27</sup> Whoever eats any blood will be cut off from his people.’”

<sup>28</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>29</sup> “Say to the people of Isra’el, ‘A person who offers his sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI is to bring part of his sacrifice of peace offerings as his offering for ADONAI. <sup>30</sup> He is to bring with his own hands the offerings for ADONAI made by fire — he is to bring the breast with its fat. The breast is to be waved as a wave offering before ADONAI.<sup>31</sup> The cohen is to make the fat go up in smoke on the altar, but the breast will belong to Aharon and his descendants.<sup>32</sup> You are to give the right thigh from your sacrifices of peace offerings to the cohen as a contribution.<sup>33</sup> The descendant of Aharon who offers the blood of the peace offerings is to have the right thigh as his share.<sup>34</sup> For the breast that has been waved and the thigh that has been contributed I have taken from the people of Isra'el out of their sacrifices of peace offerings and given them to Aharon the cohen and to his descendants as their share forever from the people of Isra'el.”

<sup>35</sup> On the day when Aharon and his sons were presented to serve ADONAI in the office of cohen, this portion was set aside for him and his descendants from the offerings for ADONAI made by fire.<sup>36</sup> On the day they were anointed, ADONAI ordered that this be given to them by the people of Isra'el. It is their share forever through all their generations.

<sup>37</sup> This is the law for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the consecration offering and the sacrifice of peace offerings<sup>38</sup> which ADONAI ordered Moshe on Mount Sinai on the day he ordered the people of Isra'el to present their offerings to ADONAI, in the Sinai Desert.

8 (iv) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Take Aharon and his sons with him, the garments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams and the basket of matzah;<sup>3</sup> and assemble the entire community at the entrance to the tent of meeting.”<sup>4</sup> Moshe did as ADONAI ordered him, and the community was assembled at the entrance to the tent of meeting.<sup>5</sup> Moshe said to the community, “This is what ADONAI has ordered to be done.”

<sup>6</sup> Moshe brought Aharon and his sons, washed them with water,<sup>7</sup> put the tunic on him, wrapped the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, put the ritual vest on him, wrapped around him the decorated belt and fastened the vest to him with it.<sup>8</sup> He put the breastplate on him, and into the breastplate he put the urim and tumim.<sup>9</sup> He set the turban on his head, and on the front of the turban he affixed the gold plate, the holy ornament, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>10</sup> Then Moshe took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything in it, thus consecrating them.<sup>11</sup> He sprinkled some on the altar

seven times, anointing the altar with all its utensils and the basin with its base, to consecrate them. <sup>12</sup> He poured some of the anointing oil on Aharon's head and anointed him, to consecrate him. <sup>13</sup> Moshe brought Aharon's sons, clothed them with tunics, wrapped sashes on them and put headgear on them, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(v) <sup>14</sup> Then the young bull for the sin offering was brought, and Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering. <sup>15</sup> After it had been slaughtered, Moshe took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar all the way around with his finger, thus purifying the altar. The remaining blood he poured out at the base of the altar and consecrated it, to make atonement for it. <sup>16</sup> Moshe took all the fat on the inner organs, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and made it go up in smoke on the altar. <sup>17</sup> But the bull, its hide, its flesh and its dung were taken outside the camp and burned up completely, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>18</sup> Next, the ram for the burnt offering was presented. Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram; <sup>19</sup> and after it had been slaughtered, Moshe splashed the blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>20</sup> When the ram had been cut in pieces, Moshe made the head, the pieces and the fat go up in smoke. <sup>21</sup> When the inner organs and the lower parts of the legs had been washed with water, Moshe made the entire ram go up in smoke on the altar; it was a burnt offering giving a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire to ADONAI — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(vi) <sup>22</sup> Then the other ram was presented, the ram of consecration; Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>23</sup> After it had been slaughtered, Moshe took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aharon's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup> Next Aharon's sons were brought, and Moshe put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet; then Moshe splashed the blood on all sides of the altar. <sup>25</sup> He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat covering the inner organs, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh. <sup>26</sup> From the basket of matzah that was before ADONAI he took one piece of matzah, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh. <sup>27</sup> Then he put it all in Aharon's hands and in the hands of his sons and waved them as a wave offering before ADONAI. <sup>28</sup> Moshe took them out of their hands and made them go up in smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering; they were a consecration offering giving a fragrant aroma; an offering made by fire to ADONAI.<sup>29</sup> Moshe took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before ADONAI; it was Moshe's portion of the ram of consecration — as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(vii)<sup>30</sup> Moshe took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar and sprinkled it on Aharon and his clothing, and on his sons with him and their clothing, and consecrated Aharon and his clothing together with his sons and their clothing.

<sup>31</sup> Moshe said to Aharon and his sons, “Boil the meat at the door of the tent of meeting; and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I ordered when I said that Aharon and his sons are to eat it.

<sup>32</sup> Whatever is left over of the meat and bread you are to burn up completely.

(Maftir)<sup>33</sup> You are not to go out from the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration are over; since ADONAI will be consecrating you for seven days. <sup>34</sup> He ordered done what has been done today, in order to make atonement for you. <sup>35</sup> You are to remain at the entrance to the tent of meeting day and night for seven days, thereby obeying what ADONAI ordered done, so that you may not die. For this is what I was ordered.” <sup>36</sup> Aharon and his sons did all the things which ADONAI ordered through Moshe.

Haftarah Tzav: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 7:21–8:3; 9:22(23)–23(24)

Suggested readings for Parashah Tzav from the B'rit Hadashah:
Mark 12:28–34; Romans 12:1–2; 1 Corinthians 10:14–23

Parashah 26: Sh'mini (Eighth) 9:1–11:47

9<sup>1</sup> On the eighth day, Moshe called Aharon, his sons and the leaders of Isra'el,<sup>2</sup> and said to Aharon, “Take a male calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without defect, and offer them before ADONAI.<sup>3</sup> Then tell the people of Isra'el, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering and a calf and a lamb, both a year old and without defect, for a burnt offering,<sup>4</sup> and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before ADONAI; also a grain offering mixed with olive oil — because today ADONAI is going to appear to you.”<sup>5</sup> They brought what Moshe had ordered before the tent of meeting, and the whole community approached and stood before ADONAI.

<sup>6</sup> Moshe said, “This is what ADONAI has ordered you to do, so that the glory of ADONAI will appear to you.”<sup>7</sup> Moshe told Aharon, “Approach the altar, offer your sin offering and burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and the people. Then present the offering of the people and make atonement for them, as ADONAI ordered.”<sup>8</sup> So Aharon approached the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering which was for himself.<sup>9</sup> The sons of Aharon presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; then he poured out the blood at the base of the altar.<sup>10</sup> But the fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver of the sin offering he made go up in smoke on the altar, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.<sup>11</sup> The meat and the skin were burned up completely outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Next he slaughtered the burnt offering; Aharon’s sons brought him the blood, and he splashed it against all sides of the altar.<sup>13</sup> They brought him the burnt offering, piece by piece, and the head; and he made them go up in smoke on the altar.<sup>14</sup> He washed the inner organs and the lower parts of the legs and made them go up in smoke on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

<sup>15</sup> Then the people’s offering was presented. He took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the earlier sin offering.<sup>16</sup> The burnt offering was presented, and he offered it in the prescribed manner. (ii)<sup>17</sup> The grain offering was presented; he took a handful of it and made it go up in smoke on the altar, in addition to the morning’s burnt offering.<sup>18</sup> He slaughtered the ox and the ram, the people’s sacrifice as peace offerings; Aharon’s sons brought him the blood, which he splashed against all sides of the altar,<sup>19</sup> and the fat of the ox and of the ram — the fat tail, the fat which covers the inner organs, the kidneys and the covering of the liver.<sup>20</sup> They put the fat on the breasts, and he made the fat go up in smoke on the altar.<sup>21</sup> The breasts and right thigh Aharon waved as a wave offering before ADONAI, as Moshe had ordered.

<sup>22</sup> Aharon raised his hands toward the people, blessed them and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering and the peace offerings.<sup>23</sup> Moshe and Aharon entered the tent of meeting, came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of ADONAI appeared to all the people! (iii)

<sup>24</sup> Fire came forth from the presence of ADONAI, consuming the burnt offering

and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

10<sup>1</sup> But Nadav and Avihu, sons of Aharon, each took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and offered unauthorized fire before ADONAI, something he had not ordered them to do.<sup>2</sup> At this, fire came forth from the presence of ADONAI and consumed them, so that they died in the presence of ADONAI.<sup>3</sup> Moshe said to Aharon, “This is what ADONAI said:

‘Through those who are near me I will be consecrated, and before all the people I will be glorified.’”

Aharon kept silent.

<sup>4</sup> Moshe called Misha’el and Eltzafan, sons of ‘Uzi’el Aharon’s uncle, and told them, “Come here, and carry your cousins away from in front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp.”<sup>5</sup> They approached and carried them in their tunics out of the camp, as Moshe had said.

<sup>6</sup> Then Moshe told Aharon and his sons El‘azar and Itamar, “Don’t unbind your hair or tear your clothes in mourning, so that you won’t die and so that ADONAI won’t be angry with the entire community. Rather, let your kinsmen — the whole house of Isra’el — mourn, because of the destruction ADONAI brought about with his fire.<sup>7</sup> Moreover, don’t leave the entrance to the tent of meeting, or you will die, because ADONAI’s anointing oil is on you.”

<sup>8</sup> ADONAI said to Aharon,<sup>9</sup> “Don’t drink any wine or other intoxicating liquor, neither you nor your sons with you, when you enter the tent of meeting, so that you will not die. This is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations,<sup>10</sup> so that you will distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;<sup>11</sup> and so that you will teach the people of Isra’el all the laws ADONAI has told them through Moshe.”

(iv)<sup>12</sup> Moshe said to Aharon and to El‘azar and Itamar, his remaining sons, “Take the grain offering left from the offerings for ADONAI made by fire, and eat it without leaven next to the altar, because it is especially holy.<sup>13</sup> Eat it in a holy place, because it is your and your sons’ share of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire; for this is what I have been ordered.<sup>14</sup> The breast that was waved and the thigh that was raised you are to eat in a clean place — you, your sons and your daughters with you; for these are given as your and your children's share of the sacrifices of the peace offerings presented by the people of Isra'el. <sup>15</sup> They are to bring the raised thigh and the waved breast, along with the offerings of fat made by fire, and wave it as a wave offering before ADONAI; then it will belong to you and your descendants with you as your perpetual share, as ADONAI has ordered."

(v) <sup>16</sup> Then Moshe carefully investigated what had happened to the goat of the sin offering and discovered that it had been burned up. He became angry with El'azar and Itamar, the remaining sons of Aharon, and asked, <sup>17</sup> "Why didn't you eat the sin offering in the area of the sanctuary, since it is especially holy? He gave it to you to take away the guilt of the community, to make atonement for them before ADONAI. <sup>18</sup> Look! Its blood wasn't brought into the sanctuary! You should have eaten it there in the sanctuary, as I ordered." <sup>19</sup> Aharon answered Moshe, "Even though they offered their sin offering and burnt offering today, things like these have happened to me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have pleased ADONAI?" <sup>20</sup> On hearing this reply, Moshe was satisfied.

11 (vi) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>2</sup> "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'These are the living creatures which you may eat among all the land animals: <sup>3</sup> any that has a separate hoof which is completely divided and chews the cud — these animals you may eat. <sup>4-6</sup> But you are not to eat those that only chew the cud or only have a separate hoof. For example, the camel, the coney and the hare are unclean for you, because they chew the cud but don't have a separate hoof; <sup>7</sup> while the pig is unclean for you, because, although it has a separate and completely divided hoof, it doesn't chew the cud. <sup>8</sup> You are not to eat meat from these or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.

<sup>9</sup> "Of all the things that live in the water, you may eat these: anything in the water that has fins and scales, whether in seas or in rivers — these you may eat. <sup>10</sup> But everything in the seas and rivers without both fins and scales, of all the small water-creatures and of all the living creatures in the water, is a detestable thing for you. <sup>11</sup> Yes, these will be detestable for you — you are not to eat their meat, and you are to detest their carcasses. <sup>12</sup> Whatever lacks fins and scales in the water is a detestable thing for you.

<sup>13</sup> “The following creatures of the air are to be detestable for you — they are not to be eaten, they are a detestable thing: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, <sup>14</sup> the kite, the various kinds of buzzards, <sup>15</sup> the various kinds of ravens, <sup>16</sup> the ostrich, the screech-owl, the seagull, the various kinds of hawks, <sup>17</sup> the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, <sup>18</sup> the horned owl, the pelican, the barn owl, <sup>19</sup> the stork, the various kinds of herons, the hoopoe and the bat.

<sup>20</sup> “All winged swarming creatures that go on all fours are a detestable thing for you; <sup>21</sup> except that of all winged swarming creatures that go on all fours, you may eat those that have jointed legs above their feet, enabling them to jump off the ground. <sup>22</sup> Specifically, of these you may eat the various kinds of locusts, grasshoppers, katydids and crickets. <sup>23</sup> But other than that, all winged swarming creatures having four feet are a detestable thing for you.

<sup>24</sup> “The following will make you unclean; whoever touches the carcass of them will be unclean until evening, <sup>25</sup> and whoever picks up any part of their carcass is to wash his clothes and be unclean until evening: <sup>26</sup> every animal that has a separate but incompletely divided hoof or that doesn’t chew the cud is unclean for you; anyone who touches them will become unclean. <sup>27</sup> Whatever goes on its paws, among all animals that go on all fours, is unclean for you; whoever touches its carcass will be unclean until evening; <sup>28</sup> and whoever picks up its carcass is to wash his clothes and be unclean until evening — these are unclean for you.

<sup>29</sup> “The following are unclean for you among the small creatures that swarm on the ground: the weasel, the mouse, the various kinds of lizards, <sup>30</sup> the gecko, the land crocodile, the skink, the sand-lizard and the chameleon. <sup>31</sup> They are unclean crawling creatures; whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean until evening. <sup>32</sup> Anything on which one of them falls when dead will become unclean — wooden utensil, article of clothing, leather, sacking — any utensil used for work; it must be put in water, and it will be unclean until evening; then it will be clean. (vii) <sup>33</sup> If one of them falls into a clay pot, whatever is in it will become unclean, and you are to break the pot. <sup>34</sup> Any food permitted to be eaten that water from such a vessel gets on will become unclean, and any permitted liquid in such a vessel will become unclean. <sup>35</sup> Everything on which any carcass-part of theirs falls will become unclean, whether oven or stove; it is to be broken in pieces — they are unclean and will be unclean for you; <sup>36</sup> although a spring

or cistern for collecting water remains clean. But anyone who touches one of their carcasses will become unclean. <sup>37</sup> If any carcass-part of theirs falls on any kind of seed to be sown, it is clean; <sup>38</sup> but if water is put on the seed and a carcass-part of theirs falls on it, it is unclean for you.

<sup>39</sup> “If an animal of a kind that you are permitted to eat dies, whoever touches its carcass will be unclean until evening. <sup>40</sup> A person who eats meat from its carcass or carries its carcass is to wash his clothes; he will be unclean until evening.

<sup>41</sup> “Any creature that swarms on the ground is a detestable thing; it is not to be eaten — <sup>42</sup> whatever moves on its stomach, goes on all fours, or has many legs — all creatures that swarm on the ground; you are not to eat them, because they are a detestable thing. <sup>43</sup> You are not to make yourselves detestable with any of these swarming, crawling creatures; do not make yourselves unclean with them, do not defile yourselves with them. <sup>44</sup> For I am ADONAI your God; therefore, consecrate yourselves and be holy, for I am holy; and do not defile yourselves with any kind of swarming creature that moves along the ground. (Maftir) <sup>45</sup> For I am ADONAI, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God. Therefore you are to be holy, because I am holy.

<sup>46</sup> “Such, then, is the law concerning animals, flying creatures, all living creatures that move about in the water, and all creatures that swarm on the ground. <sup>47</sup> Its purpose is to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.’”

Haftarah Sh'mini: Sh'mu'el Bet (2 Samuel) 6:1–7:17 (A); 6:1–19 (S)

Suggested readings for Parashah Sh'mini from the B'rit Hadashah: Mark 7:1–23; Acts 5:1–11; 10:1–35; 2 Corinthians 6:14–7:1; Galatians 2:11–16; 1 Kefa (1 Peter) 1:14–16

Parashah 27: Tazria (She conceives) 12:1–13:59
[In regular years read with Parashah 28, in leap years read separately]

12 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el: ‘If a woman conceives and gives birth to a boy, she will be unclean for seven days with the same uncleanness as in niddah, when she is having her menstrual period. <sup>3</sup> On the eighth day, the baby’s foreskin is to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup> She is to wait an additional thirty-three days to be purified from her blood; she is not to touch any holy thing or come into the sanctuary until the time of her purification is over. <sup>5</sup> But if she gives birth to a girl, she will be unclean for two weeks, as in her niddah; and she is to wait another sixty-six days to be purified from her blood.

<sup>6</sup> “‘When the days of her purification are over, whether for a son or for a daughter, she is to bring a lamb in its first year for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or dove for a sin offering to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the cohen. <sup>7</sup> He will offer it before ADONAI and make atonement for her; thus she will be purified from her discharge of blood. Such is the law for a woman who gives birth, whether to a boy or to a girl. <sup>8</sup> If she can’t afford a lamb, she is to take two doves or two young pigeons, the one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; the cohen will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’”

13 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>2</sup> “If someone develops on his skin a swelling, scab or bright spot which could develop into the disease tzara’at, he is to be brought to Aharon the cohen or to one of his sons who are cohanim. <sup>3</sup> The cohen is to examine the sore on his skin; if the hair in the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to go deep into the skin, it is tzara’at, and after examining him the cohen is to declare him unclean. <sup>4</sup> If the bright spot on his skin is white, but it does not appear to go deep into the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the cohen is to isolate him for seven days. <sup>5</sup> On the seventh day the cohen is to examine him again, and if the sore appears the same as before and has not spread on the skin, then the cohen is to isolate him for seven more days. (LY: ii) <sup>6</sup> On the seventh day the cohen is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and hasn’t spread on the skin, then the cohen is to declare him clean — it is only a scab, so he is to wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>7</sup> But if the scab spreads further on the skin after he has been examined by the cohen and declared clean, he is to let himself be examined yet again by the cohen. <sup>8</sup> The cohen

will examine him, and if he sees that the scab has spread on his skin, then the cohen will declare him unclean; it is tzara'at.

<sup>9</sup> “If a person has tzara'at, he is to be brought to the cohen. <sup>10</sup> The cohen is to examine him, and if he sees that there is a white swelling in the skin which has turned the hair white and inflamed flesh in the swelling, <sup>11</sup> then it is chronic tzara'at on his skin, and the cohen is to declare him unclean; he is not to isolate him, because it is already clear that he is unclean. <sup>12</sup> If the tzara'at breaks out all over the skin, so that, as far as the cohen can see, the person with tzara'at has sores everywhere on his body, from his head to his feet; <sup>13</sup> then the cohen is to examine him, and if he sees that the tzara'at has covered his entire body, he is to pronounce the person with the sores clean — it has all turned white, and he is clean. <sup>14</sup> But if one day inflamed flesh appears on him, he will be unclean. <sup>15</sup> The cohen will examine the inflamed flesh and declare him unclean; the inflamed flesh is unclean; it is tzara'at. <sup>16</sup> However, if the inflamed flesh again turns white, he is to come to the cohen. <sup>17</sup> The cohen will examine him, and if he sees that the sores have turned white, then the cohen is to declare clean the person with the sores; he is clean.

(LY: iii) <sup>18</sup> “If a person has on his skin a boil that heals <sup>19</sup> in such a way that in place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white bright spot, it is to be shown to the cohen. <sup>20</sup> The cohen is to examine it; if he sees that it appears to be more than skin-deep, and its hair has turned white, then the cohen is to pronounce him unclean — the disease of tzara'at has broken out in the boil. <sup>21</sup> But if the cohen looks at it and doesn't see any white hairs in it, and it isn't more than skin-deep but appears faded, the cohen is to isolate him for seven days. <sup>22</sup> If it spreads on the skin, the cohen is to declare him unclean; it is the disease. <sup>23</sup> But if the bright spot stays where it was and has not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the cohen is to declare him clean.

(RY: ii, LY: iv) <sup>24</sup> “Or if someone has on his skin a burn caused by fire; and the inflamed flesh where it was burned has become a bright spot, reddish-white or white, <sup>25</sup> then the cohen is to examine it; and if he sees that the hair in the bright spot has turned white and that it appears to be deeper than the skin around it, it is tzara'at; it has broken out in the burn, and the cohen is to declare him unclean; it is a sore from tzara'at. <sup>26</sup> But if the cohen examines it and sees no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no more than skin-deep but looks faded, then the cohen is to isolate him for seven days. <sup>27</sup>

On the seventh day the cohen is to examine him; if it has spread on the skin, then the cohen is to declare him unclean; it is a sore from tzara'at.<sup>28</sup> But if the bright spot stays where it was and has not spread on the skin but appears faded, it is a swelling due to the burn; and the cohen is to declare him clean; because it is only a scar from the burn.

(LY: v)<sup>29</sup> “If a man or woman has a sore on the head or a man in his beard,<sup>30</sup> then the cohen is to examine the sore; if he sees that it appears to be deeper than the skin around it, with yellow, thin hair in it, then the cohen is to declare him unclean; it is a crusted area, a tzara'at of the head or beard.<sup>31</sup> If the cohen examines the diseased crusted area and sees that it appears not to be deeper than the skin around it, and without any black hair in it, then the cohen is to isolate for seven days the person with the diseased crusted area.<sup>32</sup> On the seventh day the cohen is to examine the sore, and if he sees that the crusted area hasn't spread, that it has no yellow hair in it, and that the crusted area is not deeper than the skin around it;<sup>33</sup> then the person is to be shaved, except for the crusted area itself, and the cohen is to isolate him for seven more days.<sup>34</sup> On the seventh day the cohen is to examine the crusted area; and if he sees that the crusted area has not spread on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the skin around it, then the cohen is to declare him clean; he is to wash his clothes and be clean.<sup>35</sup> But if the crusted area spreads after his purification,<sup>36</sup> then the cohen is to examine him; and if he sees that the crusted area has spread on the skin, the cohen is not to look for yellow hair; he is unclean.<sup>37</sup> But if the crusted area's appearance doesn't change, and black hair grows up in it, then the crusted area is healed; he is clean; and the cohen is to declare him clean.

(RY: iii, LY: vi)<sup>38</sup> “If a man or woman has bright spots on his skin, bright white spots;<sup>39</sup> then the cohen is to examine them. If he sees that the bright spots on the skin are dull white, it is only a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

<sup>40</sup> “If a man's hair has fallen from his scalp, he is bald; but he is clean.<sup>41</sup> If his hair has fallen off the front part of his head, he is forehead-bald; but he is clean.<sup>42</sup> But if on the bald scalp or forehead there is a reddish-white sore, it is tzara'at breaking out on his bald scalp or forehead.<sup>43</sup> Then the cohen is to examine him; if he sees that there is a reddish-white swelling on his bald scalp or forehead, appearing like tzara'at on the rest of the body,<sup>44</sup> he is a person with tzara'at; he is unclean; the cohen must declare him unclean; the sore is on his head.

<sup>45</sup> “Everyone who has tzara‘at sores is to wear torn clothes and unbound hair, cover his upper lip and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ <sup>46</sup> As long as he has sores, he will be unclean; since he is unclean, he must live in isolation; he must live outside the camp.

<sup>47</sup> “When tzara‘at infects an article of clothing, whether it be a woolen or a linen garment, <sup>48</sup> on the threads or the woven-in parts of either linen or wool, or on a hide or item made of leather; <sup>49</sup> then if the stain on the garment, hide, threads, woven-in parts or leather item is greenish or reddish, it is an infection of tzara‘at and is to be shown to the cohen. <sup>50</sup> The cohen is to examine the stain and isolate the article that has the infection for seven days. <sup>51</sup> On the seventh day he is to examine the stain; if the stain has spread on the garment, threads, woven-in parts or leather, whatever its use, the infection is a contagious tzara‘at; the garment is unclean. <sup>52</sup> He is to burn the garment, threads, woven-in parts of either wool or linen, or item of leather having the infection; for it is a contagious tzara‘at; it must be burned up completely. <sup>53</sup> But if, when the cohen examines it, he sees that the infection has not spread on the garment or in the threads, woven-in parts or leather item, <sup>54</sup> then the cohen is to order that the article having the infection be washed and isolated for seven more days. (RY: iv, LY: vii) <sup>55</sup> The cohen is to examine it after the stain has been washed, and if he sees that the stain has not changed color, then, even though the stain has not spread, it is unclean; you are to burn it up completely — it is rotten, no matter whether the spot is on the outside or on the inside. <sup>56</sup> If the cohen examines it and sees that the stain has faded after being washed, then he is to tear the stain out of the garment, leather, threads or woven-in parts. (LY: Maftir) <sup>57</sup> If it appears again in the garment, threads, woven-in parts or leather item, it is contagious, and you are to burn up completely the article that had the stain. <sup>58</sup> But if the infection is gone from the garment, threads, woven-in parts or leather item that you washed, then it is to be washed a second time, and it will be clean. <sup>59</sup> This is the law concerning infections of tzara‘at in a garment of wool or linen, or in the threads or the woven-in parts, or in any leather item — when to declare it clean and when to declare it unclean.

Haftarah Tazria: M'lakhim Bet (2 Kings) 4:42–5:19

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Tazria: Mattityahu (Matthew) 8:1–4, 11:2–6; Mark 1:40–45; Luke 2:22–

24; 5:12–16; 7:18–23

Parashah 28: M'tzora (Person afflicted with tzara'at) 14:1–15:33
[In regular years read with Parashah 27, in leap years read separately]

14 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “This is to be the law concerning the person afflicted with tzara'at on the day of his purification. He is to be brought to the cohen, <sup>3</sup> and the cohen is to go outside the camp and examine him there. If he sees that the tzara'at sores have been healed in the afflicted person, <sup>4</sup> then the cohen will order that two living clean birds be taken for the one to be purified, along with cedar-wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop leaves. <sup>5</sup> The cohen is to order one of the birds slaughtered in a clay pot over running water. <sup>6</sup> As for the live bird, he is to take it with the cedar-wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird slaughtered over running water, <sup>7</sup> and sprinkle the person to be purified from the tzara'at seven times. Next he is to set the live bird free in an open field. <sup>8</sup> He who is to be purified must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and bathe himself in water. Then he will be clean; and after that, he may enter the camp; but he must live outside his tent for seven days. <sup>9</sup> On the seventh day he is to shave all the hair off his head, also his beard and eyebrows — he must shave off all his hair; and he is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; and he will be clean.

<sup>10</sup> “On the eighth day he is to take two male lambs without defect, one female lamb in its first year without defect and six-and-a-half quarts of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with olive oil, and two-thirds of a pint of olive oil. <sup>11</sup> The cohen purifying him is to place the person being purified with these items before ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>12</sup> The cohen is to take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering with the two-thirds-pint of olive oil, then wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI. (LY: ii) <sup>13</sup> He is to slaughter the male lamb at the place in the sanctuary for slaughtering sin offerings and burnt offerings, because the guilt offering belongs to the cohen, just like the sin offering; it is especially holy. <sup>14</sup> The cohen is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup> Next, the cohen is to take some of the two-thirds-pint of olive oil and pour it into the palm of his own

left hand, <sup>16</sup> dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and sprinkle from the oil with his finger seven times before ADONAI. <sup>17</sup> Then the cohen is to put some of the remaining oil in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand, on the big toe of his right foot and on the blood of the guilt offering. <sup>18</sup> Finally, the cohen is to put the rest of the oil in his hand on the head of the person being purified; and the cohen will make atonement for him before ADONAI. <sup>19</sup> The cohen is to offer the sin offering and make atonement for the person being purified because of his uncleanness; afterwards, he is to slaughter the burnt offering. <sup>20</sup> The cohen is to offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar; thus the cohen will make atonement for him; and he will be clean.

(RY: v, LY: iii) <sup>21</sup> “If he is poor, so that he can’t afford to do otherwise, he is to take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for him; two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; two-thirds of a pint of olive oil; <sup>22</sup> and two doves or two young pigeons, such as he can afford, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>23</sup> On the eighth day, he will bring them to the cohen for his purification, to the entrance of the tent of meeting before ADONAI. <sup>24</sup> The cohen is to take the lamb of the guilt offering and the two-thirds of a pint of olive oil and wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI. <sup>25</sup> He is to slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering; and the cohen is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>26</sup> The cohen is to take some of the olive oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand, <sup>27</sup> and sprinkle with his right hand some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before ADONAI. <sup>28</sup> The cohen is to put some of the oil in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the person being purified, on the thumb of his right hand, on the big toe of his right foot — in the same place as the blood of the guilt offering. <sup>29</sup> Finally, the cohen is to put the rest of the oil in his hand on the head of the person being purified, to make atonement for him before ADONAI. <sup>30</sup> He is to offer one of the doves or young pigeons, such as the person can afford, <sup>31</sup> whatever his means suffice for — the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering — with the grain offering; thus the cohen will make atonement before ADONAI for the person being purified. <sup>32</sup> Such is the law for the person who has tzara’at sores if he cannot afford the usual elements used for his purification.”

(RY: vi, LY: iv) <sup>33</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>34</sup> “When you have entered the land of Kena’an which I am giving you as a possession, and I put an infection of tzara’at in a house in the land that you possess, <sup>35</sup> then the owner of the house is to come and tell the cohen, ‘It seems to me that there may be an infection in the house.’ <sup>36</sup> The cohen is to order the house emptied before he goes in to inspect the infection, so that everything in the house won’t be made unclean; afterwards, the cohen is to enter and inspect the house. <sup>37</sup> He will examine the infection; and if he sees that the infection is in the walls of the house, with greenish or reddish depressions that seem to go in deeper than the surface of the wall, <sup>38</sup> he is to go out of the house to its door and seal up the house for seven days. <sup>39</sup> The cohen will come again on the seventh day and examine the house; if he sees that the infection has spread over its walls, <sup>40</sup> he is to order them to remove the infected stones and throw them into some unclean place outside the city. <sup>41</sup> Next, he is to have the inside of the house thoroughly scraped, and the scraped-off plaster is to be discarded outside the city in an unclean place. <sup>42</sup> Finally, other stones must be set in the place of the first stones and other plaster used to replaster the house. <sup>43</sup> If the infection returns and breaks out in the house after the stones have been removed and the house scraped and plastered; <sup>44</sup> then the cohen is to enter and examine it. If he sees that the infection has spread in the house, it is a contagious tzara’at in the house; it is unclean. <sup>45</sup> He must break down the house and take its stones, timber and plaster out of the city to an unclean place. <sup>46</sup> Moreover, whoever enters the house at any time while it is sealed up will be unclean until evening. <sup>47</sup> Whoever lies down or eats in the house must wash his clothes. <sup>48</sup> If the cohen enters, examines and sees that the infection has not spread in the house since it was plastered; then he is to declare the house clean; because the infection is cured.

<sup>49</sup> “To purify the house, he is to take two birds, cedar-wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop leaves. <sup>50</sup> He is to slaughter one of the birds in a clay pot over running water. <sup>51</sup> He is to take the cedar-wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn and the live bird and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup> He will purify the house with the blood of the bird, the running water, the live bird, the cedar-wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn. <sup>53</sup> But he is to set the live bird free outside the city in an open field; thus will he make atonement for the house; and it will be clean.

(LY: v) <sup>54</sup> “Such is the law for all kinds of tzara‘at sores, for a crusted area, <sup>55</sup> for tzara‘at in a garment, for a house, <sup>56</sup> for a swelling, for a scab and for a bright spot, <sup>57</sup> to determine when it is clean and when it is unclean. This is the law concerning tzara‘at.”

15 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, the discharge is unclean. <sup>3</sup> The discharge is unclean no matter whether it continues flowing or has stopped; it is still his uncleanness. <sup>4</sup> Every bed which the person with the discharge lies on is unclean, and everything he sits on is unclean. <sup>5</sup> Whoever touches his bed is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup> Whoever sits on anything the person with the discharge sat on is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup> Anyone who touches the body of the person with the discharge is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup> If the person with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, the latter is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup> Any saddle that the person with the discharge rides on will be unclean. <sup>10</sup> Whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until evening; he who carries those things is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>11</sup> If the person with the discharge fails to rinse his hands in water before touching someone, that person is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>12</sup> If the person with the discharge touches a clay pot, it must be broken; if he touches a wooden utensil, it must be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup> “When a person with a discharge has become free of it, he is to count seven days for his purification. Then he is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water; after that, he will be clean. <sup>14</sup> On the eighth day, he is to take for himself two doves or two young pigeons, come before ADONAI to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the cohen. <sup>15</sup> The cohen is to offer them, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering; thus the cohen will make atonement for him on account of his discharge before ADONAI.

(RY: vii, LY: vi) <sup>16</sup> “If a man has a seminal emission, he is to bathe his entire body in water; he will be unclean until evening. <sup>17</sup> Any clothing or leather on which there is any semen is to be washed with water; it will be unclean until evening.<sup>18</sup> If a man goes to bed with a woman and has sexual relations, both are to bathe themselves in water; they will be unclean until evening.

<sup>19</sup> “If a woman has a discharge, and the discharge from her body is blood, she will be in her state of niddah for seven days. Whoever touches her will be unclean until evening.<sup>20</sup> Everything she lies on or sits on in her state of niddah will be unclean.<sup>21</sup> Whoever touches her bed is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.<sup>22</sup> Whoever touches anything she sits on is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.<sup>23</sup> As soon as he touches the bed or something she sat on, he will be unclean until evening.<sup>24</sup> If a man goes to bed with her, and her menstrual flow touches him, he will be unclean seven days; and every bed he lies on will be unclean.

<sup>25</sup> “If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days not during her period, or if her discharge lasts beyond the normal end of her period, then throughout the time she is having an unclean discharge she will be as when she is in niddah — she is unclean.<sup>26</sup> Every bed she lies on at any time while she is having her discharge will be for her like the bed she uses during her time of niddah; and everything she sits on will be unclean with uncleanness like that of her time of niddah.<sup>27</sup> Whoever touches those things will be unclean; he is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening.

<sup>28</sup> “If she has become free of her discharge, she is to count seven days; after that, she will be clean. (LY: vii)<sup>29</sup> On the eighth day, she is to take for herself two doves or two young pigeons and bring them to the cohen at the entrance to the tent of meeting.<sup>30</sup> The cohen is to offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering; thus the cohen will make atonement for her before ADONAI on account of her unclean discharge.

(Maftir)<sup>31</sup> “In this way you will separate the people of Isra’el from their uncleanness, so that they will not die in a state of uncleanness for defiling my tabernacle which is there with them.

<sup>32</sup> “Such is the law for the person who has a discharge; for the man who has a seminal emission that makes him unclean;<sup>33</sup> for the woman in niddah during her menstrual period; for the person, man or woman, with a discharge; and for the man who has sexual relations with a woman who is unclean.

Haftarah M'tzora: M'lakhim Bet (2 Kings) 7:3–20

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah M'tzora:
Mattityahu (Matthew) 9:20–26; Mark 5:24b–34; Luke 8:42b–48;
Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 13:4

Parashah 29: Acharei Mot (After the death) 16:1–18:30
[In regular years read with Parashah 30, in leap years read separately]

16 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI spoke with Moshe after the death of Aharon's two sons, when they tried to sacrifice before ADONAI and died; <sup>2</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Tell your brother Aharon not to come at just any time into the Holy Place beyond the curtain, in front of the ark-cover which is on the ark, so that he will not die; because I appear in the cloud over the ark-cover.

<sup>3</sup> "Here is how Aharon is to enter the Holy Place: with a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup> He is to put on the holy linen tunic, have the linen shorts next to his bare flesh, have the linen sash wrapped around him, and be wearing the linen turban — they are the holy garments. He is to bathe his body in water and put them on.

<sup>5</sup> "He is to take from the community of the people of Isra'el two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering. <sup>6</sup> Aharon is to present the bull for the sin offering which is for himself and make atonement for himself and his household. <sup>7</sup> He is to take the two goats and place them before ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>8</sup> Then Aharon is to cast lots for the two goats, one lot for ADONAI and the other for 'Az'azel. <sup>9</sup> Aharon is to present the goat whose lot fell to ADONAI and offer it as a sin offering. <sup>10</sup> But the goat whose lot fell to 'Az'azel is to be presented alive to ADONAI to be used for making atonement over it by sending it away into the desert for 'Az'azel.

<sup>11</sup> "Aharon is to present the bull of the sin offering for himself; he will make atonement for himself and his household; he is to slaughter the bull of the sin offering which is for himself. <sup>12</sup> He is to take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before ADONAI and, with his hands full of ground, fragrant incense, bring it inside the curtain. <sup>13</sup> He is to put the incense on the fire before ADONAI, so that the cloud from the incense will cover the ark-

cover which is over the testimony, in order that he not die. <sup>14</sup> He is to take some of the bull's blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the ark-cover toward the east; and in front of the ark-cover he is to sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

<sup>15</sup> "Next, he is to slaughter the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, bring its blood inside the curtain and do with its blood as he did with the bull's blood, sprinkling it on the ark-cover and in front of the ark-cover. <sup>16</sup> He will make atonement for the Holy Place because of the uncleannesses of the people of Isra'el and because of their transgressions — all their sins; and he is to do the same for the tent of meeting which is there with them right in the middle of their uncleannesses. <sup>17</sup> No one is to be present in the tent of meeting from the time he enters the Holy Place to make atonement until the time he comes out, having made atonement for himself, for his household and for the entire community of Isra'el. (LY: ii) <sup>18</sup> Then he is to go out to the altar that is before ADONAI and make atonement for it; he is to take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on all the horns of the altar. <sup>19</sup> He is to sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, thus purifying it and setting it apart from the uncleannesses of the people of Isra'el.

<sup>20</sup> "When he has finished atoning for the Holy Place, the tent of meeting and the altar, he is to present the live goat. <sup>21</sup> Aharon is to lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the transgressions, crimes and sins of the people of Isra'el; he is to put them on the head of the goat and then send it away into the desert with a man appointed for the purpose. <sup>22</sup> The goat will bear all their transgressions away to some isolated place, and he is to let the goat go in the desert.

<sup>23</sup> "Aharon is to go back into the tent of meeting, where he is to remove the linen garments he put on when he entered the Holy Place, and he is to leave them there. <sup>24</sup> Then he is to bathe his body in water in a holy place, put on his other clothes, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, thus making atonement for himself and for the people. (RY: ii, LY: iii) <sup>25</sup> He is to make the fat of the sin offering go up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>26</sup> "The man who let go the goat for 'Az'azel is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; afterwards, he may return to the camp.

<sup>27</sup> "The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, is to be carried outside the camp; there they are to burn up completely their hides, meat and dung. <sup>28</sup> The person burning them is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; afterwards, he may return to the camp.

<sup>29</sup> “It is to be a permanent regulation for you that on the tenth day of the seventh month you are to deny yourselves and not do any kind of work, both the citizen and the foreigner living with you. <sup>30</sup> For on this day, atonement will be made for you to purify you; you will be clean before ADONAI from all your sins. <sup>31</sup> It is a Shabbat of complete rest for you, and you are to deny yourselves.

“This is a permanent regulation. <sup>32</sup> The cohen anointed and consecrated to be cohen in his father’s place will make the atonement; he will put on the linen garments, the holy garments; <sup>33</sup> he will make atonement for the Especially Holy Place; he will make atonement for the tent of meeting and the altar; and he will make atonement for the cohanim and for all the people of the community. <sup>34</sup> This is a permanent regulation for you, to make atonement for the people of Isra’el because of all their sins once a year.” Moshe did as ADONAI had ordered him.

17 (LY: iv) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aharon and his sons and to all the people of Isra’el. Tell them that this is what ADONAI has ordered: <sup>3</sup> ‘When someone from the community of Isra’el slaughters an ox, lamb or goat inside or outside the camp <sup>4</sup> without bringing it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to present it as an offering to ADONAI before the tabernacle of ADONAI, he is to be charged with blood — he has shed blood, and that person is to be cut off from his people. <sup>5</sup> The reason for this is so that the people of Isra’el will bring their sacrifices that they sacrifice out in the field — so that they will bring them to ADONAI, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the cohen, and sacrifice them as peace offerings to ADONAI. <sup>6</sup> The cohen will splash the blood against the altar of ADONAI at the entrance to the tent of meeting and make the fat go up in smoke as a pleasing aroma for ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> No longer will they offer sacrifices to the goat-demons, before whom they prostitute themselves! This is a permanent regulation for them through all their generations.’

(RY: iii, LY: v) <sup>8</sup> “Also tell them, ‘When someone from the community of Isra’el or one of the foreigners living with you offers a burnt offering or sacrifice <sup>9</sup> without bringing it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to sacrifice it to ADONAI, that person is to be cut off from his people. <sup>10</sup> When someone from the community of Isra'el or one of the foreigners living with you eats any kind of blood, I will set myself against that person who eats blood and cut him off from his people. <sup>11</sup> For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for yourselves; for it is the blood that makes atonement because of the life.' <sup>12</sup> This is why I told the people of Isra'el, 'None of you is to eat blood, nor is any foreigner living with you to eat blood.'

<sup>13</sup> "When someone from the community of Isra'el or one of the foreigners living with you hunts and catches game, whether animal or bird that may be eaten, he is to pour out its blood and cover it with earth. <sup>14</sup> For the life of every creature — its blood is its life. Therefore I said to the people of Isra'el, 'You are not to eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood. Whoever eats it will be cut off.'

<sup>15</sup> "Anyone eating an animal that dies naturally or is torn to death by wild animals, whether he is a citizen or a foreigner, is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until evening; then he will be clean. <sup>16</sup> But if he doesn't wash them or bathe his body, he will bear the consequences of his wrongdoing."

18 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> "Speak to the people of Isra'el; tell them, 'I am ADONAI your God. <sup>3</sup> You are not to engage in the activities found in the land of Egypt, where you used to live; and you are not to engage in the activities found in the land of Kena'an, where I am bringing you; nor are you to live by their laws. <sup>4</sup> You are to obey my rulings and laws and live accordingly; I am ADONAI your God. <sup>5</sup> You are to observe my laws and rulings; if a person does them, he will have life through them; I am ADONAI.

(LY: vi) <sup>6</sup> "None of you is to approach anyone who is a close relative in order to have sexual relations; I am ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your father, and you are not to have sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother — do not have sexual relations with her. <sup>8</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your father's wife; that is your father's prerogative. <sup>9</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere. Do not have sexual relations with them. <sup>10</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your son's daughter or with your daughter's daughter. Do not have sexual relations with them, because their sexual disgrace will be your own. <sup>11</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your father's wife's daughter, born to your father, because she is your sister; do not have sexual relations with her. <sup>12</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your father's sister, because she is your father's close relative. <sup>13</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your mother's sister, because she is your mother's close relative. <sup>14</sup> You are not to disgrace your father's brother by having sexual relations with his wife, because she is your aunt. <sup>15</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your daughter-in-law; because she is your son's wife. Do not have sexual relations with her. <sup>16</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your brother's wife, because this is your brother's prerogative.

<sup>17</sup> “You are not to have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter, nor are you to have sexual relations with her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter; they are close relatives of hers, and it would be shameful. <sup>18</sup> You are not to take a woman to be a rival with her sister and have sexual relations with her while her sister is still alive. <sup>19</sup> You are not to approach a woman in order to have sexual relations with her when she is unclean from her time of niddah. <sup>20</sup> You are not to go to bed with your neighbor's wife and thus become unclean with her.

<sup>21</sup> “You are not to let any of your children be sacrificed to Molekh, thereby profaning the name of your God; I am ADONAI.

(RY: iv, LY: vii) <sup>22</sup> “You are not to go to bed with a man as with a woman; it is an abomination.

<sup>23</sup> “You are not to have sexual relations with any kind of animal and thus become unclean with it; nor is any woman to present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; it is perversion.

<sup>24</sup> “Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these things, because all the nations which I am expelling ahead of you are defiled with them. <sup>25</sup> The land has become unclean, and this is why I am punishing it — the land itself will vomit out its inhabitants. <sup>26</sup> But you are to keep my laws and rulings and not engage in any of these disgusting practices, neither the citizen nor the foreigner living with you; (LY: Maftir) <sup>27</sup> for the people of the land have committed all these abominations, and the land is now defiled. <sup>28</sup> If you make the land unclean, it will vomit you out too, just as it is vomiting out the nation that was there before you. <sup>29</sup> For those who engage in any of these disgusting practices, whoever they may be, will be cut off from their people. <sup>30</sup> So keep my charge not to follow any of these abominable customs that others before you have followed and thus defile yourselves by doing them. I am ADONAI your God.”

Haftarah Acharei Mot: Yechezk’el (Ezekiel) 22:1–19 (A); 22:1–16 (S)

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Acharei Mot: Romans 3:19–28; 9:30–10:13; 1 Corinthians 5:1–13 with 2 Corinthians 2:1–11; Galatians 3:10–14; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 7:23–10:25

Parashah 30: K’doshim (Holy people) 19:1–20:27
[In regular years read with Parashah 29, in leap years read separately]

19 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the entire community of Isra’el; tell them, ‘You people are to be holy because I, ADONAI your God, am holy.

<sup>3</sup> “‘Every one of you is to revere his father and mother, and you are to keep my Shabbats; I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>4</sup> “‘Do not turn to idols, and do not cast metal gods for yourselves; I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>5</sup> “‘When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI, offer it in a way that will make you accepted. <sup>6</sup> It is to be eaten the same day you offer it and the following day; but if any of it remains until the third day, it is to be burned up completely. <sup>7</sup> If any of it is eaten on the third day, it will have become a disgusting thing and will not be accepted; <sup>8</sup> moreover, everyone who eats it will bear the consequences of profaning something holy meant for ADONAI — that person will be cut off from his people.

<sup>9</sup> “‘When you harvest the ripe crops produced in your land, don’t harvest all the way to corners of your field, and don’t gather the ears of grain left by the harvesters. <sup>10</sup> Likewise, don’t gather the grapes left on the vine or fallen on the ground after harvest; leave them for the poor and the foreigner; I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>11</sup> “‘Do not steal from, defraud or lie to each other. <sup>12</sup> Do not swear by my name falsely, which would be profaning the name of your God; I am ADONAI.

<sup>13</sup> Do not oppress or rob your neighbor; specifically, you are not to keep back the wages of a hired worker all night until morning.

<sup>14</sup> “Do not speak a curse against a deaf person or place an obstacle in the way of a blind person; rather, fear your God; I am ADONAI.

(RY: v, LY: ii) <sup>15</sup> “Do not be unjust in judging — show neither partiality to the poor nor deference to the mighty, but with justice judge your neighbor.

<sup>16</sup> “Do not go around spreading slander among your people, but also don’t stand idly by when your neighbor’s life is at stake; I am ADONAI.

<sup>17</sup> “Do not hate your brother in your heart, but rebuke your neighbor frankly, so that you won’t carry sin because of him. <sup>18</sup> Don’t take vengeance on or bear a grudge against any of your people; rather, love your neighbor as yourself; I am ADONAI.

<sup>19</sup> “Observe my regulations.

“Don’t let your livestock mate with those of another kind, don’t sow your field with two different kinds of grain, and don’t wear a garment of cloth made with two different kinds of thread.

<sup>20</sup> “If a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave intended for another man, and she has neither been redeemed nor given her freedom, there is to be an investigation. They are not to be put to death, because she was not free. <sup>21</sup> In reparation he is to bring a ram as a guilt offering for himself to the entrance of the tent of meeting. <sup>22</sup> The cohen will make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before ADONAI for the sin he committed, and he will be forgiven for the sin he committed.

(LY: iii) <sup>23</sup> “When you enter the land and plant various kinds of fruit trees, you are to regard its fruit as forbidden — for three years it will be forbidden to you and not eaten. <sup>24</sup> In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, for praising ADONAI. <sup>25</sup> But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, so that it will produce even more for you; I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>26</sup> “Do not eat anything with blood. Do not practice divination or fortune-telling. <sup>27</sup> Don’t round your hair at the temples or mar the edges of your beard. <sup>28</sup> Don’t cut gashes in your flesh when someone dies or tattoo yourselves; I am ADONAI.

<sup>29</sup> “Do not debase your daughter by making her a prostitute, so that the land will not fall into prostitution and become full of shame.

<sup>30</sup> “Keep my Shabbats, and revere my sanctuary; I am ADONAI.

<sup>31</sup> “Do not turn to spirit-mediums or sorcerers; don’t seek them out, to be defiled by them; I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>32</sup> “Stand up in the presence of a person with gray hair, show respect for the old; you are to fear your God; I am ADONAI.

(RY: vi, LY: iv) <sup>33</sup> “If a foreigner stays with you in your land, do not do him wrong. <sup>34</sup> Rather, treat the foreigner staying with you like the native-born among you — you are to love him as yourself, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt; I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>35</sup> “Don’t be dishonest when measuring length, weight or capacity. <sup>36</sup> Rather, use an honest balance-scale, honest weights, an honest bushel dry-measure and an honest gallon liquid-measure; I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>37</sup> Observe all my regulations and rulings, and do them; I am ADONAI.’”

20 (LY: v) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Say to the people of Isra’el, ‘If someone from the people of Isra’el or one of the foreigners living in Isra’el sacrifices one of his children to Molekh, he must be put to death; the people of the land are to stone him to death. <sup>3</sup> I too will set myself against him and cut him off from his people, because he has sacrificed his child to Molekh, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name. <sup>4</sup> If the people of the land look the other way when that man sacrifices his child to Molekh and fail to put him to death, <sup>5</sup> then I will set myself against him, his family and everyone who follows him to go fornicating after Molekh, and cut them off from their people.

<sup>6</sup> “The person who turns to spirit-mediums and sorcerers to go fornicating after them — I will set myself against him and cut him off from his people. <sup>7</sup> Therefore consecrate yourselves — you people must be holy, because I am ADONAI your God. (RY: vii, LY: vi) <sup>8</sup> Observe my regulations, and obey them; I am ADONAI, who sets you apart to be holy.

<sup>9</sup> “A person who curses his father or mother must be put to death; having cursed his father or his mother, his blood is on him.

<sup>10</sup> “If a man commits adultery with another man’s wife, that is, with the wife of a fellow countryman, both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.<sup>11</sup> The man who goes to bed with his father’s wife has disgraced his father sexually, and both of them must be put to death; their blood is on them. <sup>12</sup> If a man goes to bed with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death; they have committed a perversion, and their blood is on them.

<sup>13</sup> If a man goes to bed with a man as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they must be put to death; their blood is on them. <sup>14</sup> If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is depravity; they are to be put to death by fire, both he and they, so that there will not be depravity among you. <sup>15</sup> If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he must be put to death, and you are to kill the animal. <sup>16</sup> If a woman approaches an animal and has sexual relations with it, you are to kill the woman and the animal; their blood will be on them. <sup>17</sup> If a man takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and has sexual relations with her, and she consents, it is a shameful thing; they are to be cut off publicly — he has had sexual relations with his sister, and he will bear the consequences of their wrongdoing. <sup>18</sup> If a man goes to bed with a woman in her menstrual period and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her blood, and she has exposed the source of her blood; both of them are to be cut off from their people. <sup>19</sup> You are not to have sexual relations with your mother's sister or your father's sister; a person who does this has had sexual relations with his close relative; they will bear the consequences of their wrongdoing. <sup>20</sup> If a man goes to bed with his uncle's wife, he has disgraced his uncle sexually; they will bear the consequences of their sin and die childless. <sup>21</sup> If a man takes his brother's wife, it is uncleanness; he has disgraced his brother sexually; they will be childless.

<sup>22</sup> “You are to observe all my regulations and rulings and act on them, so that the land to which I am bringing you will not vomit you out. (LY: vii)

<sup>23</sup> Do not live by the regulations of the nation which I am expelling ahead of you; because they did all these things, which is why I detested them. <sup>24</sup> But to you I have said, “You will inherit their land; I will give it to you as a possession, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am ADONAI your God, who has set you apart from other peoples. (Maftir) <sup>25</sup> Therefore you are to distinguish between clean and unclean animals and between clean and unclean birds; do not make yourselves detestable with an animal, bird or reptile that I have set apart for you to regard as unclean. <sup>26</sup> Rather, you people are to be holy for me; because I, ADONAI, am holy; and I have set you apart from the other peoples, so that you can belong to me.

<sup>27</sup> “A man or woman who is a spirit-medium or sorcerer must be put to death; they are to stone them to death; their blood will be on them.”

Haftarah K'doshim: 'Amos 9:7–15 (A); Yechezk'el (Ezekiel) 20:2–20 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah K'doshim: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:33–37; 5:43–48; 15:1–11; 19:16–30; 22:33–40; Mark 7:1–23; 12:28–34; Luke 10:25–37; Romans 13:8–10; Galatians 5:13–26; Ya'akov (James) 2:1–9; 1 Kefa (1 Peter) 1:13–21

Parashah 31: Emor (Speak) 21:1–24:23

21 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Speak to the cohanim, the sons of Aharon; tell them: ‘No cohen is to make himself unclean for any of his people who dies, <sup>2</sup> except for his close relatives — his mother, father, son, daughter and brother; <sup>3</sup> he may also make himself unclean for his virgin sister who has never married and is therefore dependent on him. <sup>4</sup> He may not make himself unclean, because he is a leader among his people; doing so would profane him. <sup>5</sup> Cohanim are not to make bald spots on their heads, mar the edges of their beards or cut gashes in their flesh. <sup>6</sup> Rather, they are to be holy for their God and not profane the name of their God. For they are the ones who present ADONAI with offerings made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore they must be holy.

<sup>7</sup> ““A cohen is not to marry a woman who is a prostitute, who has been profaned or who has been divorced; because he is holy for his God. <sup>8</sup> Rather, you are to set him apart as holy, because he offers the bread of your God; he is to be holy for you, because I, ADONAI, who makes you holy, am holy. <sup>9</sup> The daughter of a cohen who profanes herself by prostitution profanes her father; she is to be put to death by fire.

<sup>10</sup> ““The cohen who is ranked highest among his brothers, the one on whose head the anointing oil is poured and who is consecrated to put on the garments, is not to stop grooming his hair, tear his clothes, <sup>11</sup> go in to where any dead body is or make himself unclean, even when his father or mother dies. <sup>12</sup> He may not leave the sanctuary then or profane the sanctuary of his God, because the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him; I am ADONAI.

<sup>13</sup> “‘He is to marry a virgin; <sup>14</sup> he may not marry a widow, divorcee, profaned woman or prostitute; but he must marry a virgin from among his own people <sup>15</sup> and not disqualify his descendants among his people; because I am ADONAI, who makes him holy.’”

(ii) <sup>16</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>17</sup> “Tell Aharon, ‘None of your descendants who has a defect may approach to offer the bread of his God. <sup>18</sup> No one with a defect may approach — no one blind, lame, with a mutilated face or a limb too long, <sup>19</sup> a broken foot or a broken arm, <sup>20</sup> a hunched back, stunted growth, a cataract in his eye, festering or running sores, or damaged testicles — <sup>21</sup> no one descended from Aharon the cohen who has such a defect may approach to present the offerings for ADONAI made by fire; he has a defect and is not to approach to offer the bread of his God. <sup>22</sup> He may eat the bread of his God, both the especially holy and the holy; <sup>23</sup> only he is not to go in to the curtain or approach the altar, because he has a defect — so that he will not profane my holy places, because I am ADONAI, who makes them holy.’”

<sup>24</sup> Moshe said these things to Aharon, his sons and all the people of Isra’el.

22 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell Aharon and his sons to separate themselves from the holy things of the people of Isra’el which they set apart as holy for me, so that they will not profane my holy name; I am ADONAI. <sup>3</sup> Tell them, ‘Any descendant of yours through all your generations who approaches the holy things that the people of Isra’el consecrate to ADONAI and is unclean will be cut off from before me; I am ADONAI.

<sup>4</sup> “‘Any descendant of Aharon with tzara’at or a discharge is not to eat the holy things until he is clean. Anyone who has touched a person made unclean by a dead body, or who has had a seminal emission, <sup>5</sup> or who has touched a reptile or insect that can make him unclean, or a man who is unclean for any reason and who can transmit to him his uncleanness — <sup>6</sup> the person who touches any of these will be unclean until evening and is not to eat the holy things unless he bathes his body in water. <sup>7</sup> After sunset he will be clean; and afterwards, he may eat the holy things; because they are his food. <sup>8</sup> But he is not to eat anything that dies naturally or is torn to death by wild animals and thereby make himself unclean; I am ADONAI. <sup>9</sup> The cohanim must observe this charge of mine; otherwise, if they profane it, they will bear the consequences of their sin for doing so and die in it; I am ADONAI, who makes them holy.

<sup>10</sup> “No one who is not a cohen may eat anything holy, nor may a tenant or employee of a cohen eat anything holy. <sup>11</sup> But if a cohen acquires a slave, either through purchase or through his being born in his household, he may share his food. <sup>12</sup> If the daughter of a cohen is married to a man who is not a cohen, she is not to have a share of the food set aside from the holy things. <sup>13</sup> But if the daughter of a cohen is a widow or divorcee and has no child, and she is sent back to her father’s house as when she was young, she may share in her father’s food; but no one not a cohen is to share in it. <sup>14</sup> If a person eats holy food by mistake, he must add one-fifth to it and give the holy food to the cohen. <sup>15</sup> They are not to profane the holy things of the people of Isra’el that they have set apart for ADONAI <sup>16</sup> and thus cause them to bear guilt requiring a guilt offering, by eating their holy things; because I am ADONAI, who makes them holy.’”

(iii) <sup>17</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>18</sup> “Speak to Aharon and his sons and to the entire people of Isra’el; tell them: ‘When anyone, whether a member of the house of Isra’el or a foreigner living in Isra’el, brings his offering, either in connection with a vow or as a voluntary offering, and brings it to ADONAI as a burnt offering, <sup>19</sup> in order for you to be accepted, you must bring a male without defect from the cattle, the sheep or the goats. <sup>20</sup> You are not to bring anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted from you. <sup>21</sup> Whoever brings a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI in fulfillment of a vow or as a voluntary offering, whether it come from the herd or from the flock, it must be unblemished and without defect in order to be accepted. <sup>22</sup> If it is blind, injured, mutilated, has an abnormal growth or has festering or running sores, you are not to offer it to ADONAI or make such an offering by fire on the altar to ADONAI. <sup>23</sup> If a bull or lamb has a limb which is too long or short, you may offer it as a voluntary offering; but for a vow it will not be accepted. <sup>24</sup> An animal with bruised, crushed, torn or cut genitals you are not to offer to ADONAI. You are not to do these things in your land, <sup>25</sup> and you are not to receive any of these from a foreigner for you to offer as bread for your God, because their deformity is a defect in them — they will not be accepted from you.’”

<sup>26</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>27</sup> “When a bull, sheep or goat is born, it is to stay with its mother for seven days; but from the eighth day on, it may be accepted for an offering made by fire to ADONAI. <sup>28</sup> However, no animal is to be slaughtered together with its young on the same day, neither cow nor ewe.

<sup>29</sup> “When you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to ADONAI, you must do it in a way such that you will be accepted. <sup>30</sup> It must be eaten on the same day it is offered; leave none of it till morning; I am ADONAI.

<sup>31</sup> “You are to keep my mitzvot and obey them; I am ADONAI. <sup>32</sup> You are not to profane my holy name; on the contrary, I am to be regarded as holy among the people of Isra’el; I am ADONAI, who makes you holy, <sup>33</sup> who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am ADONAI.”

23 (iv) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el: ‘The designated times of ADONAI which you are to proclaim as holy convocations are my designated times.

<sup>3</sup> “‘Work is to be done on six days; but the seventh day is a Shabbat of complete rest, a holy convocation; you are not to do any kind of work; it is a Shabbat for ADONAI, even in your homes.

<sup>4</sup> “‘These are the designated times of ADONAI, the holy convocations you are to proclaim at their designated times.

<sup>5</sup> “‘In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, between sundown and complete darkness, comes Pesach for ADONAI. <sup>6</sup> On the fifteenth day of the same month is the festival of matzah; for seven days you are to eat matzah. <sup>7</sup> On the first day you are to have a holy convocation; don’t do any kind of ordinary work. <sup>8</sup> Bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI for seven days. On the seventh day is a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work.’”

<sup>9</sup>ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>10</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘After you enter the land I am giving you and harvest its ripe crops, you are to bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the cohen. <sup>11</sup> He is to wave the sheaf before ADONAI, so that you will be accepted; the cohen is to wave it on the day after the Shabbat. <sup>12</sup> On the day that you wave the sheaf, you are to offer a male lamb without defect, in its first year, as a burnt offering for ADONAI. <sup>13</sup> Its grain offering is to be one gallon of fine flour mixed with olive oil, an offering made by fire to ADONAI as a fragrant aroma; its drink offering is to be of wine, one quart. <sup>14</sup> You are not to eat bread, dried grain or fresh grain until the day you bring the offering for your God; this is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live.

<sup>15</sup> “From the day after the day of rest — that is, from the day you bring the sheaf for waving — you are to count seven full weeks, <sup>16</sup> until the day after the seventh week; you are to count fifty days; and then you are to present a new grain offering to ADONAI. <sup>17</sup> You must bring bread from your homes for waving — two loaves made with one gallon of fine flour, baked with leaven — as firstfruits for ADONAI. <sup>18</sup> Along with the bread, present seven lambs without defect one year old, one young bull and two rams; these will be a burnt offering for ADONAI, with their grain and drink offerings, an offering made by fire as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>19</sup> Offer one male goat as a sin offering and two male lambs one year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>20</sup> The cohen will wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before ADONAI, with the two lambs; these will be holy for ADONAI for the cohen. <sup>21</sup> On the same day, you are to call a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work; this is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live.

<sup>22</sup> “When you harvest the ripe crops produced in your land, don’t harvest all the way to the corners of your field, and don’t gather the ears of grain left by the harvesters; leave them for the poor and the foreigner; I am ADONAI your God.”

(v) <sup>23</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>24</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘In the seventh month, the first of the month is to be for you a day of complete rest for remembering, a holy convocation announced with blasts on the shofar. <sup>25</sup> Do not do any kind of ordinary work, and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI.’”

<sup>26</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>27</sup> “The tenth day of this seventh month is Yom-Kippur; you are to have a holy convocation, you are to deny yourselves, and you are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI. <sup>28</sup> You are not to do any kind of work on that day, because it is Yom-Kippur, to make atonement for you before ADONAI your God. <sup>29</sup> Anyone who does not deny himself on that day is to be cut off from his people; <sup>30</sup> and anyone who does any kind of work on that day, I will destroy from among his people. <sup>31</sup> You are not to do any kind of work; it is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live. <sup>32</sup> It will be for you a Shabbat of complete rest, and you are to deny yourselves; you are to rest on your Shabbat from evening the ninth day of the month until the following evening.”

(vi) <sup>33</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>34</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of Sukkot for seven days to ADONAI. <sup>35</sup>

On the first day there is to be a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work. <sup>36</sup> For seven days you are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI; on the eighth day you are to have a holy convocation and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is a day of public assembly; do not do any kind of ordinary work.

<sup>37</sup> “These are the designated times of ADONAI that you are to proclaim as holy convocations and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI — a burnt offering, a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, each on its own day — <sup>38</sup> besides the Shabbats of ADONAI, your gifts, all your vows and all your voluntary offerings that you give to ADONAI.

<sup>39</sup> “But on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered the produce of the land, you are to observe the festival of ADONAI seven days; the first day is to be a complete rest and the eighth day is to be a complete rest. <sup>40</sup> On the first day you are to take choice fruit, palm fronds, thick branches and river-willows, and celebrate in the presence of ADONAI your God for seven days. <sup>41</sup> You are to observe it as a feast to ADONAI seven days in the year; it is a permanent regulation, generation after generation; keep it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup> You are to live in sukkot for seven days; every citizen of Isra’el is to live in a sukkah, <sup>43</sup> so that generation after generation of you will know that I made the people of Isra’el live in sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am ADONAI your God.”

<sup>44</sup> Thus Moshe announced to the people of Isra’el the designated times of ADONAI.

24 (vii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Order the people of Isra’el to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the light, to keep lamps burning always. <sup>3</sup> Outside the curtain of the testimony in the tent of meeting, Aharon is to arrange for the light to be kept burning always from evening until morning before ADONAI; this is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations. <sup>4</sup> He is always to keep in order the lamps on the pure menorah before ADONAI.

<sup>5</sup> “You are to take fine flour and use it to bake twelve loaves, one gallon per loaf. <sup>6</sup> Arrange them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure table before ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> Put frankincense with each row to be an offering made by fire to ADONAI in place of the bread and as a reminder of it. <sup>8</sup> Regularly, every Shabbat, he is to arrange them before ADONAI; they are from the people of Isra'el, as a covenant forever. <sup>9</sup> They will belong to Aharon and his sons; and they are to eat them in a holy place; because for him they are, of the offerings for ADONAI made by fire, especially holy. This is a permanent law.”

<sup>10</sup> There was a man who was the son of a woman of Isra'el and an Egyptian father. He went out among the people of Isra'el, and this son of a woman of Isra'el had a fight in the camp with a man of Isra'el, <sup>11</sup> in the course of which the son of the woman of Isra'el uttered the Name [Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh] in a curse. So they brought him to Moshe. (His mother's name was Shlomit the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) <sup>12</sup> They put him under guard until ADONAI would tell them what to do. <sup>13</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>14</sup> “Take the man who cursed outside the camp, have everyone who heard him lay their hands on his head, and have the entire community stone him. <sup>15</sup> Then tell the people of Isra'el, ‘Whoever curses his God will bear the consequences of his sin; <sup>16</sup> and whoever blasphemes the name of ADONAI must be put to death; the entire community must stone him. The foreigner as well as the citizen is to be put to death if he blasphemes the Name.

<sup>17</sup> “‘Anyone who strikes another person and kills him must be put to death. <sup>18</sup> Anyone who strikes an animal and kills it is to make restitution, life for life. <sup>19</sup> If someone injures his neighbor, what he did is to be done to him — <sup>20</sup> break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth — whatever injury he has caused the other person is to be rendered to him in return. (Maftir) <sup>21</sup> He who kills an animal is to make restitution, but he who kills another person is to be put to death. <sup>22</sup> You are to apply the same standard of judgment to the foreigner as to the citizen, because I am ADONAI your God.”

<sup>23</sup> So Moshe spoke to the people of Isra'el, and they took the man who had cursed outside the camp and stoned him to death. Thus the people of Isra'el did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Haftarah Emor: Yechezk'el (Ezekiel) 44:15–31

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Emor: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:38–42; Galatians 3:26–29 [In connection with the feasts, see readings for Parashah 41]

Parashah 32: B'har (On Mount) 25:1–26:2
[In regular years read with Parashah 33, in leap years read separately]

25 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI spoke to Moshe on Mount Sinai; he said, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘When you enter the land I am giving you, the land itself is to observe a Shabbat rest for ADONAI. <sup>3</sup> Six years you will sow your field; six years you will prune your grapevines and gather their produce. <sup>4</sup> But in the seventh year is to be a Shabbat of complete rest for the land, a Shabbat for ADONAI; you will neither sow your field nor prune your grapevines. <sup>5</sup> You are not to harvest what grows by itself from the seeds left by your previous harvest, and you are not to gather the grapes of your untended vine; it is to be a year of complete rest for the land. <sup>6</sup> But what the land produces during the year of Shabbat will be food for all of you — you, your servant, your maid, your employee, anyone living near you, <sup>7</sup> your livestock and the wild animals on your land; everything the land produces may be used for food.

<sup>8</sup> “‘You are to count seven Shabbats of years, seven times seven years, that is, forty-nine years. <sup>9</sup> Then, on the tenth day of the seventh month, on Yom-Kippur, you are to sound a blast on the shofar; you are to sound the shofar all through your land; <sup>10</sup> and you are to consecrate the fiftieth year, proclaiming freedom throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It will be a yovel for you; you will return everyone to the land he owns, and everyone is to return to his family. <sup>11</sup> That fiftieth year will be a yovel for you; in that year you are not to sow, harvest what grows by itself or gather the grapes of untended vines; <sup>12</sup> because it is a yovel. It will be holy for you; whatever the fields produce will be food for all of you. <sup>13</sup> In this year of yovel, every one of you is to return to the land he owns.

(LY: ii) <sup>14</sup> “‘If you sell anything to your neighbor or buy anything from him, neither of you is to exploit the other. <sup>15</sup> Rather, you are to take into account the number of years after the yovel when you buy land from your neighbor, and he is to sell to you according to the number of years crops will be raised. <sup>16</sup> If the number of years remaining is large, you will raise the price; if few years remain, you will lower it; because what he is really selling you is the number of crops to be produced. <sup>17</sup> Thus you are not to take advantage of each other, but you are to fear your God; for I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>18</sup> “‘Rather, you are to keep my regulations and rulings and act accordingly. If you do, you will live securely in the land. (RY: ii, LY: iii) <sup>19</sup> The land will yield its produce, you will eat until you have enough, and you will live there securely.

<sup>20</sup> “If you ask, “If we aren’t allowed to sow seed or harvest what our land produces, what are we going to eat the seventh year?” <sup>21</sup> then I will order my blessing on you during the sixth year, so that the land brings forth enough produce for all three years. <sup>22</sup> The eighth year you will sow seed, but eat the old, stored produce until the ninth year; that is, until the produce of the eighth year comes in, you will eat the old, stored food.

<sup>23</sup> “The land is not to be sold in perpetuity, because the land belongs to me — you are only foreigners and temporary residents with me. <sup>24</sup> Therefore, when you sell your property, you must include the right of redemption. (LY: iv) <sup>25</sup> That is, if one of you becomes poor and sells some of his property, his next-of-kin can come and buy back what his relative sold. <sup>26</sup> If the seller has no one to redeem it but becomes rich enough to redeem it himself, <sup>27</sup> he will calculate the number of years the land was sold for, refund the excess to its buyer, and return to his property. <sup>28</sup> If he hasn’t sufficient means to get it back himself, then what he sold will remain in the hands of the buyer until the year of yovel; in the yovel the buyer will vacate it and the seller return to his property.

(RY: iii, LY: v) <sup>29</sup> “If someone sells a dwelling in a walled city, he has one year after the date of sale in which to redeem it. For a full year he will have the right of redemption; <sup>30</sup> but if he has not redeemed the dwelling in the walled city within the year, then title in perpetuity passes to the buyer through all his generations; it will not revert in the yovel. <sup>31</sup> However, houses in villages not surrounded by walls are to be dealt with like the fields in the countryside — they may be redeemed [before the yovel], and they revert in the yovel.

<sup>32</sup> “Concerning the cities of the L’vi’im and the houses in the cities they possess, the L’vi’im are to have a permanent right of redemption. <sup>33</sup> If someone purchases a house from one of the L’vi’im, then the house he sold in the city where he owns property will still revert to him in the yovel; because the houses in the cities of the L’vi’im are their tribe’s possession among the people of Isra’el. <sup>34</sup> The fields in the open land around their cities may not be sold, because that is their permanent possession.

<sup>35</sup> “If a member of your people has become poor, so that he can’t support himself among you, you are to assist him as you would a foreigner or a temporary resident, so that he can continue living with you. <sup>36</sup> Do not charge him interest or otherwise profit from him, but fear your God, so that your brother can continue living with you. <sup>37</sup> Do not take interest when you loan him money or take a profit when you sell him food. <sup>38</sup> I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to give you the land of Kena'an and be your God.

(RY: iv, LY: vi) <sup>39</sup> “If a member of your people has become poor among you and sells himself to you, do not make him do the work of a slave. <sup>40</sup> Rather, you are to treat him like an employee or a tenant; he will work for you until the year of yovel. <sup>41</sup> Then he will leave you, he and his children with him, and return to his own family and regain possession of his ancestral land. <sup>42</sup> For they are my slaves, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; therefore they are not to be sold as slaves. <sup>43</sup> Do not treat him harshly, but fear your God.

<sup>44</sup> “Concerning the men and women you may have as slaves: you are to buy men- and women-slaves from the nations surrounding you. <sup>45</sup> You may also buy the children of foreigners living with you and members of their families born in your land; you may own these. <sup>46</sup> You may also bequeath them to your children to own; from these groups you may take your slaves forever. But as far as your brothers the people of Isra'el are concerned, you are not to treat each other harshly.

(LY: vii) <sup>47</sup> “If a foreigner living with you has grown rich, and a member of your people has become poor and sells himself to this foreigner living with you or to a member of the foreigner's family, <sup>48</sup> he may be redeemed after he has been sold. One of his brothers may redeem him; <sup>49</sup> or his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him; or any near relative of his may redeem him; or, if he becomes rich, he may redeem himself. <sup>50</sup> He will calculate with the person who bought him the time from the year he sold himself to him to the year of yovel; and the amount to be paid will be according to the number of years and his time at an employee's wage. <sup>51</sup> If many years remain, according to them will he refund the amount for his redemption from the amount he was bought for. <sup>52</sup> If there remain only a few years until the year of yovel, then he will calculate with him; according to his years will he refund the amount for his redemption. <sup>53</sup> He will be like a worker hired year by year. You will see to it that he is not treated harshly.

<sup>54</sup> “If he has not been redeemed by any of these procedures, nevertheless he will go free in the year of yovel — he and his children with him. (LY: Maftir) <sup>55</sup> For to me the people of Isra'el are slaves; they are my slaves whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; I am ADONAI your God.

26 <sup>1</sup> ““You are not to make yourselves any idols, erect a carved statue or a standing-stone, or place any carved stone anywhere in your land in order to bow down to it. I am ADONAI your God.

<sup>2</sup> ““Keep my Shabbats, and revere my sanctuary; I am ADONAI.

Haftarah B’har: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 32:6–27

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah B’har: Luke 4:16–21; 1 Corinthians 7:21–24; Galatians 6:7–10

Parashah 33: B’chukkotai (By my regulations) 26:3–27:34
[In regular years read with Parashah 32, in leap years read separately]

<sup>3</sup> ““If you live by my regulations, observe my mitzvot and obey them; <sup>4</sup> then I will provide the rain you need in its season, the land will yield its produce, and the trees in the field will yield their fruit. <sup>5</sup> Your threshing time will extend until the grape harvest, and your grape harvesting will extend until the time for sowing seed. You will eat as much food as you want and live securely in your land.

(LY: ii) <sup>6</sup> ““I will give shalom in the land — you will lie down to sleep unafraid of anyone. I will rid the land of wild animals. The sword will not go through your land. <sup>7</sup> You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall before your sword. <sup>8</sup> Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand — your enemies will fall before your sword.

<sup>9</sup> ““I will turn toward you, make you productive, increase your numbers and uphold my covenant with you. (RY: v, LY: iii) <sup>10</sup> You will eat all you want from last year’s harvest and throw out what remains of the old to make room for the new. <sup>11</sup> I will put my tabernacle among you, and I will not reject you, <sup>12</sup> but I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people. <sup>13</sup> I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you would not be their slaves. I have broken the bars of your yoke, so that you can walk upright.

<sup>14</sup> ““But if you will not listen to me and obey all these mitzvot, <sup>15</sup> if you loathe my regulations and reject my rulings, in order not to obey all my mitzvot but cancel my covenant; <sup>16</sup> then I, for my part, will do this to you: I will bring terror upon you — wasting disease and chronic fever to dim your sight and sap your strength. You will sow your seed for nothing, because your enemies will eat the crops. <sup>17</sup> I will set my face against you — your enemies will defeat you, those who hate you will hound you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.

<sup>18</sup> If these things don't make you listen to me, then I will discipline you seven times over for your sins. <sup>19</sup> I will break the pride you have in your own power. I will make your sky like iron, your soil like bronze — <sup>20</sup> you will spend your strength in vain, because the land will not yield its produce or the trees in the field their fruit.

<sup>21</sup> “Yes, if you go against me and don't listen to me, I will increase your calamities sevenfold, according to your sins. <sup>22</sup> I will send wild animals among you; they will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock and reduce your numbers, until your roads are deserted.

<sup>23</sup> “If, in spite of all this, you refuse my correction and still go against me; <sup>24</sup> then I too will go against you; and I, yes I, will strike you seven times over for your sins. <sup>25</sup> I will bring a sword against you which will execute the vengeance of the covenant. You will be huddled inside your cities, I will send sickness among you, and you will be handed over to the power of the enemy. <sup>26</sup> I will cut off your supply of bread, so that ten women will bake your bread in one oven and dole out your bread by weight, and you will eat but not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup> “And if, for all this, you still will not listen to me, but go against me; <sup>28</sup> then I will go against you furiously, and I also will chastise you yet seven times more for your sins. <sup>29</sup> You will eat the flesh of your own sons, you will eat the flesh of your own daughters. <sup>30</sup> I will destroy your high places, cut down your pillars for sun-worship, and throw your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols; and I will detest you. <sup>31</sup> I will lay waste to your cities and make your sanctuaries desolate, so as not to smell your fragrant aromas. <sup>32</sup> I will desolate the land, so that your enemies living in it will be astounded by it. <sup>33</sup> You I will disperse among the nations, and I will draw out the sword in pursuit after you; your land will be a desolation and your cities a wasteland. <sup>34</sup> Then, at last, the land will be paid its Shabbats. As long as it lies desolate and you are in the lands of your enemies, the land will rest and be repaid its Shabbats. <sup>35</sup> Yes, as long as it lies desolate it will have rest, the rest it did not have during your Shabbats, when you lived there. <sup>36</sup> As for those of you who are left, I will fill their hearts with anxiety in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a driven leaf will frighten them, so that they will flee as one flees from the sword and fall when no one is pursuing.<sup>37</sup> Yes, with no one pursuing they will stumble over each other as if fleeing the sword — you will have no power to stand before your enemies.<sup>38</sup> And among the nations you will perish; the land of your enemies will devour you.

<sup>39</sup> Those of you who remain will pine away in the lands of your enemies from guilt over your misdeeds and those of your ancestors.<sup>40</sup> Then they will confess their misdeeds and those of their ancestors which they committed against me in their rebellion; they will admit that they went against me.<sup>41</sup> At that time I will be going against them, bringing them into the lands of their enemies. But if their uncircumcised hearts will grow humble, and they are paid the punishment for their misdeeds;<sup>42</sup> then I will remember my covenant with Ya‘akov, also my covenant with Yitz’chak and my covenant with Avraham; and I will remember the land.<sup>43</sup> For the land will lie abandoned without them, and it will be paid its Shabbats while it lies desolate without them; and they will be paid the punishment for their misdeeds, because they rejected my rulings and loathed my regulations.<sup>44</sup> Yet, in spite of all that, I will not reject them when they are in the lands of their enemies, nor will I loathe them to the point of utterly destroying them and thus break my covenant with them, because I am ADONAI their God.<sup>45</sup> Rather, for their sakes, I will remember the covenant of their ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Egypt — with the nations watching — so that I might be their God; I am ADONAI.”

<sup>46</sup> These are the laws, rulings and teachings that ADONAI himself gave to the people of Isra’el on Mount Sinai through Moshe.

27 (RY: vi; LY: iv) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘If someone makes a clearly defined vow to ADONAI to give him an amount equal to the value of a human being, <sup>3</sup> the value you are to assign to a man between the ages of twenty and sixty years is to be fifty shekels of silver [one-and-a-quarter pounds], with the sanctuary shekel being the standard, <sup>4</sup> if a woman, thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup> If it is a child five to twenty years old, assign a value of twenty shekels for a boy and ten for a girl; <sup>6</sup> if a baby one month to five years of age, five shekels for a boy and three for a girl; <sup>7</sup> if a person past sixty, fifteen shekels for a man and ten for a woman. <sup>8</sup> If the person is too poor to be evaluated, set him before the cohen, who will assign him a value in keeping with the means of the person who made the vow.

<sup>9</sup> ““If the vow is for the value of an animal of the kind used when people bring an offering to ADONAI, all that a person gives of such animals to ADONAI will be holy. <sup>10</sup> He is not to exchange or replace it by substituting a good animal for a bad one or vice versa; if he does make such a substitution, both the original animal and the one replacing it will be holy. <sup>11</sup> If the animal is an unclean one, such as may not be used in an offering to ADONAI, he must set it before the cohen; <sup>12</sup> and the cohen is to set a value on it in relation to its good and bad points; the value set by you the cohen will stand. <sup>13</sup> But if the person making the vow wishes to redeem the animal, he must add one-fifth to your valuation.

<sup>14</sup> ““When a person consecrates his house to be holy for ADONAI, the cohen is to set a value on it in relation to its good and bad points; the value set by the cohen will stand. <sup>15</sup> If the consecrator wishes to redeem his house, he must add one-fifth to the value you have set on it; and it will revert to him.

(RY: vii, LY: v) <sup>16</sup> ““If a person consecrates to ADONAI part of a field belonging to his tribe’s possession, you are to value it according to its production, with five bushels of barley being valued at fifty shekels of silver [one-and-a-quarter pounds]. <sup>17</sup> If he consecrates his field during the year of yovel, this valuation will stand. <sup>18</sup> But if he consecrates his field after the yovel, then the cohen is to calculate the price according to the years remaining till the next yovel, with a corresponding reduction from your valuation. <sup>19</sup> If the one consecrating the field wishes to redeem it, he must add one-fifth to your valuation, and the field will be set aside to revert to him. <sup>20</sup> If the seller does not wish to redeem the field, or if [the treasurer for the cohanim] has already sold the field to someone else, it can no longer be redeemed. <sup>21</sup> But when the purchaser has to vacate the field in the yovel, it will become holy to ADONAI, like a field unconditionally consecrated; it will belong to the cohanim.

(LY: vi) <sup>22</sup> ““If he consecrates to ADONAI a field which he has bought, a field which is not part of his tribe’s possession, <sup>23</sup> then the cohen is to calculate its value according to the years remaining until the year of yovel; and the man will on that same day pay this amount; since it is holy to ADONAI. <sup>24</sup> In the year of yovel the field will revert to the person from whom it was bought, that is, to the person to whose tribal possession it belongs.

<sup>25</sup> “All your valuations are to be according to the sanctuary shekel [two-fifths of an ounce], twenty gerahs to the shekel.

<sup>26</sup> “However, the firstborn among animals, since it is already born as a firstborn for ADONAI, no one can consecrate — neither ox nor sheep — since it belongs to ADONAI already. <sup>27</sup> But if it is an unclean animal, he may redeem it at the price at which you value it and add one-fifth; or if he does not redeem it, it is to be sold at the price at which you value it. <sup>28</sup> However, nothing consecrated unconditionally which a person may consecrate to ADONAI out of all he owns — person, animal or field he possesses — is to be sold or redeemed; because everything consecrated unconditionally is especially holy to ADONAI. (LY: vii) <sup>29</sup> No person who has been sentenced to die, and thus unconditionally consecrated, can be redeemed; he must be put to death.

<sup>30</sup> “All the tenth given from the land, whether from planted seed or fruit from trees, belongs to ADONAI; it is holy to ADONAI. <sup>31</sup> If someone wants to redeem any of his tenth, he must add to it one-fifth.

(Maftir) <sup>32</sup> “All the tenth from the herd or the flock, whatever passes under the shepherd’s crook, the tenth one will be holy to ADONAI. <sup>33</sup> The owner is not to inquire whether the animal is good or bad, and he cannot exchange it; if he does exchange it, both it and the one he substituted for it will be holy; it cannot be redeemed.”

<sup>34</sup> These are the mitzvot which ADONAI gave to Moshe for the people of Isra’el on Mount Sinai.

Haftarah B’chukkotai: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 16:19–17:14

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah B’chukkotai: Yochanan (John) 14:15–21; 15:10–12; 1 Yochanan (1 John)

Hazak, hazak, v’nit’chazek!

Be strong, be strong, and let us be strengthened!

B'midbar

NUMBERS

Parashah 34: B'midbar (In the desert) 1:1-4:20

1<sup>1</sup> ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the Sinai Desert, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month of the second year after they had left the land of Egypt. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the entire assembly of the people of Isra’el, by clans and families. Record the names of all the men <sup>3</sup> twenty years old and over who are subject to military service in Isra’el. You and Aharon are to enumerate them company by company.

<sup>4</sup> Take with you from each tribe someone who is head of a clan. <sup>5</sup> These are the men to take with you:

From Re’uven, Elitzur the son of Sh’de’ur;

<sup>6</sup> From Shim’on, Shlumi’el the son of Tzurishaddai;

<sup>7</sup> From Y’hudah, Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav;

<sup>8</sup> From Yissakhar, N’tan’el the son of Tzu‘ar;

<sup>9</sup> From Z’vulun, Eli’av the son of Helon.

<sup>10</sup> Of the children of Yosef:

From Efrayim, Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud;

From M’nasheh, Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur.

<sup>11</sup> From Binyamin, Avidan the son of Gid’oni;

<sup>12</sup> From Dan, Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai;

<sup>13</sup> From Asher, Pag‘i’el the son of ‘Okhran;

<sup>14</sup> From Gad, Elyasaf the son of De‘u’el;

<sup>15</sup> From Naftali, Achira the son of ‘Enan.”

<sup>16</sup> These were the ones called from the assembly, the chiefs of their fathers’ clans and heads of thousands in Isra’el. <sup>17</sup> So Moshe and Aharon took these men who had been designated by name; <sup>18</sup> and, on the first day of the second month, they gathered the whole assembly to state their genealogies by families and clans and recorded the names of all those twenty years old and over, as well as their total numbers. <sup>19</sup> Moshe counted them in the Sinai Desert, just as ADONAI had ordered him.

(ii) <sup>20</sup> The men twenty years old and over who were subject to military service were recorded by name, family and clan, starting with the descendants of Re’uven, Isra’el’s firstborn. Here are the totals:

21	Descendants of Re’uven	46,500
22-23	Descendants of Shim’on	59,300
24-25	Descendants of Gad	45,650
26-27	Descendants of Y’hudah	74,600
28-29	Descendants of Yissakhar	54,400
30-31	Descendants of Z’vulun	57,400
32-33	Descendants of Efrayim	40,500
34-35	Descendants of M’nasheh	32,200
36-37	Descendants of Binyamin	35,400
38-39	Descendants of Dan	62,700
40-41	Descendants of Asher	41,500
42-43	Descendants of Naftali	53,400

<sup>44</sup> Moshe, Aharon and the twelve leaders of Isra’el, each from a clan, <sup>45</sup> counted the people of Isra’el by their clans, those twenty years old and over, eligible for military service in Isra’el; <sup>46</sup> and the grand total came to 603,550.

<sup>47</sup> But those who were L’vi’im, according to the clan of their fathers, were not counted in this census; <sup>48</sup> because ADONAI had told Moshe, <sup>49</sup> “Do not include the clan of Levi when you take the census of the people of Isra’el. <sup>50</sup> Instead, give the L’vi’im charge over the tabernacle of the testimony, its equipment and everything else connected with it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its equipment, serve in it and set up their camp around it.

<sup>51</sup> When the tabernacle is to be moved onward, it is the L’vi’im who are to take it down and set it up in the new location; anyone else who involves himself is to be put to death. <sup>52</sup> The rest of Isra’el are to set up camp, company by company, each man with his own banner.<sup>53</sup> But the L'vi'im are to camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that no anger will come upon the assembly of the people of Isra'el. The L'vi'im are to be in charge of the tabernacle of the testimony.”

<sup>54</sup> This is what the people of Isra'el did — they did everything that A<sub>DONAI</sub> had ordered Moshe.

2 (iii) <sup>1</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>2</sup> “The people of Isra'el are to set up camp by clans, each man with his own banner and under his clan's symbol; they are to camp around the tent of meeting, but at a distance.

<sup>3-9</sup> “Those camping on the east side toward the sunrise are to be under the banner of the camp of Y'hudah; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows:

Tribe	Chief	Number
Y'hudah	Nachshon the son of 'Amminadav	74,600
Yissakhar	N'tan'el the son of Tzu'ar	54,400
Z'vulun	Eli'av the son of Helon	57,400
Total		186,400

“This group is to set out first.

<sup>10-16</sup> “Those camping on the south are to be under the banner of the camp of Re'uven; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows:

Tribe	Chief	Number
Re'uven	Elitzur the son of Sh'de'ur	46,500
Shim'on	Shlumi'el the son of Tzurishaddai	59,300
Gad	Elyasaf the son of Re'u'el	45,650
Total		151,450

“This group is to set out second.

<sup>17</sup> “Then the tent of meeting, with the camp of the L’vi’im, will set out, with the other camps in front and behind. They will go in the same order as their camps are set up — each man will go forward in his position, under his banner.

<sup>18-24</sup> “Those camping on the west are to be under the banner of the camp of Efrayim; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows:

Tribe	Chief	Number
Efrayim	Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud	40,500
M’nasheh	Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur	32,200
Binyamin	Avidan the son of Gid‘oni	35,400
Total		108,100

“This group is to set out third.

<sup>25-31</sup> “Those camping on the north are to be under the banner of the camp of Dan; they are to camp according to companies; by tribe and leader they are as follows:

Tribe	Chief	Number
Dan	Achi‘ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai	62,700
Asher	Pag‘i’el the son of ‘Okhran	41,500
Naftali	Achira the son of ‘Enan	53,400
Total		157,600

“This group is to set out last with their banners.”

<sup>32</sup> These are the ones counted from the people of Isra’el by clans; the total number recorded in the camps, company by company, was 603,550. <sup>33</sup> But, as ADONAI ordered Moshe, the L’vi’im were not counted with the rest of Isra’el.

<sup>34</sup> The people of Isra’el did everything ADONAI had ordered Moshe: they set up camp under their banners, and they set out, each according to his family and clan.

3 (iv) <sup>1</sup> These are the descendants of Aharon and Moshe as of the day when ADONAI spoke with Moshe on Mount Sinai. <sup>2</sup> The names of the sons of Aharon are: Nadav the firstborn, Avihu, El'azar and Itamar. <sup>3</sup> These were the names of the sons of Aharon the cohen, whom he anointed and ordained as cohanim. <sup>4</sup> But Nadav and Avihu died in the presence of ADONAI when they offered unauthorized fire before ADONAI in the Sinai Desert, and they had no children; El'azar and Itamar served as cohanim in the presence of Aharon their father.

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>6</sup> “Summon the tribe of Levi, and assign them to Aharon the cohen, so that they can help him. <sup>7</sup> They are to carry out his duties and the duties of the whole community before the tent of meeting in performing the service of the tabernacle. <sup>8</sup> They are to be in charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting and to carry out all the duties of the people of Isra'el connected with the service of the tabernacle. <sup>9</sup> Assign the L'vi'im to Aharon and his sons; their one responsibility in regard to the people of Isra'el is to serve him. <sup>10</sup> You are to appoint Aharon and his sons to carry out the duties of cohanim; anyone else who involves himself is to be put to death.”

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>12</sup> “I have taken the L'vi'im from among the people of Isra'el in lieu of every firstborn male that is first from the womb among the people of Isra'el; the L'vi'im are to be mine. <sup>13</sup> All the firstborn males belong to me, because on the day that I killed all the firstborn males in the land of Egypt, I separated for myself all the firstborn males in Isra'el, both human and animal. They are mine; I am ADONAI.”

(v) <sup>14</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe in the Sinai Desert, <sup>15</sup> “Take a census of the tribe of Levi by clans and families. Count every male a month old or over.”

<sup>16</sup> Moshe counted them in the manner ADONAI had said, as he had been ordered. <sup>17</sup> The names of the sons of Levi were Gershon, K'hat and M'rari. <sup>18</sup> The names of the sons of Gershon were Livni and Shim'i; they fathered their respective clans; <sup>19</sup> likewise the sons of K'hat — 'Amram, Yitz'har, Hevron and 'Uzi'el—<sup>20</sup> and the sons of M'rari—Machli and Mushi. These fathered the clans of the L'vi'im.

<sup>21</sup> Gershon fathered the clans of Livni and Shim'i; these were the Gershon clans. <sup>22</sup> Of them, 7,500 males a month old and over were counted. <sup>23</sup> The Gershon clans were to camp behind the tabernacle, toward the west. <sup>24</sup> The chief of the Gershon clan was Elyasaf, the son of La'el. <sup>25</sup> In connection with the tent of meeting, the descendants of Gershon were to be in charge of the following: the tabernacle itself, its inner and outer coverings, the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting, <sup>26</sup> the curtains surrounding the courtyard, the screen for the entrance of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and the altar, all the fixtures and ropes for these items, and their maintenance.

<sup>27</sup> K'hat fathered the clans of 'Amram, Yitz'har, Hevron and 'Uzi'el; these were the K'hat clans. <sup>28</sup> Of them, 8,600 males a month old and over were counted; they were in charge of the Holy Place. <sup>29</sup> The K'hat clans were to camp next to the tabernacle, toward the south. <sup>30</sup> The chief of the K'hat clan was Elitzafan the son of 'Uzi'el. <sup>31</sup> They were responsible for the ark, the table, the menorah, the altars, the utensils the cohanim use when they serve in the Holy Place, the curtain, and everything involved with the maintenance of these things. <sup>32</sup> El'azar the son of Aharon the cohen was first among the chiefs of the L'vi'im and supervised those in charge of the Holy Place.

<sup>33</sup> M'rari fathered the clans of Machli and Mushi; these were the M'rari clans. <sup>34</sup> Of them, 6,200 males a month old and over were counted. <sup>35</sup> The chief of the M'rari clan was Tzuri'el the son of Avichayil. They were to camp next to the tabernacle, toward the north. <sup>36</sup> The M'rari clans were assigned responsibility for the frames of the tabernacle, along with its crossbars, posts, sockets and fittings, together with their maintenance; <sup>37</sup> also the posts of the surrounding courtyard, with their sockets, pegs and ropes.

<sup>38</sup> Those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle on the east, in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moshe, Aharon and his sons who were in charge of the Holy Place. They carried out their responsibility on behalf of the people of Isra'el, and anyone else who involved himself was to be put to death.

<sup>39</sup> The total number of L'vi'im whom Moshe and Aharon counted by their clans, all the males a month old and over, was 22,000.

(vi) <sup>40</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Register all the firstborn males of the people of Isra'el a month old and over, and determine how many there are. <sup>41</sup> Then you are to take the L'vi'im for me, ADONAI, in place of all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el, and the cattle of the L'vi'im in place of the firstborn of the cattle belonging to the people of Isra'el." <sup>42</sup> Moshe counted, as ADONAI had ordered him, all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el. <sup>43</sup> The total number of firstborn males registered, a month old and over, of those who were counted, was 22,273.

<sup>44</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>45</sup> “Take the L’vi’im in place of all the firstborn among the people of Isra’el, and the cattle of the L’vi’im in place of their cattle; the L’vi’im are to belong to me, ADONAI. <sup>46</sup> Since there were 273 more firstborn males from Isra’el than male L’vi’im, in order to redeem them, <sup>47</sup> you are to take five shekels [two ounces] for each of these (use the sanctuary shekel, which is equal to twenty gerahs). <sup>48</sup> Give the redemption money for these extra people to Aharon and his sons.” <sup>49</sup> Moshe took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the L’vi’im; <sup>50</sup> the amount of money he took from the firstborn of the people of Isra’el was 1,365 shekels, using the sanctuary shekel. <sup>51</sup> Moshe gave the redemption-money to Aharon and his sons, in keeping with what ADONAI had said, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

4 (vii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the descendants of K’hat, who are among the descendants of Levi, by clans and families, <sup>3</sup> all those from thirty to fifty years old; these will enter the corps doing the work in the tent of meeting.

<sup>4</sup> “Here is how the descendants of K’hat are to serve in the tent of meeting and deal with the especially holy things: <sup>5</sup> when the time comes to break camp, Aharon is to go in with his sons, take down the curtain which serves as a screen, and cover the ark of the testimony with it. <sup>6</sup> On that they are to place a covering of fine leather, and on top of that spread an all-blue cloth. Then they are to insert the carrying-poles. <sup>7</sup> On the table of showbread they are to spread a blue cloth and place on it the dishes, incense pans, offering bowls and pitchers. The perpetual bread is to remain on the table. <sup>8</sup> They are to spread on these things a scarlet cloth, cover them with a covering of fine leather and insert the poles. <sup>9</sup> They are to take a blue cloth and cover the menorah for the light, its lamps, its tongs, its trays and the jars used to add oil to it. <sup>10</sup> They are to wrap it and all its accessories in fine leather and place them on a carrying-frame. <sup>11</sup> On the gold altar they are to spread a blue cloth, cover it with a covering of fine leather and insert its carrying-poles. <sup>12</sup> They are to take all the utensils they use when serving in the sanctuary and put them in a blue cloth, cover them with fine leather and place them on a carrying-frame. <sup>13</sup> After removing the greasy ashes from the altar, they are to spread a purple cloth over it <sup>14</sup> and place on it all the utensils required for their altar service—the fire pans, meat-hooks, shovels,

basins and other utensils for the altar. Then they are to spread over it a fine leather covering and insert its carrying-poles.<sup>15</sup> When Aharon and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy utensils, when the camp is about to move forward, then the descendants of K'hat are to come and carry them. But they are not to touch the holy things, so that they won't die. These things are the responsibility of the descendants of K'hat in the tent of meeting.

<sup>16</sup> “El'azar the son of Aharon the cohen is to be responsible for the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continuing grain offering and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including the sanctuary and its furnishings.”

(Maftir) <sup>17</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>18</sup> “Do not cut off the clan of K'hat from among the L'vi'im; <sup>19</sup> rather, do this for them, so that they will live and not die: when they approach the especially holy things, Aharon and his sons are to go in — and you are to assign each one his task; <sup>20</sup> but the descendants of K'hat are not to go in and look at the holy things as they are being covered; if they do, they will die.”

Haftarah B'midbar: Hoshea (Hosea) 2:1(1:10)–2:22(20)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah B'midbar: Luke 2:1–7; 1 Corinthians 12:12–31

Parashah 35: Naso (Take) 4:21–7:89

<sup>21</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>22</sup> “Take a census of the descendants of Gershon also, by clans and families; <sup>23</sup> count all those between thirty and fifty years old, all who will enter the corps doing the work of serving in the tent of meeting.

<sup>24</sup> “The Gershon families are to be responsible for serving and for transporting loads. <sup>25</sup> They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, its covering, the fine leather covering above it, the screen for the entrance to the tent of meeting, <sup>26</sup> the tapestries for the courtyard, and the screen for the entrance to the courtyard by the tabernacle and around the altar, along with the ropes and all the utensils they need for their service; and they are to do the work connected with these things. <sup>27</sup> Aharon and his sons are to supervise all the work of the Gershon clan in transporting loads and serving, and to assign them who is to carry what. <sup>28</sup> This is how the Gershon families are to serve in the tent of meeting, and they are to be under the direction of Itamar the son of Aharon the cohen.

<sup>29</sup> “As for the descendants of M’rari, take a census by clans and families <sup>30</sup> of all those between thirty and fifty years old, all who will be in the corps doing the work of serving in the tent of meeting.

<sup>31</sup> “Their service for the tent of meeting will be to carry the frames, crossbars, posts and sockets of the tabernacle; <sup>32</sup> also the posts for the surrounding courtyard, with their sockets, tent pegs, ropes and other accessories, and everything having to do with their service. You are to assign particular loads to specific persons by name. <sup>33</sup> This is how the M’rari families are to serve in the tent of meeting, directed by Itamar the son of Aharon the cohen.”

(S: ii) <sup>34</sup> Moshe, Aharon and the community leaders took a census of the descendants of K’hat by their clans and families, <sup>35</sup> all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of the corps serving in the tent of meeting. <sup>36</sup> Registered by their families, they numbered 2,750. <sup>37</sup> These are the ones counted from the K’hat families of all those serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moshe and Aharon enumerated, in keeping with the order given by ADONAI through Moshe.

(A: ii) <sup>38</sup> The census of the descendants of Gershon, by their clans and families, <sup>39</sup> all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of the corps serving in the tent of meeting, <sup>40</sup> yielded 2,630, registered by their clans and families. <sup>41</sup> These are the ones counted from the families of the descendants of Gershon of all those serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moshe and Aharon enumerated, in keeping with the order given by ADONAI.

<sup>42</sup> The census of the families of the descendants of M’rari, by their clans and families, <sup>43</sup> all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of the corps serving in the tent of meeting, <sup>44</sup> yielded 3,200, registered by their families. <sup>45</sup> These are the ones counted from the families of the descendants of M’rari, whom Moshe and Aharon enumerated, in keeping with the order given by ADONAI through Moshe.

<sup>46</sup> The census of the L’vi’im, whom Moshe, Aharon and the leaders of Isra’el enumerated by their clans and families, <sup>47</sup> all those between thirty and fifty years old who were part of those working to serve and working to carry loads in the tent of meeting, <sup>48</sup> yielded a total of 8,580 persons.

<sup>49</sup> According to ADONAI's order they were appointed by Moshe, each one to his specific service or work. They were also enumerated, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

5 (iii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Order the people of Isra’el to expel from the camp everyone with tzara’at, everyone with a discharge and whoever is unclean because of touching a corpse. <sup>3</sup> Both male and female you must expel; put them outside the camp; so that they won’t defile their camp, where I live among you.” <sup>4</sup> The people of Isra’el did this and put them outside the camp — the people of Isra’el did what ADONAI had said to Moshe.

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>6</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘When a man or woman commits any kind of sin against another person and thus breaks faith with ADONAI, he incurs guilt. <sup>7</sup> He must confess the sin which he has committed; and he must make full restitution for his guilt, add twenty percent and give it to the victim of his sin. <sup>8</sup> But if the person has no relative to whom restitution can be made for the guilt, then what is given in restitution for guilt will belong to ADONAI, that is, to the cohen — in addition to the ram of atonement through which atonement is made for him.

<sup>9</sup> “‘Every contribution which the people of Isra’el consecrate and present to the cohen will belong to him. <sup>10</sup> Anything an individual consecrates will be his own [to allocate among the cohanim], but what a person gives to the cohen will belong to him.’”

(A: iv) <sup>11</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>12</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘If a man’s wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him; <sup>13</sup> that is, if another man goes to bed with her without her husband’s knowledge, so that she becomes impure secretly, and there is no witness against her, and she was not caught in the act; <sup>14</sup> then, if a spirit of jealousy comes over him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she has become impure — or, for that matter, if the spirit of jealousy comes over him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she has not become impure — <sup>15</sup> he is to bring his wife to the cohen, along with the offering for her, two quarts of barley flour on which he has not poured olive oil or put frankincense, because it is a grain offering for jealousy, a grain offering for remembering, for recalling guilt to mind. <sup>16</sup> The cohen will bring her forward and place her before ADONAI. <sup>17</sup> The cohen will put holy water in a clay pot, and then the cohen will take some of the dust on the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water. <sup>18</sup> The cohen will place the

woman before ADONAI, unbind the woman's hair and put the grain offering for remembering in her hands, the grain offering for jealousy; while the cohen has in his hand the water of embitterment and cursing. <sup>19</sup> The cohen will make her swear by saying to her, "If no man has gone to bed with you, if you have not gone astray to make yourself unclean while under your husband's authority, then be free from this water of embitterment and cursing. <sup>20</sup> But if you have in fact gone astray while under your husband's authority and become unclean, because some man other than your husband has gone to bed with you . . ." <sup>21</sup> then the cohen is to make the woman swear with an oath that includes a curse; the cohen will say to the woman, ". . .may ADONAI make you an object of cursing and condemnation among your people by making your private parts shrivel and your abdomen swell up! <sup>22</sup> May this water that causes the curse go into your inner parts and make your abdomen swell and your private parts shrivel up!" — and the woman is to respond, "Amen! Amen!" <sup>23</sup> The cohen is to write these curses on a scroll, wash them off into the water of embitterment <sup>24</sup> and make the woman drink the water of embitterment and cursing — the water of cursing will enter her and become bitter. <sup>25</sup> Then the cohen is to remove the grain offering for jealousy from the woman's hand, wave the grain offering before ADONAI and bring it to the altar. <sup>26</sup> The cohen is to take a handful of the grain offering as its reminder portion and make it go up in smoke on the altar; afterwards, he is to make the woman drink the water. <sup>27</sup> When he has made her drink the water, then, if she is unclean and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that causes the curse will enter her and become bitter, so that her abdomen swells and her private parts shrivel up; and the woman will become an object of cursing among her people. <sup>28</sup> But if the woman is not unclean but clean, then she will be innocent and will have children. <sup>29</sup> This is the law for jealousy: when either a wife under her husband's authority goes astray and becomes unclean, <sup>30</sup> or the spirit of jealousy comes over a husband and he becomes jealous of his wife, then he is to place the woman before ADONAI, and the cohen is to deal with her in accordance with all of this law. <sup>31</sup> The husband will be clear of guilt, but the wife will bear the consequences of her guilt."

6 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'When either a man or a woman makes a special kind of vow, the vow of a nazir, consecrating himself to ADONAI; <sup>3</sup> he is to abstain from wine and other intoxicating liquor, he is not to drink vinegar from either source, he is not to drink grape juice, and he is not to eat grapes or raisins. <sup>4</sup> As long as he remains a nazir he is to eat nothing derived from the grapevine, not even the grape-skins or the seeds.

<sup>5</sup> “Throughout the period of his vow as a nazir, he is not to shave his head. Until the end of the time for which he has consecrated himself to ADONAI he is to be holy: he is to let the hair on his head grow long.

<sup>6</sup> “Throughout the period for which he has consecrated himself to ADONAI, he is not to approach a corpse. <sup>7</sup> He is not to make himself unclean for his father, mother, brother or sister when they die, since his consecration to God is on his head. <sup>8</sup> Throughout the time of his being a nazir he is holy for ADONAI.

<sup>9</sup> “If someone next to him dies very suddenly, so that he defiles his consecrated head, then he is to shave his head on the day of his purification; he is to shave it on the seventh day. <sup>10</sup> On the eighth day he is to bring two doves or two young pigeons to the cohen at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>11</sup> The cohen is to prepare one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering and thus make atonement for him, inasmuch as he sinned because of the dead person. That same day he is to re-consecrate his head; <sup>12</sup> he is to consecrate to ADONAI the full period of his being a nazir by bringing a male lamb in its first year as a guilt offering. The previous days will not be counted, because his consecration became defiled.

<sup>13</sup> “This is the law for the nazir when his period of consecration is over: he is to be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting, <sup>14</sup> where he will present his offering to ADONAI — one male lamb in its first year without defect as a burnt offering, one female lamb in its first year without defect as a sin offering, one ram without defect as peace offerings, <sup>15</sup> a basket of matzah, loaves made of fine flour mixed with olive oil, unleavened wafers spread with olive oil, their grain offering and their drink offerings. <sup>16</sup> The cohen is to bring them before ADONAI, offer his sin offering, his burnt offering, <sup>17</sup> and his ram as a sacrifice of peace offerings to ADONAI, with the basket of matzah. The cohen will also offer the grain offering and drink offering that go with the peace offering. <sup>18</sup> The nazir will shave his consecrated head at the entrance to the tent of meeting, take the hair removed from his consecrated head and put it on the fire under the sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>19</sup> When the ram has been boiled, the cohen is to take its shoulder, one loaf of matzah from the basket and one unleavened wafer, and place them in the hands of the nazir, after he has shaved his consecrated head. <sup>20</sup> The cohen is to wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI; this is set aside for the cohen, along with the breast for waving and the raised-up thigh. Following that, the nazir may drink wine.

<sup>21</sup> ““This is the law for the nazir who makes a vow and for his offering to ADONAI for his being a nazir — in addition to anything more for which he has sufficient means. In keeping with whatever vow he makes, he must do it according to the law for the nazir.’”

<sup>22</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>23</sup> “Speak to Aharon and his sons, and tell them that this is how you are to bless the people of Isra’el: you are to say to them,

<sup>24</sup> Y’varekh’kha ADONAI v’yishmerekha.

[May ADONAI bless you and keep you.]

<sup>25</sup> Ya’er ADONAI panav eleikha vichunekka.

[May ADONAI make his face shine on you and show you his favor.]

<sup>26</sup> Yissa ADONAI panav eleikha v’yasem l’kha shalom.

[May ADONAI lift up his face toward you and give you peace.]’

<sup>27</sup> “In this way they are to put my name on the people of Isra’el, so that I will bless them.”

7 (A: v, S: iv) <sup>1</sup> On the day Moshe finished putting up the tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it, all its furnishings, and the altar with its utensils. After anointing and consecrating them, <sup>2</sup> the leaders of Isra’ el, who were heads of their father’s clans, made an offering. These were the tribal leaders in charge of those counted in the census. <sup>3</sup> They brought their offering before ADONAI, six covered wagons and twelve oxen—a wagon for every two leaders and for each an ox—and presented them in front of the tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>5</sup> “Receive these from them; they are to be used for the service in the tent of meeting. Give them to the L’vi’im, to each as needed for his duties.” <sup>6</sup> So Moshe took the wagons and oxen and gave them to the L’vi’im. <sup>7</sup> He gave two wagons and four oxen to the descendants of Gershon, in keeping with the needs of their duties. <sup>8</sup> Four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the descendants of M’rari, in keeping with the needs of their duties, directed by Itamar the son of Aharon the cohen. <sup>9</sup> But to the descendants of K’hat he gave none, because their duties involved the holy articles, which they carried on their own shoulders.

<sup>10</sup> The leaders brought the offering for dedicating the altar on the day it was anointed. The leaders brought their offering before the altar, <sup>11</sup> and ADONAI said to Moshe, “They are to present their offerings to dedicate the altar, each leader on his own day.”

(S: v) <sup>12</sup> Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav, from the tribe of Y’hudah, presented his offering on the first day. <sup>13</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>14</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>15</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>16</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>17</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav.

<sup>18</sup> On the second day N’tan’el the son of Tzu‘ar, leader of Yissakhar, presented his offering. <sup>19</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>20</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>21</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>22</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>23</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of N’tan’el the son of Tzu‘ar.

<sup>24</sup> On the third day Eli’av the son of Helon, leader of Z’vulun, presented his offering. <sup>25</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>26</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>27</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>28</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>29</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eli'av the son of Helon.

<sup>30</sup> On the fourth day was Elitzur the son of Sh'de'ur, leader of the descendants of Re'uven. <sup>31</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>32</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>33</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>34</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>35</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elitzur the son of Sh'de'ur.

<sup>36</sup> On the fifth day was Shlumi'el the son of Tzurishaddai, leader of the descendants of Shim'on. <sup>37</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>38</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>39</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>40</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>41</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Shlumi'el the son of Tzurishaddai.

(vi) <sup>42</sup> On the sixth day was Elyasaf the son of De'u'el, leader of the descendants of Gad. <sup>43</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>44</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>45</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>46</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>47</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elyasaf the son of De'u'el.

<sup>48</sup> On the seventh day was Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud, leader of the descendants of Efrayim. <sup>49</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>50</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>51</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>52</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>53</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elishama the son of ‘Ammihud.

<sup>54</sup> On the eighth day was Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur, leader of the descendants of M’nasheh. <sup>55</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>56</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>57</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>58</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>59</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Gamli’el the son of P’dahtzur.

<sup>60</sup> On the ninth day was Avidan the son of Gid’oni, leader of the descendants of Binyamin. <sup>61</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>62</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>63</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>64</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>65</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Avidan the son of Gid’oni.

<sup>66</sup> On the tenth day was Achi’ezer the son of ‘Ammishaddai, leader of the descendants of Dan. <sup>67</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>68</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>69</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>70</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>71</sup>

and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Achi'ezer the son of 'Ammishaddai.

(vii) <sup>72</sup> On the eleventh day was Pag'i'el the son of 'Okhran, leader of the descendants of Asher. <sup>73</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>74</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>75</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>76</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>77</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Pag'i'el the son of 'Okhran.

<sup>78</sup> On the twelfth day was Achira the son of 'Enan, leader of the descendants of Naftali. <sup>79</sup> He offered one silver dish weighing 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and one silver basin of seventy shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-and-three-quarters pounds], both full of fine flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering; <sup>80</sup> one gold pan of ten shekels [one-quarter pound], full of incense; <sup>81</sup> one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering, <sup>82</sup> one male goat as a sin offering, <sup>83</sup> and, for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Achira the son of 'Enan.

<sup>84</sup> This was the offering for dedicating the altar which was given by the leaders of Isra'el on the day of its anointing: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver basins and twelve gold pans. <sup>85</sup> Each silver dish weighed 130 shekels [three-and-a-quarter pounds] and each basin seventy shekels [one-and-three-quarters pounds]; all the silver of the vessels weighed 2,400 shekels (using the sanctuary shekel) [just over sixty pounds]. <sup>86</sup> The twelve gold pans, full of incense, weighed ten shekels apiece (using the sanctuary shekel) [one-quarter pound]; all the gold of the pans weighed 120 shekels [three pounds]. (Maftir) <sup>87</sup> The livestock for the burnt offering consisted of twelve bulls, twelve rams and twelve male lambs in their first year, with their grain offering. There were twelve male goats for a sin offering. <sup>88</sup> The livestock for the sacrifice of peace offerings consisted of twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats and sixty male lambs in their first year. This was the offering for dedicating the altar after it had been anointed.

<sup>89</sup> When Moshe went into the tent of meeting in order to speak with ADONAI, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the ark-cover on the ark for the testimony, from between the two k'ruvim; and he spoke to him.

Haftarah Naso: Shof'tim (Judges) 13:2–25

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Naso: Yochanan (John) 7:53–8:11; Acts 21:17–32

Parashah 36: B'ha'alotkha (When you set up) 8:1–12:16

8 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell Aharon, ‘When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps are to cast their light forward, in front of the menorah.’” <sup>3</sup> Aharon did this: he lit its lamps so as to give light in front of the menorah, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. <sup>4</sup> Here is how the menorah was made: it was hammered gold from its base to its flowers, hammered work, following the pattern ADONAI had shown Moshe. This is how he made the menorah.

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>6</sup> “Take the L'vi'im from among the people of Isra'el and cleanse them. <sup>7</sup> Here is how you are to cleanse them: sprinkle the purification water on them, have them shave their whole body with a razor, and have them wash their clothes and cleanse themselves. <sup>8</sup> Then they are to take a young bull with its grain offering, which is to be fine flour mixed with olive oil; while you take another bull for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup> You are to present the L'vi'im in front of the tent of meeting, and assemble the entire community of the people of Isra'el.<sup>10</sup> You will present the L'vi'im before ADONAI, the people of Isra'el will lay their hands on the L'vi'im, <sup>11</sup> and Aharon will offer the L'vi'im before ADONAI as a wave offering from the people of Isra'el, so that they may do ADONAI's service. <sup>12</sup> The L'vi'im will lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; the one you will offer as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to ADONAI to make atonement for the L'vi'im. <sup>13</sup> You are to place the L'vi'im before Aharon and his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to ADONAI. <sup>14</sup> In this way you will separate the L'vi'im from the people of Isra'el, and the L'vi'im will belong to me.

(ii) <sup>15</sup> “After that, the L'vi'im will enter and do the service of the tent of meeting. You will cleanse them and offer them as a wave offering, <sup>16</sup>

because they are entirely given to me from among the people of Isra'el; I have taken them for myself in place of all those who come first out of the womb, that is, the firstborn males of the people of Isra'el. <sup>17</sup> For all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el are mine, both humans and animals; on the day I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I set them apart for myself. <sup>18</sup> But I have taken the L'vi'im in place of all the firstborn among the people of Isra'el, <sup>19</sup> and I have given the L'vi'im to Aharon and his sons from among the people of Isra'el to do the service of the people of Isra'el in the tent of meeting and to make atonement for the people of Isra'el, so that no plague will fall on the people of Isra'el in consequence of their coming too close to the sanctuary."

<sup>20</sup> This is what Moshe, Aharon and all the community of the people of Isra'el did to the L'vi'im. The people of Isra'el acted in accordance with everything that ADONAI had ordered Moshe in regard to the L'vi'im. <sup>21</sup> The L'vi'im purified themselves and washed their clothes. Then Aharon offered them as a holy gift before ADONAI and made atonement for them in order to cleanse them. <sup>22</sup> After that, the L'vi'im came to do their service in the tent of meeting in front of Aharon and his sons; they acted in accordance with ADONAI's orders to Moshe in regard to the L'vi'im.

<sup>23</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>24</sup> "Here are instructions concerning the L'vi'im: when they reach the age of twenty-five, they are to begin performing their duties serving in the tent of meeting; <sup>25</sup> and when they reach the age of fifty, they are to stop performing this work and not serve any longer. <sup>26</sup> They will assist their brothers who are performing their duties in the tent of meeting, but they themselves will not do any of the work. This is what you are to do with the L'vi'im in regard to their duties."

9 (iii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the Sinai Desert in the first month of the second year after they had left the land of Egypt; he said, <sup>2</sup> "Let the people of Isra'el observe Pesach at its designated time. <sup>3</sup> On the fourteenth day of this month, at dusk, you are to observe it — at its designated time. You are to observe it according to all its regulations and rules." <sup>4</sup> Moshe told the people of Isra'el to observe Pesach. <sup>5</sup> So they observed Pesach at dusk on the fourteenth day of the month in the Sinai Desert; the people of Isra'el acted in accordance with all that ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>6</sup> But there were certain people who had become unclean because of someone's corpse, so that they could not observe Pesach on that day. So they came before Moshe and Aharon that day <sup>7</sup> and said to him, "We are unclean because of someone's corpse; but why must we be kept from bringing the offering for ADONAI at the time designated for the people of Isra'el?" <sup>8</sup> Moshe answered them, "Wait, so that I can hear what ADONAI will order concerning you." <sup>9</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe,<sup>10</sup> "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'If any of you now or in future generations is unclean because of a corpse, or if he is on a trip abroad, nevertheless he is to observe Pesach. <sup>11</sup> But he will observe it in the second month on the fourteenth day at dusk. They are to eat it with matzah and maror, <sup>12</sup> they are to leave none of it until morning, and they are not to break any of its bones — they are to observe it according to all the regulations of Pesach. <sup>13</sup> But the person who is clean and not on a trip who fails to observe Pesach will be cut off from his people; because he did not bring the offering for ADONAI at its designated time, that person will bear the consequences of his sin. <sup>14</sup> If a foreigner is staying with you and wants to observe Pesach for ADONAI, he is to do it according to the regulations and rules of Pesach — you are to have the same law for the foreigner as for the citizen of the land.'"

(iv) <sup>15</sup> On the day the tabernacle was put up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, that is, the tent of the testimony; and in the evening, over the tabernacle was what appeared to be fire, which remained until morning. <sup>16</sup> So the cloud always covered it, and it looked like fire at night. <sup>17</sup> Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tent, the people of Isra'el continued their travels; and they camped wherever the cloud stopped. <sup>18</sup> At the order of ADONAI, the people of Isra'el traveled; at the order of ADONAI, they camped; and as long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they stayed in camp. <sup>19</sup> Even when the cloud remained on the tabernacle for a long time, the people of Isra'el did what ADONAI had charged them to do and did not travel. <sup>20</sup> Sometimes the cloud was a few days over the tabernacle; according to ADONAI's order, they remained in camp; and according to ADONAI's order, they traveled. <sup>21</sup> Sometimes the cloud was there only from evening until morning; so that when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled. Or even if it continued up both day and night, when the cloud was up, they traveled. <sup>22</sup> Whether it was two days, a month or a year that the cloud remained over the tabernacle, staying on it, the people of Isra'el remained in camp and did not travel; but as soon as it was taken up, they traveled. <sup>23</sup> At ADONAI's order, they camped; and at ADONAI's order, they traveled — they did what ADONAI had charged them to do through Moshe.

10 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Make two trumpets; make them of hammered silver. Use them for summoning the community and for sounding the call to break camp and move on. <sup>3</sup> When they are sounded, the entire community is to assemble before you at the entrance to the tent of meeting. <sup>4</sup> If only one is sounded, then just the leaders, the heads of the clans of Isra’el, are to assemble before you.

<sup>5</sup> “When you sound an alarm, the camps to the east will commence traveling. <sup>6</sup> When you sound a second alarm, the camps to the south will set out; they will sound alarms to announce when to travel. <sup>7</sup> However, when the community is to be assembled, you are to sound; but don’t sound an alarm. <sup>8</sup> It will be the sons of Aharon, the cohanim, who are to sound the trumpets; this will be a permanent regulation for you through all your generations.

<sup>9</sup> “When you go to war in your land against an adversary who is oppressing you, you are to sound an alarm with the trumpets; then you will be remembered before ADONAI your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

<sup>10</sup> “Also on your days of rejoicing, at your designated times and on Rosh-Hodesh, you are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; these will be your reminder before your God. I am ADONAI your God.”

(v) <sup>11</sup> On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony; <sup>12</sup> and the people of Isra’el moved out in stages from the Sinai Desert. The cloud stopped in the Pa’ran Desert.

<sup>13</sup> So they set out on their first journey, in keeping with ADONAI's order through Moshe. <sup>14</sup> In the lead was the banner of the camp of the descendants of Y’hudah, whose companies moved forward; over his company was Nachshon the son of ‘Amminadav. <sup>15</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of Yissakhar was N’tan’el the son of Tzu’ar. <sup>16</sup> Over the company of the descendants of Z’vulun was Eli’av the son of Helon.

<sup>17</sup> Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the descendants of Gershon and the descendants of M’rari set out, carrying the tabernacle.

<sup>18</sup> Next, the banner of the camp of Re'uven moved forward by companies; over his company was Elitzur the son of Sh'de'ur. <sup>19</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of Shim'on was Shlumi'el the son of Tzurishaddai. <sup>20</sup> Over the company of the descendants of Gad was Elyasaf the son of De'u'el.

<sup>21</sup> Then the descendants of K'hat set out, carrying the sanctuary, so that [at the next camp] the tabernacle could be set up before they arrived.

<sup>22</sup> The banner of the camp of the descendants of Efrayim moved forward by companies; over his company was Elishama the son of 'Ammihud. <sup>23</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of M'nasheh was Gamli'el the son of P'dahtzur. <sup>24</sup> Over the company of the descendants of Binyamin was Avidan the son of Gid'oni.

<sup>25</sup> The banner of the camp of the descendants of Dan, forming the rearguard for all the camps, moved forward by companies; over his company was Achi'ezer the son of 'Ammishaddai. <sup>26</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the descendants of Asher was Pag'i'el the son of 'Okhran. <sup>27</sup> Over the company of the descendants of Naftali was Achira the son of 'Enan.

<sup>28</sup> This is how the people of Isra'el traveled by companies; thus they moved forward.

(S: vi) <sup>29</sup> Moshe said to Hovav the son of Re'u'el the Midyani, Moshe's father-in-law, "We are traveling to the place about which ADONAI said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well, because ADONAI has promised good things to Isra'el." <sup>30</sup> But he replied, "I will not go; I would rather go back to my own country and my own kinsmen." <sup>31</sup> Moshe continued, "Please don't leave us, because you know that we have to camp in the desert, and you can serve as our eyes. <sup>32</sup> If you do go with us, then whatever good ADONAI does for us, we will do the same for you."

<sup>33</sup> So they set out from ADONAI's mountain and traveled for three days. Ahead of them on this three-day journey went the ark of ADONAI's covenant, searching for a new place to stop. <sup>34</sup> The cloud of ADONAI was over them during the day as they set out from the camp. (A: vi) <sup>35</sup> When the ark moved forward, Moshe said,

"Arise, ADONAI! May your enemies be scattered!
Let those who hate you flee before you!"

<sup>36</sup> When it stopped, he said,

“Return, ADONAI of the many, many thousands of Isra’el!”

11 <sup>1</sup> But the people began complaining about their hardships to ADONAI. When ADONAI heard it, his anger flared up, so that fire from ADONAI broke out against them and consumed the outskirts of the camp. <sup>2</sup> Then the people cried to Moshe, Moshe prayed to ADONAI, and the fire abated. <sup>3</sup> That place was called Tav’erah [burning] because ADONAI’s fire broke out against them.

<sup>4</sup> Next, the mixed crowd that was with them grew greedy for an easier life; while the people of Isra’el, for their part, also renewed their weeping and said, “If only we had meat to eat! <sup>5</sup> We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt — it cost us nothing! — and the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, the garlic! <sup>6</sup> But now we’re withering away, we have nothing to look at but this man.”

<sup>7</sup> The man, by the way, was like coriander seed and white like gum resin. <sup>8</sup> The people would go around gathering it and would grind it up in mills or pound it to paste with mortar and pestle. Then they would cook it in pots and make it into loaves that tasted like cakes baked with olive oil. <sup>9</sup> When the dew settled on the camp during the night, the man came with it.

<sup>10</sup> Moshe heard the people crying, family after family, each person at the entrance to his tent; the anger of ADONAI flared up violently; and Moshe too was displeased. <sup>11</sup> Moshe asked ADONAI, “Why are you treating your servant so badly? Why haven’t I found favor in your sight, so that you put the burden of this entire people on me? <sup>12</sup> Did I conceive this people? Was I their father, so that you tell me, ‘Carry them in your arms, like a nurse carrying a baby, to the land you swore to their ancestors?’ <sup>13</sup> Where am I going to get meat to give to this entire people? — because they keep bothering me with their crying and saying, ‘Give us meat to eat!’ <sup>14</sup> I can’t carry this entire people by myself alone — it’s too much for me! <sup>15</sup> If you are going to treat me this way, then just kill me outright! — please, if you have any mercy toward me! — and don’t let me go on being this miserable!”

<sup>16</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Bring me seventy of the leaders of Isra’el, people you recognize as leaders of the people and officers of theirs. Bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them stand there with you. <sup>17</sup> I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take some of the Spirit which rests on you and put it on them. Then they will carry the burden of the people along with you, so that you won't carry it yourself alone.

<sup>18</sup> "Tell the people, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you will eat meat; because you cried in the ears of ADONAI, 'If only we had meat to eat! We had the good life in Egypt!'" All right, ADONAI is going to give you meat, and you will eat it. <sup>19</sup> You won't eat it just one day, or two days, or five, or ten, or twenty days, <sup>20</sup> but a whole month! — until it comes out of your nose and you hate it! — because you have rejected ADONAI, who is here with you, and distressed him with your crying and asking, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?"'"

<sup>21</sup> But Moshe said, "Here I am with six hundred thousand men on foot, and yet you say, 'I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!'" <sup>22</sup> If whole flocks and herds were slaughtered for them, would it be enough? If all the fish in the sea were collected for them, would even that be enough?"

<sup>23</sup> ADONAI answered Moshe, "Has ADONAI's arm grown short? Now you will see whether what I said will happen or not!"

<sup>24</sup> Moshe went out and told the people what ADONAI had said. Then he collected seventy of the leaders of the people and placed them all around the tent. <sup>25</sup> ADONAI came down in the cloud, spoke to him, took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy leaders. When the Spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied — then but not afterwards.

<sup>26</sup> There were two men who stayed in the camp, one named Eldad and the other Medad, and the Spirit came to rest on them. They were among those listed to go out to the tent, but they hadn't done so, and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup> A young man ran and told Moshe, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!" <sup>28</sup> Y'hoshua, the son of Nun, who from his youth up had been Moshe's assistant, answered, "My lord, Moshe, stop them!" <sup>29</sup> But Moshe replied, "Are you so zealous to {protect me? I wish all of ADONAI's people were prophets! I wish ADONAI would put his Spirit on all of them!"

(vii) <sup>30</sup> Moshe and the leaders of Isra'el went back into the camp; <sup>31</sup> and ADONAI sent out a wind which brought quails from across the sea and let them fall near the camp, about a day's trip away on each side of the camp and all around it, covering the ground to a depth of three feet. <sup>32</sup> The people stayed up all that day, all night and all the next day gathering the quails —

the person gathering the least collected ten heaps; then they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. <sup>33</sup> But while the meat was still in their mouth, before they had chewed it up, the anger of ADONAI flared up against the people, and ADONAI struck the people with a terrible plague. <sup>34</sup> Therefore that place was named Kivrot-HaTa'avah [graves of greed], because there they buried the people who were so greedy.

<sup>35</sup> From Kivrot-HaTa'avah the people traveled to Hatzerot, and they stayed at Hatzerot.

12 <sup>1</sup> Miryam and Aharon began criticizing Moshe on account of the Ethiopian woman he had married, for he had in fact married an Ethiopian woman. <sup>2</sup> They said, "Is it true that ADONAI has spoken only with Moshe? Hasn't he spoken with us too?" ADONAI heard them. <sup>3</sup> Now this man Moshe was very humble, more so than anyone on earth. <sup>4</sup> Suddenly ADONAI told Moshe, Aharon and Miryam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting." The three of them went out.

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI came down in a column of cloud and stood at the entrance to the tent. He summoned Aharon and Miryam, and they both went forward. <sup>6</sup> He said, "Listen to what I say: when there is a prophet among you, I, ADONAI, make myself known to him in a vision, I speak with him in a dream. <sup>7</sup> But it isn't that way with my servant Moshe. He is the only one who is faithful in my entire household. <sup>8</sup> With him I speak face to face and clearly, not in riddles; he sees the image of ADONAI. So why weren't you afraid to criticize my servant Moshe?" <sup>9</sup> The anger of ADONAI flared up against them, and he left.

<sup>10</sup> But when the cloud was removed from above the tent, Miryam had tzara'at, as white as snow. Aharon looked at Miryam, and she was as white as snow. <sup>11</sup> Aharon said to Moshe, "Oh, my lord, please don't punish us for this sin we committed so foolishly. <sup>12</sup> Please don't let her be like a stillborn baby, with its body half eaten away when it comes out of its mother's womb!" <sup>13</sup> Moshe cried to ADONAI, "Oh God, I beg you, please, heal her!" (Maftir) <sup>14</sup> ADONAI answered Moshe, "If her father had merely spit in her face, wouldn't she hide herself in shame for seven days? So let her be shut out of the camp for seven days; after that, she can be brought back in." <sup>15</sup> Miryam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not travel until she was brought back in. <sup>16</sup> Afterwards, the people went on from Hatzerot and camped in the Pa'ran Desert.

Haftarah B'ha'alotkha: Z'kharyah (Zechariah) 2:14–4:7

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah B'ha'alotkha:
Yochanan (John) 19:31–37; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 3:1–6

Parashah 37: Shlach L'kha (Send on your behalf) 13:1–15:41

13 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Send men on your behalf to reconnoiter the land of Kena'an, which I am giving to the people of Isra'el. From each ancestral tribe send someone who is a leader in his tribe.” <sup>3</sup> Moshe dispatched them from the Pa'ran Desert as ADONAI had ordered; all of them were leading men among the people of Isra'el. <sup>4</sup> Here are their names:

from the tribe of Re'uven, Shamua the son of Zakur;

<sup>5</sup> from the tribe of Shim'on, Shafat the son of Hori;

<sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Y'hudah, Kalev the son of Y'funeh;

<sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Yissakhar, Yig'al the son of Yosef;

<sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Efrayim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

<sup>9</sup> from the tribe of Binyamin, Palti the son of Rafu;

<sup>10</sup> from the tribe of Z'vulun, Gadi'el the son of Sodi;

<sup>11</sup> from the tribe of Yosef, that is, from the tribe of M'nasheh, Gadi the son of Susi;

<sup>12</sup> from the tribe of Dan, 'Ammi'el the son of G'malli;

<sup>13</sup> from the tribe of Asher, S'tur the son of Mikha'el;

<sup>14</sup> from the tribe of Naftali, Nachbi the son of Vofsi; and

<sup>15</sup> from the tribe of Gad, Ge'u'el the son of Makhi.

<sup>16</sup> These are the names of the men Moshe sent out to reconnoiter the land. Moshe gave to Hoshea the son of Nun the name Y'hoshua.

<sup>17</sup> Moshe sent them to reconnoiter the land of Kena'an, instructing them, "Go on up to the Negev and into the hills, <sup>18</sup> and see what the land is like. Notice the people living there, whether they are strong or weak, few or many; <sup>19</sup> and what kind of country they live in, whether it is good or bad; and what kind of cities they live in, open or fortified. <sup>20</sup> See whether the land is fertile or unproductive and whether there is wood in it or not. Finally, be bold enough to bring back some of the fruit of the land."

When they left it was the season for the first grapes to ripen. (ii) <sup>21</sup> They went up and reconnoitered the land from the Tzin Desert to Rechov near the entrance to Hamat. <sup>22</sup> They went up into the Negev and arrived at Hevron; Achiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the 'Anakim, lived there. (Hevron was built seven years before Tzo'an in Egypt.) <sup>23</sup> They came to the Eshkol Valley; and there they cut off a branch bearing one cluster of grapes, which they carried on a pole between two of them; they also took pomegranates and figs. <sup>24</sup> That place was called the Valley of Eshkol [cluster], because of the cluster which the people of Isra'el cut down there.

<sup>25</sup> Forty days later, they returned from reconnoitering the land <sup>26</sup> and went to Moshe, Aharon and the entire community of the people of Isra'el at Kadesh in the Pa'ran Desert, where they brought back word to them and to the entire community and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup> What they told him was this: "We entered the land where you sent us, and indeed it does flow with milk and honey — here is its fruit! <sup>28</sup> However the people living in the land are fierce, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the 'Anakim there. <sup>29</sup> 'Amalek lives in the area of the Negev; the Hitti, the Y'vusi and the Emori live in the hills; and the Kena'ani live by the sea and alongside the Yarden."

<sup>30</sup> Kalev silenced the people around Moshe and said, "We ought to go up immediately and take possession of it; there is no question that we can conquer it." <sup>31</sup> But the men who had gone with him said, "We can't attack those people, because they are stronger than we are"; <sup>32</sup> and they spread a negative report about the land they had reconnoitered for the people of Isra'el by saying, "The land we passed through in order to spy it out is a land that devours its inhabitants. All the people we saw there were giant! <sup>33</sup> We saw the N'filim, the descendants of 'Anak, who was from the N'filim; to ourselves we looked like grasshoppers by comparison, and we looked that way to them too!”

14 <sup>1</sup> At this all the people of Isra’el cried out in dismay and wept all night long. <sup>2</sup> Moreover, all the people of Isra’el began grumbling against Moshe and Aharon; the whole community told them, “We wish we had died in the land of Egypt! or that we had died here in the desert! <sup>3</sup> Why is ADONAI bringing us to this land, where we will die by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will be taken as booty! Wouldn’t it be better for us to return to Egypt?” <sup>4</sup> And they said to each other, “Let’s appoint a leader and return to Egypt!”

<sup>5</sup> Moshe and Aharon fell on their faces before the entire assembled community of the people of Isra’el. <sup>6</sup> Y’hoshua the son of Nun and Kalev the son of Y’funeh, from the detachment that had reconnoitered the land, tore their clothes <sup>7</sup> and said to the whole community of Isra’el, “The land we passed through in order to spy it out is an outstandingly good land! (iii) <sup>8</sup> If ADONAI is pleased with us, then he will bring us into this land and give it to us — a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup> Just don’t rebel against ADONAI. And don’t be afraid of the people living in the land — we’ll eat them up! Their defense has been taken away from them, and ADONAI is with us! Don’t be afraid of them!”

<sup>10</sup> But just as the whole community were saying they should be stoned to death, the glory of ADONAI appeared in the tent of meeting to all the people of Isra’el. <sup>11</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “How much longer is this people going to treat me with contempt? How much longer will they not trust me, especially considering all the signs I have performed among them? <sup>12</sup> I am going to strike them with sickness, destroy them and make from you a nation greater and stronger than they are!”

<sup>13</sup> However, Moshe replied to ADONAI, “When the Egyptians hear about this — [and they will,] because it was from among them that you, by your strength, brought this people up — <sup>14</sup> they will tell the people living in this land. They have heard that you, ADONAI, are with this people; that you, ADONAI, are seen face to face; that your cloud stands over them; that you go ahead of them in a column of cloud by day and a column of fire by night. <sup>15</sup> If you kill off this people at a single stroke, then the nations that have heard of your reputation will say <sup>16</sup> that the reason ADONAI slaughtered this people in the desert is that he wasn't able to bring them into the land which he swore to give them. <sup>17</sup> So now, please, let Adonai's power be as great as when you said, <sup>18</sup> 'ADONAI is slow to anger, rich in grace, forgiving offenses and crimes; yet not exonerating the guilty, but causing the negative effects of the parents' offenses to be experienced by their children and even by the third and fourth generations.' <sup>19</sup> Please! Forgive the offense of this people according to the greatness of your grace, just as you have borne with this people from Egypt until now."

<sup>20</sup> ADONAI answered, "I have forgiven, as you have asked. <sup>21</sup> But as sure as I live, and that the whole earth is filled with the glory of ADONAI, <sup>22</sup> none of the people who saw my glory and the signs I did in Egypt and in the desert, yet tested me these ten times and did not listen to my voice, <sup>23</sup> will see the land I swore to their ancestors! None of those who treated me with contempt will see it. <sup>24</sup> But my servant Kalev, because he had a different Spirit with him and has fully followed me — him I will bring into the land he entered, and it will belong to his descendants.

<sup>25</sup> "Now, since the 'Amaleki and the Kena'ani are living in the valley, tomorrow turn around and get yourselves into the desert along the way to the Sea of Suf."

(iv) <sup>26</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>27</sup> "How long am I to put up with this evil community who keep grumbling about me? I have heard the complaints of the people of Isra'el, which they continue to raise against me. <sup>28</sup> Tell them this: 'As surely as I live, ADONAI swears, as surely as you have spoken in my ears, I will do this to you: <sup>29</sup> your carcasses will fall in this desert! Every single one of you who were included in the census over the age of twenty, you who have complained against me, <sup>30</sup> will certainly not enter the land about which I raised my hand to swear that I would have you live in it — except for Kalev the son of Y'funeh and Y'hoshua the son of Nun. <sup>31</sup> But your little ones, who you said would be taken as booty — them I will bring in. They will know the land you have rejected. <sup>32</sup> But you, your carcasses will fall in this desert; <sup>33</sup> and your children will wander about in the desert for forty years bearing the consequences of your prostitutions until the desert eats up your carcasses. <sup>34</sup> It will be a year for every day you spent reconnoitering the land that you will bear the consequences of your offenses — forty days, forty years. Then you will know what it means to oppose me! <sup>35</sup> I, ADONAI, have spoken.' I will certainly do this to this whole evil community who have assembled together against me — they will be destroyed in this desert and die there.”

<sup>36</sup> The men whom Moshe had sent to reconnoiter the land and who, when they returned, made the entire community complain against him by giving an unfavorable report about the land — <sup>37</sup> those men who gave the unfavorable report about the land died by the plague in the presence of ADONAI. <sup>38</sup> Of the men who went to reconnoiter the land, only Y’hoshua the son of Nun and Kalev the son of Y’funeh remained alive.

<sup>39</sup> When Moshe told these things to all the people of Isra’el, the people felt great remorse. <sup>40</sup> They arose early the next morning, came up to the top of the mountain and said, “Here we are, and we did sin, but now we’ll go up to the place ADONAI promised.” <sup>41</sup> Moshe answered, “Why are you opposing what ADONAI said? You won’t succeed! <sup>42</sup> Don’t go up there, because ADONAI isn’t with you. If you do, your enemies will defeat you. <sup>43</sup> The ‘Amalekim and the Kena‘anim are there ahead of you, and you will be struck down by the sword. The reason will be that you have turned away from following ADONAI, so that ADONAI won’t be with you.”

<sup>44</sup> But they were presumptuous and went on up toward the high parts of the hill-country, even though the ark for the covenant of ADONAI — and Moshe — stayed in the camp. <sup>45</sup> So the ‘Amalekim and the Kena‘anim living in that hill-country descended, struck them down and beat them back all the way to Hormah.

15 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘When you have come into the land where you are going to live, which I am giving to you, <sup>3</sup> and want to make an offering by fire to ADONAI — a burnt offering or sacrifice to fulfill a special vow, or to be a voluntary offering, or at your designated times, to make a fragrant aroma for ADONAI — then, whether it comes from the herd or from the flock, <sup>4</sup> the person bringing the offering is to present ADONAI with a grain offering consisting of two quarts of fine flour mixed with one quart of olive oil, <sup>5</sup> and one quart of wine for the drink offering. This is what you are to prepare with the burnt offering or for each lamb sacrificed.

<sup>6</sup> “‘For a ram, prepare one gallon of fine flour mixed with one-and-one-third quarts of olive oil; <sup>7</sup> while for the drink offering, you are to present one-and-one-third quarts of wine as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

(v) <sup>8</sup> “When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering, as a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow or as peace offerings for ADONAI, <sup>9</sup> there is to be presented with the bull a grain offering of one-and-a-half gallons of fine flour mixed with two quarts of olive oil.<sup>10</sup> For the drink offering, present two quarts of wine for an offering made by fire, a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

<sup>11</sup> “Do it this way for each bull, ram, male lamb or kid. <sup>12</sup> For as many animals as you prepare, do this for each one, regardless of how many animals there are.

<sup>13</sup> “Every citizen is to do these things in this way when presenting an offering made by fire as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>14</sup> If a foreigner stays with you — or whoever may be with you, through all your generations — and he wants to bring an offering made by fire as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI, he is to do the same as you. <sup>15</sup> For this community there will be the same law for you as for the foreigner living with you; this is a permanent regulation through all your generations; the foreigner is to be treated the same way before ADONAI as yourselves. <sup>16</sup> The same Torah and standard of judgment will apply to both you and the foreigner living with you.”

(vi) <sup>17</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>18</sup> “Speak to the people of Isra’el; tell them, ‘When you enter the land where I am bringing you <sup>19</sup> and eat bread produced in the land, you are to set aside a portion as a gift for ADONAI. <sup>20</sup> Set aside from your first dough a cake as a gift; set it aside as you would set aside a portion of the grain from the threshing-floor. <sup>21</sup> From your first dough you will give ADONAI a portion as a gift through all your generations.

<sup>22</sup> “If by mistake you fail to observe all these mitzvot that ADONAI has spoken to Moshe, <sup>23</sup> yes, everything that ADONAI has ordered you to do through Moshe, from the day ADONAI gave the order and onward through all your generations, <sup>24</sup> then, if it was done by mistake by the community and was not known to them, the whole community is to offer one young bull for a burnt offering as a fragrant aroma to ADONAI, with its grain and drink offerings, in keeping with the rule, and one male goat as a sin offering. <sup>25</sup> The cohen is to make atonement for the whole community of the people of Isra’el; and they will be forgiven; because it was a mistake; and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire, to ADONAI, and their sin offering before ADONAI for their mistake. <sup>26</sup> The whole community of the people of Isra’el will be forgiven, likewise the foreigner staying with them; because for all the people it was a mistake.

(vii) <sup>27</sup> “If an individual sins by mistake, he is to offer a female goat in its first year as a sin offering. <sup>28</sup> The cohen will make atonement before ADONAI for the person who makes a mistake by sinning inadvertently; he will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven — <sup>29</sup> no matter whether he is a citizen of Isra’el or a foreigner living with them. You are to have one law for whoever it is that does something wrong by mistake.

<sup>30</sup> “But an individual who does something wrong intentionally, whether a citizen or a foreigner, is blaspheming ADONAI. That person will be cut off from his people. <sup>31</sup> Because he has had contempt for the word of ADONAI and has disobeyed his command, that person will be cut off completely; his offense will remain with him.”

<sup>32</sup> While the people of Isra’el were in the desert, they found a man gathering wood on Shabbat. <sup>33</sup> Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moshe, Aharon and the whole congregation. <sup>34</sup> They kept him in custody, because it had not yet been decided what to do to him. <sup>35</sup> Then ADONAI said to Moshe, “This man must be put to death; the entire community is to stone him to death outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup> So the whole community brought him outside the camp and threw stones at him until he died, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(Maftir) <sup>37</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>38</sup> “Speak to the people of Isra’el, instructing them to make, through all their generations, tzitziyot on the corners of their garments, and to put with the tzitzit on each corner a blue thread. <sup>39</sup> It is to be a tzitzit for you to look at and thereby remember all of ADONAI’s mitzvot and obey them, so that you won’t go around wherever your own heart and eyes lead you to prostitute yourselves; <sup>40</sup> but it will help you remember and obey all my mitzvot and be holy for your God. <sup>41</sup> I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to be your God. I am ADONAI your God.”

Haftarah Shlach L’kha: Y’hoshua (Joshua) 2:1–24

B’rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Shlach L’kha: Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 3:7–19

Parashah 38: Korach (Korah) 16:1–18:32

16 <sup>1</sup> Now Korach the son of Yitz'har, the son of K'hat, the son of Levi, along with Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av, and On, the son of Pelet, descendants of Re'uven, took men and <sup>2</sup> rebelled against Moshe. Siding with them were 250 men of Isra'el, leaders of the community, key members of the council, men of reputation. <sup>3</sup> They assembled themselves against Moshe and Aharon and said to them, "You take too much on yourselves! After all, the entire community is holy, every one of them, and ADONAI is among them. So why do you lift yourselves up above ADONAI's assembly?"

<sup>4</sup> When Moshe heard this he fell on his face. <sup>5</sup> Then he said to Korach and his whole group, "In the morning, ADONAI will show who are his and who is the holy person he will allow to approach him. Yes, he will bring whomever he chooses near to himself. <sup>6</sup> Do this: take censers, Korach and all your group; <sup>7</sup> put fire in them; and put incense in them before ADONAI tomorrow. The one whom ADONAI chooses will be the one who is holy! It is you, you sons of Levi, who are taking too much on yourselves!"

<sup>8</sup> Then Moshe said to Korach, "Listen here, you sons of Levi! <sup>9</sup> Is it for you a mere trifle that the God of Isra'el has separated you from the community of Isra'el to bring you close to himself, so that you can do the work in the tabernacle of ADONAI and stand before the community serving them? <sup>10</sup> He has brought you close and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you. Now you want the office of cohen too! <sup>11</sup> That's why you and your group have gathered together against ADONAI! After all, what is Aharon that you complain against him?"

<sup>12</sup> Then Moshe sent to summon Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av. But they replied, "We won't come up! <sup>13</sup> Is it such a mere trifle, bringing us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the desert, that now you arrogate to yourself the role of dictator over us? (ii) <sup>14</sup> You haven't at all brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, and you haven't put us in possession of fields and vineyards. Do you think you can gouge out these men's eyes and blind them? We won't come up!"

<sup>15</sup> Moshe was very angry and said to ADONAI, "Don't accept their grain offering! I haven't taken one donkey from them, I've done nothing wrong to any of them." <sup>16</sup> Moshe said to Korach, "You and your group, be there before ADONAI tomorrow — you, they and Aharon. <sup>17</sup> Each of you take his fire pan and put incense in it; every one of you, bring before ADONAI his fire pan, 250 fire pans, you too, and Aharon — each one his fire pan."

<sup>18</sup> Each man took his fire pan, put fire in it, laid incense on it and stood at the entrance to the tent of meeting with Moshe and Aharon. <sup>19</sup> Korach assembled all the group who were against them at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Then the glory of ADONAI appeared to the whole assembly.

(iii) <sup>20</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>21</sup> “Separate yourselves from this assembly; I’m going to destroy them right now!” <sup>22</sup> They fell on their faces and said, “Oh God, God of the spirits of all humankind, if one person sins, are you going to be angry with the entire assembly?” <sup>23</sup> ADONAI answered Moshe, <sup>24</sup> “Tell the assembly to move away from the homes of Korach, Datan and Aviram.” <sup>25</sup> Moshe got up and went to Datan and Aviram, and the leaders of Isra’el followed him. <sup>26</sup> There he said to the assembly, “Leave the tents of these wicked men! Don’t touch anything that belongs to them, or you may be swept away in all their sins.” <sup>27</sup> So they moved away from all around the area where Korach, Datan and Aviram lived.

Then Datan and Aviram came out and stood at the entrance to their tents with their wives, sons and little ones. <sup>28</sup> Moshe said, “Here is how you will know that ADONAI has sent me to do all these things and that I haven’t done them out of my own ambition: <sup>29</sup> if these men die a natural death like other people, only sharing the fate common to all humanity, then ADONAI has not sent me. <sup>30</sup> But if ADONAI does something new — if the ground opens up and swallows them with everything they own, and they go down alive to Sh’ol — then you will understand that these men have had contempt for ADONAI.”

<sup>31</sup> The moment he finished speaking, the ground under them split apart — <sup>32</sup> the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up with their households, all the people who had sided with Korach and everything they owned. <sup>33</sup> So they and everything they owned went down alive into Sh’ol, the earth closed over them and their existence in the community ceased. <sup>34</sup> All Isra’el around them fled at their shrieks, shouting, “The earth might swallow us too!” <sup>35</sup> Then fire came out from ADONAI and destroyed the 250 men who had offered the incense.

17 <sup>1(16:36)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2(16:37)</sup> “Tell El‘azar the son of Aharon the cohen to remove the fire pans from the fire, and scatter the smoldering coals at a distance, because they have become holy. <sup>3(16:38)</sup> Also the fire pans of these men, whose sin cost them their lives, have become holy, because they were offered before ADONAI. Therefore, have them hammered into plates to cover the altar. This will be a sign for the people of Isra'el."

<sup>4(16:39)</sup> El'azar the cohen took the brass fire pans which the men who had been burned to death had offered, and they hammered them into a covering for the altar, <sup>5(16:40)</sup> to remind the people of Isra'el that an ordinary person, not descended from Aharon, is not to approach and burn incense before ADONAI, if he wants to avoid the fate of Korach and his group — as ADONAI had said to him through Moshe.

<sup>6(16:41)</sup> But the very next day, the whole community of the people of Isra'el complained against Moshe and Aharon: "You have killed ADONAI's people!" <sup>7(16:42)</sup> However, as the community was assembling against Moshe and Aharon, they looked in the direction of the tent of meeting and saw the cloud cover it and the glory of ADONAI appear. <sup>8(16:43)</sup> Moshe and Aharon came to the front of the tent of meeting.

(iv) <sup>9(16:44)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>10(16:45)</sup> "Get away from this assembly, and I will destroy them at once!" But they fell on their faces. <sup>11(16:46)</sup> Moshe said to Aharon, "Take your fire pan, put fire from the altar in it, lay incense on it, and hurry with it to the assembly to make atonement for them, because anger has gone out from ADONAI, and the plague has already begun!" <sup>12(16:47)</sup> Aharon took it, as Moshe had said, and ran into the middle of the assembly. There the plague had already begun among the people, but he added the incense and made atonement for the people. <sup>13(16:48)</sup> He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped. <sup>14(16:49)</sup> Those dying from the plague numbered 14,700 — besides those who died in the Korach incident. <sup>15(16:50)</sup> Aharon returned to Moshe at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and the plague was stopped.

(v) <sup>16(1)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>17(2)</sup> "Speak to the people of Isra'el, and take from them staffs, one for each ancestral tribe from each leader of a tribe, twelve staffs. Write each man's name on his staff; <sup>18(3)</sup> and write Aharon's name on the staff of Levi, for each tribe's leader is to have one staff. <sup>19(4)</sup> Put them in the tent of meeting in front of the testimony, where I meet with you. <sup>20(5)</sup> The staff of the man I am going to choose will sprout buds — in this way I will put a stop to the complaints the people of Isra'el keep making against you."

<sup>21(6)</sup> Moshe spoke to the people of Isra'el, and all their leaders gave him staffs, one for each leader, according to their ancestral tribes, twelve staffs. Aharon's staff was among their staffs. <sup>22(7)</sup> Moshe put the staffs before ADONAI

in the tent of the testimony. <sup>23(8)</sup> The next day Moshe went into the tent of the testimony, and there he saw that Aharon's staff for the house of Levi had budded — it had sprouted not only buds but flowers and ripe almonds as well. <sup>24(9)</sup> Moshe brought out all the staffs from before ADONAI to all the people of Isra'el, and they looked, and each man took back his staff.

(vi) <sup>25(10)</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "Return Aharon's staff to its place in front of the testimony. It is to be kept there as a sign to the rebels, so that they will stop grumbling against me and thus not die." <sup>26(11)</sup> Moshe did this; he did as ADONAI had ordered him.

<sup>27(12)</sup> But the people of Isra'el said to Moshe, "Oh no! We're dead men! Lost! We're all lost! <sup>28(13)</sup> Whenever anyone approaches the tabernacle of ADONAI, he dies! Will we all perish?"

18 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Aharon, "You, your sons and your father's family line will be responsible for anything that goes wrong in the sanctuary. You and your sons with you will be responsible for anything wrong in your service as cohanim. <sup>2</sup> But you are to bring your kinsmen, the tribe of Levi, along with yourselves, to work together with you and help you — you and your sons with you — when you are there before the tent of meeting. <sup>3</sup> They are to be at your disposal and perform all kinds of tasks related to the tent; only they are not to come near the holy furnishings or the altar, so that neither they nor you will die. <sup>4</sup> They will work together with you in your duties related to the tent of meeting, whatever the service in the tent may be; but an unauthorized person is not to come near you. <sup>5</sup> You will take charge of all the holy things and the altar, so that there will no longer be anger against the people of Isra'el. <sup>6</sup> I myself have taken your kinsmen the L'vi'im from among the people of Isra'el; they have been given as a gift to ADONAI for you, so that you can perform the service in the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup> You and your sons with you will exercise your prerogatives and duties as cohanim in regard to everything having to do with the altar and within the curtain. I entrust the service required of cohanim to you; the unauthorized person who tries to perform it is to be put to death."

<sup>8</sup> ADONAI said to Aharon, "I myself have put you in charge of the contributions given to me. Everything consecrated by the people of Isra'el I have given and set aside for you and your sons; this is a perpetual law. <sup>9</sup> Here is what is to be yours of the especially holy things taken from the fire:

every offering they make — that is, every grain offering, sin offering and guilt offering of theirs that they turn over to me — will be especially holy for you and your sons. <sup>10</sup> You are to eat it in an especially holy place; every male may eat it; it will be set apart for you.

<sup>11</sup> “Also yours is the contribution the people of Isra’el give in the form of wave offerings. I have given these to you, your sons and your daughters with you; this is a perpetual law. Everyone in your family who is clean may eat it. <sup>12</sup> All the best of the olive oil, wine and grain, the first portion of what they give to ADONAI, I have given to you. <sup>13</sup> The first produce to turn ripe of all that is in their land, which they bring to ADONAI, is to be yours; every clean person in your family may eat it.

<sup>14</sup> “Everything in Isra’el which has been consecrated unconditionally is to be yours.

<sup>15</sup> “Everything that comes first out of the womb, of all living things which they offer to ADONAI, whether human or animal, will be yours. However, the firstborn of a human being you must redeem, and the firstborn of an unclean beast you are to redeem. <sup>16</sup> The sum to be paid for redeeming anyone a month old or over is to be five shekels of silver [two ounces], as you value it, using the sanctuary shekel (this is the same as twenty gerahs). <sup>17</sup> But the firstborn of an ox, sheep or goat you are not to redeem; they are holy — you are to splash their blood against the altar and make their fat go up in smoke as an offering made by fire, as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI. <sup>18</sup> Their meat will be yours, like the breast that is waved and the right thigh — they will be yours. <sup>19</sup> All the contributions of holy things which the people of Isra’el offer to ADONAI I have given to you, your sons and your daughters with you; this is a perpetual law, an eternal covenant of salt before ADONAI for you and your descendants with you.”

<sup>20</sup> ADONAI said to Aharon, “You are not to have any inheritance or portion in their land; I am your portion and inheritance among the people of Isra’el.

(vii) <sup>21</sup> “To the descendants of Levi I have given the entire tenth of the produce collected in Isra’el. It is their inheritance in payment for the service they render in the tent of meeting. <sup>22</sup> From now on, the people of Isra’el are not to approach the tent of meeting, so that they will not bear the consequences of their sin and die. <sup>23</sup> Only the L’vi’im are to perform the service in the tent of meeting, and they will be responsible for whatever they do wrong. This is to be a permanent regulation through all your generations. They are to have no inheritance among the people of Isra’el, <sup>24</sup>

because I have given to the L'vi'im as their inheritance the tenths of the produce which the people of Isra'el set aside as a gift for ADONAI. This is why I have said to them that they are to have no inheritance among the people of Isra'el.”

<sup>25</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>26</sup> “Tell the L'vi'im, ‘When you take from the people of Isra'el the tenth of the produce which I have given you from them as your inheritance, you are to set aside from it a gift for ADONAI, one tenth of the tenth. <sup>27</sup> The gift you set aside will be accounted to you as if it were grain from the threshing-floor and grape juice from the wine vat. <sup>28</sup> In this way you will set aside a gift for ADONAI from all your tenths that you receive from the people of Isra'el, and from these tenths you are to give to Aharon the cohen the gift set aside for ADONAI. <sup>29</sup> From everything given to you, you are to set aside all that is due ADONAI, the best part of it, its holy portion.’

(Maftir) <sup>30</sup> “Therefore you are to tell them, ‘When you set aside from it its best part, it will be accounted to the L'vi'im as if it were grain from the threshing-floor and grape juice from the wine vat. <sup>31</sup> You may eat it anywhere, you and your households; because it is your payment in return for your service in the tent of meeting. <sup>32</sup> Moreover, because you will have set aside from it its best parts, you will not be committing any sin because of it; for you are not to profane the holy things of the people of Isra'el, or you will die.’”

Haftarah Korach: Sh'mu'el Alef (1 Samuel) 11:14–12:22

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Korach: 2 Timothy 2:8–21; Y'hudah (Jude) 1–25

Parashah 39: Hukat (Regulation) 19:1–22:1

[In regular years read with Parashah 40, in leap years read separately]

19 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>2</sup> “This is the regulation from the Torah which ADONAI has commanded. Tell the people of Isra'el to bring you a young red female cow without fault or defect and which has never borne a yoke. <sup>3</sup> You are to give it to El'azar the cohen; it is to be brought outside the camp and slaughtered in front of him. <sup>4</sup> El'azar the cohen is to take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle this blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times. <sup>5</sup> The heifer is to be burned to ashes before his eyes — its skin, meat, blood and dung is to be burned to ashes. <sup>6</sup> The cohen is to take cedar-wood, hyssop and scarlet yarn and throw them onto the heifer as it is burning up. <sup>7</sup> Then the cohen is to wash his clothes and himself in water, after which he may re-enter the camp; but the cohen will remain unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup> The person who burned up the heifer is to wash his clothes and himself in water, but he will remain unclean until evening. <sup>9</sup> A man who is clean is to collect the ashes of the heifer and store them outside the camp in a clean place. They are to be kept for the community of the people of Isra'el to prepare water for purification from sin. <sup>10</sup> The one who collected the ashes of the heifer is to wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. For the people of Isra'el and for the foreigner staying with them this will be a permanent regulation.

<sup>11</sup> “Anyone who touches a corpse, no matter whose dead body it is, will be unclean for seven days. <sup>12</sup> He must purify himself with [these ashes] on the third and seventh days; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself the third and seventh days, he will not be clean. <sup>13</sup> Anyone who touches a corpse, no matter whose dead body it is, and does not purify himself has defiled the tabernacle of ADONAI. That person will be cut off from Isra'el, because the water for purification was not sprinkled on him. He will be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

<sup>14</sup> “This is the law: when a person dies in a tent, everyone who enters the tent and everything in the tent will be unclean for seven days. <sup>15</sup> Every open container without a cover closely attached is unclean. <sup>16</sup> Also whoever is in an open field and touches a corpse, whether of someone killed by a weapon or of someone who died naturally, or the bone of a person, or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

<sup>17</sup> “For the unclean person they are to take some of the ashes of the animal burned up as a purification from sin and add them to fresh water in a container. (LY: ii) <sup>18</sup> A clean person is to take a bunch of hyssop leaves, dip it in the water and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the containers, on the people who were there, and on the person who touched the bone or the person killed or the one who died naturally or the grave. <sup>19</sup> The clean person will sprinkle the unclean person on the third and seventh days. On the seventh day he will purify him; then he will wash his clothes and himself in water; and he will be clean at evening. <sup>20</sup> The person who remains unclean and does not purify himself will be cut off from the community because he has defiled the sanctuary of ADONAI. The water for purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup> This is to be a permanent regulation for them. The person who sprinkles the water for purification is to wash his clothes. Whoever touches the water for purification will be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup> Anything the unclean person touches will be unclean, and anyone who touches him will be unclean until evening.”

20 <sup>1</sup> The people of Isra’el, the whole community, entered the Tzin Desert in the first month, and they stayed in Kadesh. There Miryam died, and there she was buried.

<sup>2</sup> Because the community had no water, they assembled themselves against Moshe and Aharon. <sup>3</sup> The people quarreled with Moshe and said, “We wish we had died when our brothers died before ADONAI. <sup>4</sup> Why did you bring ADONAI’s community into this desert? To die there, we and our livestock? <sup>5</sup> Why did you make us leave Egypt? To bring us to this terrible place without seed, figs, grapevines, pomegranates or even water to drink?”

<sup>6</sup> Moshe and Aharon left the assembly, went to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces; and the glory of ADONAI appeared to them.

(RY: ii, LY: iii) <sup>7</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>8</sup> “Take the staff, assemble the community, you and Aharon your brother; and before their eyes, tell the rock to produce its water. You will bring them water out of the rock and thus enable the community and their livestock to drink.” <sup>9</sup> Moshe took the staff from the presence of ADONAI, as he had ordered him. <sup>10</sup> But after Moshe and Aharon had assembled the community in front of the rock, he said to them, “Listen here, you rebels! Are we supposed to bring you water from this rock?” <sup>11</sup> Then Moshe raised his hand and hit the rock twice with his staff. Water flowed out in abundance, and the community and their livestock drank.

<sup>12</sup> But ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, “Because you did not trust in me, so as to cause me to be regarded as holy by the people of Isra’el, you will not bring this community into the land I have given them.” <sup>13</sup> This is M’rivah Spring [Disputation Spring], where the people of Isra’el disputed with ADONAI, and he was caused to be regarded as holy by them.

(LY: iv) <sup>14</sup> Moshe sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: “This is what your brother Isra’el says: you know all the troubles we have gone through — <sup>15</sup> that our ancestors went down into Egypt, we lived in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our ancestors badly. <sup>16</sup> But when we cried out to ADONAI, he heard us, sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. Now here we are in Kadesh, a city at the edge of your territory. <sup>17</sup> Please let us pass through your land. We will not go through fields or vineyards, and we won't drink any water from the wells. We will go along the King's Highway, not turning aside either to the right or to the left until we have left your territory."

<sup>18</sup> But Edom answered, "You are not to pass through my land; if you do, I will come out against you with the sword." <sup>19</sup> The people of Isra'el replied, "We will keep to the highway; if we do drink the water, either we or our livestock, we will pay for it. Just let us pass through on foot — it's nothing." <sup>20</sup> But he said, "You are not to pass through"; and Edom came out against them with many people and much force. <sup>21</sup> Thus Edom refused to allow Isra'el passage through its territory, so Isra'el turned away.

(RY: iii, LY: v) <sup>22</sup> They traveled on from Kadesh; and the people of Isra'el, the whole community, arrived at Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup> At Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, ADONAI said to Moshe and Aharon, <sup>24</sup> "Aharon is about to be gathered to his people, because he is not to enter the land I have given to the people of Isra'el, inasmuch as you rebelled against what I said at the M'rivah Spring. <sup>25</sup> Take Aharon and El'azar his son, bring them up to Mount Hor, <sup>26</sup> remove the garments from Aharon and put them on El'azar his son. Aharon will be gathered to his people — he will die there."

<sup>27</sup> Moshe did as ADONAI had ordered. They went up onto Mount Hor before the eyes of the whole community. <sup>28</sup> Moshe removed the garments from Aharon, and put them on El'azar his son, and Aharon died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moshe and El'azar came down the mountain. <sup>29</sup> When the entire community saw that Aharon was dead, they mourned Aharon thirty days, the whole house of Isra'el.

21 <sup>1</sup> Then the king of 'Arad, a Kena'ani who lived in the Negev, heard that Isra'el was approaching by way of Atarim, so he attacked Isra'el and took some of them captive. <sup>2</sup> Isra'el made a vow to ADONAI, "If you will hand this people over to me, I will completely destroy their cities." <sup>3</sup> ADONAI listened to what Isra'el said and handed over the Kena'anim, so they completely destroyed them and their cities and named the place Hormah [complete destruction].

<sup>4</sup> Then they traveled from Mount Hor on the road toward the Sea of Suf in order to go around the land of Edom; but the people's tempers grew short because of the detour. <sup>5</sup> The people spoke against God and against Moshe: "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt? To die in the desert? There's no real food, there's no water, and we're sick of this miserable stuff we're eating!"

(LY: vi) <sup>6</sup> In response, ADONAI sent poisonous snakes among the people; they bit the people, and many of Isra'el's people died. <sup>7</sup> The people came to Moshe and said, "We sinned by speaking against ADONAI and against you. Pray to ADONAI that he rid us of these snakes." Moshe prayed for the people, <sup>8</sup> and ADONAI answered Moshe: "Make a poisonous snake and put it on a pole. When anyone who has been bitten sees it, he will live." <sup>9</sup> Moshe made a bronze snake and put it on the pole; if a snake had bitten someone, then, when he looked toward the bronze snake, he stayed alive.

<sup>10</sup> The people of Isra'el traveled on and camped at Ovot. <sup>11</sup> From Ovot they traveled and camped at 'Iyei-Ha'avarim, in the desert fronting Mo'av on the east. <sup>12</sup> From there they traveled and camped in Vadi Zered. <sup>13</sup> From there they traveled and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in the desert; this river comes out of the territory of the Emori; for the Arnon is the boundary between Mo'av and the Emori. <sup>14</sup> This is why it says, in the Book of the Wars of ADONAI, ". . . Vahev at Sufah, the vadis of Arnon, <sup>15</sup> and the slope of the vadis extending as far as the site of 'Ar, which lie next to the territory of Mo'av."

<sup>16</sup> From there they went on to Be'er [well]; that is the well about which ADONAI said to Moshe, "Assemble the people, and I will give them water." <sup>17</sup> Then Isra'el sang this song:

"Spring up, oh well!

Sing to the well

<sup>18</sup>        sunk by the princes, dug by the people's leaders with the scepter,

with their staffs!”

From the desert they went to Mattanah, <sup>19</sup> from Mattanah to Nachali’el, from Nachali’el to Bamot, <sup>20</sup> and from Bamot to the valley by the plain of Mo’av at the start of the Pisgah range, where it overlooks the desert.

(RY: iv, LY: vii) <sup>21</sup> Isra’el sent messengers to Sichon, king of the Emori, with this message: <sup>22</sup> “Let me pass through your land. We won’t turn aside into fields or vineyards, and we won’t drink any water from the wells. We will go along the King’s Highway until we have left your territory.” <sup>23</sup> But Sichon would not allow Isra’el to pass through his territory. Instead, Sichon mustered all his people and went out into the desert to fight Isra’el. On reaching Yachatz, he fought Isra’el. <sup>24</sup> Isra’el defeated him by force of arms and took control of his land from the Arnon to the Yabok River, but only as far as the people of ‘Amon, because the territory of the people of ‘Amon was well defended. <sup>25</sup> Isra’el took all these cities — Isra’el lived in all the cities of the Emori, in Heshbon and all its surrounding towns. <sup>26</sup> Heshbon was the city of Sichon, the king of the Emori, who had fought against the former king of Mo’av and conquered all his land up to the Arnon. <sup>27</sup> This is why the storytellers say, “Come to Heshbon! Let it be rebuilt!

Let Sichon’s city be restored!

<sup>28</sup> “For fire burst out of Heshbon,

a flame from the city of Sichon.

It consumed ‘Ar of Mo’av,

the lords of Arnon’s high places.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe to you, Mo’av!

You are destroyed, people of K’mosh!

He let his sons be fugitives and his daughters captives of Sichon, king of the Emori.

<sup>30</sup> “We shot them down; Heshbon is destroyed, all the way to Divon.

We even laid waste to Nofach, which extends as far as Meidva.”

<sup>31</sup> Thus Isra’el lived in the land of the Emori.

<sup>32</sup> Moshe sent men to reconnoiter Ya’zer; they captured its towns and drove out the Emori who were there.

<sup>33</sup> Then they turned and went up along the road to Bashan; and ‘Og, the king of Bashan, marched out against them, he with all his people, to fight at Edre’i. (LY: Maftir) <sup>34</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Don’t be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you with all his people and his land. You will treat him just as you did Sichon, king of the Emori, who lived at Heshbon.” <sup>35</sup> So they struck him down, with his sons and all his people, until there was no one left alive; and then they took control of his land.

22 <sup>1</sup> Then the people of Isra’el traveled on and camped in the plains of Mo’av beyond the Yarden River, opposite Yericho.

Haftarah Hukat: Shof’tim (Judges) 11:1–33

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Hukat:
Yochanan (John) 3:9–21; 4:3–30; 12:27–50

Parashah 40: Balak 22:2–25:9

[In regular years read with Parashah 39, in leap years read separately]

<sup>2</sup> Now Balak the son of Tzippor saw all that Isra'el had done to the Emori. <sup>3</sup> Mo'av was very afraid of the people, because there were so many of them; Mo'av was overcome with dread because of the people of Isra'el. <sup>4</sup> So Mo'av said to the leaders of Midyan, "This horde will lick up everything around us, the way an ox licks up grass in the field."

Balak the son of Tzippor was king of Mo'av at that time. <sup>5</sup> He sent messengers to Bil'am the son of B'or, at P'tor by the [Euphrates] River in his native land, to tell him, "Listen, a people has come out of Egypt, spread over all the land and settled down next to me. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, please come, and curse this people for me, because they are stronger than I am. Maybe I will be able to strike them down and drive them out of the land, for I know that whomever you bless is in fact blessed, and whomever you curse is in fact cursed." <sup>7</sup> The leaders of Mo'av and Midyan left, taking with them the payment for divining, came to Bil'am and spoke to him the words of Balak. <sup>8</sup> He said to them, "Stay here tonight, and I will bring you back whatever answer ADONAI tells me." So the princes of Mo'av stayed with Bil'am.

<sup>9</sup> God came to Bil'am and said, "Who are these men with you?" <sup>10</sup> Bil'am said to God, "Balak the son of Tzippor, king of Mo'av, has sent me this message: <sup>11</sup> 'The people who came out of Egypt have spread over the land; now, come and curse them for me; maybe I will be able to fight against them and drive them out.'" <sup>12</sup> God answered Bil'am, "You are not to go with them; you are not to curse the people, because they are blessed."

(RY: v; LY: ii) <sup>13</sup> Bil'am got up in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, "Return to your own land, because ADONAI refuses to give me permission to go with you." <sup>14</sup> The princes of Mo'av got up, returned to Balak and said, "Bil'am refuses to come with us."

<sup>15</sup> Balak again sent princes, more of them and of higher status than the first group. <sup>16</sup> They went to Bil'am and said to him, "Here is what Balak the son of Tzippor says: 'Please don't let anything keep you from coming to me. <sup>17</sup> I will reward you very well, and whatever you say to me I will do. So please come, and curse this people for me.'" <sup>18</sup> Bil'am answered the servants of Balak, "Even if Balak were to give me his palace filled with silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of ADONAI my God to do anything, great or small. <sup>19</sup> Now, please, you too, stay here tonight; so that I may find out what else ADONAI will say to me." <sup>20</sup> God came to Bil'am during the night and said to him, "If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them; but do only what I tell you."

(LY: iii) <sup>21</sup> So Bil'am got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Mo'av. <sup>22</sup> But God's anger flared up because he went, and the angel of ADONAI stationed himself on the path to bar his way. He was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup> The donkey saw the angel of ADONAI standing on the road, drawn sword in hand; so the donkey turned off the road into the field; and Bil'am had to beat the donkey to get it back on the road. <sup>24</sup> Then the angel of ADONAI stood on the road where it became narrow as it passed among the vineyards and had stone walls on both sides. <sup>25</sup> The donkey saw the angel of ADONAI and pushed up against the wall, crushing Bil'am's foot against the wall. So he beat it again. <sup>26</sup> The angel of ADONAI moved ahead and stood in a place so tight that there was no room to turn either right or left. <sup>27</sup> Again the donkey saw the angel of ADONAI and lay down under Bil'am, which made him so angry that he hit the donkey with his stick. <sup>28</sup> But ADONAI enabled the donkey to speak, and it said to Bil'am, "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?" <sup>29</sup> Bil'am said to the donkey, "It's because you've been making a fool of me! I wish I had a sword in my hand; I would kill you on the spot!" <sup>30</sup> The donkey said to Bil'am, "I'm your donkey, right? You've ridden me all your life, right? Have I ever treated you like this before?" "No," he admitted. <sup>31</sup> Then ADONAI opened Bil'am's eyes, so that he could see the angel of ADONAI standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand, and he bowed his head and fell on his face. <sup>32</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to him, "Why did you hit your donkey three times like that? I have come out here to bar your way, because you are rushing to oppose me. <sup>33</sup> The donkey saw me and turned aside these three times; and indeed, if she hadn't turned away from me, I would have killed you by now and saved it alive!" <sup>34</sup> Bil'am said to the angel of ADONAI, "I have sinned. I didn't know that you were standing on the road to block me. Now, therefore, if what I am doing displeases you, I will go back." <sup>35</sup> But the angel of ADONAI said to Bil'am, "No, go on with the men; but you are to say only what I tell you to say." So Bil'am went along with the princes of Balak.

<sup>36</sup> When Balak heard that Bil'am had come, he went out to meet him in the city of Mo'av at the Arnon border, in the farthest reaches of the territory. <sup>37</sup> Balak said to Bil'am, "I sent more than once to summon you! Why didn't you come to me? Did you think I couldn't pay you enough?" <sup>38</sup> Bil'am replied to Balak, "Here, I've come to you! But I have no power of my own to say anything. The word that God puts in my mouth is what I will say.”

(RY: vi, LY: iv) <sup>39</sup> Bil’am went with Balak. When they arrived at Kiryat-Hutzot, <sup>40</sup> Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, then sent to Bil’am and the princes with him. <sup>41</sup> In the morning Balak took Bil’am and brought him up to the high places of Ba’al; from there he could see a portion of the people.

23 <sup>1</sup> Bil’am said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare me seven bulls and seven rams here.” <sup>2</sup> Balak did as Bil’am said; then Balak and Bil’am offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>3</sup> Bil’am said to Balak, “Stand by your burnt offering while I go off; maybe ADONAI will come and meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell you.” He went off to a bare hill. <sup>4</sup> God met Bil’am, who said to him, “I prepared the seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.” <sup>5</sup> Then ADONAI put a word in Bil’am’s mouth and said, “Go on back to Balak, and speak as I tell you.” <sup>6</sup> He went back to him, and there, standing by his burnt offering, he with all the princes of Mo’av, <sup>7</sup> he made his pronouncement:

“Balak, the king of Mo’av,

brings me from Aram, from the eastern hills, saying,

‘Come, curse Ya’akov for me;

come and denounce Isra’el.’

<sup>8</sup> “How am I to curse

those whom God has not cursed?

How am I to denounce

those whom ADONAI has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup> “From the top of the rocks I see them, from the hills I behold them —

yes, a people that will dwell alone and not think itself one of the nations.

<sup>10</sup> “Who has counted the dust of Ya‘akov or numbered the ashes of Isra’el?

May I die as the righteous die!

May my end be like theirs!”

<sup>11</sup> Balak said to Bil‘am, “What have you done to me?! To curse my enemies is why I brought you; and, here, you have totally blessed them!” <sup>12</sup> He answered, “Mustn’t I take care to say just what ADONAI puts in my mouth?”

(LY: v) <sup>13</sup> Balak said to him, “All right, come with me to another place where you can see them. You will see only some of them, not all; but you can curse them for me from there.” <sup>14</sup> He took him through the field of Tzofim to the top of the Pisgah Range, built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>15</sup> Bil‘am said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offering, while I go over there for a meeting.” <sup>16</sup> ADONAI met Bil‘am, put a word in his mouth and said, “Go on back to Balak, and speak as I tell you.” <sup>17</sup> He came to him and stood by his burnt offering, with all the princes of Mo‘av. Balak asked him, “What did ADONAI say?” <sup>18</sup> Then Bil‘am made his pronouncement:

“Get up, Balak, and listen!

Turn your ears to me, son of Tzippor!

<sup>19</sup> “God is not a human who lies or a mortal who changes his mind.

When he says something, he will do it;

when he makes a promise, he will fulfill it.

<sup>20</sup> Look, I am ordered to bless;

when he blesses, I can't reverse it.

<sup>21</sup> "No one has seen guilt in Ya'akov, or perceived perversity in Isra'el;

A<sub>DONAI</sub> their God is with them and acclaimed as King among them.

<sup>22</sup> "God, who brought them out of Egypt,

gives them the strength of a wild ox;

<sup>23</sup> thus one can't put a spell on Ya'akov,

no magic will work against Isra'el.

It can now be said of Ya'akov and Isra'el,

'What is this that God has done?!'

<sup>24</sup> "Here is a people rising up like a lioness;

like a lion he rears himself up —

he will not lie down till he eats up the prey and drinks the blood of the slain."

<sup>25</sup> Balak said to Bil'am, "Obviously, you won't curse them. But at least don't bless them!" <sup>26</sup> However, Bil'am answered Balak, "Didn't I warn you that I must do everything A<sub>DONAI</sub> says?"

(RY: vii, LY: vi) <sup>27</sup> Balak said to Bil'am, "Come, I will take you now to another place; maybe it will please God for you to curse them for me from there." <sup>28</sup> Balak took Bil'am to the top of P'or, overlooking the desert. <sup>29</sup> Bil'am said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare me seven bulls and seven rams." <sup>30</sup> Balak did as Bil'am said and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 <sup>1</sup> When Bil'am saw that it pleased A<sub>DONAI</sub> to bless Isra'el, he didn't go, as at the other times, to make use of divination, but looked out toward the desert. <sup>2</sup> Bil'am raised his eyes and saw Isra'el encamped tribe by tribe. Then the Spirit of God came upon him, <sup>3</sup> and he made his pronouncement:

"This is the speech of Bil'am, son of B'or;

the speech of the man whose eyes have been opened;

<sup>4</sup> the speech of him who hears God's words;

who sees what Shaddai sees,

who has fallen, yet has open eyes:

<sup>5</sup> "How lovely are your tents, Ya'akov;

your encampments, Isra'el!

<sup>6</sup> They spread out like valleys,

like gardens by the riverside,

like succulent aloes planted by A<sub>DONAI</sub>, like cedar trees next to the water.

<sup>7</sup> "Water will flow from their branches, their seed will have water aplenty.

Their king will be higher than Agag

and his kingdom lifted high.

<sup>8</sup> God, who brought them out of Egypt,

gives them the strength of a wild ox.

They will devour the nations opposing them, break their bones, pierce them with their arrows.

<sup>9</sup> “When they lie down they crouch like a lion,

or like a lioness — who dares to rouse it?

Blessed be all who bless you!

Cursed be all who curse you!”

<sup>10</sup> Balak blazed with fury against Bil’am. He struck his hands together and said to Bil’am, “I summoned you to curse my enemies. But here, you have done nothing but bless them — three times already! <sup>11</sup> Now you had better escape to your own place! I had planned to reward you very well, but now ADONAI has deprived you of payment.”

<sup>12</sup> Bil’am answered Balak, “Didn’t I tell the messengers you sent me <sup>13</sup> that even if Balak would give me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not of my own accord go beyond the word of ADONAI to do either good or bad? that what ADONAI said is what I would say? (LY: vii) <sup>14</sup> But now that I am going back to my own people, come, I will warn you what this people will do to your people in the acharit-hayamim. <sup>15</sup> So he made his pronouncement:

“This is the speech of Bil’am, son of B’or;

the speech of the man whose eyes have been opened;

<sup>16</sup> the speech of him who hears God's words;

who knows what 'Elyon knows,

who sees what Shaddai sees,

who has fallen, yet has open eyes:

<sup>17</sup> "I see him, but not now;

I behold him, but not soon —

a star will step forth from Ya'akov, a scepter will arise from Isra'el, to crush the corners of Mo'av and destroy all descendants of Shet.

<sup>18</sup> His enemies will be his possessions —

Edom and Se'ir, possessions.

Isra'el will do valiantly,

<sup>19</sup> From Ya'akov will come someone who will rule, and he will destroy what is left of the city."

<sup>20</sup> He saw 'Amalek and made this pronouncement:

"First among nations was 'Amalek, but destruction will be its end."

<sup>21</sup> He saw the Keini and made this pronouncement:

“Though your dwelling is firm,

your nest set on rock,

<sup>22</sup> Kayin will be wasted

while captive to Ashur.”

<sup>23</sup> Finally, he made this pronouncement:

“Oh no! Who can live when God does this?

<sup>24</sup> But ships will come from the coast of Kittim to subdue Ashur and subdue ‘Ever,

but they too will come to destruction.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Bil’am got up, left and returned to his home; and Balak too went his way.

25 <sup>1</sup> Isra’el stayed at Sheetim, and there the people began whoring with the women of Mo’av. <sup>2</sup> These women invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, where the people ate and bowed down to their gods. <sup>3</sup> With Isra’el thus joined to Ba’al-P’or, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against Isra’el.

<sup>4</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them facing the sun before ADONAI, so that the raging fury of ADONAI will turn away from Isra’el.” <sup>5</sup> Moshe said to the judges of Isra’el, “Each of you is to put to death those in his tribe who have joined themselves to Ba’al-P’or.”

<sup>6</sup> Just then, in the sight of Moshe and the whole community of Isra’el, as they were weeping at the entrance to the tent of meeting, a man from Isra’el came by, bringing to his family a woman from Midyan. (Maftir) <sup>7</sup> When Pinchas the son of El’azar, the son of Aharon the cohen, saw it, he got up from the middle of the crowd, took a spear in his hand, <sup>8</sup> and pursued the man from Isra'el right into the inner part of the tent, where he thrust his spear through both of them — the man from Isra'el and the woman through her stomach. Thus was the plague among the people of Isra'el stopped; <sup>9</sup> nevertheless, 24,000 died in the plague.

Haftarah Balak: Mikhah (Micah) 5:6(7)–6:8

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Balak: 2 Kefa (2 Peter) 2:1–22; Y'hudah (Jude) 11; Revelation 2:14–15

Parashah 41: Pinchas (Phinehas) 25:10–30:1(29:40)

<sup>10</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>11</sup> “Pinchas the son of El‘azar, the son of Aharon the cohen, has deflected my anger from the people of Isra‘el by being as zealous as I am, so that I didn’t destroy them in my own zeal. <sup>12</sup> Therefore say, ‘I am giving him my covenant of shalom, <sup>13</sup> making a covenant with him and his descendants after him that the office of cohen will be theirs forever.’ This is because he was zealous on behalf of his God and made atonement for the people of Isra‘el.”

<sup>14</sup> The name of the man from Isra‘el who was killed, put to death with the woman from Midyan, was Zimri the son of Salu, leader of one of the clans from the tribe of Shim‘on. <sup>15</sup> The name of the woman from Midyan who was killed was Kozbi the daughter of Tzur, and he was head of the people in one of the clans of Midyan.

<sup>16</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>17</sup> “Treat the Midyanim as enemies and attack them; <sup>18</sup> because they are treating you as enemies by the trickery they used to deceive you in the P’or incident and in the affair of their sister Kozbi, the daughter of the leader from Midyan, the woman who was killed on the day of the plague in the P’or incident.” <sup>19(26:1)</sup> After the plague,

26 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe and El‘azar, the son of Aharon the cohen, <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the entire assembly of the people of Isra‘el twenty years old and over, by their ancestral clans, all who are subject to military service in Isra‘el.” <sup>3</sup> Moshe and El‘azar the cohen spoke with them on the plains of Mo‘av by the Yarden across from Yericho, explaining, <sup>4</sup> “Those twenty years old and over who came out of the land of Egypt, as ADONAI ordered Moshe and the people of Isra‘el.”

(ii) <sup>5</sup> [The census results begin with] Re‘uven, the firstborn of Isra‘el. The descendants of Re‘uven were: of Hanokh, the family of the Hanokhi; of Pallu, the family of the Pallu‘i; <sup>6</sup> of Hetzron, the family of the Hetzroni; and of Karmi the family of the Karmi. <sup>7</sup> These were the the families of the Re‘uveni; of them were counted 43,730.

<sup>8</sup> The sons of Pallu: Eli‘av; <sup>9</sup> and the sons of Eli‘av: N‘mu‘el, Datan and Aviram. These are the same Datan and Aviram, men of reputation in the community, who rebelled against Moshe and Aharon in Korach’s group,

when they rebelled against ADONAI; <sup>10</sup> and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korach when that group died, and the fire consumed 250 men, and they became a warning sign. <sup>11</sup> (However, the sons of Korach did not die.)

<sup>12</sup> The descendants of Shim'on, by their families, were: of N'mu'el, the family of the N'mu'eli; of Yamin, the family of the Yamini; of Yakhin, the family of the Yakhini; <sup>13</sup> of Zerach, the family of the Zarchi; and of Sha'ul, the family of the Sha'uli. <sup>14</sup> These were the families of the Shim'oni, 22,200.

<sup>15</sup> The descendants of Gad, by their families, were: of Tz'fon, the family of the Tz'foni; of Haggi, the family of the Haggi; of Shuni, the family of the Shuni; <sup>16</sup> of Ozni, the family of the Ozni; of 'Eri, the family of the 'Eri; <sup>17</sup> of Arod, the family of the Arodi; and of Ar'eli, the family of the Ar'eli. <sup>18</sup> These were the families of the sons of Gad, according to those counted of them, 40,500.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Y'hudah: First 'Er and Onan, but 'Er and Onan died in the land of Kena'an. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Y'hudah who had descendants were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelani; of Peretz, the family of the Partzi; and of Zerach, the family of the Zarchi. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Peretz were: of Hetzron, the family of the Hetzroni; and of Hamul, the family of the Hamuli. <sup>22</sup> These were the families of Y'hudah, according to those counted of them, 76,500.

<sup>23</sup> The descendants of Yissakhar, by their families, were: of Tola, the family of the Tola'i; of Puvah, the family of the Puni; <sup>24</sup> of Yashuv, the family of the Yashuvi; and of Shimron, the family of the Shimroni. <sup>25</sup> These were the families of Yissakhar, according to those counted of them, 64,300.

<sup>26</sup> The descendants of Z'vulun, by their families, were: of Sered, the family of the Sardi; of Elon, the family of the Eloni; and of Yachle'el, the family of the Yachle'eli. <sup>27</sup> These were the families of the Z'vuloni, according to those counted of them, 60,500.

<sup>28</sup> The sons of Yosef, by their families, were M'nasheh and Efrayim. <sup>29</sup> The descendants of M'nasheh were: of Makhir, the family of the Makhiri. Makhir was the father of Gil'ad; of Gil'ad, the family of the Gil'adi. <sup>30</sup> These are the descendants of Gil'ad: of I'ezer, the family of the I'ezri; of Helek, the family of the Helki; <sup>31</sup> of Asri'el, the family of the Asri'eli; of Sh'khem, the family of the Shikhmi; <sup>32</sup> of Sh'mida, the family of the Sh'mida'i; and of Hefer, the family of the Hefri. <sup>33</sup> Tz'lof'chad the son of Hefer had no sons but daughters; the names of the daughters of Tz'lof'chad were Machlah, No'ah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah. <sup>34</sup> These were the families of M'nasheh; of them were counted 52,700.

<sup>35</sup> These are the descendants of Efrayim, by their families: of Shutelach, the family of the Shutalchi; of Bekher, the family of the Bakhri; and of Tachan, the family of the Tachani. <sup>36</sup> These are the descendants of Shutelach: of 'Eran, the family of the 'Erani. <sup>37</sup> These were the families of the descendants of Efrayim, according to those of them that were counted, 32,500. These were the descendants of Yosef, by their families.

<sup>38</sup> The descendants of Binyamin, by their families were: of Bela, the family of the Bal'i; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbeli; of Achiram, the family of the Achirami; <sup>39</sup> of Sh'fufam, the family of the Shufami; and of Hufam, the family of the Hufami. <sup>40</sup> The sons of Bela were Ard and Na'aman; [of Ard,] the family of the Ardi; and of Na'aman, the family of the Na'ami. <sup>41</sup> These were the descendants of Binyamin, by their families; of them were counted 45,600.

<sup>42</sup> The descendants of Dan, by their families, were: of Shucham, the family of the Shuchami. These are the families of Dan, by their families. <sup>43</sup> All the families of the Shuchami, according to those of them that were counted, were 64,400.

<sup>44</sup> The descendants of Asher, by their families: of Yimnah, the family of the Yimnah; of Yishvi, the family of the Yishvi; and of B'ri'ah, the family of the B'ri'i. <sup>45</sup> Of the descendants of B'ri'ah: of Hever, the family of the Hevri; and of Malki'el, the family of the Malki'eli. <sup>46</sup> The name of Asher's daughter was Serach. <sup>47</sup> These were the families of the descendants of Asher, according to those of them that were counted, 53,400.

<sup>48</sup> The descendants of Naftali, by their families: of Yachtze'el, the families of the Yachtze'eli; of Guni, the family of the Guni; <sup>49</sup> of Yetzer, the family of the Yitzri; and of Shillem, the family of the Shillemi. <sup>50</sup> These are the families of Naftali according to their families; those of them that were counted were 45,400.

<sup>51</sup> Thus those who were counted of the people of Isra'el numbered 601,730.

(iii) <sup>52</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>53</sup> "The land is to be parceled out among these as a possession to be inherited, according to the number of names. <sup>54</sup> To those families with more persons you are to give a greater inheritance, and to those with fewer you are to give a smaller inheritance — each family's inheritance is to be given according to the number counted in it. <sup>55</sup>

However, the land is to be awarded by lot. They will inherit according to the names of the tribes of their ancestors, <sup>56</sup> but the inheritance is to be parceled out by lot between the families with more and those with fewer.”

<sup>57</sup> Those counted among the Levi, by their families, were: of Gershon, the family of the Gershuni, of K’hat, the family of the K’hati; and of M’rari, the family of the M’rari. <sup>58</sup> These are the families of Levi: the family of the Livni, the family of the Hevroni, the family of the Machli, the family of the Mushi and the family of the Korchi. K’hat was the father of ‘Amram. <sup>59</sup> The name of ‘Amram’s wife was Yokheved the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to ‘Amram Aharon, Moshe and their sister Miryam. <sup>60</sup> To Aharon were born Nadav, Avihu, El’azar and Itamar; <sup>61</sup> but Nadav and Avihu died when they offered unauthorized fire before ADONAI. <sup>62</sup> Those males one month old or more counted of the Levi were 23,000. These were not included in the census of the people of Isra’el, because no land for inheritance was given to them among the people of Isra’el.

<sup>63</sup> These are the ones counted by Moshe and El’azar the cohen, who took a census of the people of Isra’el in the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden across from Yericho. <sup>64</sup> But there was not a man among them who had also been included in the census of Moshe and Aharon the cohen when they enumerated the people of Isra’el in the Sinai Desert; <sup>65</sup> because ADONAI had said of them, “They will surely die in the desert.” So there was not left even one of them, except Kaleb the son of Y’funeh and Y’hoshua the son of Nun.

27 <sup>1</sup> Then the daughters of Tz’lof’chad the son of Hefer, the son of Gil’ad, the son of Machir, the son of M’nasheh, of the families of M’nasheh, the son of Yosef, approached. These were the names of his daughters: Machlah, No’ah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah. <sup>2</sup> They stood in front of Moshe, El’azar the cohen, the leaders and the whole community at the entrance to the tent of meeting and said, <sup>3</sup> “Our father died in the desert. He wasn’t part of the group who assembled themselves to rebel against ADONAI in Korach’s group, but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons. <sup>4</sup> Why should the name of our father be eliminated from his family just because he didn’t have a son? Give us property to possess along with the brothers of our father.” <sup>5</sup> Moshe brought their cause before ADONAI.

(iv) <sup>6</sup> ADONAI answered Moshe, <sup>7</sup> “The daughters of Tz’lof’chad are right in what they say. You must give them property to be inherited along with that of their father’s brothers; have what their father would have inherited pass to them. <sup>8</sup> Moreover, say to the people of Isra’el, ‘If a man dies and does not have a son, you are to have his inheritance pass to his daughter. <sup>9</sup> If he doesn’t have a daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers. <sup>10</sup> If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father’s brothers. <sup>11</sup> If his father doesn’t have brothers, give his inheritance to the closest relative in his family, and he will possess it. This will be the standard for judgment to be used by the people of Isra’el, as ADONAI ordered Moshe.’”

<sup>12</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Climb this mountain in the ‘Avarim Range, and look out at the land which I have given the people of Isra’el. <sup>13</sup> After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, just as Aharon your brother was gathered; <sup>14</sup> because in the Tzin Desert, when the community was disputing with me, you rebelled against my order to uphold my holiness by means of the water, with them looking on.” (This was M’rivat-Kadesh Spring, in the Tzin Desert.)

<sup>15</sup> Moshe said to ADONAI, <sup>16</sup> “Let ADONAI, God of the spirits of all human beings, appoint a man to be over the community, <sup>17</sup> to go out and come in ahead of them, to lead them out and bring them in, so that ADONAI’s community will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

<sup>18</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, “Take Y’hoshua the son of Nun, a spiritual man, and lay your hand on him. <sup>19</sup> Put him in front of El’azar the cohen and the whole community, and commission him in their sight. <sup>20</sup> Delegate to him some of your authority, so that the entire community of Isra’el will obey him. <sup>21</sup> He is to present himself to El’azar the cohen, who is to find out by means of the urim what ADONAI’s will is for Y’hoshua’s decisions. Then, at his word they will go out, and at his word they will come in, both he and all the people of Isra’el with him, the whole community.”

<sup>22</sup> Moshe did as ADONAI had ordered him. He took Y’hoshua, put him before El’azar the cohen and the whole community, <sup>23</sup> laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as ADONAI had said through Moshe.

28 (v) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “Give an order to the people of Isra’el. Tell them, ‘You are to take care to offer me at the proper time the food presented to me as offerings made by fire, providing a fragrant aroma for me.’ <sup>3</sup> Tell them, ‘This is the offering made by fire that you are to bring to ADONAI: male lambs in their first year and without defect, two daily as a regular burnt offering. <sup>4</sup> Offer the one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at dusk, <sup>5</sup> along with two quarts of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with one quart of oil from pressed olives. <sup>6</sup> It is the regular burnt offering, the same as was offered on Mount Sinai to give a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire for ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> Its drink offering is to be one-quarter hin for one lamb; in the Holy Place you are to pour out a drink offering of intoxicating liquor to ADONAI. <sup>8</sup> The other lamb you are to present at dusk; present it with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering as in the morning; it is an offering made by fire, with a fragrant aroma for ADONAI.

<sup>9</sup> “‘On Shabbat offer two male lambs in their first year and without defect, with one gallon of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with olive oil, and its drink offering. <sup>10</sup> This is the burnt offering for every Shabbat, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

<sup>11</sup> “‘At each Rosh-Hodesh of yours, you are to present a burnt offering to ADONAI consisting of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs in their first year and without defect; <sup>12</sup> with six quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for for each bull, four quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for the one ram, <sup>13</sup> and two quarts of fine flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for each lamb. This will be the burnt offering giving a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire for ADONAI. <sup>14</sup> Their drink offerings will be two quarts of wine for a bull, one-and-one-third quarts for the ram, and one quart for each lamb. This is the burnt offering for every Rosh-Hodesh throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup> Also a male goat is to be offered as a sin offering to ADONAI, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

(vi) <sup>16</sup> “‘In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is ADONAI’s Pesach. <sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of the month is to be a feast. Matzah is to be eaten for seven days. <sup>18</sup> The first day is to be a holy convocation: do not do any kind of ordinary work; <sup>19</sup> but present an offering made by fire, a burnt offering, to ADONAI, consisting of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs in their first year (they are to be without defect for you) <sup>20</sup> with their grain offering, fine flour mixed with olive oil. Offer six quarts for a bull, four quarts for the ram, <sup>21</sup> and two quarts for each of the seven lambs; <sup>22</sup> also a male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you. <sup>23</sup> You are to offer these in addition to the morning burnt offering, which is the regular burnt offering.<sup>24</sup> In this fashion you are to offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, making a fragrant aroma for ADONAI; it is to be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.<sup>25</sup> On the seventh day you are to have a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work.

<sup>26</sup> ““On the day of the firstfruits, when you bring a new grain offering to ADONAI in your feast of Shavu‘ot, you are to have a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work;<sup>27</sup> but present a burnt offering as a fragrant aroma for ADONAI, consisting of two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs in their first year,<sup>28</sup> and their grain offering — fine flour mixed with olive oil, six quarts for each bull, four quarts for the one ram,<sup>29</sup> and two quarts for each of the seven lambs —<sup>30</sup> plus a male goat to make atonement for you.<sup>31</sup> You are to offer these in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering (they are to be without defect for you), with their drink offerings.

29<sup>1</sup> ““In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you are to have a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work; it is a day of blowing the shofar for you.<sup>2</sup> Prepare a burnt offering to make a fragrant aroma for ADONAI — one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs in their first year and without defect —<sup>3</sup> with their grain offering, consisting of fine flour mixed with olive oil — six quarts for the bull, four quarts for the ram,<sup>4</sup> and two quarts for each of the seven lambs —<sup>5</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.<sup>6</sup> This is to be in addition to the burnt offering for Rosh-Hodesh with its grain offering, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to the rule for them; this will be a fragrant aroma, an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

<sup>7</sup> ““On the tenth day of this seventh month you are to have a holy convocation. You are to deny yourselves, and you are not to do any kind of work;<sup>8</sup> but you are to present a burnt offering to ADONAI to make a fragrant aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs in their first year (they are to be without defect for you),<sup>9</sup> with their grain offering, fine flour mixed with olive oil, six quarts for the bull, four quarts for the one ram,<sup>10</sup> and two quarts for each of the seven lambs;<sup>11</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the sin offering for atonement and the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

(vii) <sup>12</sup> ““On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you are to have a holy convocation. You are not to do any kind of ordinary work, and you are to observe a feast to ADONAI seven days. <sup>13</sup> You are to present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, bringing a fragrant aroma to ADONAI. It is to consist of thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year (they are to be without defect), <sup>14</sup> with their grain offering — fine flour mixed with olive oil, six quarts for each of the thirteen bulls, four quarts for each of the two rams, <sup>15</sup> and two quarts for each of the fourteen lambs; <sup>16</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>17</sup> ““On the second day you are to present twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>18</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>19</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering and their drink offerings.

<sup>20</sup> ““On the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>21</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>22</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>23</sup> ““On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>24</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>25</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>26</sup> ““On the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>27</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>28</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>29</sup> ““On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>30</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>31</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>32</sup> ““On the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>33</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the

bulls, rams and lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>34</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings.

(Maftir) <sup>35</sup> ““On the eighth day you are to have a festive assembly: you are not to do any kind of ordinary work; <sup>36</sup> but you are to present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, giving a fragrant aroma to ADONAI — one bull, one ram, seven male lambs in their first year, without defect; <sup>37</sup> with the grain and drink offerings for the bull, the ram and the lambs, according to their number, in keeping with the rule; <sup>38</sup> also one male goat as a sin offering; in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offerings.

<sup>39</sup> ““You are to offer these to ADONAI at your designated times in addition to your vows and voluntary offerings — whether these are your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings or peace offerings.””

30 <sup>1(29:40)</sup> Moshe told the people of Isra’el everything, just as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

Haftarah Pinchas: M’lakhim Alef (1 Kings) 18:46–19:21

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Pinchas: Mattityahu (Matthew) 26:1–30; Mark 14:1–26; Luke 22:1–20; Yochanan (John) 2:13–22; 7:1–13,37–39; 11:55–12:1; 13:1; 18:28,39; 19:14; Acts 2:1–21; 12:3–4; 20:5–6, 16; 27:9–11; 1 Corinthians 5:6–8; 16:8; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 11:28

Parashah 42: Mattot (Tribes) 30:2(1)–32:42

[In regular years read with Parashah 43, in leap years read separately]

<sup>2(1)</sup> Then Moshe spoke to the heads of the tribes of the people of Isra’el. He said, “Here is what ADONAI has ordered: <sup>3(2)</sup> when a man makes a vow to ADONAI or formally obligates himself by swearing an oath, he is not to break his word but is to do everything he said he would do.

<sup>4(3)</sup> “When a woman makes a vow to ADONAI, formally obligating herself, while she is a minor living in her father’s house; <sup>5(4)</sup> then, if her father has heard what she vowed or obligated herself to do and holds his peace, then all her vows remain binding — every obligation she has bound herself to will stand. <sup>6(5)</sup> But if on the day her father hears it, he expresses his disapproval, then none of her vows or obligations she has bound herself to will stand; and ADONAI will forgive her, because her father expressed his disapproval.

<sup>7(6)</sup> “If, having made vows or rashly committed herself to an obligation, she gets married; <sup>8(7)</sup> and her husband hears but holds his peace with her on the day he learns of it, then her vows and obligations she has bound herself to will stand. <sup>9(8)</sup> But if her husband expresses his disapproval on the day he hears it, he will void the vow which is on her and the obligation to which she has bound herself; and ADONAI will forgive her.

<sup>10(9)</sup> “The vow of a widow, however, or of a divorcee, including everything to which she has obligated herself, will stand against her.

<sup>11(10)</sup> “If a woman vowed in her husband’s house or obligated herself with an oath; <sup>12(11)</sup> and her husband heard it but held his peace with her and did not express disapproval, then all her vows and obligations will stand. <sup>13(12)</sup> But if her husband makes them null and void on the day he hears them, then whatever she said, vows or binding obligation, will not stand; her husband has voided them; and ADONAI will forgive her. <sup>14(13)</sup> Her husband may let every vow and every binding obligation stand, or he may void it. <sup>15(14)</sup> But if her husband entirely holds his peace with her day after day, then he confirms all her vows and obligations; he must let them stand, because he held his peace with her on the day he heard them. <sup>16(15)</sup> If he makes them null and void after he has heard them, then he will bear the consequent guilt.”

<sup>17(16)</sup> These are the laws which ADONAI ordered Moshe between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter, if she is a minor living in her father’s house.

31 (LY: ii) <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> “On behalf of the people of Isra’el, take vengeance on the Midyanim. After that, you will be gathered to your people.”

<sup>3</sup> Moshe said to the people, “Equip men from among yourselves for war. They are to go and fight Midyan, in order to carry out ADONAI’s vengeance on Midyan. <sup>4</sup> You are to send to the war a thousand men from every one of Isra’el’s tribes.” <sup>5</sup> So out of the thousands of people in Isra’el, a thousand armed men from each tribe, 12,000 altogether, were mustered for war.<sup>6</sup> Moshe sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war; he sent them and Pinchas the son of El'azar the cohen to the war, with the holy utensils and the trumpets for sounding the alarm in his care.

<sup>7</sup> They fought against Midyan, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe, and killed every male.<sup>8</sup> They killed the kings of Midyan along with the others who were slain — Evi, Rekem, Tzur, Hur and Reva, the five kings of Midyan. They also killed Bil'am the son of B'or with the sword.<sup>9</sup> The people of Isra'el took captive the women of Midyan and their little ones, and they took as booty all their cattle, flocks and other goods.<sup>10</sup> They set fire to all their cities in the areas where they lived and all their camps.<sup>11</sup> They took all the booty, all the people and animals they had captured,<sup>12</sup> and brought the captives, booty and spoil to Moshe, El'azar the cohen and the community of Isra'el in the camp on the plains of Mo'av by the Yarden across from Yericho.

(RY: ii, LY: iii) <sup>13</sup> Moshe, El'azar the cohen and all the community leaders went to meet them outside the camp.<sup>14</sup> But Moshe was angry with the army officers, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds coming in from the battlefield.<sup>15</sup> Moshe asked them, “You let the women live?<sup>16</sup> Why, these are the ones who — because of Bil'am's advice — caused the people of Isra'el to rebel, breaking faith with ADONAI in the P'or incident, so that the plague broke out among ADONAI's community!<sup>17</sup> Now kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has ever slept with a man.<sup>18</sup> But the young girls who have never slept with a man, keep alive for yourselves.<sup>19</sup> Pitch your tents outside the camp for seven days. Whoever has killed a person or touched the corpse of someone slain, purify yourselves on the third and seventh days, you and your captives.<sup>20</sup> Also purify every garment, whether of skin or goat's hair, and everything made of wood.”

<sup>21</sup> El'azar the cohen said to the soldiers who had gone to the front, “This is the regulation from the Torah which ADONAI has ordered Moshe.<sup>22</sup> Even though gold, silver, brass, iron, tin and lead<sup>23</sup> can all withstand fire, so that you are indeed to purify everything made of these materials by having them pass through fire; nevertheless they must also be purified with the water for purification. Everything that can't withstand fire you are to have go through the water.<sup>24</sup> On the seventh day you are to wash your clothes, and you will be clean; after that you may enter the camp.”

(LY: iv) <sup>25</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>26</sup> “Take all the booty, both people and animals, you, El‘azar the cohen and the leaders of clans in the community; <sup>27</sup> and divide the booty into two parts: half for the experienced soldiers who went out to battle, and half for the rest of the community. <sup>28</sup> From the portion of the soldiers who went out to battle, levy a tax for ADONAI consisting of one-five-hundredth of the persons, cattle, donkeys and sheep; <sup>29</sup> take it from their half and give it to El‘azar the cohen as a portion set apart for ADONAI. <sup>30</sup> From the half that goes to the people of Isra‘el, you are to take one-fiftieth of the persons, and of the cattle, donkeys and sheep, that is, of all the livestock; and give them to the L’vi’im taking care of the tabernacle of ADONAI.” <sup>31</sup> Moshe and El‘azar the cohen did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>32</sup> The booty, over and above the portion which the soldiers took, came to 675,000 sheep, <sup>33</sup> 72,000 cattle, <sup>34</sup> 61,000 donkeys, <sup>35</sup> and 32,000 persons in all, consisting of the women who had never slept with a man.

<sup>36</sup> The half which was the portion of the soldiers who went out to fight, numbered 337,500 sheep, <sup>37</sup> of which ADONAI’s tribute was 675; <sup>38</sup> 36,000 cattle, of which ADONAI’s tribute was seventy-two; <sup>39</sup> 30,500 donkeys, of which ADONAI’s tribute was sixty-one; <sup>40</sup> and 16,000 persons, of whom ADONAI’s tribute was thirty-two persons. <sup>41</sup> Moshe gave the tribute set apart for ADONAI to El‘azar the cohen, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

(LY: v) <sup>42</sup> From the half that went to people of Isra‘el, which Moshe separated from that of the men who had gone to fight — <sup>43</sup> now the community’s half consisted of 337,500 sheep, <sup>44</sup> 36,000 cattle, <sup>45</sup> 30,500 donkeys <sup>46</sup> and 16,000 persons—<sup>47</sup> from the people of Isra‘el’s half, Moshe took one-fiftieth of the persons and animals and gave them to the L’vi’im taking care of the tabernacle of ADONAI, as ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>48</sup> The officers in charge of the thousands who fought, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moshe <sup>49</sup> and said to him, “Your servants have counted all the soldiers under our command, and not one of us is missing. <sup>50</sup> We have brought an offering for ADONAI, what every man has obtained in the way of gold jewelry — armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and belts — to make atonement for ourselves before ADONAI.”

<sup>51</sup> Moshe and El‘azar the cohen accepted their gold, all the jewelry. <sup>52</sup> All the gold in this gift which the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds set apart for ADONAI weighed 420 pounds. <sup>53</sup> For the soldiers had taken booty, every man for himself. <sup>54</sup> Moshe and El‘azar the

cohen took the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a reminder for the people of Isra'el before ADONAI.

32 (RY: iii; LY: vi) <sup>1</sup> The descendants of Re'uven and the descendants of Gad had vast quantities of livestock. When they saw that the land of Ya'zer and the land of Gil'ad were good for livestock, <sup>2</sup> the descendants of Gad and of Re'uven came and spoke to Moshe, El'azar the cohen and the community leaders. They said, <sup>3</sup> “‘Atarot, Divon, Ya'zer, Nimrah, Heshbon, El'aleh, S'vam, N'vo and Be'on, <sup>4</sup> the country that ADONAI conquered before the community of Isra'el, is livestock country; and your servants have livestock. <sup>5</sup> If you regard us favorably,” they went on, “let this land be given to your servants as their possession; and don't have us cross the Yarden.”

<sup>6</sup> Moshe answered the descendants of Gad and of Re'uven: “Are your brothers to go to war while you stay here? <sup>7</sup> Besides, why are you trying to discourage the people of Isra'el from crossing into the land ADONAI gave them? <sup>8</sup> This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea to see the land. <sup>9</sup> For when they went up to the Eshkol Valley and saw the land, they disheartened the people of Isra'el, so that they wouldn't enter the land ADONAI had given them. <sup>10</sup> ADONAI's anger blazed up on that day; and he swore, <sup>11</sup> ‘None of the people aged twenty or more who came out of Egypt will see the land I swore to Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov; because they haven't followed me unreservedly — <sup>12</sup> except Kaleb the son of Y'funeh the K'nizi and Y'hoshua the son of Nun, because they have followed ADONAI unreservedly.’ <sup>13</sup> Thus ADONAI's anger blazed against Isra'el, so that he made them wander here and there in the desert forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of ADONAI had died out. <sup>14</sup> Now you, another brood of sinners, have arisen in your fathers' place to increase still more the fierce anger of ADONAI toward Isra'el! <sup>15</sup> For if you turn away from him, he will leave them in the desert again, and thus you will cause the destruction of all these people!”

<sup>16</sup> But they came up to him and said, “Here we will build enclosures for our livestock and cities for our little ones, <sup>17</sup> but we ourselves will be armed and ready for action to march at the head of the people of Isra'el, until we have brought them to their place. Our little ones will stay in the fortified cities here because of the people now living in the land. <sup>18</sup> However, we will not return to our own homes until every man in Isra'el has taken possession of his land for inheritance. <sup>19</sup> We will not have an inheritance with them on the other side of the Yarden, westward; because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Yarden, eastward.”

(RY: iv, LY: vii) <sup>20</sup> Moshe said to them, “If you will do this — if you will arm yourselves to go before ADONAI to the war, <sup>21</sup> and if every one of your soldiers will cross the Yarden before ADONAI, until he has driven out his enemies ahead of him, <sup>22</sup> and if the land has been conquered before ADONAI, and only after that do you return — then you will be clear before ADONAI and before Isra'el, and this land here will be yours to possess before ADONAI. <sup>23</sup> But if you will not do this, then you have sinned against ADONAI, and you must understand that your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup> Build cities for your little ones and enclosures for your sheep; then do what you said you would do.”

<sup>25</sup> The descendants of Gad and the descendants of Re'uven said to Moshe, “Your servants will do as my lord orders. <sup>26</sup> Our little ones, wives, flocks and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gil'ad; <sup>27</sup> but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before ADONAI to do battle, as my lord says.”

<sup>28</sup> So Moshe gave orders concerning them to El'azar the cohen, Y'hoshua the son of Nun and the clan leaders of the tribes of the people of Isra'el. <sup>29</sup> Moshe said to them, “If the descendants of Gad and of Re'uven cross over the Yarden with you, every man armed for battle, before ADONAI; and if the land is conquered before you, then you are to give them the land of Gil'ad as theirs to possess. <sup>30</sup> But if they do not cross with you armed, they are to possess land along with you in Kena'an.”

<sup>31</sup> The descendants of Gad and of Re'uven answered, “We will do as ADONAI has said to your servants. <sup>32</sup> We will cross over into the land of Kena'an armed before ADONAI, and the land we will possess for inheritance will be on this side of the Yarden.”

<sup>33</sup> So Moshe gave the descendants of Gad and of Re'uven, and also to the half-tribe of M'nasheh the son of Yosef, the kingdom of Sichon king of the Emori and the kingdom of 'Og king of Bashan — the country and its cities within its borders, along with their surrounding towns.

<sup>34</sup> The descendants of Gad built Divon, 'Atarot, 'Aro'er, <sup>35</sup> 'Atrot-Shofan, Ya 'zer, Yogbehah, <sup>36</sup> Beit-Nimrah and Beit-Haran — fortified cities; and also enclosures for sheep.

<sup>37</sup> The descendants of Re'uven built Heshbon, El'aleh, Kiryatayim, <sup>38</sup> N'vo, Ba'al-M'on (these names have been changed) and Sivmah; they renamed the cities they built.

(LY: Maftir) <sup>39</sup> The descendants of Machir the son of M'nasheh went to Gil'ad and conquered it, dispossessing the Emori who were there. <sup>40</sup> Moshe gave Gil'ad to Machir the son of M'nasheh, and he lived in it. <sup>41</sup> Ya'ir the son of M'nasheh went and captured its villages and called them Havot-Ya'ir [villages of Ya'ir]. <sup>42</sup> Novach went and captured K'nat with its villages and named it Novach after himself.

Haftarah Mattot: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 1:1–2:3

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Mattot: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:33–37

Parashah 43: Masa'ei (Stages) 33:1–36:13

[In regular years read with Parashah 42, in leap years read separately]

33 <sup>1</sup> These are the stages in the journey of the people of Isra'el as they left the land of Egypt divided into groups under the leadership of Moshe and Aharon. <sup>2</sup> Moshe recorded each of the stages of their journey by order of ADONAI; here are the starting-points of each stage:

<sup>3</sup> They began their journey from Ram'ses in the first month. On the fifteenth day of the first month, the morning after the Pesach, the people of Isra'el left proudly in view of all the Egyptians; <sup>4</sup> while the Egyptians were burying those among them whom ADONAI had killed, all their firstborn; ADONAI had also executed judgment on their gods. <sup>5</sup> The people of Isra'el moved on from Ram'ses and camped at Sukkot.

<sup>6</sup> They moved on from Sukkot and camped at Etam, by the edge of the desert. <sup>7</sup> They moved on from Etam and turned back to Pi-Hachiot, in front of Ba'al-Tz'fon, and camped before Migdol. <sup>8</sup> They moved on from P'nei-Hachiot, passed through the sea to the desert, continued three days' journey into the Etam Desert and camped at Marah. <sup>9</sup> They moved on from Marah and came to Eilim; in Eilim were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, so they camped there. <sup>10</sup> They moved on from Eilim and camped by the Sea of Suf.

(LY: ii) <sup>11</sup> They moved on from the Sea of Suf and camped in the Seen Desert. <sup>12</sup> They moved on from the Seen Desert and camped at Dofkah. <sup>13</sup> They moved on from Dofkah and camped at Alush. <sup>14</sup> They moved on from Alush and camped at Refidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>15</sup> They moved on from Refidim and camped in the Sinai Desert. <sup>16</sup> They moved on from the Sinai Desert and camped at Kivrot-HaTa'avah. <sup>17</sup> They moved on from Kivrot-HaTa'avah and camped in Hatzerot. <sup>18</sup> They moved on from Hatzerot and camped at Ritmah. <sup>19</sup> They moved on from Ritmah and camped at Rimmon-Peretz. <sup>20</sup> They moved on from Rimmon-Peretz and camped at Livnah. <sup>21</sup> They moved on from Livnah and camped at Rissah. <sup>22</sup> They moved on from Rissah and camped at K'helah. <sup>23</sup> They moved on from K'helah and camped at Mount Shefer. <sup>24</sup> They moved on from Mount Shefer and camped at Haradah. <sup>25</sup> They moved on from Haradah and camped at Mak'helot. <sup>26</sup> They moved on from Mak'helot and camped at Tachat. <sup>27</sup> They moved on from Tachat and camped at Terach. <sup>28</sup> They moved on from Terach and camped at Mitkah. <sup>29</sup> They moved on from Mitkah and camped at HaShmonah. <sup>30</sup> They moved on from HaShmonah and camped at Moserot. <sup>31</sup> They moved on from Moserot and camped at B'nei-Ya'akan. <sup>32</sup> They moved on from B'nei-Ya'akan and camped at Hor-HaGidgad. <sup>33</sup> They moved on from Hor-HaGidgad and camped at Yotvatah. <sup>34</sup> They moved on from Yotvatah and camped at Avronah. <sup>35</sup> They moved on from Avronah and camped at 'Etzyon-Gever. <sup>36</sup> They moved on from 'Etzyon-Gever and camped in the Tzin Desert, that is, Kadesh.

<sup>37</sup> They moved on from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the border of the land of Edom. <sup>38</sup> At ADONAI's order Aharon the cohen went up on Mount Hor, and he died there on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the people of Isra'el had left the land of Egypt. <sup>39</sup> Aharon was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor. <sup>40</sup> The Kena'ani king of 'Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Kena'an, had heard that the people of Isra'el were coming; <sup>41</sup> so they moved on from Mount Hor and camped at Tzalmonah.

<sup>42</sup> They moved on from Tzalmonah and camped at Punon. <sup>43</sup> They moved on from Punon and camped at Ovot. <sup>44</sup> They moved on from Ovot and camped at 'Iyei-Ha'Avarim, by the border of Mo'av. <sup>45</sup> They moved on from 'Iyim and camped at Divon-Gad. <sup>46</sup> They moved on from Divon-Gad and camped at ‘Almon-Divlatayim. <sup>47</sup> They moved on from Almon-Divlatayim and camped in the ‘Avarim Range, in front of N’vo. <sup>48</sup> They moved on from the ‘Avarim Range and camped in the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden, across from Yericho. <sup>49</sup> Their camp by the Yarden extended from Beit-HaYeshimot all the way to Avel-HaSheetim in the plains of Mo’av.

(RY: v; LY: iii) <sup>50</sup> ADONAI spoke to Moshe in the plains of Mo’av by the Yarden, across from Yericho. He said <sup>51</sup> to tell the people of Isra’el, “When you cross the Yarden into the land of Kena’an, <sup>52</sup> you are to expel all the people living in the land from in front of you. Destroy all their stone figures, destroy all their metal statues and demolish all their high places. <sup>53</sup> Drive out the inhabitants of the land, and live in it, for I have given the land to you to possess. <sup>54</sup> You will inherit the land by lot according to your families. You are to give more land to the larger families and less to the smaller ones. Wherever the lot falls to any particular person, that will be his property. You will inherit according to the tribes of your ancestors. <sup>55</sup> But if you don’t drive out the inhabitants of the land from in front of you, then those you allow to remain will become like thorns in your eyes and stings in your sides — they will harass you in the land where you are living. <sup>56</sup> And in this event, I will do to you what I intended to do to them.”

34 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI told Moshe <sup>2</sup> to give this order to the people of Isra’el: “When you enter the land of Kena’an, it will become your land to pass on as an inheritance, the land of Kena’an as defined by these borders.

<sup>3</sup> “Your southern portion will extend from the Tzin Desert close to the border of Edom. The eastern terminus of your southern border is at the end of the Dead Sea. <sup>4</sup> From there your border turns, goes south of the ‘Akrabbim Ascent and passes on to Tzin. From there it goes south of Kadesh-Barnea, on to Hatzar-Adar, and on to ‘Atzmon. <sup>5</sup> Then the border turns and goes from ‘Atzmon to the Vadi of Egypt and along it to the Sea.

<sup>6</sup> “Your western border will be the Great Sea.

<sup>7</sup> “Your northern border will be as follows: from the Great Sea mark a line to Mount Hor, <sup>8</sup> and from Mount Hor mark a line to the entrance of Hamat. The border goes out to Tz’dad. <sup>9</sup> Then the border goes to Zifron and finally to Hatzar-‘Einan; this is your northern border.

<sup>10</sup> “For the eastern border mark your line from Hatzar-‘Einan to Sh’fam.

<sup>11</sup> Then the border goes down from Sh’fam to Rivlah, on the east side of ‘Ayin, then down until it hits the slope east of Lake Kinneret. <sup>12</sup> From there it goes down the Yarden River till it flows into the Dead Sea. These will be the borders of your land.”

<sup>13</sup> Moshe gave this order to the people of Isra’el: “This is the land in which you will receive inheritances by lot, which ADONAI has ordered to give to the nine tribes and the half-tribe. <sup>14</sup> The tribe of the descendants of Re’uven have already received their land for inheritance according to their clans, and so have the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh. <sup>15</sup> These two-and-a-half tribes have received their inheritance on this side of the Yarden, across from Yericho and eastward, toward the sunrise.”

(RY: vi; LY: iv) <sup>16</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>17</sup> “These are the names of the men who will take possession of the land for you: El‘azar the cohen and Y’hoshua the son of Nun. <sup>18</sup> Also appoint one leader from each tribe to take possession of the land. <sup>19</sup> The names of these men are:

from the tribe of Y’hudah, Kalev the son of Y’funeh;

<sup>20</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Shim‘on, Sh’mu’el the son of ‘Ammihud;

<sup>21</sup> from the tribe of Binyamin, Elidad the son of Kislon;

<sup>22</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Dan, a leader, Buki the son of Yogli;

<sup>23</sup> from the descendants of Yosef:

from the tribe of the descendants of M’nasheh, a leader, Hani’el the son of Efod;

<sup>24</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Efrayim, a leader, K’mu’el the son of Shiftan;

<sup>25</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Z’vulun, a leader, Elitzafan the son of Parnakh;

<sup>26</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Yissakhar, a leader, Palti’el the son of ‘Azan;

<sup>27</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Asher, a leader, Achihud the son of Shlomi;

<sup>28</sup>

from the tribe of the descendants of Naftali, a leader, P'dah'el the son of 'Ammihud."

<sup>29</sup> These are the ones whom ADONAI ordered to divide the inheritance among the people of Isra'el in the land of Kena'an.

35 (LY: v) <sup>1</sup> In the plains of Mo'av by the Yarden, across from Yericho, ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>2</sup> "Order the people of Isra'el to give to the L'vi'im cities to live in from the heritage they will possess, and you are also to give the L'vi'im some of the open land surrounding the cities. <sup>3</sup> They are to have the cities to live in, while their open land will be for their livestock, for growing crops and for all their animals. <sup>4</sup> The open land around the cities you give to the L'vi'im is to commence at a line drawn around the city wall 1,500 feet outside it and is to extend outward from there. <sup>5</sup> Measure 3,000 feet outward from the city wall to the east, south, west and north, with the city in the center. The space between the 1,500-foot line and the 3,000-foot line will be their open land around the cities. <sup>6</sup> The cities you give to the L'vi'im are to be the six cities of refuge to which you permit the person who kills someone to flee to; plus an additional forty-two cities. <sup>7</sup> Thus you will give the L'vi'im forty-eight cities, with their surrounding open land. <sup>8</sup> As to the cities you will give from those the people of Isra'el possess, from the many you will take many, and from the few you will take few — each tribe will contribute from its cities to the L'vi'im in accordance with the size of its inheritance."

(RY: vii, LY: vi) <sup>9</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe,<sup>10</sup> "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'When you cross the Yarden into the land of Kena'an, <sup>11</sup> you are to designate for yourselves cities that will be cities of refuge for you, to which anyone who kills someone by mistake can flee. <sup>12</sup> These cities are to be a refuge for you from the dead person's next-of-kin, who might otherwise avenge his kinsman's death by slaying the killer prior to his standing trial before the community. <sup>13</sup> In regard to the cities you are to give, there are to be six cities of refuge for you. <sup>14</sup> You are to give three cities east of the Yarden and three cities in the land of Kena'an; they will be cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup> These six cities will serve as refuge for the people of Isra'el, as well as for the foreigner and resident alien with them; so that anyone who kills someone by mistake may flee there.

<sup>16</sup> ““However, if he hits him with an iron implement and thus causes his death, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death. <sup>17</sup> Or if he hits him with a stone in his hand big enough to kill someone, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death. <sup>18</sup> Or if he hits him with a wood utensil in his hand capable of killing someone, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death. <sup>19</sup> The next-of-kin avenger is to put the murderer to death himself — upon meeting him, he is to put him to death. <sup>20</sup> Likewise, if he shoves him out of hatred; or intentionally throws something at him, causing his death; <sup>21</sup> or out of hostility strikes him with his hand, so that he dies; then the one who struck him must be put to death; he is a murderer; and the next-of-kin avenger is to put the murderer to death upon meeting him.

<sup>22</sup> ““But suppose he shoves him suddenly, but without hostility; or he throws something at him unintentionally; <sup>23</sup> or, without seeing him, being his enemy or seeking to harm him, he throws a stone big enough to cause death; and the person dies. <sup>24</sup> Then the community is to judge between the one who struck him and the next-of-kin avenger in accordance with these rules; <sup>25</sup> and the community is to save the killer from the next-of-kin avenger. The community is to return him to the city of refuge to which he fled, and he is to live there until the cohen hagadol, who was anointed with the holy oil, dies. <sup>26</sup> But if the killer ever goes beyond the limits of the city of refuge he fled to, <sup>27</sup> and the next-of-kin avenger finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger kills the killer, he will not be guilty of the man’s blood; <sup>28</sup> because he must stay in his city of refuge until the death of the cohen hagadol. But after the death of the cohen hagadol the killer may return to the land he owns. <sup>29</sup> These things shall constitute your standard for judgment through all your generations, wherever you live.

<sup>30</sup> ““If anyone kills someone, the murderer is to be put to death upon the testimony of witnesses; but the testimony of only one witness will not suffice to cause a person to be put to death. <sup>31</sup> Also, you are not to accept a ransom in lieu of the life of a murderer condemned to death; rather, he must be put to death. <sup>32</sup> Likewise, you are not to accept for someone who has fled to his city of refuge a ransom that would allow him to return to his land before the death of the cohen. <sup>33</sup> In this way you will not defile the land in which you are living. For blood defiles the land, and in this land no atonement can be made for the blood shed in it except the blood of him who shed it. <sup>34</sup> No, you are not to defile the land in which you live and in which I live; for I, ADONAI, live among the people of Isra'el.'”

36 (LY: vii) <sup>1</sup> The leaders of the clans of the family of the descendants of Gil'ad, the son of Machir, the son of M'nasheh, of the families of the descendants of Yosef, approached and addressed Moshe and the leaders, the heads of the clans of the people of Isra'el. <sup>2</sup> They said, “ADONAI ordered my lord to give by lot the land to be inherited by the people of Isra'el, and my lord was ordered by ADONAI to give the inheritance of our kinsman Tz'lof'chad to his daughters. <sup>3</sup> But if they get married to anyone belonging to another of the tribes of the people of Isra'el, then their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our ancestors and be added to the inheritance of the tribe they will then belong to; thus it will be taken away from the sum total of our inheritance. <sup>4</sup> And when the yovel of the people of Isra'el comes, their inheritance will be added to the land possessed by the tribe they will then belong to and be subtracted from the inheritance belonging to the tribe of our ancestors.”

<sup>5</sup> Moshe gave this order to the people of Isra'el, in keeping with the word of ADONAI: “The tribe of the descendants of Yosef is right in what it says. <sup>6</sup> Here is what ADONAI has ordered concerning the daughters of Tz'lof'chad: ‘Let them be married to whomever they think best, but they must marry only into a family from their father’s tribe. <sup>7</sup> In this way no inheritance of the people of Isra'el will move from one tribe to another; for each of the people of Isra'el is to hold on to the land for inheritance belonging to his father’s tribe. <sup>8</sup> Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the people of Isra'el is to become the wife of someone from the family of her father’s tribe, so that every one of the people of Isra'el will stay in possession of his ancestors’ inheritance. <sup>9</sup> Thus no inheritance will move from one tribe to another, for each of the tribes of the people of Isra'el will hold on to its own inheritance.”

(Maftir) <sup>10</sup> The daughters of Tz'lof'chad did as ADONAI had ordered Moshe. <sup>11</sup> Machlah, Tirtzah, Hoglah, Milkah and No'ah all got married to sons of their father’s brothers. <sup>12</sup> They were married into the families of the descendants of M'nasheh the son of Yosef, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father’s family.

<sup>13</sup> These are the mitzvot and rulings which A<sub>DONAI</sub> gave through Moshe to the people of Isra'el in the plains of Mo'av by the Yarden, across from Yericho.

Haftarah Masa'ei: Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 2:4–28; 3:4 (A); 2:4–28; 4:1–2 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Mattot: Ya'akov (James) 4:1–12

Hazak, hazak, v'nit'chazek!
Be strong, be strong, and let us be strengthened!

D'varim

DEUTERONOMY

Parashah 44: D'varim (Words) 1:1–3:22

1 <sup>1</sup> These are the words Moshe spoke to all Isra'el on the far side of the Yarden River, in the desert, in the 'Aravah, across from Suf, between Pa'ran and Tofel, Lavan, Hatzerot and Di-Zahav. <sup>2</sup> It is eleven days' journey from Horev to Kadesh-Barnea by way of Mount Se'ir.

<sup>3</sup> On the first day of the eleventh month of the fortieth year, Moshe spoke to the people of Isra'el, reviewing everything ADONAI had ordered him to tell them. <sup>4</sup> This was after he had defeated Sichon, king of the Emori, who lived in Heshbon, and 'Og, king of Bashan, who lived in 'Ashtarot, at Edre'i. <sup>5</sup> There, beyond the Yarden, in the land of Mo'av, Moshe took it upon himself to expound this Torah and said:

<sup>6</sup> “ADONAI spoke to us in Horev. He said, ‘You have lived long enough by this mountain. <sup>7</sup> Turn, get moving and go to the hill-country of the Emori and all the places near there in the 'Aravah, the hill-country, the Sh'felah, the Negev and by the seashore — the land of the Kena'ani, and the L'vanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates River. <sup>8</sup> I have set the land before you! Go in, and take possession of the land ADONAI swore to give to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov, and their descendants after them.’

<sup>9</sup> “At that time I told you, ‘You are too heavy a burden for me to carry alone. <sup>10</sup> ADONAI your God has multiplied your numbers, so that there are as many of you today as there are stars in the sky. <sup>11</sup> May ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, increase you yet a thousandfold and bless you, as he has promised you! (ii) <sup>12</sup> But you are burdensome, bothersome and quarrelsome! How can I bear it by myself alone? <sup>13</sup> Pick for yourselves from each of your tribes men who are wise, understanding and knowledgeable; and I will make them heads over you.’

<sup>14</sup> “You answered me, ‘What you have said would be a good thing for us to do.’ <sup>15</sup> So I took the heads of your tribes, men wise and knowledgeable, and made them heads over you — leaders in charge of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, and officers, tribe by tribe. <sup>16</sup> At that time I commissioned your judges, ‘Hear the cases that arise between your brothers; and judge fairly between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is with him. <sup>17</sup> You are not to show favoritism when judging, but give equal attention to the small and to the great. No matter how a person presents himself, don’t be afraid of him; because the decision is God’s. The case that is too hard for you, bring to me and I will hear it.’ <sup>18</sup> I also gave you orders at that time concerning all the things you were to do.

<sup>19</sup> “So we left Horev and went through all that vast and fearsome desert which you saw on the way to the hill-country of the Emori, as ADONAI our God ordered us; and we arrived at Kadesh-Barnea. <sup>20</sup> There I said to you, ‘You have come to the hill-country of the Emori, which ADONAI our God is giving to us. <sup>21</sup> Look! ADONAI your God has placed the land before you. Go up, take possession, as ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, has told you. Don’t be afraid, don’t be dismayed.’

(iii) <sup>22</sup> “You approached me, every one of you, and said, ‘Let’s send men ahead of us to explore the country for us and bring back word concerning what route we should use in going up and what the cities we will encounter are like.’ <sup>23</sup> The idea seemed good to me, so I took twelve of your men, one from each tribe; <sup>24</sup> and they set out, went up into the hills, came to the Eshkol Valley and reconnoitered it. <sup>25</sup> They took some of the produce of the land and brought it down to us; they also brought back word to us — ‘The land ADONAI our God is giving to us is good.’

<sup>26</sup> “But you would not go up. Instead you rebelled against the order of ADONAI your God; <sup>27</sup> and in your tents you complained, ‘It’s because ADONAI hated us that he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, only to hand us over to the Emori to destroy us. <sup>28</sup> What sort of place is it that we’re heading for? Our brothers made our courage fail when they said, “The people are bigger and taller than we are; the cities are great and fortified up to the sky; and finally, we have seen ‘Anakim there.’”

<sup>29</sup> “I answered you, ‘Don’t be fearful, don’t be afraid of them. <sup>30</sup> ADONAI your God, who is going ahead of you, will fight on your behalf, just as he accomplished all those things for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup> and likewise in the desert, where you saw how ADONAI your God carried you, like a man carries his child, along the entire way you traveled until you arrived at this place. <sup>32</sup> Yet in this matter you don’t trust ADONAI your God, <sup>33</sup> even though he went ahead of you, seeking out places for you to pitch your tents and showing you which way to go, by fire at night and by a cloud during the day.’

<sup>34</sup> “ADONAI heard what you were saying, became angry and swore, <sup>35</sup> ‘Not a single one of these people, this whole evil generation, will see the good land I swore to give to your ancestors, <sup>36</sup> except Kalev the son of Y’funeh—he will see it; I will give him and his descendants the land he walked on, because he has fully followed ADONAI.’

<sup>37</sup> “Also, because of you ADONAI was angry with me and said, ‘You too will not go in there. <sup>38</sup> Y’hoshua the son of Nun, your assistant—he will go in there. So encourage him, because he will enable Isra’el to take possession of it. (iv) <sup>39</sup> Moreover, your little ones, who you said would be taken as booty, and your children who don’t yet know good from bad — they will go in there; I will give it to them, and they will have possession of it. <sup>40</sup> But as for yourselves, turn around and head into the desert by the road to the Sea of Suf.’

<sup>41</sup> “Then you answered me, ‘We have sinned against ADONAI. Now we will go up and fight, in accordance with everything ADONAI our God ordered us.’ And every man among you put on his arms, considering it an easy matter to go up into the hill-country. <sup>42</sup> But ADONAI said to me, ‘Tell them, “Don’t go up, and don’t fight, because I am not there with you; if you do, your enemies will defeat you.”’ <sup>43</sup> So I told you, but you wouldn’t listen. Instead, you rebelled against ADONAI’s order, took matters into your own hands and went up into the hill-country; <sup>44</sup> where the Emori living in that hill-country came out against you like bees, defeated you in Se‘ir and chased you back all the way to Hormah. <sup>45</sup> You returned and cried before ADONAI, but ADONAI neither listened to what you said nor paid you any attention. <sup>46</sup> This is why you had to stay in Kadesh as long as you did.

2 <sup>1</sup> “Then we turned and began traveling into the desert along the road to the Sea of Suf, as ADONAI had said to me; and we skirted Mount Se‘ir for a long time. (v) <sup>2</sup> Finally ADONAI said to me, <sup>3</sup> ‘You have been going around this mountain long enough! Head north, <sup>4</sup> and give this order to the people: “You are to pass through the territory of your kinsmen the descendants of ‘Esav who live in Se‘ir. They will be afraid of you, so be very cautious, <sup>5</sup> and don’t get into disputes with them; for I am not going to give you any of their land, no, not even enough for one foot to stand on; inasmuch as I have given Mount Se'ir to 'Esav as his possession. <sup>6</sup> Pay them money for the food you eat, and pay them money for the water you drink. <sup>7</sup> For ADONAI your God has blessed you in everything your hands have produced. He knows that you have been traveling through this vast desert; these forty years ADONAI your God has been with you; and you have lacked nothing.'

<sup>8</sup> "So we went on past our kinsmen the descendants of 'Esav living in Se'ir, left the road through the 'Aravah from Eilat and 'Etzyon-Gever, and turned to pass along the road through the desert of Mo'av. <sup>9</sup>ADONAI said to me, 'Don't be hostile toward Mo'av or fight with them, because I will not give you any of their land to possess, since I have already given 'Ar to the descendants of Lot as their territory.'" <sup>10</sup> (The Emim used to live there, a great and numerous people as tall as the 'Anakim. <sup>11</sup> They are also considered Refa'im, as are the 'Anakim, but the Mo'avim call them Emim. <sup>12</sup> In Se'ir the Horim used to live, but the descendants of 'Esav dispossessed and destroyed them, settling in their place. Isra'el did similarly in the land it came to possess, which ADONAI gave to them.) <sup>13</sup> "'Now get going, and cross Vadi Zered!'

"So we crossed Vadi Zered. <sup>14</sup> The time between our leaving Kadesh-Barnea and our crossing Vadi Zered was thirty-eight years — until the whole generation of men capable of bearing arms had been eliminated from the camp, as ADONAI had sworn they would be. <sup>15</sup> Moreover, ADONAI's hand was against them to root them out of the camp until the last of them was gone. <sup>16</sup> When all the men who were able to bear arms had died and were no longer part of the people, <sup>17</sup> ADONAI said to me, <sup>18</sup> 'Today you are to cross the border of Mo'av at 'Ar. <sup>19</sup> When you approach the descendants of 'Amon, don't bother them or fight with them, for I will not give you any of the territory of the people of 'Amon to possess, since I have given it to the descendants of Lot as their territory.'"'

<sup>20</sup> (This too is considered a land of the Refa'im: Refa'im, whom the Emori call Zamzumim, used to live there. <sup>21</sup> They were a large, numerous people, as tall as the 'Anakim; but ADONAI destroyed them as the people of 'Amon advanced and settled in their place—<sup>22</sup> just as he destroyed the Horim as descendants of 'Esav advanced into Se'ir and settled in their place, where they live to this day. <sup>23</sup> It was the same with the 'Avim, who lived in villages as far away as 'Azah — the Kaftorim, coming from Kaftor, destroyed them and settled in their place.)

<sup>24</sup> “‘Get up, get moving, and cross the Arnon Valley! Here, I have put in your hands Sichon the Emori, king of Heshbon, and his land; commence the conquest, begin the battle! <sup>25</sup> Today I will start putting the fear and dread of you into all the peoples under heaven, so that the mere mention of your name will make them quake and tremble before you.’

<sup>26</sup> “I sent envoys from the K’demot Desert to Sichon king of Heshbon with a peaceable message, <sup>27</sup> ‘Let me pass through your land. I will keep to the road, turning neither right nor left. <sup>28</sup> You will sell me food to eat for money and give me water to drink for money. I only want to pass through. <sup>29</sup> Do as the people of ‘Esav living in Se‘ir and the Mo’avim living in ‘Ar did with me, until I cross the Yarden into the land ADONAI our God is giving us.’

<sup>30</sup> “But Sichon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through his territory, because ADONAI your God had hardened his spirit and made him stubborn, so that he could hand him over to you, as is the case today. (vi) <sup>31</sup> ADONAI said to me, ‘See, I have begun handing over Sichon and his territory before you; start taking possession of his land.’ <sup>32</sup> Then Sichon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Yahatz; <sup>33</sup> and ADONAI our God handed him over to us, so that we defeated him, his sons and all his people. <sup>34</sup> At that time we captured all his cities and completely destroyed every city — men, women, little ones — we left none of them. <sup>35</sup> As booty for ourselves we took only the cattle, along with the spoil from the cities we had captured. <sup>36</sup> From ‘Aro‘er, on the edge of the Arnon Valley, and from the city in the valley, all the way to Gil‘ad, there was not one city too well fortified for us to capture — ADONAI our God gave all of them to us. <sup>37</sup> The only land you didn’t approach was that of the descendants of ‘Amon — the region around the Yabok River, the cities in the hills and wherever else ADONAI our God forbade us to go.

3 <sup>1</sup> “Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and ‘Og the king of Bashan came out against us with all his people to fight at Edre‘i. <sup>2</sup> ADONAI said to me, ‘Don’t be afraid of him; for I have handed him, all his people and his territory over to you; you will do to him as you did to Sichon king of the Emori, who lived at Heshbon.’ <sup>3</sup> So ADONAI our God also handed over to us ‘Og the king of Bashan with all his people, and we defeated him until he had no one left. <sup>4</sup> At that time we captured all his cities; there was not one city of theirs that we didn’t capture. There were sixty cities, all the region of Argov, the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan; <sup>5</sup> all of them fortified cities with high walls, gates and bars — in addition to a great number of unwalled towns. <sup>6</sup> We completely destroyed them, as we did with Sichon king of Heshbon, annihilating every city —men, women and little ones. <sup>7</sup> But we took all the livestock, along with the spoil from the cities, as booty for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> “At that time we captured the territory of the two kings of the Emori east of the Yarden between the Arnon Valley and Mount Hermon,” <sup>9</sup> the Hermon which the Tzidonim call Siryon and the Emori call S'nir, <sup>10</sup> “all the cities of the plain, all Gil'ad and all Bashan, as far as Salkhah and Edre'i, cities of the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan.” <sup>11</sup> 'Og king of Bashan was the last survivor of the Refa'im. His bed was made of iron; it is still in Rabbah with the people of 'Amon. It was nine cubits long and four cubits wide, using the normal cubit [thirteen-and-a-half by six feet].

<sup>12</sup> “Of this land that we took possession of then, I assigned to the Re'uveni and the Gadi the territory extending from 'Aro'er along the Arnon Valley together with half the hill-country of Gil'ad, including its cities. <sup>13</sup> The rest of Gil 'ad and all Bashan, the kingdom of 'Og, I gave to the half-tribe of M'nasheh.”

The whole region of Argov together with all of Bashan form what is called the land of Refa'im. <sup>14</sup> Ya'ir the son of M'nasheh took all the region of Argov, as far as the border with the G'shuri and the Ma'akhati; he named this whole area, including Bashan, after himself—it remains Havot-Ya'ir to this day.

(vii) <sup>15</sup> “I gave Gil'ad to Machir; <sup>16</sup> and to the Re'uveni and the Gadi I gave the territory from Gil'ad to the Arnon Valley, with the middle of the valley as the border, as far as the Yabok River, which is the border with the people of 'Amon; <sup>17</sup> the 'Aravah too, the Yarden being its border, from Kinneret to the Sea of the 'Aravah, the Dead Sea, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah to the east.

<sup>18</sup> “At that time I gave you this order: 'ADONAI your God has given you this land to possess. But all of you who are fit to fight must cross over, armed, ahead of your brothers the people of Isra'el. <sup>19</sup> Your wives, your little ones and your livestock — I know you have much livestock — will stay in your cities which I have given you, (Maftir) <sup>20</sup> until ADONAI allows your brothers to rest, as he has allowed you; and they too take possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving them on the west side of the Yarden. At that point you will return, each man to his own possession which I have given you.'

<sup>21</sup> "Also at that time I gave this order to Y'hoshua: 'Your eyes have seen everything that ADONAI your God has done to these two kings. ADONAI will do the same to all the kingdoms you encounter when you cross over. <sup>22</sup> Don't be afraid of them, because ADONAI your God will fight on your behalf.'

Haftarah D'varim: Yesha'yahu (Isaiah) 1:1–27

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah D'varim:
Yochanan (John) 15:1–11; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 3:7–4:11

Parashah 45: Va'etchanan (I pleaded) 3:23–7:11

<sup>23</sup> "Then I pleaded with ADONAI, <sup>24</sup> 'Adonai ELOHIM, you have begun to reveal your greatness to your servant, and your strong hand — for what other god is there in heaven or on earth that can do the works and mighty deeds that you do? <sup>25</sup> Please! Let me go across and see the good land on the other side of the Yarden, that wonderful hill-country and the L'vanon!' <sup>26</sup> But ADONAI was angry with me on account of you, and he didn't listen to me. ADONAI said to me, 'Enough from you! Don't say another word to me about this matter! <sup>27</sup> Climb up to the top of Pisgah and look out to the west, north, south and east. Look with your eyes — but you will not go across this Yarden. <sup>28</sup> However, commission Y'hoshua, encourage him and strengthen him; for he will lead this people across and enable them to inherit the land that you will see.' <sup>29</sup> So we stayed in the valley across from Beit-P'or.

4 <sup>1</sup> "Now, Isra'el, listen to the laws and rulings I am teaching you, in order to follow them, so that you will live; then you will go in and take possession of the land that ADONAI, the God of your fathers, is giving you. <sup>2</sup> In order to obey the mitzvot of ADONAI your God which I am giving you, do not add to what I am saying, and do not subtract from it. <sup>3</sup> You saw with your own eyes what ADONAI did at Ba'al-P'or, that ADONAI destroyed from among you all the men who followed Ba'al-P'or; <sup>4</sup> but you who stuck with ADONAI your God are still alive today, every one of you. (ii) <sup>5</sup> Look, I have taught you laws and rulings, just as ADONAI my God ordered me, so that you can behave accordingly in the land where you are going in order to take possession of it. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, observe them; and follow them; for then all peoples will see you as having wisdom and understanding. When they hear of all these laws, they will say, ‘This great nation is surely a wise and understanding people.’ <sup>7</sup> For what great nation is there that has God as close to them as ADONAI our God is, whenever we call on him? <sup>8</sup> What great nation is there that has laws and rulings as just as this entire Torah which I am setting before you today? <sup>9</sup> Only be careful, and watch yourselves diligently as long as you live, so that you won’t forget what you saw with your own eyes, so that these things won’t vanish from your hearts. Rather, make them known to your children and grandchildren — <sup>10</sup> the day you stood before ADONAI your God at Horev, when ADONAI I said to me, ‘Gather the people to me, and I will make them hear my very words, so that they will learn to hold me in awe as long as they live on earth, and so that they will teach their children.’ <sup>11</sup> You approached and stood at the foot of the mountain; and the mountain blazed with fire to the heart of heaven, with darkness, clouds and thick mist. <sup>12</sup> Then ADONAI spoke to you out of the fire! You heard the sound of words but saw no shape, there was only a voice. <sup>13</sup> He proclaimed his covenant to you, which he ordered you to obey, the Ten Words; and he wrote them on two stone tablets. <sup>14</sup> At that time ADONAI ordered me to teach you laws and rulings, so that you would live by them in the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

<sup>15</sup> “Therefore, watch out for yourselves! Since you did not see a shape of any kind on the day ADONAI spoke to you in Horev from the fire, <sup>16</sup> do not become corrupt and make yourselves a carved image having the shape of any figure — not a representation of a human being, male or female, <sup>17</sup> or a representation of any animal on earth, or a representation of any bird that flies in the air, <sup>18</sup> or a representation of anything that creeps along on the ground, or a representation of any fish in the water below the shoreline. <sup>19</sup> For the same reason, do not look up at the sky, at the sun, moon, stars and everything in the sky, and be drawn away to worship and serve them; ADONAI your God has allotted these to all the peoples under the entire sky. <sup>20</sup> No, you ADONAI has taken and brought out of the smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people of inheritance for him, as you are today.

<sup>21</sup> “But ADONAI was angry with me on account of you and swore that I would not cross the Yarden and go into that good land, which ADONAI your

God is giving you to inherit.<sup>22</sup> Rather, I must die in this land and not cross the Yarden; but you are to cross and take possession of that good land.<sup>23</sup> Watch out for yourselves, so that you won't forget the covenant of ADONAI your God, which he made with you, and make yourself a carved image, a representation of anything forbidden to you by ADONAI your God.<sup>24</sup> For ADONAI your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup> "When you have had children and grandchildren, lived a long time in the land, become corrupt and made a carved image, a representation of something, and thus done what is evil in the sight of ADONAI your God and provoked him;<sup>26</sup> I call on the sky and the earth to witness against you today that you will quickly disappear from the land that you are crossing the Yarden to possess. You will not prolong your days there but will be completely destroyed.<sup>27</sup> ADONAI will scatter you among the peoples; and among the nations to which ADONAI will lead you away, you will be left few in number.<sup>28</sup> There you will serve gods which are the product of human hands, made of wood and stone, which can't see, hear, eat or smell.<sup>29</sup> However, from there you will seek ADONAI your God; and you will find him if you search after him with all your heart and being.<sup>30</sup> In your distress, when all these things have come upon you, in the acharit-hayamim, you will return to ADONAI your God and listen to what he says;<sup>31</sup> for ADONAI your God is a merciful God. He will not fail you, destroy you, or forget the covenant with your ancestors which he swore to them.

<sup>32</sup> "Indeed, inquire about the past, before you were born: since the day God created human beings on the earth, from one end of heaven to the other, has there ever been anything as wonderful as this? Has anyone heard anything like it?<sup>33</sup> Did any other people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of a fire, as you have heard, and stay alive?<sup>34</sup> Or has God ever tried to go and take for himself a nation from the very bowels of another nation, by means of ordeals, signs, wonders, war, a mighty hand, an outstretched arm and great terrors — like all that ADONAI your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?<sup>35</sup> This was shown to you, so that you would know that ADONAI is God, and there is no other beside him.<sup>36</sup> From heaven he caused you to hear his voice, in order to instruct you; and on earth he caused you to see his great fire; and you heard his very words coming out from the fire.<sup>37</sup> Because he loved your ancestors, chose their descendants after them and brought you out of Egypt with his presence and great power,<sup>38</sup> in order to drive out ahead of you nations greater and stronger than you, so that he could bring you in and give you their land as an inheritance, as is the case today; <sup>39</sup> know today, and establish it in your heart, that ADONAI is God in heaven above and on earth below — there is no other. <sup>40</sup> Therefore, you are to keep his laws and mitzvot which I am giving you today, so that it will go well with you and with your children after you, and so that you will prolong your days in the land ADONAI your God is giving you forever.”

(A: iii) <sup>41</sup> Then Moshe separated three cities on the east side of the Yarden, toward the sunrise, <sup>42</sup> to which a killer might flee, that is, someone who kills by mistake a person whom he did not previously hate, and upon fleeing to one of these cities might live there. <sup>43</sup> The cities were Betzer in the desert, in the flatland, for the Re’uveni; Ramot in Gil’ad for the Gadi; and Golan in Bashan for the M’nashi.

<sup>44</sup> This is the Torah which Moshe placed before the people of Isra’el — <sup>45</sup> these are the instructions, laws and rulings which Moshe presented to the people of Isra’el after they had come out of Egypt — <sup>46</sup> beyond the Yarden River, in the valley across from Beit-P’or, in the land of Sichon king of the Emori, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moshe and the people of Isra’el defeated when they came out of Egypt; <sup>47</sup> and they took possession of his land and the land of ‘Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Emori, who were beyond the Yarden toward the sunrise; <sup>48</sup> from ‘Aro’er on the edge of the Arnon Valley to Mount Si’on (that is, Mount Hermon), <sup>49</sup> with all the ‘Aravah beyond the Yarden eastward, all the way to the Dead Sea at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah.

5 (A: iv, S: iii) <sup>1</sup> Then Moshe called to all Isra’el and said to them, “Listen, Isra’el, to the laws and rulings which I am announcing in your hearing today, so that you will learn them and take care to obey them. <sup>2</sup> ADONAI our God made a covenant with us at Horev. <sup>3</sup> ADONAI did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us — with us, who are all of us here alive today. <sup>4</sup>ADONAI spoke with you face to face from the fire on the mountain. <sup>5</sup> At that time I stood between ADONAI and you in order to tell you what ADONAI was saying; because, on account of the fire, you were afraid and wouldn’t go up onto the mountain. He said, ✠ <sup>6</sup> “‘I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you lived as slaves.

ב <sup>7</sup> ““You are to have no other gods before me. <sup>8</sup> You are not to make for yourselves a carved image or any kind of representation of anything in heaven above, on the earth beneath or in the water below the shoreline — <sup>9</sup> you are not to bow down to them or serve them; for I, ADONAI your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sins of the parents, also the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, <sup>10</sup> but displaying grace to the thousandth generation of those who love me and obey my mitzvot.

ג <sup>11</sup> ““You are not to misuse the name of ADONAI your God, because ADONAI will not leave unpunished someone who misuses his name.

ד <sup>12</sup> ““Observe the day of Shabbat, to set it apart as holy, as ADONAI your God ordered you to do. <sup>13</sup> You have six days to labor and do all your work, <sup>14</sup> but the seventh day is a Shabbat for ADONAI your God. On it you are not to do any kind of work — not you, your son or your daughter, not your male or female slave, not your ox, your donkey or any of your other livestock, and not the foreigner staying with you inside the gates to your property — so that your male and female servants can rest just as you do. <sup>15</sup> You are to remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and ADONAI your God brought you out from there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore ADONAI your God has ordered you to keep the day of Shabbat.

ה <sup>16</sup> ““Honor your father and mother, as ADONAI your God ordered you to do, so that you will live long and have things go well with you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

ו <sup>17</sup> ““Do not murder.

ז <sup>(18)</sup> ““Do not commit adultery.

ח <sup>(19)</sup> ““Do not steal.

ט <sup>(20)</sup> ““Do not give false evidence against your neighbor.

’<sup>18(21)</sup> “Do not covet your neighbor’s wife; do not covet your neighbor’s house, his field, his male or female slave, his ox, his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.’

(A: v, S: iv)<sup>19(22)</sup> “These words ADONAI spoke to your entire gathering at the mountain from fire, cloud and thick mist, in a loud voice; then it ceased. But he wrote them on two stone tablets, which he gave to me.<sup>20(23)</sup> When you heard the voice coming out of the darkness, as the mountain blazed with fire, you came to me, all the heads of your tribes and your leaders,<sup>21(24)</sup> and said, ‘Here, ADONAI our God has shown us his glory and his greatness! We have heard his voice coming from the fire, and we have seen today that God does speak with human beings, and they stay alive.<sup>22(25)</sup> But why should we keep risking death? This great fire will consume us! If we hear the voice of ADONAI our God any more, we will die!<sup>23(26)</sup> For who is there of all humanity that has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the fire, as we have, and stayed alive?<sup>24(27)</sup> You, go near; and hear everything ADONAI our God says. Then you will tell us everything ADONAI our God says to you; and we will listen to it and do it.’

<sup>25(28)</sup> “ADONAI heard what you were saying when you spoke to me, and ADONAI said to me, ‘I have heard what this people has said when speaking to you, and everything they have said is good.<sup>26(29)</sup> Oh, how I wish their hearts would stay like this always, that they would fear me and obey all my mitzvot; so that it would go well with them and their children forever.<sup>27(30)</sup> Go, tell them to return to their tents.<sup>28(31)</sup> But you, stand here by me; and I will tell you all the mitzvot, laws and rulings which you are to teach them, so that they can obey them in the land I am giving them as their possession.’

<sup>29(32)</sup> “Therefore you are to be careful to do as ADONAI your God has ordered you; you are not to deviate either to the right or the left.<sup>30(33)</sup> You are to follow the entire way which ADONAI your God has ordered you; so that you will live, things will go well with you, and you will live long in the land you are about to possess.

6<sup>1</sup> “Now this is the mitzvah, the laws and rulings which ADONAI your God ordered me to teach you for you to obey in the land you are crossing over to possess, <sup>2</sup> so that you will fear ADONAI your God and observe all his regulations and mitzvot that I am giving you — you, your child and your grandchild — as long as you live, and so that you will have long life. <sup>3</sup> Therefore listen, Isra'el, and take care to obey, so that things will go well with you, and so that you will increase greatly, as ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, promised you by giving you a land flowing with milk and honey.

(A:vi, S: v) <sup>4</sup> “Sh'ma, Yisra'el! ADONAI Eloheinu, ADONAI echad [Hear, Isra'el! ADONAI our God, ADONAI is one]; <sup>5</sup> and you are to love ADONAI your God with all your heart, all your being and all your resources. <sup>6</sup> These words, which I am ordering you today, are to be on your heart; <sup>7</sup> and you are to teach them carefully to your children. You are to talk about them when you sit at home, when you are traveling on the road, when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>8</sup> Tie them on your hand as a sign, put them at the front of a headband around your forehead, <sup>9</sup> and write them on the door-frames of your house and on your gates.

(S: vi) <sup>10</sup> “When ADONAI your God has brought you into the land he swore to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov that he would give you — cities great and prosperous, which you didn't build; <sup>11</sup> houses full of all sorts of good things, which you didn't fill; water cisterns dug out, which you didn't dig; vineyards and olive trees, which you didn't plant — and you have eaten your fill; <sup>12</sup> then be careful not to forget ADONAI, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you lived as slaves. <sup>13</sup> You are to fear ADONAI your God, serve him and swear by his name. <sup>14</sup> You are not to follow other gods, chosen from the gods of the peoples around you; <sup>15</sup> because ADONAI, your God, who is here with you, is a jealous God. If you do, the anger of ADONAI your God will flare up against you and he will destroy you from the face of the earth. <sup>16</sup> Do not put ADONAI your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah [testing]. <sup>17</sup> Observe diligently the mitzvot of ADONAI your God, and his instructions and laws which he has given you. <sup>18</sup> You are to do what is right and good in the sight of ADONAI, so that things will go well with you, and you will enter and possess the good land ADONAI swore to your ancestors, <sup>19</sup> expelling all your enemies ahead of you, as ADONAI said.

<sup>20</sup> “Some day your child will ask you, ‘What is the meaning of the instructions, laws and rulings which ADONAI our God has laid down for you?’

<sup>21</sup> Then you will tell your child, ‘We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and ADONAI brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand. <sup>22</sup> ADONAI worked great and terrible signs and wonders against Egypt, Pharaoh and all his household, before our very eyes. <sup>23</sup> He brought us out from there in order to bring us to the land he had sworn to our ancestors that he would give us. <sup>24</sup> ADONAI ordered us to observe all these laws, to fear ADONAI our God, always for our own good, so that he might keep us alive, as we are today. <sup>25</sup> It will be righteousness for us if we are careful to obey all these mitzvot before ADONAI our God, just as he ordered us to do.’”

7(vii) <sup>1</sup> “ADONAI your God is going to bring you into the land you will enter in order to take possession of it, and he will expel many nations ahead of you — the Hitti, Girgashi, Emori, Kena‘ani, P’rizi, Hivi and Y’vusi, seven nations bigger and stronger than you. <sup>2</sup> When he does this, when ADONAI your God hands them over ahead of you, and you defeat them, you are to destroy them completely! Do not make any covenant with them. Show them no mercy. <sup>3</sup> Don’t intermarry with them — don’t give your daughter to his son, and don’t take his daughter for your son. <sup>4</sup> For he will turn your children away from following me in order to serve other gods. If this happens, the anger of ADONAI will flare up against you, and he will quickly destroy you. <sup>5</sup> No, treat them this way: break down their altars, smash their standing-stones to pieces, cut down their sacred poles and burn up their carved images completely. <sup>6</sup> For you are a people set apart as holy for ADONAI your God. ADONAI your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his own unique treasure. <sup>7</sup> ADONAI didn’t set his heart on you or choose you because you numbered more than any other people — on the contrary, you were the fewest of all peoples. <sup>8</sup> Rather, it was because ADONAI loved you, and because he wanted to keep the oath which he had sworn to your ancestors, that ADONAI brought you out with a strong hand and redeemed you from a life of slavery under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. (Maftir) <sup>9</sup> From this you can know that ADONAI your God is indeed God, the faithful God, who keeps his covenant and extends grace to those who love him and observe his mitzvot, to a thousand generations. <sup>10</sup> But he repays those who hate him to their face and destroys them. He will not be slow to deal with someone who hates him; he will repay him to his face. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, you are to keep the mitzvot, laws and rulings which I am giving you today, and obey them.

Haftarah Va’etchanan: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 40:1–26

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Va'etchanan: Mattityahu (Matthew) 4:1–11; 22:33–40; Mark 12:28–34; Luke 4:1–13; 10:25–37; Acts 13:13–43; Romans 3:27–31; 1 Timothy 2:4–6; Ya'akov (James) 2:14–26; and all the readings for Parashah 17

Parashah 46: 'Ekev (Because) 7:12–11:25

<sup>12</sup> “Because you are listening to these rulings, keeping and obeying them, ADONAI your God will keep with you the covenant and mercy that he swore to your ancestors. <sup>13</sup> He will love you, bless you and increase your numbers; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground — your grain, wine, olive oil and the young of your cattle and sheep — in the land he swore to your ancestors that he would give you. <sup>14</sup> You will be blessed more than all other peoples; there will not be a sterile male or female among you, and the same with your livestock. <sup>15</sup> ADONAI will remove all illness from you — he will not afflict you with any of Egypt’s dreadful diseases, which you have known; instead, he will lay them on those who hate you. <sup>16</sup> You are to devour all the peoples that ADONAI your God hands over to you — show them no pity, and do not serve their gods, because that will become a trap for you. <sup>17</sup> If you think to yourselves, ‘These nations outnumber us; how can we dispossess them?’ <sup>18</sup> nevertheless, you are not to be afraid of them; you are to remember well what ADONAI your God did to Pharaoh and all of Egypt—<sup>19</sup> the great ordeals which you yourself saw, and the signs, wonders, strong hand and outstretched arm by which ADONAI your God brought you out. ADONAI will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup> Moreover, ADONAI your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left and those who hide themselves perish ahead of you. <sup>21</sup> You are not to be frightened of them, because ADONAI your God is there with you, a God great and fearsome. <sup>22</sup> ADONAI your God will expel those nations ahead of you little by little; you can’t put an end to them all at once, or the wild animals will become too numerous for you. <sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, ADONAI your God will give them over to you, sending one disaster after another upon them until they have been destroyed. <sup>24</sup> He will hand their kings over to you, and you will wipe out their name from under heaven; none of them will be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.<sup>25</sup> You are to burn up completely the carved statues of their gods. Don't be greedy for the silver or gold on them; don't take it with you, or you will be trapped by it; for it is abhorrent to ADONAI your God.<sup>26</sup> Don't bring something abhorrent into your house, or you will share in the curse that is on it; instead, you are to detest it completely, loathe it utterly; for it is set apart for destruction.

8<sup>1</sup> “All the mitzvot I am giving you today you are to take care to obey, so that you will live, increase your numbers, enter and take possession of the land ADONAI swore about to your ancestors.<sup>2</sup> You are to remember everything of the way in which ADONAI led you these forty years in the desert, humbling and testing you in order to know what was in your heart — whether you would obey his mitzvot or not.<sup>3</sup> He humbled you, allowing you to become hungry, and then fed you with man, which neither you nor your ancestors had ever known, to make you understand that a person does not live on food alone but on everything that comes from the mouth of ADONAI.<sup>4</sup> During these forty years the clothing you were wearing didn't grow old, and your feet didn't swell up.<sup>5</sup> Think deeply about it: ADONAI was disciplining you, just as a man disciplines his child.<sup>6</sup> So obey the mitzvot of ADONAI your God, living as he directs and fearing him.<sup>7</sup> For ADONAI your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with streams, springs and water welling up from the depths in valleys and on hillsides.<sup>8</sup> It is a land of wheat and barley, grapevines, fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey;<sup>9</sup> a land where you will eat food in abundance and lack nothing in it; a land where the stones contain iron and the hills can be mined for copper.<sup>10</sup> So you will eat and be satisfied, and you will bless ADONAI your God for the good land he has given you.

(ii)<sup>11</sup> “Be careful not to forget ADONAI your God by not obeying his mitzvot, rulings and regulations that I am giving you today.<sup>12</sup> Otherwise, after you have eaten and are satisfied, built fine houses and lived in them,<sup>13</sup> and increased your herds, flocks, silver, gold and everything else you own,<sup>14</sup> you will become proud-hearted. Forgetting ADONAI your God — who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you lived as slaves;<sup>15</sup> who led you through the vast and fearsome desert, with its poisonous snakes, scorpions and waterless, thirsty ground; who brought water out of flint rock for you;<sup>16</sup> who fed you in the desert with man, unknown to your ancestors; all the while humbling and testing you in order to do you good in the end — <sup>17</sup> you will think to yourself, ‘My own power and the strength of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.’ <sup>18</sup> No, you are to remember ADONAI your God, because it is he who is giving you the power to get wealth, in order to confirm his covenant, which he swore to your ancestors, as is happening even today. <sup>19</sup> If you forget ADONAI your God, follow other gods and serve and worship them, I am warning you in advance today that you will certainly perish. <sup>20</sup> You will perish just like the nations that ADONAI is causing to perish ahead of you, because you will not have heeded the voice of ADONAI your God.”

9 <sup>1</sup> “Listen, Isra’el! You are to cross the Yarden today, to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, great cities fortified up to the sky; <sup>2</sup> a people great and tall, the ‘Anakim, whom you know about and of whom you have heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the descendants of ‘Anak?’ <sup>3</sup> Therefore understand today that ADONAI your God will himself cross ahead of you as a devouring fire; he will destroy them and bring them down before you. Thus will you drive them out and cause them to perish quickly, as ADONAI has said to you.

(iii) <sup>4</sup> “Don’t think to yourself, after your God has pushed them out ahead of you, ‘It is to reward my righteousness that ADONAI has brought me in to take possession of this land.’ No, it is because these nations have been so wicked that ADONAI is driving them out ahead of you. <sup>5</sup> It is not because of your righteousness, or because your heart is so upright, that you go in to take possession of their land; but to punish the wickedness of these nations that ADONAI your God is driving them out ahead of you, and also to confirm the word which ADONAI swore to your ancestors, Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, understand that it is not for your righteousness that ADONAI your God is giving you this good land to possess.

“For you are a stiffnecked people! <sup>7</sup> Remember, don’t forget, how you made ADONAI your God angry in the desert. From the day you left the land of Egypt till you arrived at this place, you have been rebelling against ADONAI. <sup>8</sup> Also in Horev you made ADONAI angry — ADONAI was angry enough with you to destroy you! <sup>9</sup> I had gone up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets on which was written the covenant ADONAI had made with you. I stayed on the mountain forty days and nights without eating food or drinking water. <sup>10</sup> Then ADONAI gave me the two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God; and on them was written every word ADONAI had said to you from the fire on the mountain the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup> Yes, after forty days and nights ADONAI gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant. <sup>12</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, ‘Get up, and hurry down from here, because your people, whom you led out of Egypt, have become corrupt. So quickly have they turned aside from the way I ordered them to follow! They have made themselves a metal image!’ <sup>13</sup> Moreover, ADONAI said to me, ‘I have seen this people, and what a stiffnecked people they are! <sup>14</sup> Let me alone, so that I can put an end to them and blot out their name from under heaven! I will make out of you a nation bigger and stronger than they.’ <sup>15</sup> I came down from the mountain. The mountain was blazing fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup> I looked, and there, you had sinned against ADONAI your God! You had made yourselves a metal calf, you had turned aside quickly from the way ADONAI had ordered you to follow. <sup>17</sup> I seized the two tablets, threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup> Then I fell down before ADONAI, as I had the first time, for forty days and nights, during which time I neither ate food nor drank water, all because of the sin you committed by doing what was evil in the sight of ADONAI and thus provoking him. <sup>19</sup> I was terrified that because of how angry ADONAI was at you, of how heatedly displeased he was, that he would destroy you. But ADONAI listened to me that time too. <sup>20</sup> In addition, ADONAI was very angry with Aharon and would have destroyed him; but I prayed for Aharon also at the same time. <sup>21</sup> I took your sin, the calf you had made, and burned it up in the fire, beat it to pieces, and ground it up still smaller, until it was as fine as dust; then I threw its dust into the stream coming down from the mountain.

<sup>22</sup> “Again at Tav‘erah, Massah and Kivrot-HaTa’avah you made ADONAI angry; <sup>23</sup> and when ADONAI sent you off from Kadesh-Barnea by saying, ‘Go up and take possession of the land I have given you,’ you rebelled against the order of ADONAI your God — you neither trusted him nor heeded what he said. <sup>24</sup> You have been rebelling against ADONAI from the day I first knew you!

<sup>25</sup> “So I fell down before ADONAI for those forty days and nights; and I lay there; because ADONAI had said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup> I prayed to ADONAI; I said, ‘Adonai ELOHIM! Don’t destroy your people, your inheritance! You redeemed them through your greatness, you brought them out of Egypt with a strong hand! <sup>27</sup> Remember your servants Avraham, Yitz’chak and

Ya‘akov! Don’t focus on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or on their sin.<sup>28</sup> Otherwise, the land you brought us out of will say, “It is because ADONAI wasn’t able to bring them into the land he promised them and because he hated them that he has brought them out to kill them in the desert.”<sup>29</sup> But in fact they are your people, your inheritance, whom you brought out by your great power and your outstretched arm.’

10 (iv)<sup>1</sup> “At that time ADONAI said to me, ‘Cut yourself two stone tablets like the first ones, come up to me on the mountain, and make yourself an ark of wood.<sup>2</sup> I will inscribe on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke; and you are to put them in the ark.’<sup>3</sup> So I made an ark of acacia-wood and cut two stone tablets like the first, then climbed the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.<sup>4</sup> He inscribed the tablets with the same inscription as before, the Ten Words which ADONAI proclaimed to you from the fire on the mountain the day of the assembly; and ADONAI gave them to me.<sup>5</sup> I turned, came down the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made; and there they remain; as ADONAI ordered me.

<sup>6</sup> “The people of Isra’el traveled from the wells of B’nei-Ya‘akan to Moserah, where Aharon died and was buried; and El‘azar his son took his place, serving in the office of cohen.<sup>7</sup> From there they traveled to Gudgod, and from Gudgod to Yotvatah, a region with running streams.<sup>8</sup> At that time ADONAI set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark for the covenant of ADONAI and to stand before ADONAI to serve him and to bless in his name, as they still do today.<sup>9</sup> This is why Levi has no share or inheritance with his brothers; ADONAI is his inheritance, as ADONAI your God had said to him.

<sup>10</sup> “I stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as previously; and ADONAI listened to me that time too — ADONAI would not destroy you.<sup>11</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, ‘Get up, and go on your way at the head of the people, so that they can enter and take possession of the land I swore to their ancestors that I would give them.’

(v)<sup>12</sup> “So now, Isra’el, all that ADONAI your God asks from you is to fear ADONAI your God, follow all his ways, love him and serve ADONAI your God with all your heart and all your being;<sup>13</sup> to obey, for your own good, the mitzvot and regulations of ADONAI which I am giving you today.<sup>14</sup> See, the sky, the heaven beyond the sky, the earth and everything on it all belong to ADONAI your God.<sup>15</sup> Only ADONAI took enough pleasure in your ancestors to love them and choose their descendants after them — yourselves — above all peoples, as he still does today. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, circumcise the foreskin of your heart; and don't be stiffnecked any longer! <sup>17</sup> For ADONAI your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty and awesome God, who has no favorites and accepts no bribes. <sup>18</sup> He secures justice for the orphan and the widow; he loves the foreigner, giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup> Therefore you are to love the foreigner, since you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> You are to fear ADONAI your God, serve him, cling to him and swear by his name. <sup>21</sup> He is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which you have seen with your own eyes. <sup>22</sup> Your ancestors went down into Egypt with only seventy people, but now ADONAI your God has made your numbers as many as the stars in the sky!

11 <sup>1</sup> “Therefore, you are to love ADONAI your God and always obey his commission, regulations, rulings and mitzvot. <sup>2</sup> Today it is you I am addressing — not your children, who haven't known or experienced the discipline of ADONAI your God, his greatness, his strong hand, his outstretched arm, <sup>3</sup> his signs and his actions which he did in Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to his entire country. <sup>4</sup> They didn't experience what he did to Egypt's army, horses and chariots — how ADONAI overwhelmed them with the water of the Sea of Suf as they were pursuing you, so that they remain destroyed to this day. <sup>5</sup> They didn't experience what he kept doing for you in the desert until you arrived at this place; <sup>6</sup> or what he did to Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av the descendant of Re'uven — how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households, tents and every living thing in their company, there in front of all Isra'el. <sup>7</sup> But you have seen with your own eyes all these great deeds of ADONAI. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, you are to keep every mitzvah I am giving you today; so that you will be strong enough to go in and take possession of the land you are crossing over to conquer; <sup>9</sup> and so that you will live long in the land ADONAI swore to give to your ancestors and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

(vi) <sup>10</sup> “For the land you are entering in order to take possession of it isn't like the land of Egypt. There you would sow your seed and had to use your feet to operate its irrigation system, as in a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup> But the land you are crossing over to take possession of is a land of hills and valleys, which soaks up water when rain falls from the sky. <sup>12</sup> It is a land ADONAI your God cares for. The eyes of ADONAI your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup> “So if you listen carefully to my mitzvot which I am giving you today, to love ADONAI your God and serve him with all your heart and all your being; <sup>14</sup> then, [says ADONAI,] ‘I will give your land its rain at the right seasons, including the early fall rains and the late spring rains; so that you can gather in your wheat, new wine and olive oil; <sup>15</sup> and I will give your fields grass for your livestock; with the result that you will eat and be satisfied.’ <sup>16</sup> But be careful not to let yourselves be seduced, so that you turn aside, serving other gods and worshipping them. <sup>17</sup> If you do, the anger of ADONAI will blaze up against you. He will shut up the sky, so that there will be no rain. The ground will not yield its produce, and you will quickly pass away from the good land ADONAI is giving you. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, you are to store up these words of mine in your heart and in all your being; tie them on your hand as a sign; put them at the front of a headband around your forehead; <sup>19</sup> teach them carefully to your children, talking about them when you sit at home, when you are traveling on the road, when you lie down and when you get up; <sup>20</sup> and write them on the door-frames of your house and on your gates — <sup>21</sup> so that you and your children will live long on the land ADONAI swore to your ancestors that he would give them for as long as there is sky above the earth.

(vii & Maftir) <sup>22</sup> “For if you will take care to obey all these mitzvot I am giving you, to do them, to love ADONAI your God, to follow all his ways and to cling to him, <sup>23</sup> then ADONAI will expel all these nations ahead of you; and you will dispossess nations bigger and stronger than you are. <sup>24</sup> Wherever the sole of your foot steps will be yours; your territory will extend from the desert to the L’vanon and from the River, the Euphrates River, to the Western Sea. <sup>25</sup> No one will be able to withstand you; ADONAI your God will place the fear and dread of you on all the land you step on, as he told you.

Haftarah ‘Ekev: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 49:14–51:3

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah ‘Ekev: Mattityahu (Matthew) 4:1–11; Luke 4:1–13; Ya’akov (James) 5:7–

Parashah 47: Re'eh (See) 11:26–16:17

<sup>26</sup> “See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse —<sup>27</sup> the blessing, if you listen to the mitzvot of ADONAI your God that I am giving you today; <sup>28</sup> and the curse, if you don’t listen to the mitzvot of ADONAI your God, but turn aside from the way I am ordering you today and follow other gods that you have not known.

<sup>29</sup> “When ADONAI your God brings you into the land you are entering in order to take possession of it, you are to put the blessing on Mount G’rizim and the curse on Mount ‘Eival. <sup>30</sup> Both are west of the Yarden, in the direction of the sunset, in the land of the Kena’ani living in the ‘Aravah, across from Gilgal, near the pistachio trees of Moreh. <sup>31</sup> For you are to cross the Yarden to enter and take possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving you; you are to own it and live in it. <sup>32</sup> And you are to take care to follow all the laws and rulings I am setting before you today.

12 <sup>1</sup> Here are the laws and rulings you are to observe and obey in the land ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, has given you to possess as long as you live on earth. <sup>2</sup> You must destroy all the places where the nations you are dispossessing served their gods, whether on high mountains, on hills, or under some leafy tree. <sup>3</sup> Break down their altars, smash their standing-stones to pieces, burn up their sacred poles completely and cut down the carved images of their gods. Exterminate their name from that place.

<sup>4</sup> “But you are not to treat ADONAI your God this way. <sup>5</sup> Rather, you are to come to the place where ADONAI your God will put his name. He will choose it from all your tribes; and you will seek out that place, which is where he will live, and go there. <sup>6</sup> You will bring there your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tenths [that you set aside for ADONAI], the offerings that you give, the offerings you have vowed, your voluntary offerings, and the firstborn of your cattle and sheep. <sup>7</sup> There you will eat in the presence of ADONAI your God; and you will rejoice over everything you set out to do, you and your households, in which ADONAI your God has blessed you. <sup>8</sup> You will not do things the way we do them here today, where everyone does whatever in his own opinion seems right; <sup>9</sup> because you haven’t yet arrived at the rest and inheritance which ADONAI your God is giving you. <sup>10</sup> But when you cross the Yarden and live in the land ADONAI your God is having you inherit, and he gives you rest from all your surrounding enemies, so that you are living in safety; (ii) <sup>11</sup> then you will bring all that I am ordering you to the place ADONAI your God chooses to have his name live — your burnt offerings, sacrifices, tenths, the offering from your hand, and all your best possessions that you dedicate to ADONAI; <sup>12</sup> and you will rejoice in the presence of ADONAI your God — you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves and the Levi staying with you, inasmuch as he has no share or inheritance with you.

<sup>13</sup> “Be careful not to offer your burnt offerings just anywhere you see, <sup>14</sup> but do it in the place ADONAI will choose in one of your tribal territories; there is where you are to offer your burnt offerings and do everything I order you to do. <sup>15</sup> However, you may slaughter and eat meat wherever you live and whenever you want, in keeping with the degree to which ADONAI your God has blessed you. The unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer. <sup>16</sup> But don’t eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

<sup>17</sup> “You are not to eat on your own property the tenth of your grain, new wine or olive oil [that you set aside for ADONAI], or the firstborn of your cattle or sheep, or any offering you have vowed, or your voluntary offering, or the offering from your hand. <sup>18</sup> No, you are to eat these in the presence of ADONAI your God in the place ADONAI your God will choose — you and your sons, daughters, male and female slaves, and the Levi who is your guest; and you are to rejoice before ADONAI your God in everything you undertake to do. <sup>19</sup> As long as you are living on your property, take care not to abandon the Levi.

<sup>20</sup> “When ADONAI your God expands your territory, as he has promised you, and you say, ‘I want to eat meat,’ simply because you want to eat meat, then you may eat meat, as much as you want. <sup>21</sup> If the place which ADONAI your God chooses to place his name is too far away from you; then you are to slaughter animals from your cattle or sheep, which ADONAI has given you; and eat on your own property, as much as you want. <sup>22</sup> Eat it as you would gazelle or deer; the unclean and clean alike may eat it. <sup>23</sup> Just take care not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you are not to eat the life with the meat. <sup>24</sup> Don’t eat it, but pour it out on the ground like water. <sup>25</sup> Do not eat it, so that things will go well with you and with your children after you, as you do what ADONAI sees as right. <sup>26</sup> Only the things set aside for God which you have, and the vows you have vowed to make, you must take and go to the place which ADONAI will choose. <sup>27</sup> There you will offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of ADONAI your God. The blood of your sacrifices is to be poured out on the altar of ADONAI your God, and you will eat the meat. <sup>28</sup> Obey and pay attention to everything I am ordering you to do, so that things will go well with you and with your descendants after you forever, as you do what ADONAI sees as good and right.

(iii) <sup>29</sup> “When ADONAI your God has cut off ahead of you the nations you are entering in order to dispossess, and when you have dispossessed them and are living in their land; <sup>30</sup> be careful, after they have been destroyed ahead of you, not to be trapped into following them; so that you inquire after their gods and ask, ‘How did these nations serve their gods? I want to do the same.’ <sup>31</sup> You must not do this to ADONAI your God! For they have done to their gods all the abominations that ADONAI hates! They even burn up their sons and daughters in the fire for their gods!

13 <sup>1(12:32)</sup> “Everything I am commanding you, you are to take care to do. Do not add to it or subtract from it.

<sup>2(1)</sup> “If a prophet or someone who gets messages while dreaming arises among you and he gives you a sign or wonder, <sup>3(2)</sup> and the sign or wonder comes about as he predicted when he said, ‘Let’s follow other gods, which you have not known; and let us serve them,’ <sup>4(3)</sup> you are not to listen to what that prophet or dreamer says. For ADONAI your God is testing you, in order to find out whether you really do love ADONAI your God with all your heart and being. <sup>5(4)</sup> You are to follow ADONAI your God, fear him, obey his mitzvot, listen to what he says, serve him and cling to him; <sup>6(5)</sup> and that prophet or dreamer is to be put to death; because he urged rebellion against ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from a life of slavery; in order to seduce you away from the path ADONAI your God ordered you to follow. This is how you are to rid your community of this wickedness.

<sup>7(6)</sup> “If your brother the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or your wife whom you love, or your friend who means as much to you as yourself, secretly tries to entice you to go and serve other gods, which you haven’t known, neither you nor your ancestors — <sup>8(7)</sup> gods of the peoples surrounding you, whether near or far away from you, anywhere in the world — <sup>9(8)</sup> you are not to consent, and you are not to listen to him; and you must not pity him or spare him; and you may not conceal him. <sup>10(9)</sup> Rather, you must kill him! Your own hand must be the first one on him in putting him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. <sup>11(10)</sup> You are to stone him to death; because he has tried to draw you away from ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a life of slavery. <sup>12(11)</sup> Then all Isra'el will hear about it and be afraid, so that they will stop doing such wickedness as this among themselves.

<sup>13(12)</sup> “If you hear it told that in one of your cities which ADONAI your God is giving you to live in, <sup>14(13)</sup> certain scoundrels have sprung up among you and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city by saying, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods, which you haven’t known,’ <sup>15(14)</sup> then you are to investigate the matter, inquiring and searching diligently. If the rumor is true, if it is confirmed that such detestable things are being done among you, <sup>16(15)</sup> you must put the inhabitants of that city to death with the sword, destroying it completely with the sword, everything in it, including its livestock. <sup>17(16)</sup> Heap all its spoils in an open space, and burn the city with its spoils to the ground for ADONAI your God; it will remain a tel forever and not be built again — <sup>18(17)</sup> none of what has been set apart for destruction is to stay in your hands. Then ADONAI will turn from his fierce anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and increase your numbers, as he swore to your ancestors — <sup>19(18)</sup> provided you listen to what ADONAI says and obey all his mitzvot that I am giving you today, thus doing what ADONAI your God sees as right.

14 (iv) <sup>1</sup> “You are the people of ADONAI your God. You are not to gash yourselves or shave the hair above your foreheads in mourning for the dead, <sup>2</sup> because you are a people set apart as holy for ADONAI your God. ADONAI your God has chosen you to be his own unique treasure out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

<sup>3</sup> “You are not to eat anything disgusting. <sup>4</sup> The animals which you may eat are: ox, sheep, goat, <sup>5</sup> deer, gazelle, roebuck, ibex, antelope, oryx and mountain sheep. <sup>6</sup> Any animal that has a separate hoof that is completely divided and also chews the cud, these animals you may eat. <sup>7</sup> But you are not to eat those that only chew the cud or only have a divided hoof. For example, the camel, the hare and the coney are unclean for you because they chew the cud but don’t have a separate hoof; <sup>8</sup> while the pig is unclean for you because, although it has a separate hoof, it doesn't chew the cud. You are not to eat meat from these or touch their carcasses.

<sup>9</sup> “Of all that lives in the water, you may eat these: anything in the water that has fins and scales, these you may eat. <sup>10</sup> But whatever lacks fins and scales you are not to eat; it is unclean for you.

<sup>11</sup> “You may eat any clean bird; <sup>12</sup> but these you are not to eat: eagles, vultures, ospreys, <sup>13</sup> kites, any kind of buzzard, <sup>14</sup> any kind of raven, <sup>15</sup> ostriches, screech-owls, seagulls, any kind of hawk, <sup>16</sup> little owls, great owls, horned owls, <sup>17</sup> pelicans, barn owls, cormorants, <sup>18</sup> storks, any kind of heron, hoopoes and bats.

<sup>19</sup> “All winged swarming creatures are unclean for you; they are not to be eaten; <sup>20</sup> but all clean flying creatures you may eat.

<sup>21</sup> “You are not to eat any animal that dies naturally; although you may let a stranger staying with you eat it, or sell it to a foreigner; because you are a holy people for ADONAI your God.

“You are not to boil a young animal in its mother's milk.

(v) <sup>22</sup> “Every year you must take one tenth of everything your seed produces in the field, <sup>23</sup> and eat it in the presence of ADONAI your God. In the place where he chooses to have his name live you will eat the tenth of your grain, new wine and olive oil, and the firstborn of your cattle and sheep, so that you will learn to fear ADONAI your God always. <sup>24</sup> But if the distance is too great for you, so that you are unable to transport it, because the place where ADONAI chooses to put his name is too far away from you; then, when ADONAI your God prospers you, <sup>25</sup> you are to convert it into money, take the money with you, go to the place which ADONAI your God will choose, <sup>26</sup> and exchange the money for anything you want — cattle, sheep, wine, other intoxicating liquor, or anything you please — and you are to eat there in the presence of ADONAI your God, and enjoy yourselves, you and your household.

<sup>27</sup> “But don't neglect the Levi staying with you, because he has no share or inheritance like yours. <sup>28</sup> At the end of every three years you are to take all the tenths of your produce from that year and store it in your towns. <sup>29</sup> Then the Levi, because he has no share or inheritance like yours, along with the foreigner, the orphan and the widow living in your towns, will come, eat and be satisfied — so that ADONAI your God will bless you in everything your hands produce.

15 (vi) <sup>1</sup> “At the end of every seven years you are to have a sh’mittah. <sup>2</sup> Here is how the sh’mittah is to be done: every creditor is to give up what he has loaned to his fellow member of the community — he is not to force his neighbor or relative to repay it, because ADONAI’s time of remission has been proclaimed. <sup>3</sup> You may demand that a foreigner repay his debt, but you are to release your claim on whatever your brother owes you. <sup>4</sup> In spite of this, there will be no one needy among you; because ADONAI will certainly bless you in the land which ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess — <sup>5</sup> if only you will listen carefully to what ADONAI your God says and take care to obey all these mitzvot I am giving you today. <sup>6</sup> Yes, ADONAI your God will bless you, as he promised you — you will lend money to many nations without having to borrow, and you will rule over many nations without their ruling over you.

<sup>7</sup> “If someone among you is needy, one of your brothers, in any of your towns in your land which ADONAI your God is giving you, you are not to harden your heart or shut your hand from giving to your needy brother. <sup>8</sup> No, you must open your hand to him and lend him enough to meet his need and enable him to obtain what he wants. <sup>9</sup> Guard yourself against allowing your heart to entertain the mean-spirited thought that because the seventh year, the year of sh’mittah is at hand, you would be stingy toward your needy brother and not give him anything; for then he may cry out to ADONAI against you, and it will be your sin. <sup>10</sup> Rather, you must give to him; and you are not to be grudging when you give to him. If you do this, ADONAI your God will bless you in all your work, in everything you undertake — <sup>11</sup> for there will always be poor people in the land. That is why I am giving you this order, ‘You must open your hand to your poor and needy brother in your land.’

<sup>12</sup> “If your kinsman, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you, he is to serve you for six years; but in the seventh year, you are to set him free. <sup>13</sup> Moreover, when you set him free, don’t let him leave empty-handed; <sup>14</sup> but supply him generously from your flock, threshing-floor and winepress; from what ADONAI your God has blessed you with, you are to give to him. <sup>15</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and ADONAI your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this order today. <sup>16</sup> But if he says to you, ‘I don’t want to leave you,’ because he loves you and your household, and because his life with you is a good one; <sup>17</sup> then take an awl, and pierce his ear through, right into the door; and he will be your slave forever. Do the same with your female slave. <sup>18</sup> Don't resent it when you set him free, since during his six years of service he has been worth twice as much as a hired employee. Then ADONAI your God will bless you in everything you do.

(vii) <sup>19</sup> “All the firstborn males in your herd of cattle and in your flock you are to set aside for ADONAI your God; you are not to do any work with a firstborn from your herd or shear a firstborn sheep. <sup>20</sup> Each year you and your household are to eat it in the presence of ADONAI your God in the place which ADONAI will choose. <sup>21</sup> But if it has a defect, is lame or blind, or has some other kind of fault, you are not to sacrifice it to ADONAI your God; <sup>22</sup> rather, eat it on your own property; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it, like the gazelle or the deer. <sup>23</sup> Just don't eat its blood, but pour it out on the ground like water.

16 <sup>1</sup> “Observe the month of Aviv, and keep Pesach to ADONAI your God; for in the month of Aviv, ADONAI your God brought you out of Egypt at night. <sup>2</sup> You are to sacrifice the Pesach offering from flock and herd to ADONAI your God in the place where ADONAI will choose to have his name live. <sup>3</sup> You are not to eat any hametz with it; for seven days you are to eat with it matzah, the bread of affliction; for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste. Thus you will remember the day you left the land of Egypt as long as you live. <sup>4</sup> No leaven is to be seen with you anywhere in your territory for seven days. None of the meat from your sacrifice on the first day in the evening is to remain all night until morning. <sup>5</sup> You may not sacrifice the Pesach offering in just any of the towns that ADONAI your God is giving you; <sup>6</sup> but at the place where ADONAI your God will choose to have his name live — there is where you are to sacrifice the Pesach offering, in the evening, when the sun sets, at the time of year that you came out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> You are to roast it and eat it in the place ADONAI your God will choose; in the morning you will return and go to your tents. <sup>8</sup> For six days you are to eat matzah; on the seventh day there is to be a festive assembly for ADONAI your God; do not do any kind of work.

<sup>9</sup> “You are to count seven weeks; you are to begin counting seven weeks from the time you first put your sickle to the standing grain. <sup>10</sup> You are to observe the festival of Shavu'ot [weeks] for ADONAI your God with a voluntary offering, which you are to give in accordance with the degree to which ADONAI your God has prospered you. <sup>11</sup> You are to rejoice in the presence of ADONAI your God — you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, the L'vi'im living in your towns, and the foreigners, orphans and widows living among you — in the place where ADONAI your God will choose to have his name live. <sup>12</sup> Remember that you were a slave in Egypt; then you will keep and obey these laws.

(Maftir) <sup>13</sup> “You are to keep the festival of Sukkot for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing-floor and winepress. <sup>14</sup> Rejoice at your festival — you, your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, the L'vi'im, and the foreigners, orphans and widows living among you. <sup>15</sup> Seven days you are to keep the festival for ADONAI your God in the place ADONAI your God will choose, because ADONAI your God will bless you in all your crops and in all your work, so you are to be full of joy!

<sup>16</sup> “Three times a year all your men are to appear in the presence of ADONAI your God in the place which he will choose — at the festival of matzah, at the festival of Shavu'ot and at the festival of Sukkot. They are not to show up before ADONAI empty-handed, <sup>17</sup> but every man is to give what he can, in accordance with the blessing ADONAI your God has given you.

Haftarah Re'eh: Yesha'yahu (Isaiah) 54:11–55:5

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Re'eh: 1 Corinthians 5:9–13; 1 Yochanan (1 John) 4:1–6

Parashah 48: Shof'tim (Judges) 16:18–21:9

<sup>18</sup> “You are to appoint judges and officers for all your gates [in the cities] ADONAI your God is giving you, tribe by tribe; and they are to judge the people with righteous judgment. <sup>19</sup> You are not to distort justice or show favoritism, and you are not to accept a bribe, for a gift blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of even the upright. <sup>20</sup> Justice, only justice, you must pursue; so that you will live and inherit the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

<sup>21</sup> “You are not to plant any sort of tree as a sacred pole beside the altar of ADONAI your God that you will make for yourselves. <sup>22</sup> Likewise, do not set up a standing-stone; ADONAI your God hates such things.

17 <sup>1</sup> “You are not to sacrifice to ADONAI your God a cow or sheep that has a defect or anything wrong with it; that would be an abomination to ADONAI your God.

<sup>2</sup> “If there is found among you, within any of your gates [in any city] that ADONAI your God gives you, a man or woman who does what ADONAI your God sees as wicked, transgressing his covenant <sup>3</sup> by going and serving other gods and worshipping them, the sun, the moon, or anything in the sky — something I have forbidden — <sup>4</sup> and it is told to you, or you hear about it; then you are to investigate the matter diligently. If it is true, if it is confirmed that such detestable things are being done in Isra’el; <sup>5</sup> then you are to bring the man or woman who has done this wicked thing to your city gates, and stone that man or woman to death. <sup>6</sup> The death sentence is to be carried out only if there was testimony from two or three witnesses; he may not be sentenced to death on the testimony of only one witness. <sup>7</sup> The witnesses are to be the first to stone him to death; afterwards, all the people are to stone him. Thus you will put an end to this wickedness among you.

<sup>8</sup> “If a case comes before you at your city gate which is too difficult for you to judge, concerning bloodshed, civil suit, personal injury or any other controversial issue; you are to get up, go to the place which ADONAI your God will choose, <sup>9</sup> and appear before the cohanim, who are L’vi’im, and the judge in office at the time. Seek their opinion, and they will render a verdict for you. <sup>10</sup> You will then act according to what they have told you there in that place which ADONAI will choose; you are to take care to act according to all their instructions. <sup>11</sup> In accordance with the Torah they teach you, you are to carry out the judgment they render, not turning aside to the right or the left from the verdict they declare to you. <sup>12</sup> Anyone presumptuous enough not to pay attention to the cohen appointed there to serve ADONAI your God or to the judge — that person must die. Thus you will exterminate such wickedness from Isra'el — <sup>13</sup> all the people will hear about it and be afraid to continue acting presumptuously.

(ii) <sup>14</sup> “When you have entered the land ADONAI your God is giving you, have taken possession of it and are living there, you may say, ‘I want to have a king over me, like all the other nations around me.’ <sup>15</sup> In that event, you must appoint as king the one whom ADONAI your God will choose. He must be one of your kinsmen, this king you appoint over you — you are forbidden to appoint a foreigner over you who is not your kinsman. <sup>16</sup> However, he is not to acquire many horses for himself or have the people return to Egypt to obtain more horses, inasmuch as ADONAI told you never to go back that way again. <sup>17</sup> Likewise, he is not to acquire many wives for himself, so that his heart will not turn away; and he is not to acquire excessive quantities of silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup> “When he has come to occupy the throne of his kingdom, he is to write a copy of this Torah for himself in a scroll, from the one the cohanim and L’vi’im use. <sup>19</sup> It is to remain with him, and he is to read in it every day, as long as he lives; so that he will learn to fear ADONAI his God and keep all the words of this Torah and these laws and obey them; <sup>20</sup> so that he will not think he is better than his kinsmen; and so that he will not turn aside either to the right or to the left from the mitzvah. In this way he will prolong his own reign and that of his children in Isra'el.

18 (iii) <sup>1</sup> The cohanim, who are L’vi’im, and indeed the whole tribe of Levi, are not to have a share or an inheritance with Isra'el. Instead, their support will come from the food offered by fire to ADONAI and from whatever else becomes his. <sup>2</sup> They will have no inheritance with their brothers, because ADONAI is their inheritance — as he has said to them.

<sup>3</sup> “The cohanim will have the right to receive from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, whether ox or sheep, the shoulder, the jowls and the stomach. <sup>4</sup> You will also give him the firstfruits of your grain, new wine and olive oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep. <sup>5</sup> For ADONAI your God has chosen him from all your tribes to stand and serve in the name of ADONAI, him and his sons forever.

(iv) <sup>6</sup> “If a Levi from one of your towns anywhere in Isra’el where he is living comes, highly motivated, to the place which ADONAI will choose, <sup>7</sup> then he will serve there in the name of ADONAI his God, just like his kinsmen the L’vi’im who stand and serve in the presence of ADONAI. <sup>8</sup> Such a Levi will receive the same share as they do, in addition to what he may receive from selling his inherited ancestral property.

<sup>9</sup> “When you enter the land ADONAI your God is giving you, you are not to learn how to follow the abominable practices of those nations. <sup>10</sup> There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or daughter pass through fire, a diviner, a soothsayer, an enchanter, a sorcerer, <sup>11</sup> a spell-caster, a consulter of ghosts or spirits, or a necromancer. <sup>12</sup> For whoever does these things is detestable to ADONAI, and because of these abominations ADONAI your God is driving them out ahead of you. <sup>13</sup> You must be wholehearted with ADONAI your God. (v) <sup>14</sup> For these nations, which you are about to dispossess, listen to soothsayers and diviners; but you, ADONAI your God does not allow you to do this.

<sup>15</sup> “ADONAI will raise up for you a prophet like me from among yourselves, from your own kinsmen. You are to pay attention to him, <sup>16</sup> just as when you were assembled at Horev and requested ADONAI your God, ‘Don’t let me hear the voice of ADONAI my God any more, or let me see this great fire ever again; if I do, I will die!’ <sup>17</sup> On that occasion ADONAI said to me, ‘They are right in what they are saying. <sup>18</sup> I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I order him. <sup>19</sup> Whoever doesn’t listen to my words, which he will speak in my name, will have to account for himself to me.

<sup>20</sup> ““But if a prophet presumptuously speaks a word in my name which I didn’t order him to say, or if he speaks in the name of other gods, then that prophet must die.’ <sup>21</sup> You may be wondering, ‘How are we to know if a word has not been spoken by ADONAI?’ <sup>22</sup> When a prophet speaks in the name of ADONAI, and the prediction does not come true — that is, the word is not fulfilled — then ADONAI did not speak that word. The prophet who said it spoke presumptuously; you have nothing to fear from him.

19 <sup>1</sup> “When ADONAI your God cuts off the nations whose land ADONAI your God is giving you, and you take their place and settle in their cities and houses, <sup>2</sup> you are to set aside three cities for yourselves in your land that ADONAI your God is giving you to possess. <sup>3</sup> Divide the territory of your land, which ADONAI your God is having you inherit, into three parts; and prepare the roads, so that any killer can flee to these cities. <sup>4</sup> The killer who will live if he flees there is someone who has killed his fellow member of the community by mistake, who did not hate him in the past. <sup>5</sup> An example would be if a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood and takes a stroke with the axe to fell a tree, but the head of the axe flies off the handle, hits his neighbor and kills him. Then he is to flee to one of these cities and live there. <sup>6</sup> Otherwise the next-of-kin avenger, in the heat of his anger, may pursue the killer, overtake him because the distance [to the city of refuge] is long, and strike him dead — even though he didn’t deserve to die, inasmuch as he hadn’t hated him in the past. <sup>7</sup> This is why I am ordering you to set aside for yourselves three cities.

<sup>8</sup> “If ADONAI your God expands your territory, as he swore to your ancestors that he would, and gives you all the land he promised to give to your ancestors — <sup>9</sup> provided you keep and observe all these mitzvot I am giving you today, loving ADONAI your God and always following his ways — then you are to add three more cities for yourselves, besides these three; <sup>10</sup> so that innocent blood will not be shed in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance, and thus blood guilt be on you.

<sup>11</sup> “However, if someone hates his fellow member of the community, lies in wait for him, attacks him, strikes him a death blow, and then flees into one of these cities; <sup>12</sup> then the leaders of his own town are to send and bring him back from there and hand him over to the next-of-kin avenger, to be put to death. <sup>13</sup> You are not to pity him. Rather, you must put an end to the shedding of innocent blood in Isra’el. Then things will go well with you.

(vi) <sup>14</sup> “You are not to move your neighbor’s boundary marker from the place where people put it long ago, in the inheritance soon to be yours in the land ADONAI your God is giving you to possess.

<sup>15</sup> “One witness alone will not be sufficient to convict a person of any offense or sin of any kind; the matter will be established only if there are two or three witnesses testifying against him.

<sup>16</sup> “If a malicious witness comes forward and gives false testimony against someone, <sup>17</sup> then both the men involved in the controversy are to stand before ADONAI, before the cohanim and the judges in office at the time.

<sup>18</sup> The judges are to investigate carefully. If they find that the witness is lying and has given false testimony against his brother, <sup>19</sup> you are to do to him what he intended to do to his brother. In this way, you will put an end to such wickedness among you. <sup>20</sup> Those who remain will hear about it, be afraid and no longer commit such wickedness among you. <sup>21</sup> Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20<sup>1</sup> “When you go out to fight your enemies and see horses, chariots and a force larger than yours, you are not to be afraid of them; because ADONAI your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you. <sup>2</sup> When you are about to go into battle, the cohen is to come forward and address the people. <sup>3</sup> He should tell them, ‘Listen, Isra’el! You are about to do battle against your enemies. Don’t be fainthearted or afraid; don’t be alarmed or frightened by them; <sup>4</sup> because ADONAI your God is going with you to fight on your behalf against your enemies and give you victory.’

<sup>5</sup> “Then the officials will speak to the soldiers. They are to say, ‘Is there a man here who has built a new house, but hasn’t dedicated it yet? He should go back home now; otherwise he may die fighting, and another man will dedicate it.

<sup>6</sup> “‘Is there a man here who has planted a vineyard, but hasn’t yet made use of its fruit? He should go back home; otherwise he may die fighting, and another man will use it.

<sup>7</sup> “‘Is there a man here who is engaged to a woman, but hasn’t married her yet? He should go back home; otherwise he may die fighting, and another man will marry her.’

<sup>8</sup> “The officials will then add to what they have said to the soldiers: ‘Is there a man here who is afraid and fainthearted? He should go back home; otherwise his fear may demoralize his comrades as well.’ <sup>9</sup> When the officials have finished speaking with the soldiers, commanders are to be appointed to lead the army.

(vii) <sup>10</sup> “When you advance on a town to attack it, first offer it terms for peace. <sup>11</sup> If it accepts the terms for peace and opens its gates to you, then all the people there are to be put to forced labor and work for you. <sup>12</sup> However, if they refuse to make peace with you but prefer to make war against you, you are to put it under siege. <sup>13</sup> When ADONAI your God hands it over to you, you are to put every male to the sword. <sup>14</sup> However, you are to take as booty for yourself the women, the little ones, the livestock, and everything in the city — all its spoil. Yes, you will feed on your enemies' spoil, which ADONAI your God has given you. <sup>15</sup> This is what you are to do to all the towns which are at a great distance from you, which are not the towns of these nations.

<sup>16</sup> “As for the towns of these peoples, which ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance, you are not to allow anything that breathes to live.

<sup>17</sup> Rather you must destroy them completely — the Hitti, the Emori, the Kena‘ani, the P’rizi, the Hivi and the Y’vusi — as ADONAI your God has ordered you; <sup>18</sup> so that they won’t teach you to follow their abominable practices, which they do for their gods, thus causing you to sin against ADONAI your God.

<sup>19</sup> “When, in making war against a town in order to capture it, you lay siege to it for a long time, you are not to destroy its trees, cutting them down with an axe. You can eat their fruit, so don’t cut them down. After all, are the trees in the field human beings, so that you have to besiege them too? <sup>20</sup> However, if you know that certain trees provide no food, you may destroy them and cut them down, in order to build siege-works against the town making war with you, until it falls.

21 <sup>1</sup> “If, in the land ADONAI your God is giving you to possess, a murder victim is found lying in the countryside; and the perpetrator of the murder is not known; <sup>2</sup> then your leaders and judges are to go out and measure the distance between the murder victim and the surrounding towns. <sup>3</sup> After it has been determined which town is the closest, the leaders of that town are to take a young female cow that has never been put to work or yoked for use as a draft animal. <sup>4</sup> The leaders of that town are to bring the heifer down to a vadi with a stream in it that never dries up, to a place that is neither plowed nor sown; and they are to break the cow’s neck there in the vadi. <sup>5</sup> Then the cohanim, who are L’vi’im, are to approach; for ADONAI your God has chosen them to serve him and to pronounce blessings in the name of ADONAI; they will decide the outcome of every dispute and matter involving violence. <sup>6</sup> All the leaders of the town nearest the murder victim are to wash their hands over the cow whose neck was broken in the vadi. (Maftir) <sup>7</sup> Then they are to speak up and say, ‘This blood was not shed by our hands, nor have we seen who did it. <sup>8</sup> ADONAI, forgive your people Isra’el, whom you redeemed; do not allow innocent blood to be shed among your people Isra'el.' And they will be forgiven this bloodshed. <sup>9</sup> Thus you will banish the shedding of innocent blood from among you, by doing what ADONAI sees as right.

Haftarah Shof'tim: Yesha'yahu (Isaiah) 51:12–52:12[Messianic adaptation: conclude the reading at 53:12]

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Shof'tim: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:38–42; 18:15–20; Acts 3:13–26; 7:35–53; 1 Corinthians 5:9–13; 1 Timothy 5:17–22; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 10:28–31

Parashah 49: Ki Tetze (When you go out) 21:10–25:19

<sup>10</sup> “When you go out to war against your enemies, and ADONAI your God hands them over to you, and you take prisoners, <sup>11</sup> and you see among the prisoners a woman who looks good to you, and you feel attracted to her and want her as your wife; <sup>12</sup> you are to bring her home to your house, where she will shave her head, cut her fingernails <sup>13</sup> and remove her prison clothing. She will stay there in your house, mourning her father and mother for a full month; after which you may go in to have sexual relations with her and be her husband, and she will be your wife. <sup>14</sup> In the event that you lose interest in her, you are to let her go wherever she wishes; but you may not sell her for money or treat her like a slave, because you humiliated her.

<sup>15</sup> “If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and unloved wives have borne him children, and if the firstborn son is the child of the unloved wife; <sup>16</sup> then, when it comes time for him to pass his inheritance on to his sons, he may not give the inheritance due the firstborn to the son of the loved wife in place of the son of the unloved one, who is in fact the firstborn. <sup>17</sup> No, he must acknowledge as firstborn the son of the unloved wife by giving him a double portion of everything he owns, for he is the firstfruits of his manhood, and the right of the firstborn is his.

<sup>18</sup> “If a man has a stubborn, rebellious son who will not obey what his father or mother says, and even after they discipline him he still refuses to

pay attention to them; <sup>19</sup> then his father and mother are to take hold of him and bring him out to the leaders of his town, at the gate of that place, <sup>20</sup> and say to the leaders of his town, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious, he doesn’t pay attention to us, lives wildly, gets drunk.’ <sup>21</sup> Then all the men of his town are to stone him to death; in this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you, and all Isra’el will hear about it and be afraid.

(ii) <sup>22</sup> “If someone has committed a capital crime and is put to death, then hung on a tree, <sup>23</sup> his body is not to remain all night on the tree, but you must bury him the same day, because a person who has been hanged has been cursed by God — so that you will not defile your land, which ADONAI your God is giving you to inherit.

22 <sup>1</sup> “You are not to watch your brother’s ox or sheep straying and behave as if you hadn’t seen it; you must bring it back to your brother. <sup>2</sup> If your brother is not close by, or you don’t know who the owner is, you are to bring it home to your house; and it will remain with you until your brother asks for it; then you are to give it back to him. <sup>3</sup> You are to do the same with his donkey, his coat or anything else of your brother’s that he loses. If you find something he lost, you must not ignore it.

<sup>4</sup> “If you see your brother’s donkey or ox collapsed on the road, you may not behave as if you hadn’t seen it; you must help him get it up on its feet again.

<sup>5</sup> “A woman is not to wear men’s clothing, and a man is not to put on women’s clothing, for whoever does these things is detestable to ADONAI your God.

<sup>6</sup> “If, as you are walking along, you happen to see a bird’s nest in a tree or on the ground with chicks or eggs, and the mother bird is sitting on the chicks or the eggs, you are not to take the mother with the chicks. <sup>7</sup> You must let the mother go, but you may take the chicks for yourself; so that things will go well with you, and you will prolong your life.

(iii) <sup>8</sup> “When you build a new house, you must build a low wall around your roof; otherwise someone may fall from it, and you will be responsible for his death.

<sup>9</sup> “You are not to sow two kinds of seed between your rows of vines; if you do, both the two harvested crops and the yield from the vines must be forfeited. <sup>10</sup> You are not to plow with an ox and a donkey together. <sup>11</sup> You are not to wear clothing woven with two kinds of thread, wool and linen together.

<sup>12</sup> “You are to make for yourself twisted cords on the four corners of the garment you wrap around yourself.

<sup>13</sup> “If a man marries a woman, has sexual relations with her and then, having come to dislike her, <sup>14</sup> brings false charges against her and defames her character by saying, ‘I married this woman, but when I had intercourse with her I did not find evidence that she was a virgin’; <sup>15</sup> then the girl’s father and mother are to take the evidence of the girl’s virginity to the leaders of the town at the gate. <sup>16</sup> The girl’s father will say to the leaders, ‘I let my daughter marry this man, but he hates her, <sup>17</sup> so he has brought false charges that he didn’t find evidence of her virginity; yet here is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity’ — <sup>(18)</sup> and they will lay the cloth before the town leaders. <sup>18(19)</sup> The leaders of that town are to take the man, punish him, <sup>19</sup> and fine him two-and-a-half pounds of silver shekels, which they will give to the girl’s father, because he has publicly defamed a virgin of Isra’el. She will remain his wife, and he is forbidden from divorcing her as long as he lives.

<sup>20</sup> “But if the charge is substantiated that evidence for the girl’s virginity could not be found; <sup>21</sup> then they are to lead the girl to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her town will stone her to death, because she has committed in Isra’el the disgraceful act of being a prostitute while still in her father’s house. In this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

<sup>22</sup> “If a man is found sleeping with a woman who has a husband, both of them must die — the man who went to bed with the woman and the woman too. In this way you will expel such wickedness from Isra’el.

<sup>23</sup> “If a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a man, and another man comes upon her in the town and has sexual relations with her; <sup>24</sup> you are to bring them both out to the gate of the city and stone them to death — the girl because she didn’t cry out for help, there in the city, and the man because he has humiliated his neighbor’s wife. In this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

<sup>25</sup> “But if the man comes upon the engaged girl out in the countryside, and the man grabs her and has sexual relations with her, then only the man who had intercourse with her is to die. <sup>26</sup> You will do nothing to the girl, because she has done nothing deserving of death. The situation is like the case of the man who attacks his neighbor and kills him. <sup>27</sup> For he found her in the countryside, and the engaged girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.

<sup>28</sup> “If a man comes upon a girl who is a virgin but who is not engaged, and he grabs her and has sexual relations with her, and they are caught in the act, <sup>29</sup> then the man who had intercourse with her must give to the girl’s father one-and-a-quarter pounds of silver shekels, and she will become his wife, because he humiliated her; he may not divorce her as long as he lives.

23 <sup>1(22:30)</sup> “A man is not to take his father’s wife, thus violating his father’s rights.

<sup>2(1)</sup> “A man with crushed or damaged private parts may not enter the assembly of ADONAI.

<sup>3(2)</sup> “A mamzer may not enter the assembly of ADONAI, nor may his descendants down to the tenth generation enter the assembly of ADONAI.

<sup>4(3)</sup> “No ‘Amoni or Mo’avi may enter the assembly of ADONAI, nor may any of his descendants down to the tenth generation ever enter the assembly of ADONAI, <sup>5(4)</sup> because they did not supply you with food and water when you were on the road after leaving Egypt, and because they hired Bil’am the son of B’or from P’tor in Aram-Naharayim to put a curse on you. <sup>6(5)</sup> But ADONAI your God would not listen to Bil’am; rather, ADONAI your God turned the curse into a blessing for you; because ADONAI your God loved you. <sup>7(6)</sup> So you are never to seek their peace or well being, as long as you live.

(iv) <sup>8(7)</sup> “But you are not to detest an Edomi, because he is your brother; and you are not to detest an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in his land. <sup>9(8)</sup> The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of ADONAI.

<sup>10(9)</sup> “When you are in camp, at war with your enemies, you are to guard yourself against anything bad. <sup>11(10)</sup> If there is a man among you who is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he is to go outside the camp; he is not to enter the camp. <sup>12(11)</sup> When evening arrives he is to bathe himself in water, and after sunset he may enter the camp. <sup>13(12)</sup> Also you are to have an area outside the camp to use as a latrine. <sup>14(13)</sup> You must include a trowel with your equipment, and when you relieve yourself, you are to dig a hole first and afterwards cover your excrement. <sup>15(14)</sup> For ADONAI your God moves about in your camp to rescue you and to hand over your enemies to you.

Therefore your camp must be a holy place. [ADONAI] should not see anything indecent among you, or he will turn away from you.

<sup>16(15)</sup> “If a slave has escaped from his master and taken refuge with you, you are not to hand him back to his master. <sup>17(16)</sup> Allow him to stay with you, in whichever place suits him best among your settlements; do not mistreat him.

<sup>18(17)</sup> “No woman of Isra’el is to engage in ritual prostitution, and no man of Isra’el is to engage in ritual homosexual prostitution.

<sup>19(18)</sup> Nothing earned through heterosexual or homosexual prostitution is to be brought into the house of ADONAI your God in fulfillment of any vow, for both of these are abhorrent to ADONAI your God.

<sup>20(19)</sup> “You are not to lend at interest to your brother, no matter whether the loan is of money, food or anything else that can earn interest. <sup>21(20)</sup> To an outsider you may lend at interest, but to your brother you are not to lend at interest, so that ADONAI your God will prosper you in everything you set out to do in the land you are entering in order to take possession of it.

<sup>22(21)</sup> “When you make a vow to ADONAI your God, you are not to delay in fulfilling it, for ADONAI your God will certainly demand it of you, and your failure to do so will be your sin. <sup>23(22)</sup> If you choose not to make a vow at all, that will not be a sin for you; <sup>24(23)</sup> but if a vow passes your lips, you must take care to perform it according to what you voluntarily vowed to ADONAI your God, what you promised in words spoken aloud.

(v) <sup>25(24)</sup> “When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat enough grapes to satisfy your appetite; but you are not to put any in your basket. <sup>26(25)</sup> When you enter your neighbor’s field of growing grain, you may pluck ears with your hand; but you are not to put a sickle to your neighbor’s grain.

24 <sup>1</sup> “Suppose a man marries a woman and consummates the marriage but later finds her displeasing, because he has found her offensive in some respect. He writes her a divorce document, gives it to her and sends her away from his house. <sup>2</sup> She leaves his house, goes and becomes another man’s wife; <sup>3</sup> but the second husband dislikes her and writes her a get, gives it to her and sends her away from his house; or the second husband whom she married dies. <sup>4</sup> In such a case her first husband, who sent her away, may not take her again as his wife, because she is now defiled. It would be detestable to ADONAI, and you are not to bring about sin in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance.

(vi) <sup>5</sup> “If a man has recently married his wife, he is not to be subject to military service; he is to be free of external obligations and left at home for one year to make his new wife happy.

<sup>6</sup> “No one may take a mill or even an upper millstone as collateral for a loan, because that would be taking as collateral the debtor’s very means of sustenance.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man kidnaps any of his brothers, fellow members of the community of Isra’el, and makes him his slave or sells him, that kidnapper must die; in this way you will put an end to such wickedness among you.

<sup>8</sup> “When there is an outbreak of tzara’at, be careful to observe and do just what the cohanim, who are L’vi’im, teach you. Take care to do as I ordered them. <sup>9</sup> Remember what ADONAI your God did to Miryam on the road after you left Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> “When you make any kind of loan to your neighbor, you are not to enter his house to take his collateral. <sup>11</sup> You must stand outside, and the borrower will bring the collateral outside to you. <sup>12</sup> If he is poor, you are not to go to bed with what he gave as collateral in your possession; <sup>13</sup> rather, you must restore the pledged item at sunset; then he will go to sleep wearing his garment and bless you. This will be an upright deed of yours before ADONAI your God.

(vii) <sup>14</sup> “You are not to exploit a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether one of your brothers or a foreigner living in your land in your town. <sup>15</sup> You are to pay him his wages the day he earns them, before sunset; for he is poor and looks forward to being paid. Otherwise he will cry out against you to ADONAI, and it will be your sin.

<sup>16</sup> “Fathers are not to be executed for the children, nor are children to be executed for the fathers; every person will be executed for his own sin.

<sup>17</sup> “You are not to deprive the foreigner or the orphan of the justice which is his due, and you are not to take a widow’s clothing as collateral for a loan. <sup>18</sup> Rather, remember that you were a slave in Egypt; and ADONAI your God redeemed you from there. That is why I am ordering you to do this.

<sup>19</sup> “When harvesting the grain in your field, if you forgot a sheaf of grain there, you are not to go back and get it; it will remain there for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, so that ADONAI your God will bless you in all the work you do. <sup>20</sup> When you beat your olive tree, you are not to go back over the branches again; the olives that are left will be for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow. <sup>21</sup> When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, you are not to return and pick grapes a second time; what is left will be for the foreigner, the orphan and the widow. <sup>22</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. That is why I am ordering you to do this.

25 <sup>1</sup> “If people have a dispute, seek its resolution in court, and the judges render a decision in favor of the righteous one and condemning the wicked one; <sup>2</sup> then, if the wicked one deserves to be flogged, the judge is to have him lie down and be flogged in his presence. The number of strokes is to be proportionate to his offense; <sup>3</sup> but the maximum number is forty. He is not to exceed this; if he goes over this limit and beats him more than this, your brother will be humiliated before your eyes.

<sup>4</sup> “You are not to muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain.

<sup>5</sup> “If brothers live together, and one of them dies childless, his widow is not to marry someone unrelated to him; her husband’s brother is to go to her and perform the duty of a brother-in-law by marrying her. <sup>6</sup> The first child she bears will succeed to the name of his dead brother, so that his name will not be eliminated from Isra’el. <sup>7</sup> If the man does not wish to marry his brother’s widow, then his brother’s widow is to go up to the gate, to the leaders, and say, ‘My brother-in-law refuses to raise up for his brother a name in Isra’el; he will not perform the duty of a husband’s brother for me.’

<sup>8</sup> The leaders of his town are to summon him and speak to him. If, on appearing before them, he continues to say, ‘I don’t want to marry her,’ <sup>9</sup> then his brother’s widow is to approach him in the presence of the leaders, pull his sandal off his foot, spit in his face and say, ‘This is what is done to the man who refuses to build up his brother’s family.’ <sup>10</sup> From that time on, his family is to be known in Isra’el as ‘the family of the man who had his sandal pulled off.’

<sup>11</sup> “If men are fighting with each other, and the wife of one comes up to help her husband get away from the man attacking him by grabbing the attacker’s private parts with her hand, <sup>12</sup> you are to cut off her hand; show no pity.

<sup>13</sup> “You are not to have in your pack two sets of weights, one heavy, the other light. <sup>14</sup> You are not to have in your house two sets of measures, one big, the other small. <sup>15</sup> You are to have a correct and fair weight, and you are to have a correct and fair measure, so that you will prolong your days in the land ADONAI your God is giving you. <sup>16</sup> For all who do such things, all who deal dishonestly, are detestable to ADONAI your God.

(Maftir) <sup>17</sup> “Remember what ‘Amalek did to you on the road as you were coming out of Egypt, <sup>18</sup> how he met you by the road, attacked those in the rear, those who were exhausted and straggling behind when you were tired and weary. He did not fear God. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, when ADONAI your God has given you rest from all your surrounding enemies in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance to possess, you are to blot out all memory of ‘Amalek from under heaven. Don’t forget!

Haftarah Ki Tetze: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 54:1–10 [Messianic adaptation: commence the reading at 52:13]

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Ki Tetze: Mattityahu (Matthew) 5:31–32; 19:3–12; 22:23–32; Mark 10:2–12; 12:18–27; Luke 20:27–38; 1 Corinthians 9:4–18; Galatians 3:9–14; 1 Timothy 5:17–18

Parashah 50: Ki Tavo (When you come) 26:1–29:8(9)

26 <sup>1</sup> “When you have come to the land ADONAI your God is giving you as your inheritance, taken possession of it and settled there; <sup>2</sup> you are to take the firstfruits of all the crops the ground yields, which you will harvest from your land that ADONAI your God is giving you, put them in a basket and go to the place where ADONAI your God will choose to have his name live. <sup>3</sup> You will approach the cohen holding office at the time and say to him, ‘Today I declare to ADONAI your God that I have come to the land ADONAI swore to our ancestors that he would give us.’ <sup>4</sup> The cohen will take the basket from your hand and put it down in front of the altar of ADONAI your God.

<sup>5</sup> “Then, in the presence of ADONAI your God, you are to say, ‘My ancestor was a nomad from Aram. He went down into Egypt few in number and stayed. There he became a great, strong, populous nation. <sup>6</sup> But the Egyptians treated us badly; they oppressed us and imposed harsh slavery on us. <sup>7</sup> So we cried out to ADONAI, the God of our ancestors. ADONAI heard us and saw our misery, toil and oppression; <sup>8</sup> and ADONAI brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand and a stretched-out arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. <sup>9</sup> Now he has brought us to this place and given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, as you see, I have now brought the firstfruits of the land which you, ADONAI, have given me.’ You are then to put the basket down before ADONAI your God, prostrate yourself before ADONAI your God, <sup>11</sup> and take joy in all the good that ADONAI your God has given you, your household, the Levi and the foreigner living with you.

(ii) <sup>12</sup> “After you have separated a tenth of the crops yielded in the third year, the year of separating a tenth, and have given it to the Levi, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, so that they can have enough food to satisfy them while staying with you; <sup>13</sup> you are to say, in the presence of ADONAI your God, ‘I have rid my house of the things set aside for God and given them to the Levi, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, in keeping with every one of the mitzvot you gave me. I haven’t disobeyed any of your mitzvot or forgotten them. <sup>14</sup> I haven’t eaten any of this food when mourning, I haven’t put any of it aside when unclean, nor have I given any of it for the dead. I have listened to what ADONAI my God has said, and I have done everything you ordered me to do. <sup>15</sup> Look out from your holy dwelling-place, from heaven; and bless your people Isra’el and the land you gave us, as you swore to our ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey.’

(iii) <sup>16</sup> “Today ADONAI your God orders you to obey these laws and rulings. Therefore, you are to observe and obey them with all your heart and all your being. <sup>17</sup> You are agreeing today that ADONAI is your God and that you will follow his ways; observe his laws, mitzvot and rulings; and do what he says. <sup>18</sup> In turn ADONAI is agreeing today that you are his own unique treasure, as he promised you; that you are to observe all his mitzvot; <sup>19</sup> and that he will raise you high above all the nations he has made, in praise, reputation and glory; and that, as he said, you will be a holy people for ADONAI your God.”

27 (iv) <sup>1</sup> Then Moshe and all the leaders of Isra’el gave orders to the people. They said, “Observe all the mitzvot I am giving you today. <sup>2</sup> When you cross the Yarden to the land ADONAI your God is giving you, you are to set up large stones, put plaster on them, <sup>3</sup> and, after crossing over, write this Torah on them, every word — so that you can enter the land ADONAI your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as ADONAI, the God of your ancestors, promised you. <sup>4</sup> When you have crossed the Yarden, you are to set up these stones, as I am ordering you today, on Mount ‘Eival; and put plaster on them. <sup>5</sup> There you are to erect an altar to ADONAI your God, an altar made of stones. You are not to use any iron tool on them, <sup>6</sup> but are to build the altar of ADONAI your God of uncut stones; and you are to offer burnt offerings on it to ADONAI your God. <sup>7</sup> Also you are to sacrifice peace offerings, eat there and be joyful in the presence of ADONAI your God. <sup>8</sup> You are to write on the stones all the words of this Torah very clearly.”

<sup>9</sup> Next Moshe and the cohanim, who are L’vi’im, spoke to all Isra’el. They said, “Be quiet; and listen, Isra’el! Today you have become the people of ADONAI your God. <sup>10</sup> Therefore you are to listen to what ADONAI your God says and obey his mitzvot and laws, which I am giving you today.”

(v) <sup>11</sup> That same day Moshe commissioned the people as follows: <sup>12</sup> “These are the ones who are to stand on Mount G’rizim and bless the people after you have crossed the Yarden: Shim’on, Levi, Y’hudah, Yissakhar, Yosef and Binyamin; <sup>13</sup> while these are to stand on Mount ‘Eival for the curse: Re’uven, Gad, Asher, Z’vulun, Dan and Naftali. <sup>14</sup> The L’vi’im, speaking loudly, will proclaim to every man of Isra’el:

<sup>15</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who makes a carved or metal image, something ADONAI detests, the handiwork of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret!’ All the people are to respond by saying, ‘Amen!’

<sup>16</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who dishonors his father or mother.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>17</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who moves his neighbor’s boundary marker.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>18</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who causes a blind person to lose his way on the road.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>19</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who interferes with justice for the foreigner, orphan or widow.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>20</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with his father’s wife, because he has violated his father’s rights.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>21</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with any kind of animal.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>22</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with his sister, no matter whether she is the daughter of his father or of his mother.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>23</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who has sexual relations with his mother-in-law.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>24</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who secretly attacks a fellow member of the community.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>25</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>26</sup> “‘A curse on anyone who does not confirm the words of this Torah by putting them into practice.’ All the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

28 <sup>1</sup> “If you listen closely to what ADONAI your God says, observing and obeying all his mitzvot which I am giving you today, ADONAI your God will raise you high above all the nations on earth; <sup>2</sup> and all the following blessings will be yours in abundance — if you will do what ADONAI your God says:

<sup>3</sup> “A blessing on you in the city, and a blessing on you in the countryside.

<sup>4</sup> “A blessing on the fruit of your body, the fruit of your land and the fruit of your livestock — the young of your cattle and flocks.

<sup>5</sup> “A blessing on your grain-basket and kneading-bowl.

<sup>6</sup> “A blessing on you when you go out, and a blessing on you when you come in.

(vi) <sup>7</sup> “ADONAI will cause your enemies attacking you to be defeated before you; they will advance on you one way and flee before you seven ways.

<sup>8</sup> “ADONAI will order a blessing to be with you in your barns and in everything you undertake; he will bless you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

<sup>9</sup> “ADONAI will establish you as a people separated out for himself, as he has sworn to you — if you will observe the mitzvot of ADONAI your God and follow his ways. <sup>10</sup> Then all the peoples on earth will see that ADONAI’s name, his presence, is with you; so that they will be afraid of you.

<sup>11</sup> “ADONAI will give you great abundance of good things — of the fruit of your body, the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your land in the land ADONAI swore to your ancestors to give you. <sup>12</sup> ADONAI will open for you his good treasure, the sky, to give your land its rain at the right seasons and to bless everything you undertake. You will lend to many nations and not borrow; <sup>13</sup> ADONAI will make you the head and not the tail; and you will be only above, never below — if you will listen to, observe and obey the mitzvot of ADONAI your God <sup>14</sup> and not turn away from any of the words I am ordering you today, neither to the right nor to the left, to follow after other gods and serve them.

<sup>15</sup> “But if you refuse to pay attention to what ADONAI your God says, and do not observe and obey all his mitzvot and regulations which I am giving you today, then all the following curses will be yours in abundance:

<sup>16</sup> “A curse on you in the city, and a curse on you in the countryside.

<sup>17</sup> “A curse on your grain-basket and kneading-bowl.

<sup>18</sup> “A curse on the fruit of your body, the fruit of your land and the young of your cattle and flocks.

<sup>19</sup> “A curse on you when you come in, and a curse on you when you go out.

<sup>20</sup> “ADONAI will send on you curses, disasters and frustration in everything you set out to do, until you are destroyed and quickly perish, because of your evil actions in abandoning me.

<sup>21</sup> “ADONAI will bring on you a plague that will stay with you until he has exterminated you from the land you are entering in order to take possession of it. <sup>22</sup> ADONAI will strike you down with wasting diseases, fever, inflammation, fiery heat, drought, blasting winds and mildew; and they will pursue you until you perish.

<sup>23</sup> “The sky over your head will be brass and the earth under you iron. <sup>24</sup> ADONAI will turn the rain your land needs into powder and dust that will fall on you from the sky until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup> “ADONAI your God will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you will advance on them one way and flee before them seven. You will become an object of horror to every kingdom on earth. <sup>26</sup> Your carcasses will become food for all the birds in the air and the wild animals, and there will be no one to scare them away.

<sup>27</sup> ADONAI will strike you down with the boils that broke out on the Egyptians, tumors, skin lesions and itching, all incurable. <sup>28</sup> ADONAI will strike you with insanity, blindness and utter confusion. <sup>29</sup> You will grope about at noon like a blind person groping in the dark, unable to find your way.

“You will be continually oppressed and robbed, and there will be no one to save you. <sup>30</sup> You will get engaged to a woman, but another man will marry her. You will build a house but not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but not use its fruit. <sup>31</sup> Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you won't eat any of its meat. Your donkey will be taken away from you by force as you watch, and you won't get it back. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and there will be no one to help you. <sup>32</sup> Your sons and daughters will be handed over to another people; you will watch for them longingly all day but not see them; and there will be nothing you can do about it. <sup>33</sup> A nation unknown to you will eat the fruit of your land and labor. Yes, you will be continually oppressed and crushed, <sup>34</sup> till you go crazy from what your eyes have to see. <sup>35</sup> ADONAI will strike you down in the knees and legs with painful and incurable boils; they will spread from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. <sup>36</sup> ADONAI will bring you and your king whom you have put over yourselves to a nation you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors; and there you will serve other gods made of wood and stone. <sup>37</sup> You will be so devastated as to become a proverb and a laughingstock among all the peoples to which ADONAI will drive you.

<sup>38</sup> "You will carry much seed out to the field but gather little in, because locusts will devour it. <sup>39</sup> You will plant vineyards and dress them but neither drink the wine nor gather the grapes, because worms will eat them. <sup>40</sup> You will have olive trees throughout your territory but not anoint yourself with the oil, because your olives will fall off unripe. <sup>41</sup> You will father sons and daughters, but they won't belong to you, because they will go into captivity. <sup>42</sup> The bugs will inherit all your trees and the produce of your land.

<sup>43</sup> "The foreigner living with you will rise higher and higher while you sink lower and lower. <sup>44</sup> He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he will be the head and you the tail.

<sup>45</sup> "All these curses will come on you, pursuing you and overtaking you until you are destroyed, because you didn't pay attention to what ADONAI your God said, observing his mitzvot and regulations that he gave you. <sup>46</sup> These curses will be on you and your descendants as a sign and a wonder forever. <sup>47</sup> Because you didn't serve ADONAI your God with joy and gladness in your heart when you had such an abundance of everything; <sup>48</sup> ADONAI will send your enemy against you; and you will serve him when you are hungry, thirsty, poorly clothed and lacking everything; he will put a yoke of iron on your neck until he destroys you. <sup>49</sup> Yes, ADONAI will bring against you a nation from far away that will swoop down on you from the end of the earth like a vulture, a nation whose language you don't understand, <sup>50</sup> a nation grim in appearance, whose people neither respect the old nor pity the young. <sup>51</sup> They will devour the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your soil, until you have been destroyed. They will leave you without grain, wine, olive oil, or your young cattle and sheep — until they have caused you to perish. <sup>52</sup> They will besiege all your towns until your high, fortified walls, in which you trusted, collapse everywhere in your land, which ADONAI your God gave you. <sup>53</sup> Then, because of the severity of the siege and distress that your enemies are inflicting on you, you will eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of your own sons and daughters, whom ADONAI your God has given you. <sup>54</sup> Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will be without pity for his brother, his beloved wife or his surviving children, <sup>55</sup> to the degree that he will refuse to share with any of them the flesh of his children whom he is eating; because if he did, he would have nothing left for himself — in the severity of the siege and distress your enemies are inflicting on you in all your towns. <sup>56</sup> The most delicate and sensitive woman among you, so sensitive and delicate that she wouldn't think of touching the sole of her foot to the ground, will so begrudge her own beloved husband, son and daughter <sup>57</sup> that she will secretly eat the afterbirth that comes out of her and even her own children as she bears them — so desperately hungry will she be in the severity of the siege and distress your enemies are inflicting on you in your towns.

<sup>58</sup> “If you will not observe and obey all the words of this Torah that are written in this book, so that you will fear this glorious and awesome name, ADONAI your God; <sup>59</sup> then ADONAI will strike down you and your descendants with extraordinary plagues and severe sicknesses that go on and on. <sup>60</sup> He will bring back upon you all the diseases the Egyptians had, which you were in dread of; and they will cling to you. <sup>61</sup> Not only that, but ADONAI will bring upon you all the sicknesses and plagues that are not written in this book of the Torah — until you are destroyed. <sup>62</sup> You will be left few in number, whereas you were once as numerous as the stars in the sky — because you did not pay attention to the voice of ADONAI your God.

<sup>63</sup> “Thus it will come about that just as once ADONAI took joy in seeking to do you good and increase your numbers, so now ADONAI will take joy in causing you to perish and be destroyed, and you will be plucked off the land you are entering in order to take possession of it. <sup>64</sup> ADONAI will scatter you among all peoples from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve other gods, made of wood and stone, which neither you nor your ancestors have known. <sup>65</sup> Among these nations you will not find repose, and there will be no rest for the sole of your foot; rather ADONAI will give you

there anguish of heart, dimness of eyes and apathy of spirit. <sup>66</sup> Your life will hang in doubt before you; you will be afraid night and day and have no assurance that you will stay alive. <sup>67</sup> In the morning you will say, ‘Oh, how I wish it were evening!’ and in the evening you will say, ‘Oh, how I wish it were morning!’ — because of the fear overwhelming your heart and the sights your eyes will see. <sup>68</sup> Finally, ADONAI will bring you back in ships to Egypt, the place of which I said to you, ‘You will never ever see it again’; and there you will try to sell yourselves as slaves to your enemies, but no one will buy you.”

<sup>69(29:1)</sup> These are the words of the covenant which ADONAI ordered Moshe to make with the people of Isra’el in the land of Mo’av, in addition to the covenant which he made with them in Horev.

29 (vii) <sup>1(2)</sup> Then Moshe summoned all Isra’el and said to them, “You saw everything ADONAI did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants and to all his land; <sup>2(3)</sup> the great testings which you saw with your own eyes, and the signs and those great wonders. <sup>3(4)</sup> Nevertheless, to this day ADONAI has not given you a heart to understand, eyes to see or ears to hear! <sup>4(5)</sup> I led you forty years in the desert. Neither the clothes on your body nor the shoes on your feet wore out. <sup>5(6)</sup> You didn’t eat bread, and you didn’t drink wine or other intoxicating liquor; this was so that you would know that ‘I am ADONAI your God.’ (Maftir) <sup>6(7)</sup> When you arrived at this place, Sichon the king of Heshbon and ‘Og the king of Bashan advanced against us in battle, and we defeated them, <sup>7(8)</sup> took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Re’uveni, the Gadi and the M’nashi. <sup>8(9)</sup> Therefore, observe the words of this covenant and obey them; so that you can make everything you do prosper.

Haftarah Ki Tavo: Yesha’yahu (Isaiah) 60:1–22

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Ki Tavo: Mattityahu (Matthew) 13:1–23; Luke 21:1–4; Acts 28:17–31; Romans 11:1–15

Parashah 51: Nitzavim (Standing) 29:9(10)–30:20

[In regular years read with Parashah 52, in leap years read separately]

<sup>9(10)</sup> “Today you are standing, all of you, before ADONAI your God — your heads, your tribes, your leaders and your officers — all the men of Isra’el, <sup>10(11)</sup> along with your little ones, your wives and your foreigners here with you in your camp, from the one who chops your wood to the one who draws your water. <sup>11(12)</sup> The purpose is that you should enter into the covenant of ADONAI your God and into his oath which ADONAI your God is making with you today, (LY: ii) <sup>12(13)</sup> so that he can establish you today for himself as a people, and so that for you he will be God — as he said to you and as he swore to your ancestors, to Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya’akov.

<sup>13(14)</sup> “But I am not making this covenant and this oath only with you. <sup>14(15)</sup> Rather, I am making it both with him who is standing here with us today before ADONAI our God and also with him who is not here with us today. (LY: iii) <sup>15(16)</sup> For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we came directly through the nations you passed through; <sup>16(17)</sup> and you saw their detestable things and their idols of wood, stone, silver and gold that they had with them. <sup>17(18)</sup> So let there not be among you a man, woman, family or tribe whose heart turns away today from ADONAI our God to go and serve the gods of those nations. Let there not be among you a root bearing such bitter poison and wormwood. <sup>18(19)</sup> If there is such a person, when he hears the words of this curse, he will bless himself secretly, saying to himself, ‘I will be all right, even though I will stubbornly keep doing whatever I feel like doing; so that I, although “dry,” [sinful,] will be added to the “watered” [righteous].’ <sup>19(20)</sup> But ADONAI will not forgive him. Rather, the anger and jealousy of ADONAI will blaze up against that person. Every curse written in this book will be upon him. ADONAI will blot out his name from under heaven. <sup>20(21)</sup> ADONAI will single him out from all the tribes of Isra’el to experience what is bad in all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the Torah.

<sup>21(22)</sup> “When the next generation, your children who will grow up after you, and the foreigner who arrives from a distant land, see the plagues of that land and the diseases with which ADONAI has made it sick, <sup>22(23)</sup> and that the whole land has become burning sulfur and salt, that it isn’t being sown or bearing crops or even producing grass — like the overthrow of S’dom, ‘Amora, Admah and Tzvoyim, which ADONAI overthrew in his furious anger — <sup>23(24)</sup> then all the nations will ask, ‘Why did ADONAI do this to this land?

What is the meaning of such frenzied, furious anger?’ <sup>24(25)</sup> People will answer, ‘It’s because they abandoned the covenant of ADONAI, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>25(26)</sup> They went and served other gods, prostrating themselves before them, gods they had not known and which he had not assigned them. <sup>26(27)</sup> For this reason, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against this land and brought upon it every curse written in this book; <sup>27(28)</sup> and ADONAI, in anger, fury and incensed with indignation, uprooted them from their land and threw them out into another land — as it is today.’

<sup>28(29)</sup> “Things which are hidden belong to ADONAI our God. But the things that have been revealed belong to us and our children forever, so that we can observe all the words of this Torah.

30 (RY: ii, LY: iv) <sup>1</sup> “When the time arrives that all these things have come upon you, both the blessing and the curse which I have presented to you; and you are there among the nations to which ADONAI your God has driven you; then, at last, you will start thinking about what has happened to you; <sup>2</sup> and you will return to ADONAI your God and pay attention to what he has said, which will be exactly what I am ordering you to do today — you and your children, with all your heart and all your being. <sup>3</sup> At that point, ADONAI your God will reverse your exile and show you mercy; he will return and gather you from all the peoples to which ADONAI your God scattered you. <sup>4</sup> If one of yours was scattered to the far end of the sky, ADONAI your God will gather you even from there; he will go there and get you. <sup>5</sup> ADONAI your God will bring you back into the land your ancestors possessed, and you will possess it; he will make you prosper there, and you will become even more numerous than your ancestors. <sup>6</sup> Then ADONAI your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your children, so that you will love ADONAI your God with all your heart and all your being, and thus you will live. (RY: iii, LY: v) <sup>7</sup> ADONAI your God will put all these curses on your enemies, on those who hated and persecuted you; <sup>8</sup> but you will return and pay attention to what ADONAI says and obey all his mitzvot which I am giving you today. <sup>9</sup> Then ADONAI your God will give you more than enough in everything you set out to do — the fruit of your body, the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your land will all do well; for ADONAI will once again rejoice to see you do well, just as he rejoiced in your ancestors.

<sup>10</sup> “However, all this will happen only if you pay attention to what ADONAI your God says, so that you obey his mitzvot and regulations which are written in this book of the Torah, if you turn to ADONAI your God with all your heart and all your being. (LY: vi) <sup>11</sup> For this mitzvah which I am giving you today is not too hard for you, it is not beyond your reach. <sup>12</sup> It isn’t in the sky, so that you need to ask, ‘Who will go up into the sky for us, bring it to us and make us hear it, so that we can obey it?’ <sup>13</sup> Likewise, it isn’t beyond the sea, so that you need to ask, ‘Who will cross the sea for us, bring it to us and make us hear it, so that we can obey it?’ <sup>14</sup> On the contrary, the word is very close to you — in your mouth, even in your heart; therefore, you can do it!

(RY: iv, LY: vii) <sup>15</sup> “Look! I am presenting you today with, on the one hand, life and good; and on the other, death and evil — <sup>16</sup> in that I am ordering you today to love ADONAI your God, to follow his ways, and to obey his mitzvot, regulations and rulings ; for if you do, you will live and increase your numbers; and ADONAI your God will bless you in the land you are entering in order to take possession of it. <sup>17</sup> But if your heart turns away, if you refuse to listen, if you are drawn away to prostrate yourselves before other gods and serve them; (LY: Maftir) <sup>18</sup> I am announcing to you today that you will certainly perish; you will not live long in the land you are crossing the Yarden to enter and possess.

<sup>19</sup> “I call on heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have presented you with life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore, choose life, so that you will live, you and your descendants, <sup>20</sup> loving ADONAI your God, paying attention to what he says and clinging to him — for that is the purpose of your life! On this depends the length of time you will live in the land ADONAI swore he would give to your ancestors Avraham, Yitz’chak and Ya‘akov.”

Haftarah Nitzavim: Yesha‘yahu (Isaiah) 61:10–63:9

B’rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Nitzavim:
Romans 9:30–10:13; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 12:14–15

Parashah 52: Vayelekh (He went) 31:1–30
[In regular years read with Parashah 51, in leap years read separately]

31 <sup>1</sup> Moshe went and spoke the following words to all Isra'el: <sup>2</sup> "I am 120 years old today. I can't get around any longer; moreover, ADONAI has said to me, 'You will not cross this Yarden.' <sup>3</sup> ADONAI your God — he will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations ahead of you, and you will dispossess them. Y'hoshua—he will cross over ahead of you, as ADONAI has said. (LY: ii) <sup>4</sup> ADONAI will do to them what he did to Sichon and 'Og, the kings of the Emori, and to their land—he destroyed them. <sup>5</sup> ADONAI will defeat them ahead of you, and you are to do to them just as I have ordered you to do. <sup>6</sup> Be strong, be bold, don't be afraid or frightened of them, for ADONAI your God is going with you. He will neither fail you nor abandon you."

(RY: v, LY: iii) <sup>7</sup> Next Moshe summoned Y'hoshua and, in the sight of all Isra'el, said to him, "Be strong, be bold, for you are going with this people into the land ADONAI swore to their ancestors he would give them. You will be the one causing them to inherit it. <sup>8</sup> But ADONAI — it is he who will go ahead of you. He will be with you. He will neither fail you nor abandon you, so don't be afraid or downhearted."

<sup>9</sup> Then Moshe wrote down this Torah and gave it to the cohanim, the descendants of Levi who carried the ark with the covenant of ADONAI, and to all the leaders of Isra' el. (LY: iv) <sup>10</sup> Moshe gave them these orders: "At the end of every seven years, during the festival of Sukkot in the year of sh'mittah, <sup>11</sup> when all Isra'el have come to appear in the presence of ADONAI at the place he will choose, you are to read this Torah before all Isra'el, so that they can hear it. <sup>12</sup> Assemble the people—the men, the women, the little ones and the foreigners you have in your towns — so that they can hear, learn, fear ADONAI your God and take care to obey all the words of this Torah; <sup>13</sup> and so that their children, who have not known, can hear and learn to fear ADONAI your God, for as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Yarden to possess."

(RY: vi, LY: v) <sup>14</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "The time is coming for you to die. Summon Y'hoshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I can commission him." Moshe and Y'hoshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup> ADONAI appeared in the tent in a column of cloud; the column of cloud stood above the entrance to the tent. <sup>16</sup> ADONAI said to Moshe, "You are about to sleep with your ancestors. But this people will get up and offer themselves as prostitutes to the foreign gods of the land where they are going. When they are with those gods, they will abandon me and break my covenant which I have made with them.<sup>17</sup> Then my anger will flare up, and I will abandon them and hide my face from them. They will be devoured, and many calamities and troubles will come upon them. Then they will ask, ‘Haven’t these calamities come upon us because our God isn’t here with us?’<sup>18</sup> But I will be hiding my face from them because of all the evil they will have done in turning to other gods.

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore, write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the people of Isra’el. Have them learn it by heart, so that this song can be a witness for me against the people of Isra’el. (RY: vii, LY: vi)<sup>20</sup> For when I have brought them into the land I swore to their ancestors, flowing with milk and honey; and they have eaten their fill, grown fat and turned to other gods, serving them and despising me, and broken my covenant;<sup>21</sup> then, after many calamities and troubles have come upon them, this song will testify before them as a witness, because their descendants will still be reciting it and will not have forgotten it. For I know how they think even now, even before I have brought them into the land about which I swore.”<sup>22</sup> So Moshe wrote this song that same day and taught it to the people of Isra’el.

<sup>23</sup> ADONAI also commissioned Y’hoshua the son of Nun with these words: “Be strong and full of courage; for you are to bring the people of Isra’el into the land about which I swore to them; and I will be with you.”

<sup>24</sup> Moshe kept writing the words of this Torah in a book until he was done. When he had finished, (LY: vii)<sup>25</sup> Moshe gave these orders to the L’vi’im who carried the ark with the covenant of ADONAI:<sup>26</sup> “Take this book of the Torah and put it next to the ark with the covenant of ADONAI your God, so that it can be there to witness against you.<sup>27</sup> For I know how rebellious and stiffnecked you are! Here, even while I am still alive with you today, you have rebelled against ADONAI; so how much more will you do so after my death? (Maftir)<sup>28</sup> Assemble for me all the leaders of your tribes and your officials, so that I can say these things in their hearing, calling heaven and earth to witness against them —<sup>29</sup> because I know that after my death you will become very corrupt and turn aside from the way that I have ordered you, and that disaster will come upon you in the acharit-hayamim, because you will do what ADONAI sees as evil and provoke him by your deeds.”

<sup>30</sup> Then Moshe spoke in the hearing of the whole assembly of Isra’el the words of this song, from beginning to end:

Haftarah Vayelekh: Hoshea (Hosea) 14:2(1)–10(9); Mikhah (Micah) 7:18–20; Yo’el (Joel) 2:15–27

B’rit Hadashah suggested reading for Parashah Vayelekh: Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 13:5–8

Parashah 53: Ha’azinu (Hear) 32:1–52

32<sup>1</sup> “Hear, oh heavens, as I speak!

Listen, earth, to the words from my mouth!

<sup>2</sup> May my teaching fall like rain.

May my speech condense like dew,

like light rain on blades of grass,

or showers on growing plants.

<sup>3</sup> “For I will proclaim the name of A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

Come, declare the greatness of our God!

<sup>4</sup> The Rock! His work is perfect, for all his ways are just.

A trustworthy God who does no wrong, he is righteous and straight.

<sup>5</sup> “He is not corrupt; the defect is in his children,

a crooked and perverted generation.

<sup>6</sup> You foolish people, so lacking in wisdom, is this how you repay ADONAI?

He is your father, who made you his!

It was he who formed and prepared you!

(ii)<sup>7</sup> “Remember how the old days were;

think of the years through all the ages.

Ask your father—he will tell you;

your leaders too—they will inform you.

<sup>8</sup> “When ‘Elyon gave each nation its heritage,

when he divided the human race,

he assigned the boundaries of peoples

according to Isra’el’s population;

<sup>9</sup> but ADONAI’s share was his own people,

Ya‘akov his allotted heritage.

<sup>10</sup> “He found his people in desert country, in a howling, wasted wilderness.

He protected him and cared for him, guarded him like the pupil of his eye,

<sup>11</sup> like an eagle that stirs up her nest, hovers over her young,

spreads out her wings, takes them
and carries them as she flies.

<sup>12</sup> “A<sub>DONAI</sub> alone led his people;

no alien god was with him.

(iii)<sup>13</sup> He made them ride on the heights of the earth.

They ate the produce of the fields.

He had them suck honey from the rocks and olive oil from the crags,

<sup>14</sup> curds from the cows and milk from the sheep, with lamb fat, rams from Bashan and goats,

with the finest wheat flour;

and you drank sparkling wine from the blood of grapes.

<sup>15</sup> “But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked

(you grew fat, thick, gross!).

He abandoned God his Maker;

he scorned the Rock, his salvation.

<sup>16</sup> They roused him to jealousy with alien gods, provoked him with abominations.

<sup>17</sup> They sacrificed to demons, non-gods, gods that they had never known,
new gods that had come up lately,
which your ancestors had not feared.

<sup>18</sup> You ignored the Rock who fathered you,
you forgot God, who gave you birth.

(iv)<sup>19</sup> “A<sub>DONAI</sub> saw and was filled with scorn at his sons’ and daughters’ provocation.

<sup>20</sup> He said, ‘I will hide my face from them and see what will become of them;
for they are a perverse generation, untrustworthy children.

<sup>21</sup> They aroused my jealousy with a non-god and provoked me with their vanities;
I will arouse their jealousy with a non-people and provoke them with a vile nation.

<sup>22</sup> “‘For my anger has been fired up.
It burns to the depths of Sh’ol, devouring the earth and its crops,

kindling the very roots of the hills.

<sup>23</sup> will heap disasters on them and use up all my arrows against them.

<sup>24</sup> “‘Fatigued by hunger, they will be consumed by fever and bitter defeat;

I will send them the fangs of wild beasts,

and the poison of reptiles crawling in the dust.

<sup>25</sup> Outside, the sword makes parents childless;

inside, there is panic,

as young men and girls alike are slain, sucklings and graybeards together.

<sup>26</sup> “‘I considered putting an end to them, erasing their memory from the human race;

<sup>27</sup> but I feared the insolence of their enemy, feared that their foes would mistakenly think,

“‘We ourselves accomplished this;

A<sub>DONAI</sub> had nothing to do with it.”

<sup>28</sup> “‘They are a nation without common sense, utterly lacking in discernment.

(v)<sup>29</sup> If they were wise they could figure it out and understand their destiny.

<sup>30</sup> After all, how can one chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to rout, unless their Rock sells them to their enemies, unless ADONAI hands them over?

<sup>31</sup> For our enemies have no rock like our Rock — even they can see that!

<sup>32</sup> “‘Rather, their vine is from the vine of S’dom,
from the fields of ‘Amora — their grapes are poisonous, their clusters are bitter;

<sup>33</sup> their wine is snake poison,
the cruel venom of vipers.

<sup>34</sup> “‘Isn’t this hidden with me,
sealed in my storehouses?

<sup>35</sup> Vengeance and payback are mine for the time when their foot slips;
for the day of their calamity is coming soon, their doom is rushing upon them.’

<sup>36</sup> “Yes, A<sub>DONAI</sub> will judge his people, taking pity on his servants,
when he sees that their strength is gone,
that no one is left, slave or free.

<sup>37</sup> Then he will ask, ‘Where are their gods,
the rock in whom they trusted?

<sup>38</sup> Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let him get up and help you,
let him protect you!

<sup>39</sup> See now that I, yes, I, am he;
and there is no god beside me.
I put to death, and I make alive;
I wound, and I heal;
no one saves anyone from my hand!

(vi)<sup>40</sup> “‘For I lift up my hand to heaven and swear,
“As surely as I am alive forever,

<sup>41</sup> if I sharpen my flashing sword and set my hand to judgment,

I will render vengeance to my foes,
repay those who hate me.

<sup>42</sup> I will make my arrows drunk with blood, my sword will devour flesh —
the blood of the slain and the captives, flesh from the wild-haired heads of the enemy.”

<sup>43</sup> “Sing out, you nations, about his people!
For he will avenge the blood of his servants.
He will render vengeance to his adversaries and make atonement for the land of his people.”

(vii) <sup>44</sup> Moshe came and proclaimed all the words of this song in the hearing of the people and of Hoshea the son of Nun.

<sup>45</sup> When he had finished speaking all these words to all Isra’el, <sup>46</sup> he said to them, “Take to heart all the words of my testimony against you today, so that you can use them in charging your children to be careful to obey all the words of this Torah. <sup>47</sup> For this is not a trivial matter for you; on the contrary, it is your life! Through it you will live long in the land you are crossing the Yarden to possess.”

(Maftir) <sup>48</sup> That same day ADONAI said to Moshe, <sup>49</sup> “Go up into the ‘Avarim Range, to Mount N’vo, in the land of Mo’av across from Yericho; and look out over the land of Kena’an, which I am giving the people of Isra’el as a possession. <sup>50</sup> On the mountain you are ascending you will die and be gathered to your people, just as Aharon your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people. <sup>51</sup> The reason for this is that both of you broke faith with me there among the people of Isra’el at the M’rivat-Kadesh Spring, in the Tzin Desert; you failed to demonstrate my holiness there among the people of Isra'el. <sup>52</sup> So you will see the land from a distance, but you will not enter the land I am giving to the people of Isra'el.”

Haftarah Ha'azinu: Sh'mu'el Bet (2 Samuel) 22:1–51

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah Ha'azinu:
Romans 10:14–21; 12:14–21; Messianic Jews (Hebrews) 12:28–29

Parashah 54: V'Zot HaBrachah (This is the blessing) 33:1–34:12

33 <sup>1</sup> This is the blessing that Moshe, the man of God, spoke over the people of Isra'el before his death:

<sup>2</sup>       “A<sub>DONAI</sub> came from Sinai;
from Se'ir he dawned on his people, shone forth from Mount Pa'ran;
and with him were myriads of holy ones;
at his right hand
was a fiery law for them.

<sup>3</sup>       He truly loves the peoples —
all his holy ones are in your hand;
sitting at your feet,
they receive your instruction,

<sup>4</sup>       the Torah Moshe commanded us

as an inheritance for the community of Ya‘akov.

<sup>5</sup> Then a king arose in Yeshurun when the leaders of the people were gathered, all the tribes of Isra’el together.

<sup>6</sup> “Let Re’uven live and not die out, even though his numbers grow few.”

<sup>7</sup> Of Y’hudah he said:

“Hear, ADONAI, the cry of Y’hudah!
Bring him in to his people,
let his own hands defend him;
but you, help him against his enemies.”

(ii) <sup>8</sup> Of Levi he said:

“Let your tumim and urim
be with your pious one,
whom you tested at Massah,
with whom you struggled at M’rivah Spring.

<sup>9</sup> Of his father and mother he said, ‘I don’t know them’;
he didn’t acknowledge his brothers or children.
For he observed your word,

and he kept your covenant.

<sup>10</sup> They will teach Ya‘akov your rulings, Isra’el your Torah.

They will set incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI, bless his possessions, accept the work he does;

but crush his enemies hip and thigh;

may those who hate him rise no more.”

<sup>12</sup> Of Binyamin he said:

“ADONAI’s beloved lives securely.

He protects him day after day.

He lives between his shoulders.”

(iii) <sup>13</sup> Of Yosef he said:

“May ADONAI bless his land with the best from the sky, for the dew, and for what comes from the deep beneath,

<sup>14</sup> with the best of what the sun makes grow,

with the best of what comes up each month,

<sup>15</sup>

with the best from the mountains of old,
with the best from the eternal hills,

<sup>16</sup>

with the best from the earth and all that fills it,
and the favor of him who lived in the [burning] bush.
May blessing come on the head of Yosef,
on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

<sup>17</sup>

His firstborn bull — glory is his;
his horns are those of a wild ox;
With them he will gore the peoples,
all of them, to the ends of the earth.
These are the myriads of Efrayim;
these are the thousands of M'nasheh.”

(iv) <sup>18</sup> Of Z'vulun he said:

“Rejoice, Z'vulun, as you go forth,
and you, Yissakhar, in your tents.

<sup>19</sup>

They will summon peoples to the mountain and there offer righteous sacrifices;
for they will draw from the abundance of the seas and from the hidden treasures of the sand.”

<sup>20</sup> Of Gad he said:

“Blessed is he who makes Gad so large;
he lies there like a lion,
tearing arm and scalp.

<sup>21</sup>       He chose the best for himself
when the princely portion was assigned.
When the leaders of the people came,
he carried out A<sub>DONAI</sub>’s justice and his rulings concerning Isra’el.”

(v) <sup>22</sup> Of Dan he said:

“Dan is a lion cub leaping forth from Bashan.”

<sup>23</sup> Of Naftali he said:

“You, Naftali, satisfied with favor and full of blessing from A<sub>DONAI</sub>, take possession of the sea and the south.”

<sup>24</sup> Of Asher he said:

“May Asher be most blessed of sons, may he be the favorite among his brothers and bathe his feet in oil.

<sup>25</sup> May your bolts be of iron and bronze and your strength last as long as you live.

<sup>26</sup> “Yeshurun, there is no one like God, riding through the heavens to help you,
riding on the clouds in his majesty.

(vi)<sup>27</sup> The God of old is a dwelling-place, with everlasting arms beneath.
He expelled the enemy before you and he said, ‘Destroy!’

<sup>28</sup> So Isra’el lives in security;
the fountain of Ya‘akov is alone in a land of grain and new wine, where the skies drip with dew.

<sup>29</sup> Happy are you, Isra’el!
“Who is like you, a people saved by ADONAI, your defender helping you
and your sword of triumph?
Your enemies will cringe before you,

but you will trample down their high places.”

34(vii) <sup>1</sup> Moshe ascended from the plains of Mo'av to Mount N'vo, to the summit of Pisgah, across from Yericho. There ADONAI showed him all the land — Gil'ad as far as Dan, <sup>2</sup> all Naftali, the land of Efrayim and M'nasheh, the land of Y'hudah all the way to the sea beyond, <sup>3</sup> the Negev and the plain, including the valley where Yericho the City of Date-Palms is, as far away as Tzo'ar. <sup>4</sup>ADONAI said to him, “This is the land concerning which I swore to Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over there.”

<sup>5</sup> So Moshe, the servant of ADONAI, died there in the land of Mo'av, as ADONAI had said. <sup>6</sup> He was buried in the valley across from Beit-P'or in the land of Mo'av, but to this day no one knows where his grave is.

<sup>7</sup> Moshe was 120 years old when he died, with eyes undimmed and vigor undiminished. <sup>8</sup> The people of Isra'el mourned Moshe on the plains of Mo'av for thirty days; after this, the days of crying and mourning for Moshe ended.

<sup>9</sup> Y'hoshua the son of Nun was full of the Spirit of wisdom, for Moshe had laid his hands on him, and the people of Isra'el heeded him and did what ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>10</sup> Since that time there has not arisen in Isra'el a prophet like Moshe, whom ADONAI knew face to face. <sup>11</sup> What signs and wonders ADONAI sent him to perform in the land of Egypt upon Pharaoh, all his servants and all his land! <sup>12</sup> What might was in his hand! What great terror he evoked before the eyes of all Isra'el!

Haftarah V'zot HaBrachah: Y'hoshua (Joshua) 1:1–18 (A); 1:1–9 (S)

B'rit Hadashah suggested readings for Parashah V'zot HaBrachah: Mattityahu (Matthew) 17:1–9; Mark 9:2–10; Luke 9:28–36; Y'hudah (Jude) 3–4, 8–10

Hazak, hazak, v'nit'chazek!
Be strong, be strong, and let us be strengthened!

Y'hoshua

JOSHUA

1 <sup>1</sup> After the death of Moshe the servant of ADONAI, ADONAI said to Y'hoshua the son of Nun, Moshe's assistant, <sup>2</sup> "Moshe my servant is dead. So now, get up and cross over this Yarden, you and all the people, to the land I am giving to them, the people of Isra'el. <sup>3</sup> I am giving you every place you will step on with the sole of your foot, as I said to Moshe. <sup>4</sup> All the land from the desert and the L'vanon to the great river, the Euphrates River — all the land of the Hitti — and on to the Great Sea in the west will be your territory. <sup>5</sup> No one will be able to withstand you as long as you live. Just as I was with Moshe, so I will be with you. I will neither fail you nor abandon you.

<sup>6</sup> "Be strong, be bold; for you will cause this people to inherit the land I swore to their fathers I would give them. <sup>7</sup> Only be strong and very bold in taking care to follow all the Torah which Moshe my servant ordered you to follow; do not turn from it either to the right or to the left; then you will succeed wherever you go. <sup>8</sup> Yes, keep this book of the Torah on your lips, and meditate on it day and night, so that you will take care to act according to everything written in it. Then your undertakings will prosper, and you will succeed. <sup>9</sup> Haven't I ordered you, 'Be strong, be bold'? So don't be afraid or downhearted, because ADONAI your God is with you wherever you go."

<sup>10</sup> Y'hoshua instructed the officials of the people <sup>11</sup> to go through the camp and order the people, "Prepare provisions, because in three days you will cross this Yarden to go in and take possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving you."

<sup>12</sup> To the Re'uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M'nasheh Y'hoshua said, <sup>13</sup> "Remember what Moshe the servant of ADONAI ordered you: 'ADONAI your God has let you rest and will give you this land.' <sup>14</sup> Your wives, your little ones and your livestock will stay in the land Moshe gave you on the east side of the Yarden; but you are to cross over armed as a fighting force ahead of your brothers, to help them; <sup>15</sup> until ADONAI allows your brothers to rest, as he has allowed you; and they too have taken possession of the land ADONAI your God is giving them. At that point, you will return to the land which is yours and possess it, the land Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave you in ‘Ever-HaYarden to the east, toward the sunrise.”

<sup>16</sup> They answered Y’hoshua, “We will do everything you have ordered us to do, and we will go wherever you send us. <sup>17</sup> Just as we listened to everything Moshe said, so will we listen to you. Only may ADONAI your God be with you as he was with Moshe. <sup>18</sup> If anyone rebels against your order and doesn’t heed what you say in every detail of your order, he will be put to death. Just be strong, be bold!”

2 <sup>1</sup> Y’hoshua the son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Sheetim with these instructions: “Go, inspect the land and Yericho.” They left and came to the house of a prostitute named Rachav, where they spent the night. <sup>2</sup> The king of Yericho was told about it — “Tonight some men from Isra’el came here to reconnoiter the land.”

<sup>3</sup> The king of Yericho sent a message to Rachav, “Bring out the men who came to you and are staying in your house, because they have come to reconnoiter all the land.” <sup>4</sup> However, the woman, after taking the two men and hiding them, replied, “Yes, the men did come to me; but I didn’t know where they had come from. <sup>5</sup> The men left around the time when they shut the gate, when it was dark. Where they went I don’t know; but if you chase after them quickly, you will overtake them.” <sup>6</sup> Actually she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them under some stalks of flax she had spread out there. <sup>7</sup> The men pursued them all the way to the fords at the Yarden; as soon as the pursuit party had left, the gate was shut.

<sup>8</sup> The two men had not yet lain down when she returned to the roof <sup>9</sup> and said to them, “I know that ADONAI has given you the land. Fear of you has fallen on us; everyone in the land is terrified at the thought of you. <sup>10</sup> We’ve heard how ADONAI dried up the water in the Sea of Suf ahead of you, when you left Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Emori on the other side of the Yarden, Sichon and ‘Og, that you completely destroyed them. <sup>11</sup> As soon as we heard it, our hearts failed us. Because of you, everyone is in a state of depression. For ADONAI your God — he is God in heaven above and on the earth below. <sup>12</sup> So, please, swear to me by ADONAI that, since I have been kind to you, you will also be kind to my father’s family. Give me some evidence of your good faith, <sup>13</sup> that you will spare the lives of my father, mother, brothers and sisters and all who are theirs, so that we won’t be killed.” <sup>14</sup> The men replied to her, “Our lives are certainly worth yours, provided you don’t betray our mission. So when ADONAI gives us the land, we will treat you kindly and in good faith.”

<sup>15</sup> Then she lowered them by a rope through the window; since her house abutted the city wall, indeed was actually built into it. <sup>16</sup> She told them, “Head for the hills, so that the pursuit party won’t get their hands on you; and hide yourselves there for three days, until the pursuers have returned. After that, you can go on your way.” <sup>17</sup> The men said to her, “We will not be guilty of violating the oath you made us swear, provided that <sup>18</sup> when we enter the land, you tie this piece of scarlet cord in the window you let us down from; and you gather together in your house your father, mother, brothers, and your father’s entire household. <sup>19</sup> If anyone goes out the doors of your house into the street, he will be responsible for his own blood, and we will be guiltless. But everyone who stays with you in the house — we will be responsible for his blood if anyone lays a hand on him. <sup>20</sup> However, if you say a word about this business of ours, then we will be free of your oath that you made us swear.” <sup>21</sup> “According to your words, so be it,” she said, and sent them away. As they departed, she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup> They left, arrived in the hills, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers had searched for them all the way but hadn’t found them. <sup>23</sup> Then the two men returned. Descending from the hills they crossed over and came to Y’hoshua the son of Nun, and reported everything that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup> “Truly ADONAI has handed over all the land to us,” they told Y’hoshua. “Everyone in the land is terrified that we’re coming.”

3 <sup>1</sup> Y’hoshua got up early in the morning, and they left Sheetim and came to the Yarden, he with all the people of Isra’el; they camped there before crossing. <sup>2</sup> After three days, the officials circulated through the camp <sup>3</sup> and gave the people these orders: “When you see the ark for the covenant of ADONAI your God and the cohanim, who are L’vi’im, carrying it, you are to leave your position and follow it. <sup>4</sup> But keep a distance between yourselves and it of about a thousand yards — don’t come any closer, so that you will understand which way to go, because you haven’t gone this way before.”

<sup>5</sup> Y'hoshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, because tomorrow ADONAI is going to work wonders among you." <sup>6</sup> Then Y'hoshua said to the cohanim, "Take the ark for the covenant, and go on ahead of the people." They took the ark for the covenant and went ahead of the people.

<sup>7</sup> ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Starting today, I will make you great in full view of all Isra'el; so that they will know that just as I was with Moshe, so I will be with you. <sup>8</sup> Now you are to order the cohanim carrying the ark for the covenant as follows: 'When you come to the edge of the Yarden River, you are to stop in the Yarden itself.'"

<sup>9</sup> Y'hoshua said to the people of Isra'el, "Come here, and listen to the words of ADONAI your God." <sup>10</sup> Then Y'hoshua said, "Here is how you will know that the living God is here with you and that, without fail, he will drive out from before you the Kena'ani, the Hitti, the Hivi, the P'rizi, the Girgashi, the Emori and the Y'vusi: <sup>11</sup> the ark for the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going on ahead of you across the Yarden. <sup>12</sup> Now choose yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Isra'el, one man for each tribe. <sup>13</sup> As soon as the cohanim carrying the ark of ADONAI, the Lord of all the earth, put the soles of their feet in the water of the Yarden, the water of the Yarden will be cut off upstream and stand piled up like an embankment."

<sup>14</sup> So the people left their tents to cross the Yarden, with the cohanim carrying the ark for the covenant ahead of the people. <sup>15</sup> When those carrying the ark had come to the Yarden, and the cohanim carrying the ark had waded into the water (for throughout harvest season the Yarden overflows its banks), <sup>16</sup> the water upstream stood piled up like an embankment for a great distance at Adam, the city next to Tzartan; so that the water flowing downstream toward the Sea of the 'Aravah, the Dead Sea, was completely cut off; and the people crossed over right by Yericho. <sup>17</sup> The cohanim carrying the ark for the covenant of ADONAI stood fast on dry ground in the middle of the Yarden, while all Isra'el crossed on dry ground, until the entire nation had finished crossing the Yarden.

4 <sup>1</sup> After the whole nation had finished crossing the Yarden, ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, <sup>2</sup> "Take for yourselves from the people twelve men, a man from every tribe; <sup>3</sup> and give them this order: 'Take twelve stones from the middle of the Yarden riverbed, where the cohanim are standing, carry them over with you and set them down in the place where you will camp tonight.'" <sup>4</sup>

Y'hoshua called the twelve men whom he had chosen from the people of Isra'el, a man from every tribe, <sup>5</sup> and said to them, "Go on ahead of the ark of ADONAI your God into the riverbed of the Yarden. Then, each of you take a stone on his shoulder, corresponding to the number of tribes of the people of Isra'el. <sup>6</sup> This will be a sign for you. In the future, when your children ask, 'What do you mean by these stones?' <sup>7</sup> you will answer them, 'It's because the water in the Yarden was cut off before the ark for the covenant of ADONAI ; when it crossed the Yarden, the water in the Yarden was cut off; and these stones are to be a reminder for the people of Isra'el forever.'"

<sup>8</sup> The people of Isra'el did just as Y'hoshua had ordered. They took twelve stones out of the Yarden riverbed, as ADONAI had said to Y'hoshua, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the people of Isra'el, carried them over with them to the place where they were camping, and set them down there. <sup>9</sup> Y'hoshua also set up twelve stones in the Yarden River itself, in the place where the feet of the cohanim carrying the ark for the covenant had stood. They are there to this day. <sup>10</sup> The cohanim carrying the ark stood in the Yarden riverbed until Y'hoshua had finished saying to the people everything that ADONAI had ordered him to say, in keeping with everything that Moshe had ordered Y'hoshua; then the people hurried across. <sup>11</sup> When all the people had finished crossing, the ark of ADONAI passed on, and the cohanim, ahead of the people. <sup>12</sup> The descendants of Re'uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M'nasheh went on, armed, ahead of the people of Isra'el, as Moshe had said to them; <sup>13</sup> some 40,000 armed soldiers ready for battle crossed in the presence of ADONAI to the plains of Yericho.

<sup>14</sup> That day ADONAI made Y'hoshua great in full view of all Isra'el. They were in awe of him, just as they had been in awe of Moshe all his life.

<sup>15</sup> ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, <sup>16</sup> "Order the cohanim carrying the ark for the testimony to come up out of the Yarden." <sup>17</sup> So Y'hoshua ordered the cohanim, "Come up out of the Yarden!" <sup>18</sup> The cohanim carrying the ark for the covenant of ADONAI came up from the Yarden riverbed, and as soon as the soles of the feet of the cohanim touched dry ground, the water of the Yarden returned to its place and the river overflowed its banks as it had before.

<sup>19</sup> The people came up out of the Yarden on the tenth day of the first month and camped at Gilgal, by the eastern boundary of Yericho. <sup>20</sup> Those twelve stones which they took out of the Yarden, Y'hoshua piled up at Gilgal. <sup>21</sup> Then he said to the people of Isra'el, "In the future, when your children ask their fathers what these stones mean, <sup>22</sup> you are to explain it to them by saying, ‘Isra’el came over this Yarden on dry land. <sup>23</sup> For ADONAI your God dried up the water in the Yarden from in front of you, until you had crossed, just as ADONAI your God did to the Sea of Suf, which he dried up from in front of us, until we had crossed. <sup>24</sup> From this all the peoples of the earth can know that the hand of ADONAI is strong, and you can fear ADONAI your God forever.’”

5 <sup>1</sup> When all the kings of the Emori on the west side of the Yarden and all the kings of the Kena’ani near the sea heard how ADONAI had dried up the Yarden River ahead of the people of Isra’el until they had crossed it, their hearts failed them, and they fell into depression because of the people of Isra’el.

<sup>2</sup> It was at that time that ADONAI said to Y’hoshua, “Make yourself knives of flint, and circumcise the people of Isra’el again, a second time. <sup>3</sup> So Y’hoshua made himself knives of flint and circumcised the people of Isra’el at Giv’at-Ha’Aralot [the hill of foreskins]. <sup>4</sup> The reason Y’hoshua circumcised was that all the people who had left Egypt who were males, all the fighting men, had died in the desert along the way after leaving Egypt. <sup>5</sup> For although all the people who left Egypt had been circumcised, all those who had been born in the desert on the way as they went on from Egypt had not been circumcised; <sup>6</sup> because the people of Isra’el walked forty years in the desert until the whole nation, that is, the fighting men who had left Egypt, had died out; because they had not heeded what ADONAI said. ADONAI had sworn that he would not allow them to see the land which ADONAI swore to their ancestors that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup> So he raised up their children to take their place, and it was these whom Y’hoshua circumcised; till then they had been uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised while traveling.

<sup>8</sup> When all the nation had been circumcised, every one of them, they stayed where they were in camp until they had healed. <sup>9</sup> ADONAI said to Y’hoshua, “Today I have rolled off from you the stigma of Egypt.” This is why the place has been called Gilgal [rolling] ever since. <sup>10</sup> The people of Isra’el camped at Gilgal, and they observed Pesach on the fourteenth day of the month, there on the plains of Yericho. <sup>11</sup> The day after Pesach they ate what the land

produced, matzah and roasted ears of grain that day. <sup>12</sup> The following day, after they had eaten food produced in the land, the man ended. From then on the people of Isra'el no longer had man; instead, that year, they ate the produce of the land of Kena'an.

<sup>13</sup> One day, when Y'hoshua was there by Yericho, he raised his eyes and looked; and in front of him stood a man with his drawn sword in his hand. Y'hoshua went over to him and asked him, "Are you on our side or on the side of our enemies?" <sup>14</sup> "No," he replied, "but I am the commander of ADONAI's army; I have come just now." Y'hoshua fell down with his face to the ground and worshipped him, then asked, "What does my lord have to say to his servant?" <sup>15</sup> The commander of ADONAI's army answered Y'hoshua, "Take your sandals off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy." And Y'hoshua did so.

6 <sup>1</sup> Yericho had completely barricaded its gates against the people of Isra'el—no one left, and no one entered. <sup>2</sup> ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "I have handed Yericho over to you, including its king and his warriors. <sup>3</sup> You are to encircle the city with all your soldiers and march around it once. Do this for six days. <sup>4</sup> Seven cohanim are to carry seven shofars in front of the ark. On the seventh day you are to march around the city seven times, and the cohanim will blow the shofars. <sup>5</sup> Then they are to blow a long blast on the shofar. On hearing the sound of the shofar, all the people are to shout as loudly as they can; and the wall of the city will fall down flat. Then the people are to go up into the city, each one straight from where he stands."

<sup>6</sup> Y'hoshua the son of Nun called the cohanim and told them, "Take up the ark for the covenant, and have seven cohanim carry seven shofars ahead of the ark of ADONAI." <sup>7</sup> To the people he said, "Move on, encircle the city, and have the army march ahead of the ark of ADONAI." <sup>8</sup> When Y'hoshua had spoken to the people, the seven cohanim carrying the seven shofars before ADONAI passed on and blew on the shofars, with the ark for the covenant of ADONAI following them. <sup>9</sup> The fighting men went ahead of the cohanim blowing the shofars, while the rearguard marched after the ark, with incessant blowing on the shofars. <sup>10</sup> Y'hoshua gave this order to the people: "Don't shout, don't let your voice be heard, don't let a single word out of your mouth until the day I tell you to shout; then you will shout."

<sup>11</sup> So he had the ark of ADONAI make a circle around the city, going around it once; then they returned to camp and stayed in the camp. <sup>12</sup> The next morning Y'hoshua got up early, and the cohanim took up the ark of ADONAI. <sup>13</sup> The seven cohanim carrying the seven shofars ahead of the ark of ADONAI went on, continually blowing on their shofars, with the fighting men marching ahead of them and the rearguard following after the ark of ADONAI; all the while the blowing on the shofars was incessant. <sup>14</sup> The second day, they went around the city once and returned to camp. They did the same for six days.

<sup>15</sup> On the seventh day, they got up early, at sunrise, and went around the city in the same way seven times. That was the only day they encircled the city seven times. <sup>16</sup> The seventh time, when the cohanim blew on their shofars, Y'hoshua said to the people, "Shout! because ADONAI has given you the city! <sup>17</sup> But the city and everything in it is to be set aside for ADONAI and therefore to be destroyed completely; only Rachav the prostitute is to be spared, she and everyone with her in her house, because she hid the messengers we sent. <sup>18</sup> So you, keep clear of everything reserved for destruction. If you bring a curse on yourselves by taking anything set aside to be destroyed, you will bring a curse on the whole camp of Isra'el and cause great distress there. <sup>19</sup> All the silver and gold, and all the brass and iron utensils are to be separated out for ADONAI and added to the treasury of ADONAI."

<sup>20</sup> So the people shouted, with the shofars blowing. When the people heard the sound of the shofars, the people let out a great shout; and the wall fell down flat; so that the people went up into the city, each one straight ahead of him; and they captured the city. <sup>21</sup> They completely destroyed everything in the city with the sword — men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

<sup>22</sup> Y'hoshua said to the two men who had reconnoitered the land, "Go into the prostitute's house and bring the woman out with all that she has, as you swore to her." <sup>23</sup> The young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rachav with her father, mother, brothers and all she had; they brought out all her relatives and put them safely outside the camp of Isra'el.

<sup>24</sup> Then they burned the city to ashes with everything in it, except for the silver, the gold and the brass and iron utensils, which they put in the treasury of the house of ADONAI. <sup>25</sup> But Y'hoshua spared Rachav the prostitute, her father's household and everything she had; and she has

continued living with Isra'el from then until now; because she hid the messengers Y'hoshua had sent to reconnoiter Yericho. <sup>26</sup> Y'hoshua then made the people take this oath: "A curse before ADONAI on anyone who rises up and rebuilds this city of Yericho: he will lay its foundation with the loss of his firstborn son and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son." <sup>27</sup> So ADONAI was with Y'hoshua, and people heard about him throughout the land.

7 <sup>1</sup> But the people of Isra'el misappropriated some of the goods set aside to be destroyed; for 'Akhan, the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Y'hudah, took some of the things reserved for destruction. In consequence, the anger of ADONAI blazed up against the people of Isra'el.

<sup>2</sup> Y'hoshua sent men from Yericho to 'Ai, which is next to Beit-Aven, east of Beit-El, telling them to go up and spy out the land. So the men went up, reconnoitered 'Ai, <sup>3</sup> returned to Y'hoshua and told him, "Don't have all the people go up; but let perhaps two or three thousand men go up and attack 'Ai. There's no point in making all the people exert themselves to get there, because there are only a few of them." <sup>4</sup> So from the people about three thousand men went up there, but they were routed by the men of 'Ai. <sup>5</sup> The men of 'Ai killed some thirty-six of them and chased them from before their gate all the way to Sh'varim, attacking them on the descent. The hearts of the people melted and turned to water.

<sup>6</sup> Y'hoshua tore his clothes and fell to his face on the ground before the ark of ADONAI until evening, he and the leaders of Isra'el, and they put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup> Y'hoshua said, "Oh, Adonai ELOHIM! Why did you take the trouble to bring this people across the Yarden if you meant to hand us over to the Emori and have us perish? We should have been satisfied to live on the other side of the Yarden! <sup>8</sup> Oh, ADONAI! What can I say, after Isra'el has turned their backs and retreated before their enemies? <sup>9</sup> For when the Kena'ani and the other people living in the land hear about it, they will surround us and wipe us off the face of the earth. What will you do then to save the honor of your great name?"

<sup>10</sup> ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Stand up! Why are you lying there face down? "Isra'el has sinned. Yes, they have violated my covenant, which I commanded them. They have taken some of what was to have been set aside for destruction. They have stolen it, lied about it and put it with their own things. <sup>12</sup> This is why the people of Isra'el cannot stand before their enemies. They turn their backs on their enemies, because they have come under a curse. I won't be with you any more unless you destroy the things meant for destruction that you have with you. <sup>13</sup> So get up, consecrate the people, and say, 'Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow; for here is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: "Isra'el, you have things under the curse of destruction among you; and you will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove the things that were to have been destroyed from among you." <sup>14</sup> Therefore, tomorrow morning you are to come forward, one tribe at a time; the tribe ADONAI takes is to come forward, one family at a time; the family ADONAI takes is to come forward, one household at a time; and the household ADONAI takes is to come forward, one person at a time. <sup>15</sup> The person who is caught with things in his possession that were reserved for destruction is to be burned to ashes, he and everything he has, because he has violated the covenant of ADONAI and has committed a shameful deed in Isra'el.'"

<sup>16</sup> So Y'hoshua got up early in the morning and had Isra'el come forward, one tribe at a time; and the tribe of Y'hudah was taken. <sup>17</sup> He had the families of Y'hudah come forward and took the family of the Zarchi. He had the Zarchi family come forward by household leaders, and Zavdi was taken. <sup>18</sup> He had his household come forward, one person at a time; and 'Akhan the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Y'hudah, was taken.

<sup>19</sup> Y'hoshua said to 'Akhan, "My son, swear to ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, that you will tell the truth and confess to him. Tell me, now, what did you do? Don't hide anything from me." <sup>20</sup> 'Akhan answered Y'hoshua, "It is true: I have sinned against ADONAI, the God of Isra'el. Here is exactly what I did: <sup>21</sup> when I saw there with the spoil a beautiful robe from Shin'ar, five pounds of silver shekels and a one-and-a-quarter-pound wedge of gold, I really wanted them. So I took them. You will find them hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath." <sup>22</sup> Y'hoshua sent messengers, who ran to the tent. It was all there, hidden in his tent, including the silver underneath. <sup>23</sup> They took the things from inside the tent, brought them to Y'hoshua and all the people of Isra'el, and put them down before ADONAI.

<sup>24</sup> Y'hoshua, together with all Isra'el, took 'Akhan, the son of Zerach, with the silver, the robe, the gold wedge, his sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and everything he had, and brought them up to the Akhor Valley. <sup>25</sup> Y'hoshua said, "Why have you brought trouble on us? Today ADONAI will bring trouble on you!" Then all Isra'el stoned him to death; they burned them to ashes and stoned them. <sup>26</sup> Over him they piled a great mound of stones, which is there to this day. Finally ADONAI turned away from his fierce anger. And this is why that place is called the Valley of Akhor [trouble] to this day.

8 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Don't be afraid or fall into despair! Take all the people who can fight with you, set out, and go up to 'Ai; because now I have handed over to you the king of 'Ai, his people, his city and his land. <sup>2</sup> Do to 'Ai and its king as you did to Yericho and its king; but this time, take its spoil and cattle as booty for yourselves. Ambush the city from behind."

<sup>3</sup> So Y'hoshua set out for 'Ai with all the people who could fight. Y'hoshua chose 30,000 men, the most courageous of his troops, and sent them out by night. <sup>4</sup> He instructed them, "You are to lie in wait to ambush the city from behind. Stay close to the city; and all of you, be ready. <sup>5</sup> I and all the troops with me will approach the city; and when they come out to attack us, as they did before, we will run away from them. <sup>6</sup> They will chase after us until we have drawn them away from the city; because they will say, 'They're running away from us, as they did before'; so we'll run away from them. <sup>7</sup> Then you will jump up from your ambush position and take possession of the city, for ADONAI your God will hand it over to you. <sup>8</sup> When you have captured the city, you are to set it on fire; do according to what ADONAI has said. Those are your orders."

<sup>9</sup> Y'hoshua sent them out; and they went to the place for the ambush, staying between Beit-El and 'Ai, to the west of 'Ai; while Y'hoshua camped that night with the people. <sup>10</sup> Y'hoshua got up early in the morning, mustered his men and went up to 'Ai ahead of the people, he and the leaders of Isra'el. <sup>11</sup> All the troops marching with him went up, advanced, arrived in front of the city and camped on the north side of 'Ai, with a valley between him and 'Ai. <sup>12</sup> Then he took about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Beit-El and 'Ai, to the west of 'Ai. <sup>13</sup> Thus the people arrayed themselves, with all the army to the north of the city, and their rearguard lying in wait to the west of the city. Y'hoshua spent that night in the valley.

<sup>14</sup> The king of 'Ai saw this, so the men in the city hurried out early in the morning to battle against Isra'el, he and all his people, at a meeting-place facing the 'Aravah. But he was unaware that behind the city an ambush had been laid against him. <sup>15</sup> Y'hoshua and all Isra'el made as if they had been defeated before them and ran off on the road to the desert. <sup>16</sup> All the people in 'Ai were summoned together to pursue them, so they chased Y'hoshua and were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup> Not a man was left in 'Ai or Beit-El who had not gone after Isra'el; pursuing Isra'el, they left the city wide open.

<sup>18</sup> Then ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, "Point the spear in your hand toward 'Ai, because I will hand it over to you." Y'hoshua pointed the spear in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup> The men in ambush jumped up quickly from their place; the moment he stretched out his hand, they ran, entered the city and captured it; and they hurried to set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup> When the men of 'Ai looked behind them, they saw it — there was the smoke from the city, rising to the sky; and they had no power to flee this way or that — at which point the people who had run off toward the desert turned back on the pursuers. <sup>21</sup> When Y'hoshua and all Isra'el saw that the ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city was going up, they turned back and slaughtered the men of 'Ai; <sup>22</sup> while the others came out of the city against them too; so that they were surrounded by Isra'el with some on this side and some on that side. They attacked them, allowing none to remain or escape. <sup>23</sup> But they took the king of 'Ai alive and brought him to Y'hoshua.

<sup>24</sup> When Isra'el had finished slaughtering all the inhabitants of 'Ai in the countryside, in the desert where they had pursued them, and they had all fallen, consumed by the sword, then all Isra'el returned to 'Ai and defeated it with the sword. <sup>25</sup> Twelve thousand men and women fell that day, everyone in 'Ai. <sup>26</sup> For Y'hoshua did not withdraw his hand, which he had used to point the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of 'Ai. <sup>27</sup> Only the livestock and the spoil of that city did Isra'el take as booty for themselves, in keeping with the order ADONAI had given Y'hoshua. <sup>28</sup> So Y'hoshua burned down 'Ai and turned it into a tel forever, so that it remains a ruin to this day. <sup>29</sup> The king of 'Ai he hanged on a tree until evening; at sundown Y'hoshua gave an order, so they took his carcass down from the tree, threw it at the entrance of the city gate and piled on it a big heap of stones, which is there to this day.

<sup>30</sup> Then Y'hoshua built an altar to ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, on Mount 'Eival, <sup>31</sup>as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered the people of Isra'el to do (this is written in the book of the Torah of Moshe), an altar of uncut stones that no one had touched with an iron tool. On it they offered burnt offerings to ADONAI and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup> He wrote there on the stones a copy of the Torah of Moshe, inscribing it in the presence of the people of Isra'el. <sup>33</sup> Then all Isra'el, including their leaders, officials and judges, stood on either side of the ark in front of the cohanim, who were L'vi'im and who carried the ark for the covenant of ADONAI. The foreigners were there along with the citizens. Half of the people were in front of Mount G'rizim and half of them in front of Mount 'Eival, as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered them earlier in connection with blessing the people of Isra'el. <sup>34</sup> After this, he read all the words of the Torah, the blessing and the curse, according to everything written in the book of the Torah. <sup>35</sup> There was not a word of everything Moshe had ordered that Y'hoshua did not read before all Isra'el assembled, including the women, the little ones and the foreigners living with them.

9 <sup>1</sup> When all the kings on the west side of the Yarden in the hills, in the Sh'felah and all along the shore of the Great Sea that fronts the L'vanon — the Hitti, Emori, Kena'ani, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi — heard what had happened, <sup>2</sup> they joined forces to fight together against Y'hoshua and Isra'el. <sup>3</sup> But when the inhabitants of Giv'ah heard what Y'hoshua had done to Yericho and 'Ai, <sup>4</sup> they developed a clever deception: they made themselves look as if they had been on a long journey by putting old sacks on their donkeys and taking used wineskins that had burst and been mended back together. <sup>5</sup> They put old, patched sandals on their feet and dressed in worn-out clothes; and took as provisions nothing but dried-up bread that was crumbling to pieces. <sup>6</sup> Then they went to Y'hoshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Isra'el, "We have come from a country far away. Now, make a covenant with us." <sup>7</sup> The men of Isra'el said to the Hivi, "How do we know that you don't live here among us? If you do, we don't want to make a covenant with you." <sup>8</sup> But they answered Y'hoshua, "We are your servants." Y'hoshua asked, "Who are you, and where do you come from?" <sup>9</sup> They answered him, "Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the reputation of ADONAI your God.

We have heard reports about him — everything he did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup> and everything he did to the two kings of the Emori across the Yarden, Sichon king of Heshbon and ‘Og king of Bashan at ‘Ashtarot. <sup>11</sup> So our leaders and all the people living in our country said to us, “Take provisions with you for the journey, go to meet them, and say to them, ‘We are your servants, and now make a covenant with us.’” <sup>12</sup> Here is the bread which we took for our provisions. It was still warm when we took it out of our homes the day we left to come to you. Now look at it! It’s dry and turned to crumbs! <sup>13</sup> And these wineskins were new when we filled them, but look, now they’re torn. Likewise these clothes of ours and our shoes are worn out because of the very long journey.”

<sup>14</sup> The men sampled some of their food but didn’t seek the advice of ADONAI, <sup>15</sup> so Y’hoshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them to spare their lives, and the leading officials of the community swore to them. <sup>16</sup> But three days later, after they had made the covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, that they lived there with them.

<sup>17</sup> The people of Isra’el traveled and arrived at their cities on the third day. Their cities were Giv’on, K’firah, Be’erot and Kiryat-Ye‘arim. <sup>18</sup> The people of Isra’el did not attack them, because the leading officials of the community had sworn to them by ADONAI, the God of Isra’el; but all the community grumbled against the leaders. <sup>19</sup> However, the leaders replied to the whole community, “We have sworn to them by ADONAI, the God of Isra’el; so we can’t touch them. <sup>20</sup> Here is what we will do to them: we will let them live, so that God’s anger will not be on us because of the oath we swore to them. <sup>21</sup> Yes, let them live,” the leaders continued, “but let them chop wood and draw water for the whole community.” This is what the leaders said.

<sup>22</sup> Y’hoshua summoned them and said this to them: “Why have you deceived us by saying, ‘We come from a place very far away,’ when in fact you are living right here with us? <sup>23</sup> Now you have a curse on you: you will be slaves forever, supplying people to chop wood and draw water for the house of my God.” <sup>24</sup> They answered Y’hoshua, “It is because we heard the reports that ADONAI your God had ordered his servant Moshe to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from ahead of you. So we were terrified for our lives on account of you; that’s why we did this. <sup>25</sup> Now, as you see, we are in your hands; do to us whatever seems good and right to you.” <sup>26</sup> So Y’hoshua did exactly that: he saved them from the power of the people of Isra'el, so that they didn't kill them. <sup>27</sup> But he did that same day make them choppers of wood and drawers of water for the community and for the altar of ADONAI in the place which he would choose; and they remain so to this day.

10 <sup>1</sup> When Adoni-Tzedek king of Yerushalayim heard how Y'hoshua had taken 'Ai and utterly destroyed it — he had done the same to 'Ai and its king as he had done to Yericho and its king — and how the inhabitants of Giv'on had made peace with Isra'el and were living among them, <sup>2</sup> his people became greatly alarmed; because Giv'on was as large as one of the royal cities, larger than 'Ai, and all its men were courageous. <sup>3</sup> So Adoni-Tzedek king of Yerushalayim sent this message to Hoham king of Hebron, Pir'am king of Yarmut, Yafia king of Lakhish and D'vir king of 'Eglon: <sup>4</sup> “Come up and help me, and we'll attack Giv'on, because it has made peace with Y'hoshua and the people of Isra'el.” <sup>5</sup> So the five kings of the Emori — the kings of Yerushalayim, Hebron, Yarmut, Lakhish and 'Eglon — got together, went up with all their armies, pitched camp against Giv'on and made war against it.

<sup>6</sup> The people of Giv'on sent a message to Y'hoshua at their camp in Gilgal that said, “Don't ignore your servants! Come up to us quickly, and save us! Help us, because all the kings of the Emori living in the hills have gotten together to fight us.” <sup>7</sup> Y'hoshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the fighting men with him, including all the bravest ones. <sup>8</sup> ADONAI said to Y'hoshua, “Don't be afraid of them, for I have handed them over to you; not one of their men will stand against you.”

<sup>9</sup> Having spent the entire night marching up from Gilgal, Y'hoshua fell upon them, taking them by surprise. <sup>10</sup> ADONAI threw them into confusion before Isra'el and defeated them in a great slaughter at Giv'on, pursuing them along the road that goes up from Beit-Horon, and beating them back to 'Azekah and all the way to Makkedah. <sup>11</sup> As they fled before Isra'el down the road to Beit-Horon, ADONAI threw huge hailstones down on them all the way to 'Azekah, and they died; more died because of the hail than because Isra'el had killed them with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> Then, on the day ADONAI handed over the Emori to the people of Isra'el, Y'hoshua spoke to ADONAI; in the sight of Isra'el he said, “Sun, stand motionless over Giv’on!

Moon, you too, over Ayalon Valley!”

<sup>13</sup>

So the sun stood still and the moon stayed put, till Isra’el took vengeance on their enemies.

This is written in the book of Yashar. The sun stood still in the sky and was in no rush to set for nearly a whole day. <sup>14</sup> There has never been a day like that before or since, when ADONAI listened to the voice of a man; it happened because ADONAI was fighting on Isra’el’s behalf.

<sup>15</sup> Y’hoshua returned with all Isra’el to the camp at Gilgal. <sup>16</sup> But those five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah, <sup>17</sup> and it was reported to Y’hoshua that the five kings had been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>18</sup> Y’hoshua said, “Roll big stones to the mouth of the cave, and put men there to guard them. <sup>19</sup> However, you, don’t wait, but keep chasing your enemies, and attack those farthest in the rear. Don’t allow them to return to their cities, because ADONAI has handed them over to you.”

<sup>20</sup> After Y’hoshua and the people of Isra’el had finished killing them off in a very great slaughter, till they had been destroyed, and the remaining remnant had entered the fortified cities, <sup>21</sup> all the people returned safely to Y’hoshua at the camp in Makkedah; and no one said a word against any of the people of Isra’el.

<sup>22</sup> Then Y’hoshua said, “Open up the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me. <sup>23</sup> They did it; they brought the five kings out to him— the kings of Yerushalayim, Hevron, Yarmut, Lakhish and ‘Eglon. <sup>24</sup> After they had brought the five kings to Y’hoshua, he summoned all the men of Isra’el and said to the commanders of the soldiers who had gone with him, “Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings.” They came and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup> Y’hoshua said to them, “Don’t be afraid or confused, but be strong and bold, because this is what ADONAI will do to all your enemies that you fight against.” <sup>26</sup> With that, Y’hoshua struck them and put them to death, hanging them on five trees, where they remained hanging until evening. <sup>27</sup> At sunset Y’hoshua gave an order, and they lowered them from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, then laid big stones at the mouth of the cave; and there they remain to this day.

<sup>28</sup> Y'hoshua captured Makkedah that day, defeating it and its king by the sword. He completely destroyed them, everyone there — he left no one; and he did to the king of Makkedah what he had done to the king of Yericho.

<sup>29</sup> Y'hoshua went on from Makkedah, and all Isra'el with him, to Livnah; and he fought against Livnah. <sup>30</sup> ADONAI also handed it and its king over to Isra'el. He defeated it with the sword, everyone there — he left no one, and he did to its king what he had done to the king of Yericho.

<sup>31</sup> Y'hoshua went on from Livnah, and all Isra'el with him, to Lakhish; and he pitched camp against it and fought against it. <sup>32</sup> ADONAI handed it over to Isra'el; he captured it the second day. He defeated it with the sword, everyone there, exactly as he had done to Livnah. <sup>33</sup> But then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lakhish; so Y'hoshua attacked him and his people, until he had no one left with him.

<sup>34</sup> Y'hoshua went on from Lakhish, and all Isra'el with him, to 'Eglon; and he pitched camp against it and fought against it. <sup>35</sup> They captured it that very day. He defeated it with the sword, completely destroying everyone there, exactly as he had done to Lakhish.

<sup>36</sup> Y'hoshua went up from 'Eglon, and all Isra'el with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it. <sup>37</sup> They captured it, defeating it with the sword, including its king, its villages and everyone there; he left no one, exactly as he had done to 'Eglon; but he completely destroyed it and everyone there.

<sup>38</sup> Y'hoshua turned back, and all Isra'el with him, to D'vir and fought against it. <sup>39</sup> They captured it, its king and all its villages, defeating them with the sword and utterly destroying everyone there; he left no one. He did to D'vir and its king as he had done to Hebron and as he had done to Livnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup> So Y'hoshua attacked all the land — the hills, the Negev, the Sh'felah and the mountain slopes — and all their kings; he left none but completely destroyed everything that breathed, as ADONAI the God of Isra'el had ordered.

<sup>41</sup> Y'hoshua attacked them from Kadesh-Barnea to 'Azah and all the land of Goshen, as far as Giv'on. <sup>42</sup> Y'hoshua captured all these kings and their land all at the same time, because ADONAI the God of Isra'el fought on Isra'el's behalf. <sup>43</sup> Then Y'hoshua returned, and all Isra'el with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

11 <sup>1</sup> When Yavin king of Hatzor heard of it, he informed Yovav king of Madon; the king of Shimron; the king of Akhshaf; <sup>2</sup> the kings to the north, in the hills, in the ‘Aravah south of Kinn’rot, in the Sh’felah and in the regions of Dor on the west; <sup>3</sup> the Kena‘ani to east and west; the Emori, Hitti, P’rizi and Y’vusi in the hills; and the Hivi at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mitzpah. <sup>4</sup> So they set out, they and all their armies, many people, in number like the sand at the seashore, with very many horses and chariots. <sup>5</sup> All these kings met together, then came and pitched camp together at the Merom Spring, to fight Isra’el.

<sup>6</sup>ADONAI said to Y’hoshua, “Don’t be afraid on their account; because at this time tomorrow I will hand them over, all of them dead, before Isra’el. You are to hamstring their horses and burn up their chariots.” <sup>7</sup> So Y’hoshua came against them suddenly with all his fighting men and fell on them at the Merom Spring. <sup>8</sup> ADONAI handed them over to Isra’el—they attacked and chased them to Greater Tzidon, Misrefot-Mayim and eastward to the Mitzpeh Valley; they attacked them until none of them was left. <sup>9</sup> Y’hoshua did to them what ADONAI had ordered — he hamstrung their horses and burned up their chariots. <sup>10</sup> Then Y’hoshua turned back and captured Hatzor, striking its king dead with the sword; for in time past Hatzor had been the head of all those kingdoms. <sup>11</sup> They put everyone there to death with the sword, completely destroying them; there was nothing left that breathed; and he burned Hatzor to the ground. <sup>12</sup> Y’hoshua captured all the cities of those kings and the kings as well; he defeated them with the sword and completely destroyed them, as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered. <sup>13</sup> But as for the cities built on their tels, Isra’el burned none of them except Hatzor; Y’hoshua did burn that one. <sup>14</sup> All the spoil of these cities and the livestock the people of Isra’el took as booty for themselves; but every human being they put to death with the sword, until they had destroyed them — they left no one breathing. <sup>15</sup> Moshe had given orders to Y’hoshua, just as ADONAI had given orders to Moshe his servant, and Y’hoshua acted accordingly—he did everything ADONAI had ordered Moshe.

<sup>16</sup> So Y’hoshua captured all that land, the hills, the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the Sh’felah, the ‘Aravah and the Isra’el hills and Sh’felah, <sup>17</sup> from the bare mountain that goes up to Se‘ir to Ba‘al-Gad in the L’vanon Valley under Mount Hermon; and he took all their kings, struck them and put them to death. <sup>18</sup> Y’hoshua made war with all those kings for a long time. <sup>19</sup> Not one city made peace with the people of Isra’el, except for the Hivi living in

Giv'on; they took everything in battle. <sup>20</sup> For it was ADONAI who caused them to harden their hearts and come against Isra'el in battle, so that they would be utterly destroyed, so that they would not find favor but be destroyed, in keeping with the orders ADONAI had given Moshe.

<sup>21</sup> Y'hoshua at that time came and cut off the 'Anakim from the land — from Hevron, D'vir, 'Anav and from all the hill-country of Y'hudah and Isra'el; Y'hoshua utterly destroyed them and their cities. <sup>22</sup> No 'Anakim were left in the land of the people of Isra'el — only in 'Azah, Gat and Ashdod did some remain. <sup>23</sup> Y'hoshua took the whole land, in keeping with all that ADONAI had said to Moshe and to Isra'el according to their divisions into tribes. Then the land rested from war.

12 <sup>1</sup> These are the kings of the land whom the people of Isra'el defeated and of whose land they took possession, across the Yarden toward the east, from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon and all the 'Aravah eastward:

<sup>2</sup> Sichon king of the Emori, who lived in Heshbon and ruled the territory that includes 'Aro'er, at the edge of the Arnon Valley; the middle of the valley; half of Gil'ad, to the Yabok River, which forms the border with the people of 'Amon; <sup>3</sup> the 'Aravah to Lake Kinneret eastward and to the sea of the 'Aravah, the Dead Sea, eastward by way of Beit-Yeshimot and on the south under the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>4</sup> There was also the territory of 'Og king of Bashan, who belonged to the remnant of the Refa'im. He lived at 'Ashtarot and at Edre'i; <sup>5</sup> and he ruled Mount Hermon; Salkhah; all Bashan, to the border with the G'shuri and the Ma'akhati; and half of Gil'ad, to its border with Sichon king of Heshbon.

<sup>6</sup> Moshe the servant of ADONAI, with the people of Isra'el, defeated them; and Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave it to the Re'uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M'nasheh as their possession.

<sup>7-8</sup> Following are the kings of the land whom Y'hoshua, with the people of Isra'el, defeated in the area west of the Yarden, between Ba'al-Gad in the L'vanon Valley and the bare mountain that goes up to Se'ir. Y'hoshua gave this land, inhabited by the Hitti, Emori, Kena'ani, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi, to the tribes of Isra'el to possess, according to their divisions, in the hills, the Sh'felah, the 'Aravah, the mountain slopes, the desert and the Negev:

the king of Yericho,
the king of 'Ai, by Beit-El, <sup>10</sup> the king of Yerushalayim,
the king of Hevron, <sup>11</sup> the king of Yarmut,
the king of Lakhish, <sup>12</sup> the king of 'Eglon,
the king of Gezer, <sup>13</sup> the king of D'vir,
the king of Geder, <sup>14</sup> the king of Hormah,
the king of 'Arad, <sup>15</sup> the king of Livnah,
the king of 'Adulam, <sup>16</sup> the king of Makkedah, the king of Beit-El, <sup>17</sup> the king of Tapuach,
the king of Hefer, <sup>18</sup> the king of Afek,

the king of Sharon,

<sup>19</sup> the king of Madon,

the king of Hatzor,

<sup>20</sup> the king of Shimron-M'ron,

the king of Akhshaf,

<sup>21</sup> the king of Ta'anakh,

the king of Megiddo,

<sup>22</sup> the king of Kedesh,

the king of Yokne'am in Karmel,

<sup>23</sup> the king of Dor in the region of Dor,

the king of Goyim in the Gilgal, and making a total of thirty-one kings.

<sup>24</sup> the king of Tirtzah—

13 <sup>1</sup> Now Y'hoshua was old; the years had taken their toll. ADONAI said to him, "You are old, and the years have taken their toll; but there is yet a great deal of land to be possessed.

<sup>2</sup> "This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the P'lishtim and all the G'shuri, <sup>3</sup> from the Shichor which fronts Egypt, to the border of 'Ekron (northward from there the land is considered as belonging to the Kena'ani) — that is, the territory of the rulers of the P'lishtim in 'Azah, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gat and 'Ekron; also the 'Avim <sup>4</sup> to the south; all the land of the Kena'ani; Me'arah, which belongs to the Tzidonim, as far as Afek and on to the border with the Emori; <sup>5</sup> the land of the Givli; all the

L'vanon eastward, from Ba'al-Gad at the foot of Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamat.

<sup>6</sup> “As for the inhabitants of the hills between the L'vanon and Misrefot-Mayim, that is, all the Tzidonim, I myself will expel them ahead of the people of Isra'el; all you have to do is assign it to Isra'el as an inheritance, as I have ordered you. <sup>7</sup>So now, divide this land as an inheritance for the nine tribes and the half-tribe of M'nasheh.”

<sup>8</sup> With the half-tribe of M'nasheh, the Re'uveni and the Gadi received their inheritance, which Moshe had given them, beyond the Yarden eastward, just as Moshe the servant of ADONAI had given them—<sup>9</sup> from 'Aro'er on the edge of the Arnon Valley, the city in the middle of the valley, all the plateau between Meidva and Divon, <sup>10</sup> and all the cities of Sichon king of the Emori who ruled in Heshbon to the border with the people of 'Amon; <sup>11</sup> and Gil'ad, the territory of the G'shuri and Ma'akhati, all Mount Hermon, all Bashan as far as Salkhah — <sup>12</sup> that is, all the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan, who ruled in 'Ashtarot and Edre'i. 'Og was one of those remaining from the Refa'im, whom Moshe defeated and expelled. <sup>13</sup> However, the people of Isra'el expelled neither the G'shuri nor the Ma'akhati, with the consequence that G'shur and Ma'akhat have lived among Isra'el to this day.

<sup>14</sup> Only to the tribe of Levi did Moshe give no inheritance; because the offerings made by fire for ADONAI the God of Isra'el are its inheritance; as [ADONAI] had said to Moshe.

<sup>15</sup> Moshe gave land to the tribe of the descendants of Re'uven by clans. <sup>16</sup> Their territory included 'Aro'er on the edge of the Arnon Valley, the city in the middle of the valley, all the plateau near Meidva, <sup>17</sup> Heshbon and its villages on the plateau, Divon, Bamot-Ba'al, Beit-Ba'al-M'on, <sup>18</sup> Yahatz, K'demot, Mefa'at, <sup>19</sup> Kiryatayim, Sivmah, Tzeret-Shachar at the top of the valley, <sup>20</sup> Beit-P'or, the slopes of Pisgah, Beit-Yeshimot, <sup>21</sup> all the cities of the plateau — all the kingdom of Sichon king of the Emori, who ruled in Heshbon. Moshe defeated him with the chiefs of Midyan, along with Evi, Rekem, Tzur, Hur and Reva the princes of Sichon who lived in the land. <sup>22</sup> Along with the others the people of Isra'el killed with the sword, they also struck down Bil'am the son of B'or, who practiced divination. <sup>23</sup> The Yarden formed the border for the descendants of Re'uven. This was the inheritance of the descendants of Re'uven by clans, with its cities and villages.

<sup>24</sup> Moshe gave land to the tribe of Gad, to the descendants of Gad by clans. <sup>25</sup> Their territory included Ya'zer; all the cities of Gil'ad; half the land of the people of 'Amon, as far as 'Aro'er fronting Rabbah — <sup>26</sup> that is, from Heshbon to Ramot-Mitzpeh and B'tonim; and from Machanayim to the border of Lidvir; <sup>27</sup> while in the valley it included Beit-Haram, Beit-Nimrah, Sukkot and Tzafon — in other words, the rest of the kingdom of Sichon king of Heshbon; with the Yarden to the far end of Lake Kinneret as its border, their territory extended eastward. <sup>28</sup> This is the inheritance of the descendants of Gad by clans, with its cities and villages.

<sup>29</sup> Moshe gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of M'nasheh; it was for the half-tribe of the descendants of M'nasheh by clans. <sup>30</sup> Their territory included Machanayim and all of Bashan — that is, all the kingdom of 'Og king of Bashan; all the villages of Ya'ir in Bashan, sixty cities; <sup>31</sup> half of Gil'ad; and 'Ashtarot and Edre'i, the cities of the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan. All this was for the descendants of Makhir the son of M'nasheh, or, rather, for half of the descendants of Makhir, by clans.

<sup>32</sup> These are the inheritances which Moshe distributed in the plains of Mo'av, beyond the Yarden and Yericho, eastward. <sup>33</sup> But to the tribe of Levi Moshe gave no inheritance; ADONAI the God of Isra'el is their inheritance — as he told them.

14 <sup>1</sup> These are the inheritances which the people of Isra'el took in the land of Kena'an, which El'azar the cohen, Y'hoshua the son of Nun and the heads of the ancestral clans of the tribes of the people of Isra'el distributed to them <sup>2</sup> by lot for them to inherit, as ADONAI ordered through Moshe, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe. <sup>3</sup> Moshe had already given the inheritances to the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Yarden; to the L'vi'im he gave no inheritance among them. <sup>4</sup> The descendants of Yosef constituted two tribes, M'nasheh and Efrayim; and they gave no portion of the land to the L'vi'im except cities to live in, with the open land surrounding them for their livestock and crops. <sup>5</sup> As ADONAI had ordered Moshe, so the people of Isra'el did—they divided the land.

<sup>6</sup> The descendants of Y'hudah approached Y'hoshua in Gilgal, and Kalev the son of Y'funeh the K'nizi said to him, "You know what ADONAI told Moshe the man of God about me and you in Kadesh-Barnea. <sup>7</sup> I was forty years old when Moshe the servant of ADONAI sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to reconnoiter the land, and I brought back to him an honest report. <sup>8</sup> My brothers who went up with me discouraged the people, but I followed

ADONAI my God completely. <sup>9</sup> On that day Moshe swore, ‘Surely the land where your foot has been will be the inheritance for you and your descendants forever, because you have followed ADONAI my God completely.’ <sup>10</sup> Now, look: ADONAI has kept me alive these forty-five years, as he said he would, from the time ADONAI said this to Moshe, when Isra’el was going through the desert. Today I am eighty-five years old, <sup>11</sup> but I am as strong today as on the day Moshe sent me — I’m as strong now as I was then, whether for war or simply for going here and there. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, give me this hill, the one ADONAI spoke about on that day; for on that day you heard how the ‘Anakim were there with great, fortified cities; perhaps ADONAI will be with me, and I will drive them away, as ADONAI said.”

<sup>13</sup> Y’hoshua blessed him and gave Hevron to Kalev the son of Y’funeh as his inheritance. <sup>14</sup> So Hevron became the inheritance of Kalev the son of Y’funeh the K’nizi, as it is to this day; because he followed ADONAI the God of Isra’el completely. <sup>15</sup> (Hevron was formerly called Kiryat-Arba; this Arba was the greatest man among the ‘Anakim.) Then the land had rest from war.

15 <sup>1</sup> The territory chosen by lot for the tribe of the descendants of Y’hudah according to their families extended to the border of Edom in the Tzin Desert, toward the Negev in the far south.

<sup>2</sup> Their southern border began at the far shore of the Dead Sea, from the bay facing southward, <sup>3</sup> and went out south of the Scorpion Ascent, passed toward Tzin, went up south of Kadesh-Barnea, passed Hetzron, went up toward Adar, turned toward Karka, <sup>4</sup> passed toward ‘Atzmon, and went out at the Vadi of Egypt, with the border ending at the sea; this will be your southern border.

<sup>5</sup> The eastern border was the Dead Sea to where the Yarden entered it.

The northern border began at the bay of the sea at the end of the Yarden; <sup>6</sup> then the border went up to Beit-Hoglah and passed north of Beit-‘Aravah; next the border went up to the Stone of Bohan the son of Re’uven; <sup>7</sup> then the border went up to D’vir from the Akhor Valley, then northward facing Gilgal (that is, across from Ma’alei-Adumim, which is on the south side of the vadi); next the border passed to the ‘Ein-Shemesh Spring and went out at ‘Ein-Rogel. <sup>8</sup> Then the border went up the Ben-Hinnom Valley to the south side of the Y’vusi (that is, Yerushalayim), and the border continued up to the top of the hill in front of the Hinnom Valley on the west (which is also at the northernmost end of the Refa'im Valley) <sup>9</sup> From this hilltop the border was drawn to the source of the Neftoach Spring and continued out to the cities of Mount 'Efron; next the border was drawn to Ba'alalah (that is, Kiryat-Ye'arim). <sup>10</sup> Then the border turned from Ba'al westward to Mount Se'ir, passed the spur of Mount Ye'arim (also called K'salon) on the north, went down to Beit-Shemesh and passed Timnah. <sup>11</sup> Next the border went out toward the side of 'Ekron northward; and finally, the border was drawn to Shikron, passed Mount Ba'alalah, and went out at Yavne'el, with the border ending at the sea.

<sup>12</sup> As for the west border, the Great Sea was its border. These were the borders of the territory of the descendants of Y'hudah, by clans.

<sup>13</sup> To Kalev the son of Y'funeh he gave a portion with the descendants of Y'hudah, as ADONAI had ordered Y'hoshua, namely, Kiryat-Arba (Arba was the father of the 'Anak), also called Hebron. <sup>14</sup> Kalev expelled from there three descendants of 'Anak — Sheshai, Achiman and Talmai, children of 'Anak. <sup>15</sup> From there he went up to fight the inhabitants of D'vir (D'vir was formerly called Kiryat-Sefer). <sup>16</sup> Kalev said, "To whoever overpowers Kiryat-Sefer and captures it I will give my daughter Akhsah as his wife." <sup>17</sup> 'Otni'el the son of K'naz, Kalev's brother, captured it; so he gave him 'Akhsah his daughter as his wife. <sup>18</sup> After becoming his wife, she persuaded him to ask her father to give them a field; when she got off her donkey, Kalev asked her, "What do you want?" <sup>19</sup> She said to him: "Give me a blessing: since you gave me land in the Negev, also give me sources of water." So Kalev gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

<sup>20</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Y'hudah, by clans.

<sup>21</sup> The cities at the outer part of the tribe of Y'hudah toward the border with Edom in the south were: Kavtze'el, 'Eder, Yagur, <sup>22</sup> Kinah, Dimonah, 'Ad'adah, <sup>23</sup> Kedesh, Hatzor, Yitnan, <sup>24</sup> Zif, Telem, Be'alot, <sup>25</sup> Hatzor, Hadatah, K'riot, Hetzron (which is Hatzor), <sup>26</sup> Amam, Sh'ma, Moladah, <sup>27</sup> Hatzar-Gadah, Heshmon, Beit-Pelet, <sup>28</sup> Hatzar-Shu'al, Be'er-Sheva, Bizyot-Yah, <sup>29</sup> Ba'alalah, 'Iyim, 'Etzem, <sup>30</sup> El-Tolad, K'sil, Hormah, <sup>31</sup> Ziklag, Madmanah, Sansanah, <sup>32</sup> L'va'ot, Shilchim, 'Ayin and Rimmon — twenty-nine cities in all, together with their villages.

<sup>33</sup> In the Sh'felah: Eshta'ol, Tzor'ah, Ashnah, <sup>34</sup> Zanoach, 'Ein-Ganim, Tapuach, 'Enam, <sup>35</sup> Yarmut, 'Adulam, Sokhoh, 'Azekah, <sup>36</sup> Sh'arim, 'Aditayim, G'derah and G'derotayim — fourteen cities, together with their villages. <sup>37</sup> Tz'nan, Hadashah, Migdal-Gad, <sup>38</sup> Dil'an, Mitzpeh, Yokte'el, <sup>39</sup> Lakhish, Bozkath, 'Eglon, <sup>40</sup> Kabon, Lachmas, Kitlish, <sup>41</sup> G'derot, Beit-Dagon, Na'amah and Makkedah — sixteen cities, together with their villages. <sup>42</sup> Livnah, 'Eter, 'Ashan, <sup>43</sup> Yiftach, Ashnah, N'tziv, <sup>44</sup> Ke'ilah, Akhziv and Mareshah — nine cities, together with their villages. <sup>45</sup> 'Ekron, with its towns and villages — <sup>46</sup> from 'Ekron to the sea; all those near Ashdod, with their villages; <sup>47</sup> Ashdod, with its towns and villages; 'Azah, with its towns and villages, to the Vadi of Egypt, with the Great Sea as its border.

<sup>48</sup> In the hills: Shamir, Yatir, Sokhoh, <sup>49</sup> Danah, Kiryat-Sanna (that is, D'vir), <sup>50</sup> 'Anav, Esht'moh, 'Anim, <sup>51</sup> Goshen, Holon and Giloh — eleven cities, together with their villages. <sup>52</sup> Arav, Dumah, Esh'an, <sup>53</sup> Yanum, Beit-Tapuach, Afekah, <sup>54</sup> Humtah, Kiryat-Arba (that is, Hevron) and Tzi'or — nine cities, together with their villages. <sup>55</sup> Ma'on, Karmel, Zif, Yutah, <sup>56</sup> Yizre'el, Yokde'am, Zanoach, <sup>57</sup> Kayin, Giv'ah and Timnah — ten cities, together with their villages. <sup>58</sup> Halchul, Beit-Tzur, G'dor, <sup>59</sup> Ma'arat, Beit-'Anot, Elt'kon — six cities, together with their villages. <sup>60</sup> Kiryat-Ba'al (that is, Kiryat-Ye'arim) and Rabbah — two cities, together with their villages.

<sup>61</sup> In the desert: Beit-'Aravah, Middin, S'khakhah, <sup>62</sup> Nivshan, 'Ir-Hamelach and 'Ein-Gedi — six cities, together with their villages.

<sup>63</sup> As for the Y'vusi, who lived in Yerushalayim, the descendants of Y'hudah could not drive them out; so the Y'vusi live with the descendants of Y'hudah in Yerushalayim to this day.

16 <sup>1</sup> The border of the territory chosen by lot for the descendants of Yosef began from the Yarden at Yericho, at the spring of Yericho on the east, went up from Yericho through the hills and desert to Beit-El, <sup>2</sup> went out from Beit-El to Luz, passed on to the border with the Arki to 'Atarot, <sup>3</sup> went down westward to the border with the Yafleti, to the border of Lower Beit-Horon, on to Gezer and ending at the sea. <sup>4</sup> So the descendants of Yosef, M'nasheh and Efrayim took the inheritance.

<sup>5</sup> The border of the descendants of Efrayim according to their families was as follows: the eastern border of their inheritance began at 'Atrot-Adar and went to Upper Beit-Horon; <sup>6</sup> then the border extended westward, with Mikhm'tat on the north; next the border turned eastward to Ta' anat-Shiloh and passed by it to the east of Yanochah; <sup>7</sup> then it went down from Yanochah to ‘Atarot, went to Na‘arah, extended to Yericho and ended at the Yarden. <sup>8</sup> From Tapuach the border went westward to Vadi Kanah and ended at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Efrayim according to their families, <sup>9</sup> together with the cities set aside for the descendants of Efrayim inside the territory to be inherited by the descendants of M’nasheh, all the cities with their villages. <sup>10</sup> They did not drive out the Kena‘ani living in Gezer, so the Kena‘ani live together with Efrayim to this day, having become slaves to do the heavy work.

17 <sup>1</sup> This was the territory chosen by lot for the tribe of M’nasheh, for he was the firstborn of Yosef. As for Makhir the firstborn of M’nasheh, the father of Gil‘ad, because he was a warrior he got Gil‘ad and Bashan. <sup>2</sup> So the lot was drawn for the other descendants of M’nasheh according to their families — for the descendants of Avi‘ezer, Helek, Asri‘el, Sh’khem, Hefer and Sh’mida; these were the male descendants of M’nasheh according to their families.

<sup>3</sup> But Tz’lof’chad the son of Hefer, the son of Gil‘ad, the son of Makhir, the son of M’nasheh, had no sons, only daughters; these are the names of his daughters: Machlah, No‘ah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah. <sup>4</sup> They approached El‘azar the cohen, Y’hoshua the son of Nun and the leaders and said, “ADONAI ordered Moshe to give us an inheritance together with our kinsmen.” Therefore, in keeping with ADONAI’s order, he gave them an inheritance together with the kinsmen of their father. <sup>5</sup> Thus ten parts fell to M’nasheh, in addition to the land of Gil‘ad and Bashan beyond the Yarden, <sup>6</sup> because the daughters of M’nasheh had an inheritance along with his descendants; but the land of Gil‘ad belonged to the rest of the descendants of M’nasheh.

<sup>7</sup> The border of M’nasheh began at Asher and went to Mikhm’tat, which is across from Sh’khem; next the border went along to the right, to the people of ‘Ein-Tapuach. <sup>8</sup> The land of Tapuach belonged to M’nasheh, but Tapuach on the border of M’nasheh belonged to the descendants of Efrayim. <sup>9</sup> The border descended to Vadi Kanah, south of the vadi, by cities which belonged to Efrayim among the cities of M’nasheh; but the border with M’nasheh was on the north side of the vadi, and it ended at the sea. <sup>10</sup> Southward it was Efrayim’s, northward it was M’nasheh’s, and the sea was its border; while to the north they extended to Asher, and on the east to Yissakhar.

<sup>11</sup> In Asher and Yissakhar, M'nasheh had Beit-Sh'an and its villages; Yivle'am and its villages; and the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, of 'Ein-Dor and its villages, of Ta'anakh and its villages, and of Megiddo and its villages — three districts in all. <sup>12</sup> But the descendants of M'nasheh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; the Kena'ani wanted to stay in that land. <sup>13</sup> After the people of Isra'el had become strong, they made the Kena'ani do heavy labor but didn't completely drive them out.

<sup>14</sup> Then the descendants of Yosef spoke to Y'hoshua; they said, "Why have you given me only one lot and only one portion to inherit? After all, I am a great people, since ADONAI has blessed me so." <sup>15</sup> Y'hoshua answered them, "If you are a great people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the territory of the P'rizi and the Refa'im — since the hills of Efrayim don't give you enough space." <sup>16</sup> The descendants of Yosef replied, "The hills won't be enough for us; and all the Kena'ani living in the valleys have iron chariots—both those in Beit-Sh'an and its villages and those in the Yizre'el Valley." <sup>17</sup> Then Y'hoshua said to the house of Yosef, to both Efrayim and M'nasheh, "You are a great people with much power; you will not have only one lot, <sup>18</sup> but the hills too will be yours. Although it is a forest, you will clear it, and the resulting open land will be yours. You will drive out the Kena'ani, even though they have iron chariots and are strong."

18 <sup>1</sup> The entire community of the people of Isra'el assembled themselves together at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there, after the land had been subdued before them. <sup>2</sup> There still remained among the people of Isra'el seven tribes that had not yet received their inheritance. <sup>3</sup> Y'hoshua said to the people of Isra'el, "How long will you delay going in to take possession of the land which ADONAI the God of your ancestors has given you? <sup>4</sup> Appoint three men for each tribe; I will commission them; and they are to set out, go through the land and describe it according to their inheritance; then they are to come back to me. <sup>5</sup> They are to divide it into seven portions, with Y'hudah remaining in its territory to the south and the house of Yosef in their territory to the north. <sup>6</sup> You will describe seven portions of land and bring the descriptions here to me; then I will cast lots for you here before ADONAI our God. <sup>7</sup> But the L'vi'im have no share with you, because the office of cohen to ADONAI is their inheritance; and Gad and Re'uven and the half-tribe of M'nasheh have received their inheritance beyond the Yarden to the east, which Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave them."

<sup>8</sup> So the men got up and went. Y'hoshua gave them this commission as they left to describe the land: "Go; walk through the land; and describe it; then come back to me, and I will cast lots for you here before ADONAI in Shiloh." <sup>9</sup> The men went and passed through the land, surveying it by cities, dividing it into seven regions and writing the results on a scroll. Then they came to Y'hoshua in the camp at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup> Y'hoshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before ADONAI, and there Y'hoshua divided the land among the people of Isra'el according to their regions.

<sup>11</sup> The lot for the tribe of the descendants of Binyamin came up according to their families. The border of their territory chosen by lot was between the descendants of Y'hudah and the descendants of Yosef.

<sup>12</sup> On the north side, their border began at the Yarden, went up alongside Yericho on the north, continued up through the hills westward and arrived at the Beit-Aven Desert. <sup>13</sup> From there the border passed on to Luz, to the south side of Luz (that is, Beit-El); then the border went down to 'Atrot-Adar, by the hill on the south side of Lower Beit-Horon.

<sup>14</sup> The border was delineated as turning at the western corner and heading southward, from the hill located in front of Beit-Horon on the south; and it ended at Kiryat-Ba'al (that is, Kiryat-Ye'arim), a city belonging to the descendants of Y'hudah; this was the west side.

<sup>15</sup> On the south the border extended westward from the most distant part of Kiryat-Ye'arim, going out to the source of the Neftoach Spring. <sup>16</sup> Then the border went down to the farthest part of the hill located in front of the Ben-Hinnom Valley, north of the Refa'im Valley, south of the Y'vusi; and continued down to 'Ein-Rogel, <sup>17</sup> where it was drawn to the north; then it went on to 'Ein-Shemesh; continued to G'lilot, which is across from Ma'alei-Adumim; went down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Re'uven; <sup>18</sup> passed alongside the 'Aravah, heading north; and went down to the 'Aravah. <sup>19</sup> Then the border passed alongside Beit-Hoglah, heading north; and the border ended at the north bay of the Dead Sea, at the south end of the Yarden; this was the south border.

<sup>20</sup> The Yarden was to be its border on the east side.

This was the inheritance of the descendants of Binyamin, defined by its surrounding borders, according to their families.

<sup>21</sup> The cities of the tribe of the descendants of Binyamin according to their families were: Yericho, Beit-Hoglah, 'Emek-K'tzitz, <sup>22</sup> Beit-'Aravah, Tz'marayim, Beit-El, <sup>23</sup> 'Avim, Parah, 'Ofrah, <sup>24</sup> K'far-Ha'amonah, 'Ofni and Geva — twelve cities, together with their villages. <sup>25</sup> Giv'on, Ramah, Be'erot, <sup>26</sup> Mitzpeh, K'firah, Motzah, <sup>27</sup> Rekem, Yirpe'el, Tar'alah, <sup>28</sup> Tzela, Elef, Y'vusi (that is, Yerushalayim), Giv'at and Kiryat — fourteen cities, together with their villages.

This is the inheritance of the descendants of Binyamin according to their families.

19 <sup>1</sup> The second lot came out for Shim'on, for the tribe of the descendants of Shim'on according to their families. Their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the descendants of Y'hudah. <sup>2</sup> For their inheritance they had Be'er-Sheva, Sheva, Moladah, <sup>3</sup> Hatzar-Shu'al, Balah, 'Etzem, <sup>4</sup> El-Tolad, B'tul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup> Ziklag, Beit-Markavot, Hatzar-Susah, <sup>6</sup> Beit-L'va'ot and Sharuchen — thirteen cities, together with their villages; <sup>7</sup> 'Ayin, Rimmon, 'Eter and 'Ashan — four cities, together with their villages; <sup>8</sup> and all the villages surrounding these cities, as far as Ba'alat-Be'er, Ramah of the Negev. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Shim'on according to their families. <sup>9</sup> The inheritance of the descendants of Shim'on was taken out of the allotment for the descendants of Y'hudah, because the portion given to the descendants of Y'hudah was too much for them, so the descendants of Shim'on had an inheritance inside the descendants of Y'hudah.

<sup>10</sup> The third lot came up for the descendants of Z'vulun according to their families. The border of their inheritance began at Sarid. <sup>11</sup> Then their border went up westward to Mar'alah, extended to Dabeshet and on to the vadi fronting Yokne'am. <sup>12</sup> Also from Sarid it turned toward the sunrise to the east to the border of Kislot-Tavor, went on to Dovrat and up to Yafia. <sup>13</sup> From there it passed eastward to Gat-Hefer, on to 'Et-Katzin, went out at Rimmon and reached to Ne'ah. <sup>14</sup> Then the border turned on the north side to Hanaton, ending in the Yiftach'el Valley. <sup>15</sup> Also Katat, Nahalal, Shimron, Yid'alah and Beit-Lechem — twelve cities, together with their villages. <sup>16</sup>

This is the inheritance of the descendants of Z'vulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

<sup>17</sup> The fourth lot came out for Yissakhar, for the descendants of Yissakhar according to their families. <sup>18</sup> Their territory included Yizre'el, K'sulot, Shunem, <sup>19</sup> Hafarayim, Shi'on, Anacharat, <sup>20</sup> Rabit, Kishyon, Evetz, <sup>21</sup> Remet, 'Ein-Ganim, 'Ein-Hadah and Beit-Patzetz. <sup>22</sup> Their territory extended to Tavor, Shachatzimah and Beit-Shemesh; and their territory ended at the Yarden — sixteen cities, together with their villages. <sup>23</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Yissakhar according to their families, the cities, with their villages.

<sup>24</sup> The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the descendants of Asher according to their families. <sup>25</sup> Their territory included Helkat, Hali, Beten, Akhshaf, <sup>26</sup> Alamelekh, 'Am'ad and Mish'al. It extended to the Karmel on the west and to Shichor-Livnat. <sup>27</sup> The border turned eastward to Beit-Dagon, reached to Z'vulun and the Yiftach'el Valley on its north, then Beit-'Emek and Ne'i'el, went out to Kavul on the left, <sup>28</sup> then 'Evron, Rechov, Hamon, Kanah and on to greater Tzidon. <sup>29</sup> The border turned toward Ramah and the fortified city of Tzor; next the border turned to Hosah; and it ended at the sea from Hevel to Akhziv. <sup>30</sup> Also included were 'Umah, Afek and Rechov —twenty cities, together with their villages. <sup>31</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

<sup>32</sup> The sixth lot came out for the descendants of Naftali, for the descendants of Naftali according to their families. <sup>33</sup> Their border went from Helef and the oak in Tza'ananim, included Adami-Nekev and Yavne'el, went on to Lakum and ended at the Yarden. <sup>34</sup> Westward the border turned to Aznot-Tavor and went out from there to Hukok, reaching to Z'vulun on the south, Asher on the west and Y'hudah at the Yarden toward the east. <sup>35</sup> The fortified cities were Tzidim, Tzer, Hamat, Rakat, Kin-neret, <sup>36</sup> Adamah, Ramah, Hatzor, <sup>37</sup> Kedesh, Edre'i, 'Ein-Hatzor, <sup>38</sup> Yir' on, Migdal-El, Horem, Beit-'Anat and Beit-Shemesh—nineteen cities, together with their villages. <sup>39</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Naftali according to their families, the cities with their villages.

<sup>40</sup> The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the descendants of Dan according to their families. <sup>41</sup> The territory of their inheritance included Tzor'ah, Eshta'ol, 'Ir-Shemesh, <sup>42</sup> Sha'alabin, Ayalon, Yitlah, <sup>43</sup> Eilon, Timnah, 'Ekron, <sup>44</sup> Elt'keh, Gib'ton, Ba'alat, <sup>45</sup> Y'hud, B'nei-Brak, Gat-

Rimmon,<sup>46</sup> Yarkon Springs and Rakon, with the border fronting Yafo.<sup>47</sup> The territory of the descendants of Dan was too small for them, so the descendants of Dan went up and fought against Leshem, captured it, defeated it by the sword, took possession of it and lived there, calling Leshem “Dan” after Dan their ancestor.<sup>48</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

<sup>49</sup> When they had finished distributing the land for inheritance according to its borders, the people of Isra’el gave an inheritance within their territory to Y’hoshua the son of Nun.<sup>50</sup> According to ADONAI’s order they gave him the city he had asked for, Timnat-Serach in the hills of Efrayim; so he built up the city and lived in it.

<sup>51</sup> These are the inheritances which El‘azar the cohen, Y’hoshua the son of Nun and the leaders of the ancestral clans of the tribes of the people of Isra’el distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before ADONAI at the door of the tent of meeting. Thus they finished dividing up the land.

20<sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Y’hoshua,<sup>2</sup> “Tell the people of Isra’el, ‘Select the cities of refuge about which I spoke to you through Moshe;<sup>3</sup> so that anyone who kills someone by mistake and unknowingly may escape there; they will serve as refuges for you from the next-of-kin avenger.<sup>4</sup> He is to flee to one of those cities, stand at the entrance to the city gate and state his cause to the city leaders. Then they will bring him into the city with them and give him a place, so that he may live among them.<sup>5</sup> If the next-of-kin avenger pursues him, they are not to hand over the killer to him; because he struck his fellow community member unknowingly and had not hated him previously.<sup>6</sup> So he will live in that city until he stands trial before the community, until the death of the cohen hagadol who is in office at the time. When that time comes, the killer may return to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.’”

<sup>7</sup> So they set apart Kedesh in the Galil, in the hills of Naftali; Sh’khem in the hills of Efrayim; and Kiryat-Arba (that is, Hevron) in the hills of Y’hudah.<sup>8</sup> Beyond the Yarden east of Yericho they selected Betzer in the desert, on the plateau, out of the tribe of Re’uven; Ramot in Gil‘ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of M’nasheh.

<sup>9</sup> These were the cities selected for all the people of Isra'el and for the foreigner living among them, so that anyone who kills any person by mistake could flee there and not die at the hand of the next-of-kin avenger prior to standing trial before the community.

21 <sup>1</sup> Then the leaders of the ancestral clans of the L'vi'im approached El'azar the cohen, Y'hoshua the son of Nun and the leaders of the ancestral clans of the tribes of the people of Isra'el. <sup>2</sup> It was at Shiloh in the land of Kena'an that they spoke to them; they said, "ADONAI ordered through Moshe that we be given cities to live in, with the surrounding open land for our livestock." <sup>3</sup> So out of their inheritance the people of Isra'el gave the L'vi'im the following cities with the surrounding open land:

<sup>4</sup> The lot came out for the families of the K'hati. The descendants of Aharon the cohen, who were of the L'vi'im, received by lot thirteen cities from the tribes of Y'hudah, Shim'on and Binyamin. <sup>5</sup> The rest of the descendants of K'hat received by lot ten cities from the families of the tribes of Efrayim and Dan and the half-tribe of M'nasheh. <sup>6</sup> The descendants of Gershon received by lot thirteen cities from the families of the tribes of Yissakhar, Asher, Naftali and the half-tribe of M'nasheh in Bashan. <sup>7</sup> The descendants of M'rari according to their families received twelve cities from the tribes of Re'uven, Gad and Z'vulun. <sup>8</sup> The people of Isra'el gave by lot to the L'vi'im these cities with the surrounding open land, as ADONAI had ordered through Moshe.

<sup>9</sup> They gave from the tribe of the descendants of Y'hudah and from the tribe of the descendants of Shim'on these cities here mentioned by name; <sup>10</sup> they were for the descendants of Aharon, of the families of the K'hati, who were among the descendants of Levi; because theirs was the first lot. <sup>11</sup> They gave them: Kiryat-Arba — this Arba was the father of 'Anak — (that is, Hevron), in the hills of Y'hudah, with the surrounding open land; <sup>12</sup> but the fields and villages of the city they gave to Kalev the son of Y'funeh as his possession. <sup>13</sup> Thus to the descendants of Aharon the cohen they gave: Hevron with its surrounding open land, already a city of refuge for the killer; Livnah with its surrounding open land; <sup>14</sup> Yatir with its surrounding open land; Esht'moa with its surrounding open land; <sup>15</sup> Holon with its surrounding open land; D'vir with its surrounding open land; <sup>16</sup> 'Ayin with its surrounding open land, Yutah with its surrounding open land and Beit-

Shemesh with its surrounding open land — nine cities out of these two tribes. <sup>17</sup> Out of the tribe of Binyamin: Giv'on with its surrounding open land, Geva with its surrounding open land, <sup>18</sup> 'Anatot with its surrounding open land and 'Almon with its surrounding open land — four cities. <sup>19</sup> All the cities of the descendants of Aharon, the cohanim, numbered thirteen cities with their surrounding open land.

<sup>20</sup> The families of the descendants of K'hat, who were L'vi'im, that is, the rest of the descendants of K'hat, received the cities of their lot. Out of the tribe of Efrayim <sup>21</sup> they gave them: Sh'khem with its surrounding open land, in the hills of Efrayim, the city of refuge for the killer; Gezer with its surrounding open land; <sup>22</sup> Kivtzayim with its surrounding open land and Beit-Horon with its surrounding open land — four cities. <sup>23</sup> Out of the tribe of Dan: Elt'ke with its surrounding open land, Gib'ton with its surrounding open land, <sup>24</sup> Ayalon with its surrounding open land and Gat-Rimmon with its surrounding open land — four cities. <sup>25</sup> Out of the half-tribe of M'nasheh: Ta'nakh with its surrounding open land and Gat-Rimmon with its surrounding open land — two cities. <sup>26</sup> All the cities of the families of the rest of the descendants of K'hat numbered ten with their surrounding open land.

<sup>27</sup> To the descendants of Gershon, of the families of the L'vi'im, out of the half-tribe of M'nasheh they gave: Golan in Bashan with its surrounding open land, the city of refuge for the killer; and B'esht'rah with its surrounding open land — two cities. <sup>28</sup> Out of the tribe of Yissakhar: Kishyon with its surrounding open land, Dovrat with its surrounding open land, <sup>29</sup> Yarmut with its surrounding open land and 'Ein-Ganim with its surrounding open land — four cities. <sup>30</sup> Out of the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its surrounding open land, 'Avdon with its surrounding open land, <sup>31</sup> Helkat with its surrounding open land and Rechov with its surrounding open land — four cities. <sup>32</sup> Out of the tribe of Naftali: Kedesh in the Galil with its surrounding open land, the city of refuge for the killer; Hammot-Dor with its surrounding open land; and Kartan with its surrounding open land — three cities. <sup>33</sup> All the cities of the Gershuni according to their families were thirteen cities with their surrounding open land.

<sup>34</sup> To the families of the descendants of M'rari, the rest of the L'vi'im, out of the tribe of Z'vulun: Yokne'am with its surrounding open land, Kartah with its surrounding open land, <sup>35</sup> Dimnah with its surrounding open land and Nahalal with its surrounding open land — four cities. {<sup>(36)</sup> Out of the tribe of Re'uven: Betzer with its surrounding open land, Yachtzah with its surrounding open land, <sup>37</sup> K'demot with its surrounding open land and Mefa'at with its surrounding open land — four cities.} <sup>36(38)</sup> Out of the tribe of Gad: Ramot in Gil'ad with its surrounding open land, the city of refuge for the killer; Machanayim with its surrounding open land; <sup>37(39)</sup> Heshbon with its surrounding open land and Ya'zer with its surrounding open land — four cities in all. <sup>38(40)</sup> All these were the cities of the descendants of M'rari according to their families, the rest of the families of the L'vi'im; their lot totaled twelve cities.

<sup>39(41)</sup> All the cities of the L'vi'im, forty-eight cities with their surrounding open land, are to be in among the lands possessed by the people of Isra'el — <sup>40(42)</sup> these cities, each with its surrounding open land; thus is it to be with all these cities.

<sup>41(43)</sup> So ADONAI gave Isra'el all the land which he swore to give to their ancestors, and they took possession of it and lived in it. <sup>42(44)</sup> Then ADONAI gave them rest all around, according to everything he had sworn to their ancestors. Not a man from all their enemies stood against them; ADONAI handed all their enemies over to them. <sup>43(45)</sup> Not one good thing that ADONAI had spoken of to the household of Isra'el failed to happen; it all took place.

22 <sup>1</sup> Then Y'hoshua called the Re'uveni, the Gadi and the half-tribe of M'nasheh, <sup>2</sup> and said to them, “You have done everything Moshe the servant of ADONAI ordered you to do and heeded what I said in all the orders I gave you. <sup>3</sup> All this time you have not abandoned your kinsmen but have obeyed your commission, as ADONAI your God ordered. <sup>4</sup> Now ADONAI your God has given rest to your kinsmen, as he told them he would. So you too, return to your tents in the land which is your possession, which Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave you beyond the Yarden. <sup>5</sup> Only take great care to obey the mitzvah and the Torah which Moshe the servant of ADONAI gave you—to love ADONAI your God, follow all his ways, observe his mitzvot, cling to him, and serve him with all your heart and being.” <sup>6</sup> Then Y'hoshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents. <sup>7</sup> (To the one half-tribe of M'nasheh, Moshe had given an inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half, Y'hoshua gave one among their kinsmen on the west side of the Yarden.) When Y'hoshua sent them away to their tents he blessed them, <sup>8</sup> saying, “Return with great riches to your tents — with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron and with great quantities of clothing; share the spoil of your enemies with your kinsmen.”

<sup>9</sup> So the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh returned; they left the people of Isra’el in Shiloh, in the land of Kena’an, to go to the land of Gil’ad, to the land they were to possess and which they already did possess—according to the order of ADONAI through Moshe. <sup>10</sup> When the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe arrived in the area of the land of Kena’an near the Yarden, they built an altar there by the Yarden, a large, impressive altar. <sup>11</sup> The people of Isra’el heard of it and said, “Look! The descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh have built an altar by the frontier of the land of Kena’an, in the area by the Yarden, on the side that belongs to the people of Isra’el.”

<sup>12</sup> When the people of Isra’el heard of it, the entire community of Isra’el gathered together in Shiloh to wage war against them. <sup>13</sup> The people of Isra’el sent Pinchas the son of El’azar the cohen into the land of Gil’ad to the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh. <sup>14</sup> With him were ten leaders, one leader of an ancestral clan for each of the tribes of Isra’el; each one was a head of his ancestral clan among the thousands of Isra’el. <sup>15</sup> They came to the descendants of Re’uven, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M’nasheh in the land of Gil’ad and spoke with them; they said, <sup>16</sup> “Here is what the whole community of ADONAI is saying: ‘What is this treachery that you have committed against the God of Isra’el, turning away today from following ADONAI, in that you have built yourselves an altar, thus rebelling today against ADONAI? <sup>17</sup> Is the guilt we incurred at P’or not enough for us? We haven’t cleansed ourselves from it to this day, even though a plague came on the community of ADONAI. <sup>18</sup> Is this why you have to turn away today from following ADONAI? If you rebel against ADONAI today, he will be angry tomorrow with the whole community of Isra’el. <sup>19</sup> If the land you have taken possession of is unclean, then cross back over into the land which belongs to ADONAI, where the tabernacle of ADONAI is located, and take a possession among us. But don’t rebel against ADONAI, and don’t rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of ADONAI our God. <sup>20</sup> Didn’t Achan the son of Zerach commit a sin in regard to things set aside for destruction, and God’s anger fell on the whole community of Isra’el? He was not the only one who died for his crime.’”

<sup>21</sup> Then the descendants of Re'ufen, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of M'nasheh answered the leaders of the thousands of Isra'el: <sup>22</sup> "The Mighty One, God, is ADONAI! He knows, and Isra'el will know — if we acted in rebellion or treachery against ADONAI, don't vindicate us today! <sup>23</sup> We haven't built an altar in order to turn away from following ADONAI or to offer on it burnt offerings, grain offerings or sacrifices as peace offerings. If we have, let ADONAI himself require us to atone for it. <sup>24</sup> Rather, we did this out of anxiety, because we thought, 'Sometime in the future, your descendants might say to our descendants, "You don't have anything to do with ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, <sup>25</sup> because ADONAI made the Yarden the border between us and you, so you descendants of Re'ufen and Gad have no share in ADONAI."'" In this way your descendants could make our descendants stop fearing ADONAI. <sup>26</sup> So we said, 'Let us now make preparations and build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, <sup>27</sup> but as a witness between us and you, and between our generations who will come after us, so that we may perform the service for ADONAI in his presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and peace offerings — so that your descendants will not say to our descendants at some future time, "You have no share in ADONAI."'" <sup>28</sup> For this reason we said, 'When they accuse us or future generations in this way, we will say, "Look! Here is a replica of the altar of ADONAI which our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you."'" <sup>29</sup> Far be it from us that we should rebel against ADONAI and turn away today from following ADONAI by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings or sacrifices other than the altar of ADONAI our God which stands in front of his tabernacle!"

<sup>30</sup> When Pinchas the cohen and the leaders of the community, the heads of the thousands of Isra'el who were with him, heard what the descendants of Re'ufen, the descendants of Gad and the descendants of M'nasheh said, it satisfied them. <sup>31</sup> Pinchas the son of El'azar the cohen said to the descendants of Re'ufen, the descendants of Gad and the descendants of M'nasheh, "Today we know that ADONAI is here with us, because you have not committed this treasonous act against ADONAI. Now you have saved the people of Isra'el from the anger of ADONAI." <sup>32</sup> So Pinchas the son of El'azar the cohen and the leaders returned from the descendants of Re'ufen and Gad, from the land of Gil'ad to the land of Kena'an and the people of Isra'el, bringing word back to them. <sup>33</sup> What they said satisfied the people of Isra'el. The people of Isra'el blessed God and said no more about going to wage war against the descendants of Re'uben and Gad and destroying the land where they lived. <sup>34</sup> The descendants of Re'uben and Gad called the altar “Ed [a witness]” between us that ADONAI is God.

23 <sup>1</sup> A long time afterwards, when ADONAI had given Isra'el rest from all their surrounding enemies, and Y'hoshua was old, with age taking its toll, <sup>2</sup> Y'hoshua summoned all Isra'el — their leaders, heads, judges and officials — and said to them, “I am old; age is taking its toll. <sup>3</sup> You have seen everything that ADONAI your God has done to all these nations because of you, for it is ADONAI your God who has fought on your behalf. <sup>4</sup> Here, I have allotted to you land for inheritance according to your tribes between the Yarden and the Great Sea to the west; it includes the land of the nations I have destroyed and the nations which remain. <sup>5</sup> ADONAI your God will thrust them out ahead of you and drive them out of your sight, so that you will possess their land, as ADONAI your God told you.

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore be very firm about keeping and doing everything written in the book of the Torah of Moshe and not turning aside from it either to the right or to the left. <sup>7</sup> Then you won't become like those nations remaining among you. Don't even mention the name of their gods, let alone have people swear by them, serve them or worship them; <sup>8</sup> but cling to ADONAI your God, as you have done to this day. <sup>9</sup> This is why ADONAI has driven out great, strong nations ahead of you; and it explains why no one has prevailed against you to this day, <sup>10</sup> why one man of you has chased a thousand — it is because ADONAI your God has fought on your behalf, as he said to you.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore take great care to love ADONAI your God. <sup>12</sup> Otherwise, if you retreat and cling to the remnant of these other nations remaining among you, if you make marriages with them and have children with them and they with you, <sup>13</sup> know for certain that ADONAI your God will stop driving out these nations from your sight. Instead, they will become a snare and a trap for you, whipping your sides and pricking your eyes, until you perish from this good land which ADONAI your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup> “Today I am going the way of all the earth. Therefore consider in all your heart and being that not one of all the good things ADONAI your God said concerning you has failed to happen; it has all come to pass; nothing of it has failed. <sup>15</sup> Nevertheless, just as all the good things ADONAI your God promised you have come upon you, likewise ADONAI will bring upon you all the bad things too, until he has destroyed you from this good land which ADONAI your God has given you. <sup>16</sup> When you violate the covenant of ADONAI your God, which he ordered you to obey, and go and serve other gods and worship them, then the anger of ADONAI will blaze up against you; and you will perish quickly from the good land which he has given you!”

24 <sup>1</sup> Y’hoshua gathered all the tribes of Isra’el to Sh’khem; he summoned the leaders, heads, judges and officials of Isra’el; and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup> Y’hoshua said to all the people, “This is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘In antiquity your ancestors lived on the other side of the [Euphrates] River—Terach the father of Avraham and Nachor — and they served other gods. <sup>3</sup> I took your ancestor Avraham from beyond the River, led him through all the land of Kena’an, increased his descendants and gave him Yitz’chak. <sup>4</sup> I gave to Yitz’chak Ya’akov and ‘Esav. To ‘Esav I gave Mount Se’ir as his possession, but Ya’akov and his children went down into Egypt. <sup>5</sup> I sent Moshe and Aharon, I inflicted plagues on Egypt in accordance with what I did among them, and afterwards I brought you out. <sup>6</sup> Yes, I brought your fathers out of Egypt: you arrived at the sea, and the Egyptians were pursuing your ancestors with chariots and horsemen to the Sea of Suf. <sup>7</sup> But when they cried out to ADONAI, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, overwhelmed them with the sea and drowned them. Your eyes saw what I did in Egypt, and then you lived in the desert for a long time. <sup>8</sup> I brought you into the land of the Emori living beyond the Yarden; they fought against you, but I handed them over to you. You took possession of their land, and I destroyed them ahead of you. <sup>9</sup> Then Balak the son of Tzippor, king of Mo’av, rose up and fought against Isra’el. He sent and summoned Bil’am the son of B’or to put a curse on you. <sup>10</sup> But I refused to listen to Bil’am, and he actually blessed you. In this way I rescued you from him. <sup>11</sup> Next you crossed the Yarden and came to Yericho. The men of Yericho fought against you—the Emori, P’rizi, Kena’ani, Hitti, Girgashi, Hivi and Y’vusi — and I handed them over to you. <sup>12</sup> I sent the hornet ahead of you, driving them out from ahead of you, the two kings of the Emori — it wasn’t by your sword or your bow. <sup>13</sup> Then I gave you a land where you had not worked and cities you had not built, and you live there. You eat fruit from vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.’

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore fear ADONAI, and serve him truly and sincerely. Put away the gods your ancestors served beyond the [Euphrates]River and in Egypt, and serve ADONAI! <sup>15</sup> If it seems bad to you to serve ADONAI, then choose today whom you are going to serve! Will it be the gods your ancestors served beyond the River? or the gods of the Emori, in whose land you are living? As for me and my household, we will serve ADONAI!”

<sup>16</sup> The people answered, “Far be it from us that we would abandon ADONAI to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup> because it is ADONAI our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from a life of slavery, and did those great signs before our eyes, and preserved us all along the way we traveled and among all the peoples we passed through; <sup>18</sup> and it was ADONAI who drove out from ahead of us all the peoples, the Emori living in the land. Therefore we too will serve ADONAI, for he is our God.”

<sup>19</sup> Y’hoshua said to the people, “You can’t serve ADONAI ; because he is a holy God, a jealous God, and he will not forgive your crimes and sins. <sup>20</sup> If you abandon ADONAI and serve foreign gods, he will turn, doing you harm and destroying you after he has done you good.”

<sup>21</sup> But the people said to Y’hoshua, “No, but we will serve ADONAI.”

<sup>22</sup> Y’hoshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen ADONAI, to serve him.”

They answered, “We are witnesses.”

<sup>23</sup> “Now,” Y’hoshua urged, “put away the foreign gods you have among you, and turn your hearts to ADONAI, the God of Isra’el.”

<sup>24</sup> The people answered Y’hoshua, “We will serve ADONAI our God; we will pay attention to what he says.”

<sup>25</sup> So Y’hoshua made a covenant with the people that day, laying down for them laws and rulings there in Sh’khem. <sup>26</sup> Y’hoshua wrote these words in the book of the Torah of God. Then he took a big stone and set it up there under the oak next to the sanctuary of ADONAI. <sup>27</sup> Y’hoshua said to all the people, “See, this stone will be a witness against us; because it has heard all the words of ADONAI which he said to us; therefore it will be a witness against you, in case you deny your God.” <sup>28</sup> Then Y’hoshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.

<sup>29</sup> After this, Y’hoshua the son of Nun, the servant of ADONAI, died; he was 110 years old. <sup>30</sup> They buried him on his property in Timnat-Serach, which is in the hills of Efrayim, north of Mount Ga’ash.

<sup>31</sup> Isra'el served ADONAI throughout Y'hoshua's lifetime and throughout the lifetimes of the leaders who outlived Y'hoshua and had known all the deeds that ADONAI had done on behalf of Isra'el.

<sup>32</sup> The bones of Yosef, which the people of Isra'el had brought up from Egypt, they buried in Sh'khem, in the parcel of ground which Ya'akov had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Sh'khem for a hundred pieces of silver; and they became a possession of the descendants of Yosef.

<sup>33</sup> Finally, El'azar the son of Aharon died; and they buried him on the hill belonging to Pinchas his son, which had been given to him in the hills of Efrayim.

Shof'tim

JUDGES

1 <sup>1</sup> After the death of Y'hoshua, the people of Isra'el asked ADONAI, "Who will go up for us first to fight against the Kena'ani?" <sup>2</sup>ADONAI said: "Y'hudah will go up; here, I have handed the land over to him." <sup>3</sup> Y'hudah said to his brother Shim'on, "Come up with me into my assigned territory, so that we can fight against the Kena'ani; and I likewise will go with you into your territory." So Shim'on went with him. <sup>4</sup> Y'hudah went up; and ADONAI gave the Kena'ani and the P'rizi into their hands; of those in Bezek they killed ten thousand men. <sup>5</sup> They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him. They killed the Kena'ani and the P'rizi, <sup>6</sup> but Adoni-Bezek fled. They pursued him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes. <sup>7</sup> Adoni-Bezek said: "Seventy kings, with their thumbs and their big toes cut off, gathered food under my table; God has paid me back in accordance with what I did." They brought him to Yerushalayim, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup> Then the people of Y'hudah fought against Yerushalayim, captured it, overpowered it with the sword, and set the city on fire. <sup>9</sup> Afterwards, the people of Y'hudah went down to fight against the Kena'ani who lived in the hill-country, in the Negev, and in the Sh'felah. <sup>10</sup> Y'hudah also attacked the Kena'ani living in Hevron (formerly called Kiryat-Arba), and they overpowered Sheshai, Achiman and Talmi.

<sup>11</sup> From there they attacked the inhabitants of D'vir (D'vir was formerly called Kiryat-Sefer). <sup>12</sup> Kalev said: "To whoever overpowers Kiryat-Sefer and captures it I will give my daughter 'Akhsah as his wife." <sup>13</sup> 'Otni'el the son of K'naz, Kalev's younger brother, captured it; so he gave him 'Akhsah his daughter as his wife. <sup>14</sup> After becoming his wife, she persuaded him to ask her father to give them a field; when she got off her donkey, Kalev asked her, "What do you want?" <sup>15</sup> She said to him: "Give me a blessing: since you gave me land in the Negev, also give me sources of water." So Kalev gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

<sup>16</sup>Next, the descendants of the Keini, Moshe's father-in-law, went up out of the City of Date-Palms with the people of Y'hudah into the Y'hudah Desert south of 'Arad; and they came and settled with the people.

<sup>17</sup> Y'hudah went with Shim'on his brother; they overpowered the Kena'ani who inhabited Tz'fat, and completely destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup> Y'hudah also took 'Azah with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory and 'Ekron with its territory. <sup>19</sup> ADONAI was with Y'hudah, and they took possession of the hill-country, because they could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, since they had iron chariots.

<sup>20</sup> They gave Hevron to Kalev, as Moshe had said to do; and he drove out from there the three sons of 'Anak.

<sup>21</sup> The people of Binyamin did not drive out the Y'vusi who inhabited Yerusha-layim; rather, the Y'vusi continued living with the people of Binyamin in Yerusha-layim, as they do to this day.

<sup>22</sup> The house of Yosef likewise attacked Beit-El; and ADONAI was with them. <sup>23</sup> The house of Yosef sent spies to Beit-El (the city was formerly called Luz). <sup>24</sup> The spies saw a man coming out of the city and said to him: "Please show us the way to enter the city, and we will treat you kindly." <sup>25</sup> So he showed them the way into the city, and they overpowered the city with the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free. <sup>26</sup> He went into the land of the Hittim, built a city and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.

<sup>27</sup> M'nasheh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beit-Sh'an and its villages, Ta'anakh and its villages, Dor and its villages, Yivle'am and its villages or Megiddo and its villages; so that the Kena'ani managed to keep on living in that land. <sup>28</sup> In time, when Isra'el had grown strong, they did put the Kena'ani to forced labor but failed to drive them out completely.

<sup>29</sup> Efrayim did not drive out the Kena'ani living in Gezer; so the Kena'ani continued living in Gezer along with them.

<sup>30</sup> Z'vulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or Nahalol; so the Kena'ani continued to live among them but became subject to forced labor.

<sup>31</sup> Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of 'Akko, Tzidon, Achlav, Akhziv, Helbah, Afik or Rechov; <sup>32</sup> so the Asheri lived among the Kena'ani who were living in the land, because they didn't drive them out.

<sup>33</sup> Naftali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beit-Shemesh or Beit-'Anat but lived among the Kena'ani living in the land; however, the inhabitants of Beit-Shemesh and Beit-'Anat became forced labor for them.

<sup>34</sup> The Emori forced the people of Dan into the hills; for they would not let them come down to the valley. <sup>35</sup> The Emori had resolved to live in the Heres Hills, in Ayalon and in Sha'alvim; but when the power of the house of Yosef grew greater, they became subject to forced labor. <sup>36</sup> So the territory of the Emori was from the Scorpion Ascent and the Rock upward.

2 <sup>1</sup> Now the angel of ADONAI came up from Gilgal to Bokhim and said, “I brought you up out of Egypt, led you to the land I swore to your fathers and said, ‘I will never break my covenant with you; <sup>2</sup> you, for your part, are not to make any covenant with the inhabitants of this land but must tear down their altars.’ However, you have paid no attention to what I said. What is this you have done? <sup>3</sup> This is why I also said, ‘I will not drive them out before you; but they will be on your flanks, and their gods will become a snare for you.’” <sup>4</sup> When the angel of ADONAI spoke these words to all the people of Isra’el, they began crying and wailing at the top of their voices. <sup>5</sup> So they called the name of that place Bokhim [crying] and sacrificed there to ADONAI.

<sup>6</sup> When Y’hoshua had sent the people away, the people of Isra’el had gone each one to his assigned property in order to take possession of the land. <sup>7</sup> The people served ADONAI throughout Y’hoshua’s life and throughout the lives of all the older men who outlived Y’hoshua and who had seen all the great work of ADONAI which he had done for Isra’el. <sup>8</sup> When Y’hoshua the son of Nun, the servant of ADONAI, died, he was 110 years old; <sup>9</sup> and they buried him near the boundary of his property in Timnat-Heres, in the hills of Efrayim, north of Mount Ga’ash.

<sup>10</sup> When that entire generation had been gathered to their ancestors, another generation arose that knew neither ADONAI nor the work he had done for Isra’el. <sup>11</sup> Then the people of Isra’el did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective and served the ba’alim. <sup>12</sup> They abandoned ADONAI, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, selected from the gods of the peoples around them, and worshipped them; this made ADONAI angry. <sup>13</sup> They abandoned ADONAI and served Ba’al and the ‘ashtarot. <sup>14</sup> The anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra’el; and he handed them over to pillagers, who plundered them, and to their enemies around them; so that they could no longer resist their enemies. <sup>15</sup> Whenever they launched an attack, the power of ADONAI was against them, so that things turned out badly — just as ADONAI had said would happen and had sworn to them. They were in dire distress.

<sup>16</sup> But then ADONAI raised up judges, who rescued them from the power of those who were plundering them. <sup>17</sup> Yet they did not pay attention to their judges, but made whores of themselves to other gods and worshipped them; they quickly turned away from the path on which their ancestors had walked, the way of obeying ADONAI's mitzvot — they failed to do this. <sup>18</sup> When ADONAI raised up judges for them, ADONAI was with the judge and delivered them from the hands of their enemies throughout the lifetime of the judge; for ADONAI was moved to pity by their groaning under those oppressing and crushing them. <sup>19</sup> But after the judge died, they would relapse into worse behavior than that of their ancestors, following other gods to serve and worship them; they abandoned none of their practices or stubborn ways. <sup>20</sup> So the anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra'el; he said, "Because this nation violates my covenant, which I ordered their fathers to obey; and they don't pay attention to what I say; <sup>21</sup>in the future, I will not expel ahead of them any of the nations that Y'hoshua left when he died. <sup>22</sup> This is how I will test Isra'el, to see whether or not they will keep the way of ADONAI, living according to it, as their ancestors did." <sup>23</sup> So ADONAI allowed those nations to remain where they were, without quickly driving them out; he did not hand them over to Y'hoshua.

3 <sup>1</sup> These are the nations which ADONAI allowed to remain, in order to put to the test all the people of Isra'el who had not known any of the wars with Kena'an. <sup>2</sup> This was only so that the generations of Isra'el who had previously known nothing of war might learn about it. <sup>3</sup> These nations consisted of the five chiefs of the P'lishtim, all the Kena'ani, the Tzidoni, and the Hivi who lived in the hills of the L'vanon between Mount Ba'al-Hermon and the entrance to Hamat. <sup>4</sup> They stayed there to test whether Isra'el would pay attention to the mitzvot of ADONAI, which, through Moshe, he had ordered their ancestors to obey. <sup>5</sup> So the people of Isra'el lived among the Kena'ani, Hitti, Emori, P'rizi, Hivi and Y'vusi; <sup>6</sup> taking their daughters as their wives, giving their own daughters to their sons and serving their gods.

<sup>7</sup> Thus the people of Isra'el did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, forgot ADONAI their God, and served the ba'alim and asherim. <sup>8</sup> Therefore the anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra'el, and he gave them over into the hands of Kushan-Rish'atayim king of Aram-Naharayim; and the people of Isra'el served Kushan-Rish‘atayim eight years. <sup>9</sup> But when the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI, ADONAI raised up a savior for the people of Isra’el; and he rescued them; this was ‘Otni’el, the son of Kalev’s younger brother K’naz. <sup>10</sup> The Spirit of ADONAI came upon him, and he judged Isra’el. Then he went out to war, and ADONAI gave Kushan-Rish‘atayim king of Aram into his hands; his power prevailed against Kushan-Rish‘atayim. <sup>11</sup> So the land had rest for forty years, until ‘Otni’el the son of K’naz died.

<sup>12</sup> But the people of Isra’el again did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so ADONAI strengthened ‘Eglon the king of Mo’av against Isra’el, because they had done what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective. <sup>13</sup> In confederation with the people of ‘Amon and ‘Amalek, ‘Eglon went out and defeated Isra’el, capturing the City of Date-Palms; <sup>14</sup> and the people of Isra’el served ‘Eglon the king of Mo’av eighteen years.

<sup>15</sup> But when the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI, ADONAI raised up for them a savior, Ehud the son of Gera, from the tribe of Binyamin, a left-handed man. The people of Isra’el appointed him to take their tribute to ‘Eglon the king of Mo’av. <sup>16</sup> Ehud made himself a double-edged sword eighteen inches long and strapped it to his right thigh under his clothes. <sup>17</sup> Then he presented the tribute to ‘Eglon king of Mo’av. Now ‘Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>18</sup> When he had finished presenting the tribute, he dismissed the people who had brought it. <sup>19</sup> But he himself, after reaching the quarries at Gilgal, went back and said, “King, I have a secret message for you.” The king commanded silence, and all his attendants withdrew. <sup>20</sup> Ehud came to him; he was sitting alone by himself in his upstairs room, where it was cool. Ehud said: “I have a message from God for you.” As the king arose from his seat, <sup>21</sup> Ehud reached out with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into the king’s belly. <sup>22</sup> The hilt too went in after the blade, and the fat closed around the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly, so that it came out behind. <sup>23</sup> Then Ehud went out onto the porch, shut the doors of the upstairs room behind him and locked them. <sup>24</sup> After Ehud had left, the king’s servants came. Seeing that the doors of the upper room were locked, they said, “He must be relieving himself in the inner part of the cool room.” <sup>25</sup> They waited until they became embarrassed, but he still didn’t open the doors of the upstairs room. So they took the key and opened them; and there before them lay their master, dead on the ground.

<sup>26</sup> But while they were delaying, Ehud escaped — he passed beyond the quarries and arrived safely in Se‘irah. <sup>27</sup> Upon arrival in the hills of Efrayim, he began sounding the call on the shofar; and the people of Isra’el went down with him from the hill-country; he himself took the lead. <sup>28</sup> He said to them: “Follow me, because ADONAI has given your enemy Mo’av into your hands. They went down after him, seized the fords of the Yarden opposite Mo’av and permitted no one to cross. <sup>29</sup> On that occasion they defeated Mo’av, some ten thousand men, all tough, experienced soldiers; not one of them escaped. <sup>30</sup> Thus was Mo’av subdued that day under the power of Isra’el. Then the land had rest for eighty years.

<sup>31</sup> After Ehud came Shamgar the son of ‘Anat, who killed 600 P’lishtim with an oxgoad; and he too rescued Isra’el.

4 <sup>1</sup> But after Ehud had died, the people of Isra’el again did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective. <sup>2</sup> So ADONAI handed them over to Yavin king of Kena’an. He ruled from Hatzor; and the commander of his army was Sisra, who lived in Haroshet-HaGoyim. <sup>3</sup> The people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI, because he had 900 iron chariots, and for twenty years he cruelly oppressed the people of Isra’el.

<sup>4</sup> Now D’vorah, a woman and a prophet, the wife of Lapidot, was judging Isra’el at that time. <sup>5</sup> She used to sit under D’vorah’s Palm between Ramah and Beit-El, in the hills of Efrayim; and the people of Isra’el would come to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup> She sent for Barak the son of Avino’am, from Kedesh in Naftali, and said to him: “ADONAI has given you this order: ‘Go, march to Mount Tavor, and take with you 10,000 men from the people of Naftali and Z’vulun. <sup>7</sup> I will cause Sisra, the commander of Yavin’s army, to encounter you at the Kishon River with his chariots and troops; and I will hand him over to you.’”

<sup>8</sup> Barak answered her: “If you go with me, I’ll go; but if you won’t go with me, I won’t go.” <sup>9</sup> She replied, “Yes, I will gladly go with you; but the way you are doing it will bring you no glory; because ADONAI will hand Sisra over to a woman.” Then D’vorah set out and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup> Barak summoned Z’vulun and Naftali to come to Kedesh. Ten thousand men followed him, and D’vorah went up with him.

<sup>11</sup> Now Hever the Keini had cut himself off from the rest of Kayin, the descendants of Hovav Moshe’s father-in-law; he had pitched his tent near the oak at Tza'ananim, which is close to Kedesh. <sup>12</sup> Sisra was informed that Barak the son of Avino'am had gone up to Mount Tavor. <sup>13</sup> So Sisra rallied his chariots, all 900 iron chariots, and all the troops he had with him, from Haroshet-HaGoyim to the Kishon River.

<sup>14</sup> D'vorah said to Barak: "Get going! This is the day when ADONAI will hand Sisra over to you! ADONAI has gone out ahead of you!" So Barak went down from Mount Tavor with 10,000 men following him; <sup>15</sup> and ADONAI threw Sisra, all his chariots and his entire army into a panic before Barak's sword; so that Sisra got down from his chariot and fled on foot. <sup>16</sup> But Barak pursued the chariots and the army all the way to Haroshet-HaGoyim. Sisra's entire army was put to the sword; not one man was left.

<sup>17</sup> However, Sisra ran on foot to the tent of Ya'el the wife of Hever the Keini, because there was peace between Yavin the king of Hatzor and the family of Hever the Keini. <sup>18</sup> Ya'el went out to meet Sisra and said to him, "Come in, my lord; stay here with me; and don't be afraid." So he went into her tent, and she covered him with a blanket. <sup>19</sup> He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink — I'm thirsty." She opened a goatskin of milk, gave him some to drink, and covered him up again. <sup>20</sup> He said to her, "Stand at the entrance to the tent; and if anyone asks you if somebody is here, say, 'No.'"<sup>21</sup> But when he was deeply asleep, Ya'el the wife of Hever took a tent peg and a hammer in her hand, crept in to him quietly and drove the tent peg into his temple, right through to the ground; so that he died without waking up. <sup>22</sup> So here is Barak pursuing Sisra, and Ya'el steps out to meet him and says, "Come, I will show you the man you are looking for." He goes into her tent; and there is Sisra, lying dead with the tent peg through his temple.

<sup>23</sup> Thus God on that day defeated Yavin the king of Kena'an in the presence of the people of Isra'el. <sup>24</sup> The hand of the people of Isra'el came down more and more heavily against Yavin the king of Kena'an, until they had completely destroyed Yavin the king of Kena'an.

5 <sup>1</sup> On that day D'vorah and Barak the son of Avino'am sang this song:

<sup>2</sup> "When leaders in Isra'el dedicate themselves, and the people volunteer,

you should all bless ADONAI.

<sup>3</sup> Hear, kings; listen, princes;

I will sing to ADONAI!

I will sing praise to ADONAI

the God of Isra'el

<sup>4</sup> “ADONAI, when you went out from Se'ir,

when you marched out from the field of Edom,

the earth quaked, and the sky shook;

yes, the clouds poured down torrents.

<sup>5</sup> The mountains melted at the presence of ADONAI, at Sinai, before ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

<sup>6</sup> “In the days of Shamgar the son of 'Anat,

in the days of Ya'el, the main roads were deserted;

travelers walked the byways.

<sup>7</sup> The rulers ceased in Isra'el, they ceased,

until you arose, D'vorah, arose a mother in Isra'el.

<sup>8</sup> “They chose new gods when war was at the gates.

Was there a shield or spear to be seen among Isra'el's forty thousand men?

<sup>9</sup> My heart goes out to Isra'el's leaders and to those among the people who volunteer.
All of you, bless ADONAI.

<sup>10</sup> “You who ride white donkeys, sitting on soft saddle-blankets,
and you walking on the road,
talk about it!

<sup>11</sup> Louder than the sound of archers at the watering-holes will they sound as they retell
the righteous acts of ADONAI,
the righteous acts of his rulers in Isra'el.

“Then ADONAI's people marched down to the gates.

<sup>12</sup> “Awake, awake, D'vorah!
Awake, awake, break into song!
Arise, Barak! Lead away your captives, son of Avino'am!

<sup>13</sup> “Then a remnant of the nobles marched down;
the people of ADONAI marched down to me like warriors.

<sup>14</sup> From Efrayim came those rooted in 'Amalek.

Behind you, Binyamin is with your peoples.

From Makhir the commanders marched down,
and from Z'vulun those holding the musterer's staff.

<sup>15</sup> The princes of Yissakhar were with D'vorah, Yissakhar, along with Barak;

into the valley they rushed forth behind him.

Among the divisions of Re'uven they made great resolutions in their hearts.

<sup>16</sup> But why did you stay at the pens for the sheep, and listen to the shepherd's flute playing for the flocks?

Concerning the divisions of Re'uven
there were great searchings of heart.

<sup>17</sup> Gil'ad lives beyond the Yarden.

Dan — why does he stay by the ships?

Asher stayed by the shore of the sea,
remaining near its bays.

<sup>18</sup> The people of Z'vulun risked their lives,

Naftali too, on the open heights.

<sup>19</sup> “Kings came; they fought.

Yes, the kings of Kena‘an fought at Ta‘anakh, by the waters of Megiddo;
but they took no spoil of silver.

<sup>20</sup> They fought from heaven, the stars in their courses;
yes, they fought against Sisra.

<sup>21</sup> The Kishon River swept them away,
that ancient river, the Kishon River.
O my soul, march on with strength!

<sup>22</sup> Then the horses’ hoofs pounded the ground, their mighty steeds galloping at full speed.

<sup>23</sup> “‘Curse Meroz!’ said the angel of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, ‘Curse the people living there with a bitter punishment for not coming to help A<sub>DONAI</sub>, to help A<sub>DONAI</sub> against the mighty warriors.’

<sup>24</sup> “Ya‘el will be blessed more than all women.
The wife of Hever the Keini will be blessed more than any woman in the tent.

<sup>25</sup> He asked for water, and she gave him milk;

In an elegant bowl she brought him curds.

<sup>26</sup>

Then she took a tent peg in her left hand and a workman's hammer in her right;
with the hammer she struck Sisra, pierced his skull,
yes, she shattered and crushed his temple.

<sup>27</sup>

He sank down at her feet, he fell and lay there;
he sank at her feet, he fell —
where he sank down, there he fell dead.

<sup>28</sup>

“Sisra's mother looks out the window;
peering out through the lattice she wonders,
‘Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why are his horses so slow to return?’

<sup>29</sup>

The wisest of her ladies answer her,
and she repeats it to herself,

<sup>30</sup>

Of course! They're collecting and dividing the spoil — a girl, two girls for every warrior, for Sisra booty of dyed clothing,
a plunder of colorfully embroidered garments,
two embroidered scarves for every soldier's neck.'

“May all your enemies perish like this, ADONAI;

but may those who love him be like the sun

going forth in its glory!”

Then the land had rest for forty years.

6 <sup>1</sup> But the people of Isra’el did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, so ADONAI handed them over to Midyan for seven years. <sup>2</sup> Midyan exercised its power harshly against Isra’el, and because of Midyan the people of Isra’el hid themselves in mountains, in caves and in other safe places. <sup>3</sup> One time, after Isra’el’s sowing season, Midyan, with ‘Amalek and others from the east, attacked them. <sup>4</sup> They set up camp by them and destroyed the produce of the country all the way to ‘Azah; they left nothing for people to live on, no sheep, no oxen, no donkeys. <sup>5</sup> For they came up with their cattle and tents, and they came in as thick as locusts; both they and their camels were beyond numbering, and they came into the land to destroy it. <sup>6</sup> Isra’el became very discouraged because of Midyan, and the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI.

<sup>7</sup> When the people of Isra’el cried out to ADONAI because of Midyan, <sup>8</sup> ADONAI sent a prophet to the people of Isra’el, who said to them: “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says, ‘I brought you up from Egypt, out of a life of slavery. <sup>9</sup> I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all your oppressors. I drove them out ahead of you and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup> And I said to you: “I am ADONAI your God; you are not to be afraid of the gods of the Emori in whose land you are living.” But you paid no attention to what I said!’”

<sup>11</sup> Then the angel of ADONAI came and sat under the pistachio tree in ‘Ofrah that belonged to Yo’ash the Avi‘ezri. His son Gid‘on was threshing wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from Midyan. <sup>12</sup> The angel of ADONAI appeared to him and said to him: “You valiant hero! ADONAI is with you!” <sup>13</sup> “Excuse me, sir,” answered Gid‘on, “but if ADONAI is with us, then why is all this happening to us? And where are all his miracles our ancestors told us about when they said, ‘Didn’t ADONAI bring us up from Egypt?’ For now ADONAI has abandoned us and handed us over to Midyan.”

<sup>14</sup>ADONAI turned to him and said, "Go in this strength of yours and save Isra'el from the hands of Midyan. Haven't I sent you?" <sup>15</sup> But Gid'on answered him, "Forgive me, my Lord, but with what am I to save Isra'el? Why, my family is the poorest in M'nasheh, and I'm the youngest person in my father's house!" <sup>16</sup>ADONAI said to him, "Because I will be with you, you will strike down Midyan as easily as if they were just one man." <sup>17</sup> Gid'on replied, "If indeed you favor me, would you mind giving me a sign that it is really you talking with me?" <sup>18</sup> Please don't leave until I go and return with a gift and present it to you." He replied, "I'll wait till you come back."

<sup>19</sup> Gid'on went in, cooked a young goat and made matzot from a bushel of flour. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, brought them out to him under the pistachio tree and presented them. <sup>20</sup> The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and matzot, lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." Gid'on did so. <sup>21</sup> Then the angel of ADONAI reached out with the stick he was holding, touched the meat and matzot, and fire shot up out of the rock and burned up the meat and matzot. Then the angel of ADONAI disappeared before his eyes. <sup>22</sup> Gid'on realized that he was the angel of ADONAI and said, "Oh no! My Lord! ADONAI! Because I've seen the angel of ADONAI face-to-face!" <sup>23</sup> But ADONAI reassured him, "Shalom to you, don't be afraid, you won't die!" <sup>24</sup> Then Gid'on built an altar there to ADONAI and called it "ADONAI-Shalom"; to this day it remains in 'Ofrah of the Avi'ezri.

<sup>25</sup> That very night ADONAI said to him, "Take your father's bull and the other bull, the seven-year-old. Destroy the altar to Ba'al that belongs to your father, cut down the sacred pole next to it, <sup>26</sup> and build a proper altar to ADONAI your God on top of this strong-point. Then take the second bull; and offer it as a burnt offering, using the wood of the sacred pole you cut down." <sup>27</sup> Gid'on took ten of his servants and did what ADONAI had told him to do. He didn't do it by day, because he was afraid of the men in his father's household and those from the city, so he did it at night. <sup>28</sup> When the men of the city got up the next morning, there was the altar of Ba'al destroyed, the sacred pole cut down, and the second bull a burnt offering on the newly built altar. <sup>29</sup> They asked each other, "Who could have done this?" But after investigating, they concluded that Gid'on the son of Yo'ash had done it. <sup>30</sup> "Bring out your son," the men of the city demanded of Yo'ash, "so that he may die, because he destroyed the altar of Ba'al and cut down the sacred pole next to it!" <sup>31</sup> But Yo'ash said to all those crowding around him, "You're defending Ba'al, are you? It's your job to save him? Anyone who defends Ba'al will be put to death before morning! If he's a god, let him defend himself! After all, somebody destroyed his altar!" <sup>32</sup> Therefore on that day Gid'on was given the name Yeruba'al [let Ba'al defend], because they said, "Let Ba'al defend himself against him, since he destroyed his altar."

<sup>33</sup> Now all Midyan, 'Amalek and the others from the east joined forces, crossed the Yarden, and set up camp in the Yizre'el Valley. <sup>34</sup> But the Spirit of ADONAI covered Gid'on. He sounded the call on the shofar, and Avi'ezer rallied behind him. <sup>35</sup> He sent messengers throughout all M'nasheh, and they too rallied behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Z'vulun and Naftali; and they came up to join them.

<sup>36</sup> Gid'on said to God, "If you are going to save Isra'el through me, as you said you would, <sup>37</sup> then, here: I will lay a wool fleece on the threshing-floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, while all the ground stays dry, I will be convinced that you will save Isra'el through me, as you said you would."

<sup>38</sup> And it happened! He got up early in the morning, pressed the fleece together and wrung dew out of it, a bowlful of water. <sup>39</sup> But Gid'on said to God, "Don't be angry with me because I am asking one more thing, let me make one more test, please: this time let it be dry only on the fleece, with dew all over the ground." <sup>40</sup> And that is what God did that night — it was dry only on the fleece, even though there was dew all over the ground.

7 <sup>1</sup> Then Yeruba'al, that is, Gid'on, and all the people with him, got up early and set up camp by 'Ein-Harod; the camp of Midyan was north of them, by Giv'at-Moreh, in the valley. <sup>2</sup> ADONAI said to Gid'on, "There are too many people with you for me to hand Midyan over to them, because I don't want Isra'el to be able to boast against me, 'We saved ourselves by our own strength.' <sup>3</sup> Therefore, proclaim to the people 'Anyone who is anxious or afraid should go back home, while we stay here on Mount Gil'ad.'" Twenty-two thousand returned, but ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup> ADONAI said to Gid'on, "There are still too many people. Have them come down to the water, and there I will screen them for you. If I say of anyone, 'This one is for you,' he will go with you; and if I say, 'This one is not for you,' he won't go with you." <sup>5</sup> So he brought the people down to the water, and ADONAI said to Gid'on, "Put to one side everyone who laps up water with his tongue the way a dog does, and put to the other side everyone who gets down on his knees to drink.”<sup>6</sup> Three hundred lapped, putting their hand to their mouth; all the rest of the men got down on their knees to drink water.<sup>7</sup> ADONAI said to Gid'on, “I will use the three hundred men who lapped the water to save you; I will hand Midyan over to you. Let all these others go back home.”<sup>8</sup> So they took the provisions and the shofars of the people; then he sent all the men of Isra'el away, each to his tent. But the three hundred men he kept.

The camp of Midyan was in the valley below him.<sup>9</sup> That night ADONAI said to him, “Get up and attack the camp, because I have handed it over to you.”<sup>10</sup> But if you are afraid to attack, go down with your servant Purah;<sup>11</sup> and after you hear what they are saying, you will have the courage to attack the camp.” So with his servant Purah he went down to the outposts of the camp.<sup>12</sup> Now Midyan, 'Amalek and all the others from the east had settled in the valley as thick as locusts; their camels too were beyond counting, like the sand on the seashore.<sup>13</sup> Gid'on got there just as a man was telling a comrade about a dream he had had: “I just now dreamt that a loaf of barley bread fell into the camp of Midyan, came to the tent and struck it so hard that it overturned the tent and knocked it flat.”<sup>14</sup> His comrade answered, “This can only be the sword of Gid'on son of Yo'ash, a man of Isra'el. God has given Midyan and all its army into his hands.”

<sup>15</sup> When Gid'on heard the dream and its interpretation, he fell on his knees in worship. Then he returned to the camp of Isra'el and said, “Get up! because ADONAI has handed Midyan's army over to you.”<sup>16</sup> He divided the three hundred men into three companies. He put in the hands of all of them shofars and empty pitchers with torches in them.<sup>17</sup> Then he said to them, “Watch me, and do what I do. When I get to the edge of the camp, whatever I do, you do the same.”<sup>18</sup> When I and everyone with me blow the shofar, then you blow your shofars all around the whole camp, and shout, “For ADONAI and for Gid'on!”

<sup>19</sup> Gid'on and the hundred men with him arrived at the edge of the camp a little before midnight, just after they had changed the guard. They blew the shofars and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands.<sup>20</sup> All three companies blew the shofars, broke the pitchers and held the torches in their left hands, keeping their right hands free for the shofars they were blowing; and they shouted, “The sword for ADONAI and for Gid'on!”<sup>21</sup> Then, as every man stood still in place around the camp, the whole camp was thrown into panic, with everyone screaming and trying to escape.<sup>22</sup>

Gid'on's men blew their 300 shofars, and ADONAI caused everyone in the camp to attack his comrades; and the enemy fled beyond Beit-Sheetah near Tz'erah, as far as the border of Avel-M'cholah, by Tabat.

<sup>23</sup> Then men of Isra'el were summoned from Naftali, Asher, and both regions of M'nasheh; and they pursued Midyan. <sup>24</sup> Gid'on sent messengers through all the hills of Efrayim, with the message, "Come down and attack Midyan; and capture the rivers before they get there, as far as Beit-Barah, and also the Yarden." So all the men of Efrayim came together and seized the rivers as far as Beit-Barah and the Yarden. <sup>25</sup> They also captured two chiefs of Midyan, 'Orev and Ze'ev. They put 'Orev to death at the Rock of 'Orev and Ze'ev at Ze'ev's Winepress; then, as they kept pursuing Midyan, they brought the heads of Orev and Ze'ev to Gid'on, who had crossed to the far side of the Yarden.

8 <sup>1</sup> But the men of Efrayim complained to Gid'on, "Why didn't you call on us when you went to fight Midyan? Why did you treat us this way?" They were sharp in their criticism. <sup>2</sup> He answered by saying to them, "How can what I have done be compared with what you have done? Aren't the grapes Efrayim leaves on the vines better than the ones Avi'ezer harvests? <sup>3</sup> God handed over to you Midyan's chiefs, 'Orev and Ze'ev. What could I do that matches what you did?" By saying that, he appeased their anger at him.

<sup>4</sup> By now Gid'on and his three hundred men had come to the Yarden and crossed over. They were exhausted but were still pursuing the enemy. <sup>5</sup> In Sukkot he asked the people there, "Please give some loaves of bread to the men following me, because they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zevach and Tzalmuna the kings of Midyan." <sup>6</sup> But the chiefs of Sukkot said, "You haven't captured Zevach and Tzalmuna yet, so why should we give bread to your army?" <sup>7</sup> Gid'on said: "If that's your answer, then after ADONAI has put Zevach and Tzalmuna in my hands, I will tear your flesh apart with desert thorns and thistles!"

<sup>8</sup> From there he went up to P'nu'el and made the same request, and the people of P'nu'el gave the same answer as those of Sukkot. <sup>9</sup> So he answered the people of P'nu'el similarly, "When I return safe and sound, I will break down this tower!"

<sup>10</sup> Now Zevach and Tzalmuna were in Karkor with their army, about 15,000 men, all that remained of the entire army of the people from the east; since 120,000 arms-bearing soldiers had fallen. <sup>11</sup> Gid'on went up, using the route of the nomads east of Novach and Yogbehah, and struck down the army when they thought they were safe. <sup>12</sup> Zevach and Tzalmuna fled, but Gid'on pursued them. Thus he captured the two kings of Midyan, Zevach and Tzalmuna, and routed their whole army in panic. <sup>13</sup> When Gid'on the son of Yo'ash returned from the battle by way of the Heres Pass, <sup>14</sup> he captured a young man from Sukkot and asked him about the chiefs and leaders of Sukkot; he wrote down for him the names of seventy-seven of them. <sup>15</sup> Then he came to the people of Sukkot and said: "You insulted me when you said, 'You haven't captured Zevach and Tzalmuna yet, so why should we give bread to your exhausted men?' Well, here are Zevach and Tzalmuna!" <sup>16</sup> And he took the leaders of the city and desert thorns and thistles, and used them to teach the people of Sukkot a lesson! <sup>17</sup> He also broke down the tower of P'nu'el and put the men of the city to death.

<sup>18</sup> Then he said to Zevach and Tzalmuna, "Tell me about the men you killed at Tavor." They answered, "They looked like you, like a king's sons."

<sup>19</sup> Gid'on replied, "They were my brothers, my mother's sons. As surely as ADONAI is alive, I swear that if you had spared them, I would not kill you." <sup>20</sup> Then he ordered his oldest son, Yeter, "Get up, and kill them!" But the boy didn't draw his sword; being still a boy, he was afraid. <sup>21</sup> Then Zevach and Tzalmuna said, "You, do it. You, kill us. Let a grown man do what takes a grown man's strength." So Gid'on got up and killed Zevach and Tzalmuna; then he took the ornamental crescents from around their camels' necks.

<sup>22</sup> The men of Isra'el said to Gid'on: "Rule over us, you, your son and your grandson, because you saved us from the power of Midyan. <sup>23</sup> Gid'on replied, "Neither I nor my son will rule over you; ADONAI will rule over you."

<sup>24</sup> Then he added, "But I have this request to make of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from the booty you have taken." For the enemy soldiers had worn gold earrings, like all the other tribes descended from Yishma'el. <sup>25</sup> They replied, "We're glad to give them to you." They spread out a robe, and each man threw in the earrings from his booty. <sup>26</sup> The gold earrings he requested weighed more than forty-two pounds; and this doesn't include the crescents, pendants and purple cloth worn by the kings of Midyan and the chains around their camels' necks. <sup>27</sup> Out of these things Gid'on made a ritual vest, which he located in his city, 'Ofrah. But all Isra'el turned it into an idol there, and it thus became a snare to Gid'on and his family.

<sup>28</sup> This is how Midyan was defeated by Isra'el, so that they ceased to be a threat. The land had rest forty years during the lifetime of Gid'on; <sup>29</sup> Yeruba'al the son of Yo'ash returned to his home and stayed there.

<sup>30</sup> Gid'on became the father of seventy sons, because he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>He also had a concubine in Sh'khem, and she too bore him a son, whom he called Avimelekh. <sup>32</sup> Gid'on the son of Yo'ash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Yo'ash, in 'Ofrah of the Avi'ezri.

<sup>33</sup> But as soon as Gid'on was dead, the people of Isra'el again went astray after the ba'alim and made Ba'al-B'rit their god. <sup>34</sup> They forgot ADONAI their God, who had saved them from the power of all their enemies on every side; <sup>35</sup> and they showed no kindness toward the family of Yeruba'al, that is, Gid'on, to repay them for all the good he had done for Isra'el.

9 <sup>1</sup> Avimelekh the son of Yeruba'al went to Sh'khem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with the whole clan of his maternal grandfather. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Please ask all the men of Sh'khem, 'Which is better for you — that all seventy sons of Yeruba'al rule over you, or that one person rule over you? And remember that I am your blood relative.'" <sup>3</sup> His mother's brothers spoke to all the men of Sh'khem and said all this about him, so that they followed their feelings and supported Avimelekh, arguing, "After all, he's our brother." <sup>4</sup> They also gave him seventy pieces of silver from the temple of Ba'al-B'rit; and he used these to pay good-for-nothing thugs to follow him. <sup>5</sup> He went back to his father's house in 'Ofrah and killed his brothers the sons of Yeruba'al, all seventy of them, on a single rock, except for Yotam Yeruba'al's youngest son, who stayed alive because he hid himself.

<sup>6</sup> All the men of Sh'khem and all Beit-Millo got together and went and made Avimelekh king at the oak by the cult-pillar in Sh'khem. <sup>7</sup> When they told this to Yotam, he went and stood on top of Mount G'rizim and shouted, "Listen to me, you leaders of Sh'khem; then God will listen to you! <sup>8</sup> Once the trees went out to choose a king to rule them. They said to the olive tree, 'Rule over us!' <sup>9</sup> But the olive tree replied, 'Am I supposed to leave my oil, which is used to honor both God and humanity, just to go and hold sway over the trees?' <sup>10</sup> So the trees said to the fig tree, 'You, come and rule over us!' <sup>11</sup> But the fig tree replied, 'Am I supposed to leave my sweetness and my good fruit just to go and hold sway over the trees?’<sup>12</sup> So the trees said to the grapevine, ‘You, come and rule over us!’<sup>13</sup> But the grapevine replied, ‘Am I supposed to leave my wine, which gives cheer to God and humanity, just to go and hold sway over the trees?’<sup>14</sup> Finally, all the trees said to the thorn bush, ‘You, come and rule over us!’<sup>15</sup> The thorn bush replied, ‘If you really make me king over you, then come and take shelter in my shade. But if not, let fire come out of the thorn bush and burn down the cedars of the L’vanon!’

<sup>16</sup> “Here’s the point. Have you been honest and straightforward in making Avimelekh king? Have you been fair with Yeruba’al and his household and treated him as he deserves?<sup>17</sup> My father fought on your behalf, risking his life, and rescued you from the power of Midyan;<sup>18</sup> and now you are rebelling against my father’s household. You’ve killed his seventy sons on a single stone and made Avimelekh, the son of his slave-girl, king over the men of Sh’khem, because he’s your brother.<sup>19</sup> I say this: if you are dealing honestly and righteously with Yeruba’al and his household today, then may you enjoy Avimelekh and may he enjoy you!<sup>20</sup> But if not, let fire come out from Avimelekh and burn up the men of Sh’khem and Beit-Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Sh’khem and Beit-Millo and burn up Avimelekh!”<sup>21</sup> Then Yotam fled, making his way to Be’er, and he lived there for fear of Avimelekh his brother.

<sup>22</sup> Avimelekh was chief over Isra’el for three years.<sup>23</sup> But God sent a spirit of discord between Avimelekh and the men of Sh’khem, so that the men of Sh’khem dealt treacherously with Avimelekh.<sup>24</sup> This came about so that the crime against the seventy sons of Yeruba’al might be avenged and the responsibility for their bloody death be placed on Avimelekh their brother, who murdered them, and on the men of Sh’khem, who helped him kill his brothers.<sup>25</sup> So the men of Sh’khem sent out men to ambush him on the mountaintops. They robbed everyone who went past them, and Avimelekh was told about it.

<sup>26</sup> Ga’al the son of a slave came with his brothers and went on to Sh’khem, and the men of Sh’khem put their trust in him.<sup>27</sup> They went out into the field, gathered their grapes and pressed the juice out of them. Then they held a feast and went into the house of their god to eat and drink, and there they insulted Avimelekh.<sup>28</sup> Ga’al the son of a slave said, “Who is Avimelekh? Think of the contrast with Sh’khem! Why should we serve Avimelekh? Isn’t he the son of Yeruba’al? Isn’t Z’vul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Sh'khem! Why should we serve Avimelekh? <sup>29</sup> If I were in control of this people, I'd get rid of Avimelekh!" Then, addressing his words to Avimelekh, he said, "Come out and fight! I don't care if you make your army even larger!"

<sup>30</sup> When Z'vul the ruler of the city heard the words of Ga'al the son of a slave, he was enraged. <sup>31</sup> He sent messengers to Avimelekh in Tormah with this message: "Ga'al the son of a slave and his brothers have come to Sh'khem, and they're inciting the city against you. <sup>32</sup> You and the men with you should come up now at night and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup> In the morning, get up early, as soon as the sun rises; and attack the city. Then, when Ga'al and the men with him come out to fight you, do whatever you can to them."

<sup>34</sup> Avimelekh and all the men with him came up by night and lay in wait against Sh'khem in four groups. <sup>35</sup> Ga'al the son of a slave went out and stationed himself at the entrance to the city gate. Then Avimelekh and his men rose from their ambush. <sup>36</sup> When Ga'al saw the men, he said to Z'vul, "Look, there are men coming down from the mountaintops." Z'vul answered, "You're seeing the shadows of the mountains as if they were men." <sup>37</sup> Ga'al said again, "Look, there are men coming down from the main hill in the land, and one group is coming on the road from the Fortune-teller's Oak. <sup>38</sup> Z'vul said to him, "Where's your mouth now? You said, 'Who is Avimelekh? Why should we serve him?' Aren't these the people you despise? Go on out and fight them!" <sup>39</sup> So Ga'al went out, leading the men of Sh'khem, and fought Avimelekh. <sup>40</sup> But Avimelekh gave chase, and Ga'al took to flight; many fell wounded, strewn all along the way to the city gate.

<sup>41</sup> Then Avimelekh took up residence in Arumah, and Z'vul drove out Ga'al and his brothers, so that they could not live in Sh'khem. <sup>42</sup> But the very next day, the people went out into the field, and Avimelekh was told about it. <sup>43</sup> He took his men, divided them into three groups, and lay in wait in the field. When he saw the people going out of the city, he came out of hiding and slaughtered them. <sup>44</sup> Avimelekh and his group rushed forward and occupied the entrance to the city gate, while the other two groups attacked all those in the field and killed them. <sup>45</sup> Avimelekh fought against the city all that day; captured it, killed its people, destroyed its buildings and sowed its land with salt.

<sup>46</sup> When all the men in the fortress at Sh'khem heard about this, they took refuge in the stronghold of the temple of El-B'rit. <sup>47</sup> Avimelekh was told that all the men from the Sh'khem fortress had gathered together; <sup>48</sup> so he led all his men up to Mount Tzalmon, where he took an axe in his hand, cut a branch off a tree, and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to those with him, "Quick! Do just what you saw me do!" <sup>49</sup> They all did likewise, each man cutting off his branch; and they followed Avimelekh. They put the branches up against the stronghold, set them on fire, and burned down the stronghold; so that all the people from the Sh'khem fortress died, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup> Then Avimelekh went to Tevetz, set up camp against Tevetz and captured it. <sup>51</sup> But there was a fortified tower inside the city; and all the men and women took refuge in it, everyone in the city. They shut themselves inside and went up onto the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup> However, when Avimelekh approached the tower, attacked it, and then came up close to the tower's door in order to burn it down, <sup>53</sup> a woman dropped an upper millstone on Avimelekh's head, cracking his skull. <sup>54</sup> He quickly called out to the young man holding his armor, "Draw your sword, and finish me off, so that people won't say a woman killed me." So his attendant ran him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup> When the men of Isra'el saw that Avimelekh was dead, they all went back home.

<sup>56</sup> This is how God paid back Avimelekh for the wrong he did to his father in murdering his seventy brothers. <sup>57</sup> God also repaid the men of Sh'khem for all the wrong they had done; on them came the curse of Yotam the son of Yeruba'al.

10 <sup>1</sup> After Avimelekh there arose to save Isra'el Tola the son of Pu'ah, the son of Dodo, from the tribe of Yissakhar. He lived in Shamir, in the hills of Efrayim. <sup>2</sup> He judged Isra'el twenty-three years, and when he died he was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup> After him arose Ya'ir, from Gil'ad. He judged Isra'el twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup> He had thirty sons who rode on thirty young donkeys. They owned thirty cities which are called Havot-Ya'ir to this day; they are in the territory of Gil'ad. <sup>5</sup> When Ya'ir died, he was buried in Kamon.

<sup>6</sup> Again the people of Isra'el did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective — they served the ba'alim, the 'ashtarot, the gods of Aram, the gods of Tzidon, the gods of Mo'av, the gods of the people of 'Amon and the gods of the P'lishtim. They abandoned ADONAI and did not serve him; <sup>7</sup> so the anger of ADONAI blazed against Isra'el, and he handed them over to the P'lishtim and the people of 'Amon. <sup>8</sup> For eighteen years, starting that year, they oppressed and persecuted all the people of Isra'el who lived beyond the Yarden, in the territory of the Emorim, in Gil'ad. <sup>9</sup> The people of 'Amon also crossed the Yarden to fight Y'hudah, Binyamin and the house of Efrayim; so that Isra'el was greatly distressed.

<sup>10</sup> Then the people of Isra'el cried to ADONAI, "We have sinned against you by forsaking our God and serving the ba'alim." <sup>11</sup> ADONAI said to the people of Isra'el, "I saved you from the Egyptians, the Emorim, the people of 'Amon, and the P'lishtim, didn't I? <sup>12</sup> Likewise, when the people of Tzidon, 'Amalek and Ma'on oppressed you, you cried out to me; and I rescued you from their power. <sup>13</sup> Yet you abandoned me and served other gods; therefore I will not rescue you any more. <sup>14</sup> Go and cry to the gods you chose; let them rescue you when you're in trouble!" <sup>15</sup> The people of Isra'el said to ADONAI, "We have sinned! Treat us in whatever way seems good to you, but save us today, please!" <sup>16</sup> They got rid of their foreign gods and served ADONAI, and he became troubled by Isra'el's misery.

<sup>17</sup> Then the people of 'Amon gathered together and set up camp in Gil'ad, while the people of Isra'el assembled and camped at Mitzpah. <sup>18</sup> The people, the chiefs of Gil'ad, said to each other, "Whoever leads the battle against the army of 'Amon will be head over everyone living in Gil'ad."

11 <sup>1</sup> Now Yiftach, a brave soldier from Gil 'ad, was the son of a prostitute. His father, Gil'ad, <sup>2</sup> had other sons by his wife; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Yiftach away and told him, "You will not inherit from our father, because you are another woman's son." <sup>3</sup> Then Yiftach fled from his brothers and lived in the territory of Tov, where he enlisted a gang of rowdies who would go out raiding with him.

<sup>4</sup> After a while the people of 'Amon made war against Isra'el. <sup>5</sup> When the army of 'Amon attacked Isra'el, the leaders of Gil'ad went to fetch Yiftach from the territory of Tov <sup>6</sup> and said to him, "Come and be our chief, so that we can fight the army of 'Amon." <sup>7</sup> Yiftach answered the leaders of Gil'ad, "Didn't you hate me so much that you forced me out of my father's house? Why are you coming to me now, when you're in trouble?" <sup>8</sup> The leaders of Gil'ad replied, "Here is why we've come back to you now: if you lead us in war with the people of 'Amon, you will be head over everyone living in Gil'ad." <sup>9</sup> Yiftach answered them, "If you bring me back home to fight the army of 'Amon, and ADONAI defeats them for me, I will be your head." <sup>10</sup> The leaders of Gil'ad said to Yiftach, "ADONAI is witness that we promise to do what you have said." <sup>11</sup> Then Yiftach went with the leaders of Gil'ad, and the people made him head and chief over them. Yiftach repeated all these conditions at Mitzpah in the presence of ADONAI.

<sup>12</sup> Yiftach sent messengers to the king of the people of 'Amon to say, "What's your problem with us? Why are you invading our territory?" <sup>13</sup> The king of 'Amon answered the messengers of Yiftach, "Because Isra'el took away my territory when they came up from Egypt. They took everything from the Arnon to the Yabok and the Yarden. Now, restore it peacefully." <sup>14</sup> Yiftach sent messengers again to the king of the people of 'Amon <sup>15</sup> with this response, "Here is what Yiftach has to say: 'Isra'el captured neither the territory of Mo'av nor the territory of the people of 'Amon. <sup>16</sup> But when Isra'el came up from Egypt, walked through the desert to the Red Sea and arrived at Kadesh, <sup>17</sup> then Isra'el sent messengers to the king of Edom, to say, "Please let us pass through your land." But the king of Edom wouldn't let them. He sent a similar message to the king of Mo'av, but neither would he, so Isra'el stayed at Kadesh. <sup>18</sup> Then they walked through the desert, around the territory of Edom and the territory of Mo'av, past the east border of the territory of Mo'av, and pitched camp on the other side of the Arnon; but they did not cross the border into Mo'av, for the Arnon was the border of Mo'av. <sup>19</sup> Isra'el sent messengers to Sichon king of the Emori and king of Heshbon with this message, "Please let us pass through your land to our own place." <sup>20</sup> But Sichon did not trust that Isra'el would only pass through his land, so he gathered all his people together, pitched camp in Yahatz and fought against Isra'el. <sup>21</sup> ADONAI the God of Isra'el handed Sichon and all his people over to Isra'el, and they killed them. Thus Isra'el possessed all the territory of the Emori who lived there. <sup>22</sup> They took possession of all the territory of the Emori from the Arnon to the Yabok and from the desert to the Yarden. <sup>23</sup> So now that ADONAI the God of Isra'el has expelled the Emori before his people Isra'el, do you think that you will expel us? <sup>24</sup> You should just keep the territory your god K'mosh has given you; while we, for our part, will hold onto whatever ADONAI our God has given us of the lands that belonged to others before us. <sup>25</sup> Really, are you better than Balak the son of Tzippor, king of Mo'av? Did he ever pick a quarrel with Isra'el or fight with us? <sup>26</sup> Isra'el lived in Heshbon and its villages, in 'Aro'er and its villages and in all the cities on the banks of the Arnon for three hundred years. Why didn't you take them back during that time? <sup>27</sup> No, I have done you no wrong. But you are doing me wrong to war against me. May ADONAI the Judge be judge today between the people of Isra'el and the people of 'Amon.'" <sup>28</sup> But the king of the people of 'Amon paid no attention to the message Yiftach sent him.

<sup>29</sup> Then the Spirit of ADONAI came upon Yiftach; and he passed through Gil'ad and M'nasheh, on through Mitzpeh of Gil'ad, and from there over to the people of 'Amon. <sup>30</sup> Yiftach made a vow to ADONAI: "If you will hand the people of 'Amon over to me, <sup>31</sup> then whatever comes out the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the people of 'Amon will belong to ADONAI; I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering." <sup>32</sup> So Yiftach crossed over to fight the people of 'Amon, and ADONAI handed them over to him. <sup>33</sup> He killed them from 'Aro'er until you reach Minnit, twenty cities, all the way to Avel-K'ramim; it was a massacre. So the people of 'Amon were defeated before the people of Isra'el.

<sup>34</sup> As Yiftach was returning to his house in Mitzpah, his daughter came dancing out to meet him with tambourines. She was his only child; he had no other son or daughter. <sup>35</sup> When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Oh, no, my daughter! You're breaking my heart! Why must you be the cause of such pain to me? I made a vow to ADONAI, and I can't go back on my word." <sup>36</sup> She said to him, "Father, you made a vow to ADONAI; so do whatever you said you would do to me; because ADONAI did take vengeance on your enemies the people of 'Amon." <sup>37</sup> Then she said to her father, "Just do this one thing for me — let me be alone for two months. I'll go away into the mountains with my friends and mourn, because I will die without getting married." <sup>38</sup> "You may go," he answered, and he sent her away for two months. She left, she and her friends, and mourned in the mountains that she would die unmarried. <sup>39</sup> After two months she returned to her father, and he did with her what he had vowed; she had remained a virgin. So it became a law in Isra'el <sup>40</sup> that the women of Isra'el would go every year for four days to lament the daughter of Yiftach from Gil'ad.

12 <sup>1</sup> The men of Efrayim assembled, crossed into Tzafon and said to Yiftach, “Why didn’t you call us to go with you when you went over to fight the people of ‘Amon? We’re ready to burn down your house with you in it!” <sup>2</sup> Yiftach answered, “When my people and I were in a serious dispute with the people of ‘Amon, I called you; and you didn’t rescue me from their power. <sup>3</sup> When I saw that you weren’t rescuing me, I put my life in my own hands and went over to attack the people of ‘Amon; and ADONAI gave them over into my power. So why have you come up today to fight me?” <sup>4</sup> Then Yiftach gathered together all the men of Gil‘ad and fought with Efrayim, and the men of Gil‘ad defeated Efrayim; because they were saying, “You Gil‘ad men who live in Efrayim and M’nasheh have deserted Efrayim!” <sup>5</sup> The men of Gil‘ad cut off Efrayim from the crossings over the Yarden, and whenever anyone from Efrayim tried to escape and said, “Let me go across,” the men of Gil‘ad would ask him, “Are you from Efrayim?” and if he said, “No,” <sup>6</sup> they would tell him to say “Shibbolet.” If he said, “Sibbolet,” because he could not make his mouth pronounce it right, they took hold of him and killed him on the spot at the Yarden crossing; at that time 42,000 men of Efrayim died.

<sup>7</sup>Yiftach judged Isra’el for six years. Then Yiftach from Gil‘ad died, and he was buried in one of the cities of Gil‘ad.

<sup>8</sup>After him Ibtzan of Beit-Lechem judged Isra’el. <sup>9</sup> He had thirty sons, and he had thirty daughters whom he sent abroad; he brought thirty women from abroad in to marry his sons. He judged Isra’el for seven years. <sup>10</sup> Then Ibtzan died and was buried at Beit-Lechem.

<sup>11</sup> After him Elon from Z’vulun judged Isra’el; he judged Isra’el for ten years. <sup>12</sup>Then Elon from Z’vulun died and was buried at Ayalon, in the territory of Z’vulun.

<sup>13</sup> After him Avdon the son of Hillel from Pir’aton judged Isra’el. <sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Isra’el for eight years. <sup>15</sup> Then Avdon the son of Hillel from Pir’aton died and was buried at Pir’aton in the territory of Efrayim, in the ‘Amalek hills.

13 <sup>1</sup> Again the people of Isra’el did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, and ADONAI handed them over to the P’lishtim for forty years.

<sup>2</sup> There was a man from Tzor'ah from the family of Dan, whose name was Manoach; his wife was barren, childless. <sup>3</sup> The angel of ADONAI appeared to the woman and said to her, "Listen! You are barren, you haven't had a child, but you will conceive and bear a son. <sup>4</sup> Now, therefore, be careful not to drink any wine or other intoxicating liquor, and don't eat anything unclean. <sup>5</sup> For indeed you will conceive and bear a son. No razor is to touch his head, because the child will be a nazir for God from the womb. Moreover, he will begin to rescue Isra'el from the power of the P'lishtim."

<sup>6</sup> The woman came and told her husband; she said, "A man of God came to me; his face was fearsome, like that of the angel of God. I didn't ask him where he came from, and he didn't tell me his name. <sup>7</sup> But he said to me, 'Listen! You will conceive and bear a son, so now don't drink any wine or other intoxicating liquor, and don't eat anything unclean, because the child will be a nazir for God from the womb until the day he dies.'"

<sup>8</sup> Then Manoach prayed to ADONAI, "Please, Adonai, let the man of God you sent come again to us and teach us what we should do for the child who will be born." <sup>9</sup> God paid attention to what Manoach said, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but her husband Manoach wasn't with her. <sup>10</sup> The woman hurried and ran to tell her husband, "Here! That man, the one who came to me the other day, he's come again!" <sup>11</sup> Manoach got up, followed his wife, went to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to the woman?" He answered, "I am." <sup>12</sup> Manoach asked, "Now, when what you said comes true, what are the guidelines for raising the child? What should be done for him?" <sup>13</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to Manoach, "The woman should take care to do everything I said to her. <sup>14</sup> She shouldn't eat anything that comes from a grapevine, she shouldn't drink wine or other intoxicating liquor, and she shouldn't eat anything unclean. She should do everything I ordered her to do."

<sup>15</sup> Manoach said to the angel of ADONAI, "Please stay with us a bit longer, so that we can cook a young goat for you." <sup>16</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to Manoach, "Even if I do stay, I won't eat your food; and if you prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to ADONAI." For Manoach did not know that he was the angel of ADONAI. <sup>17</sup> Manoach said to the angel of ADONAI, "Tell us your name, so that when your words come true we can honor you." <sup>18</sup> The angel of ADONAI answered him, "Why are you asking about my name? It is wonderful." <sup>19</sup> Manoach took the kid and the grain offering and offered them on the rock to ADONAI. Then, with Manoach and his wife looking on, the angel did something wonderful — <sup>20</sup> as the flame went up toward the sky from the altar, the angel of ADONAI went up in the flame from the altar. When Manoach and his wife saw it, they fell to the ground on their faces. <sup>21</sup> But the angel of ADONAI did not appear again to Manoach or his wife. Then Manoach realized it had been the angel of ADONAI. <sup>22</sup> Manoach said to his wife, “We will surely die, because we have seen God!” <sup>23</sup> But his wife said to him, “If ADONAI had wanted to kill us, he wouldn’t have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from us, and he wouldn’t have shown us all this or told us such things at this time.”

<sup>24</sup> The woman bore a son and called him Shimshon. The child grew, and ADONAI blessed him. <sup>25</sup> The Spirit of ADONAI began to stir him when he was in the Camp of Dan, between Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol.

14 <sup>1</sup> Shimshon went down to Timnah, and in Timnah he saw a woman who was one of the P’lishtim. <sup>2</sup> He came up and told his father and mother, “I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the P’lishtim. Now get her for me to be my wife.” <sup>3</sup> His father and mother replied, “Isn’t there any woman from the daughters of your kinsmen or among all my people? Must you go to the uncircumcised P’lishtim to find a wife?” Shimshon said to his father, “Get her for me. I like her.” <sup>4</sup> His father and mother didn’t know that all this came from ADONAI, who was seeking grounds for a quarrel with the P’lishtim. (At that time the P’lishtim were ruling Isra’el.)

<sup>5</sup> Shimshon went down with his father and mother to Timnah. When they came to the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion roared at him. <sup>6</sup> The Spirit of ADONAI came powerfully upon Shimshon, and barehanded he tore the lion to pieces as easily as if it had been a young goat. But he didn’t tell his father or mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup> Then he went down and talked with the woman and found he still liked her.

<sup>8</sup> Awhile later, as he was returning to claim his bride, he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion and saw that there was now a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. <sup>9</sup> He scraped the honey out into his hands and went on, eating as he went; and when he came to his father and mother, he gave them some; and they ate too. But he didn’t tell them that he had scraped the honey out of the body of the lion.

<sup>10</sup> His father went down to the woman, and there Shimshon gave a banquet — this is what the young men used to do. <sup>11</sup> When the P’lishtim saw him, they provided thirty companions to be with him. <sup>12</sup> Shimshon said to them, “Let me present you with a riddle. If you can solve it within the seven days of the banquet and tell me the solution, I will give you thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of good clothes. <sup>13</sup> But if you can’t solve it, you give me thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of good clothes.” They answered, “Tell us the riddle, we want to hear it.” <sup>14</sup> So he said to them, out of the strong came sweetness.”

“Out of the eater came food;

Three days passed, and they couldn’t solve the riddle. <sup>15</sup> On the seventh day, they said to Shimshon’s wife, “Coax your husband into telling us the solution to the riddle. Otherwise we’ll burn down your father’s house and you with it. You two called us here to turn us into paupers, didn’t you?” <sup>16</sup> Shimshon’s wife went to him in tears and said, “You don’t love me, you hate me! You told a riddle to my fellow countrymen, and you haven’t told me the answer.” He said to her, “Look, I haven’t even told it to my father and mother! Should I tell you?” <sup>17</sup> But she had been crying throughout the seven days of the banquet; so on the seventh day, because she had kept pressing him, he told her the solution; and she passed it on to her people. <sup>18</sup> Then, before sundown on the seventh day, the men of the city said to him, and what is stronger than a lion?”

“What is sweeter than honey?

Shimshon answered,

“If you hadn’t plowed with my young cow,

you wouldn’t have solved my riddle now.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the Spirit of ADONAI came over him powerfully. He went down to Ashkelon, killed thirty of their men, took their good clothes, and gave them to the men who had “solved” the riddle. He was boiling with rage, so he went straight up to his father's house, <sup>20</sup> and his wife was given to the companion who had been best man at the wedding.

15 <sup>1</sup> But after a while, during the wheat-harvest season, Shimshon went to see his wife. He brought a young goat for her and said to her father, "I want to go to my wife in her room." But he wouldn't let him. <sup>2</sup> Her father said, "I really thought you hated her altogether, so I gave her to your best man. But her younger sister — isn't she even prettier? Why not take her instead?" <sup>3</sup> Shimshon said to them, "This time I'm through with the P'lishtim! I'm going to do something terrible to them!" <sup>4</sup> So Shimshon went and caught three hundred foxes. Then he took torches, tied pairs of foxes to each other by their tails, and put a torch in the knot of every pair of tails. <sup>5</sup> Then he set the torches on fire and let the foxes loose in wheat fields of the P'lishtim. In this way he burned up the harvested wheat along with the grain waiting to be harvested, and the olive orchards as well. <sup>6</sup> The P'lishtim asked, "Who did this?" They answered, "Shimshon the son-in-law of the man from Timnah, because he took Shimshon's wife and gave her to his best man." Then the P'lishtim came up and burned both her and her father to death. <sup>7</sup> Shimshon said to them, "I will certainly have my revenge on you for doing such a thing; but after I do, I'll stop." <sup>8</sup> Infuriated, he began killing them right and left; it was a massacre. Then he went down and stayed in the cave at the 'Eitam Rock.

<sup>9</sup> The P'lishtim went up, pitched camp in Y'hudah and attacked Lechi. <sup>10</sup> The men of Y'hudah said, "Why are you attacking us?" They replied, "To arrest Shimshon, that's why — to treat him the way he treated us." <sup>11</sup> Then 3,000 men from Y'hudah went down to the cave at the Eitam Rock and said to Shimshon, "Don't you know that the P'lishtim are our rulers? What are you doing to us?" He answered, "I've only treated them the way they treated me." <sup>12</sup> They said to him, "We've come down to arrest you and hand you over to the P'lishtim." Shimshon replied, "Swear to me that you won't fall on me yourselves." <sup>13</sup> They said to him, "No, but we will tie you up and hand you over to them. However, we promise not to kill you." So they tied him up with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock. <sup>14</sup> When he got to Lechi, the P'lishtim came running and shouting at him; and the Spirit of ADONAI came on him powerfully. The ropes on his arms became as weak as burnt flax and fell from his arms. <sup>15</sup> He found a fresh donkey jawbone, took it in his hand, and with it he struck down a thousand men. <sup>16</sup> Shimshon said,

“With the jawbone of a donkey I left heaps piled on heaps!

With the jawbone of a donkey I killed a thousand men!”

<sup>17</sup> After he finished speaking he threw the jawbone away, and the place came to be called Ramat-Lechi [jawbone heights].

<sup>18</sup> Then he felt very thirsty, so he called on ADONAI, saying, “You accomplished this great rescue through your servant. But am I now to die from thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?” <sup>19</sup> Then God made a gash in the crater at Lechi, and water came out. When he had drunk, his spirit came back; and he revived. This is why the place was called ‘Ein-HaKorei [the spring of him who called], and it is there in Lechi until now. <sup>20</sup> He judged Isra’el in the period of the P’lishtim for twenty years.

16 <sup>1</sup> Shimshon went to ‘Azah, where he saw a prostitute and went in to spend the night with her. <sup>2</sup> The people in ‘Azah were told that Shimshon had come, so they surrounded the place where he was and also set an ambush for him all night at the city gate. Their plan was to do nothing at night, but to wait until morning and then kill him. <sup>3</sup> However, Shimshon stayed in bed until midnight; then he got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts as well, pulled them up, bar and all, hoisted them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill overlooking Hevron.

<sup>4</sup> After this, he fell in love with a woman who lived in the Sorek Valley, whose name was D’lilah. <sup>5</sup> The chiefs of the P’lishtim went up to her and said, “Coax him into telling you where his great strength comes from and how we can overcome him, so that we can tie him up and subdue him. If you do, each of us will give you 1,100 pieces of silver.” <sup>6</sup> D’lilah said to Shimshon, “Please tell me what it is that makes you so strong, and how someone could tie you up and subdue you.” <sup>7</sup> Shimshon replied, “If they tie me up with seven fresh bowstrings that have never been dried, I will become as weak as any other man.” <sup>8</sup> The chiefs of the P’lishtim brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried, and she tied him up with them. <sup>9</sup> Now she had people lying in wait in the inside room. So she said to him, “Shimshon! The P’lishtim have come for you!” But he snapped the bowstrings as easily as a piece of straw breaks when it touches fire, and the source of his strength remained unknown.

<sup>10</sup> D’lilah said to Shimshon, “You’re making fun of me, telling me lies. Now, come on, tell me what it takes to tie you up.” <sup>11</sup> “All it takes,” he answered, “is to tie me up with new ropes that haven’t been used. Then I’ll become weak and be like anyone else.” <sup>12</sup> So D’lilah took new ropes, tied him up, and said to him, “Shimshon! The P’lishtim have come for you!” (The people lying in wait were in the inside room.) But he broke the ropes from off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup> D’lilah said to Shimshon, “Till now you’ve been making fun of me and telling me lies. Tell me what it takes to tie you up.” He said, “If you weave the seven locks of my hair across thread on a loom.” <sup>14</sup> So she fastened her cloth work in the loom with a pin and wove his hair in, then said to him, “Shimshon! The P’lishtim have come for you!” He awoke from his sleep and pulled away the loom pin and the interwoven cloth. <sup>15</sup> She said to him, “How can you say you love me when your heart isn’t with me? Three times you’ve made fun of me, and you haven’t told me the source of your great strength.”

<sup>16</sup> Every day she kept nagging at him and pressing at him, till it bothered him to death, <sup>17</sup> so that he finally told her everything. He said to her, “No razor has ever touched my head, because I have been a nazir of God since I was born. If someone shaves me, then my strength will leave me; and I will be like any other man.” <sup>18</sup> When D’lilah saw that he had really confided in her, she sent and summoned the chiefs of the P’lishtim with the message, “Come up this one last time, because he has finally told me the truth.” The chiefs of the P’lishtim went up to her and brought the money with them. <sup>19</sup> She had him go to sleep in her lap and called for a man to shave off his seven locks of hair. Then she began tormenting him, but his strength had gone away. <sup>20</sup> She said, “Shimshon! The P’lishtim have come for you!” He awoke from his sleep and said, “I’ll get out this time, just as I shook myself loose before.” But he didn’t know that ADONAI had left him. <sup>21</sup> So the P’lishtim seized him, gouged out his eyes and took him down to ‘Azah. There they bound him with two bronze chains and put him to work grinding grain at the mill in the prison. <sup>22</sup> However, after the hair on his head had been cut off, it began growing back again.

<sup>23</sup> The chiefs of the P'lishtim assembled to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. As they celebrated they sang,

“Our god has handed over to us
our enemy Shimshon.”

<sup>24</sup> Upon seeing him, the people praised their god:

“Our god has handed over to us
our enemy, who destroyed our land and killed so many of us.”

<sup>25</sup> When they were in high spirits they said, “Summon Shimshon to amuse us.” So they called Shimshon out of the prison, and he amused them. When they put him between the columns, <sup>26</sup> Shimshon said to the boy holding him by the hand, “Let me feel the columns supporting the building, so that I can lean on them.” <sup>27</sup> The building was full of men and women; and all the chiefs of the P'lishtim were there; in addition to them, there were about three thousand men and women on the roof, watching, as Shimshon performed. <sup>28</sup> Shimshon called to ADONAI, “Adonai ELOHIM, just this once, please, think of me, and please, give me strength, so that I can take revenge on the P'lishtim for at least one of my two eyes.” <sup>29</sup> Shimshon got a good hold on the two middle columns supporting the building and leaned on them, on one with his right hand and on the other with his left. <sup>30</sup> Then, crying, “Let me die with the P'lishtim!” he pushed with all his might; and the building collapsed on the chiefs and on all the people inside. So he killed more at his death than he had killed during his life.

<sup>31</sup> His brothers and all his father's family came down, took him, brought him up and buried him between Tzor'ah and Eshta'ol, in the tomb of his father Manoach. He had judged Isra'el twenty years.

17 <sup>1</sup> There was a man from the hills of Efrayim named Mikhay'hu. <sup>2</sup> He said to his mother, “You know the 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you — you pronounced a curse about it, and you told me about it?

Well, the money is with me. I took it.” His mother said, “May ADONAI bless my son,” <sup>3</sup> as he restored the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother. Then his mother said, “I solemnly dedicate this money of mine to ADONAI, in order for my son to make a carved image overlaid with silver. So now I’m giving it back to you.” <sup>4</sup> But he returned the money to his mother, and she took 200 pieces of silver and gave them to the metalworker, who made a carved image overlaid with silver which was put in Mikhay’hu’s house. <sup>5</sup> This man Mikhah owned a house of God; so he made a ritual vest and household gods and consecrated one of his sons, who became his cohen. <sup>6</sup> At that time there was no king in Isra’el; a man simply did whatever he thought was right.

<sup>7</sup> There was a young man from Beit-Lechem in Y’hudah, from the family of Y’hudah, who was a Levi. He had been staying <sup>8</sup> in Beit-Lechem, but he left there to find another place to live and came to the hills of Efrayim, where eventually he made his way to the house of Mikhah. <sup>9</sup> Mikhah asked him, “Where are you coming from?” He answered, “I am a Levi from Beit-Lechem in Y’hudah, and I’m looking for a place to live.” <sup>10</sup> Mikhah replied, “Stay with me, and be a father and cohen for me; I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, in addition to your clothing and food.” So the Levi went in <sup>11</sup> and agreed to stay with the man; the young man became like one of his sons. <sup>12</sup> After Mikhah consecrated the Levi, the young man became his cohen and stayed there in Mikhah’s house. <sup>13</sup> Mikhah said, “Now I know that ADONAI will treat me well, because I have a Levi for a cohen.”

18 <sup>1</sup> At that time there was no king in Isra’el, and it was also at that time that the tribe of Dan was looking for a place to claim ownership of and settle in, since they had not yet been given any land of their own among the tribes of Isra’el. <sup>2</sup> The people of Dan sent five leading men from Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol, representing their whole tribe, to spy out and explore the land. They instructed them, “Go, and explore the land.” They came to the hills of Efrayim, to the house of Mikhah, and stayed there. <sup>3</sup> While they were at Mikhah’s house they recognized the accent of the young man, the Levi, so they approached him and said, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is there for you here?” <sup>4</sup> He answered, “Here’s the arrangement Mikhah has made with me: he pays me a wage, and I serve as his cohen.” <sup>5</sup> They said to him, “Please ask God whether our journey will be successful.”<sup>6</sup> The cohen replied, “Don’t worry. ADONAI is with you on this journey.”

<sup>7</sup> The five men left, came to Layish and saw the people there living securely according to the customs of the Tzidonim, quietly and securely; since no one in the land was exercising authority that might shame them in any respect; moreover, they were far away from the Tzidonim and had no dealings with other peoples.<sup>8</sup> When they returned to their kinsmen in Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol, they asked them what they had to report.<sup>9</sup> They said, “Let’s go up and attack them. We’ve seen the land, and it’s excellent. Don’t delay; start moving! Go in, and take the land!”<sup>10</sup> When you go, you will come to a people who feel safe. There’s plenty of land, the place lacks nothing, it has everything there is on earth, and God has given it to you.”

<sup>11</sup> So from the tribe of Dan 600 men equipped for war set out from there, from Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol.<sup>12</sup> They went up and camped at Kiryat-Ye’arim, in Y’hudah, which is why that place is called Machaneh-Dan [the camp of Dan] to this day (actually, it’s behind Kiryat-Ye’arim).<sup>13</sup> From there they passed on into the hills of Efrayim and came to Mikhah’s house.<sup>14</sup> The men who had gone to spy out the land of Layish then said to their kinsmen, “Are you aware that in these buildings there is a ritual vest, household gods and a carved image overlaid with silver? Decide what you ought to do.”<sup>15</sup> They turned off the road and went to the house of the young Levi, that is, to Mikhah’s house, and asked how he was doing.<sup>16</sup> The 600 soldiers from Dan stayed at the gate,<sup>17</sup> while the five who had spied out the land went in and took the idol overlaid with silver, the vest and the household gods. The cohen had stayed with the 600 soldiers by the gate.<sup>18</sup> But when they went into Mikhah’s house and took the silver-covered image, the vest and the household gods, the cohen asked them, “What are you doing?”<sup>19</sup> They replied, “Be quiet, keep your mouth shut, and come with us. Be a father and a cohen for us. Which is better? To be a cohen in the house of one man or to be cohen to a whole tribe and family in Isra’el?”<sup>20</sup> This made the cohen feel very good; so he took the ritual vest, the household gods and the image and went off with the people.<sup>21</sup> So they turned and left, with their children, cattle and belongings going ahead of them.

<sup>22</sup> When they were a good distance from Mikhah’s house, the men who lived in the houses near his got together [with him], overtook the people from Dan<sup>23</sup> and began shouting at them. The people from Dan turned and said to Mikhah, “What’s wrong with you, that you’ve gathered such a crowd?” <sup>24</sup> He answered, “You’ve taken away my god, which I made, and gone off with the cohen! What more have I got? How can you ask me, ‘What’s wrong with you?’” <sup>25</sup> The men from Dan replied, “You had best say no more to us, because some of us might get angry and attack you. You could lose your life, and so might the others in your household.” <sup>26</sup> Then the people from Dan went their way; and when Mikhah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. <sup>27</sup> So they took what Mikhah had made and his cohen.

They came to Layish, to a quiet and trusting people. They attacked, killed them and burned down the city. <sup>28</sup> No one came to rescue them, because it was far from Tzidon, and they had no dealings with other peoples. This was in the valley near Beit-Rechov.

Then the people of Dan rebuilt the city and settled there. <sup>29</sup> They named the city Dan, after Dan their ancestor, who was born to Isra’el; although the city had previously been called Layish. <sup>30</sup> The people of Dan set up the image for themselves. Y’honatan the son of Gershom, the son of M’nasheh, and his sons were cohanim for the tribe of the people of Dan until the day of the exile from the land. <sup>31</sup> Thus they erected for themselves Mikhah’s idol which he had made, and it remained there as long as the house of God was in Shiloh.

19 <sup>1</sup> In those days, when there was no king in Isra’el, there was a certain Levi living on the far side of the Efrayim hills who took a woman from Beit-Lechem in Y’hudah to be his concubine. <sup>2</sup> But his concubine was unfaithful to him and left him to go to her father’s house at Beit-Lechem in Y’hudah, where she stayed for some time, four months. <sup>3</sup> Then her husband went after her to persuade her to return; he had his servant with him and a pair of donkeys. She brought him into her father’s house; and when the girl’s father saw him, he was glad to meet him. <sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the girl’s father, kept him there; so he remained with him three days; they ate, drank and stayed there. <sup>5</sup> On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to leave. But the girl’s father said to his son-in-law, “You’ll feel better if you have a bite of food before you leave.” <sup>6</sup> So the two of them sat down and ate and drank together. Then the girl’s father said to the man, “Please stay one more night, and have a good time.” <sup>7</sup> The man rose to leave, but his father-in-law pressed him, so he stayed there again. <sup>8</sup> The morning of the fifth day, he got up early to leave; but the girl's father said, "Why don't you have something to eat, and leave this afternoon?" So the two men ate. <sup>9</sup> When the man got up to leave with his concubine and servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look, it's almost evening. Please stay the night — you see that it's getting late. Stay on, enjoy yourself, and tomorrow get going early on your way home." <sup>10</sup> But the man wouldn't stay that night; so he got up and left with his concubine and his two saddled donkeys; and they arrived at Y'vus, also known as Yerushalayim.

<sup>11</sup> By the time they arrived at Y'vus it was nearly evening; and the servant said to his master, "Why don't we go on into this city of the Y'vusi and stay there?" <sup>12</sup> But his master said to him, "We won't go into a city of foreigners which doesn't belong to the people of Isra'el. We'll go on across to Giv'ah." <sup>13</sup> He said to his servant, "Let's go, and we'll get to one of those places; we'll stay in Giv'ah or Ramah." <sup>14</sup> So they went on and kept traveling, until the sun set on them near Giv'ah, which belongs to Binyamin. <sup>15</sup> There they turned off the road to go and stay in Giv'ah. He went in and sat down in the city's open space, since no one had offered his home for them to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup> In time, at nightfall, an old man came from his work in the field. He was from the Efrayim hills and was staying in Giv 'ah, although the residents were of Binyamin. <sup>17</sup> The old man looked up, saw the traveler in the city's open space and said, "Where are you going, and where are you coming from?" <sup>18</sup> He replied, "We're crossing from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah to the far side of the Efrayim hills. That's where I'm from. I went to Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah, and now I'm going to the house of ADONAI; but there's no one here who will let me spend the night in his home. <sup>19</sup> We have straw and food for our donkeys, also bread and wine for me, my concubine and the boy there with your servants; we don't need anything else." <sup>20</sup> The old man said, "You're welcome to stay with me. I'll take care of anything you lack; just don't spend the night out in the open." <sup>21</sup> So he brought him home and gave food to the donkeys. Then they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

<sup>22</sup> They were relaxing, when suddenly some men from the city, good-for-nothings, surrounded the house and began beating at the door. "Send out the man who came home with you!" they demanded of the old man whose house it was. "We want to have sex with him!" <sup>23</sup> The man whose house it was went out and said to them, “No, my brothers, please don’t do anything as wrong as this. Look, he’s just a guest in my house; don’t do this degrading thing. <sup>24</sup> Here’s my daughter, who’s a virgin, and his concubine. I’ll bring them out. Mistreat them, do what you want to them, but don’t do such a degrading thing to this man.” <sup>25</sup> However, the men wouldn’t listen to him; so the man took hold of his concubine and brought her out to them. They raped her and abused her all night long; only at dawn did they let her go. <sup>26</sup> At daybreak the woman came and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her husband was, and she was still there when it grew light. <sup>27</sup> When her husband got up, opened the doors of the house, and went out to go on his way, he saw the woman lying there with her hands stretched out toward the door. <sup>28</sup> He said to her, “Get up! Let’s go!” But there was no answer. So he loaded her body on the donkey and began his trip home. <sup>29</sup> On arrival at his house, he got a knife, took hold of his concubine’s body, cut her up into twelve pieces, and sent them to all the regions of Isra’el. <sup>30</sup> Everyone who saw it said, “From the day the people of Isra’el came up from Egypt until now, never has such a thing happened or been seen. What are we going to do about it? Talk it over and decide.”

20 <sup>1</sup> All the people of Isra’el came out, from Dan to Be’er-sheva, including Gil’ad; the community assembled with one accord before ADONAI at Mitzpah. <sup>2</sup> The leaders of all the tribes of Isra’el presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, 400,000 foot soldiers armed with swords. <sup>3</sup> Now the people of Binyamin heard that the people of Isra’el had gone up to Mitzpah. The people of Isra’el said, “Tell us, how was this crime committed?” <sup>4</sup> The Levi, the husband of the murdered woman, answered, “I came to Giv’ah, which belongs to Binyamin, I and my concubine, to stay the night; <sup>5</sup> and the men in Giv’ah attacked me and surrounded the house I was staying in at night. They wanted to kill me, but instead they raped my concubine to death. <sup>6</sup> I took my concubine’s body, cut it into pieces and sent them throughout all the territories belonging to Isra’el; because they committed a shockingly obscene and degrading crime in Isra’el. <sup>7</sup> Look, you are all people of Isra’el. So discuss what to do, and give your advice here and now.”

<sup>8</sup> All the people stood up in agreement and said, “None of us will go home to his tent or his house. <sup>9</sup> What we will do now to Giv’ah is this: we’ll draw lots, <sup>10</sup> we'll take ten men out of each hundred throughout all the tribes of Isra'el, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand to collect food for the others. When these come to Giv'ah in Binyamin, they will avenge the crime that was committed." <sup>11</sup> Thus all the men of Isra'el, joined together in complete agreement, assembled to attack the city.

<sup>12</sup> The tribes of Isra'el sent men throughout all the tribe of Binyamin with this message: "What is this crime committed by some of your people?" <sup>13</sup> Turn over these good-for-nothings who are in Giv'ah at once, so that we can execute them and rid Isra'el of such evil." But the people of Binyamin refused to obey the order of their kinsmen the people of Isra'el. <sup>14</sup> Instead the people of Binyamin gathered themselves together from their cities and went to Giv'ah to fight the people of Isra'el. <sup>15</sup> On that day there were 26,000 men from Binyamin armed with swords, besides the inhabitants of Giv'ah, who numbered 700 specially chosen men. <sup>16</sup> All of these 700 specially picked men were left-handed, and every one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

<sup>17</sup> The army of Isra' el, apart from Binyamin, numbered 400,000 men with swords; they were all experienced soldiers. <sup>18</sup> The army of Isra'el began by going up to Beit-El, where they asked God, "Who should go up first to attack the army of Binyamin?" ADONAI said, "Y'hudah first." <sup>19</sup> So the army of Isra'el got up in the morning and set up their camp near Giv'ah. <sup>20</sup> Then the army of Isra'el went out to attack Binyamin and set up their battle line in front of Giv'ah. <sup>21</sup> But the army of Binyamin came out of Giv'ah and slaughtered the army of Isra'el; on that day 22,000 men fell. <sup>22</sup> The people, the men of Isra'el, restored their morale and again positioned themselves for battle where they had been the first day. <sup>23</sup> Then the army of Isra'el went up and cried before ADONAI until evening. They asked ADONAI, "Should we attack our kinsmen the people of Binyamin again? ADONAI answered, "Attack them."

<sup>24</sup> So the army of Isra'el went out to attack the army of Binyamin the second day. <sup>25</sup> But Binyamin went out against them from Giv'ah the second day and slaughtered the army of Isra'el; 18,000 men armed with swords fell. <sup>26</sup> Then the whole army of Isra'el, all the people, went up to Beit-El and cried and sat there in the presence of ADONAI. They fasted that day until evening, offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to ADONAI, <sup>27</sup> and asked ADONAI what to do. The ark for the covenant of God was there at that time; <sup>28</sup>

and Pinchas the son of El'azar, the son of Aharon, stood before it at that time. They asked, "Should we still go out to battle again against our kinsmen the people of Binyamin, or should we stop?" ADONAI answered, "Attack, because tomorrow I will hand them over to you."

<sup>29</sup> Isra'el hid some men around Giv'ah, <sup>30</sup> and on the third day Isra'el attacked the army of Binyamin and took a position against Giv'ah as they had the other times. <sup>31</sup> Again the army of Binyamin went out against the people. Lured away from the city, they began attacking and killing some of the people, as they had the other times — they killed about thirty men of Isra'el in the countryside and on the roads, one of which goes up to Beit-El and the other to Giv'ah. <sup>32</sup> The army of Binyamin said, "They're defeated, just as before." But the army of Isra'el said, "Let's run off and draw them away from the city onto the roads." <sup>33</sup> All the men of Isra'el left their places and took up a battle position at Ba'al-Tamar, while the other Isra'el men burst out of their hiding places at Ma'areh-Geva. <sup>34</sup> Ten thousand men chosen out of all Isra'el came over to attack Giv'ah, and the combat was intense. But the army of Binyamin didn't know that they were about to be defeated. <sup>35</sup> For ADONAI routed Binyamin in Isra'el's presence; that day the army of Isra'el destroyed 25,100 men of Binyamin, all of whom carried swords; <sup>36</sup> and the people of Binyamin realized that they had been beaten.

The men of Isra'el, trusting the ones they had put in place to ambush Binyamin, gave ground to the men of Binyamin. <sup>37</sup> Then the men who had been lying in wait rushed in on Giv'ah, drew their swords and destroyed the city. <sup>38</sup> The army of Isra'el and the ambushers had agreed that as a signal they would make a huge cloud of smoke rise from the city, <sup>39</sup> at which time the men of Isra'el would turn back. When this happened, Binyamin began to attack. They killed about thirty of Isra'el's men and said, "Clearly we're defeating them again, as in the first battle." <sup>40</sup> But when the smoke signal began rising from the city, the men of Binyamin looked behind them and saw the whole city going up to the sky in smoke. <sup>41</sup> Then, as the men of Isra'el reversed direction, those of Binyamin were overcome with terror. When they saw that disaster had come upon them, <sup>42</sup> they turned their backs on the men of Isra'el and made for the road to the desert. But the battle followed them, and those who came out of the city destroyed them from the rear. <sup>43</sup> They surrounded the men of Binyamin, chased them and trampled them down across from Giv'ah on the east. <sup>44</sup> Eighteen thousand men of Binyamin fell, all of them experienced soldiers. <sup>45</sup> They turned and fled toward the desert to the Rock of Rimmon; and 5,000 of them were killed on the roads. They followed them to Gid'om and killed another 2,000. <sup>46</sup> Thus the total number from Binyamin who fell that day was 25,000 experienced, sword-bearing soldiers. <sup>47</sup> But 600 turned and fled toward the desert to the Rock of Rimmon, and lived there four months. <sup>48</sup> The men of Isra'el turned back on the people of Binyamin and killed them with the sword, the entire city, the cattle and everything they found. Moreover, they set on fire all the cities they encountered.

21 <sup>1</sup> The men of Isra'el had sworn in Mitzpah that none of them would let his daughter marry a man from Binyamin. <sup>2</sup> The people came to Beit-El and stayed there before God till evening crying out and weeping. <sup>3</sup> They said: "ADONAI, why has this come about in Isra'el? Why should there be today in Isra'el one tribe missing?" <sup>4</sup> The next day the people got up early, built an altar and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>5</sup> The people of Isra'el asked, "Who among the tribes of Isra'el did not come up to assemble before ADONAI? For they had made a great oath to put to death whoever didn't come up to ADONAI at Mitzpah. <sup>6</sup> The people of Isra'el became sorry for Binyamin their brother and said, "Today one tribe has been cut off from Isra'el. <sup>7</sup> How are we going to obtain wives for those who remain alive, since we've sworn by ADONAI that we won't let our daughters marry them?"

<sup>8</sup> Then they asked who from the tribes of Isra'el had not come up to ADONAI at Mitzpah and found that none had come from Yavesh-Gil'ad to the camp where the assembly was; <sup>9</sup> since when the people were counted, none of the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gil'ad were found there. <sup>10</sup> So the gathering sent 12,000 warriors there and ordered them, "Go, and put the people who live in Yavesh-Gil'ad to death with the sword, including women and children. <sup>11</sup> Completely destroy every man and every woman who has had sex with a man." <sup>12</sup> Among the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gil'ad they found 400 young virgins who had not known a man by lying with him, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Kena'an.

<sup>13</sup> Then the whole gathering sent a message proclaiming peace to the people of Binyamin who were at the Rock of Rimmon. <sup>14</sup> So Binyamin returned at that time, and the people of Isra'el gave them the women they had kept alive of the women from Yavesh-Gil'ad. But those weren't enough for them. <sup>15</sup> The people were still sorry for Binyamin because A<sub>DONAI</sub> had made a division among the tribes of Isra'el.

<sup>16</sup> The leaders of the assembly asked, "What are we to do for those who still don't have wives, inasmuch as all the women of Binyamin have been killed?" <sup>17</sup> They said, "There has to be a way to help the survivors preserve Binyamin's inheritance, so that a tribe will not be eliminated from Isra'el. <sup>18</sup> Yet we can't give them our daughters as wives." For the people of Isra'el had sworn, "Cursed be whoever gives a wife to Binyamin."

<sup>19</sup> Then they said, "Look, each year there's a festival in honor of A<sub>DONAI</sub> in Shiloh, north of Beit-El, on the east side of the road that goes up from Beit-El to Sh'khem, and south of Levonah." <sup>20</sup> They ordered the men of Binyamin, "Go, hide in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup> and keep watch. If the girls of Shiloh come out to do their dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each of you catch for himself a wife from the Shiloh girls, and go on to the land of Binyamin. <sup>22</sup> When their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, 'Give them as a personal favor to us, because we didn't take wives for each of them in battle. You didn't give them to them; that would have made you guilty of breaking your oath.'" <sup>23</sup> So the men of Binyamin did this — they took wives for themselves from the girls who were dancing, as many as they needed. They carried them off, went back to the land of their inheritance, rebuilt the cities and lived in them. <sup>24</sup> The people of Isra'el then left that place, each man returned to his tribe and family, and each man went out from there to the land he had inherited.

<sup>25</sup> At that time there was no king in Isra'el; a man simply did whatever he thought was right.

Sh'mu'el Alef

1 SAMUEL

1<sup>1</sup> There was a man from Ramatayim-Tzofim, in the hills of Efrayim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Yerocham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tochu, the son of Tzuf, from Efrat. <sup>2</sup> He had two wives, one named Hannah and the other P'ninah. P'ninah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup> This man went up from his city every year to worship and sacrifice to ADONAI-Tzva'ot in Shiloh. The two sons of 'Eli, Hofni and Pinchas, were cohanim of ADONAI there.

<sup>4</sup> One day, when Elkanah was sacrificing, he gave a portion of the sacrifice to his wife P'ninah and portions to each of her sons and daughters; <sup>5</sup> but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved Hannah, even though ADONAI had kept her from having children. <sup>6</sup> Her rival taunted her and made her feel bad, because ADONAI had kept her from having children. <sup>7</sup> He did the same every year; and each time she went up to the house of ADONAI, she taunted her so much that she would cry and not eat. <sup>8</sup> Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why are you crying, and why aren't you eating? Why be so sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?" <sup>9</sup> So Hannah got up after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. 'Eli the cohen was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of the temple of ADONAI. <sup>10</sup> In deep depression she prayed to ADONAI and cried.

<sup>11</sup> Then she took a vow; she said, "ADONAI-Tzva'ot, if you will notice how humiliated your servant is, if you will remember me and not forget your servant but will give your servant a male child, then I will give him to ADONAI for as long as he lives; and no razor will ever come on his head." <sup>12</sup> She prayed for a long time before ADONAI; and as she did so, 'Eli was watching her mouth. <sup>13</sup> Hannah was speaking in her heart — her lips moved, but her voice could not be heard — so 'Eli thought she was drunk. <sup>14</sup> 'Eli said to her, "How long are you going to stay drunk? Stop drinking your wine!" <sup>15</sup> But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a very unhappy woman. I have not drunk either wine or other strong liquor; rather, I've been pouring out my soul before ADONAI. <sup>16</sup> Don't think of your servant as a worthless woman; because I have been speaking from the depth of my distress and anger.”<sup>17</sup> Then ‘Eli replied, “Go in peace. May the God of Isra’el grant what you have asked of him.”<sup>18</sup> She replied, “May your servant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went on her way, and she ate, and her face was no longer sad.<sup>19</sup> They got up early in the morning and worshipped before ADONAI, then returned and came to their house in Ramah.

Elkanah had sexual relations with Hannah his wife, and ADONAI remembered her.<sup>20</sup> She conceived; and in due time she gave birth to a son, whom she named Sh’mu’el, “because I asked ADONAI for him.”*

<sup>21</sup> The husband, Elkanah, went up with all his household to offer the yearly sacrifice to ADONAI and fulfill his vow.<sup>22</sup> But Hannah did not go up, explaining to her husband, “Not till the child has been weaned. Then I will bring him, so that he can appear before ADONAI and live there forever.”<sup>23</sup> Her husband Elkanah answered her, “Do what seems good to you; stay here until you have weaned him. Only may ADONAI bring about what he said.” So the woman stayed behind and nursed the child, until she weaned him.<sup>24</sup> After weaning him, she took him up with her, along with three young bulls, a bushel of flour and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of ADONAI in Shiloh, even though he was just a child.<sup>25</sup> After the bull had been slaughtered, the child was brought to ‘Eli;<sup>26</sup> and she said, “My lord, as surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here near you, praying to ADONAI.<sup>27</sup> I prayed for this child, and ADONAI has granted the request I asked of him.<sup>28</sup> Therefore, I too have loaned him to ADONAI — as long as he lives, he is on loan to ADONAI.” And he prostrated himself there before ADONAI.

2<sup>1</sup> Then Hannah prayed; she said:

“My heart exults in ADONAI!

My dignity has been restored by ADONAI!

I can gloat over my enemies,

because of my joy at your saving me.

<sup>2</sup> “No one is as holy as ADONAI, because there is none to compare with you,

no rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup> “Stop your proud boasting!

Don’t let arrogance come from your mouth!

For ADONAI is a God of knowledge, and he appraises actions.

<sup>4</sup> The bows of the mighty are broken, while the feeble are armed with strength.

<sup>5</sup> The well-fed hire themselves for bread, while those who were hungry hunger no more.

The barren woman has borne seven,

while the mother of many wastes away.

<sup>6</sup> “ADONAI kills and makes alive;

he brings down to the grave, and he brings up.

<sup>7</sup> ADONAI makes poor, and he makes rich;

he humbles, and he exalts.

<sup>8</sup> He raises the poor from the dust, lifts up the needy from the trash pile;

he gives them a place with leaders and assigns them seats of honor.

“For the earth’s pillars belong to ADONAI;

on them he has placed the world.

<sup>9</sup> He will guard the steps of his faithful,

but the wicked will be silenced in darkness.

For it is not by strength that a person prevails —

<sup>10</sup> those who fight ADONAI will be shattered;

he will thunder against them in heaven —

ADONAI will judge the ends of the earth.

He will strengthen his king and enhance the power of his anointed.”

<sup>11</sup> Elkanah went home to Ramah, while the child began ministering to ADONAI under the direction of ‘Eli the cohen.

<sup>12</sup> ‘Eli’s sons were scoundrels who had no regard for ADONAI. <sup>13</sup> The rule these cohanim followed in dealing with the people was that when anyone offered a sacrifice, the cohen’s servant would come, while the meat was stewing, with a three-pronged fork in his hand. <sup>14</sup> He would stick it in the pan, kettle, caldron or pot; and the cohen would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is how they dealt with all the people of Isra’el who came there to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup> The cohen’s servant would actually come before the fat had burned to smoke and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give the cohen meat he can roast; because he doesn’t want your meat stewed, but raw.” <sup>16</sup> If the man answered, “First let the fat burn to smoke, then take as much as you want,” he would say, “No, give it to me now, or I’ll take it by force.” <sup>17</sup> The sin of these young men was very serious in ADONAI’s view, because they treated offerings made to ADONAI with contempt.

<sup>18</sup> But Sh'mu'el ministered in the presence of ADONAI, wearing a linen ritual vest even though he was only a child. <sup>19</sup> Each year his mother would make him a little coat and bring it when she came up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice. <sup>20</sup> 'Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, "May ADONAI give you children from this woman because of the boy you have loaned to ADONAI"; then they would go home. <sup>21</sup> So ADONAI took notice of Hannah, and she conceived and bore three more sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Sh'mu'el grew in the presence of ADONAI.

<sup>22</sup> When 'Eli was very old, he heard about everything his sons were doing to all Isra'el, and that they were having sex with the women doing service at the door of the tent of meeting. <sup>23</sup> He asked them, "Why are you doing things like this? I am hearing bad reports about you from all these people. <sup>24</sup> No, my sons, I don't hear ADONAI's people spreading a single good report! <sup>25</sup> If a person commits a sin against another person, the judges can mediate between them. But if a person commits a sin against ADONAI, who can intercede for him?" However, they wouldn't pay attention to what their father said, because ADONAI had decided to kill them.

<sup>26</sup> The child Sh'mu'el kept growing and gaining favor both with ADONAI and with people.

<sup>27</sup> A man of God came to 'Eli and told him, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Didn't I reveal myself to your ancestor's clan when they were in Egypt, serving as slaves in Pharaoh's household? <sup>28</sup> Didn't I choose him out of all the tribes of Isra'el to be my cohen, go up to my altar, burn incense and wear a ritual vest in my presence? Didn't I assign to your ancestor's clan all the offerings of the people of Isra'el made by fire? <sup>29</sup> So why are you showing such disrespect for my sacrifices and offerings, which I ordered to be made at my dwelling? Why do you show more honor to your sons than to me, making yourselves fat with the choicest parts of all the offerings of Isra'el my people?'

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore ADONAI the God of Isra'el says, 'I did indeed say that your family and your father's family would walk in my presence forever.' But now ADONAI says, 'Forget it! I respect those who respect me, but those who despise me will meet with contempt. <sup>31</sup> The day is coming when I will break your strength and the strength of your father's family, so that no one in your family will live to old age. <sup>32</sup> At a time when Isra'el is prospering, you will see a rival in my Dwelling; and never will anyone in your family live to old age. <sup>33</sup> Still, I won't cut off every one of your men from my altar; because that would make your eyes grow dim, and you would waste away. Nevertheless, all your descendants will die young. <sup>34</sup> Your sign that this will occur will be what happens to your two sons Hofni and Pinchas — they will both die on the same day. <sup>35</sup> I will raise up for myself a faithful cohen who will do what I want and what I intend. I will make his family faithful, and he will serve in the presence of my anointed one forever. <sup>36</sup> Everyone left in your family will come, prostrate himself before him for a silver coin or a loaf of bread, and say, “Please, won’t you give me some work as a cohen, so I can have a scrap of bread to eat?””

3 <sup>1</sup> The child Sh’mu’el continued ministering to ADONAI under ‘Eli’s direction. Now, in those days ADONAI rarely spoke, and visions were few. <sup>2</sup> Once, during that period, ‘Eli had gone to bed — his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that it was hard for him to see. <sup>3</sup> The lamp of God had not yet gone out; and Sh’mu’el had lain down to sleep in the sanctuary of ADONAI, where the ark of God was.

<sup>4</sup> ADONAI called, “Sh’mu’el!” and he answered, “Here I am.” <sup>5</sup> Then he ran to ‘Eli and said, “Here I am — you called me?” But he said, “I didn’t call you; go back, and lie down.” So he went and lay down. <sup>6</sup> ADONAI called a second time, “Sh’mu’el!” Sh’mu’el got up, went to ‘Eli and said, “Here I am — you called me.” He answered, “I didn’t call, my son; lie down again.” <sup>7</sup> Now Sh’mu’el didn’t yet know ADONAI; the word of ADONAI had not yet been revealed to him. <sup>8</sup> ADONAI called, “Sh’mu’el!” again, a third time. He got up, went to ‘Eli and said, “Here I am — you called me.” At last ‘Eli realized it was ADONAI calling the child. <sup>9</sup> So ‘Eli said to Sh’mu’el, “Go, and lie down. If you are called again, say, ‘Speak, ADONAI; your servant is listening.’ Sh’mu’el went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup> ADONAI came and stood, then spoke as at the other times: “Sh’mu’el! Sh’mu’el!” Then Sh’mu’el said, “Speak; your servant is listening.” <sup>11</sup> ADONAI said to Sh’mu’el, “Look! I am going to do something in Isra’el that will make both ears of everyone who hears about it tingle. <sup>12</sup> On that day I will do against ‘Eli everything I have said with regard to his family, from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup> For I have told him that I will execute judgment against his family forever, because of his wickedness in not rebuking his sons, even though he knew that they had brought a curse on themselves. <sup>14</sup> Therefore I have sworn to the family of 'Eli that the wickedness of 'Eli's family will never be atoned for by any sacrifice or offering."

<sup>15</sup> Sh'mu'el lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of ADONAI. But Sh'mu'el was afraid to tell 'Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup> Then 'Eli called Sh'mu'el: "Sh'mu'el, my son!" He answered, "Here I am." <sup>17</sup> 'Eli said, "What did he say to you? Please, don't hide it from me; may God do whatever he said and worse, if you hide from me anything he said to you." <sup>18</sup> So Sh'mu'el told him every word and hid nothing. 'Eli replied, "It is ADONAI; let him do what seems good to him."

<sup>19</sup> Sh'mu'el kept growing, ADONAI was with him, and he let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup> All Isra'el from Dan to Be'er-Sheva became aware that Sh'mu'el had been confirmed as a prophet of ADONAI. <sup>21</sup> ADONAI continued appearing in Shiloh, for ADONAI revealed himself to Sh'mu'el in Shiloh by the word of ADONAI.

4 <sup>1</sup> So the word of Sh'mu'el came to all Isra'el.

Isra'el went out to fight against the P'lishtim, setting up camp at Even-'Ezer, while the P'lishtim camped at Afek. <sup>2</sup> The P'lishtim drew up in battle formation against Isra'el. The battle was fierce, and Isra'el was beaten by the P'lishtim — they killed about four thousand soldiers on the battlefield. <sup>3</sup> When the army had returned to camp, the leaders of Isra'el asked, "Why has ADONAI defeated us today before the P'lishtim? Let's bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI from Shiloh to us, so that he will come among us and save us from our enemies." <sup>4</sup> So the people sent to Shiloh and brought from there the ark for the covenant of ADONAI-Tzva'ot, who is present above the k'ruvim. The two sons of 'Eli, Hofni and Pinchas, were there with the ark for the covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup> When the ark for the covenant of ADONAI entered the camp, all Isra'el gave a mighty shout that resounded through the land. <sup>6</sup> On hearing the shout, the P'lishtim asked, "What does this great shout in the Hebrews' camp mean?" Then they realized that the ark of ADONAI had arrived in the camp, <sup>7</sup> and the P'lishtim became afraid. They said, "God has entered the camp! We're lost! There was no such thing yesterday or the day before. <sup>8</sup> We're lost! Who will rescue us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods that completely overthrew the Egyptians in the desert. <sup>9</sup> Be strong; and behave like men, you P'lishtim; so that you won't become slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Behave like men, and fight!”

<sup>10</sup> The P’lishtim fought, Isra’ el was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. It was a terrible slaughter — 30,000 of Isra’el’s foot soldiers fell. <sup>11</sup> Moreover, the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of ‘Eli, Hofni and Pinchas, died. <sup>12</sup> One of the soldiers, a man from Binyamin, ran and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes torn and earth on his head [as a sign of mourning]. <sup>13</sup> As he arrived, ‘Eli was sitting on his seat by the road, watching; because he was trembling with anxiety over the ark of God. When the man entered the city and told the news, the whole city began crying out. <sup>14</sup> On hearing the cries, ‘Eli asked, “What does this uproar mean?” So the man hurried, came to ‘Eli and told him. <sup>15</sup> ‘Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his gaze was fixed, because he was blind. <sup>16</sup> The man said to ‘Eli, “I’m the soldier that came; I escaped today from the battlefield.” He asked, “How did things go, my son?” <sup>17</sup> The one who had come with the news answered, “Isra’el fled before the P’lishtim, and there was a terrible slaughter among the people. Your two sons, Hofni and Pinchas, also are dead; and the ark of God was captured. <sup>18</sup> As soon as he mentioned what had happened to the ark of God, ‘Eli fell backward off his seat next to the gate, broke his neck and died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Isra’el forty years.

<sup>19</sup> His daughter-in-law, Pinchas’s wife, was pregnant and near delivery-time. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and husband were dead, she went into abnormal labor, bent over and gave birth. <sup>20</sup> As she was dying, the women standing by her said to her, “Don’t be afraid, because you have given birth to a son.” But she didn’t answer or show any sign of recognition. <sup>21</sup> She named the child I-Khavod [without glory], saying, “The glory has departed from Isra’el”; because the ark of God had been captured, and because of her father-in-law and husband. <sup>22</sup> She said, “The glory of Isra’el has gone into exile, because the ark of God has been captured.”

5 <sup>1</sup> The P’lishtim had captured the ark of God and brought it from Even-‘Ezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup> Then the P’lishtim took the ark of God, brought it to the temple of Dagon and set it next to Dagon. <sup>3</sup> But early the next morning, when the people of Ashdod got up, there was Dagon, fallen down with his face to the ground before the ark of ADONAI. They took Dagon and set him in his place again; <sup>4</sup> but early the following morning, when they got up, Dagon was again fallen down with his face to the ground before the ark of ADONAI; this time, the head of Dagon and both hands lay there, severed, on the threshold; all that was left of Dagon was his torso. <sup>5</sup> This is why, to this day, the priests of Dagon and those entering his temple never walk on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod.

<sup>6</sup> ADONAI began oppressing the people of Ashdod; he ravaged them, striking Ashdod and its surrounding area with tumors. <sup>7</sup> When the people of Ashdod came to understand what was happening, they said, “The ark of the God of Isra’el can’t remain with us, because he is oppressing us and our god Dagon.” <sup>8</sup> They summoned all the leaders of the P’lishtim and asked, “What are we to do with the ark of the God of Isra’el?” They answered, “Have the ark of the God of Isra’el carried to Gat.”

So they carried the ark of the God of Isra’el to Gat. <sup>9</sup> But after it arrived there, ADONAI oppressed that city, causing terrible panic. He struck the people of the city, great and small alike; tumors broke out on them.

<sup>10</sup> Next they sent the ark of God to ‘Ekron; but when the ark of God arrived in ‘Ekron the ‘Ekronim shouted, “Now they’ve brought the ark of the God of Isra’el to us, to kill us and our people!” <sup>11</sup> So they summoned all the leaders of the P’lishtim and said, “Send the ark of the God of Isra’el away! Let it go back to its own place, so that it won’t kill us and our people!” — because death and panic pervaded the whole city; God’s oppression was very heavy there. <sup>12</sup> The people who didn’t die were struck with the tumors; and the city’s cries for help reached the skies.

6 <sup>1</sup> The ark of ADONAI was in the country of the P’lishtim for seven months. <sup>2</sup> The P’lishtim summoned the priests and soothsayers and asked them, “What are we to do with the ark of ADONAI? Tell us how to send it back where it belongs.” <sup>3</sup> They said, “If you do send off the ark of the God of Isra’el, don’t send it back empty, but return it with some sort of guilt offering for him. Then you will be cured, and you will learn why he has not stopped oppressing you.” <sup>4</sup> They asked, “What kind of guilt offering should we send him?” and they replied, “Five gold models of tumors and five gold rats, because that’s how many leaders the P’lishtim have, and you and your leaders all had the same illness. <sup>5</sup> So make models of your tumors and models of your rats that are infesting your land, and show respect to the God of Isra'el. Maybe he will stop oppressing you, your gods and your land. <sup>6</sup> Why be obstinate like the Egyptians and Pharaoh were? When he had done his work among them, didn't they let the people go? — and they left. <sup>7</sup> Now take and prepare yourselves a new cart and two milk-cows that have never been under a yoke. Harness the cows to the cart, but put their calves back in the shed. <sup>8</sup> Then take the ark of ADONAI and lay it on the cart. In a box next to it, put the gold objects you are sending back to him as a guilt offering. Then send it away to go off by itself, <sup>9</sup> but watch to see if it goes up the road to Beit-Shemesh in its own territory. If it does, he is responsible for this great tragedy; if not, we will know that it is not his oppression which has been over us, but that what has been happening to us has been only by chance."

<sup>10</sup> The men did it. They took two milk-cows, harnessed them to the cart and confined their calves to the shed. <sup>11</sup> Then they put the ark on the cart, along with the box containing the gold rats and the models of their tumors. <sup>12</sup> The cows made straight for the road to Beit-Shemesh and took that route, mooing as they went and turning off neither to the right nor to the left. The leaders of the P'lishtim followed them as far as the border of Beit-Shemesh.

<sup>13</sup> The people of Beit-Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley when they looked up and saw the ark. They were so happy to see it! <sup>14</sup> The cart entered the field of Y'hoshua the Beit-Shimshi and stood there by a big rock. They cut up the wood of the cart and offered up the cows as a burnt offering to ADONAI. <sup>15</sup> Then the L'vi'im removed the ark of ADONAI and the box that was with it, which contained the gold objects, and put them on the big rock. That same day the men of Beit-Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrifices to ADONAI. <sup>16</sup> Upon seeing this, the five leaders of the P'lishtim returned that day to 'Ekron.

<sup>17</sup> The gold tumors which the P'lishtim sent back as a guilt offering for ADONAI were one each for Ashdod, 'Azah, Ashkelon, Gat and 'Ekron; <sup>18</sup> and the gold rats also corresponded to the number of all the cities of the P'lishtim that belonged to the five leaders — fortified cities and country villages. [The rock] is a witness to this day of the great mourning [which resulted from] putting the ark of ADONAI on it in the field of Y'hoshua the Beit-Shimshi; <sup>19</sup> for [ADONAI] struck the people of Beit-Shemesh for looking at the ark of ADONAI. He killed 50,070 of the people; the people mourned because ADONAI had struck them with such a terrible slaughter. <sup>20</sup> The people of Beit-Shemesh asked, “Who can stand before ADONAI, this holy God? To whom can we send it, to get it away from us?”

<sup>21</sup> They sent messengers to the people living in Kiryat-Ye‘arim with this message: “The P’lishtim have returned the ark of ADONAI. Come down and bring it back up with you.”

7 <sup>1</sup> So the men of Kiryat-Ye‘arim came and brought back the ark of ADONAI. They took it to the home of Avinadav on the hill and appointed his son El‘azar to guard the ark of ADONAI. <sup>2</sup> From the day that the ark arrived in Kiryat-Ye‘arim a long time elapsed, twenty years; and all the people of Isra‘el yearned for ADONAI.

<sup>3</sup> Sh’mu‘el addressed all the people of Isra‘el; he said: “If you are returning to ADONAI with all your heart, then be done with the foreign gods and ‘ashtarot that you have with you, and direct your hearts to ADONAI. If you will serve only him, he will rescue you from the power of the P’lishtim.” <sup>4</sup> So the people of Isra‘el banished the ba‘alim and the ‘ashtarot and served only ADONAI.

<sup>5</sup> Sh’mu‘el said, “Gather all Isra‘el to Mitzpah, and I will pray for you to ADONAI.” <sup>6</sup> So they gathered together at Mitzpah, drew water and poured it out before ADONAI, fasted that day, and said there, “We have sinned against ADONAI.” Sh’mu‘el began serving as judge over the people of Isra‘el at Mitzpah.

<sup>7</sup> When the P’lishtim heard that the people of Isra‘el had gathered together at Mitzpah, the leaders of the P’lishtim marched up against Isra‘el; and when the people of Isra‘el heard about this, they were afraid of the P’lishtim. <sup>8</sup> The people of Isra‘el said to Sh’mu‘el, “Don’t stop crying out to ADONAI our God for us, to save us from the power of the P’lishtim.” <sup>9</sup> Sh’mu‘el took a baby lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to ADONAI. Then Sh’mu‘el cried to ADONAI for Isra‘el, and ADONAI answered him. <sup>10</sup> As Sh’mu‘el was presenting the burnt offering, the P’lishtim advanced to attack Isra‘el. But this time, ADONAI thundered violently over the P’lishtim, throwing them into such confusion that they were struck down before Isra‘el. <sup>11</sup> The men of Isra‘el went out from Mitzpah, pursuing the P’lishtim and attacking them all the way to Beit-Kar.

<sup>12</sup> Sh’mu‘el took a stone, placed it between Mitzpah and Shen, and gave it the name Even-‘Ezer [stone of help], explaining, “ADONAI has helped us until now.” <sup>13</sup> Thus the P’lishtim were humbled, so that they no longer entered Isra’el’s territory; and the hand of ADONAI was against the P’lishtim as long as Sh’mu’el lived. <sup>14</sup> The cities between ‘Ekron and Gat which the P’lishtim had captured from Isra’el were restored to Isra’el, and Isra’el rescued all this territory from the power of the P’lishtim. There was also peace between Isra’el and the Emori.

<sup>15</sup> Sh’mu’el continued in office as judge of Isra’el as long as he lived. <sup>16</sup> Year by year he would travel in a circuit that included Beit-El, Gilgal and Mitzpah; and in all these places he served as judge over Isra’el. <sup>17</sup> Then he would return to Ramah, because that’s where his home was, and he would judge Isra’el there too. He also built an altar there to ADONAI.

8 <sup>1</sup> When Sh’mu’el grew old, he appointed his sons as judges over Isra’el. <sup>2</sup> His firstborn was named Yo’el, while his second son was named Aviyah; they were judges in Be’er-Sheva. <sup>3</sup> However, his sons did not follow his way of life; they turned off it to pursue riches, so that they would take bribes to distort justice. <sup>4</sup> All the leaders of Isra’el gathered themselves together, approached Sh’mu’el in Ramah <sup>5</sup> and said to him, “Look, you have grown old, and your sons are not following your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.” <sup>6</sup> Sh’mu’el was not pleased to hear them say, “Give us a king to judge us”; so he prayed to ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> ADONAI said to Sh’mu’el, “Listen to the people, to everything they say to you; for it is not you they are rejecting; they are rejecting me; they don’t want me to be king over them. <sup>8</sup> They are doing to you exactly what they have been doing to me, from the day I brought them out of Egypt until today, by abandoning me and serving other gods. <sup>9</sup> So do what they say, but give them a sober warning, telling them what kinds of rulings their king will make.”

<sup>10</sup> Sh’mu’el reported everything ADONAI had said to the people asking him for a king. <sup>11</sup> He said, “Here is the kind of rulings your king will make: he will draft your sons and assign them to take care of his chariots, be his horsemen and be bodyguards running ahead of his chariots. <sup>12</sup> He will appoint them to serve him as officers in charge of a thousand or of fifty, plowing his fields, gathering his harvest, and making his weapons and the equipment for his chariots. <sup>13</sup> He will take your daughters and have them be perfume-makers, cooks and bakers. <sup>14</sup> He will expropriate your fields, vineyards and olive groves — the very best of them! — and hand them over to his servants. <sup>15</sup> He will take the ten-percent tax of your crops and vineyards and give it to his officers and servants. <sup>16</sup> He will take your male and female servants, your best young men and your donkeys, and make them work for him. <sup>17</sup> He will take the ten-percent tax of your flocks, and you will become his servants. <sup>18</sup> When that happens, you will cry out on account of your king, whom you yourselves chose. But when that happens, ADONAI will not answer you!”

<sup>19</sup> However, the people refused to listen to what Sh’mu’el told them, and they said, “No! We want a king over us, <sup>20</sup> so that we can be like all the nations, with our king to judge us, lead us and fight our battles.” <sup>21</sup> Sh’mu’el heard everything the people said and repeated them for ADONAI to hear. <sup>22</sup> ADONAI said to Sh’mu’el, “Do what they ask, and set up a king for them.” So Sh’mu’el told the men of Isra’el, “Each of you, return to his city.”

9 <sup>1</sup> There was a man from Binyamin named Kish the son of Avi’el, the son of Tz’ror, the son of B’khorat, the son of Afiach, the son of a man from Binyamin. He was a man of substance and brave as well. <sup>2</sup> He had a son named Sha’ul who was young and good-looking; among the people of Isra’el there was no one better-looking than he; he stood head and shoulders taller than anyone else in Isra’el.

<sup>3</sup> Once the donkeys belonging to Kish Sha’ul’s father got lost. Kish said to his son Sha’ul, “Please take one of the servants with you, go out, and look for the donkeys.” <sup>4</sup> He went through the hills of Efrayim and the territory of Shalishah, but they didn’t find them. Then they went through the territory of Sha’alim, but they weren’t there. They went through the territory of Binyamin but didn’t find them there either. <sup>5</sup> On reaching the territory of Tzuf, Sha’ul said to his servant with him, “Come, let’s go back; otherwise my father will stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying about us.” <sup>6</sup> His servant replied, “Here now, there’s a man of God in this city, a man who is highly respected, and everything he says proves true. Let’s go to him; maybe he can tell us something about where we should go.” <sup>7</sup> “But look,” Sha’ul said to his servant, “if we go to the man, what can we bring him? We’ve used up all the bread in our packs, and there’s nothing for us to give the man of God — what do we have left?” <sup>8</sup> The servant replied again to Sha’ul: “See, I have here in my hand a silver quarter-shekel [one-tenth of an ounce]. I will give it to the man of God to tell us which way to go.” <sup>9</sup> (In Isra’el, back in the old days, when someone went to consult God, he would say, “Come, let’s go to the seer”; because a person now called a prophet used to be called a seer.) <sup>10</sup> “Well said,” Sha’ul answered his servant. “Come on, let’s go.”

So they went to the city where the man of God was. <sup>11</sup> Ascending the slope to the town they found girls going out to draw water and asked them, “Is the seer here?” <sup>12</sup> The girls answered them, “He’s here, he’s right ahead of you. Hurry now, he just came into the city today, because the people are sacrificing today at the high place. <sup>13</sup> Find him as soon as you enter the city, before he goes up to the high place to eat; because the people won’t eat until he comes and blesses the sacrifice. Afterwards, the ones invited will eat. So go on up, because this is when you will find him.”

<sup>14</sup> They went up to the city; and as they entered the city, there was Sh’mu’el coming out toward them to go up to the high place. <sup>15</sup> The day before Sha’ul arrived, ADONAI had given Sh’mu’el a revelation: <sup>16</sup> “Tomorrow at about this time I will send you a man from the territory of Binyamin. You are to anoint him prince over my people Isra’el. He will save my people from the power of the P’lishtim, because I have seen my people’s situation, and their cry of distress has come to me.” <sup>17</sup> When Sh’mu’el saw Sha’ul, ADONAI said to him, “Here is the man I told you about, the one who is going to govern my people.”

<sup>18</sup> Sha’ul approached Sh’mu’el in the gateway and said, “Please tell me where the seer’s house is.” <sup>19</sup> Sh’mu’el answered Sha’ul, “I’m the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place, because you are going to dine with me today. In the morning, I will let you leave; and I will tell you everything that is on your heart. <sup>20</sup> As for your donkeys that got lost three days ago, don’t worry about them; they’ve been found. Now, who is it that all Isra’el wants? Isn’t it you, and all your father’s household?” <sup>21</sup> Sha’ul replied, “I’m only a man from Binyamin, the smallest tribe in Isra’el; and my family is the least important of all the families in the tribe of Binyamin! Why are you saying such a thing to me?”

<sup>22</sup> Sh’mu’el took Sha’ul and his servant, brought them into the room and had them sit in the place reserved for the most important of the invited guests, who numbered about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup> Sh’mu’el instructed the cook, “Serve the portion I gave you and told you to set aside.” <sup>24</sup> The cook took the thigh and the adjoining meat and served it to Sha’ul. Sh’mu’el said, “Here, this is what remains! Put it in front of you and eat — it was kept especially for you until the right time; because I said, ‘I have invited the people.’” So Sha’ul dined with Sh’mu’el that day. <sup>25</sup> On coming down from the high place to the city, he spoke with Sha’ul on the roof.

<sup>26</sup> They got up early. About daybreak, Sh’mu’el called out to Sha’ul on the roof, “Get up, so I can send you on your way.” Sha’ul got up, and both of them — he and Sh’mu’el — went out. <sup>27</sup> As they were going down, at the edge of the city, Sh’mu’el said to Sha’ul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead”; so the servant went on. “But you, stand still now, because I want you to hear what God has said.”

10 <sup>1</sup> Then Sh’mu’el took a flask of oil he had prepared and poured it on Sha’ul’s head. He kissed him and said, “ADONAI has anointed you to be prince over his inheritance. <sup>2</sup> After you leave me today, you will find two men by Rachel’s Tomb, in the territory of Binyamin at Tzeltzah. They will tell you that the donkeys you were searching for have been found, and that your father has stopped thinking about the donkeys and is anxious over you and asking, ‘What am I to do about my son?’” <sup>3</sup> Go on from there, and you will come to the Oak of Tavor. Three men will meet you there on their way up to God at Beit-El. One of them will be carrying three kids, another three loaves of bread and the third a skin of wine. <sup>4</sup> They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you are to accept from them. <sup>5</sup> After that, you will come to Giv’ah of God, where the P’lishtim are garrisoned. On arrival at the city there, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place, preceded by lutes, tambourines, flutes and lyres; and they will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup> Then the Spirit of ADONAI will fall on you; you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man! <sup>7</sup> When these signs come over you, just do whatever you feel like doing, because God is with you. <sup>8</sup> Then you are to go down ahead of me to Gilgal, and there I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and present sacrifices as peace offerings. Wait there seven days, until I come to you and tell you what to do.”

<sup>9</sup> As it happened, as soon as he had turned his back to leave Sh’mu’el, God gave him another heart; and all those signs took place that day. <sup>10</sup> When they arrived at the hill, and there in front of him was a group of prophets, the Spirit of God fell on him and he prophesied along with them. <sup>11</sup> When those who knew him from before saw him there, prophesying with the prophets, they asked each other, “What’s happened to Kish’s son? Is Sha’ul a prophet, too?” <sup>12</sup> Someone in the crowd answered, “Must prophets’ fathers be special?” So it became an expression — “Is Sha’ul a prophet, too?”

<sup>13</sup> When he had finished prophesying, he arrived at the high place. <sup>14</sup> Sha’ul’s uncle said to him and his servant, “Where did you go?” He answered, “To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they hadn’t been found, we went to Sh’mu’el.” <sup>15</sup> “Tell me, please,” said Sha’ul’s uncle, “what Sh’mu’el said to you.” <sup>16</sup> Sha’ul answered his uncle, “He told us that the donkeys had been found,” but said nothing to him about the matter of his being made king.

<sup>17</sup> Sh’mu’el summoned the people to ADONAI in Mitzpah. <sup>18</sup> He said to the people of Isra’el, “Here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘I brought Isra’el up from Egypt. I rescued you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.’” <sup>19</sup> But today you have rejected your God, who himself saves you from all your disasters and distress. You have said to him, ‘No! Put a king over us!’ So now, present yourselves before ADONAI by your tribes and families.” <sup>20</sup> So Sh’mu’el had all the tribes come forward, and the tribe of Binyamin was chosen. <sup>21</sup> He had the tribe of Binyamin come forward by families, and the family of the Matri was chosen, and Sha’ul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he couldn’t be found. <sup>22</sup> They asked ADONAI, “Has the man come here?” ADONAI answered, “There he is, hiding, in among the equipment.” <sup>23</sup> They ran and brought him from there, and when he stood among the people he was head and shoulders taller than anyone around. <sup>24</sup> Sh’mu’el said to all the people, “Do you see the man ADONAI has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?” Then all the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25</sup> Sh’mu’el told the people what kinds of rulings should be made in the kingdom, then wrote it on a scroll and set it down before ADONAI. After that, he sent all the people away, everyone to his own home. <sup>26</sup> Sha’ul too went home to Giv’ah, accompanied by warriors whose hearts God had touched. <sup>27</sup> True, there were some scoundrels who said, “How can this man save us?” They showed him no respect and brought him no gift, but he held his peace.

11 <sup>1</sup> Then Nachash the ‘Amoni came up and set up camp to fight Yavesh-Gil’ad. All the men of Yavesh said to Nachash, “If you will make a treaty with us, we will be your subjects.”<sup>2</sup> Nachash the ‘Amoni replied, “I’ll do it on this condition: that all your right eyes be gouged out and thus bring disgrace on all of Isra’el.”<sup>3</sup> The leaders of Yavesh answered him, “Give us seven days’ grace to send messengers throughout Isra’el’s territory; then, if no one will rescue us, we will surrender to you.”

<sup>4</sup> The messengers came to Giv’ah, where Sha’ul lived, and said these words in the hearing of the people; and all the people cried out and wept.<sup>5</sup> As this was going on, Sha’ul came, following the oxen out of the field. Sha’ul asked, “What’s wrong with the people to make them cry like that?” They told him what the men from Yavesh had said.<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of God fell on Sha’ul when he heard this; blazing furiously with anger,<sup>7</sup> he seized a pair of oxen and cut them in pieces; then he sent them throughout the territory of Isra’el with messengers saying, “Anyone who doesn’t come and follow Sha’ul and Sh’mu’el, this is what will be done to his oxen!” The fear of ADONAI fell on the people, and they came out with united hearts.<sup>8</sup> He reviewed them in Bezek; there were 300,000 from the people of Isra’el; the men of Y’hudah numbered 30,000.<sup>9</sup> To the messengers that had come they said, “Tell the men of Yavesh-Gil’ad, ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have been rescued.’” The messengers returned and told the men of Yavesh; they were overjoyed.<sup>10</sup> Then the men of Yavesh said [to Nachash], “Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you can do with us whatever you like.”

<sup>11</sup> The next day Sha’ul divided the people into three companies. Then they entered the camp of the ‘Amoni during the morning watch and kept attacking until the heat of the day, until those who remained were so scattered that no two of them were left together.<sup>12</sup> The people said to Sh’mu’el, “Who are the men who said, ‘Is Sha’ul to rule over us?’ Hand them over to us, so we can put them to death.”<sup>13</sup> But Sha’ul said, “No one will be put to death today, because today ADONAI has rescued Isra’el.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Sh’mu’el said to the people, “Come, let’s go to Gilgal and inaugurate the kingship there.”<sup>15</sup> So all the people went to Gilgal; and there in Gilgal, before ADONAI, they made Sha’ul king. They presented sacrifices as peace offerings before ADONAI there, and there Sha’ul and all the people of Isra’el celebrated with great joy.

12 <sup>1</sup> Sh'mu'el said to all Isra'el, "Here, I have done everything you asked me to do — I have made a king over you. <sup>2</sup> There is the king, walking ahead of you; but I am old and gray-headed. There are my sons with you, and I have walked at your head from when I was a boy until today. <sup>3</sup> So here I am; now is the time to witness against me before ADONAI and before his anointed king. Does any of you think I have taken your ox or donkey, defrauded or oppressed you, or accepted a bribe to deprive you of justice? Tell me, and I will restore it to you." <sup>4</sup> They answered, "You haven't defrauded or oppressed us, and you have accepted nothing from anyone." <sup>5</sup> He said, "ADONAI is witness against you, and his anointed king is witness against you today, that you have found nothing in my hands?" They replied, "He is witness."

<sup>6</sup> Sh'mu'el said to the people, "It was ADONAI who appointed Moshe and Aharon and who brought your ancestors up from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> Now, hold still; because I am going to enter into judgment with you before ADONAI regarding all the righteous acts of ADONAI that he did for you and your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup> "After Ya'akov had entered Egypt, your ancestors cried to ADONAI; and ADONAI sent Moshe and Aharon, who brought your ancestors out of Egypt and had them live here in this place. <sup>9</sup> But they forgot ADONAI their God; so he handed them over to Sisra, commander of the army of Hatzor, and to the P'lishtim, and to the king of Mo'av; and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup> But they cried to ADONAI and said, 'We sinned by abandoning ADONAI and serving the ba'alim and 'ashtarot. But now, if you rescue us from the power of our enemies, we will serve you.' <sup>11</sup> So ADONAI sent Yeruba'al, B'dan, Yiftach and Sh'mu'el and rescued you from the power of your enemies on every side, and you lived securely. <sup>12</sup> When you saw that Nachash the king of the people of 'Amon was attacking you, you said to me, "No, we want a king to rule over us" — when ADONAI your God was your king. <sup>13</sup> Now, here's the king you have chosen, the one you asked for. See, ADONAI has put a king over you. <sup>14</sup> If you will fear ADONAI, serve him, obey what he says and not rebel against ADONAI's orders — if both you and the king ruling you remain followers of ADONAI your God — [then things will go well for you.] <sup>15</sup> But if you refuse to obey what ADONAI says and rebel against ADONAI's orders, then ADONAI will oppress both you and your leaders.

<sup>16</sup> "Now therefore, hold still; and see the great deed which ADONAI will perform before your very eyes. <sup>17</sup> Now is wheat harvest time, isn't it? I am going to call on ADONAI to send thunder and rain. Then you will understand and see how wicked from ADONAI's viewpoint is the thing you have done in asking for a king.”<sup>18</sup> Sh'mu'el called to ADONAI, and ADONAI sent thunder and rain that day. Then all the people became very much afraid of ADONAI and Sh'mu'el.<sup>19</sup> All the people said to Sh'mu'el, “Pray to ADONAI your God for your servants, so that we won't die; because to all our other sins now we've added this evil as well, asking for a king over us.”<sup>20</sup> Sh'mu'el answered the people, “Don't be afraid. You have indeed done all this evil; yet now, just don't turn away from following ADONAI; but serve ADONAI with all your heart.<sup>21</sup> Don't turn to the side; because then you would go after useless things that can neither help nor rescue, they are so futile.”<sup>22</sup> For the sake of his great reputation, ADONAI will not abandon his people; because it has pleased ADONAI to make you a people for himself.<sup>23</sup> As for me, far be it from me to sin against ADONAI by ceasing to pray for you! Rather, I will continue instructing you in the good and right way.<sup>24</sup> Only fear ADONAI, and serve him faithfully with all your heart; for think what great things he has done for you!<sup>25</sup> However, if you insist on doing wicked things, you will be swept away — both you and your king!”

13<sup>1</sup> Sha'ul was — years old<sup>2</sup> when he began his reign, and he had ruled Isra'el for two years,<sup>2</sup> when he chose three thousand of Isra'el's men. Two thousand of them were with Sha'ul in Mikhmas and in the hills of Beit-El, and a thousand were with Y'honatan in Giv'at-Binyamin. The rest of the people he sent back to their respective tents.

<sup>3</sup> Y'honatan assassinated the governor of the P'lishtim in Geva. The P'lishtim heard of it; so Sha'ul had the shofar sounded throughout the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!”<sup>4</sup> All Isra'el heard that Sha'ul had assassinated the governor of the P'lishtim and thus made Isra'el a stench in the nostrils of the P'lishtim. So the people rallied behind Sha'ul in Gilgal;<sup>5</sup> while the P'lishtim assembled themselves together to make war on Isra'el — 30,000 chariots, 6,000 horsemen and an army as large as the number of sand grains on the seashore. They came up and pitched camp at Mikhmas, east of Beit-Aven.<sup>6</sup> The men of Isra'el saw that their options were limited and that the people felt so hard pressed that they were hiding themselves in caves, thickets, crevices, watchtowers and cisterns;<sup>7</sup> while some of the Hebrews crossed the Yarden to the territory of Gad and Gil'ad. But Sha'ul

was still in Gilgal, where all the people were eager to follow him.<sup>8</sup> He waited seven days, as Sh'mu'el had instructed; but Sh'mu'el didn't come to Gilgal; so the army began to drift away from him.<sup>9</sup> Sha'ul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings," and he offered the burnt offering.<sup>10</sup> As soon as he had finished sacrificing the burnt offering, there was Sh'mu'el — he had come, and Sha'ul went out to meet and greet him.

<sup>11</sup> Sh'mu'el said, "What have you done?" Sha'ul answered, "I saw that the army was drifting away from me, that you hadn't come during the time appointed and that the P'lishtim had assembled at Mikhmas."<sup>12</sup> I said, 'Now the P'lishtim will fall on me at Gilgal, and I haven't asked the favor of ADONAI,' so I forced myself and offered the burnt offering."<sup>13</sup> Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "You did a foolish thing. You didn't observe the mitzvah of ADONAI, which he gave you. If you had, ADONAI would have set up your kingship over Isra'el forever."<sup>14</sup> But as it is, your kingship will not be established. ADONAI has sought for himself a man after his own heart, and ADONAI has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you did not observe what ADONAI ordered you to do."<sup>15</sup> Then Sh'mu'el left Gilgal and went up to Giv'at-Binyamin.

Sha'ul counted how many were still there with him, about 600 men.<sup>16</sup> Sha'ul, Y'honatan his son and the men with him took up quarters at Giv'at-Binyamin, while the P'lishtim remained in camp at Mikhmas.<sup>17</sup> Then raiding parties began coming out from the camp of the P'lishtim, three of them: one group turned toward the road leading to 'Ofrah in the territory of Shu'al;<sup>18</sup> another group took the road toward Beit-Horon; and another company took the road toward the desert through the territory overlooking Vadi Tzvo'im.

<sup>19</sup> Now there was no metalsmith to be found anywhere in all the land of Isra'el, because the P'lishtim had said, "We don't want the Hebrews making themselves swords or spears."<sup>20</sup> So whenever any of the people of Isra'el wanted to sharpen his hoe, plowshare, axe or pick, he had to go down to the P'lishtim,<sup>21</sup> where the exorbitant prices were two-thirds of a shekel for filing a pick or plowshare and one-third of a shekel for filing an axe or setting an oxgoad in its handle.<sup>22</sup> Thus when the time came to fight, no one in the army of Sha'ul and Y'honatan was equipped with either sword or spear; although Sha'ul and Y'honatan his son did have them.

<sup>23</sup> A garrison of the P'lishtim had gone out to the pass of Mikhmas.

14 <sup>1</sup> One day Y'honatan the son of Sha'ul said to the young man carrying his armor, "Come, let's go across to the garrison of the P'lishtim on the other side. But he didn't tell his father. <sup>2</sup> Sha'ul was waiting at the far edge of Giv'ah under the pomegranate tree in Migron; the force with him numbered about 600 men. <sup>3</sup> Achiyah the son of Achituv, I-Khavod's brother, the son of Pinchas the son of 'Eli, the cohen of ADONAI in Shiloh, was carrying a ritual vest. No one knew that Y'honatan had gone.

<sup>4</sup> Between the passes by which Y'honatan was trying to cross to the garrison of the P'lishtim, there was a rocky spur on one side and another rocky spur on the other side; the name of the one was Botzetz, and of the other, Seneh. <sup>5</sup> The one spur rose up on the north, in front of Mikhmas, and the other on the south, in front of Geva. <sup>6</sup> Y'honatan said to his armor-bearer, "Come on, let's go across to the garrison of these uncircumcised people. Maybe ADONAI will do something for us, since ADONAI can rescue with a few people as easily as with many." <sup>7</sup> His armor-bearer replied, "Do everything you think you should; I'm with you, whatever you decide." <sup>8</sup> Y'honatan said, "Here, we'll cross over to those men and let them know we're there. <sup>9</sup> If they say, 'Wait till we come to you,' we'll stand still where we are and not go up to them. <sup>10</sup> But if they say, 'Come up to us,' we'll go on up; and that will be the sign that ADONAI has given us victory over them."

<sup>11</sup> So both of them let their presence be known to the garrison of the P'lishtim; and the P'lishtim said, "Look, some Hebrews coming out of the holes they've been hiding in!" <sup>12</sup> Then the men of the garrison said to Y'honatan and his armor-bearer, "Come up to us; we want to show you something." Y'honatan told his armor-bearer, "Come on up after me, for ADONAI has handed them over to Isra'el." <sup>13</sup> Y'honatan climbed up, using his hands as well as his feet, with his armor-bearer behind him. The P'lishtim fell before Y'honatan, and his armor-bearer following him finished them off. <sup>14</sup> That first slaughter, of about twenty men, was accomplished by Y'honatan and his armor bearer in a space only half as long as one side of the area a pair of oxen could plow in a day [about 200 yards].

<sup>15</sup> There was panic in the field camp among all the P'lishtim; likewise, the garrison and the raiding party panicked. Besides all this, there was an earthquake; thus it grew into panic caused by God. <sup>16</sup> Sha'ul's men on watch in Giv'at-Binyamin could see the enemy camp scattering and running in all directions. <sup>17</sup> Sha'ul ordered the forces with him to call the roll and see who was missing. So they called the roll, and found Y'honatan and his armor-bearer not present. <sup>18</sup> Sha'ul told Achiyah, "Bring the ark of God here"; for at that time the ark of God was with the people of Isra'el. <sup>19</sup> But while Sha'ul was talking to the cohen, the uproar in the camp of the P'lishtim continued and kept getting louder. Sha'ul said to the cohen, "Put your hand down." <sup>20</sup> Sha'ul and the entire force with him assembled and went to battle, but they found the P'lishtim all fighting each other in utter confusion. <sup>21</sup> The Hebrews from the surrounding countryside who had previously been with the P'lishtim and had gone up with them into the camp deserted and went over to Isra'el with Sha'ul and Y'honatan. <sup>22</sup> Likewise, on hearing that the P'lishtim were fleeing, all the men of Isra'el who had hidden themselves in the hills of Efrayim pursued them in battle. <sup>23</sup> So ADONAI saved Isra'el that day, and the battle spread as far as Beit-Aven.

<sup>24</sup> Isra'el's soldiers had been driven to exhaustion that day; but Sha'ul issued this warning to the people: "A curse on any man who eats any food until evening, when I will have finished taking vengeance on my enemies." So none of the people even tasted food. <sup>25</sup> Now the people came to a forest where there was a honeycomb on the ground. <sup>26</sup> When the people had entered the forest, they saw there the honeycomb with honey dripping out; but no one put his hand to his mouth, because the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup> But Y'honatan hadn't heard his father charging the people with the oath, so he put out the end of the staff in his hand, dipped it in the honeycomb and raised it to his mouth; whereupon his eyes lit up. <sup>28</sup> But one of the people said in response, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, 'A curse on any man who eats any food today'; even though the people are fainting with hunger." <sup>29</sup> Y'honatan answered, "My father has brought trouble to the land. Just look how my eyes have lit up because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup> How much greater would the slaughter of the P'lishtim have been today, then, if the people had eaten freely of the spoil they found with their enemies!"

<sup>31</sup> That day they had attacked the P'lishtim from Mikhmas to Ayalon; but the people were very exhausted. <sup>32</sup> So the people rushed at the spoil, seizing sheep, cows and calves, slaughtering them on the ground, and eating the flesh with the blood. <sup>33</sup> Sha'ul was told, "Look how the people are sinning against ADONAI, eating with the blood." He said, "You have not kept faith! Roll a big stone to me immediately! <sup>34</sup> Now," Sha'ul said, "go around among the people and tell them, 'Each of you is to bring his cow and his sheep and slaughter them here. Then eat. Don't sin against ADONAI by eating with the blood.” So each person brought his animal with him that evening and killed it there. <sup>35</sup> Sha’ul erected an altar to ADONAI; it was the first altar that he erected to ADONAI.

<sup>36</sup> Sha’ul said, “Let’s go after the P’lishtim by night. We’ll plunder them until dawn; we won’t leave one of them alive.” They answered, “Do whatever seems good to you.” But the cohen said, “Let’s approach God here.” <sup>37</sup> Sha’ul consulted God: “Should I go down in pursuit of the P’lishtim? Will you hand them over to Isra’el?” But he didn’t answer him that day. <sup>38</sup> Sha’ul said, “Come here, all you heads of the people. Think carefully: who has committed this sin today? <sup>39</sup> For, as ADONAI Isra’el’s deliverer lives, even if it proves to be Y’honatan my son, he must be put to death.” But no one among all the people answered him. <sup>40</sup> Then he said to all Isra’el, “You be on one side, and I and Y’honatan my son will be on the other side.” The people replied to Sha’ul, “Do what seems good to you.” <sup>41</sup> Sha’ul said to ADONAI the God of Isra’el, “Who is right?” Y’honatan and Sha’ul were chosen by lot, and the people went free. <sup>42</sup> Sha’ul said, “Cast lots between me and Y’honatan my son.” Y’honatan was chosen. <sup>43</sup> Then Sha’ul said to Y’honatan, “Tell me what you did.” Y’honatan told him, “Yes, I tasted a little honey with the end of the staff in my hand. Here I am; I’m ready to die.” <sup>44</sup> Sha’ul said, “May God do the same to me and more also if you are not put to death, Y’honatan!” <sup>45</sup> But the people said to Sha’ul, “Must Y’honatan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Isra’el? Heaven forbid! As ADONAI lives, not one hair of his head will fall to the ground; because he worked with God today!” In this way the people rescued Y’honatan, so that he didn’t die. <sup>46</sup> Then Sha’ul stopped pursuing the P’lishtim, and the P’lishtim returned to their own territory.

<sup>47</sup> So Sha’ul took over the rulership of Isra’el. He fought against all his enemies on every side — against Mo’av, the people of ‘Amon, Edom, the kings of Tzovah and the P’lishtim. No matter which way he turned, he defeated them. <sup>48</sup> He demonstrated his strength by attacking ‘Amalek, and he saved Isra’el from the power of those who were plundering them.

<sup>49</sup> The sons of Sha’ul were Y’honatan, Yishvi and Malkishua, while the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the older, Merav, and of the younger, Mikhal. <sup>50</sup> Sha’ul’s wife was named Achino’am the daughter of Achima’atz; the commander of his army was named Avner the son of Ner, Sha’ul’s uncle. <sup>51</sup> Kish was the father of Sha’ul, and Ner the father of Avner was the son of Avi’el.

<sup>52</sup> As long as Sha'ul lived there was bitter war against the P'lishtim. Whenever Sha'ul saw any strong or courageous man, he recruited him into his service.

15 <sup>1</sup> Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "ADONAI sent me to anoint you king over his people, over Isra'el. Now listen to what ADONAI has to say. <sup>2</sup> Here is what ADONAI-Tzva'ot says: 'I remember what 'Amalek did to Isra'el, how they fought against Isra'el when they were coming up from Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Now go and attack 'Amalek, and completely destroy everything they have. Don't spare them, but kill men and women, children and babies, cows and sheep, camels and donkeys.'"

<sup>4</sup> Sha'ul summoned the people and reviewed them in T'la'im — 200,000 foot soldiers, with another 10,000 men from Y'hudah. <sup>5</sup> Sha'ul arrived at the city of 'Amalek and lay in wait in the valley. <sup>6</sup> Sha'ul said to the Keni, "Go away, withdraw, leave your homes there with the 'Amaleki. Otherwise, I might destroy you along with them, even though you were kind to all the people of Isra'el when they came out of Egypt." So the Keni went away from among the 'Amaleki. <sup>7</sup> Then Sha'ul attacked 'Amalek, starting at Havilah and continuing toward Shur, at the border of Egypt. <sup>8</sup> He took Agag the king of 'Amalek alive; but he completely destroyed the people, putting them to the sword. <sup>9</sup> However, Sha'ul and the people spared Agag, along with the best of the sheep and cattle, and even the second best, also the lambs, and everything that was good — they weren't inclined to destroy these things. But everything that was worthless or weak they completely destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> Then the word of ADONAI came to Sh'mu'el: <sup>11</sup> "I regret setting up Sha'ul as king, because he has turned back from following me and hasn't obeyed my orders." This made Sh'mu'el very sad, so that he cried to ADONAI all night. <sup>12</sup> Sh'mu'el got up early in the morning to meet Sha'ul; however, Sh'mu'el was told, "Sha'ul came to Karmel to set up a monument for himself there, but now he has left and is on his way down to Gilgal." <sup>13</sup> Sh'mu'el went to Sha'ul; Sha'ul said to him, "May ADONAI bless you! I have done what ADONAI ordered." <sup>14</sup> But Sh'mu'el answered, "If so, why do I hear sheep bleating and cows mooing?" <sup>15</sup> Sha'ul said, "They brought them from the 'Amaleki, because the people spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to ADONAI your God. But we completely destroyed the rest." <sup>16</sup> Then Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "Stop! I'm going to tell you what ADONAI said to me last night." He said, "Speak."<sup>17</sup> Sh'mu'el then said, "You may be small in your own sight, but you are head of the tribes of Isra'el — ADONAI anointed you king over Isra'el!<sup>18</sup> Now ADONAI sent you on a mission and told you, 'Go and completely destroy 'Amalek, those sinners; keep making war on them until they have been exterminated.'<sup>19</sup> Why did you seize the spoil instead of paying attention to what ADONAI said? From ADONAI's viewpoint, you have done an evil thing."<sup>20</sup> Sha'ul said to Sh'mu'el, "I did too pay attention to what ADONAI said, and I carried out the mission on which ADONAI sent me. I brought back Agag the king of 'Amalek, and I completely destroyed 'Amalek."<sup>21</sup> But the people took some of the spoil, the best of the sheep and cattle set aside for destruction, to sacrifice to ADONAI your God in Gilgal."<sup>22</sup> Sh'mu'el said,

"Does ADONAI take as much pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying what ADONAI says?
Surely obeying is better than sacrifice,
and heeding orders than the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup> "For rebellion is like the sin of sorcery, stubbornness like the crime of idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of ADONAI,
he too has rejected you as king."

<sup>24</sup> Sha'ul said to Sh'mu'el, "I have sinned. I violated the order of ADONAI and your words too, because I was afraid of the people and listened to what they said."<sup>25</sup> Now, please, pardon my sin; and come back with me, so that I can worship ADONAI."<sup>26</sup> But Sh'mu'el said to Sha'ul, "I will not go back with you, because you have rejected the word of ADONAI, and ADONAI has rejected you as king over Isra'el.” <sup>27</sup> As Sh'mu'el was turning around to leave, he took hold of the hem of his cloak, and it tore. <sup>28</sup> Sh'mu'el said to him, “ADONAI has torn the kingdom of Isra'el away from you today and given it to a fellow countryman of yours who is better than you. <sup>29</sup> Moreover, the Eternal One of Isra'el will not lie or change his mind, because he isn't a mere human being subject to changing his mind.” <sup>30</sup> Then Sha'ul said, “I have sinned; but in spite of that, please show me respect now before the leaders of my people and before Isra'el by coming back with me, so that I can worship ADONAI your God.” <sup>31</sup> So Sh'mu'el followed Sha'ul back, and Sha'ul worshipped ADONAI.

<sup>32</sup> Then Sh'mu'el said, “Bring Agag the king of 'Amalek here to me.” Agag came to him in chains and said, “Without doubt, mine will be a bitter death.” <sup>33</sup> Sh'mu'el said,

“Just as your sword has left women childless,
so will your mother be left childless among women.”

Then Sh'mu'el cut Agag in pieces before ADONAI in Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup> Sh'mu'el returned to Ramah, and Sha'ul went up to his house in Giv'at-Sha'ul. <sup>35</sup> Never again did Sh'mu'el see Sha'ul, until the day he died. But Sh'mu'el grieved over Sha'ul, and ADONAI regretted that he had made Sha'ul king over Isra'el.

16 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to Sh'mu'el, “How much longer are you going to go on grieving for Sha'ul, now that I have rejected him as king over Isra'el? Fill your horn with oil, and set out; I will send you to Yishai the Beit-Lachmi, because I have chosen myself a king from among his sons.” <sup>2</sup> Sh'mu'el said, “How can I go? If Sha'ul hears of it, he will have me killed.” ADONAI said, “Take a female cow with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to ADONAI.’” <sup>3</sup> Summon Yishai to the sacrifice. I will tell you what to do, and you are to anoint for me the person I point out to you.”

<sup>4</sup> Sh'mu'el did what ADONAI said and arrived at Beit-Lechem. The leaders of the city came trembling to meet him and asked, “Are you coming in peace?” <sup>5</sup> He answered, “In peace. I have come to sacrifice to ADONAI. Consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice.” He consecrated Yishai and his sons and summoned them to the sacrifice. <sup>6</sup> When they had come, he looked at Eli'av and said, "This has to be ADONAI's anointed one, here before him." <sup>7</sup> But ADONAI said to Sh'mu'el, "Don't pay attention to how he looks or how tall he is, because I have rejected him. ADONAI doesn't see the way humans see — humans look at the outward appearance, but ADONAI looks at the heart." <sup>8</sup> Then Yishai called Avinadav and presented him to Sh'mu'el; but he said, "ADONAI hasn't chosen this one either." <sup>9</sup> Yishai presented Shammah; again Sh'mu'el said, "ADONAI hasn't chosen this one either." <sup>10</sup> Yishai presented seven of his sons to Sh'mu'el; but Sh'mu'el told Yishai, "ADONAI has not chosen these. <sup>11</sup> Are all your sons here?" Sh'mu'el asked Yishai. He replied, "There is still the youngest; he's out there tending the sheep." Sh'mu'el said to Yishai, "Send and bring him back, because we won't sit down to eat until he gets here." <sup>12</sup> He sent and brought him in. With ruddy cheeks, red hair and bright eyes, he was a good-looking fellow. ADONAI said, "Stand up and anoint him; he's the one." <sup>13</sup> Sh'mu'el took the horn of oil and anointed him there in his brothers' presence. From that day on, the Spirit of ADONAI would fall upon David with power. So Sh'mu'el set out and went to Ramah.

<sup>14</sup> Now the Spirit of ADONAI had left Sha'ul; instead, an evil spirit from ADONAI would suddenly come over him. <sup>15</sup> Sha'ul's servants said to him, "Do you notice that there's an evil spirit from God that suddenly comes over you? <sup>16</sup> Let our lord now command your servants who are here with you to look for a man who knows how to play the lyre. Then, if the evil spirit from God comes over you, he will play; and it will do you good." <sup>17</sup> Sha'ul said to his servants, "Find me a man who can play well, and bring him to me." <sup>18</sup> One of the young men answered, "Here, I've seen one of the sons of Yishai the Beit-Lachmi who knows how to play. He's a brave soldier, he can fight, he chooses his words carefully and he's pleasant-looking. Besides, ADONAI is with him." <sup>19</sup> So Sha'ul sent messengers to Yishai saying, "Send me David your son, who is out with the sheep." <sup>20</sup> Yishai took a donkey, loaded it with bread, a skin of wine and a kid, and sent them with David his son to Sha'ul. <sup>21</sup> David came to Sha'ul and presented himself to him. Sha'ul took a great liking to him and made him his armor-bearer. <sup>22</sup> Sha'ul sent a message to Yishai: "Please let David stay in my service, because I'm pleased with him." <sup>23</sup> So it was that whenever the [evil] spirit from God came over Sha'ul, David would take the lyre and play it, with the result that Sha'ul would find relief and feel better, as the evil spirit left him.

17 <sup>1</sup> The P'lishtim rallied their troops for war, assembling at Sokhoh in Y'hudah and setting up camp between Sokhoh and 'Azekah in Efes-Damim. <sup>2</sup> Sha'ul and the men of Isra'el assembled, set up camp in the Elah Valley and drew up their battle line opposite the P'lishtim. <sup>3</sup> The P'lishtim occupied a position on one hill and Isra'el a position on another hill, with a valley between them.

<sup>4</sup> There came out a champion from the camp of the P'lishtim named Golyat, from Gat, who was nine feet nine inches tall. <sup>5</sup> He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he wore a bronze armor plate weighing 120 pounds. <sup>6</sup> He had bronze armor protecting his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> The shaft of his spear was as big as a weaver's beam, and the iron spearhead weighed fifteen pounds. His shield-bearer went ahead of him. <sup>8</sup> He stood and yelled at the armies of Isra'el, "Why come out and draw up a battle line? I'm a P'lishti, and you are servants of Sha'ul, so choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup> If he can fight me and kill me, we'll be your slaves; but if I beat him and kill him, you will become slaves and serve us." <sup>10</sup> The P'lishti added, "I challenge Isra'el's armies today — give me a man, and we'll fight it out!" <sup>11</sup> When Sha'ul and all Isra'el heard those words of the P'lishti, they were shaken and terrified.

<sup>12</sup> Now David was the son of that Efrati from Beit-Lechem in Y'hudah named Yishai. He had eight sons; and in the time of Sha'ul he was old — the years had taken their toll. <sup>13</sup> Yishai's three oldest sons had followed Sha'ul to battle; the names of his three sons who went to battle were Eli'av the firstborn, next to him Avinadav, and the third Shammah. <sup>14</sup> David was the youngest; the three oldest followed Sha'ul. <sup>15</sup> David went back and forth from Sha'ul to pasture his father's sheep at Beit-Lechem. <sup>16</sup> Meanwhile, the P'lishti approached with his challenge every morning and evening for forty days.

<sup>17</sup> Yishai said to David his son, "Please take your brothers five bushels of this roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread; hurry, and carry them to your brothers at the camp. <sup>18</sup> Also bring these ten cheeses to their field officer. Find out if your brothers are well, and bring back some token from them. <sup>19</sup> Sha'ul and your brothers, with all the army of Isra'el, are in the Elah Valley, fighting the P'lishtim."

<sup>20</sup> David got up early in the morning, left the sheep with a helper, took his load and set out, as Yishai had ordered him. He arrived at the barricade of the camp just as the troops were going out to their battle stations and shouting the war cry. <sup>21</sup> Isra'el and the P'lishtim had set up their battle lines facing each other. <sup>22</sup> David left his equipment in charge of the equipment guard, ran to the troops, went to his brothers and asked if they were well. <sup>23</sup> As he was talking with them, there came the champion, the P'lishti from Gat named Golyat, from the ranks of the P'lishtim, saying the same words as before; and David heard them. <sup>24</sup> When the soldiers from Isra'el saw the man, they all ran away from him, terrified. <sup>25</sup> The soldiers from Isra'el said [to each other], "You saw that man who just came up? He has come to challenge Isra'el. To whoever kills him, the king will give a rich reward; he'll also give him his daughter and exempt his father's family from all service and taxes in Isra'el." <sup>26</sup> David said to the men standing with him, "What reward will be given to the man who kills this P'lishti and removes this disgrace from Isra'el? Who is this uncircumcised P'lishti anyway, that he challenges the armies of the living God?" <sup>27</sup> The people answered with what they had been saying, adding, "That's what will be done for the man who kills him." <sup>28</sup> Eli'av his oldest brother heard when David spoke to the men, and it made Eli'av angry at him. He asked, "Why did you come down here? With whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is! You just came down to watch the fighting." <sup>29</sup> David said, "What have I done now? I only asked a question." <sup>30</sup> He turned away from him to someone else and asked the same question, and the people gave him the same answer.

<sup>31</sup> David's words were overheard and told to Sha'ul, who summoned him. <sup>32</sup> David said to Sha'ul, "No one should lose heart because of him; your servant will go and fight this P'lishti." <sup>33</sup> Sha'ul said to David, "You can't go to fight this P'lishti — you're just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth!" <sup>34</sup> David answered Sha'ul, "Your servant used to guard his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear would come and grab a lamb from the flock, <sup>35</sup> I would go after it, hit it, and snatch the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned on me, I would catch it by the jaw, smack it and kill it. <sup>36</sup> Your servant has defeated both lions and bears, and this uncircumcised P'lishti will be like one of them, because he has challenged the armies of the living God." <sup>37</sup> Then David said, "ADONAI, who rescued me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will rescue me from the paw of this P'lishti!" Sha'ul said to David, "Go; may ADONAI be with you."

<sup>38</sup> Sha'ul dressed David in his own armor — he put a bronze helmet on his head and gave him armor plate to wear. <sup>39</sup> David buckled his sword on his armor and tried to walk, but he wasn't used to such equipment. David said to Sha'ul, "I can't move wearing these things, because I'm not used to them." So David took them off. <sup>40</sup>Then he took his sling in his hand and picked five smooth stones from the riverbed, putting them in his shepherd's bag, in his pouch. Then, with his sling in his hand, he approached the P'lishti. <sup>41</sup> The P'lishti, with his shield-bearer ahead of him, came nearer and nearer to David. <sup>42</sup> The P'lishti looked David up and down and had nothing but scorn for what he saw — a boy with ruddy cheeks, red hair and good looks. <sup>43</sup> The P'lishti said to David, "Am I a dog? Is that why you're coming at me with sticks?" — and the P'lishti cursed David by his god. <sup>44</sup> Then the P'lishti said to David, "Come here to me, so I can give your flesh to the birds in the air and the wild animals." <sup>45</sup> David answered the P'lishti, "You're coming at me with a sword, a spear and a javelin. But I'm coming at you in the name of ADONAI-Tzva'ot, the God of the armies of Isra'el, whom you have challenged. <sup>46</sup> Today ADONAI will hand you over to me. I will attack you, lop your head off, and give the carcasses of the army of the P'lishtim to the birds in the air and the animals in the land. Then all the land will know that there is a God in Isra'el, <sup>47</sup> and everyone assembled here will know that ADONAI does not save by sword or spear. For this is ADONAI's battle, and he will hand you over to us." <sup>48</sup> When the P'lishti got up, approached and came close to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the army to meet the P'lishti. <sup>49</sup> David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, and hurled it with his sling. It struck the P'lishti in his forehead and buried itself in his forehead, so that he fell face down on the ground. <sup>50</sup> Thus David defeated the P'lishti with a sling and a stone, striking the P'lishti and killing him; but David had no sword in his hand. <sup>51</sup> Then David ran and stood over the P'lishti, took his sword, drew it out of its sheath, and finished killing him, cutting off his head with it.

When the P'lishtim saw that their hero was dead, they fled. <sup>52</sup> The men of Isra'el and Y'hudah got up, shouting, and pursued the P'lishtim all the way to Gat and the gates of 'Ekron. The wounded P'lishtim fell down all along the road from Sha'arayim to Gat and 'Ekron. <sup>53</sup> After chasing the P'lishtim, the army of Isra'el returned and plundered their camp.

<sup>54</sup>David took the head of the P'lishti and brought it to Yerushalayim, but he put the armor of the P'lishti in his tent.

<sup>55</sup>When Sha'ul saw David go out to fight the P'lishti, he said to Avner, the army's commander, "Avner, whose son is this boy?" "By your life, O king,” Avnerreplied, “I don’t know.” <sup>56</sup> The king said, “Find out whose son this boy is.” <sup>57</sup> As David returned from killing the P’lishti, Avner took him and brought him to Sha’ul withthe head of the P’lishti in his hand. <sup>58</sup> Sha’ul asked him, “Young man, whose son areyou?” David answered, “I am the son of your servant Yishai the Beit-Lachmi.”

18 <sup>1</sup> By the time David had finished speaking to Sha’ul, Y’honatan found himself inwardly drawn by David’s character, so that Y’honatan loved him as he did himself. <sup>2</sup> That day, Sha’ul took David into his service and would not let him go home to his father’s house any more. <sup>3</sup> Y’honatan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as he did himself. <sup>4</sup> Y’honatan removed the cloak he was wearing and gave it to David, his armor too, including his sword, bow and belt. <sup>5</sup> David would go out, and no matter where Sha’ul sent him, he was successful. Sha’ul put him in charge of the fighting men; all the people thought it good, and so did Sha’ul’s servants.

<sup>6</sup> As David and the others were returning from the slaughter of the P’lishti, the women came out of all the cities of Isra’el to meet King Sha’ul, singing and dancing joyfully with tambourines and three-stringed instruments. <sup>7</sup> In their merrymaking the women sang,

“Sha’ul has killed his thousands,

but David his tens of thousands.”

<sup>8</sup> Sha’ul became very angry, because this song displeased him. He said, “They give David credit for tens of thousands, but me they give credit for only thousands. Now all he lacks is the kingdom!” <sup>9</sup> From that day on, Sha’ul viewed David with suspicion.

<sup>10</sup> The following day an evil spirit from God came powerfully over Sha’ul, so that he fell into a frenzy in the house. David was there, playing his lyre as on other occasions. This time Sha’ul had his spear in his hand; <sup>11</sup> and he threw the spear, thinking, “I will pin David to the wall!” But David dodged out of the way twice. <sup>12</sup> Sha’ul became afraid of David, because ADONAI was with him and had left Sha’ul. <sup>13</sup> Therefore Sha’ul put him at a distance from himself by making him commander over a thousand; his goings and comings became public knowledge. <sup>14</sup> David had great success in all his ways; ADONAI was with him.<sup>15</sup> When Sha'ul saw how very successful he was, he became afraid of him.<sup>16</sup> But all Isra'el and Y'hudah loved David, because they knew about all his campaigns.

<sup>17</sup> Sha'ul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merav. I will give her to you as your wife; only continue displaying your courage for me, and fight ADONAI's battles." Sha'ul was thinking, "I don't dare touch him, so let the P'lishtim do away with him."<sup>18</sup> David's response to Sha'ul was, "Who am I, that I should become the king's son-in-law? I don't have any kind of a life, and my father's family has no rank in Isra'el."<sup>19</sup> However, when it was time for Merav Sha'ul's daughter to be given to David, she was given to Adri'el the Mecholati as his wife.<sup>20</sup> But Mikhal Sha'ul's daughter fell in love with David. They told Sha'ul, and it pleased him.<sup>21</sup> Sha'ul said, "I'll give her to him, so that she can entrap him, and the P'lishtim can do away with him." So Sha'ul said to David, "Today you will become my son-in-law through the second [daughter]."<sup>22</sup> Sha'ul ordered his servants to speak privately with David and say, "Look, the king is pleased with you, and all his servants like you; so become the king's son-in-law."<sup>23</sup> Sha'ul's servants said this to David; but David replied, "Do you think being the king's son-in-law is something to be treated so casually, given that I'm a poor man without social standing?"<sup>24</sup> Sha'ul's servants reported back to him how David had responded.<sup>25</sup> Sha'ul said, "Here's what you are to say to David: 'The king doesn't want any dowry; he wants a hundred foreskins of the P'lishtim, so that he can have vengeance on the king's enemies.'" For Sha'ul was hoping to have David killed by the P'lishtim.<sup>26</sup> When his servants said these words to David, it pleased David to become the king's son-in-law. Even before the time [for him to be married],<sup>27</sup> David got up and set out, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the P'lishtim. He brought their foreskins and gave all of them to the king in order to become the king's son-in-law. Then Sha'ul gave him Mikhal his daughter as his wife.

<sup>28</sup> Sha'ul saw and understood that ADONAI was with David and that Mikhal Sha'ul's daughter loved him.<sup>29</sup> This only made Sha'ul the more afraid of David, so that Sha'ul became David's enemy for the rest of his life.

<sup>30</sup> The leaders of the P'lishtim would attack; but whenever they attacked, David was more successful than any of Sha'ul's servants; so that David acquired a great reputation.

19 <sup>1</sup> Sha'ul told Y'honatan his son and all his servants that they should have David killed. But because Y'honatan was very fond of David, <sup>2</sup> he told him, "My father Sha'ul is out to have you killed. Therefore you must be very cautious tomorrow morning. Find a well-concealed place to hide in. <sup>3</sup> I will go out and stand next to my father in the countryside where you're hiding. I will talk with my father about you; and if I learn anything, I'll tell you."

<sup>4</sup> Y'honatan spoke well of David to Sha'ul his father and said to him, "The king shouldn't sin against his servant David, because he hasn't sinned against you. On the contrary, his work for you has been very good indeed. <sup>5</sup> He put his life in his hands to attack the P'lishtim, and ADONAI accomplished a great victory for all Isra'el. You yourself saw it, and you were happy about it. So why do you want to sin against innocent blood by killing David without any reason?" <sup>6</sup> Sha'ul heeded Y'honatan's advice and swore, "As ADONAI lives, he will not be put to death." <sup>7</sup> Y'honatan called David and told him all these things. Then Y'honatan brought David to Sha'ul to be in attendance on the king, as before.

<sup>8</sup> War broke out again, and David went and fought the P'lishtim. He defeated them with a great slaughter, and they fled before him. <sup>9</sup> Then an evil spirit from ADONAI came upon Sha'ul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. David was playing his lyre, <sup>10</sup> when Sha'ul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear. But he dodged it and moved out of Sha'ul's way, so that the spear stuck in the wall. David fled, so that night he escaped.

<sup>11</sup> But Sha'ul sent messengers to David's house to watch for him and kill him in the morning. Mikhal David's wife told him, "If you don't save your life tonight, tomorrow you'll be dead." <sup>12</sup> So Mikhal let David down through the window; and he left, fled and escaped. <sup>13</sup> Mikhal took the household idol, laid it on the bed, put a goat's-hair quilt at its head and covered it with a cloth. <sup>14</sup> When Sha'ul sent messengers to capture David, she said, "He's ill." <sup>15</sup> Sha'ul sent the messengers to see David with the order, "Bring him up to me, bed and all, so that I can kill him." <sup>16</sup> But when the messengers entered, there before them was the household idol in the bed, with the goat's-hair quilt at its head. <sup>17</sup> Sha'ul asked Mikhal, "Why did you deceive me this way and let my enemy go and escape?" Mikhal answered Sha'ul, "He threatened me, 'Let me go, or I'll kill you.'"

<sup>18</sup> David fled and escaped, then came to Sh'mu'el in Ramah and told him everything Sha'ul had done to him. So he and Sh'mu'el went and stayed in the prophets' dormitory. <sup>19</sup> The news reached Sha'ul that David had been seen at the prophets' dormitory in Ramah. <sup>20</sup> Sha'ul sent messengers to capture David. But when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, with Sh'mu'el standing and leading them, the Spirit of God fell on Sha'ul's messengers; and they too began prophesying. <sup>21</sup> When Sha'ul was told, he sent other messengers; but they too began prophesying. Sha'ul sent messengers a third time, and they also prophesied. <sup>22</sup> Then he himself went to Ramah. When he arrived at the big cistern in Sekhu, he asked, "Where are Sh'mu'el and David?" Someone answered, "They're at the prophets' dormitory in Ramah." <sup>23</sup> While on his way to the prophets' dormitory in Ramah, the Spirit of God fell on him too; and he went on, prophesying, until he arrived at the prophets' dormitory in Ramah. <sup>24</sup> He also stripped off his clothes, prophesied in Sh'mu'el's presence and lay there naked all that day and all that night. Hence it continues to be an expression, "Is Sha'ul a prophet, too?"

20 <sup>1</sup> David fled from the prophets' dormitory in Ramah, returned to Y'honatan and said, "What have I done? Where have I gone wrong? What sin have I committed that makes your father want to take my life?" <sup>2</sup> Y'honatan replied, "Heaven forbid! You're not going to die! Look, my father does nothing important or unimportant without telling me first; so why should my father hide this from me? It just won't happen!" <sup>3</sup> In response David swore, "Your father knows very well that you have made me your friend. This is why he will say, 'Y'honatan must not know this, or he will be unhappy.' As truly as ADONAI lives, and as truly as you are alive, there is only a step between me and death." <sup>4</sup> Y'honatan said to David, "Anything you want me to do for you, I'll do." <sup>5</sup> David answered Y'honatan, "Look, tomorrow is Rosh-Hodesh, and I ought to be dining with the king. Instead, let me go and hide myself in the countryside until evening of the third day. <sup>6</sup> If your father misses me at all, say, 'David begged me to let him hurry to Beit-Lechem, his city; because it's the annual sacrifice there for his whole family.' <sup>7</sup> If he says, 'Very good,' then your servant will be all right. But if he gets angry, you will know that he has planned something bad. <sup>8</sup> Therefore show kindness to your servant, for you bound your servant to yourself by a covenant before ADONAI. But if I have done something wrong, kill me yourself! Why turn me over to your father?" <sup>9</sup> Y'honatan said, "Heaven forbid! If I ever were to learn that my father had definitely decided to do you harm, wouldn't I tell you?" <sup>10</sup> Then David asked Y'honatan, "Who will tell me in the event your father gives you a harsh answer?" <sup>11</sup> Y'honatan said to David, "Come, let's go out in the countryside."

They went out, both of them, to the countryside. <sup>12</sup> Y'honatan said to David, "ADONAI, the God of Isra'el [is witness]: after I have sounded out my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, then, if things look good for David, I will send and let you know. <sup>13</sup> But if my father intends to do you harm, may ADONAI do as much and more to me if I don't let you know and send you away, so that you can go in peace. And may ADONAI be with you, just as he used to be with my father. <sup>14</sup> However, you are to show me ADONAI's kindness not only while I am alive, so that I do not die; <sup>15</sup> but also, after ADONAI has eliminated every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth, you are to continue showing kindness to my family forever." <sup>16</sup> Thus Y'honatan made a covenant with the family of David, adding, "May ADONAI seek its fulfillment even through David's enemies." <sup>17</sup> Y'honatan had David swear it again, because of the love he had for him — he loved him as he loved himself. <sup>18</sup> Y'honatan said to him, "Tomorrow is Rosh-Hodesh, and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup> The third day, hide yourself well in the same place as you did before; stay by the Departure Stone. <sup>20</sup> I will shoot three arrows to one side, as if I were shooting at a target. <sup>21</sup> Then I will send my boy to recover them. If I tell the boy, 'They're here on this side of you, take them,' then come — it means that everything is peaceful for you; as ADONAI lives, there's nothing wrong. <sup>22</sup> But if I tell the boy, 'The arrows are out there, beyond you,' then get going, because ADONAI is sending you away. <sup>23</sup> As for the matter we discussed earlier, ADONAI is between you and me forever."

<sup>24</sup> So David hid himself in the countryside. When Rosh-Hodesh came, the king sat down to eat his meal. <sup>25</sup> The king sat at his usual place by the wall. Y'honatan stood up, and Avner sat next to Sha'ul, but David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup> However, Sha'ul didn't say anything that day; because he thought, "Something has happened to him, he is unclean. Yes, that's it, he isn't clean." <sup>27</sup> The day after Rosh-Hodesh, the second day, David's place was empty; and Sha'ul said to Y'honatan his son, "Why hasn't Yishai's son come to the meal either yesterday or today?”<sup>28</sup> Y’honatan answered Sha’ul, “David begged me to let him go to Beit-Lechem.”<sup>29</sup> He said, ‘Please let me go, because our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother demanded that I come. So now, if you look on me favorably, please let me get away and see my brothers.’ That’s why he hasn’t come to the king’s table.”<sup>30</sup> At that Sha’ul flew into a rage at Y’honatan and said, “You crooked rebel! Don’t I know that you’ve made this son of Yishai your best friend? You don’t care that you’re shaming yourself and dishonoring your mother, do you?”<sup>31</sup> Because as long as the son of Yishai lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be secure. Now send and bring him here to me — he deserves to die.”<sup>32</sup> Y’honatan answered Sha’ul his father, “Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”<sup>33</sup> But Sha’ul threw his spear at him, aiming to kill; Y’honatan could no longer doubt that his father was determined to put David to death.<sup>34</sup> Y’honatan got up from the table in a fury, and he ate no food the second day of the month, both because he was upset over David and because his father had put him to shame.

<sup>35</sup> The next morning Y’honatan went out into the country at the time he had arranged with David, taking with him a young boy.<sup>36</sup> He told the boy, “Now run and find the arrows I’m about to shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.<sup>37</sup> When the boy reached the place where the arrow was that Y’honatan had shot, Y’honatan shouted at the boy, “Isn’t the arrow beyond you?”<sup>38</sup> Y’honatan continued shouting after the boy, “Quick! Hurry! Don’t just stand there!” Y’honatan’s boy gathered the arrows and returned to his master,<sup>39</sup> but the boy didn’t understand anything about the matter — only Y’honatan and David understood.<sup>40</sup> Y’honatan gave his weapons to his boy and said to him, “Go, carry them to the city.”

<sup>41</sup> As soon as the boy had gone, David got up from a place south of the stone, fell face down on the ground and prostrated himself three times; and they kissed one another and wept each with the other until it became too much for David.<sup>42</sup> Y’honatan said to David, “Go in peace; because we have sworn, both of us, in the name of ADONAI, that ADONAI will be between me and you, and between my descendants and yours, forever.”

21 <sup>1 (20:42b)</sup> So David got up and left, and Y’honatan went back to the city.

<sup>2(1)</sup> David went to see Achimelekh the cohen in Nov. Achimelekh came trembling to meet David and asked, “Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?” <sup>3(2)</sup> David said to Achimelekh the cohen, “The king has sent me on a mission and told me not to let anyone know its purpose or what I’ve been ordered to do. I’ve arranged a place where the guards are to meet me. <sup>4(3)</sup> Now, what do you have on hand? If you can spare five loaves of bread, give them to me, or whatever there is.” <sup>5(4)</sup> The cohen answered David, “I don’t have any regular bread; however, there is consecrated bread — but only if the guards have abstained from women. <sup>6(5)</sup> David answered the cohen, “Of course women have been kept away from us, as on previous campaigns. Whenever I go out on campaign, the men’s gear is clean, even if it’s an ordinary trip. How much more, then, today, when they will be putting something consecrated in their packs!” <sup>7(6)</sup> So the cohen gave him consecrated bread, because there was no bread there other than the showbread that had been removed from before ADONAI to be replaced by freshly baked bread on the day the old bread was removed.

<sup>8(7)</sup> One of the servants of Sha’ul happened to be there that day, detained before ADONAI. His name was Do’eg the Edomi, the head of Sha’ul’s shepherds. <sup>9(8)</sup> David said to Achimelekh, “Perhaps you have here with you a spear or a sword? I brought neither my sword nor my other weapons, because the king’s mission was urgent.” <sup>10(9)</sup> The cohen said, “The sword of Golyat the P’lishti you killed in the Elah Valley, is over there behind the ritual vest, wrapped in a cloth. If you want it, take it; it’s the only one here.” David said, “There’s nothing like it; give it to me.”

<sup>11(10)</sup> The same day, David took flight from Sha’ul and went to Akhish king of Gat. <sup>12(11)</sup> The servants of Akhish said to him, “Isn’t this David, king of the land? Weren’t they dancing and singing to each other,

‘Sha’ul has killed his thousands,

but David his tens of thousands’?”

<sup>13(12)</sup> These remarks were not lost on David, and he became very much afraid of Akhish king of Gat. <sup>14(13)</sup> So, as they were watching, he changed his behavior and acted like a madman when they had hold of him, scratching marks on the doors of the city gate and drooling down his beard. <sup>15(14)</sup> Akhish said to his servants, “Here, you see that the man is meshugga; why bring him to me? <sup>16(15)</sup> Am I short of meshugga‘im? Is that why you’ve brought this one to go crazy on me? Must I have this one in my house?”

22 <sup>1</sup> David left there and took refuge in the Cave of ‘Adulam. When his brothers and the rest of his father’s family heard of it, they went down to see him there. <sup>2</sup> Then all the people in distress, in debt or embittered began gathering around him, and he became their leader; there were about four hundred with him.

<sup>3</sup> David went from there to Mitzpeh of Mo’av and said to the king of Mo’av, “Please let my father and mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me.” <sup>4</sup> He presented them to the king of Mo’av, and they lived with him as long as David remained in his stronghold. <sup>5</sup> But the prophet Gad said to David, “Don’t stay in the stronghold. Leave, and go to the land of Y’hudah.” So David left and went to the Forest of Heret.

<sup>6</sup> Sha’ul heard that David and the men with him had been located. Sha’ul was sitting in Giv’ah, under the tamarisk tree on the hill, with his spear in his hand and all his servants standing around him. <sup>7</sup> Sha’ul said to his servants standing around him, “Listen, you men of Binyamin! Is Yishai’s son going to give any of you fields and vineyards? Is he going to make you all commanders of thousands and hundreds? <sup>8</sup> Is this why you have all conspired against me, why none of you told me when my son went in league with Yishai’s son? None of you is concerned about me! Otherwise you would have told me that my son had incited my servant to become my enemy, as he is now.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Do’eg the Edomi, who had been put in charge of Sha’ul’s servants, answered, “I saw Yishai’s son come to Nov, to Achimelekh the son of Achituv. <sup>10</sup> He consulted ADONAI for him, gave him food and gave him the sword of Golyat the P’lishti.” <sup>11</sup> The king sent to summon Achimelekh the cohen the son of Achituv, along with all his father’s family, the cohanim in Nov; and all of them went to the king. <sup>12</sup> Sha’ul said, “Listen here, you son of Achituv!” He answered, “Here I am, my lord.” <sup>13</sup> Sha’ul said to him, “Why did you conspire against me, you and Yishai’s son? By giving him bread and a sword and consulting God for him, you helped him rebel against me and become my enemy, which he now is!” <sup>14</sup> Achimelekh answered the king, “Is there anyone among all your servants more trustworthy than David? He’s the king’s son-in-law, he carries out your every request, your household honors him. <sup>15</sup> I didn’t start consulting God for him just today. Heaven forbid! The king shouldn’t accuse me or my father’s family of anything! Your servant knows nothing at all about any of this!” <sup>16</sup> But the king said, “You must die, you and your father’s whole family.”<sup>17</sup> Then the king told the guards standing around him, “Go around, and kill the cohanim of ADONAI, because they are siding with David, and because they knew he was escaping, yet they didn’t tell me.” But the king’s servants refused to lift their hands against the cohanim of ADONAI.<sup>18</sup> So the king said to Do’eg, “You go around and kill the cohanim!” Do’eg the Edomi went around and fell on the cohanim; that day he killed eighty-five persons wearing linen ritual vests.<sup>19</sup> He also attacked Nov, the city of the cohanim, with the sword; he put to the sword both men and women, children and babies, cattle, donkeys and sheep.

<sup>20</sup> One of the sons of Achimelekh the son of Achituv, named Avyatar, escaped and fled to join David.<sup>21</sup> Avyatar told David that Sha’ul had killed the cohanim of ADONAI.<sup>22</sup> David said to Avyatar, “I knew it! That day, when Do’eg the Edomi was there, I knew he would tell Sha’ul. I caused the death of every person in your father’s family.”<sup>23</sup> Stay with me; don’t be afraid; because the one who is seeking my life seeks yours too. You’ll be safe with me.”

23<sup>1</sup> David was told, “The P’lishtim are fighting Ke’ilah and plundering the threshing-floors.”<sup>2</sup> David consulted ADONAI, asking, “Should I go and attack these P’lishtim?” ADONAI answered David, “Go, and attack the P’lishtim, and save Ke’ilah.”<sup>3</sup> David’s men said to him, “Look, we’re already afraid here in Y’hudah. How much more, then, if we go to Ke’ilah to fight the armies of the P’lishtim!”<sup>4</sup> David consulted ADONAI again; and ADONAI answered him, “Set out, and go down to Ke’ilah, because I will hand the P’lishtim over to you.”<sup>5</sup> David and his men went to Ke’ilah and fought the P’lishtim. They defeated them in a great slaughter and led away their livestock. Thus David saved the inhabitants of Ke’ilah.

<sup>6</sup> When Avyatar the son of Achimelekh fled to David in Ke’ilah, he had brought a ritual vest with him.<sup>7</sup> Now Sha’ul, on being informed that David had gone to Ke’ilah, had said, “God has put him into my hands. He’s trapped himself by entering a town with gates and bars.”<sup>8</sup> So Sha’ul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Ke’ilah and besiege David and his men.<sup>9</sup> David knew that Sha’ul was plotting something against him, so he told Avyatar the cohen, “Bring the ritual vest here.”<sup>10</sup> Then David said, “ADONAI God of Isra’el, your servant has certainly heard that Sha’ul intends to come to Ke’ilah and destroy the city just to get me.”<sup>11</sup> Will the men of Ke'ilah turn me over to him? Will Sha'ul come down, as your servant has heard? ADONAI God of Isra'el, please tell your servant!" ADONAI said, "He will come down."<sup>12</sup> Then David asked, "Will the men of Ke'ilah hand me and my men over to Sha'ul?" ADONAI said, "They will hand you over."<sup>13</sup> So David and his men, now around six hundred, got up, left Ke'ilah and went wherever they could. It was told Sha'ul that David had escaped from Ke'ilah, so he called off the expedition.<sup>14</sup> David stayed in the desert strongholds, remaining in the hills of the Zif Desert. Sha'ul kept trying to find him, but God did not hand him over to him.

<sup>15</sup> David saw that Sha'ul had mounted another expedition to seek his life. David was then at Horesh in the Zif Desert.<sup>16</sup> Y'honatan Sha'ul's son set out and went to David at Horesh to encourage him in God.<sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Don't be afraid, because my father's forces will not find you; you will be king over Isra'el, and I will be second to you. Sha'ul my father knows this, too."<sup>18</sup> Then the two of them made a covenant in the presence of ADONAI, after which David stayed at Horesh and Y'honatan returned home.

<sup>19</sup> The people of Zif came to Sha'ul in Giv'ah and said, "David is hiding himself with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on Hakhilah Hill, south of Yeshimon."<sup>20</sup> So now, king, since you've wanted so much to come down, come down! Our part will be to turn him over to you."<sup>21</sup> Sha'ul said, "May ADONAI bless you for showing me compassion!"<sup>22</sup> Please go and make still more certain exactly where he is and who has seen him there, because I've been told that he's very tricky.<sup>23</sup> So look closely, find out where all his hiding-places are, and come back when you're sure. Then I will go with you, and if he is there in that territory, I'll search till I find him among all the thousands of Y'hudah."

<sup>24</sup> They set out and went to Zif before Sha'ul. But David and his men had gone on to the Ma'on Desert, in the 'Aravah south of Yeshimon.<sup>25</sup> Sha'ul and his men went searching for him. David was told, so he came down to the rock and stayed in the Ma'on Desert. When Sha'ul heard that, he pursued David in the Ma'on Desert.<sup>26</sup> Sha'ul went along one side of the mountain, while David and his men went along the other. David was hurrying to get away from Sha'ul, while Sha'ul and his men were trying to surround David and his men in order to capture them.<sup>27</sup> But then a messenger came to Sha'ul, saying, "Hurry, come, because the P'lishtim are invading the country!"<sup>28</sup> So Sha'ul stopped chasing David and went to fight the P'lishtim. Therefore they called that place Sela-Hamachlekot [rock of divisions].

24<sup>1(23:29)</sup> From there David went up and lived in the strongholds of 'Ein-Gedi.<sup>2(1)</sup> When Sha'ul returned from pursuing the P'lishtim, he was told that David was in the desert at 'Ein-Gedi.<sup>3(2)</sup> Sha'ul took three thousand men chosen from all Isra'el and went searching for David and his men on the cliffs where the mountain goats are.<sup>4(3)</sup> Near some sheep pens along the way was a cave, and Sha'ul went inside to relieve himself. It happened that David and his men were sitting in the recesses at the back of the cave;<sup>5(4)</sup> and David's men said to him, "Look! The day has come that ADONAI told you about when he said to you, 'I will turn your enemy over to you, and you will do to him whatever seems good to you.'" Then David stole over unobserved and cut off the corner of Sha'ul's cloak.<sup>6(5)</sup> But after doing this, David felt remorse over cutting Sha'ul's garment.<sup>7(6)</sup> He said to his men, "ADONAI forbid that I should do such a thing to my lord, ADONAI's anointed, as raise my hand against him! After all, he is ADONAI's anointed."<sup>8(7)</sup> By saying this, David stopped his men and would not let them do anything to Sha'ul. Sha'ul got up, left the cave and went on his way.

<sup>9(8)</sup> Then David too got up and went outside the cave, where he called after Sha'ul, "My lord the king!" When Sha'ul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.<sup>10(9)</sup> David said to Sha'ul, "Why do you listen to people who say, 'David is out to harm you?'"<sup>11(10)</sup> Here, today you have seen with your own eyes that ADONAI put you in my power there in the cave. Some of my men said I should kill you, but I spared you; I said, 'I won't raise my hand against my lord, because he is ADONAI's anointed.'<sup>12(11)</sup> Moreover, my father, look! Here in my hand you see the corner of your cloak. By the fact that I only cut off a piece of your cloak and didn't kill you, you can see and understand that I have no plan to do harm or rebel, and that I haven't sinned against you — even though you are seeking every chance you get to take my life.<sup>13(12)</sup> May ADONAI judge between you and me, and may ADONAI avenge me on you! But I will not lay a hand on you —<sup>14(13)</sup> as the old saying has it, 'Out of the wicked comes wickedness, but I will not lay a hand on you.'<sup>15(14)</sup> The king of Isra'el has come on a campaign — after whom? Whom are you chasing? A dead dog! A single flea! <sup>16(15)</sup> ADONAI be the judge; let him decide between you and me. May he take my side and rescue me from your power!”

<sup>17(16)</sup> After David had finished speaking to Sha’ul, Sha’ul said, “Is that your voice, my son David?” Then Sha’ul cried out and wept; <sup>18(17)</sup> and he said to David, “You are more righteous than I, because you have treated me well, while I have been treating you badly. <sup>19(18)</sup> You have made it clear to me today that you have done me good; for when ADONAI put my fate in your hands, you didn’t kill me. <sup>20(19)</sup> A man finds his enemy and lets him go unharmed?! May ADONAI reward you well for what you did to me today. <sup>21(20)</sup> Now I’m certain that you will indeed become king, and that the kingship of Isra’el will be established in your hands. <sup>22(21)</sup> So swear to me by ADONAI that you will not kill my descendants after I die or blot out my name from my father’s family.” <sup>23(22)</sup> David swore to Sha’ul, and Sha’ul went home, but David and his men went back up to the stronghold.

25 <sup>1</sup> Sh’mu’el died. All of Isra’el assembled to mourn him and bury him at his home in Ramah.

Then David set out and went down to the Pa’ran Desert. <sup>2</sup> Now there was a man in Ma’on who had property in Karmel. He was very rich, having three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Karmel. <sup>3</sup> The man’s name was Naval, and his wife was named Avigayil. The woman was intelligent and attractive, but the man was surly and mean in his actions; he belonged to the clan of Kalev. <sup>4</sup> David, there in the desert, heard that Naval was shearing his sheep. <sup>5</sup> David sent off ten young men with these orders: “Go up to Naval in Karmel, and bring him greetings from me. <sup>6</sup> Say, ‘Long life and shalom to you, shalom to your household, and shalom to everything that is yours! <sup>7</sup> I’ve heard that you now have shearers. Your shepherds were with us [for a while], we did them no harm, and they found nothing missing all the time they were in Karmel. <sup>8</sup> Ask your own men; they’ll tell you. Therefore, receive my men favorably, since we have come on a festive day. Please give what you can to your servants and to your son David.’”

<sup>9</sup> On arrival, David’s men said all these things to Naval in David’s name. When they had finished, <sup>10</sup> Naval answered David’s servants, “Who is David? Who is the son of Yishai? There are many servants nowadays running away from their masters. <sup>11</sup> Am I supposed to take my bread, my water and my meat that I slaughtered for my shearers and give it to men coming from who knows where?” <sup>12</sup> So David’s men turned around, went back and came and told him everything Naval had said. <sup>13</sup> David said to his men, “Buckle your swords on, all of you!” Each one buckled on his sword, David too; and there went up after David about four hundred men, while two hundred stayed with the equipment.

<sup>14</sup> But one of Naval’s men told Avigayil his wife, “David sent messengers from the desert to greet our master, and he flew on them in a rage, <sup>15</sup> even though the men had been very good to us — they didn’t harm us, and we found nothing missing during the entire time we went with them, while we were out in the countryside. <sup>16</sup> They served as a wall protecting us day and night all the time we were with them caring for the sheep. <sup>17</sup> So now decide what you are going to do, for clearly harm is on its way to our master and all his household, but he’s so mean that no one can tell him anything.”

<sup>18</sup> Avigayil wasted no time in taking 200 loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already prepared, six quarts of roasted grain, a hundred clusters of raisins and 200 fig cakes, and having them loaded on donkeys. <sup>19</sup> Then she said to her young men, “Go on ahead of me, and I’ll come along after you.” But she didn’t tell her husband Naval.

<sup>20</sup> She was riding her donkey down past the hiding-place in the mountain, when David and his men descended toward her, and she met them. <sup>21</sup> David had said, “What a waste it has been guarding everything this fellow has in the desert, so that nothing of his was missing! He has repaid me bad for good!” <sup>22</sup> Then he swore, “May God do the same and more to David’s enemies if I leave alive even one male of everything he owns.”

<sup>23</sup> When Avigayil saw David, she hurried to dismount from her donkey, fell on her face in front of David and bowed down to the ground. <sup>24</sup> Having fallen at his feet, she said, “It’s all my fault, my lord, all my fault! Please let your servant speak in your ears, and listen to what your servant says. <sup>25</sup> Please! My lord shouldn’t pay any attention to this worthless fellow Naval, because he’s just like his name — ‘Naval’ means ‘boor,’ and his boorishness stays with him. But I, your servant, did not see my lord’s men, whom you sent. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, my lord, as ADONAI lives, and as you live, inasmuch as ADONAI has kept you from the guilt of shedding blood and from taking vengeance into your own hands — therefore, may your enemies and anyone seeking your harm be [as worthless] as Naval. <sup>27</sup> Meanwhile, let this present which your servant has brought to my lord be given to the men in my lord's service. <sup>28</sup> And please forgive the offense your servant has caused; because ADONAI will certainly establish my lord's dynasty, for my lord fights ADONAI's battles, and nothing bad has been found in you all your life long. <sup>29</sup> Even if someone comes along searching for you and seeking your life, your life will be bound in the bundle of life with ADONAI your God. But the lives of your enemies he will fling away as if from the pouch of a slingshot. <sup>30</sup> Then, when ADONAI has done all the good to my lord that he has said about you and made you ruler over Isra'el, <sup>31</sup> what happens here will not have become an obstacle to you or a cause for remorse to my lord, neither that you shed blood without cause nor that my lord took vengeance into his own hands. Finally, when ADONAI has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant."

<sup>32</sup> David said to Avigayil, "Blessed be ADONAI the God of Isra'el, who sent you today to meet me; <sup>33</sup> and blessed be your tactfulness, and blessed be yourself for having kept me today from the guilt of shedding blood and taking vengeance into my own hands. <sup>34</sup> For as ADONAI the God of Isra'el, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you hadn't rushed to meet me, not even one male would have been left to Naval by morning!" <sup>35</sup> So David received from her what she had brought him, then said to her, "Go up in peace to your home. I have listened to what you said and granted your request."

<sup>36</sup> Avigayil came to Naval; there he was in his house, holding a feast fit for a king. He was in high spirits, because he was very drunk. So she told him nothing whatever until the next morning. <sup>37</sup> In the morning, when he was sober and his wife told him what had happened, he had a stroke and became as motionless as a stone. <sup>38</sup> Some ten days later ADONAI struck Naval, and he died.

<sup>39</sup> When David heard that Naval was dead, he said, "Blessed be ADONAI for having taken my side in the matter of Naval's insult and for having prevented his servant from doing anything bad. On the contrary, ADONAI has caused Naval's bad deeds to return on his own head." Then David sent a message that he wanted to make Avigayil his own wife. <sup>40</sup> When David's servants reached Avigayil in Karmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to bring you to him to be his wife." <sup>41</sup> She got up, bowed with her face to the ground, and said, "Your servant is here to serve you, to wash the feet of my lord's servants." <sup>42</sup> Avigayil then hurried, set out and rode off on a donkey, with five of her female servants following her; she went after David's messengers; and she became his wife. <sup>43</sup> David also took Achino 'am of Yizre 'el; both of them became his wives.

<sup>44</sup> Meanwhile, Sha'ul had given Mikhal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Layish, who came from Gallim.

26 <sup>1</sup> The people from Zif went to Sha'ul in Giv'ah and said, "David is hiding himself on Hakhilah Hill, across from Yeshimon." <sup>2</sup> Then Sha'ul set out and went down to the Zif Desert with three thousand men chosen from Isra'el, to search for David in the Zif Desert. <sup>3</sup> Sha'ul pitched camp on Hakhilah Hill, across from Yeshimon, near the road. David was staying in the desert, and he saw that Sha'ul was coming into the desert after him. <sup>4</sup> So David dispatched spies and determined that Sha'ul had definitely come.

<sup>5</sup> David set out and went to where Sha'ul had pitched his camp. He saw where Sha'ul and Avner the son of Ner, the commander of his army, were sleeping. Sha'ul was lying inside the barricade with the troops asleep all around him. <sup>6</sup> David said to Achimelekh the Hitti and Avishai the son of Tz'ruyah, Yo'av's brother, "Who will go down with me to Sha'ul in the camp?" Avishai said, "I will go down with you." <sup>7</sup> So David and Avishai went to the soldiers by night. Sha'ul was lying there asleep inside the barricade. His spear was stuck in the ground next to his head, with Avner and the troops asleep all around him. <sup>8</sup> Avishai said to David, "God has handed your enemy over to you today; so now, please, let me pin him to the ground with just one stroke of the spear. I won't strike him a second time." <sup>9</sup> But David said to Avishai, "Don't destroy him! Nobody can raise his hand against ADONAI's anointed without becoming guilty!" <sup>10</sup> David then added, "As ADONAI lives, ADONAI will strike him down, or the day will come for him to die, or he will go down to battle and be swept away. <sup>11</sup> ADONAI forbid that I should raise my hand against ADONAI's anointed! But now, we'll take the spear by his head and the jug of water, and get out of here." <sup>12</sup> So David took the spear and the water jug from Sha'ul's head and got away. Nobody saw or knew about it, and no one awoke, because they were all asleep — a deep sleep from ADONAI had fallen over them.

<sup>13</sup> David crossed to the other side and climbed to the top of the distant ridge, leaving a considerable space between them. <sup>14</sup> Then David called out to the troops and to Avner the son of Ner. "Avner! Aren't you going to answer?” Avner answered, “Who are you, calling to the king?” <sup>15</sup> David said to Avner, “Aren’t you the brave one! Who is there in Isra’el to compare with you? So why haven’t you kept watch over your lord the king? Someone came in to kill the king, your lord! <sup>16</sup> It’s not good, what you’ve done! As ADONAI lives, you deserve to die; because you didn’t keep watch over your lord, ADONAI’s anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is, and the jug of water that was next to his head!”

<sup>17</sup> Sha’ul recognized David’s voice and said, “Is that your voice, my son David?” David said, “It is my voice, my lord king!” <sup>18</sup> and continued, “Why is my lord chasing his servant? What have I done? What evil am I planning? <sup>19</sup> Please, now, may my lord the king hear what his servant is saying. If it is ADONAI who has stirred you up against me, let him receive an offering. But if it’s human beings, then a curse on them before ADONAI! — because, as things stand today, they have driven me out, so that I can no longer share in ADONAI’s inheritance — they’ve said, ‘Go, serve other gods!’ <sup>20</sup> Now don’t let my blood fall on the ground away from the presence of ADONAI. The king of Isra’el has gone out in search of a single flea, as if he were hunting partridge in the mountains!”

<sup>21</sup> Then Sha’ul said, “I have sinned. Come back, my son David. I won’t harm you any longer, because you regarded my life as precious today. Yes, I have behaved like a fool. I was altogether in the wrong.” <sup>22</sup> David answered, “Here is the king’s spear. Send one of the men over to bring it back. <sup>23</sup> ADONAI will give every person a reward suited to his uprightness and faithfulness. ADONAI put you in my power today, but I would not raise my hand against ADONAI’s anointed. <sup>24</sup> Look: just as I put great value on your life today, so may my life be given great value by ADONAI. May he deliver me from every kind of trouble!” <sup>25</sup> Sha’ul answered David, “Blessings on you, my son David! No question that you will accomplish everything you set out to do!” So David went on his way, and Sha’ul returned to his place.

27 <sup>1</sup> But David said to himself, “One day Sha’ul will sweep me away. The best thing for me to do is to escape into the territory of the P’lishtim. Then Sha’ul will give up trying to find me here or there in Isra’el’s territory, and at last I’ll be free of him.” <sup>2</sup> So David set out with his six hundred men and passed on to Akhish the son of Ma’okh, king of Gat. <sup>3</sup> David lived with Akhish, he and his men, each man with his household — including David with his two wives Achino'am from Yizre'el and Avigayil from Karmel, Naval's widow. <sup>4</sup> Sha'ul was told that David had escaped to Gat, whereupon he stopped searching for him.

<sup>5</sup> David said to Akhish, "If you are now favorably disposed toward me, let me have a place to live in one of the cities in the countryside. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" <sup>6</sup> That very day Akhish gave him Ziklag, and that's why to this day Ziklag belongs to the kings of Y'hudah.

<sup>7</sup> After David had been living in the country of the P'lishtim for a year and four months, <sup>8</sup> he and his men began going up and raiding the G'shuri, the Gizri and the 'Amaleki (from ancient times these people had lived in the land in the direction of Shur, all the way to Egypt). <sup>9</sup> David would attack the land, leaving alive neither men nor women, but taking the sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels and clothing. Then he would return and go to Akhish. <sup>10</sup> Akhish would ask, "Where were you raiding today?" and David would answer, "Against the Negev of Y'hudah," or "Against the Negev of the Yerachme'eli," or "Against the Negev of the Keni." <sup>11</sup> The reason David spared neither men nor women to be brought to Gat is that he thought, "We don't want them telling on us, saying, 'David did so-and-so.'" That's how he conducted his raids for as long as he lived in the country of the P'lishtim. <sup>12</sup> And Akhish believed him; he said, "David has caused his own people Isra'el to despise him utterly; he will be my servant forever."

28 <sup>1</sup> In due time the P'lishtim assembled their armies for war against Isra'el. Akhish told David, "You know, of course, that you and your men will join me and the army in battle." <sup>2</sup> David answered Akhish, "I see that you already know what your servant will do." Akhish said to David, "For that answer, I am making you my personal bodyguard for life."

<sup>3</sup> Now Sh'mu'el was dead; all Isra'el had mourned him and buried him in his city, Ramah. Also Sha'ul had expelled from the land those who tell the future by communicating with the dead or with a demonic spirit.

<sup>4</sup> The P'lishtim assembled; then they went and pitched camp at Shunem; while Sha'ul gathered all Isra'el together and pitched camp at Gilboa. <sup>5</sup> When Sha'ul saw the army of the P'lishtim, he became afraid — it struck terror in his heart. <sup>6</sup> But when he consulted ADONAI, ADONAI didn't answer him — not by dreams, not by urim and not by prophets.

<sup>7</sup> Then Sha'ul said to his servants, "Try to find a woman who tells the future by communicating with the dead; I want to go and consult with her." His servants answered him, "Yes, there's a woman in 'Ein-Dor who tells the future by communicating with the dead." <sup>8</sup> So Sha'ul disguised himself by wearing different clothing, went with two men, came to the woman by night and said, "Tell me the future, please. Bring up from the dead the person I name to you." <sup>9</sup> The woman answered, "Here, you know what Sha'ul did, how he expelled from the land those who tell the future by communicating with the dead or with a demonic spirit. Why are you trying to entrap me into causing my own death?" <sup>10</sup> But Sha'ul swore to her by ADONAI, "As ADONAI lives, you will not be punished for doing this." <sup>11</sup> Then the woman asked, "Whom should I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up for me Sh'mu'el." <sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Sh'mu'el, she let out a shriek. Then the woman said to Sha'ul, "Why have you deceived me? You yourself are Sha'ul!" <sup>13</sup> The king replied, "Don't be afraid. Just tell me what you see." The woman said to Sha'ul, "I see a god-like being coming up out of the earth." <sup>14</sup> He asked her, "What does he look like?" She said, "An old man is coming up; he's wearing a cloak." Sha'ul realized it was Sh'mu'el, so he bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

<sup>15</sup> Sh'mu'el asked Sha'ul, "Why have you disturbed me and brought me up?" Sha'ul answered, "I'm very upset; because the P'lishtim are making war against me; and God has left me and doesn't answer me any more, neither by prophets nor by dreams. This is why I've called you, so that you can let me know what to do." <sup>16</sup> Sh'mu'el said, "Why ask me, if ADONAI has left you and become your enemy? <sup>17</sup> ADONAI has done for himself what he foretold through me — ADONAI has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to your fellow countryman David, <sup>18</sup> because you didn't obey what ADONAI said and execute his furious anger toward 'Amalek. That's why ADONAI is doing this to you today. <sup>19</sup> ADONAI is giving Isra'el as well as yourself over into the power of the P'lishtim, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. ADONAI will hand over Isra'el's army to the power of the P'lishtim."

<sup>20</sup> Sha'ul immediately fell full length on the ground and became terribly frightened because of what Sh'mu'el had said. He had no strength left in him, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night. <sup>21</sup> The woman approached Sha'ul, saw that he was panic-stricken and said to him, "Here, your servant listened to what you said; I put my life in my hands and did what you requested me to do. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, please, you listen to what your servant says: let me put a little food in front of you; then eat, so you will have some strength when you go on your way.” <sup>23</sup> But he refused and said, “I won’t eat.” Then his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded what they said. He got up off the ground and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup> The woman had a fattened calf in the house; she hurried to slaughter it; then she took flour, kneaded it and baked matzah with it. <sup>25</sup> She served it to Sha’ul and his servants, and they ate. Afterwards, they got up; and they went away that night.

29 <sup>1</sup> The P’lishtim gathered all their army together at Afek, while Isra’el’s army pitched camp by the spring in Yizre’el. <sup>2</sup> The leaders of the P’lishtim were passing by with their hundreds and thousands; David and his men were bringing up the rear with Akhish. <sup>3</sup> The chiefs of the P’lishtim asked, “What are these Hebrews doing here?” Akhish answered the chiefs of the P’lishtim, “This is David, who was a servant of Sha’ul, king of Isra’el. He’s been with me now for well over a year, and I haven’t found anything wrong with him between the time he deserted to me and now.” <sup>4</sup> But the chiefs of the P’lishtim became angry and said to him, “Have the man return and go back to the place you set aside for him. Don’t let him go into battle with us, because on the battlefield he might become our enemy. What better way could there be for him to get reconciled with his lord than by [cutting off] the heads of our men? <sup>5</sup> This is David! They used to dance and sing about him,

‘Sha’ul has killed his thousands,

but David his tens of thousands’!”

<sup>6</sup> So Akhish summoned David and said to him, “As ADONAI lives, you have been upright; and I myself would be more than pleased to have you go on campaign with me; because I haven’t found anything wrong with you between the day you arrived and now. However, the chiefs don’t trust you. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, now, go on back; and go in peace, so as not to do what appears bad to the chiefs of the P’lishtim. <sup>8</sup> David said to Akhish, “But what have I done? What have you found in your servant during the time I’ve been with you that disqualifies me from going and fighting against the enemies of my lord the king?”<sup>9</sup> Akhish answered David, “I know that you are as good, from my point of view, as an angel of God. Nevertheless, the chiefs of the P’lishtim have said, ‘He is not to go up with us to the battlefield.’<sup>10</sup> So get up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who came with you; and as soon as you are up and it gets light, leave.”<sup>11</sup> David got up early in the morning, he and his men, to leave and go back into the land of the P’lishtim; while the P’lishtim continued up to Yizre‘el.

30<sup>1</sup> Three days later, when David and his men arrived in Ziklag, they found that the ‘Amaleki had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had sacked Ziklag and burned it down;<sup>2</sup> and they had taken captive the women and everyone there, great and small. They hadn’t killed anyone but had carried them off as they went on their way.<sup>3</sup> So when David and his men arrived at the city, there it was, burned down, with their wives, sons and daughters taken captive.<sup>4</sup> Then David and the people with him cried aloud until they had no more power to cry.<sup>5</sup> David’s two wives had been taken captive — Achino‘am from Yizre‘el and Avigayil the widow of Naval from Karmel.

<sup>6</sup> David was in serious trouble: the people were talking about stoning him to death, because all the people were in such deep grief, each man over his sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in ADONAI his God.<sup>7</sup> David said to Avyatar the cohen, the son of Achimelekh, “Please bring the ritual vest here to me.” Avyatar brought the vest to David.<sup>8</sup> Then David consulted ADONAI. He asked, “Should I go in pursuit of these raiders? Will I catch up with them?” And [ADONAI] answered him, “Go in pursuit, because you will overtake them and recover everyone and everything.”<sup>9</sup> So David went, he and the six hundred men with him. They came to Vadi B’sor, where those who were to stay behind waited.<sup>10</sup> Then David continued in pursuit with four hundred men, while two hundred too exhausted to cross Vadi B’sor stayed behind.

<sup>11</sup> They found an Egyptian in the countryside and brought him to David. They gave him some bread to eat and water to drink;<sup>12</sup> they also gave him a lump of dried figs and two bunches of raisins. After eating, he revived; because he hadn’t eaten anything or drunk any water for three days and nights.<sup>13</sup> David asked him, “To whom do you belong, and where are you from?” He answered, “I’m an Egyptian boy, the slave of an ‘Amaleki. My master abandoned me three days ago, because I got sick. <sup>14</sup> We raided the Negev of the K'reti, the Negev of Y'hudah and the Negev of Kalev; and we burned down Ziklag.” <sup>15</sup> David asked him, “Will you lead me down to this raiding party?” He said, “If you will swear by God to me that you won't kill me or hand me back to my master, I will lead you down to the raiders.” <sup>16</sup> He led them down, and there they were, spread out all over the ground, eating, drinking and celebrating how much spoil they had taken from the territory of the P'lishtim and the territory of Y'hudah. <sup>17</sup> David attacked them from dawn until the evening of the next day. Not one of them escaped, except for 400 young men who jumped on camels and got away. <sup>18</sup> David recovered all that the 'Amaleki had taken; he also rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup> They found nothing missing, big or little — not sons, not daughters, not plundered goods or anything else they had taken — David brought it all back. <sup>20</sup> David took all the flocks and herds and drove them ahead of their own livestock, announcing, “This is David's spoil.”

<sup>21</sup> David came to where the two hundred men were who had been too exhausted to follow him, whom they had let stay at Vadi B'sor. They came out to meet David and the people with him. When David approached them he greeted them. <sup>22</sup> But some of the men who had gone with David were evil men, scoundrels; and they said, “They didn't go with us, so we're not giving them any of the property we've recovered. Each man can take his wife and children and leave.” <sup>23</sup> Then David said, “No, my brothers, don't do this with the goods ADONAI has given us. He protected us, and he handed the raiding party over to us. <sup>24</sup> Anyhow, no one agrees with you about this. No, the share of someone who stays with the equipment will be the same as the share of someone who goes out and fights — they will share equally.” <sup>25</sup> It has been that way from that day on; he established it as a ruling for Isra'el to this day.

<sup>26</sup> When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the leaders of Y'hudah who were his friends with a note, “Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of ADONAI.” <sup>27</sup> He sent such gifts to those in Beit-El,

to those in Ramot,

to those in Yatir,

<sup>28</sup>

to those in ‘Aro‘er,

to those in Sifmot,

to those in Esht‘moa,

<sup>29</sup>

to those in Rakhal,

to those in Yerachme‘eli,

to those in the cities of the Keni,

<sup>30</sup>

to those in Hormah,

to those in Kor-‘Ashan,

to those in ‘Atakh,

<sup>30</sup>

to those in Hevron,

and to all the places where David and his men had frequently visited.

31 <sup>1</sup> Now the P’lishtim pressed their attack on Isra’el. The men of Isra’el fled before the P’lishtim, leaving their dead on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The P’lishtim pursued and overtook Sha’ul and his sons; and the P’lishtim killed Y’honatan, Avinadav and Malkishua, the sons of Sha’ul. <sup>3</sup> The fighting went hard against Sha’ul; then the archers overtook and wounded him, so that he was in agony. <sup>4</sup> Sha’ul said to his armor-bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through with it. Otherwise these uncircumcised men will come, run me through and make sport of me.” But his armor-bearer refused, he was too frightened. So Sha’ul took his sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armor-bearer saw that Sha’ul was dead, he too fell on his own sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup> Thus Sha’ul, his three sons, his armor-bearer and all his men died that same day together.

<sup>7</sup>When the men of Isra’el who were on the other side of the valley and those who were on the far side of the Yarden saw that the men of Isra’el had fled and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; then the P'lishtim came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup>The following day, when the P'lishtim came to strip the dead, they found Sha'ul and his three sons lying dead on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They cut off his head, stripped off his armor and sent these all over the territory of the P'lishtim to carry the news to the temples of their idols and to the people. <sup>10</sup> Then they put his armor in the temple for the 'ashtarot and fastened his body to the wall of Beit-Sh'an.

<sup>11</sup> When the people living in Yavesh-Gil'ad heard what the P'lishtim had done to Sha'ul, <sup>12</sup> all their warriors set out, traveling all night. They took the body of Sha'ul and the bodies of his sons off the wall of Beit-Sh'an, returned to Yavesh and burned them there. <sup>13</sup> Then they took their bones, buried them under the tamarisk tree in Yavesh and fasted seven days.

Sh'mu'el Bet

2 SAMUEL

1 <sup>1</sup> Sha'ul had died, and David had been two days in Ziklag after returning from the slaughter of the 'Amaleki. <sup>2</sup> On the third day, there came a man from Sha'ul's camp with his clothes torn and earth on his head. He approached David, fell to the ground and prostrated himself. <sup>3</sup> David said to him, "Where are you coming from?" "I escaped from the camp of Isra'el," he replied. <sup>4</sup> "Tell me, please, how did things go?" asked David. "The people have fled the battle," he answered, "and many of them are wounded or dead. Sha'ul and Y'honatan his son are dead too." <sup>5</sup> David asked the young man who had told him this, "How do you know that Sha'ul and Y'honatan his son are dead?" <sup>6</sup> The young man who had told him said, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa when I saw Sha'ul leaning on his spear. The chariots and cavalry were bearing down on him. <sup>7</sup> He looked behind him, saw me and called to me. I answered, 'Here I am.' <sup>8</sup> He said to me, 'Who are you?' and I answered, 'I'm an 'Amaleki' <sup>9</sup> He said to me, 'I'm in agony, and I'm going to die, but I'm still alive. So please, stand next to me; and kill me.' <sup>10</sup> So I stood next to him and killed him, because I was sure he was so badly wounded that he couldn't live. I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet on his arm and have brought them here to my lord."

<sup>11</sup> Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and likewise all the men who were with him. <sup>12</sup> They wailed and cried, and they fasted until evening for Sha'ul, for Y'honatan his son, for ADONAI's people and for the house of Isra'el; because they had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup> David said to the young man who had told him, "Where are you from?" He answered, "I'm the son of a [resident] foreigner, an 'Amaleki." <sup>14</sup> David asked him, "How is it that you weren't afraid to raise your hand to destroy ADONAI's anointed?" <sup>15</sup> David called one of his young men and said, "Go over to him, and kill him." The man struck him down, and he died. <sup>16</sup> David said to him, "Your blood is on your own head. Your own mouth convicted you when you said, 'I killed ADONAI's anointed.'"

<sup>17</sup> Then David pronounced this lament over Sha'ul and over Y'honatan his son, <sup>18</sup> in order to teach the people of Y'hudah [not to underestimate]

archery (the lament has been written down in the book of Yashar):

<sup>19</sup> “Your glory, Isra’el, lies dead on your high places!

How the heroes have fallen!

<sup>20</sup> Don’t speak of it in Gat;

don’t proclaim it in the streets of Ashkelon;

then the daughters of the P’lishtim won’t rejoice,

the daughters of the uncircumcised won’t gloat.

<sup>21</sup> “Mountains of Gilboa — may there be on you no dew, no rain, no fields with good crops;

because there the shields of the heroes were dishonored,

the shield of Sha’ul was no longer rubbed with oil.

<sup>22</sup> “From the blood of the dead, from the flesh of heroes,

the bow of Y’honatan did not retreat or the sword of Sha’ul return unsatisfied.

<sup>23</sup> Sha’ul and Y’honatan, loved and gracious while alive, were not separated even in death;

they were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup> “Daughters of Isra’el, weep over Sha’ul!

He clothed you luxuriously in scarlet and put gold jewelry on your clothing.

<sup>25</sup> “How the heroes have fallen in the heat of battle,

Y’honatan killed on your high places!

<sup>26</sup> I grieve for you, my brother Y’honatan,

you meant so much to me!

Your love for me was deeper than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup> How the heroes have fallen and the weapons of war perished”

2 <sup>1</sup> After this, David consulted ADONAI; he asked, “Should I go up into any of the cities of Y’hudah?” ADONAI said to him, “Go up.” David asked, “Where should I go up?” He said, “To Hevron.” <sup>2</sup> So David went up there with his two wives Achino’am from Yizre’el and Avigayil the widow of Naval from Karmel. <sup>3</sup> David brought the men up with him, each with his household; and they lived in the cities of Hevron.

<sup>4</sup> Then the men of Y’hudah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Y’hudah. They informed David that the men of Yavesh-Gil’ad were the ones who had buried Sha’ul. <sup>5</sup> So David sent messengers to the men of Yavesh-Gil’ad with this message: “May you be blessed by ADONAI, because you showed this kindness to your lord, Sha’ul, and buried him. <sup>6</sup> Now may ADONAI show kindness and truth to you; and I too will show you favor because you have done this. <sup>7</sup> Be strong, and be brave. Sha’ul your lord is dead, but the house of Y’hudah have anointed me king over them.”

<sup>8</sup> Avner the son of Ner, commander of Sha’ul’s army, had taken Ish-Boshet the son of Sha’ul, brought him over to Machanayim, <sup>9</sup> and made him king over Gil’ad, the Ashuri, Yizre’el, Efrayim, Binyamin and all Isra’el. <sup>10</sup>

Ish-Boshet the son of Sha'ul was forty years old when he began to rule over Isra'el, and he ruled for two years. But the house of Y'hudah followed David. <sup>11</sup> David was king in Hebron over the house of Y'hudah for seven years and six months.

<sup>12</sup> Avner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-Boshet the son of Sha'ul went out from Machanayim to Giv'on; <sup>13</sup> while Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah and David's servants also went out; and they met together by the pool at Giv'on. One group sat down on one side of the pool and the other on the other side. <sup>14</sup> Avner said to Yo'av, "If it's all right with you, let's have the young men get up and fight it out between themselves, while we watch." Yo'av said, "Yes, let them." <sup>15</sup> So they got up and paired off, twelve for Binyamin and Ish-Boshet the son of Sha'ul, and twelve of David's servants. <sup>16</sup> Each one grabbed his partner by the head and drove his sword into his side, so that they fell down together. For this reason that place was named Helkat-Hatzurim [field of blades]; it is in Giv'on. <sup>17</sup> The battle that day was very fierce; Avner and the men of Isra'el were beaten by David's servants.

<sup>18</sup> The three sons of Tz'ruyah were there, Yo'av, Avishai and 'Asah'el. 'Asah'el was as fleet-footed as a gazelle in an open field. <sup>19</sup> 'Asah'el chased Avner, going straight for him, veering neither right nor left. <sup>20</sup> Avner looked behind him and asked, "Is that you, 'Asah'el?" "Yes, it is," he answered. <sup>21</sup> Avner said to him, "Turn off to your right or your left, catch one of the young men and take his armor." But 'Asah'el wouldn't turn aside and kept following him. <sup>22</sup> Avner said again to 'Asah'el, "Turn aside and stop following me! Why should I kill you? If I did, how could I look your brother Yo'av in the eye?" <sup>23</sup> But he still refused to turn aside; so Avner stabbed him in the groin with the back end of the spear, so that the shaft protruded behind him. He fell down and died on the spot. Everyone who came to the place where 'Asah'el lay dead stopped there.

<sup>24</sup> Yo'av and Avishai continued in pursuit of Avner; the sun went down when they arrived at Amah Hill, across from Giach along the Giv'on Desert road. <sup>25</sup> The people of Binyamin gathered themselves together into a phalanx behind Avner and stood on top of a hill. <sup>26</sup> Then Avner called out to Yo'av, "Must the sword go on devouring forever? Don't you know that in the end it can produce only bitterness? How long will it be, then, before you tell the people to quit pursuing their brothers?" <sup>27</sup> Yo'av said, "As God lives, if you hadn't said something, there is no doubt that the people would have kept following their brothers all night long." <sup>28</sup> Then Yo'av sounded the shofar, and with that the people halted. They stopped pursuing Isra'el, and they stopped fighting.

<sup>29</sup> Avner and his men went through the 'Aravah all that night; they crossed the Yarden, went through all of Bitron and arrived at Machanayim. <sup>30</sup> Yo'av returned from following Avner. When he brought the troops together for review, nineteen of David's servants were missing, along with 'Asah'el. <sup>31</sup> But David's servants had killed 360 of Avner's men of Binyamin. <sup>32</sup> They took 'Asah'el and buried him in his father's tomb in Beit-Lechem. Then Yo'av and his men marched all night, so that they reached Hevron at daybreak.

3 <sup>1</sup> The war between the house of Sha'ul and the house of David dragged on, but David grew stronger, while the house of Sha'ul became weaker.

<sup>2</sup> Sons were born to David in Hevron. His firstborn was Amnon, whose mother was Achino'am from Yizre'el; <sup>3</sup> his second, Kil'av, whose mother was Avigayil the widow of Naval from Karmel; the third, Avshalom, whose mother was Ma'akhah the daughter of Talmai king of G'shur; <sup>4</sup> the fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggit; the fifth, Sh'fatyah the son of Avital; <sup>5</sup> and the sixth, Yitre'am, whose mother was 'Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hevron.

<sup>6</sup> During the war that was going on between the house of Sha'ul and the house of David, Avner strengthened his position in the house of Sha'ul. <sup>7</sup> Sha'ul had had a concubine named Ritzpah, the daughter of Ayah; and [Ish-Boshet] challenged Avner: "Why did you go and sleep with my father's concubine?" <sup>8</sup> These words of Ish-Boshet's enraged Avner. "What am I," he shouted, "[that you treat me with such contempt]? A dog's head in Y'hudah? Till this moment I have shown only kindness to the house of Sha'ul your father, and to his brothers and to his friends; and I haven't handed you over to David. Yet you choose today to pick a fight with me over this woman!" <sup>9</sup> May God bring terrible curses on Avner and worse ones yet if I don't accomplish what ADONAI swore to David — <sup>10</sup> to transfer the kingdom from the house of Sha'ul and set up the throne of David over Isra'el and Y'hudah, from Dan all the way to Be'er-Sheva!" <sup>11</sup> Ish-Boshet couldn't answer Avner a word, because he was afraid of him.

<sup>12</sup> Avner immediately sent envoys to David with this message: "Who is going to control the land? If you make yourself my ally, I will use my power to bring all Isra'el over to you.”<sup>13</sup> David sent this reply: “Very well, I will be your ally — on one condition: you will not come into my presence unless at the same time you bring with you Mikhah Sha'ul's daughter.”<sup>14</sup> David sent messengers to say to Ish-Boshet the son of Sha'ul, “Give me back my wife Mikhah. I betrothed her to myself for 100 foreskins of the P'lishtim.”<sup>15</sup> Ish-Boshet sent and took her from her husband Palti'el the son of Layish.<sup>16</sup> Her husband went with her, crying as he went, and followed her to Bachurim. But when Avner told him, “Go back,” he returned.

<sup>17</sup> Then Avner conferred with the leaders of Isra'el. He said, “In the past, you wanted David to be king over you.”<sup>18</sup> So now, do it. For ADONAI has said of David, ‘Through my servant David I will rescue my people Isra'el from the power of the P'lishtim and from the power of all their enemies.’”<sup>19</sup> Avner also spoke with the people of Binyamin.

Then Avner went to Hebron and reported to David everything that had been agreed to by Isra'el and the house of Binyamin.<sup>20</sup> When Avner came to David in Hebron he brought twenty men with him. David held a feast for Avner and his men.<sup>21</sup> Avner said to David, “I must get up and go to gather all Isra'el to my lord the king, so that they can make a covenant with you. Then you will be able to rule over everything your heart desires.” David sent Avner off, giving him safe conduct.

<sup>22</sup> Just then David's men and Yo'av returned from a raid, bringing a lot of plunder with them. But Avner was not with David in Hebron, because he had sent him off under safe conduct.<sup>23</sup> When Yo'av and all his army had arrived, Yo'av was told, “Avner the son of Ner came to the king, but he sent him off, and he has left under safe conduct.”<sup>24</sup> Yo'av went to the king and said, “What have you done? Here, Avner came to you, and you sent him away, and now he's gone! Why?”<sup>25</sup> You know Avner the son of Ner — he came only to deceive you, to learn what campaigns you're planning and to find out everything you're doing!”

<sup>26</sup> After leaving David, Yo'av sent messengers after Avner, and they brought him back from the water cistern at Sirah without David's knowledge.<sup>27</sup> Upon Avner's return to Hebron, Yo'av took him aside into the space between the outer and inner city gates as if to speak with him privately; and there he struck him in the groin, so that he died — thus avenging the death of 'Asah'el his brother.

<sup>28</sup> Afterwards, when David heard of it, he said, “I and my kingdom are forever innocent of the death of Avner the son of Ner.”<sup>29</sup> Let it fall on the head of Yo'av and all his father's family. May Yo'av's family always have someone with a hemorrhage or tzara'at, or who has to walk with a cane, or who dies by the sword or who lacks food.”<sup>30</sup> Thus Yo'av and Avishai his brother killed Avner, because he had killed their brother 'Asah'el during the battle in Giv'on.<sup>31</sup> But David said to Yo'av and all those with him, “Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn over Avner.” King David himself walked behind the body as it was carried.<sup>32</sup> They buried Avner at Hevron; the king wept aloud at Avner's grave, and all the people wept.<sup>33</sup> The king sang this lament over Avner:

“Should Avner have died like a thug?

<sup>34</sup> Your hands weren't tied, your feet weren't fettered;

you fell like one who falls at the hands of criminals.”

Then all the people wept over him more than ever.

<sup>35</sup> All the people came to David and tried to make him eat some bread while it was still daytime; but David swore, “May God bring terrible curses on me and worse ones yet if I taste bread or anything else until the sun goes down.”<sup>36</sup> All the people took note of this, and it pleased them; whatever the king did pleased all the people.<sup>37</sup> So that day, all the people and all Isra'el understood that the king had had no part in the killing of Avner the son of Ner.<sup>38</sup> The king said to his servants, “You realize that a leader, a great man, has fallen today in Isra'el.<sup>39</sup> Even though I have just been anointed king, I feel weak today; and these men, the sons of Tz'ruyah, are too brutal for me. May ADONAI repay the criminal as his crime deserves!”

4<sup>1</sup> When Ish-Boshet the son of Sha'ul heard that Avner had died in Hevron, his courage failed; and all Isra'el became alarmed.<sup>2</sup> Sha'ul's son had two men who were captains of raiding parties, one called Ba'anah and the other Rekhav, sons of Rimmon the Be'eroti, of the people of Binyamin (for Be'erot is counted as part of Binyamin,<sup>3</sup> even though the Be'erotim fled to Gittayim and have lived as foreigners there to this day).<sup>4</sup> Now Y'honatan

the son of Sha'ul's had a son, and he was lame in both legs. He had been five years old when the news about Sha'ul and Y'honatan came from Yizre'el. His nurse had gathered him up and fled; but as she was hurrying to get away, he fell and became lame. His name was M'fivoshet. <sup>5</sup> The sons of Rimmon the Be'eroti, Rekhav and Ba'anah went and arrived during the heat of the day at the home of Ish-Boshet as he was taking his afternoon rest. <sup>6</sup> They went right into the house, as if they were coming to get wheat, and stabbed him in the groin; then Rekhav and Ba'anah his brother escaped. <sup>7</sup> They entered the house as he lay on his bed in his bedroom, stabbed him and killed him; then they beheaded him, took his head and fled all night along the road through the 'Aravah. <sup>8</sup> They brought the head of Ish-Boshet to David in Hebron and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ish-Boshet the son of Sha'ul your enemy, who wanted to take your life. Today ADONAI has taken revenge on Sha'ul and his son for the sake of my lord the king."

<sup>9</sup> But David answered Rekhav and Ba'anah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Be'eroti, "As ADONAI lives, who has rescued me from every kind of difficulty, <sup>10</sup> when someone told me, 'Here, Sha'ul is dead,' thinking to himself that he was bringing good news, I didn't reward him for his news but seized him and killed him in Ziklag. <sup>11</sup> How much more, when criminals have killed an innocent man in his own house on his own bed, shouldn't I hold you responsible for his death and rid the earth of you?" <sup>12</sup> David then gave the order to his men, and they put them to death, cutting off their hands and feet and hanging them up next to the pool at Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-Boshet and buried it in Avner's grave at Hebron.

5 <sup>1</sup> Then all the tribes of Isra'el came to David in Hebron and said, "Here, we are your own flesh and bone. <sup>2</sup> In the past, when Sha'ul was king over us, it was you who led Isra'el's military campaigns; and ADONAI said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Isra'el, and you will be chief over Isra'el.'" <sup>3</sup> So all the leaders of Isra'el came to the king in Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them in Hebron in the presence of ADONAI. Then they anointed David king over Isra'el. <sup>4</sup> David was thirty years old when he began his rule, and he ruled forty years. <sup>5</sup> In Hebron he ruled over Y'hudah seven years and six months; then in Yerushalayim he ruled thirty-three years over all Isra'el and Y'hudah.

<sup>6</sup> The king and his men went to Yerushalayim to attack the Y'vusi, the inhabitants of that region. They taunted David, "You won't get in here! Even the blind and the lame could fend you off!" — in other words, they were thinking, "David will never get in here." <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Tziyon, also known [now] as the City of David. <sup>8</sup> What David said on that day was, "In order to attack the Y'vusi, you have to climb up [from the spring outside the city] through the water tunnel. Then you can do away with those [so-called] 'lame and blind'" (whom David despises — hence the expression, "The 'blind and lame' keep him from entering the house").

<sup>9</sup> David lived in the stronghold and called it the City of David. Then David built up the city around it, starting at the Millo [earth rampart] and working inward. <sup>10</sup> David grew greater and greater, because ADONAI the God of Armies was with him. <sup>11</sup> Hiram king of Tzor sent envoys to David with cedar logs, and with them were carpenters and stonemasons; and they built David a palace. <sup>12</sup> David then knew that ADONAI had set him up as king over Isra'el and increased his royal power for the sake of his people.

<sup>13</sup> David took for himself more concubines and wives in Yerushalayim after coming from Hevron, so that still more sons and daughters were born to David. <sup>14</sup> Here are the names of those born to him in Yerushalayim: Shamua, Shovav, Natan, Shlomo, <sup>15</sup> Yivchar, Elishua, Nefeg, Yafia, <sup>16</sup> Elishama, Elyada and Elifelet.

<sup>17</sup> When the P'lishtim heard that David had been anointed king over Isra'el, all the P'lishtim went up in search of David. On learning of it, David went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup> The P'lishtim came and deployed in the Refa'im Valley. <sup>19</sup> David consulted ADONAI, asking, "Should I attack the P'lishtim? Will you hand them over to me?" ADONAI answered David, "Attack; I will certainly hand the P'lishtim over to you." <sup>20</sup> So David went to Ba'al-P'ratzim and defeated them there. He said, "ADONAI has broken through my enemies for me like a river breaking through its banks." This is why he called the place Ba'al-P'ratzim [Lord of breaking through]. <sup>21</sup> The P'lishtim had left their idols there, so David and his men took them away.

<sup>22</sup> The P'lishtim came up again and deployed in the Refa'im Valley. <sup>23</sup> When David consulted ADONAI, he said, "Don't attack! Circle behind them, and engage them opposite the balsam trees. <sup>24</sup> When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, advance; because then ADONAI has gone out ahead of you to defeat the army of the P'lishtim." <sup>25</sup> David did exactly as ADONAI had ordered him to do and pursued his attack on the P'lishtim from Geva all the way to Gezer.

6<sup>1</sup> Again David summoned all the picked troops of Isra'el, 30,000 men.<sup>2</sup> Then David, taking along the entire force he had with him then, set out for Ba'alei-Y'hudah to bring up from there the ark of God, which bears the Name, the name of ADONAI-Tzva'ot enthroned above the k'ruvim.<sup>3</sup> They set the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Avinadav on the hill, with 'Uzah and Achyo, the sons of Avinadav, driving the new cart.<sup>4</sup> They led it from the house of Avinadav on the hill, with the ark of God; Achyo walked in front of the ark.<sup>5</sup> David and the whole house of Isra'el celebrated in the presence of ADONAI with all kinds of musical instruments made of cypress-wood, including lyres, lutes, tambourines, rattles and cymbals.

<sup>6</sup> When they arrived at Nakhon's threshing-floor, the oxen stumbled; and 'Uzah put out his hand to steady the ark of God.<sup>7</sup> But ADONAI's anger blazed up against 'Uzah, and God struck him down on the spot for his offense, so that he died there by the ark of God.<sup>8</sup> It upset David that ADONAI had broken out against 'Uzah; that place has been called Peretz-'Uzah [breaking-out of 'Uzah] ever since.<sup>9</sup> David was frightened of ADONAI that day; he asked, "How can the ark of ADONAI come to me?"<sup>10</sup> So David would not bring the ark of ADONAI into the City of David; rather, David took it over to the house of 'Oved-Edom the Gitti.<sup>11</sup> The ark of ADONAI stayed in the house of 'Oved-Edom the Gitti for three months; and ADONAI blessed 'Oved-Edom and all his household.

<sup>12</sup> King David was told, "ADONAI has blessed the house of 'Oved-Edom and everyone who belongs to him, thanks to the ark of God." So David went and joyously brought the ark of God up from the house of 'Oved-Edom into the City of David.<sup>13</sup> When those bearing the ark of ADONAI had gone only six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened sheep.<sup>14</sup> Then David danced and spun around with abandon before ADONAI, wearing a linen ritual vest.<sup>15</sup> So David and all the house of Isra'el brought up the ark of ADONAI with shouting and the sound of the shofar.<sup>16</sup> As the ark of ADONAI entered the City of David, Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul, watching from the window, saw King David leaping and spinning before ADONAI; and she was filled with contempt for him.

<sup>17</sup> They brought the ark of ADONAI in and put it in its place inside the tent that David had set up for it. David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before ADONAI. <sup>18</sup> When David had finished offering the burnt offering and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of ADONAI-Tzva'ot. <sup>19</sup> Then he distributed to all the people of Isra'el, to everyone there, both men and women, a loaf of bread, a portion of meat and a raisin cake, after which the people all left for their homes.

<sup>20</sup> When David returned to bless his household, Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul came out to meet him and said, "Such honor the king of Isra'el earned for himself today — exposing himself before his servants' slave-girls like some vulgar exhibitionist!" <sup>21</sup> David answered Mikhal, "In the presence of ADONAI — who chose me over your father and over everyone in his family to make me chief over ADONAI's people, over Isra'el — I will celebrate in the presence of ADONAI! <sup>22</sup> I will make myself still more contemptible than that, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes, but those slave-girls you mentioned will honor me!" <sup>23</sup> Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul remained childless until the day she died.

7 <sup>1</sup> After the king had been living in his palace awhile and ADONAI had given him rest from all his surrounding enemies, <sup>2</sup> the king said to Natan the prophet, "Here, I'm living in a cedar-wood palace; but the ark of God is kept in a tent!" <sup>3</sup> Natan said to the king, "Go, do everything that is in your heart, for ADONAI is with you."

<sup>4</sup> But that same night the word of ADONAI came to Natan: <sup>5</sup> "Go and tell my servant David that this is what ADONAI says: 'You are going to build me a house to live in? <sup>6</sup> Since the day I brought the people of Isra'el out of Egypt until today, I never lived in a house; rather, I traveled in a tent and a tabernacle. <sup>7</sup> Everywhere I traveled with all the people of Isra'el, did I ever speak a word to any of the tribes of Isra'el, whom I ordered to shepherd my people Isra'el, asking, "Why haven't you built me a cedar-wood house?"

<sup>8</sup> "Therefore say this to my servant David that this is what ADONAI-Tzva'ot says: 'I took you from the sheep-yards, from following the sheep, to make you chief over my people, over Isra'el. <sup>9</sup> I have been with you wherever you went; I have destroyed all your enemies ahead of you; and I am making your reputation great, like the reputations of the greatest people on earth. <sup>10</sup> I will assign a place to my people Isra'el; I will plant them there, so that they can live in their own place without being disturbed any more. The wicked will no longer oppress them, as they did at the beginning,<sup>11</sup> and as they did from the time I ordered judges to be over my people Isra'el; instead, I will give you rest from all your enemies.

“Moreover, ADONAI tells you that ADONAI will make you a house.<sup>12</sup> When your days come to an end and you sleep with your ancestors, I will establish one of your descendants to succeed you, one of your own flesh and blood; and I will set up his rulership.<sup>13</sup> He will build a house for my name, and I will establish his royal throne forever.<sup>14</sup> I will be a father for him, and he will be a son for me. If he does something wrong, I will punish him with a rod and blows, just as everyone gets punished;<sup>15</sup> nevertheless, my grace will not leave him, as I took it away from Sha'ul, whom I removed from before you.<sup>16</sup> Thus your house and your kingdom will be made secure forever before you; your throne will be set up forever.”<sup>17</sup> Natan told David all of these words and described this entire vision.

<sup>18</sup> Then David went in, sat before ADONAI and said, “Who am I, Adonai ELOHIM; and what is my family, that has caused you to bring me this far?<sup>19</sup> Yet in your view, Adonai ELOHIM, even this was too small a thing; so you have even said that your servant's dynasty will continue on into the distant future. This is [indeed] a teaching for a man, Adonai ELOHIM —<sup>20</sup> what more can David say to you? For you know your servant intimately, Adonai ELOHIM.<sup>21</sup> It is for the sake of your word and in accordance with your own heart that you have done all this greatness and revealed it to your servant.<sup>22</sup> Therefore, you are great, ADONAI, God; for there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you — everything we have heard confirms that.<sup>23</sup> Who can be compared with your people, with Isra'el? What other nation on earth did God set out to redeem and make into a people for himself? You made yourself a reputation by doing for your land things that even for you are great and terrifying, for the sake of your people whom you redeemed for yourself from Egypt and from other nations and from their gods.<sup>24</sup> You set up your people for yourself as your people forever; and you, ADONAI, became their God.<sup>25</sup> So now, ADONAI, God, establish forever the word you have spoken to your servant and his house; do what you have promised.<sup>26</sup> May your name be magnified forever, so that it will be said, ‘Adonai-Tzva’ot is God over Isra'el, and the dynasty of your servant David will be set up in your presence.’<sup>27</sup> You, Adonai-Tzvaot, God of Isra'el, have disclosed to your servant, ‘I will build you a house.’ This is why your servant has the courage to pray this prayer to you. <sup>28</sup> Now, Adonai ELOHIM, you alone are God; your words are truth; and you have made this wonderful promise to your servant. <sup>29</sup> So may it please you to bless the family of your servant and thereby cause it to continue forever in your presence. For you, Adonai ELOHIM, have said it. May your servant's family be blessed forever by your blessing."

8 <sup>1</sup> Some time afterwards, David attacked the P'lishtim and subdued them; David took Meteg-Amah out of the hands of the P'lishtim. <sup>2</sup> He also defeated Mo'av; making them lie down on the ground, he measured them with a length of cord; for every two lengths to be put to death he designated one length to be kept alive. The people of Mo'av became subjects of David and paid tribute.

<sup>3</sup> David, on his way to establish his dominion as far as the Euphrates River, also defeated Hadad'ezer the son of Rechoh king of Tzovah. <sup>4</sup> David captured 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers. He reserved enough horses for 100 chariots and disabled the rest. <sup>5</sup> When people of Aram from Dammesek came to the aid of Hadad'ezer king of Tzovah, David killed 22,000 men of Aram. <sup>6</sup> Then David put garrisons among the people of Aram in Dammesek; Aram became subject to David and paid tribute. ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup> David took the gold shields which Hadad'ezer's servants were wearing and brought them to Yerushalayim. <sup>8</sup> From Betach and Berotai, cities of Hadad'ezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze.

<sup>9</sup> When To'i king of Hamat heard that David had defeated Hadad'ezer's entire army, <sup>10</sup> To'i sent Yoram his son to King David to greet and congratulate him on fighting and defeating Hadad'ezer, for Hadad'ezer had been at war with To'i. Yoram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold and articles of bronze, <sup>11</sup> which King David dedicated to ADONAI, along with the silver and gold that he dedicated from all the nations he conquered — <sup>12</sup> Aram, Mo'av, the people of 'Amon, the P'lishtim, 'Amalek, and the spoil taken from Hadad'ezer son of Rechoh, king of Tzovah. <sup>13</sup> David gained more fame on returning from killing 18,000 men from Aram in the Salt Valley. <sup>14</sup> David stationed garrisons in Edom; he put garrisons throughout all of Edom, and all the people of Edom became subject to him. ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went.

<sup>15</sup> David ruled over all Isra'el; David administered law and justice for all his people. <sup>16</sup> Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah was commander of the army, Y'hoshafat the son of Achilud was chief adviser, <sup>17</sup> Tzadok the son of Achituv and Achimelekh the son of Evyatar were cohanim, S'rayah was secretary, <sup>18</sup> B'nayahu the son of Y'hoyada was in charge of the K'reti and P'leti [serving as the king's bodyguards ], and David's sons were cohanim.

9 <sup>1</sup> David inquired, "Is there anyone still alive from the family of Sha'ul, to whom, for Y'honatan's sake, I can show kindness?" <sup>2</sup> In Sha'ul's household there had been a servant named Tziva, and they summoned him to David. The king asked him, "Are you Tziva?" and he answered, "At your service." <sup>3</sup> The king said, "Is there anyone still alive from the family of Sha'ul, to whom I can show God's grace?" Tziva said to the king, "There is still Y'honatan's son with the lame legs." <sup>4</sup> The king said to him, "Where is he?" and Tziva answered, "He's there in the house of Makhir the son of 'Ammi'el, in Lo-D'var." <sup>5</sup> King David sent and took him from the house of Makhir the son of 'Ammi'el in Lo-D'var. <sup>6</sup> M'fivoshet the son of Y'honatan, the son of Sha'ul, came to David, fell on his face and prostrated himself. David said, "M'fivoshet!" and he answered, "Here is your servant!" <sup>7</sup> David said to him, "Don't be afraid, for I am determined to be kind to you for the sake of Y'honatan your father. I will restore to you all the land of Sha'ul your [grandfather, and you will always eat at my table." <sup>8</sup> He prostrated himself and said, "What is your servant that makes you pay such attention to a dead dog like me?" <sup>9</sup> The king called to Tziva, Sha'ul's servant, and said to him, "I have given everything Sha'ul and his family owned to your master's [grand]son. <sup>10</sup> You are to work the land for him, you, your sons and your slaves. Harvest the crops, so that your master's [grand]son will have food to feed his family; but M' fivoshet your master's [grand]son will always eat at my table." Tziva had fifteen sons and twenty slaves. <sup>11</sup> Tziva said to the king, "Your servant will do everything my lord the king commands his servant, although M'fivoshet has been eating at my table as one of the king's descendants." <sup>12</sup> M'fivoshet had a young son whose name was Mikha. Everyone living in Tziva's house was a servant of M'fivoshet. <sup>13</sup> But M'fivoshet lived in Yerushalayim; he always ate at the king's table, and he was lame in both legs.

10 <sup>1</sup> Some time later, when the king of the people of ‘Amon died, his son Hanun became king in his place. <sup>2</sup> David said, “I will show grace to Hanun the son of Na-chash, as his father showed grace to me.” So David sent his servants to pass him a message of comfort concerning his father.

David’s servants entered the territory of the people of ‘Amon; <sup>3</sup> but the leaders of the people of ‘Amon said to Hanun their lord, “Do you really think David is honoring your father by sending people to comfort you? Hasn’t David actually sent his servants to you in order to look the city over, reconnoiter it and overthrow it?” <sup>4</sup> So Hanun took David’s servants, shaved off half their beards, cut off their clothes halfway up, at their buttocks, and then sent them away. <sup>5</sup> On hearing how they had been treated, David sent a delegation to meet them, because the men had been deeply humiliated. The king said, “Stay in Yericho until your beards have grown back, and then return.”

<sup>6</sup> Aware that they were utterly abhorrent to David, the people of ‘Amon sent and hired 20,000 Aram foot soldiers from Beit-Rechov and Tzovah, the king of Ma’akhah with 1,000 men, and 12,000 soldiers from Tov. <sup>7</sup> When David heard of it, he sent Yo’av with his entire army of trained soldiers.

<sup>8</sup> The army of ‘Amon came out and went into battle formation at the entrance to the city gate; the men of Aram from Tzovah and Rechov and the men of Tov and Ma’akhah were by themselves in the open countryside. <sup>9</sup> When Yo’av saw that he would be fighting on two fronts, ahead and behind, he chose the best troops of Isra’el to deploy against Aram; <sup>10</sup> while the rest of the army he put under the command of Avishai his brother to deploy against the army of ‘Amon. <sup>11</sup> He said, “If Aram is too strong for me, you help me; but if the army of ‘Amon is too strong for you, then I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup> Take courage, and let’s be strong for the sake of our people and the cities of our God. May ADONAI do what seems good to him.”

<sup>13</sup> So Yo’av and the people with him went to battle Aram, and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup> When the people of ‘Amon saw that Aram had fled, they likewise fled before Avishai and retreated into the city. Yo’av returned from the people of ‘Amon and went to Yerushalayim.

<sup>15</sup> When Aram saw that Isra’el had gotten the better of them, they gathered themselves together. <sup>16</sup> Hadad’ezer sent and brought out the people of Aram who lived beyond the [Euphrates] River. They came to Heilam with Shovakh the commander of Hadad’ezer’s army at their head. <sup>17</sup> It was reported to David; so he gathered all Isra’el together, crossed the Yarden and came to Heilam. Aram deployed themselves against David and fought him. <sup>18</sup> But Aram fled before Isra'el; David killed 700 chariot-drivers and 40,000 horsemen from Aram, and he struck Shovakh the commander of their army, so that he died there. <sup>19</sup> When all Hadad'ezer's vassal kings saw that they had been defeated by Isra'el, they made peace with Isra'el and became their subjects. So Aram was afraid to help the people of 'Amon any more.

11 <sup>1</sup> In the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, David sent out Yo'av, his servants who were with him and all Isra'el. They ravaged the people of 'Amon and laid siege to Rabbah. But David stayed in Yerushalayim. <sup>2</sup> Once, after his afternoon nap, David got up from his bed and went strolling on the roof of the king's palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing, who was very beautiful. <sup>3</sup> David made inquiries about the woman and was told that she was Bat-Sheva the daughter of Eli'am, the wife of Uriyah the Hitti. <sup>4</sup> David sent messengers to get her, and she came to him, and he went to bed with her (for she had been purified from her uncleanness). Then she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup> The woman conceived; and she sent a message to David, "I am pregnant."

<sup>6</sup> David sent this order to Yo'av: "Send me Uriyah the Hitti." Yo'av sent Uriyah to David. <sup>7</sup> When Uriyah had come to him, David asked him how Yo'av was doing, how the people were feeling and how the war was going. <sup>8</sup> Then David said to Uriyah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." Uriyah left the king's palace and was followed by a present of food from the king. <sup>9</sup> But Uriyah slept at the door of the king's palace with all the servants of his lord and didn't go down to his house. <sup>10</sup> When they told David, "Uriyah didn't go down to his house," David said to Uriyah, "Haven't you just arrived from a journey? Why didn't you go down to your house?" <sup>11</sup> Uriyah answered David, "The ark, Isra'el and Y'hudah stay in tents; and my lord Yo'av and the servants of my lord are camping in the countryside. So should I go into my house to eat and drink and go to bed with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing!" <sup>12</sup> David said to Uriyah, "Stay here today also; tomorrow I will let you leave." So Uriyah stayed in Yerushalayim that day and the following day. <sup>13</sup> David summoned him, ate and drank with him, and got him drunk. But in the evening he went out and lay on his bed with his lord's servants and did not go down to his house.

<sup>14</sup> In the morning David wrote a letter to Yo'av and sent it with Uriyah. <sup>15</sup> In the letter he wrote, "Put Uriyah on the front lines of the fiercest fighting; then pull back from him, so that he will be wounded and killed." <sup>16</sup> So while Yo'av had the city under siege, he assigned Uriyah to the place where he knew the toughest defenders were. <sup>17</sup> The men of the city went out and fought Yo'av; a number of people fell, including some of David's servants, with Uriyah the Hitti among the dead.

<sup>18</sup> Yo'av sent a message to David reporting all the news concerning the war, <sup>19</sup> and he instructed the messenger, "When you have finished telling the king all the news about the war, <sup>20</sup> he may become angry and ask you, 'Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn't you know they would shoot from the wall?' <sup>21</sup> Didn't you think about the person who struck Avimelekh the son of Yerubeshet, that a woman threw an upper millstone down on him from the wall, so that he died at Tevetz? Why did you go so near the wall?' If he says this, tell him, 'Your servant Uriyah is dead also.'" <sup>22</sup> So the messenger left, and on arrival he told David all that Yo'av had sent him to say. <sup>23</sup> The messenger said to David, "The men were overpowering us and came out after us into the countryside. But we chased them back all the way to the entrance of the city gate. <sup>24</sup> The archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king's servants are dead; also your servant Uriyah the Hitti is dead." <sup>25</sup> David said to the messenger, "Tell Yo'av, 'Don't let this matter get you down — the sword devours in one way or another. Intensify your battle against the city, and overthrow it.' And encourage him."

<sup>26</sup> When the wife of Uriyah heard that Uriyah her husband was dead, she mourned her husband. <sup>27</sup> When the mourning was over, David sent and took her home to his palace, and she became his wife and bore him a son.

But ADONAI saw what David had done as evil.

12 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI sent Natan to David. He came and said to him, "In a certain city there were two men, one rich, the other poor. <sup>2</sup> The rich man had vast flocks and herds; <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had nothing, except for one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and reared. It had grown up with him and his children; it ate from his plate, drank from his cup, lay on his chest — it was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup> One day a traveler visited the rich man, and instead of picking an animal from his own flock or herd to cook for his visitor, he took the poor man's lamb and cooked it for the man who had come to him."

<sup>5</sup> David exploded with anger against the man and said to Natan, "As ADONAI lives, the man who did this deserves to die! <sup>6</sup> For doing such a thing, he has to pay back four times the value of the lamb — and also because he had no pity."

<sup>7</sup> Natan said to David, "You are the man."

"Here is what ADONAI, the God of Isra'el says: 'I anointed you king over Isra'el. I rescued you from the power of Sha'ul. <sup>8</sup> I gave you your master's house and your master's wives to embrace. I gave you the house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah. And if that had been too little, I would have added to you a lot more."

<sup>9</sup> "'So why have you shown such contempt for the word of ADONAI and done what I see as evil? You murdered Uriyah the Hitti with the sword and took his wife as your own wife; you put him to death with the sword of the people of 'Amon. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore, the sword will never leave your house — because you have shown contempt for me and taken the wife of Uriyah the Hitti as your own wife.' <sup>11</sup> Here is what ADONAI says: 'I will generate evil against you out of your own household. I will take your wives before your very eyes and give them to your neighbor; he will go to bed with your wives, and everyone will know about it. <sup>12</sup> For you did it secretly, but I will do this before all Isra'el in broad daylight.'"

<sup>13</sup> David said to Natan, "I have sinned against ADONAI."

Natan said to David, "ADONAI also has taken away your sin. You will not die. <sup>14</sup> However, because by this act you have so greatly blasphemed ADONAI, the child born to you must die." <sup>15</sup> Then Natan returned to his house.

ADONAI struck the child that Uriyah's wife had borne to David, and it became very ill. <sup>16</sup> David prayed to God on behalf of the child; David fasted, then came and lay all night on the ground. <sup>17</sup> The court officials got up and stood next to him trying to get him off the ground, but he refused, and he wouldn't eat food with them. <sup>18</sup> On the seventh day, the child died. The servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, because they said, "While the child was still alive, we spoke to him, and he didn't listen to us; if we tell him now that the child is dead, he may do himself some harm." <sup>19</sup> But when David saw his servants whispering to each other, he suspected that the child was dead. David asked his servants, "Is the child dead?" and they answered, "He is dead."

<sup>20</sup> Then David got up off the ground, washed, anointed himself and changed his clothes. He went into the house of ADONAI and worshipped; then he went to his own palace; and when he asked for food, they served it to him; and he ate. <sup>21</sup> His servants asked him, “What are you doing? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive; but now that the child is dead, you get up and eat food!” <sup>22</sup> He answered, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; because I thought, ‘Maybe ADONAI will show his grace to me and let the child live.’” <sup>23</sup> But now that he’s dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.”

<sup>24</sup> David comforted his wife Bat-Sheva, came to her and went to bed with her; she gave birth to a son and named him Shlomo. ADONAI loved him <sup>25</sup> and sent through Natan the prophet to have him named Y’didiah [loved by God], for ADONAI’s sake.

<sup>26</sup> Yo’av fought against Rabbah of the people of ‘Amon and took the royal city. <sup>27</sup> Yo’av sent people to David with this message: “I have fought against Rabbah and captured its water supply. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, assemble the rest of the people; lay siege to the city; and capture it. Otherwise, I will capture the city; and it will be named after me!” <sup>29</sup> David assembled all the people, went to Rabbah, fought against it and captured it. <sup>30</sup> He took the crown off Malkam’s head; it weighed sixty-six pounds, with its gold and precious stones; and it was placed on David’s head. He carried off great quantities of spoil from the city. <sup>31</sup> In addition, he expelled the people who were in it and set them to work with saws, iron harrows and iron axes, or had them cross over to work in the brick factory. This is what he did to all the cities of the people of ‘Amon. Then David and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

13 <sup>1</sup> Now Avshalom the son of David had a beautiful sister named Tamar. Some time after the previous events, Amnon the son of David fell in love with her. <sup>2</sup> Amnon became so obsessed with his sister Tamar that he became ill, for she was a virgin, and Amnon thought it would be impossible to approach her. <sup>3</sup> But Amnon had a friend named Yonadav the son of Shim’ah David’s brother; and Yonadav was a very shrewd fellow. <sup>4</sup> He asked him, “Why, son of the king, are you growing thinner every day? won’t you tell me?” Amnon answered him, “I’m in love with Tamar, my brother Avshalom’s sister.” <sup>5</sup> Yonadav said to him, “Lie down on your bed, and pretend you’re sick. When your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food to eat, and have her prepare the food where I can watch. I'll eat what she serves me." <sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and pretended he was sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes here where I can watch, and I'll eat what she serves me." <sup>7</sup> David sent this instruction home to Tamar: "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare him some food." <sup>8</sup> So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes while he watched, and baked the cakes. <sup>9</sup> Then she took the pan and turned them out in front of him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Have everyone leave me"; and everyone left him. <sup>10</sup> Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the room, so that I can have you serve me. Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. <sup>11</sup> But when she brought them near, so that he could eat, he grabbed her and said to her, "Come to bed with me, my sister." <sup>12</sup> "No, my brother," she answered him, "don't force me! Things like this Aren't done in Isra'el; don't behave so disgracefully! <sup>13</sup> Where could I go with such shame? And as for you, you will be regarded as one of Isra'el's vulgar brutes. Now therefore, please! Speak to the king, because he won't keep me from you." <sup>14</sup> However, he wouldn't listen to her; and since he was stronger than she, he overpowered her and raped her. <sup>15</sup> But then he was filled with utter revulsion for her — his hatred of her was even greater than the love he had had for her before. Amnon said to her, "Get up, and get out of here!" <sup>16</sup> "No," she objected, "because throwing me out like this is an even worse thing than what you've already done to me!" But he wouldn't listen to her; <sup>17</sup> he called his personal servant and said, "Get rid of this woman for me! Throw her out, and lock the door after her!" <sup>18</sup> She was wearing a long-sleeved robe (this was how they used to dress the king's daughters who were virgins). His servant took her out and locked the door after her. <sup>19</sup> Tamar put ashes on her head, tore her long-sleeved robe that she was wearing, laid her hand on her head and went off, crying aloud as she went.

<sup>20</sup> Avshalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now, my sister, keep quiet; because he's your brother. Don't take the matter to heart." But Tamar remained desolate in her brother Avshalom's house.

<sup>21</sup> When King David heard about all these things, he became very angry.

<sup>22</sup> As for Avshalom, he refused to say a word to Amnon, either good or bad;

for Avshalom hated Amnon for having raped his sister Tamar.

<sup>23</sup> Two years later, when Avshalom had sheep-shearers in Ba'al-Hatzor, near Efrayim, Avshalom invited all the king's sons. <sup>24</sup> Avshalom went to the king and said, "Your servant has sheep-shearers; please let the king and his servants come along with your servant." <sup>25</sup> The king replied to Avshalom, "No, my son, let's not all go — we don't want to be a burden to you." Avshalom pressed him, but he wouldn't go; however he gave him his blessing. <sup>26</sup> Then Avshalom said, "If you won't go, then please let my brother Amnon go with us." The king said to him, "Why should he go with you?" <sup>27</sup> But Avshalom kept pressing him, so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup> Avshalom ordered his servants, "Pay close attention: when Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine, and I say to you, 'Kill Amnon,' then strike him down. Don't be afraid — I'm the one ordering you to do it — but take courage, and be bold." <sup>29</sup> Avshalom's servants did to Amnon as Avshalom had ordered. At this, all the king's sons jumped up, mounted their mules and fled.

<sup>30</sup> While they were on their way, the news came to David that Avshalom had killed all the king's sons, and not one of them was left alive. <sup>31</sup> The king got up, tore his clothes and lay on the ground, while all his servants stood by with their clothes torn too. <sup>32</sup> But then Yonadav, the son of Shim'ah, David's brother, spoke up; he said, "My lord shouldn't think they have killed all the young men, the king's sons. Only Amnon is dead; for Avshalom has meant to do this ever since the day he raped his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup> So my lord the king shouldn't take it as seriously as if all the king's sons are dead; only Amnon is dead."

<sup>34</sup> However, Avshalom took flight. The young man keeping watch looked up and saw many people coming along the road behind him on the hillside. <sup>35</sup> Yonadav said to the king, "Here, the king's sons have come; it's just as your servant said." <sup>36</sup> The moment he finished speaking, the king's sons came, cried out and wept; and the king too, with all his servants, cried out in great pain. <sup>37</sup> Avshalom fled and went to Talmai the son of 'Ammihud, king of G'shur. David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup> So Avshalom fled, went to G'shur and stayed there three years. <sup>39</sup> But as King David became reconciled to the death of his son Amnon, he was increasingly filled with longing to see Avshalom.

14<sup>1</sup> Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah perceived that the king missed Avshalom; <sup>2</sup> so Yo'av sent to T'koa, brought from there a clever woman and said to her, "Please, pretend you're a mourner. Put on mourning clothes, and don't anoint yourself with oil, but appear to be a woman who has mourned for the dead a long time. <sup>3</sup> Go in to the king and speak to him in this fashion —" and then Yo'av told her just what to say. <sup>4</sup> When the woman of T'koa spoke to the king, she fell down with her face to the ground, prostrating herself, and said, "King, help!" <sup>5</sup> The king said to her, "What's the trouble?" She answered, "I'm a widow. After my husband died, <sup>6</sup> my two sons were out in the field; and they got into a fight with each other. There was no one to separate them, and one hit the other and killed him. <sup>7</sup> Now the whole family has come against me, your servant; they're saying, 'Hand over the one who hit his brother, so that we can put him to death for killing his brother.' They want to destroy the heir as well and thus quench my one remaining coal; then my husband will have neither name nor survivor anywhere on earth."

<sup>8</sup> The king said to the woman, "Go back home; I myself will decide what to do about you." <sup>9</sup> The woman of T'koa said to the king, "My lord, king, let the guilt be on me and my father's family; the king and his throne be guiltless." <sup>10</sup> The king answered, "If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me; and he won't bother you any more." <sup>11</sup> "Please," she said, "let the king swear by ADONAI your God that the blood avengers won't do any more destroying, so they won't destroy my son." He said, "As ADONAI lives, not one of your son's hairs will fall to the ground."

<sup>12</sup> Then the woman said, "Please allow your servant to say something else to my lord the king." "Go on," he replied. <sup>13</sup> The woman said, "Why is it, then, that you have produced a situation exactly like this against God's people? By saying what you have said, the king has virtually incriminated himself — in that the king does not bring home again the son he banished. <sup>14</sup> For we will all die someday; we'll be like water spilled on the ground that can't be gathered up again; and God makes no exception for anyone. The king should think of some way to keep the son he banished from being forever an outcast. <sup>15</sup> Now the reason I came to speak about this matter to my lord the king is that the people were intimidating me; so your servant said, 'I will speak now to the king; maybe the king will do what his servant is asking. <sup>16</sup> For the king will listen and rescue his servant from the hands of those who would destroy me and my son together from our share of God's inheritance.' <sup>17</sup> Then your servant said, 'Please let my lord the king say something that will give me relief; for my lord the king is like an angel of God in discerning good from bad — and may ADONAI your God be with you.’”

<sup>18</sup> The king then answered the woman: “I’m going to ask you a question, and please don’t hide anything from me.” The woman said, “Let my lord the king now speak.” <sup>19</sup> The king asked, “Did Yo’av put you up to this?” The woman answered, “As you live, my lord the king, when my lord the king speaks, no one can avoid the issue by turning either right or left. Yes, it was your servant Yo’av who had me do this, and he put in my mouth every word you have heard your servant say. <sup>20</sup> Your servant Yo’av did this in order to bring about some change in the situation. But my lord is wise, he has the wisdom of an angel of God when it comes to understanding anything going on in the land.”

<sup>21</sup> The king said to Yo’av, “All right, I am granting this request. Go, and bring back young Avshalom.” <sup>22</sup> Yo’av fell to the ground on his face, prostrating himself, and blessed the king; Yo’av said, “Today your servant knows that I have won your favor, my lord, king, because the king has done what your servant requested.” <sup>23</sup> Then Yo’av got up, went to G’shur and brought Avshalom to Yerushalayim. <sup>24</sup> However, the king said, “Let him return to his own house, but he is not to appear in my presence.” So Avshalom returned to his own house and did not appear before the king.

<sup>25</sup> Now in all Isra’el there was no one more praised for his beauty than Avshalom — there was no defect on him from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. <sup>26</sup> He would cut his hair only once a year, at the end of the year; and the only reason he cut it then was because it weighed him down. He weighed the hair from his head at 200 shekels (using the royal weight) [about five pounds]. <sup>27</sup> To Avshalom were born three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.

<sup>28</sup> Avshalom lived two years in Yerushalayim without appearing before the king. <sup>29</sup> Then Avshalom summoned Yo’av, planning to send him to the king; but he refused to come to him. He summoned him a second time, but he still wouldn’t come. <sup>30</sup> So he said to his servants, “See, Yo’av’s field is close to mine, and he has barley there; go, and set it on fire.” Avshalom’s servants set the field on fire. <sup>31</sup> Then Yo’av got up, went to Avshalom at his house and asked him, “Why did your servants set my field on fire?” <sup>32</sup> Avshalom answered Yo’av, “Look, I sent a message to you to come here, so that I could send you to the king to ask, ‘Why did I come from G’shur? It would have been better for me if I had stayed there. So now, let me appear before the king; and if I'm guilty of anything, he can kill me.”

<sup>33</sup> Yo'av went to the king and told him; and when he had called for Avshalom, he went to the king and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Avshalom.

15 <sup>1</sup> Some time later, Avshalom prepared himself a chariot and horses, with fifty men to run ahead of him. <sup>2</sup> He would get up early and stand by the road leading to the city gate; and if someone had a case that was to come before the king for judgment, Avshalom would call to him and ask, “What city are you from?” and he would answer, “Your servant is from the such-and-such tribe in Isra'el.” <sup>3</sup> Avshalom would say to him, “Look, your cause is good and just; but the king hasn't deputized anyone to hear your case.” <sup>4</sup> Then Avshalom would continue, “Now if I were made judge in the land, anyone with a suit or other cause could come to me, and I would see that he gets justice!” <sup>5</sup> Moreover, whenever any man came close to prostrate himself before him, he would put out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him. <sup>6</sup> This is how Avshalom behaved toward anyone in Isra'el who came to the king for judgment, and in this way Avshalom stole the hearts of the people of Isra'el.

<sup>7</sup> At the end of forty years, Avshalom said to the king, “Please let me go to Hevron and fulfill the vow I made to ADONAI.” <sup>8</sup> Your servant made a vow while I was staying at G'shur in Aram to the effect that if ADONAI would bring me back to Yerushalayim, then I would serve ADONAI.” <sup>9</sup> The king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he set out and went to Hevron.

<sup>10</sup> But Avshalom sent spies through all the tribes of Isra'el to say, “The moment you hear the sound of the shofar, then start proclaiming, ‘Avshalom is king in Hevron.’” <sup>11</sup> With Avshalom went 200 men from Yerushalayim who had been invited; they went innocently, knowing nothing about the scheme. <sup>12</sup> Avshalom sent for Achitofel the Giloni, David's counselor, to come from his town Giloh and be with him while offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy grew strong, because the number of people favoring Avshalom kept increasing.

<sup>13</sup> A messenger came to David saying, “The men of Isra'el have aligned themselves with Avshalom.” <sup>14</sup> David said to all his servants with him in Yerushalayim, “Get up! We must flee! Otherwise none of us will escape from Avshalom. Hurry, and leave; or he will soon overtake us, attack us and put the city to the sword.” <sup>15</sup> The king’s servants said to the king, “Here, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king decides.” <sup>16</sup> So the king set out, and all his household after him. The king left ten women who were concubines to care for the palace. <sup>17</sup> The king set out with all the people after him, but they waited at the last house <sup>18</sup> for all his servants to pass by him in review; all the K’reti and P’leti and all the Gittim (600 men who had accompanied him from Gat) passed in review before the king.

<sup>19</sup> Then the king said to Ittai the Gitti, “You too? Why are you going with us? Go back, and stay with your king, since you are both a foreigner and in exile from your own place. <sup>20</sup> You arrived only yesterday; should I ask you to wander around with us? There’s no telling where I may go. Return, and take your kinsmen back with you. Grace and truth be with you.” <sup>21</sup> But Ittai answered the king, “As ADONAI lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, your servant will be there too.” <sup>22</sup> “Go, move along,” said David to Ittai; and Ittai the Gitti moved on, accompanied by all his men and the little ones with him.

<sup>23</sup> The whole country wept and wailed as all the people left. When the king crossed Vadi Kidron, all the people crossed, too, heading toward the desert road. <sup>24</sup> Tzadok also came, accompanied by all the L’vi’im bearing the ark for the covenant of God. They set the ark of God down, but Evyatar went up until all the people had finished leaving the city. <sup>25</sup> The king said to Tzadok, “Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in ADONAI’s sight, he will bring me back and show me both it and the place where it is kept. <sup>26</sup> But if he says, ‘I am displeased with you,’ then — here I am; let him do to me whatever seems good to him.” <sup>27</sup> The king then said to Tzadok the cohen, “Do you see? Return to the city in peace, your two sons with you — Achima’atz your own son and Y’honatan the son of Evyatar. <sup>28</sup> I will wait on the desert plains until a message with new information comes from you.”

<sup>29</sup> So Tzadok and Evyatar carried the ark of God back to Yerushalayim and stayed there.

<sup>30</sup> David continued up the road to the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went up, head covered and barefoot; and all the people with him had their heads covered and wept as they went up. <sup>31</sup> One of them told David, “Achitofel is among the conspirators with Avshalom.” David said, “ADONAI, please! Turn Achitofel’s advice into foolishness!”

<sup>32</sup> When David reached the top of the ascent, where it was customary to worship God, Hushai the Arki came to meet him with his tunic torn and earth on his head. <sup>33</sup> David said to him, “If you go on with me, you will become a burden to me. <sup>34</sup> But if you go back to the city and tell Avshalom, ‘King, I will be your servant; just as I was your father’s servant in the past, so I will now be your servant’ — then you will be able to frustrate Achitofel’s advice for me. <sup>35</sup> You have Tzadok and Evyatar the cohanim there with you. So whatever you hear from the king’s house, you tell to Tzadok and Evyatar the cohanim. <sup>36</sup> Their two sons, Achima‘atz the son of Tzadok and Y’honatan the son of Evyatar, are there with them; through them send me everything you hear.” <sup>37</sup> So Hushai David’s friend came into the city when Avshalom was about to enter Yerushalayim.

16 <sup>1</sup> When David had gone a little past the summit, there was Tziva, the servant of M’fivoshet, who met him with a pair of donkeys saddled and on them 200 loaves of bread, 100 bunches of raisins, 100 pieces of summer fruit and a skin of wine. <sup>2</sup> The king said to Tziva, “What do you mean by these?” Tziva replied, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride on; the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat; and the wine is for those who collapse in the desert to drink.” <sup>3</sup> The king asked, “Where is your master’s [grand]son?” Tziva answered the king, “He’s staying in Yerushalayim, because he said, ‘Today the house of Isra’el will restore my father’s kingship to me.’” <sup>4</sup> The king said to Tziva, “Everything that belongs to M’fivoshet is now yours.” Tziva answered, “I bow down before you; may I find favor in your sight, my lord, king.”

<sup>5</sup> When King David arrived at Bachurim, there came out from there a man from Sha’ul’s family named Shim‘i the son of Gera; and he came out pronouncing curses <sup>6</sup> and throwing stones at David and all King David’s servants; even though all the people, including his bodyguard, surrounded him right and left. <sup>7</sup> When Shim‘i cursed, he said, “Get out of here! Get out of here, you killer, you good-for-nothing! <sup>8</sup> ADONAI has brought back on you all the blood of the house of Sha’ul. You usurped his kingship, but ADONAI has handed over the kingdom to Avshalom your son. Now your own evil has overtaken you, because you are a man of blood!”

<sup>9</sup> Avishai the son of Tz’ruyah said to the king, “Why allow this dead dog to curse my lord the king? Just let me go over and remove his head!” <sup>10</sup> The king said, “Do you sons of Tz’ruyah and I have anything in common? Let him curse. If ADONAI tells him, ‘Curse David,’ who has the right to ask, ‘Why are you doing it?’” <sup>11</sup> David then said to Avishai and all his servants, “Look, my own son, who came from my own body, seeks my life. So how much more now this Binyamini! Let him alone; and let him curse, if ADONAI told him to. <sup>12</sup> Maybe ADONAI will notice how I’m treating him, and ADONAI will reward me with good instead of his curses.” <sup>13</sup> So David and his men went on their way, while on the opposite hillside Shim‘i kept pace with him, cursing, throwing stones and flinging dust as he went. <sup>14</sup> The king and all the people with him arrived exhausted, so he rested there.

<sup>15</sup> Meanwhile Avshalom and all the people, the men of Isra’el, came to Yerushalayim; Achitofel was with him. <sup>16</sup> Hushai the Arki, David’s friend, came to Avshalom and said to him, “Long live the king! Long live the king!” <sup>17</sup> Avshalom asked Hushai, “Is this how you show kindness to your friend? Why didn’t you go with your friend?” <sup>18</sup> Hushai replied, “No, but whomever ADONAI and this people and all the men of Isra’el choose, his I will be; and with him I will stay. <sup>19</sup> Moreover, whom should I serve? Shouldn’t I serve in the presence of his son? Just as I have served in your father’s presence, so will I be in your presence.”

<sup>20</sup> Avshalom said to Achitofel, “Give your advice as to what we should do.” <sup>21</sup> Achitofel answered Avshalom, “Go in, and sleep with your father’s concubines, the ones he left to take care of the palace. All Isra’el will hear that your father utterly despises you, and this will strengthen the position of all those who are on your side.” <sup>22</sup> So they set up a tent for Avshalom on the roof of the palace; and Avshalom went in to sleep with his father’s concubines in the sight of all Isra’el. <sup>23</sup> In those days Achitofel’s advice was regarded as highly as if someone had sought out the word of God; it was this way with Achitofel’s advice both to David and to Avshalom.

17 <sup>1</sup> Achitofel said to Avshalom, “Let me now choose 12,000 men, and I will pursue David tonight. <sup>2</sup> I’ll fall on him unexpectedly when he’s tired and powerless. I’ll frighten him, all the people with him will flee, and I’ll attack only the king. <sup>3</sup> Then I will bring back to you all the people; and when they have all returned, except the one you are seeking, all the people will be at peace.” <sup>4</sup> What he said pleased Avshalom and all the leaders of Isra’el.

<sup>5</sup> Then Avshalom said, “Now call also Hushai the Arki, and let’s give equal hearing to what he has to say.” <sup>6</sup> When Hushai appeared before Avshalom, Avshalom said to him, “Achitofel has said such-and-such. Should we do what he says? If not, you tell us.” <sup>7</sup> Hushai said to Avshalom, “The advice Achitofel has given this time is not good. <sup>8</sup>You know,” continued Hushai, “that your father and his men are powerful men, and that they are as bitter as a bear deprived of her cubs in the wild. Moreover, your father is a military man, and he won’t camp with the rest of the people — <sup>9</sup> right now he’s hidden in a pit or somewhere. So what will happen is this: when they begin their attack, and whoever hears about it says, ‘A slaughter is taking place among Avshalom’s followers,’ <sup>10</sup> then even the strongest among them, someone whose courage is that of a lion, will completely collapse! For all Isra’el knows that your father is a powerful man, and those with him are powerful men. <sup>11</sup> Rather, I advise that you summon all Isra’el to come to you, from Dan to Be’er-Sheva, numbering as many as sand grains on the seashore; and then you go to battle, yourself. <sup>12</sup> In this way we’ll come upon him wherever he is, and we’ll fall on him as the dew falls on the ground; of him and all the men with him we won’t leave even one alive. <sup>13</sup> If he withdraws into a city, then all Isra’el will bring up ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the riverbed until not even a pebble is left.” <sup>14</sup> Avshalom and all the men of Isra’el said, “The advice of Hushai the Arki is better than the advice of Achitofel” — for ADONAI had determined to frustrate the good advice of Achitofel, so that ADONAI could bring disaster on Avshalom.

<sup>15</sup> Then Hushai said to Tzadok and Evyatar the cohanim, “Achitofel gave such-and-such advice to Avshalom and the leaders of Isra’el, but I advised so and so. <sup>16</sup>Now therefore send quickly and tell David, “Don’t stay tonight in the desert plains; but, whatever it takes, move on from there! Otherwise, the king and all the people with him will be engulfed.” <sup>17</sup> Y’honatan and Achima’atz were staying at ‘Ein-Rogel; a female servant was to go and tell them, and they in turn were to go and tell King David — for it would not do to have them seen entering the city. <sup>18</sup> But a boy saw them and told Avshalom; so both of them took off quickly and came to the house of a man in Bachurim who had a cistern in his courtyard; and they went down into it. <sup>19</sup>His wife spread a covering over the cistern’s opening and scattered drying grain on it, so that nothing showed. <sup>20</sup> Avshalom’s servants came to the woman at the house and asked, “Where are Achima’atz and Y’honatan?”

The woman answered them, "They've crossed the stream." After searching and not finding them, they returned to Yerushalayim.

<sup>21</sup> After they had left, the two climbed out of the cistern and went and told King David, "Get up and cross the river, because Achitofel has given such-and-such advice against you." <sup>22</sup> David and all the people with him got up and crossed the Yarden; by dawn every one of them had crossed the Yarden. <sup>23</sup> When Achitofel saw that his advice was not being followed, he saddled his donkey, set out, and went home to his own city. After setting his house in order, he hanged himself; he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

<sup>24</sup> David had reached Machanayim by the time Avshalom and all the men of Isra'el crossed the Yarden. <sup>25</sup> Avshalom had put 'Amasa in charge of the army in place of Yo'av. 'Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Yitra the Isra'eli, who had had sexual relations with Avigal the daughter of Nachash, Tz'ruyah's sister and Yo'av's mother. <sup>26</sup> Isra'el and Avshalom pitched camp in the land of Gil'ad.

<sup>27</sup> After David had arrived in Machanayim, Shovi the son of Nachash, from Rabbah of the people of 'Amon; Machir the son of 'Ammi'el from Lo-D'var and Barzillai the Gil'adi from Roglim <sup>28</sup> brought beds, basins, clay pots, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, roasted millet, <sup>29</sup> honey, curdled milk, sheep and cheese made of cow's milk for David and the people with him to eat; because they said, "These people are hungry, tired and thirsty from the desert."

18 <sup>1</sup> David took a census of the people who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and of hundreds. <sup>2</sup> Then David dispatched the people, a third of them under the command of Yo'av, a third under Avishai the son of Tz'ruyah, Yo'av's brother, and a third under Ittai the Gitti; and the king said to the people, "I will also go out with you, myself." <sup>3</sup> But the people replied, "Don't go out; because if we flee, they won't care about us. Even if half of us die, they won't care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; so it is better now that you stay in the city and be ready if we need help." <sup>4</sup> The king answered them, "I will do whatever you think best." So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. <sup>5</sup> The king gave orders to Yo'av, Avishai and Ittai, "For my sake, deal gently with young Avshalom.” All the people were listening when the king gave all the commanders this order concerning Avshalom.

<sup>6</sup> So the people went out into the field against Isra’el; the battle took place in the forest of Efrayim. <sup>7</sup> The people of Isra’el were defeated there by David’s servants; there was a terrible slaughter that day of 20,000 men. <sup>8</sup> For the battle there was spread all over the countryside; the forest devoured more people that day than did the sword.

<sup>9</sup> Avshalom happened to meet some of David’s servants. Avshalom was riding his mule, and as the mule walked under the thick branches of a big terebinth tree, his head got caught in the terebinth, so that he was left hanging between earth and sky, as the mule went on from under him. <sup>10</sup> Someone saw it and told Yo’av, “I saw Avshalom hanging in a terebinth.” <sup>11</sup> Yo’av asked the man who told him, “Here now, you saw it; so why didn’t you strike him to the ground then and there? I would have had to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt besides.” <sup>12</sup> The man replied to Yo’av, “Even if I were to get a thousand pieces of silver, I still wouldn’t raise my hand against the son of the king! After all, while we were listening, the king ordered you, Avishai and Ittai, ‘Be careful that no one touches young Avshalom.’” <sup>13</sup> Or, if I had pretended that I didn’t know, the king would have known otherwise anyway; and you wouldn’t have interceded for me either.” <sup>14</sup> Yo’av said, “I can’t waste time arguing with you!” He took three darts in his hand and rammed them through Avshalom’s heart while he was still alive, hanging from the terebinth. <sup>15</sup> Then Yo’av’s ten young armor-bearers surrounded Avshalom, struck him and killed him.

<sup>16</sup> Yo’av sounded the shofar, and the people returned from pursuing Isra’el, because Yo’av held back the troops. <sup>17</sup> They took Avshalom and threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled a big heap of stones over him. All Isra’el fled, each one to his tent. <sup>18</sup> In his own lifetime Avshalom had taken and raised for himself the pillar which stands in the King’s Valley; because he said, “I don’t have a son to preserve the memory of my name.” So he named the pillar after himself, and it’s called Avshalom’s Monument to this day.

<sup>19</sup> Then Achima’atz the son of Tzadok said, “Let me run now and bring news to the king that ADONAI has judged in his favor by releasing him from his enemies.” <sup>20</sup> Yo’av said to him, “You are not to be the one to bring the news today; you can convey news another day; but today you will not bring news, because the king’s son is dead.” <sup>21</sup> Then Yo’av said to the Ethiopian,

“Go, tell the king what you saw.” The Ethiopian bowed to Yo’av, then ran off. <sup>22</sup> But Achima‘atz the son of Tzadok said again to Yo’av, “Come what may, please let me also run after the Ethiopian.” Yo’av answered, “Why do you want to run, my son? You won’t receive any reward for bringing the news.” <sup>23</sup> “I don’t care — whatever happens, I want to run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Achima‘atz ran by the road through the desert flats and outran the Ethiopian.

<sup>24</sup> David was sitting between the two gates. A watchman went up to the roof of the gate and out onto the wall, raised his eyes, looked, and saw there a man running by himself. <sup>25</sup> The watchman cried out and told the king. The king said, “If he’s alone, he has good news to tell.” As he ran along and came close, <sup>26</sup> the watchman saw another man running and called to the gatekeeper, “There’s another man running by himself.” The king said, “He too must have good news.” <sup>27</sup> The watchman said, “The first one runs like Achima‘atz the son of Tzadok.” The king said, “He’s a good man, he comes with good news.”

<sup>28</sup> Achima‘atz called to the king, “Shalom,” prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, “Blessed be ADONAI your God, who has handed over the men who rebelled against my lord the king.” <sup>29</sup> The king asked, “Is everything all right with young Avshalom?” Achima‘atz answered, “When Yo’av sent the king’s servant and me your servant, I saw a big commotion; but I didn’t know what it was.” <sup>30</sup> The king said, “Go, and stand over there.” So he went and stood there. <sup>31</sup> Then up came the Ethiopian, and the Ethiopian said, “There’s good news for my lord the king, for ADONAI has judged in your favor and rid you of all those who rebelled against you.” <sup>32</sup> The king asked the Ethiopian, “Is everything all right with young Avshalom?” The Ethiopian answered, “May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rebel against you in order to harm you be as that young man is.”

19 <sup>1(18:33)</sup> Trembling, the king went up to the room over the gate, weeping and crying, “Oh, my son Avshalom! My son! My son Avshalom! If only I had died instead of you! Oh, Avshalom, my son, my son!”

<sup>2(1)</sup> Yo’av was told, “The king is weeping, mourning for Avshalom.” <sup>3(2)</sup> Thus the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day that the king was grieving for his son; <sup>4(3)</sup> so that the people entered the city furtively that day, the way that people who are ashamed creep away when fleeing a battlefield. <sup>5(4)</sup> Meanwhile, the king covered his face and cried aloud, “Oh, my son Avshalom! Oh, Avshalom, my son, my son!”

<sup>6(5)</sup> Yo'av went inside to the king and said, “Today you made all your servants feel ashamed. They saved your life today, and the lives of your sons, daughters, wives and concubines. <sup>7(6)</sup> But you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. Today you said that princes and servants mean nothing to you — for I can see today that it would have pleased you more if Avshalom had lived today, and we had all died! <sup>8(7)</sup> Now get up, go out and speak heart-to-heart with your servants. For I swear by ADONAI that if you don't go out, not one man will stay here with you tonight — and that will be worse for you than all the misfortunes you have suffered from your youth until now.” <sup>9(8)</sup> So the king got up and sat in the city gateway; and when all the people were told, “Now the king is sitting in the gate,” they came before the king.

Meanwhile, Isra'el had fled, each man to his tent; <sup>10(9)</sup> and throughout all the tribes of Isra'el there was dissension among all the people. They were saying, “The king delivered us from the power of our enemies, and he saved us from the power of the P'lishtim; but now he has fled the land to escape Avshalom. <sup>11(10)</sup> However, Avshalom, whom we anointed to rule us, is dead in battle. So now, why doesn't anyone suggest bringing the king back?”

<sup>12(11)</sup> King David sent this message to Tzadok and Evyatar the cohanim: “Ask the leaders of Y'hudah, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his palace? The king has already heard that all Isra'el wants to return him to his palace. <sup>13(12)</sup> You are my kinsmen, my flesh and bone; so why are you the last to bring back the king?’ <sup>14(13)</sup> Also tell ‘Amasa, ‘You are my flesh and bone. May God bring terrible curses on me and worse ones yet if from now on you are not permanent commander of my army instead of Yo'av.” <sup>15(14)</sup> Thus he turned the hearts of all the men of Y'hudah around as if they were one man, so that they sent a message to the king, “Come back, you and all your servants!”

<sup>16(15)</sup> The king started back and arrived at the Yarden, while Y'hudah came to Gilgal in order to meet the king and bring the king over the Yarden. <sup>17(16)</sup> Shim'i the son of Gera, the Binyamini from Bachurim, hurried and came down with the men of Y'hudah to meet King David. <sup>18(17)</sup> There were a thousand men of Binyamin with him, also Tziva the servant of the house of

Sha'ul with his fifteen sons and twenty servants; and they rushed into the Yarden ahead of the king <sup>19(18)</sup> to ferry the king's household across and do whatever else the king wanted done. Shim'i the son of Gera fell down before the king when he was ready to cross the Yarden <sup>20(19)</sup> and said to the king, "May my lord not hold me guilty of a crime. Don't remember the wrong your servant did on the day my lord the king left Yerushalayim. May the king not take it to heart! <sup>21(20)</sup> For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, look — I am the first one of all the house of Yosef to come today and go down to meet my lord the king."

<sup>22(21)</sup> Avishai the son of Tz'ruyah answered, "Shouldn't Shim'i be put to death for this? After all, he cursed ADONAI's anointed ruler!" <sup>23(22)</sup> But David said, "What do I have in common with you, you sons of Tz'ruyah? Why have you become my adversaries today? Should anyone in Isra'el be put to death today? Don't I know that today I am king over Isra'el?" <sup>24(23)</sup> Then the king said to Shim'i, "You will not be put to death," and the king swore it to him.

<sup>25(24)</sup> M'fivoshet the son of Sha'ul came down to meet the king. He hadn't cared for his legs, trimmed his beard or washed his clothes from the day the king had left until the day he came home in peace. <sup>26(25)</sup> When he came to Yerushalayim to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why didn't you go with me, M'fivoshet?" <sup>27(26)</sup> He answered, "My lord king, my servant deceived me. I your servant had said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself to ride on and go with the king,' since your servant is lame. <sup>28(27)</sup> But he slandered me your servant to my lord the king. However, my lord the king is like an angel of God; so do whatever seems right to you. <sup>29(28)</sup> For all my father's household deserved death at the hand of my lord the king; nevertheless you placed your servant with those who eat at your own table. I deserve nothing more; so why should I come crying any more to the king?" <sup>30(29)</sup> The king said to him, "Why speak any more about these matters of yours? I say: you and Tziva, divide the land." <sup>31(30)</sup> M'fivoshet said to the king, "Indeed, let him take it all; for me it's enough that my lord the king has come home in peace."

<sup>32(31)</sup> Barzillai the Gil'adi had come down from Roglim and passed on to the Yarden with the king to bring him across the Yarden. <sup>33(32)</sup> Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years old; he had provided for the king's needs when he was staying at Machanayim; for he was a wealthy man. <sup>34(33)</sup> The king said to Barzillai, "Come on across with me, and I will provide for your needs with me in Yerushalayim.” <sup>35(34)</sup>Barzillai said to the king, “How much longer can I live, that I should go up with the king to Yerushalayim? <sup>36(35)</sup> I am now eighty years old. Can I tell good from bad? Can your servant even taste what he eats or drinks? Can I hear the voice of men and women singing any more? Why should your servant burden my lord the king? <sup>37(36)</sup> Your servant only wants to cross the Yarden with the king; why should the king reward this so generously? <sup>38(37)</sup> Please, just let your servant go back and die in my own city, near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Khimham; let him cross with my lord the king; and do for him whatever seems good to you.” <sup>39(38)</sup>The king answered, “Khimham will cross with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you. Whatever you ask of me, I will do for you.” <sup>40(39)</sup> So all the people crossed the Yarden; and the king crossed too. The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him; then he returned to his home. <sup>41(40)</sup> The king crossed over to Gilgal, and Khimham crossed with him. All the people of Y’hudah brought the king across, as did half the people of Isra’el.

<sup>42(41)</sup> Now all the men of Isra’el came to the king and said to him, “Why have our kinsmen, the men of Y’hudah, stolen you away and brought the king and his household across the Yarden, and all David’s men with him?”

<sup>43(42)</sup> All the men of Y’hudah answered the men of Isra’el, “Because the king is our close relative. Why are you angry about this? Have we eaten anything at the king’s expense? Has any gift been given to us?”

<sup>44(43)</sup> The men of Isra’el answered the men of Y’hudah, “We have ten shares in the king; also we have more right in David than you. So why did you despise us? Weren’t we the first to suggest bringing our king back?” But the men of Y’hudah spoke more vehemently than the men of Isra’el.

20 <sup>1</sup> There happened to be there a scoundrel whose name was Sheva the son of Bikhri, a Binyamini. He sounded the shofar and said, “We have no share in David, no inheritance in the son of Yishai; so, Isra’el, every man to his tent!” <sup>2</sup> All the men of Isra’el left off following David and went after Sheva the son of Bikhri. But the men of Y’hudah stuck with their king, from the Yarden to Yerushalayim.

<sup>3</sup> When David arrived at his palace in Yerushalayim, the king took the ten women who were his concubines, whom he had left to care for the palace, and put them under guard. He provided for their needs but never slept with them again. They were kept in confinement until the day of their death, living like widows with their husband still alive.

<sup>4</sup> The king said to ‘Amasa, “Summon the men of Y’hudah to come to me within three days; and you, be here too.” <sup>5</sup> ‘Amasa went to summon the men of Y’hudah but took longer than the time he had been given. <sup>6</sup> David said to Avishai, “Sheva the son of Bikhri is going to do us more harm than Avshalom. Take your lord’s servants and pursue him, so that he won’t take over fortified cities and escape us.” <sup>7</sup> With him went Yo’av’s men, the K’reti, the P’leti and all the experienced soldiers; they left Yerushalayim in pursuit of Sheva the son of Bikhri.

<sup>8</sup> On arrival at the big rock in Giv’on, ‘Amasa came to meet them. Yo’av was wearing his battle clothes, over which he had girded a belt with a sheathed sword; but as he came forward it fell out. <sup>9</sup> Yo’av said to ‘Amasa, “Is it going well with you, my brother? Then, with his right hand, Yo’av took ‘Amasa by the beard to kiss him. <sup>10</sup> ‘Amasa took no notice of the sword in Yo’av’s hand, so Yo’av stabbed him in the groin. His insides poured out on the ground, and he died without being stabbed a second time.

Yo’av and Avishai his brother continued in pursuit of Sheva the son of Bikhri. <sup>11</sup> One of Yo’av’s young men standing by Yo’av said, “Whoever is on Yo’av’s side, whoever is for David — let him follow Yo’av.” <sup>12</sup> ‘Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road; so that as the troops came up, they all halted there. When the man saw that all the people were standing still, he dragged ‘Amasa off the road into the field and threw a cloak over him. <sup>13</sup> Once he had been removed from the road, all the troops went on after Yo’av, to pursue Sheva the son of Bikhri.

<sup>14</sup> Sheva went through all the tribes of Isra’el, to Avel and Beit-Ma’akhah, and to all the Berim; they assembled and followed him. <sup>15</sup> Yo’av’s troops came and put him under siege in Avel of Beit-Ma’akhah — they put up a ramp in the moat against the city wall; and all the people with Yo’av battered the wall in order to bring it down. <sup>16</sup> Then a wise woman in the city shouted, “Listen! Listen! Please tell Yo’av, ‘Come over here, so that I can speak with you.’” <sup>17</sup> He approached her, and the woman asked, “Are you Yo’av?” He answered, “I am.” She said to him, “Listen to what your servant has to say.” He answered, “I’m listening.” <sup>18</sup> Then she said, “In the old days they used to say, ‘They will ask advice at Avel’; and that would end the discussion. <sup>19</sup> We are among those in Isra’el who are peaceful and faithful. Why are you destroying a city and a mother in Isra’el? Why swallow up the inheritance of ADONAI?” <sup>20</sup> Yo’av answered, “Heaven forbid! Heaven forbid that I should swallow or destroy anything! <sup>21</sup> That’s not how it is. Rather, a man from the hills of Efrayim, Sheva the son of Bikhri, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Just turn him over to me, and I will leave the city.” The woman said to Yo’av, “All right, his head will be thrown to you over the wall.” <sup>22</sup> Then the woman went to all the people with her wise plan. They cut off the head of Sheva the son of Bikhri and threw it out to Yo’av. So he sounded the shofar, and they left the city, sending each man to his tent; while Yo’av returned to the king in Yerushalayim.

<sup>23</sup> Once again Yo’av was commander over the whole army of Isra’el, while B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada was over the K’reti and P’leti, <sup>24</sup> Adoram was in charge of forced labor, Y’hoshafat the son of Achilud was secretary of state, <sup>25</sup> Sh’va was recorder, Tzadok and Evyatar were cohanim, <sup>26</sup> and ‘Ira the Ya’iri was David’s cohen.

21 <sup>1</sup> In David’s time there was a famine that lasted three years, and David consulted ADONAI. ADONAI said, “It is because of Sha’ul and his bloodstained house, because he put to death the people of Giv’on.” <sup>2</sup> The king summoned the Giv’onim and said to them — these Giv’onim were not part of the people of Isra’el but from the remnant of the Emori; and the people of Isra’el had sworn to them; but Sha’ul, in his zeal for the people of Isra’el and Y’hudah, had sought to exterminate them — <sup>3</sup> David said to the Giv’onim, “What should I do for you? With what should I make atonement, so that you will be able to bless ADONAI’s heritage?” <sup>4</sup> The Giv’onim said to him, “Our dispute with Sha’ul can’t be resolved with silver or gold; and we don’t have the right to put anyone in Isra’el to death.” He said, “So, what do you say that I should do for you?” <sup>5</sup> They answered the king, “The man who ruined us, who schemed against us so that we would cease to exist anywhere in Isra’el’s territory — <sup>6</sup> have seven of his male descendants handed over to us, and we will put them to death by hanging before ADONAI in Giv’ah of Sha’ul, whom ADONAI chose.” The king said, “I will hand them over.” <sup>7</sup> But the king spared M’fivoshet, the son of Y’honatan the son of Sha’ul, because of the oath before ADONAI between David and Y’honatan the son of Sha’ul. <sup>8</sup> The king took the two sons of Ritzpah the daughter of Ayah, whom she bore to Sha’ul, Armoni and M’fivoshet; and the five sons of Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul, whom she bore to Adri'el the son of Barzillai the Mecholati; <sup>9</sup> and handed them over to the Giv'onim, who hanged them on the hill before ADONAI. All seven died; they were put to death during the first days of the harvest season, at the beginning of the barley harvest. <sup>10</sup> Ritzpah the daughter of Ayah took sackcloth, spread it out toward a cliff for herself and stayed there from the beginning of the harvest until water was poured out on the bodies from the sky, not letting the birds land on them during the day or the wild animals at night.

<sup>11</sup> David was told what Ritzpah the daughter of Ayah, the concubine of Sha'ul, had done. <sup>12</sup> So David went and took the bones of Sha'ul and the bones of Y'honatan his son from the men of Yavesh-Gil'ad, who had stolen them from the open square of Beit-Sh'an, where the P'lishtim had hanged them at the time the P'lishtim had killed Sha'ul at Gilboa; <sup>13</sup> and he brought up from there the bones of Sha'ul and the bones of Y'honatan his son. They also gathered the bones of those who had been hanged. <sup>14</sup> Then they buried the bones of Sha'ul and Y'honatan his son in the territory of Binyamin in Tzela, in the tomb of Kish his father; they did everything the king ordered. Only after that was God prevailed on to show mercy to the land.

<sup>15</sup> Once again the P'lishtim made war on Isra'el. David went down with his servants and fought against the P'lishtim, but David began to get tired. <sup>16</sup> Yishbi-B'nov, one of the sons of the giant, said that he would kill David; his spear weighed seven pounds, and he was wearing new armor. <sup>17</sup> But Avishai the son of Tz'ruyah came to David's rescue by striking the P'lishti and killing him. Then David's men swore to him, "You must no longer go out with us to battle, in order not to quench the lamp of Isra'el." <sup>18</sup> A while after this there was again war with the P'lishtim, at Gov. Sibkhai the Hushati killed Saf, one of the sons of the giant. <sup>19</sup> There was more war with the P'lishtim at Gov; and Elchanan the son of Ya'arei-Orgim, the Beit-Lachmi, killed Golyat the Gitti, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's beam. <sup>20</sup> There was again war at Gat, where there was a belligerent man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot — twenty-four in all — and he too was a son of the giant. <sup>21</sup> When he mocked Isra'el, Y'honatan the son of Shim'ah David's brother killed him. <sup>22</sup> These four were sons of the giant in Gat; they fell at the hands of David and his servants.

22 <sup>1</sup> David said the words of this song to ADONAI on the day ADONAI delivered him from the power of all his enemies and from the power of Sha'ul. <sup>2</sup> He said:

“ADONAI is my Rock, my fortress and deliverer,

<sup>3</sup> the God who is my Rock, in whom I find shelter, my shield, the power that saves me,

my stronghold and my refuge.

My savior, you have saved me from violence.

<sup>4</sup> I call on ADONAI, who is worthy of praise;

and I am saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup> “For death’s breakers were closing over me,

the floods of B’liya‘al terrified me,

<sup>6</sup> the ropes of Sh’ol were wrapped around me,

the snares of death lay there before me.

<sup>7</sup> In my distress I called to ADONAI;

yes, I called to my God.

Out of his temple he heard my voice,

and my cry entered his ears.

<sup>8</sup> “Then the earth quaked and shook,

the foundations of heaven trembled.

They were shaken because he was angry.

<sup>9</sup> Smoke arose in his nostrils;

and from his mouth, devouring fire,

with coals blazing from it.

<sup>10</sup> He lowered heaven and came down with thick darkness under his feet.

<sup>11</sup> He rode on a keruv and flew,

he was seen on the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup> He made darkness his canopy around him, thick clouds in the skies dense with water.

<sup>13</sup> From the brightness before him,

fiery coals flamed out.

<sup>14</sup> “A<sub>DONAI</sub> thundered from heaven,

Ha‘Elyon sounded his voice.

<sup>15</sup> He sent out arrows and scattered them;

with lightning he routed them.

<sup>16</sup> The channels of the sea appeared,

the foundations of the world were exposed at A<sub>DONAI</sub>'s rebuke, at the blast of breath from his nostrils.

<sup>17</sup> "He sent from on high, he took me and pulled me out of deep water;

<sup>18</sup> he rescued me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me, for they were stronger than I.

<sup>19</sup> They came against me on my day of calamity, but A<sub>DONAI</sub> was my support.

<sup>20</sup> "He brought me out to an open place;

he rescued me, because he took pleasure in me.

<sup>21</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> rewarded me for my uprightness, he repaid me because my hands were clean.

<sup>22</sup> "For I have kept the ways of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

I have not done evil by leaving my God;

<sup>23</sup> for all his rulings were before me,

I did not depart from his regulations.

<sup>24</sup> I was pure-hearted toward him and kept myself from my sin.

“Hence A<sub>DONAI</sub> repaid me for my uprightness, according to my purity in his view.

<sup>26</sup> With the merciful, you are merciful;
with the champion of purity, you are pure;

<sup>27</sup> with the honest, you are honest;
but with the crooked you are cunning.

<sup>28</sup> People afflicted, you save;
but when your eyes are on the haughty, you humble them.

<sup>29</sup> “For you, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, are my lamp;
A<sub>DONAI</sub> lights up my darkness.

<sup>30</sup> With you I can run through a whole troop of men, with my God I can leap a wall.

<sup>31</sup> “As for God, his way is perfect, the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub> has been tested by fire;
he shields all who take refuge in him.

<sup>32</sup> For who is God but A<sub>DONAI</sub>, and who is a Rock but our God?

<sup>33</sup> “God is my strength and protection;

he makes my way go straight.

<sup>34</sup> He makes me swift and sure-footed as a deer and enables me to stand on my high places.

<sup>35</sup> He trains my hands for war until my arms can bend a bow of bronze;

<sup>36</sup> You give me your shield, which is salvation;
your answers make me great.

<sup>37</sup> You lengthen the steps I can take,
yet my ankles do not turn.

<sup>38</sup> “I pursued my enemies and wiped them out, without turning back until they were destroyed.

<sup>39</sup> I destroyed them, crushed them; they can’t get up;
they have fallen under my feet.

<sup>40</sup> “For you braced me with strength for the battle and bent down my adversaries beneath me.

<sup>41</sup> You made my enemies turn their backs in flight,
so that I could destroy those who hate me.

<sup>42</sup> “They looked, but there was no one to help, even to ADONAI, but he didn't answer.

<sup>43</sup> I pulverized them like dust on the ground, pounded and stamped on them like mud in the streets.

<sup>44</sup> “You also freed me from the quarrels of my people.
You kept me to be the head of the nations;
a people I did not know now serve me.

<sup>45</sup> Foreigners come cringing to me;
the moment they hear of me, they obey me.

<sup>46</sup> Foreigners lose heart as they stagger from their fortresses.

<sup>47</sup> “ADONAI is alive! Blessed is my Rock!

Exalted be God, the Rock of my salvation,

<sup>48</sup> the God who gives me vengeance and makes peoples submit to me.

<sup>49</sup> He brings me out from my enemies.

You raise me over those who rebel against me,
you rescue me from violent men.

<sup>50</sup> “So I give thanks to you, ADONAI, among the nations;
I sing praises to your name.

He is a tower of salvation for his king;
he displays grace to his anointed,
to David and his descendants forever.”

23<sup>1</sup> Here are David’s last words:

“This is the speech of David the son of Yishai,
the speech of the man who has been raised up,
the one anointed by the God of Ya‘akov,
the sweet singer of Isra’el.

<sup>2</sup> “The Spirit of A<sub>DONAI</sub> spoke through me, his word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup> The God of Isra’el spoke;
the Rock of Isra’el said to me, ‘A ruler over people must be upright, ruling in the fear of God;

<sup>4</sup> like the morning light at sunrise on a cloudless day that makes the grass on the earth sparkle after a rain.’

<sup>5</sup> “For my house stands firm with God —

he made an everlasting covenant with me.

It is in order, fully assured, that he will bring to full growth
all my salvation and every desire.

<sup>6</sup> “But the ungodly are like thorn bushes to be pushed aside, every one of them.

They cannot be taken in one’s hand;

<sup>7</sup> To touch them one uses pitchfork or spear-shaft, and then only to burn them where they lie.”

<sup>8</sup> Following are the names of David’s warrior-heroes:

Yoshev-Bashevet the Tach’kmoni, chief of the three, also known as ‘Adino the ‘Etzni; he is the one who came against 800 men, whom he killed in a single encounter.

<sup>9</sup> After him was El’azar the son of Dodo the son of Achochi, one of the three warriors with David when they put their lives in jeopardy against the P’lishtim who were there assembled for battle, while the men of Isra’el had gone away. <sup>10</sup> He stood firm and attacked the P’lishtim until his hand went into spasm, so that he couldn’t let go of his sword. ADONAI accomplished a great victory that day; but the people didn’t return until he had finished, and then only to plunder the bodies of the dead.

<sup>11</sup> After him was Shammah the son of Age the Harari. The P’lishtim had assembled at Lechi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the P’lishtim. <sup>12</sup> But he stood in the middle of the plot and defended it, killing the P’lishtim; and ADONAI brought about a great victory.

<sup>13</sup> During harvest season three of the thirty leaders went down and came to David at the cave of ‘Adulam when a company of P’lishtim had set up camp in the Refa’im Valley. <sup>14</sup> At that time David was in the fortress, and the garrison of the P’lishtim was in Beit-Lechem. <sup>15</sup> David had a craving and said, “I wish someone could give me water to drink from the well by the gate of Beit-Lechem!” <sup>16</sup> The three warrior-heroes broke through the army of the P’lishtim, drew water from the well by the gate of Beit-Lechem, took it and brought it to David. But he wouldn’t drink it. Instead, he poured it out to ADONAI <sup>17</sup> and said, “ADONAI! Heaven forbid that I should do such a thing! Am I to drink the blood of men who went and put their lives in jeopardy?” — and he would not consent to drink it. These are the things the three warrior-heroes did. <sup>18</sup> Avishai the brother of Yo’av, the son of Tz’ruyah, was chief of these three. He raised his spear against 300 men and killed them; thus he had a reputation even among the three. <sup>19</sup> He had the most honor of these three and was therefore made their leader; however, he did not achieve the status of the first three.

<sup>20</sup> B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada, the son of a valiant man of Kavtze’el, was a man of many exploits. He struck down two lion-hearted men of Mo’av. One day when it was snowing, he went down into a pit and killed a lion. <sup>21</sup> Here is how he killed an Egyptian, a man of intimidating appearance: the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, and he went down to him with only a stick, seized the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup> These are things that B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada did that earned him a name among the three warrior-heroes. <sup>23</sup> He had more honor than the thirty, but he did not achieve the status of the first three. David put him in command of his personal guard.

<sup>24</sup> ‘Asah’el the brother of Yo’av was one of the thirty,

Elchanan the son of Dodo of Beit-Lechem,

<sup>25</sup> Shammah the Harodi,

Elika the Harodi,

<sup>26</sup> Heletz the Palti,

‘Ira son of ‘Ikesh from T’koa,

<sup>27</sup> Avi‘ezer from ‘Anatot,

M'vunai the Hushati,

<sup>28</sup> Tzalmon the Achochi,

Mahrai the N'tofati,

<sup>29</sup> Helev the son of Ba'anah the N'tofati,

Ittai the son of Rivai from Giv'ah, of the people of Binyamin,

<sup>30</sup> B'nayahu from Pir'aton,

Hiddai from the vadis of Ga'ash,

<sup>31</sup> Avi-'Alvon the 'Arvati,

'Azmavet the Barchumi,

<sup>32</sup> Elyachba the Sha'alvoni, of the sons of Yashen, Y'honatan,

<sup>33</sup> Shammah the Harari,

Achi'am the son of Sharar the Arari,

<sup>34</sup> Elifelet the son of Achasbai the son of the Ma'akhati, Eli'am the son of Achitofel from Giloh,

<sup>35</sup> Hetzrai from Karmel,

Pa'arai the Arbi,

<sup>36</sup> Yig'al the son of Natan of Tzovah,

Bani the Gadi,

<sup>37</sup>

Tzelek the ‘Amoni,

Nachrai the Be’eroti, armor-bearer for Yo’av the son of Tz’ruiyah,

<sup>38</sup>

‘Ira the Yitri,

Garev the Yitri, and

<sup>39</sup>

Uriyah the Hitti —

thirty-seven in all.

24 <sup>1</sup> The anger of ADONAI blazed up against Isra’el, so he moved David to act against them by saying, “Go, take a census of Isra’el and Y’udah.” <sup>2</sup> The king said to Yo’av the commander of the army, who was with him, “Go systematically through all the tribes of Isra’el, from Dan to Be’er-Sheva; and take a census of the population; so that I can know how many people there are.” <sup>3</sup> Yo’av said to the king, “May ADONAI your God add to the people a hundredfold, no matter how many there are; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king take pleasure in doing this?” <sup>4</sup> However, the king’s word prevailed against Yo’av and the army officers. So Yo’av and the army officers went out from the king’s presence to take a census of the people of Isra’el.

<sup>5</sup> They crossed the Yarden and pitched camp in ‘Aro’er, to the south of the city in the Vadi of Gad; went on to Ya’zer; <sup>6</sup> came to Gil’ad and continued to the land of Tachtim-Hodshi. Then they arrived at Dan-Ya’an, went around to Tzidon <sup>7</sup> and came to the stronghold of Tzor. They went on to the cities of the Hivi and of the Kena’ani, and finished in the south of Y’udah, at Be’er-Sheva. <sup>8</sup> When they were done going through all the land, they came back to Yerushalayim; it had taken nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup> Yo’av reported the results of the census to the king: there were in Isra’el 800,000 valiant men who could handle a sword, while the men of Y’udah numbered 500,000.

<sup>10</sup> But after he had taken the census, David was conscience-stricken. David said to ADONAI, “I have greatly sinned in what I have done. But now, ADONAI, please! Put aside your servant’s sin, for I have done a very foolish thing.”<sup>11</sup> When David got up in the morning, this word of ADONAI came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer:<sup>12</sup> “Go and say to David that this is what ADONAI says: ‘I am giving you a choice of three punishments. Choose one of them, and I will execute it against you.’”<sup>13</sup> Gad came to David and told him; he said: “Do you want seven years of famine in your land? or do you want to flee before your enemies for three months while they pursue you? or do you want three days of plague in your land? Think about it, and tell me what to answer the one who sent me.”

<sup>14</sup> David said to Gad, “This is very hard for me. Let us fall into the hand of ADONAI, because his mercies are great, rather than have me fall into the hand of man.”<sup>15</sup> So ADONAI sent a plague on Isra’el from that morning until the end of the specified time; 70,000 of the people died between Dan and Be’er-Sheva.<sup>16</sup> But when the angel stretched out his hand toward Yerushalayim to destroy it, ADONAI changed his mind about causing such distress and said to the angel destroying the people, “Enough! Now withdraw your hand.” The angel of ADONAI was at the threshing-floor of Aravnah the Y’vusi.

<sup>17</sup> David spoke to ADONAI when he saw the angel striking the people; he said, “Here, I have sinned, I have done wrong. But these sheep, what have they done? Please! Let your hand be against me and against my father’s family!”

<sup>18</sup> Gad came to David that day and said to him, “Go, set up an altar to ADONAI on the threshing-floor of Aravnah the Y’vusi.”<sup>19</sup> David went up and did what Gad had said, as ADONAI had ordered.<sup>20</sup> Aravnah looked out and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. Aravnah went out and prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.<sup>21</sup> Then Aravnah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” David said, “To buy your threshing-floor, in order to build an altar to ADONAI, so that the plague will be lifted from the people.”<sup>22</sup> Aravnah said to David, “Let my lord the king take and offer up anything that seems good to him. Here are the oxen for the burnt offering; you can use the threshing-sledges and the yokes for the oxen as firewood.”<sup>23</sup> All this, O king, Aravnah gives to the king.” Then Aravnah said to the king, “May ADONAI your God accept you.”

<sup>24</sup> But the king said to Aravnah, “No; I insist on buying it from you at a price. I refuse to offer to ADONAI my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for one-and-a-quarter pounds of silver shekels.<sup>25</sup> Then David built an altar to ADONAI there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. After this, Adonai took pity on the land and lifted the plague from Isra'el.

M'lakhim Alef

1 KINGS

1 <sup>1</sup> King David grew old, the years took their toll, and he couldn't get warm even when they covered him with bedclothes. <sup>2</sup> His servants said to him, "Let us try to find a young virgin for my lord the king. She can wait on the king and be a companion for him, and she can lie next to you, so that my lord the king will get some heat." <sup>3</sup> After looking through all of Isra'el's territory for a beautiful girl, they found Avishag the Shunamit and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup> The girl was very beautiful and became a companion for the king. She took care of him, but the king did not have sexual relations with her.

<sup>5</sup> Adoniyah the son of Haggit was beginning to claim that he would be king; to this end he organized chariots and horsemen, with fifty men to run ahead of him. <sup>6</sup>(His father had never in his life confronted him by asking, "Why are you behaving this way?" Moreover, he was a very handsome man; he was born next after Avshalom.) <sup>7</sup> He conferred with Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah and Evyatar the cohen; and they both supported Adoniyah. <sup>8</sup> But Tzadok the cohen, B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada, Natan the prophet, Shim'i, Re'i and David's elite guard were not on Adoniyah's side.

<sup>9</sup> One day Adoniyah killed sheep, oxen and fattened calves at the Stone of Zochelet, by 'Ein-Rogel. He summoned all his brothers the king's sons, and all the men of Y'hudah the king's servants; <sup>10</sup> but he did not summon Natan the prophet, B'nayah, the elite guard or Shlomo his brother.

<sup>11</sup> Natan went to Bat-Sheva the mother of Shlomo and said, "Haven't you heard that Adoniyah the son of Haggit has become king without the knowledge of David our lord? <sup>12</sup> Now, come, please let me give you advice, so that you can save both your own life and that of your son Shlomo. <sup>13</sup> Go, get in to see King David, and say to him, 'My lord, king, didn't you swear to your servant, "Your son Shlomo will be king after me; he will sit on my throne"? So why is Adoniyah king?' <sup>14</sup> Right then, while you are still talking with the king, I will also come in after you and confirm what you are saying."

<sup>15</sup> Bat-Sheva went in to the king in his room. (The king was very old; Avishag the Shunamit was in attendance on the king.) <sup>16</sup> Bat-Sheva bowed, prostrating herself to the king. The king asked, “What do you want?” <sup>17</sup> She answered him, “My lord, you swore by ADONAI your God to your servant, ‘Your son Shlomo will be king after me; he will sit on my throne.’ <sup>18</sup> But now, here is Adoniyah ruling as king; and you, my lord the king, don’t know anything about it. <sup>19</sup> He has killed oxen, fattened calves and sheep in great numbers; and he has summoned all the sons of the king, Evyatar the cohen and Yo’av the commander of the army; but he didn’t summon Shlomo your servant. <sup>20</sup> As for you, my lord the king, all Isra’el is watching you; they are waiting for you to tell them who is to sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. <sup>21</sup> If you don’t, then, when my lord the king sleeps with his ancestors, I and my son Shlomo will be considered criminals.”

<sup>22</sup> Right then, while she was still talking with the king, Natan the prophet entered. <sup>23</sup> They told the king, “Natan the prophet is here.” After coming into the king’s presence, he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. <sup>24</sup> Natan said, “My lord king, did you say, ‘Adoniyah is to be king after me; he will sit on my throne’? <sup>25</sup> For he has gone down today and killed oxen, fattened calves and sheep in great numbers; and he has summoned all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army and Evyatar the cohen; right now they are eating and drinking in his presence and proclaiming, ‘Long live King Adoniyah!’ <sup>26</sup> But he didn’t summon me your servant, or Tzadok the cohen, or B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada or your servant Shlomo. <sup>27</sup> Is this authorized by my lord the king without your having told your servant who would sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

<sup>28</sup> King David answered by saying, “Summon Bat-Sheva to me.” She entered the king’s presence and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup> Then the king swore an oath: “As ADONAI lives, who has delivered me from all adversity, <sup>30</sup> as I swore to you by ADONAI the God of Isra’el, ‘Your son Shlomo will be king after me; he will sit on my throne in my place,’ so will I do today.” <sup>31</sup> Bat-Sheva bowed with her face to the ground, prostrating herself to the king, and said, “Let my lord King David live forever.”

<sup>32</sup> King David said, “Summon Tzadok the cohen, Natan the prophet and B’nayah the son of Y’hoyada.” They came before the king. <sup>33</sup> The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, have Shlomo my son ride on my own mule and bring him down to Gichon. <sup>34</sup> There Tzadok the cohen and Natan the prophet are to anoint him king over Isra'el. Sound the shofar and say, "Long live King Shlomo!" <sup>35</sup> Then escort him back; he is to come and sit on my throne; for he is to take my place as king. I have appointed him to rule over Isra'el and Y'hudah." <sup>36</sup> B'nayah responded to the king by saying, "Amen! May ADONAI, the God of my lord the king, confirm it! <sup>37</sup> Just as ADONAI has been with my lord the king, so may he be with Shlomo and make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!"

<sup>38</sup> So Tzadok the cohen, Natan the prophet, B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada and the K'reti and P'leti went down, had Shlomo ride on King David's mule and brought him to Gichon. <sup>39</sup> Tzadok the cohen took the horn of olive oil out of the tent and anointed Shlomo. They sounded the shofar, and all the people shouted, "Long live King Shlomo!" <sup>40</sup> All the people escorted him back, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the earth shook with the sound.

<sup>41</sup> Adoniyah and all his guests heard it while they were finishing their meal; but it was Yo'av who, when he heard the blast on the shofar, asked, "That noise — what's the meaning of this uproar in the city?" <sup>42</sup> While he was still speaking, there came Yonatan the son of Evyatar the cohen. Adoniyah said, "Come in! You're a worthy man, so you must be bringing good news!" <sup>43</sup> Yonatan answered Adoniyah, "The truth is, our lord King David has made Shlomo king. <sup>44</sup> Moreover, the king sent with him Tzadok the cohen, Natan the prophet, B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada and the K'reti and P'leti; they had him ride on the king's mule; <sup>45</sup> and Tzadok the cohen and Natan the prophet anointed him king in Gichon. Then they escorted him back from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar; this is the noise you've been hearing. <sup>46</sup> Moreover, Shlomo is now sitting on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>47</sup> More than that, the king's servants came and blessed our lord King David with these words: 'May God make the name of Shlomo better than your name and his throne greater than your throne,' after which the king bowed down on the bed. <sup>48</sup> Finally, the king said, 'Blessed be ADONAI the God of Isra'el, who has given someone to sit on my throne today, when my own eyes can see it.'"

<sup>49</sup> At this all Adoniyah's guests grew frightened; they got up, everyone going his own way. <sup>50</sup> Adoniyah too was afraid because of Shlomo; he got up, went and took hold of the horns of the altar. <sup>51</sup> Shlomo was told, "Here, Adoniyah is terrified of King Shlomo; he has grabbed hold of the horns of the altar and is saying, 'First let King Shlomo swear to me that he will not have his servant executed.’” <sup>52</sup> Shlomo said, “If he will demonstrate that he is a worthy man, not a hair of his will fall to the earth. But if he is found making trouble, he will die.” <sup>53</sup> So King Shlomo sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and prostrated himself before King Shlomo; and Shlomo said to him, “Go on home.”

2 <sup>1</sup> The time came near for David to die; so he commissioned Shlomo his son as follows: <sup>2</sup> “I am going the way of all the earth. Therefore, be strong; show yourself a man. <sup>3</sup> Observe the charge of ADONAI your God to go in his ways and keep his regulations, mitzvot, rulings and instructions in accordance with what is written in the Torah of Moshe; so that you will succeed in all you do and wherever you go. <sup>4</sup> If you do, ADONAI will fulfill what he promised me when he said, ‘If your children pay attention to how they live, conducting themselves before me honestly with all their heart and being, you will never lack a man on the throne of Isra’el.’

<sup>5</sup> “Moreover, you are aware of what Yo’av the son of Tz’ruyah did to me, that is, what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Isra’el, Avner the son of Ner and ‘Amasa the son of Yeter — he killed them, shedding the blood of war in peacetime, putting the blood of war on the belt around his waist and the shoes on his feet. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, act according to your wisdom; don’t let his gray head go down to the grave in peace.

<sup>7</sup> “But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gil’adi. Include them with those who eat at your table, because they came and stood with me when I was fleeing from Avshalom your brother.

<sup>8</sup> “Finally, you have with you Shim’i the son of Gera the Binyamini, from Bachurim. He laid a terrible curse on me when I was on my way to Machanayim; but he came down to meet me at the Yarden; so I swore to him by ADONAI that I would not have him put to death with the sword. <sup>9</sup> Now, however, you should not let him go unpunished. You are a wise man, and you will know what you should do to him — you will bring his gray head down to the grave with blood.”

<sup>10</sup> Then David slept with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. “David had ruled Isra’el for forty years — seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Yerushalayim.

<sup>12</sup> Shlomo sat on the throne of David his father; and his rule had become firmly established, <sup>13</sup> when Adoniyah the son of Haggit came to Bat-Sheva

the mother of Shlomo. She asked, "Have you come as a friend?" He answered, "Yes, as a friend."<sup>14</sup> Then he continued, "I have something to say to you." She said, "Go on."<sup>15</sup> He said, "You know that the kingdom should have been mine, that all Isra'el was looking to me to be their ruler. No matter; the kingdom has turned around and become my brother's, because ADONAI gave it to him."<sup>16</sup> But now I ask one favor of you; don't deny me." "Go on," she said.<sup>17</sup> He said, "Please speak to Shlomo the king — for he won't say 'No' to you — and ask him to give me Avishag the Shunamit as my wife."<sup>18</sup> Bat-Sheva said, "All right, I will speak to the king on your behalf."

<sup>19</sup> So Bat-Sheva went to King Shlomo to speak to him on behalf of Adoniyah. The king rose to meet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat down on his throne and had a throne set up for the king's mother, so that she sat at his right.<sup>20</sup> She said, "I am asking one small favor of you; don't deny me." The king said to her, "Ask, mother; I won't deny you."<sup>21</sup> She said, "Let Avishag the Shunamit be given to Adoniyah your brother as his wife."<sup>22</sup> King Shlomo answered his mother, "Why are you asking Avishag the Shunamit for Adoniyah? Ask the kingdom for him too! After all, he's my older brother! Yes, for him, and for Evyatar the cohen and for Yo'av the son of Tz'ruyah!"<sup>23</sup> Then King Shlomo swore by ADONAI, "May God do terrible things to me and worse if Adoniyah hasn't condemned himself to death with this request!"<sup>24</sup> Now therefore, as ADONAI lives, who has established me, put me on the throne of David my father and set up a dynasty for me, as he promised, Adoniyah will certainly be put to death today."<sup>25</sup> King Shlomo commissioned B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada, and he struck him down, so that he died.

<sup>26</sup> To Evyatar the cohen the king said, "You, get yourself to 'Anatot, to your own fields. You deserve to die; but I won't put you to death just now; since you did carry the ark of Adonai ELOHIM before David my father; and you suffered together with my father in everything he suffered."<sup>27</sup> So Shlomo forced Evyatar out of his task as cohen to ADONAI, so that what ADONAI had said in Shiloh about the family of 'Eli might be fulfilled.

<sup>28</sup> When the news came to Yo'av, he fled to the tent of ADONAI and took hold of the horns of the altar; for Yo'av had given his support to Adoniyah, even though he had not supported Avshalom.<sup>29</sup> King Shlomo was told, "Yo'av has fled to the tent of ADONAI; he's there by the altar." Shlomo sent B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada with the order, "Go, strike him down."<sup>30</sup>

B'nayah came to the tent of ADONAI and said to him, "The king says: leave!" He answered, "No, I'd rather die here." B'nayah brought the message back to the king, "This is what Yo'av said to me." <sup>31</sup> The king answered him, "Do what he said — strike him down, and bury him. In this way you will take away from me and my father's family the blood which Yo'av shed for no reason. <sup>32</sup> ADONAI will bring his blood back on his own head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he — he killed them with the sword without my father David's awareness: Avner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Isra'el, and 'Amasa the son of Yeter, commander of the army of Y'hudah. <sup>33</sup> In this way their blood will return on the head of Yo'av and his descendants forever; but for David, his descendants, his family and his throne there will be peace forever from ADONAI." <sup>34</sup> So B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada went up, struck him down and killed him; he was buried in his own house in the desert. <sup>35</sup> The king put B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada in charge of the army instead of him, and the king replaced Evyatar with Tzadok the cohen.

<sup>36</sup> The king summoned Shim'i and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Ye-rushalayim, and live there; don't go outside the city walls. <sup>37</sup> Know for a fact that on the day you go out and cross Vadi Kidron, you will certainly die; your blood will be on your own head." <sup>38</sup> Shim'i answered the king, "What you have said is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." So Shim'i lived in Yerushalayim for a long time.

<sup>39</sup> But after three years, two of Shim'i's slaves ran away and went to Akhish son of Ma'akhah, king of Gat. They told Shim'i, "Your slaves are in Gat." <sup>40</sup> So Shim'i set out, saddled his donkey and went to Akhish in Gat to look for his slaves; then Shim'i returned, bringing his slaves from Gat.

<sup>41</sup> Shlomo was told that Shim'i had gone from Yerushalayim to Gat and back. <sup>42</sup> The king summoned Shim'i and said to him, "Didn't I have you swear by ADONAI and forewarn you by telling you, 'Know for a fact that on the day you leave and go anywhere outside the city, you will certainly die'? and you answered me, 'What you're saying is good; I hear it.' <sup>43</sup> Why, then, haven't you kept the oath of ADONAI and the mitzvah I charged you with?" <sup>44</sup> Moreover, the king said to Shim'i, "You know in your own heart all the terrible things you did to David my father; therefore ADONAI will bring back your wickedness on your own head. <sup>45</sup> But King Shlomo will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before ADONAI forever." <sup>46</sup> So the king gave the order to B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada, and he went out and struck him down, so that he died.

Thus the kingdom was established in Shlomo's hands.

3 <sup>1</sup> Shlomo formed an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt by marrying Pharaoh's daughter. He brought her into the City of David, [where she lived] until he had finished building his own palace, the house of ADONAI and the wall around Yerushalayim. <sup>2</sup> The people, however, were still sacrificing on the high places, because no house had yet been built for the name of ADONAI. <sup>3</sup> Shlomo loved ADONAI, living according to the regulations set forth by David his father; nevertheless, he sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.

<sup>4</sup> One time the king went to Giv'on to sacrifice there, because that was the main high place. Shlomo offered a thousand burnt offerings on the altar there. <sup>5</sup> At Giv'on ADONAI appeared to Shlomo in a dream at night; God said, "Tell me what I should give you." <sup>6</sup> Shlomo said, "You showed your servant David my father much grace, as he lived before you honestly and righteously, having an upright heart with you. You preserved this great grace for him by giving him a son to sit on his throne, as is the case today. <sup>7</sup> So now, ADONAI my God, you have made your servant king in the place of David my father; but I am a mere child — I don't know how to lead! <sup>8</sup> Moreover your servant is among your people, whom you chose, a great people so numerous that they cannot be counted. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, give your servant an understanding heart able to administer justice to your people, so that I can discern between good and bad — for who is equal to judging this great people of yours?"

<sup>10</sup> What Shlomo had said in making this request pleased Adonai. <sup>11</sup> God said to him, "Because you have made this request instead of asking long life or riches for yourself, or your enemies' death, but rather asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; <sup>12</sup> I am doing what you requested. I am giving you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has never been anyone like you, nor will there ever again be anyone like you. <sup>13</sup> I am also giving you what you didn't ask for, riches and honor greater than that of any other king throughout your life. <sup>14</sup> More than that, if you will live according to my ways, obeying my laws and mitzvot like your father David, I will give you a long life."

<sup>15</sup> Shlomo awoke and found it had been a dream. But he went to Yerushalayim, stood before the ark for the covenant of ADONAI and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. He also made a feast for all his servants.

<sup>16</sup> After this, there came to the king two women who were prostitutes. After presenting themselves to him, <sup>17</sup> one of the women said, “My lord, I and this woman live in the same house; and when she was in the house, I gave birth to a baby. <sup>18</sup> Three days after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. We were there together; there was no one else with us in the house except the two of us. <sup>19</sup> During the night this woman’s child died, because she rolled over on top of it. <sup>20</sup> So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from next to me, while your servant was sleeping, and put it in her arms; and she laid her dead child in my arms. <sup>21</sup> When I awoke in the morning to feed my child from my breast, there it was, dead. But when I took a closer look later in the morning, why, it wasn’t my son at all — not the one I gave birth to!” <sup>22</sup> The other woman broke in, “No! The living one is my son, and the dead one is your son!” The first one said, “No! The dead one is your son and the living one is my son!” This is how they spoke in the presence of the king.

<sup>23</sup> Then the king said, “This woman says, ‘The living one is my son; your son is the dead one’; while the other says, ‘No, the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.’” <sup>24</sup> Bring me a sword,” said the king. They brought a sword to the king. <sup>25</sup> The king said, “Cut the living child in two; give half to the one and half to the other.” <sup>26</sup> At this, the woman to whom the living child belonged addressed the king, because she felt so strongly toward her son: “Oh, my lord, give her the living child; you mustn’t kill it!” But the other one said, “It will be neither yours nor mine. Divide it up!” <sup>27</sup> Then the king answered, “Give the living child to the first woman, don’t kill it, because she is its mother.” <sup>28</sup> All Isra’el heard of the decision the king had made and held the king in awe, for they saw that God’s wisdom was in him, enabling him to render justice properly.

4 <sup>1</sup> King Shlomo was king over all Isra’el, <sup>2</sup> and these were his high officials:

‘Azaryah the son of Tzadok, the cohen;

<sup>3</sup> Elichoref and Achiyah the sons of Shisha, secretaries;

Y'hoshafat the son of Achilud, secretary of state;

<sup>4</sup> B'nayah the son of Y'hoyada, commander of the army;

Tzadok and Evyatar, cohanim;

<sup>5</sup> 'Azaryah the son of Natan, chief administrator;

Zavud the son of Natan, the king's trusted counselor;

<sup>6</sup> Achishar, in charge of the palace;

Adoniram the son of 'Avda, in charge of forced labor.

<sup>7</sup> Shlomo had twelve officers over all Isra'el who were in charge of providing food and supplies for the king and his household; each one was in charge of provisions for one month out of the year. <sup>8</sup> They were:

the son of Hur, in the hills of Efrayim;

<sup>9</sup> the son of Deker, in Makatz, Sha'albim, Beit-Shemesh and Eilon-Beit-Hanan;

<sup>10</sup> the son of Hesed, in Arubot; he also had charge of Sokhoh and all the territory of Hefer;

<sup>11</sup> the son of Avinadav, in all the area of Dor; he had Tafat the daughter of Shlomo as his wife;

<sup>12</sup> Ba'ana the son of Achilud, in Ta'anakh, Megiddo, and all Beit-Sh'an by Tzartan below Yizre'el, from Beit-Sh'an to Avel-M'cholah, as far as beyond Yokme'am;

<sup>13</sup> the son of Gever, in Ramot-Gil'ad; he was in charge of the villages of Ya'ir the son of M'nasheh in Gil'ad and in charge of the region of Argov in Bashan, sixty large cities with walls and bronze bars;

<sup>14</sup>

Achinadav the son of 'Iddo, in Machanayim; 15 Achima'atz, in Naftali; he also took Basmat the daughter of Shlomo as his wife;
16 Ba'ana the son of Hushai, in Asher and in Alot;
17 Y'hoshafat the son of Paruach, in Yissakhar;
18 Shim'i the son of Ela, in Binyamin; and 19 Gever the son of Uri, in the land of Gil'ad, the country of Sichon king of the Emori and 'Og king of Bashan.

Over all these, there was one administrator in the land.

<sup>20</sup> Y'hudah and Isra'el were as numerous as sand grains on the seashore;
they ate, drank and enjoyed themselves.

5 <sup>1(4:21)</sup> Shlomo ruled over all the kingdoms from the [Euphrates] River through the land of the P'lishtim to the border of Egypt; they paid tribute and served Shlomo as long as he lived. <sup>2(4:22)</sup> Shlomo's provisions for one day consisted of 150 bushels of fine flour, 310 bushels of meal, <sup>3(4:23)</sup> ten fattened oxen, twenty pasture-fed oxen and one hundred sheep, in addition to deer, gazelles, roebucks and fattened poultry. <sup>4(4:24)</sup> For he ruled all the area this side of the [Euphrates] River, from Tifsach to 'Azah. He was over all the kings on this side of the River; and he had peace all around him, on every side.
<sup>5(4:25)</sup> From Dan to Be'er-Sheva, Y'hudah and Isra'el lived securely, every man under his vine and fig tree, throughout the lifetime of Shlomo. <sup>6(4:26)</sup> Shlomo also had 40,000 stalls for the horses used with his chariots and 12,000 horsemen.

<sup>7(4:27)</sup> Those officers [named above] supplied food and other materials for King Shlomo and for everyone for whom Shlomo provided. Each was responsible for his month's supplies; they saw to it that nothing was lacking. <sup>8(4:28)</sup> They also made sure there was barley and straw where it was needed for the horses and draft animals; each filled his quota.

<sup>9(4:29)</sup> God gave Shlomo exceptional wisdom and understanding, as well as a heart as vast as the sandy beach by the sea. <sup>10(4:30)</sup> Shlomo's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of the people from the east and all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>11(4:31)</sup> For he was wiser than everyone — wiser than Eitan the Ezrachi and wiser than Heiman, Kalkol and Darda the sons of Machol; so that his fame spread to all the surrounding nations. <sup>12(4:32)</sup> He composed 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs. <sup>13(4:33)</sup> He could discuss trees, from the cedar in the L'vanon to the hyssop growing out of the wall; he could discuss wild animals, poultry, reptiles and fish. <sup>14(4:34)</sup> People from all nations came to hear the wisdom of Shlomo, including kings from all over the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

<sup>15(1)</sup> Hiram king of Tzor sent his servants to Shlomo, because he had heard that they had anointed him king in his father's place, and Hiram had always loved David. <sup>16(2)</sup> Shlomo returned this message to Hiram: <sup>17(3)</sup> "You know that David my father wasn't able to build a house for the name of ADONAI his God, because of the wars that beset him from every side, until ADONAI put his enemies under the soles of my feet. <sup>18(4)</sup> But now ADONAI my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor calamity. <sup>19(5)</sup> So now I intend to build a house for the name of ADONAI my God, in keeping with what ADONAI said to David my father, 'Your son, whom I will put on your throne in your place, will be the one to build the house for my name.' <sup>20(6)</sup> Therefore, order your people to cut down cedar trees from the L'vanon for me. My servants will be with your servants. I will pay your servants according to everything you say; for you know that we have no one among us as skilled in felling trees as the Tzidonim."

<sup>21(7)</sup> When Hiram heard Shlomo's message, he was very happy and said, "Blessed be ADONAI today, who has given David a wise son to rule this great people." <sup>22(8)</sup> Then Hiram sent Shlomo this message: "I have heard the message you sent me, and I will do everything you want concerning cedar logs and cypress logs. <sup>23(9)</sup> My servants will bring them down from the L'vanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to whatever place you tell me and will have them broken up there, and you will receive them. You will compensate me by providing food for my household."

<sup>24(10)</sup> So Hiram gave Shlomo all the cedar logs and cypress logs he wanted; <sup>25(11)</sup> and Shlomo gave Hiram 100,000 bushels of wheat as food for his household and a thousand gallons of oil from pressed olives — this is what Shlomo gave Hiram each year. <sup>26(12)</sup> ADONAI gave Shlomo wisdom, as he had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Shlomo — the two of them formed an alliance together.

<sup>27(13)</sup> King Shlomo conscripted 30,000 men from all Isra'el for forced labor. <sup>28(14)</sup> He sent them to the L'vanon in monthly relays of 10,000; they would stay a month in the L'vanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.

<sup>29(15)</sup> Shlomo had 70,000 men to carry loads and another 80,000 stonecutters in the hills, <sup>30(16)</sup> besides Shlomo's 3,300 supervisors who were in charge of the people doing the work. <sup>31(17)</sup> The king gave orders; and they quarried large stones, expensive stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stone. <sup>32(18)</sup> Shlomo's and Hiram's builders, along with the men from G'val, worked the stones and prepared the timber and stones for building the house.

6 <sup>1</sup> It was in the 480th year after the people of Isra'el had left the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Shlomo's reign over Isra'el, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of ADONAI. <sup>2</sup> The house which King Shlomo built for ADONAI was 105 feet long, thirty-five feet wide and fifty-two-and-a-half feet high. <sup>3</sup> The hall fronting the temple of the house was thirty-five feet long, the same as the width of the house itself, so that its seventeen-and-a-half-foot width extended frontward from the house. <sup>4</sup> The windows he made for the house were wide on the inside and narrow on the outside. <sup>5</sup> Against the wall of the house he built an annex all the way around; it went all the way around the walls of the house, including both the temple and the sanctuary. <sup>6</sup> The lowest floor of the annex was eight-and-three-quarters feet wide, the middle floor ten-and-a-half feet wide and the third floor twelve-and-a-quarter feet wide; for he had made the outer part of the wall of the house step-shaped, so that the beams of the annex would not have to be attached to the house walls. <sup>7</sup> For the house, when under construction, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; so that no hammer, chisel or iron tool of any kind was heard in the house while it was being built. <sup>8</sup> The entrance to the lowest floor was on the south side of the house; a spiral staircase went up to the middle floor and on to the third. <sup>9</sup> So he built the house, and after finishing it, he put its roof on — cedar planks over beams. <sup>10</sup> Each floor of the annex surrounding the house was eight-and-three-quarters feet high and was attached to the house with beams of cedar.

<sup>11</sup> Then this word of ADONAI came to Shlomo: <sup>12</sup> “Concerning this house which you are building: if you will live according to my regulations, follow my rulings and observe all my mitzvot and live by them, then I will establish with you my promise that I made to David your father — <sup>13</sup> I will live in it among the people of Isra'el, and I will not abandon my people Isra'el."

<sup>14</sup> So Shlomo finished building the house. <sup>15</sup> The insides of the walls of the house he built with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the joists of the ceiling he covered them on the inside with wood, and he covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress. <sup>16</sup> The thirty-five-foot back portion of the house he built with boards of cedar from the floor to the joists and reserved this part of the house to be a sanctuary, the Especially Holy Place; <sup>17</sup> while the rest of the house, that is, the temple in front, was seventy feet long. <sup>18</sup> The cedar covering the house was carved with gourds and open flowers; all was cedar; no stone was visible. <sup>19</sup> In the inner part of the house he set up the sanctuary, so that the ark for the covenant of ADONAI could be placed there. <sup>20</sup> This sanctuary was thirty-five feet long, wide and high; and it was overlaid with pure gold. In front of it he set an altar, which he covered with cedar. <sup>21</sup> Shlomo overlaid the interior of the house with pure gold and had chains of gold placed before the sanctuary, which itself he overlaid with gold. <sup>22</sup> The entire house he overlaid with gold until it was completely covered with it. He also overlaid with gold the entire altar that belonged to the sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup> Inside the sanctuary he made two k'ruvim of olive-wood, each seventeen-and-a-half feet high. <sup>24</sup> Each of the two wings of one of the k'ruvim was eight-and-three quarters feet long, so that the distance from the end of one wing to the end of the other was seventeen-and-a-half feet. <sup>25</sup> Likewise the [wingspread of the] other keruv was seventeen-and-a-half feet; both k'ruvim were identical in shape and size. <sup>26</sup> The height of the one keruv was seventeen-and-a-half feet, likewise that of the other. <sup>27</sup> He set the k'ruvim in the inner house; the wings of the k'ruvim were stretched out, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other keruv touched the other wall; their wings touched each other in the middle of the house. <sup>28</sup> He overlaid the k'ruvim with gold. <sup>29</sup> All around the walls of the house, both inside the sanctuary and outside it, he carved figures of k'ruvim, palm trees and open flowers. <sup>30</sup> He overlaid the floor of the house with gold, both inside the sanctuary and outside it.

<sup>31</sup> For the entrance to the sanctuary he made doors of olive-wood, set within a five-sided door-frame. <sup>32</sup> On the two olive-wood doors he carved figures of k'ruvim, palm trees and open flowers. He overlaid the doors with gold, forcing the gold into the shapes of the k'ruvim and palm trees as well.

<sup>33</sup> For the entrance to the temple he also made doorposts of olive-wood, set within a rectangular door-frame, <sup>34</sup> and two doors of cypress-wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, as were the two leaves of the other. <sup>35</sup> On them he carved k'ruvim, palm trees and open flowers, overlaying them with gold fitted to the carved work. <sup>36</sup> He built the inner courtyard with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.

<sup>37</sup> The foundation of the house of ADONAI was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv. <sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, all parts of the house were completed exactly as designed. Thus he was seven years building it.

7 <sup>1</sup> Shlomo built a palace for himself, taking thirteen years to finish it. <sup>2</sup> For he built the House of the L'vanon Forest 175 feet long, eighty-seven-and-a-half feet wide and fifty-two-and-a-half feet high, on four rows of cedar posts, with cedar beams on the posts. <sup>3</sup> It had a roof made of cedar and supported by beams lying on forty-five posts, fifteen in a row. <sup>4</sup> There were three rows of window openings, placed so that the windows on facing walls were opposite each other at all three levels. <sup>5</sup> All the doors and doorways were rectangular and opposite each other at all three levels.

<sup>6</sup> He made the columned hall eighty-seven-and-a-half feet long and fifty-two-and-a-half feet wide, with a columned, corniced porch in front of it.

<sup>7</sup> He made the Hall of the Throne his place for dispensing justice, that is, the Hall of Judgment; it was covered with cedar from floor to ceiling.

<sup>8</sup> His own living quarters, in the other courtyard, set back from the Hall, were similarly designed. He also made a house like this Hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Shlomo had taken as his wife.

<sup>9</sup> All these buildings were made of expensive stone blocks, cut to measure and finished by saws on the inner surfaces as well as the outer ones. These stones were used from the foundation to the eaves and outward from the buildings all the way to the Great Courtyard. <sup>10</sup> The foundation was of expensive stone blocks, very large ones — stones fourteen to eighteen feet long. <sup>11</sup> Above these were costly stones, cut to measure, and cedar-wood. <sup>12</sup> The surrounding Great Courtyard had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams like the inner courtyard of the house of ADONAI and the courtyard by the hall of the house.

<sup>13</sup> King Shlomo sent for Hiram and brought him from Tzor. <sup>14</sup> He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naftali, but his father was from Tzor, a bronze-worker filled with wisdom, understanding and skill for all kinds of bronze craftsmanship. He came to King Shlomo and did all his bronzework. <sup>15</sup> He made the two bronze columns, each one thirty-one-and-a-half feet high and twenty-one feet in circumference. <sup>16</sup> He made two capitals of melted bronze to set on the tops of the columns; each capital was eight-and-three-quarters feet high; <sup>17</sup> he also made checker-work nets and chained wreaths, seven for the top of each capital. <sup>18</sup> When he made the columns, he made two rows of pomegranates to put at the top of each column around the netting covering its capital. <sup>19</sup> The capitals on the columns in the hall had shapes like lilies and were seven feet high. <sup>20</sup> As for the capitals on the two columns, there were 200 pomegranates in rows around each capital near the molding by the netting. <sup>21</sup> He erected the columns in the hall of the temple; on erecting the right column he gave it the name “Yakhin,” and on erecting the left column he named it “Bo’az.” <sup>22</sup> On the tops of the columns were shapes like lilies; thus the work of the columns was finished.

<sup>23</sup> He made the cast metal “Sea” circular, seventeen-and-a-half feet from rim to rim, eight-and-three quarter feet high and fifty-two-and-a-half feet in circumference. <sup>24</sup> Under its rim, three hundred gourds encircled it in two rows; they were cast when the Sea was cast. <sup>25</sup> It rested on twelve oxen, three looking north, three looking west, three looking south and three looking east, all with their hindquarters toward the center. The Sea was set on top of them. <sup>26</sup> It was a handbreadth thick, its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; and its capacity was 11,000 gallons.

<sup>27</sup> He made ten bronze trolleys, each one seven feet long, seven feet wide, and five-and-a-quarter feet high. <sup>28</sup> They were designed with panels that were set between the corner-posts, <sup>29</sup> and on the panels between the corner-posts were lions, oxen and k’ruvim. The corner-posts above were similarly designed. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hammered work. <sup>30</sup> Every trolley had four bronze wheels and bronze axles, and its four legs each had cast supports which were under the basin, with wreaths next to each. <sup>31</sup> The opening of the stand into which the basin was inserted was eighteen inches high; the stand was round, resembling a pedestal, and it was two-and-a-half feet in diameter. On the stand were carvings, and the outside was square, not round. <sup>32</sup> The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles for the wheels were attached to the trolleys; each wheel was two-and-a-half feet in diameter. <sup>33</sup> The wheels were made like chariot wheels; their axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all cast metal. <sup>34</sup> There were four supports at the four corners of each trolley; the supports were attached to the trolley itself. <sup>35</sup> In the top of the trolley was a circular support ten-and-a-half inches high, and the trolley's corner-posts and panels were attached to its top. <sup>36</sup> On the sides of the panels and on its corners he carved k'ruvim, lions and palm trees, according to the amount of space each required, with wreaths surrounding. <sup>37</sup> According to this design he made the ten trolleys; all of them were cast from a single mold, so that they had the same size and shape.

<sup>38</sup> He made ten bronze basins; each basin's capacity was 220 gallons and had a diameter of seven feet; there was a basin for each of the ten trolleys. <sup>39</sup> He arranged five of the trolleys on the right side of the house and five on the left side. The Sea he placed on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.

<sup>40</sup> Hiram made the ash pots, shovels and sprinkling basins. With that, Hiram completed all the work he had done for King Shlomo in the house of ADONAI — <sup>41</sup> the two columns, the two moldings of the capitals on top of the columns, the two nettings covering the two moldings of the capitals atop the columns, <sup>42</sup> the 400 pomegranates for the two nettings, two rows of pomegranates for each netting, to cover the two moldings of the capitals atop the columns, <sup>43</sup> the ten trolleys, the ten basins on the trolleys, <sup>44</sup> the one Sea, the twelve oxen under the Sea, <sup>45</sup> the ash pots, the shovels and the sprinkling basins. All these articles that Hiram made for King Shlomo in the house of ADONAI were of burnished bronze. <sup>46</sup> The king cast them in the plain of the Yarden, in the clay ground between Sukkot and Tzartan. <sup>47</sup> Shlomo did not weigh any of these objects, because there were so many of them; thus the total weight of the bronze could not be determined.

<sup>48</sup> Shlomo made all the objects that were inside the house of ADONAI: the gold altar; the table of gold on which the showbread was displayed; <sup>49</sup> the menorahs — five on the right and five on the left in front of the sanctuary — of pure gold; the flowers, lamps and tongs of gold; <sup>50</sup> the cups, snuffers, basins, incense pans and fire pans of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both those for the doors of the inner house, the Especially Holy Place, and those for the doors of the house, that is, of the temple.

<sup>51</sup> Thus all the work that King Shlomo did in the house of ADONAI was finished. After this, Shlomo brought in the gifts which David his father had dedicated — the silver, the gold and the utensils — and put them in the treasuries of the house of ADONAI.

8 <sup>1</sup> Then Shlomo assembled all the leaders of Isra'el, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the paternal clans of the people of Isra'el, to King Shlomo in Yerushalayim, to bring the ark for the covenant of ADONAI out of the City of David, also known as Tziyon. <sup>2</sup> All the men of Isra'el assembled before King Shlomo at the festival in the month of Etanim, the seventh month. <sup>3</sup> All the leaders of Isra'el came. The cohanim took the ark <sup>4</sup> and brought up the ark of ADONAI, the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils that were in the tent; these are what the cohanim and L'vi'im brought up. <sup>5</sup> King Shlomo and the whole community of Isra'el assembled in his presence were with him in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen in numbers beyond counting or recording.

<sup>6</sup> The cohanim brought the ark for the covenant of ADONAI in to its place inside the sanctuary of the house, to the Especially Holy Place, under the wings of the k'ruvim. <sup>7</sup> For the k'ruvim spread out their wings over the place for the ark, covering the ark and its poles from above. <sup>8</sup> The poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day. <sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moshe put there at Horev, when ADONAI made the covenant with the people of Isra'el at the time of their leaving the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> When the cohanim came out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the house of ADONAI, <sup>11</sup> so that, because of the cloud, the cohanim could not stand up to perform their service; for the glory of ADONAI filled the house of ADONAI.

<sup>12</sup> Shlomo said, "ADONAI said he would live in thick darkness. <sup>13</sup> But I have built you a magnificent house, a place where you can live forever."

<sup>14</sup> Then the king turned around and blessed the whole community of Isra'el. The whole community of Isra'el stood <sup>15</sup> as he said: "Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Isra'el, who spoke to my father David with his mouth and fulfilled his promise with his hand. He said, <sup>16</sup> 'Since the day I brought my people Isra'el out of Egypt, I chose no city from any of the tribes of Isra'el in which to build a house, so that my name might be there; but I did choose David to be over my people Isra'el.' <sup>17</sup> Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of ADONAI the God of Isra'el; <sup>18</sup>

but ADONAI said to David my father, ‘Although it was in your heart to build a house for my name, and you did well that it was in your heart, <sup>19</sup> nevertheless you will not build the house. Rather, you will father a son, and it will be he who will build the house for my name.’ <sup>20</sup> Now ADONAI has fulfilled this spoken word of his; for I have succeeded my father and sit on the throne of Isra’el, as ADONAI promised; and I have built the house for the name of ADONAI the God of Isra’el. <sup>21</sup> And there I have made a place for the ark containing the covenant of ADONAI, which he made with our ancestors when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

<sup>22</sup> Then Shlomo stood before the altar of ADONAI in the presence of the whole community of Isra’el, spread out his hands toward heaven, <sup>23</sup> and said, “ADONAI, God of Isra’el, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below. You keep covenant with your servants and show them grace, provided they live in your presence with all their heart. <sup>24</sup> You have kept your promise to your servant David, my father; you spoke with your mouth and fulfilled it with your hand; so it is today. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Isra’el, keep what you promised to your servant David, my father, when you said, ‘You will never lack a man in my presence to sit on the throne of Isra’el, if only your children are careful about what they do, so that they live in my presence, just as you have lived in my presence.’ <sup>26</sup> Now therefore, God of Isra’el, please let your word, which you spoke to your servant David, my father, be confirmed.

<sup>27</sup> “But can God actually live on the earth? Why, heaven itself, even the heaven of heavens, cannot contain you; so how much less this house I have built? <sup>28</sup> Even so, ADONAI my God, pay attention to your servant’s prayer and plea, listen to the cry and prayer that your servant is praying before you today, <sup>29</sup> that your eyes will be open toward this house night and day — toward the place concerning which you said, ‘My name will be there’ — to listen to the prayer your servant will pray toward this place. <sup>30</sup> Yes, listen to the plea of your servant, and also that of your people Isra’el when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven where you live; and when you hear, forgive!

<sup>31</sup> “If a person sins against a fellow member of the community, and he is made to swear under oath, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house; <sup>32</sup> then hear in heaven, act, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, so that his way of life devolves on his own head, and vindicating the one who is right, giving him what his righteousness deserves.

<sup>33</sup> “When your people Isra’el sin against you and in consequence are defeated by an enemy; then if they turn back to you, acknowledge your name, and pray and make their plea to you in this house; <sup>34</sup> hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your people Isra’el, and bring them back to the land you gave to their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup> “When they sin against you, and in consequence the sky is shut, so that there is no rain; then, if they pray toward this place, acknowledge your name and turn from their sin when you have brought them low; <sup>36</sup> hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your servants and of your people Isra’el — since you keep teaching them the good way by which they should live — and send down rain on your land, which you have given your people as their inheritance.

<sup>37</sup> “If there is famine in the land, or blight, windstorm, mildew, locusts or shearer-worms; or if their enemy comes to the land and besieges them in any of their cities — no matter what kind of plague or sickness it is; <sup>38</sup> then, regardless of what prayer or plea anyone among all your people Isra’el makes — for each individual will know what is plaguing his own conscience — and the person spreads out his hands toward this house; <sup>39</sup> hear in heaven where you live, and forgive, and act, and, since you know what is in each one’s heart, give each person what his conduct deserves (because you, and only you, know all human hearts), <sup>40</sup> so that they will fear you throughout the time they live in the land you gave our ancestors.

<sup>41</sup> “Also the foreigner who does not belong to your people Isra’el — when he comes from a distant country because of your reputation <sup>42</sup> (for they will hear of your great reputation, your mighty hand and your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house; <sup>43</sup> then hear in heaven where you live, and act in accordance with everything about which the foreigner is calling to you; so that all the peoples of the earth will know your name and fear you, as does your people Isra’el, and so that they will know that this house which I have built bears your name.

<sup>44</sup> “If your people go out to fight against their enemy, no matter by which way you send them, and they pray to ADONAI toward the city you chose, toward the house I built for your name; <sup>45</sup> then, in heaven, hear their prayer and plea, and uphold their cause.

<sup>46</sup> “If they sin against you — for there is no one who doesn’t sin — and you are angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, so that they carry them off captive to the land of their enemy, whether far away or nearby; <sup>47</sup> then, if they come to their senses in the land where they have been carried away captive, turn back and make their plea to you in the land of those who carried them off captive, saying, ‘We sinned, we acted wrongly, we behaved wickedly,’ <sup>48</sup> if, in the land of their enemies who carried them off captive, they return to you with all their heart and being and pray to you toward their own land, which you gave to their ancestors, toward the city you chose and toward the house I have built for your name; <sup>49</sup> then, in heaven where you live, hear their prayer and plea, uphold their cause, <sup>50</sup> and forgive your people who have sinned against you — forgive their transgressions which they have committed against you, and give them compassion in the sight of their captors, so that they will show compassion toward them; <sup>51</sup> for they are your people, your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of the flames of the iron furnace.

<sup>52</sup> “May your eyes be open to the plea of your servant and to the plea of your people Isra’el, so that you will hear them whenever they cry out to you. <sup>53</sup> For you made a distinction between them and all the peoples of the earth by making them your inheritance, as you said through Moshe your servant when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, Adonai ELOHIM.”

<sup>54</sup> When Shlomo had finished praying all this prayer and plea to ADONAI, he got up from in front of the altar of ADONAI, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven, <sup>55</sup> stood up, and raised his voice to bless the whole community of Isra’el. He said, <sup>56</sup> “Blessed be ADONAI, who has given rest to his people Isra’el, in accordance with everything he promised. Not one word has failed of his good promise, which he made through Moshe his servant. <sup>57</sup> May ADONAI our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors. May he never leave us or abandon us. <sup>58</sup> In this way he will incline our hearts toward him, so that we will live according to his ways and observe his mitzvot, laws and rulings which he ordered our fathers to obey. <sup>59</sup> May these words of mine, which I have used in my plea before ADONAI, be present with ADONAI our God day and night, so that he will uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Isra’el day by day. <sup>60</sup> Then all the peoples of the earth will know that ADONAI is God; there is no other. <sup>61</sup> So be wholehearted with ADONAI our God, living by his laws and observing his mitzvot, as you are doing today.”

<sup>62</sup> Then the king, together with all Isra’el, offered sacrifices before ADONAI. <sup>63</sup> For the sacrifice of peace offerings which Shlomo offered to

ADONAI, he offered 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people of Isra'el dedicated the house of ADONAI.

<sup>64</sup> The same day, the king consecrated the center of the courtyard in front of the house of ADONAI, because he had to offer the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings there. For the bronze altar before ADONAI was too small to receive the burnt offering, the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings.

<sup>65</sup> So Shlomo celebrated the festival at that time. All Isra'el, a huge gathering [that had come all the way] from the entrance of Hamat to the Vadi [of Egypt], celebrated with him before ADONAI our God for seven days and then for seven more days — fourteen days in all. <sup>66</sup> On the eighth day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and returned to their tents full of joy and glad of heart for all the goodness ADONAI had shown to David his servant and to Isra'el his people.

9 <sup>1</sup> After Shlomo had finished building the house of ADONAI, the royal palace and everything else he wanted to build for himself, <sup>2</sup> ADONAI appeared to Shlomo a second time, as he had appeared to him in Giv'on. <sup>3</sup> ADONAI said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your plea that you made before me: I am consecrating this house which you built and placing my name there forever; my eyes and heart will always be there. <sup>4</sup> As for you, if you will live in my presence, as did David your father, in pureness of heart and uprightness, doing everything I have ordered you to do, and observing my laws and rulings; <sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your rulership over Isra'el forever, just as I promised David your father when I said, 'You will never lack a man on the throne of Isra'el.' <sup>6</sup> But if you turn away from following me, you or your children, and do not observe my mitzvot and regulations which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, worshipping them; <sup>7</sup> then I will cut off Isra'el from the land I have given them. This house, which I consecrated for my name, I will eject from my sight; and Isra'el will become an example to avoid and an object of scorn among all peoples. <sup>8</sup> This house, now so exalted — everyone passing by will gasp in shock at the sight of it and will ask, 'Why has ADONAI done this to this land and to this house?' <sup>9</sup> But the answer will be, 'It's because they abandoned ADONAI their God, who brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt, and took hold of other gods, worshipping and serving them; this is why ADONAI brought all these calamities on them.’”

<sup>10</sup> At the end of twenty years, during which time Shlomo had built the two buildings, the house of ADONAI and the royal palace, <sup>11</sup> King Shlomo gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of the Galil (recall that Hiram the king of Tzor had supplied Shlomo with cedar and cypress logs and with all the gold Shlomo wanted). <sup>12</sup> Hiram came over from Tzor to see the cities Shlomo had given him, but he was not satisfied with them. <sup>13</sup> He said, “What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?” So they have been called the land of Kabul [good for nothing] till this day. <sup>14</sup> (Hiram had sent the king four tons of gold.)

<sup>15</sup> Following is the account of the forced labor levied by King Shlomo for building the house of ADONAI, his own palace, the Millo, the wall of Yerushalayim, and the cities of Hatzor, Megiddo and Gezer. <sup>16</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, taken Gezer, burned it to the ground and killed the Kena’ani living in the city; then he had given it as a dowry for his daughter, Shlomo’s wife. <sup>17</sup> So Shlomo rebuilt Gezer; he also built Lower Beit-Horon, <sup>18</sup> Ba’alat and Tadmor in the desert, in the land, <sup>19</sup> as well as all the cities that Shlomo had for storing supplies, the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horsemen, and the other buildings Shlomo wanted to build for himself in Yerushalayim, in the L’vanon and throughout the land he ruled. <sup>20</sup> All the people still left from the Emori, Hitti, P’rizi, Hivi, and Y’vusi, who were not part of the people of Isra’el, <sup>21</sup> that is, their descendants remaining after them in the land, whom the people of Isra’el were not able to destroy completely — from them Shlomo levied his forced laborers; as it is to this day. <sup>22</sup> But Shlomo did not raise any of his forced labor from the people of Isra’el; rather, they were the soldiers, his servants, administrators and commanders, and the officials in charge of his chariots and horsemen. <sup>23</sup> There were 550 chief officers over Shlomo’s work, in charge of the workers.

<sup>24</sup> Pharaoh’s daughter came up from the City of David to her house, which Shlomo had built for her. After that he built the Millo.

<sup>25</sup> Three times a year Shlomo offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for ADONAI, offering incense with them on the altar before ADONAI. So he finished the house.

<sup>26</sup> King Shlomo built a fleet of ships in ‘Etzyon-Gever, by Elot on the shore of the Sea of Suf in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup> Hiram sent some of his own servants, experienced sailors who understood the sea, to serve with Shlomo's servants. <sup>28</sup>They went to Ofir and took from there gold, fourteen tons of it, which they brought back to King Shlomo.

10 <sup>1</sup> When the queen of Sh'va heard what was being said about Shlomo because of the name of ADONAI, she came to test him with difficult questions. <sup>2</sup> She arrived in Yerushalayim accompanied by a very great retinue, including camels bearing spices and gold in great abundance, and precious stones. When she appeared before Shlomo she spoke with him about everything on her heart, <sup>3</sup> and Shlomo answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king that he could not explain to her. <sup>4</sup> After the queen of Sh'va had seen all Shlomo's wisdom, the palace he had built, <sup>5</sup> the food at his table, the manner of seating his officials, the manner in which his staff served him, how they were dressed, his personal servants and his burnt offering which he offered in the house of ADONAI, it left her breathless. <sup>6</sup> She said to the king, "What I heard in my own country about your deeds and your wisdom is true, <sup>7</sup> but I couldn't believe the report until I came and saw for myself. Actually, they didn't tell me even the half of it — your wisdom and prosperity surpass the reports I heard. <sup>8</sup>How happy your people must be, how happy these servants of yours who are always here attending you and get to hear your wisdom! <sup>9</sup> Blessed be ADONAI your God, who took pleasure in you to put you on the throne of Isra'el. Because of ADONAI's eternal love for Isra'el, he has made you king, to administer judgment and justice fairly." <sup>10</sup> Then she gave the king four tons of gold, a huge amount of spices, and precious stones; never again did there arrive such an abundance of spices as those the queen of Sh'va gave to King Shlomo.

<sup>11</sup> Hiram's fleet which had brought gold from Ofir now brought in from Ofir a large quantity of sandalwood and precious stones. <sup>12</sup> The king used the sandalwood to make columns for the house of ADONAI and for the royal palace, and also lyres and lutes for the singers. No sandalwood like it has come or been seen to this day.

<sup>13</sup> King Shlomo gave the queen of Sh'va everything she wanted, whatever she asked, in addition to the presents he gave her on his own initiative. After this, she returned and went back to her own country, she and her servants.

<sup>14</sup> The weight of the gold Shlomo received annually came to twenty-two tons of gold, <sup>15</sup> besides that which came from sales taxes, customs duties and assessments collected by all the kings of the mixed peoples and by the district governors. <sup>16</sup> King Shlomo made 200 large shields of hammered gold; fifteen pounds of gold went into one shield. <sup>17</sup> He made 300 more shields of hammered gold, with three-and-three-quarters pounds going into one shield; the king put these in the House of the L'vanon Forest.

<sup>18</sup> The king also made a large throne of ivory and overlaid it with the finest gold. <sup>19</sup> The throne had six steps, a back with a rounded top, arms on either side of the seat, two lions standing beside the arms, <sup>20</sup> and twelve more lions standing on each side of the six steps. Nothing like it had ever been made in any kingdom.

<sup>21</sup> All King Shlomo's drinking vessels were of gold; and all the utensils in the House of the L'vanon Forest were of pure gold; none was of silver, for in Shlomo's time it was regarded as having little value. <sup>22</sup> The king had a fleet of large "Tarshish" ships along with Hiram's fleet; once every three years the "Tarshish" fleet came in, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

<sup>23</sup> So King Shlomo surpassed all the kings on earth in both wealth and wisdom. <sup>24</sup> All the earth sought to have an audience with Shlomo, in order to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>25</sup> Each one brought his present — articles of silver, articles of gold, clothing, armor, spices, horses and mules; and this continued year after year.

<sup>26</sup> Shlomo amassed chariots and horsemen; he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen; he assigned them to the chariot cities and to the king in Yerushalayim. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver in Yerushalayim as common as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as sycamore-fig trees are in the Sh'felah. <sup>28</sup> Shlomo's horses had been brought from Egypt and from Keveh, with the king's agents having bought them from the dealers in Keveh at the going price. <sup>29</sup> A chariot from Egypt cost fifteen pounds of silver shekels and a horse three-and-three quarters pounds [of shekels]; all the kings of the Hittim and the kings of Aram purchased them at these prices through Shlomo's agents.

11 <sup>1</sup> King Shlomo loved many foreign women besides the daughter of Pharaoh. There were women from the Mo'avi, 'Amoni, Edomi, Tzidoni and Hitti — <sup>2</sup> nations about which ADONAI had said to the people of Isra'el, "You are not to go among them or they among you, because they will turn your hearts away toward their gods." But Shlomo was deeply attached to them by his love. <sup>3</sup> He had 700 wives, all princesses, and 300 concubines; and his wives turned his heart away. <sup>4</sup> For when Shlomo became old, his wives turned his heart away toward other gods; so that he was not wholehearted with ADONAI his God, as David his father had been. <sup>5</sup> For Shlomo followed 'Ashtoret the goddess of the Tzidoni and Milkom the abomination of the 'Amoni. <sup>6</sup> Thus Shlomo did what was evil in ADONAI's view and did not fully follow ADONAI, as David his father had done. <sup>7</sup> Shlomo built a high place for K'mosh the abomination of Mo'av on the hill in front of Yerushalayim, and another for Molekh the abomination of the people of 'Amon. <sup>8</sup> This is what he did for all his foreign wives, who then offered and sacrificed to their gods. <sup>9</sup> So ADONAI grew angry with Shlomo, because his heart had turned away from ADONAI the God of Isra'el, who had appeared to him twice <sup>10</sup>and given him orders concerning this matter that he should not follow other gods. But he didn't obey ADONAI's orders.

<sup>11</sup> So ADONAI said to Shlomo, "Since this is what has been in your mind, and you haven't kept my covenant and my regulations which I ordered you to obey, I will tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup> However, for David your father's sake I won't do it while you are alive, but I will tear it away from your son. <sup>13</sup> Even then, I won't tear away all the kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Yerushalayim, which I have chosen."

<sup>14</sup> Then ADONAI raised up an adversary against Shlomo, Hadad the Edomi, of the royal line of Edom. <sup>15</sup> Back when David had been in Edom, and Yo'av the commander of the army had gone up to bury the dead, having killed every male in Edom <sup>16</sup> (for Yo'av and all Isra'el had stayed there six months, until he had eliminated every male in Edom), <sup>17</sup> Hadad had fled, he and a number of Edomi servants of his father's with him, and gone into Egypt; at the time Hadad had been but a small boy. <sup>18</sup> On their way, they passed through Midyan and arrived in Pa'ran, took with them men from Pa'ran, and went on into Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt. He gave Hadad a house, saw to it that he had food and gave him land. <sup>19</sup> Hadad became a great favorite of Pharaoh, so that he gave him his own wife's sister in marriage, that is, the sister of Tachp'neis the queen. <sup>20</sup> The sister of Tachp'neis bore him G'nuvat his son, and Tachp'neis brought him up in Pharaoh's own house, so that G'nuvat was in Pharaoh's house along with Pharaoh's sons.<sup>21</sup> When Hadad in Egypt heard that David slept with his ancestors and Yo'av the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me leave, so that I can return to my own country."<sup>22</sup> Pharaoh asked him, "But what have you lacked with me that makes you want just now to go to your own country?" "Nothing in particular," he replied, "but let me leave, anyway."

<sup>23</sup> God raised up another adversary against Shlomo, Rezon the son of Elyada, who had fled from his lord Hadad'ezer king of Tzovah<sup>24</sup> when David killed the men from Tzovah. Rezon rallied men to himself and became the leader of a band of marauders; they went to Dammesek and settled there, while he became king of Dammesek.<sup>25</sup> He remained an adversary as long as Shlomo lived, causing difficulties in addition to those of Hadad. He detested Isra'el and ruled Aram.

<sup>26</sup> Also Yarov'am the son of N'vat, an Efrati from Tz'redah, whose mother's name was Tz'ru'ah, one of Shlomo's servants, rebelled against the king.<sup>27</sup> Here is the reason he rebelled against the king: Shlomo was building the Millo and closing the breach in [the wall of] the City of David his father.<sup>28</sup> Now this Yarov'am was a strong, energetic man; and Shlomo, seeing how serious the young man was, made him supervisor over all the work being done by the tribe of Yosef.<sup>29</sup> Once, during this period, when Yarov'am had gone out of Yerushalayim, the prophet Achiyah from Shiloh spotted him traveling. Achiyah was wearing a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in open country.<sup>30</sup> Achiyah took hold of his new cloak that he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.<sup>31</sup> Then he said to Yarov'am, "Take ten pieces for yourself! For here is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: 'I am going to tear the kingdom out of Shlomo's hand, and I will give ten tribes to you.'<sup>32</sup> But he will keep one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Yerushalayim, the city I have chosen from all the tribes of Isra'el.<sup>33</sup> I will do this because they have abandoned me and worshipped 'Ashtoret the goddess of the Tzidoni, K'mosh the god of Mo'av and Milkom the god of the people of 'Amon. They haven't lived according to my ways, so that they could do what was right in my view and obey my regulations and rulings, as did David his father.<sup>34</sup> Nevertheless, I will not take the entire kingdom away from him; but I will make him prince as long as he lives, for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose, because he obeyed my mitzvot and regulations.<sup>35</sup> However, I will take the kingdom

away from his son and give ten tribes of it to you. <sup>36</sup> To his son I will give one tribe, so that David my servant will always have a light burning before me in Yerushalayim, the city I chose for myself as the place to put my name. <sup>37</sup> I will take you, and you will rule over everything you want; you will be king over Isra'el. <sup>38</sup> Now if you will listen to all that I order you, live according to my ways and do what is right in my view, so that you observe my regulations and mitzvot, as David my servant did; then I will be with you, and I will build you a lasting dynasty, as I built for David; and I will give Isra'el to you. <sup>39</sup> For this [offense] I will trouble David's descendants, but not forever." <sup>40</sup> Because of this Shlomo tried to kill Yarov'am; but Yarov'am roused himself, fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and stayed in Egypt until the death of Shlomo.

<sup>41</sup> Other activities of Shlomo, all he accomplished and his wisdom are recorded in the Annals of Shlomo. <sup>42</sup> The length of Shlomo's reign in Yerushalayim over all Isra'el was forty years. <sup>43</sup> Then Shlomo slept with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David his father, and Rechav'am his son became king in his place.

12 <sup>1</sup> Rechav'am went to Sh'khem, where all Isra'el had come to proclaim him king. <sup>2</sup> When Yarov'am the son of N'vat heard of it — for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from Shlomo; so Yarov'am was living in Egypt; <sup>3</sup> but they sent and summoned him — Yarov'am and the whole community of Isra'el came and said to Rechav'am, <sup>4</sup> "Your father laid a harsh yoke on us. But if you will lighten the harsh service we had to render your father and ease his heavy yoke that he put on us, we will serve you." <sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Leave me alone for three days, then come back to me." So the people left.

<sup>6</sup> King Rechav'am consulted the older men who had been in attendance on Shlomo his father during his lifetime and asked, "What advice would you give me as to how to answer these people?" <sup>7</sup> They said to him, "If you will start today being a servant to these people — if you will serve them, be responsive to them and give them favorable consideration, then they will be your servants forever." <sup>8</sup> But he didn't take the advice the older men gave him; instead he consulted the young men he had grown up with, who were now his attendants. <sup>9</sup> He asked them, "What advice would you give me, so that we can give an answer to these people who said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father laid on us’?” <sup>10</sup> The young men he had grown up with said to him, “These people who said to you, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy; but you, make it lighter for us’ — here’s the answer you should give them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist! <sup>11</sup> Yes, my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but I will make it heavier! My father controlled you with whips, but I will control you with scorpions!’”

<sup>12</sup> So Yarov‘am and all the people came to Rechav‘am the third day, as the king had requested by saying, “Come to me again the third day”; <sup>13</sup> and the king answered the people harshly. Abandoning the advice the older men had given him, <sup>14</sup> he addressed them according to the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke! My father controlled you with whips, but I will control you with scorpions!” <sup>15</sup> So the king didn’t listen to the people; and that was something ADONAI brought about, so that he could fulfill his word, which ADONAI had spoken through Achiyah from Shiloh to Yarov‘am the son of N’vat.

<sup>16</sup> When all Isra’el saw that the king wasn’t listening to them, the people answered the king,

“Do we have any share in David?
We have no heritage in the son of Yishai!
Go to your tents, Isra’el!
Care for your own house, David!”

So Isra’el left for their tents.

<sup>17</sup> But as for the people of Isra’el living in the cities of Y’hudah, Rechav‘am ruled over them. <sup>18</sup> King Rechav‘am then sent Adoram, who was in charge of forced labor; but all Isra’el stoned him to death. King Rechav‘am managed to mount his chariot and flee to Yerushalayim. <sup>19</sup> Isra’el has been in rebellion against the dynasty of David to this day.

<sup>20</sup> On hearing that Yarov‘am had returned, all Isra’el summoned him to the assembly and proclaimed him king over all Isra’el. No one followed the dynasty of David except the tribe of Y’hudah.

<sup>21</sup> When Rechav‘am arrived in Yerushalayim, he assembled all the house of Y’hudah and the tribe of Binyamin, 180,000 select soldiers, to fight the house of Isra’el and bring the rulership back to Rechav‘am the son of Shlomo. <sup>22</sup> But this word from God came to Sh’mayah the man of God: <sup>23</sup> “Speak to Rechav‘am the son of Shlomo, king of Y’hudah, to all the house of Y’hudah and Binyamin and to the rest of the people; tell them <sup>24</sup> that this is what ADONAI says: ‘You are not to go up and fight your brothers the people of Isra’el! Every man is to go back home, because this is my doing.’” They paid attention to the word of ADONAI and turned back, as ADONAI had told them to do.

<sup>25</sup> Then Yarov ‘am built up Sh’khem in the hills of Efrayim and lived there. After that, he left and built up P’nu’el. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless Yarov‘am said to himself, “Now the rulership will return to the house of David. <sup>27</sup> For if these people continue going up to offer sacrifices in the house of ADONAI in Yerushalayim, their hearts will turn back to their lord, Rechav‘am king of Y’hudah. Then they will kill me and return to Rechav‘am king of Y’hudah.” <sup>28</sup> After seeking advice, the king made two calves of gold and said to the people, “You have been going up to Yerushalayim long enough! Here are your gods, Isra’el, who brought you out of the land of Egypt!” <sup>29</sup> He placed one in Beit-El and the other in Dan, <sup>30</sup> and the affair became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one [in Beit-El and] all the way to Dan [to worship the other]. <sup>31</sup> He also set up temples on the high places and made cohanim from among all the people, even though they were not descended from Levi.

<sup>32</sup> Yarov‘am instituted a festival in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, similar to the festival held in Y’hudah; he went up to the altar in Beit-El to sacrifice to the calves he had made; and he placed in Beit-El the cohanim he had appointed for the high places. <sup>33</sup> He went up to the altar which he had set up in Beit-El on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had chosen on his own, and instituted a festival for the people of Isra’el; he went up to the altar to burn incense.

13 <sup>1</sup> Just then, as Yarov‘am was standing by the altar to burn incense, a man of God came out of Y’hudah, directed to Beit-El by a word from ADONAI. <sup>2</sup> And by the word from ADONAI he cried out against the altar: “Altar, altar, here is what ADONAI says: ‘A son will be born to the house of David; his name will be Yoshiyahu; and on you he will sacrifice the cohanim of the high places who burn incense on you! They will burn human bones on you!’” <sup>3</sup> That same day he also gave a sign: “Here is the sign which ADONAI has decreed:

“‘The altar will be split apart;

the ashes on it will be scattered about.’”

<sup>4</sup> When the king heard what the man of God said, how he denounced the altar in Beit-El, Yarov‘am took his hand away from the altar and said, “Seize him!” But his hand, the one he had stretched out against him, shriveled up; so that he could not draw it back to himself. <sup>5</sup> Also the altar was split apart, and the ashes scattered from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of ADONAI. <sup>6</sup> The king then responded to the man of God. “Ask now the favor of ADONAI your God,” he said, “and pray for me, that my hand will be restored to me.” The man of God prayed to ADONAI, and the king’s hand was restored to him and became as it had been before. <sup>7</sup> The king then said to the man of God, “Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward. <sup>8</sup> But the man of God replied to the king, “Even if you give me half your household, I will not accept your hospitality; nor will I eat food or drink water in this place. <sup>9</sup> For this is the order I received through the word of ADONAI: ‘Don’t eat food or drink water, and don’t return by the road you took when you came.’” <sup>10</sup> So he went another way and did not return by the road by which he had come to Beit-El.

<sup>11</sup> Now there lived an old prophet in Beit-El; and one of his sons came and told him all the things the man of God had done that day in Beit-El; also they told their father what he had said to the king. <sup>12</sup> Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” For his sons had seen what road the man of God from Y’hudah had taken. <sup>13</sup> He then said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him; and, riding on it, <sup>14</sup> he went after the man of God. He found him sitting under a pistachio tree and said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Y’hudah?” He answered, “I am.” <sup>15</sup> Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat some food.” <sup>16</sup> He replied, “I cannot return with you or partake of your hospitality, nor will I eat food or drink water with you in this place; <sup>17</sup> because it was said to me by the word of ADONAI, ‘You are not to eat food or drink water there, and you are not to go back by the way you came.’” <sup>18</sup> The other said to him, “I too am a prophet, just like you; and an angel spoke to me by the word of ADONAI and said, ‘Bring him back with you to your house, so that he can eat food and drink water.’” But he was lying to him. <sup>19</sup> So he went back with him and did eat food and drink water in his house. <sup>20</sup> As they were sitting at the table, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet who had brought him back; <sup>21</sup> and he cried to the man of God who had come from Y'hudah, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Since you rebelled against the word of ADONAI and didn't obey the mitzvah ADONAI your God gave you, <sup>22</sup> but came back and ate food and drank water in the place where he warned you not to eat food or drink water, your corpse will not arrive at the tomb of your ancestors.'" <sup>23</sup> After he had eaten food and drunk, he saddled the donkey for the prophet he had brought back. <sup>24</sup> But after he had gone, a lion encountered the man of God on the road and killed him. His corpse lay there in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing next to it. <sup>25</sup> In time, people passed by and saw the corpse lying in the road with the lion standing next to it; and they came and told about it in the city where the old prophet lived.

<sup>26</sup> When the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard about it, he said, "It is the man of God who rebelled against the word of ADONAI; this is why ADONAI handed him over to the lion to tear him to pieces and kill him, in keeping with the word ADONAI spoke to him." <sup>27</sup> To his sons he said, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they saddled it. <sup>28</sup> He went and found his corpse lying in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing next to the corpse; the lion had neither eaten the corpse nor attacked the donkey. <sup>29</sup> The prophet picked up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey and brought it back to the city where he lived, to mourn and bury him. <sup>30</sup> He laid the corpse in his own burial cave, and they mourned him — "Oh! My brother!" <sup>31</sup> After burying him he said to his sons, "When I die, put me in the burial cave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones next to his bones. <sup>32</sup> For the thing he cried by the word of ADONAI against the altar in Beit-El and against all the temples on the high places near the cities of Shomron will surely happen."

<sup>33</sup> After this, Yarov'am did not turn back from his evil way but continued appointing cohanim for the high places from among all the people; he consecrated anyone who wanted to be a cohen of the high places. <sup>34</sup> This brought sin to the house of Yarov'am that would eventually cut it off and destroy it from the face of the earth.

14 <sup>1</sup> At this time, Aviyah the son of Yarov'am fell ill. <sup>2</sup> Yarov'am said to his wife, "Please come, and disguise yourself, so that you won't be recognized as Yarov'am's wife, and go to Shiloh. Achiyah the prophet is there, the one who said that I would be king over these people. <sup>3</sup> Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes and a jug of honey; and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

<sup>4</sup> Yarov‘am’s wife did this; she set out, went to Shiloh and arrived at the house of Achiyah. Now Achiyah could not see, because his eyes were dim with age. <sup>5</sup> ADONAI had told Achiyah, “Yarov‘am’s wife is on her way to you to ask about her son, who is ill. You are to tell her thus and thus; moreover, when she comes, she will be pretending she is another woman.”

<sup>6</sup> When Achiyah heard the sound of her feet as she came in the door, he said, “Enter, wife of Yarov‘am! Why pretend you are someone else? I’ve been given bad news for you. <sup>7</sup> Go, tell Yarov‘am that this is what ADONAI says: ‘I raised you up from among the people, made you prince over my people Isra’el, <sup>8</sup> tore the kingdom away from the dynasty of David and gave it to you. In spite of this, you have not been like my servant David, who obeyed my mitzvot and followed me with all his heart, so that he could do only what I regarded as right. <sup>9</sup> Rather, you have committed more evil than anyone before you! You went and made other gods for yourself and images of cast metal to make me angry, but me you shoved behind your back! <sup>10</sup> Therefore, I will now bring disaster on the house of Yarov‘am. I will cut off every male of Yarov‘am’s line, whether a slave or free in Isra’el; I will sweep away the house of Yarov‘am as completely as when someone sweeps away dung until it’s all gone. <sup>11</sup> If someone from the line of Yarov‘am dies in the city, the dogs will eat him; if he dies in the countryside, the vultures will eat him. For ADONAI has said it.’ <sup>12</sup> So get up and go home; when your feet enter the city, the boy will die. <sup>13</sup> All Isra’el will mourn him, and they will bury him; he is the only one of Yarov‘am’s line who will lie in a grave, because he alone in the house of Yarov‘am has in him an element of good toward ADONAI the God of Isra’el. <sup>14</sup> Moreover, ADONAI will raise up for himself a king over Isra’el who at that time will cut off the house of Yarov‘am. And what will God do now? <sup>15</sup> ADONAI will strike Isra’el until it shakes like a reed in the water; he will uproot Isra’el from this good land, which he gave to their ancestors, and scatter them beyond the [Euphrates] River; because they made sacred poles for themselves, thus making ADONAI angry. <sup>16</sup> He will give up on Isra’el because of the sins of Yarov‘am, which he committed himself, and with which he made Isra’el sin as well.”

<sup>17</sup> Yarov ‘am’s wife got up, left and went to Tirtzah. The moment she reached the threshold of the house, the boy died. <sup>18</sup> All Isra’el buried him and mourned him, in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken through his servant Achiyah the prophet.

<sup>19</sup> Other activities of Yarov'am, how he fought and how he ruled are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>20</sup> Yarov'am's reign lasted twenty-two years; then he slept with his ancestors, and Nadav his son became king in his place.

<sup>21</sup> Rechav'am the son of Shlomo was reigning in Y'hudah. Rechav'am was forty-one years old when he began to rule; and he ruled seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city ADONAI had chosen from all the tribes of Isra'el to bear his name; his mother's name was Na'amah the 'Amonit.

<sup>22</sup> Y'hudah did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; they made him angry because of their sins, which were worse than any their ancestors had committed. <sup>23</sup> For they erected high places, standing-stones and sacred poles on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>24</sup> Also there were male and female cult-prostitutes in the land attached to these shrines, doing all the disgusting things which the nations did that ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el.

<sup>25</sup> In the fifth year of King Rechav'am, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerushalayim. <sup>26</sup> He took the treasures in the house of ADONAI and the treasures in the royal palace — he took everything, including all the gold shields Shlomo had made. <sup>27</sup> To replace them, King Rechav'am made shields of bronze, which he entrusted to the commanders of the contingent guarding the gate to the royal palace. <sup>28</sup> Whenever the king went to the house of ADONAI, the guard would get the shields; later they would return them to the guardroom.

<sup>29</sup> Other activities of Rechav'am and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. <sup>30</sup> But there was continual war between Rechav'am and Yarov'am. <sup>31</sup> Rechav'am slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David; his mother's name was Na'amah the 'Amonit. Then Aviyam his son became king in his place.

15 <sup>1</sup> It was in the eighteenth year of King Yarov'am the son of N'vat that Aviyam began his reign over Y'hudah. <sup>2</sup> He ruled three years in Yerushalayim; his mother's name was Ma'akhah the daughter of Avishalom. <sup>3</sup> He committed all the sins his father had committed before him; he was not wholehearted with ADONAI his God, as David his forefather had been. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, for David's sake ADONAI his God gave him a lamp burning in Yerushalayim by establishing his son after him and making Yerushalayim secure. <sup>5</sup> For David had done what was right from ADONAI's perspective; he had not turned away from anything he had ordered him to do, as long as he lived, except in the matter of Uriyah the Hitti.

<sup>6</sup> There was war between Rechav'am and Yarov'am as long as he lived.

<sup>7</sup> Other activities of Aviyam and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. But there was war between Aviyam and Yarov'am. <sup>8</sup> Aviyam slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son became king in his place.

<sup>9</sup> It was in the twentieth year of Yarov'am king of Isra'el that Asa began his reign over Y'hudah. <sup>10</sup> He ruled forty-one years in Yerushalayim; his [grand]mother's name was Ma'akhah the daughter of Avishalom. <sup>11</sup> Asa did what was right from the perspective of ADONAI, as David his ancestor had done. <sup>12</sup> He rid the land of cult-prostitutes and removed all the idols his ancestors had made. <sup>13</sup> He also deposed Ma'akhah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a disgusting image as an asherah. Asa cut down this image of hers and burned it in Vadi Kidron. <sup>14</sup> But the high places were not removed. Nevertheless, Asa was wholehearted with ADONAI throughout his life. <sup>15</sup> He brought into the house of ADONAI all the articles his father had consecrated, also the things he himself had consecrated — silver, gold and utensils.

<sup>16</sup> There was war between Asa and Ba'sha king of Isra'el as long as they both lived. <sup>17</sup> Ba'sha attacked Y'hudah, and he fortified Ramah to prevent anyone's leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Y'hudah. <sup>18</sup> Then Asa took all the silver and gold left among the treasures of the house of ADONAI and among the treasures of the royal palace; and, entrusting them to his servants, King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tavrimmon, the son of Hezyon, king of Aram, who lived in Dammesek, with this message: <sup>19</sup> "There is a covenant between me and you, which existed already between my father and your father. Here, I am sending you a present of silver and gold; go, and break your covenant with Ba'sha king of Isra'el, so that he will leave me alone." <sup>20</sup> Ben-Hadad did as King Asa asked — he sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Isra'el, attacking 'Iyon, Dan, Avel-Beit-Ma'akhah, all of Kinn'rot and all the land of Naftali. <sup>21</sup> As soon as Ba'sha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and stayed in Tirtzah. <sup>22</sup> King

Asa then issued a proclamation requiring every man in Y'hudah, with no exception, to come and carry off the stones and timber Ba'sha had used to fortify Ramah. With them King Asa fortified Geva of Binyamin and Mitzpah.

<sup>23</sup> The other activities of Asa, all his power, all his accomplishments and the cities he fortified are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. But in his old age he suffered from a disease in his legs. <sup>24</sup> Asa slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David his ancestor. Then Y'hoshafat his son became king in his place.

<sup>25</sup> It was in the second year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Nadav the son of Yarov'am began his reign over Isra'el, and he ruled Isra'el two years. <sup>26</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of his father and the sin through which he had made Isra'el sin.

<sup>27</sup> Ba'sha the son of Achiyah, from the descendants of Yissakhar, conspired against him; and Ba'sha attacked him at Gib'ton, which belonged to the P'lishtim; for at the time Nadav and all Isra'el were besieging Gib'ton. <sup>28</sup> It was in the third year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Ba'sha killed Nadav and became king in his place.

<sup>29</sup> As soon as he had become king he killed off the entire house of Yarov'am, destroying every living soul and leaving not one survivor. This was in keeping with what ADONAI had said through his servant Achiyah from Shiloh; <sup>30</sup> it was the punishment for the sins Yarov'am had committed and through which he had made Isra'el sin, thereby angering ADONAI the God of Isra'el.

<sup>31</sup> Other activities of Nadav and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>32</sup> There was war between Asa and Ba'sha king of Isra'el as long as they both lived.

<sup>33</sup> It was in the third year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Ba'sha the son of Achiyah began his reign over all Isra'el in Tirtzah, and his rule lasted twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup> He did what was wrong from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of Yarov'am and committing the sin through which he had made Isra'el sin.

16 <sup>1</sup> The word of ADONAI came to Yehu the son of Hanani against Ba'sha: <sup>2</sup> "I raised you up out of the dust and made you prince over my people Isra'el. But you have lived in the same way as Yarov'am and caused my people Isra'el to sin, so that their sinning has made me angry. <sup>3</sup> Therefore I will sweep away Ba'sha and his house completely; I will make your house like the house of Yarov'am the son of N'vat. <sup>4</sup> If someone from the line of Ba'sha dies in the city, the dogs will eat him; if he dies in the countryside, the vultures will eat him."

<sup>5</sup> Other activities of Ba'sha, his accomplishments and his power are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>6</sup> Ba'sha slept with his ancestors, and Elah his son became king in his place. <sup>7</sup> Through the prophet Yehu the son of Hanani the word of ADONAI was proclaimed against Ba'sha and his house both because he did so much evil from ADONAI's perspective, angering him with his actions and becoming like the house of Yarov'am, and because he killed [Nadav].

<sup>8</sup> It was in the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Elah the son of Ba 'sha began his reign over all Isra'el in Tirtzah, and he ruled for two years. <sup>9</sup> His servant Zimri, commander of half of his chariots, plotted against him. Finally, one time when Elah was in Tirtzah, drinking himself senseless in the house of Artza, administrator of the palace in Tirtzah, <sup>10</sup> Zimri entered, struck him down and killed him. This was in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Y'hudah; Zimri then took Elah's place as king.

<sup>11</sup> At the beginning of his reign, as soon as he took over the throne, he killed off the entire house of Ba'sha; he left not a single male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends. <sup>12</sup> Thus Zimri eliminated all the house of Ba'sha, in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken against Ba'sha through Yehu the prophet. This word had been spoken <sup>13</sup> because of all of Ba'sha's sins and the sins of Elah his son, which they committed and with which they made Isra'el sin, thereby angering ADONAI the God of Isra'el with their worthless idols. <sup>14</sup> Other activities of Elah and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

<sup>15</sup> It was in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Zimri ruled for seven days in Tirtzah. At that time, the army was besieging Gib'ton, which belonged to the P'lishtim. <sup>16</sup> The troops in their camp heard it said that Zimri had plotted and killed the king, whereupon that same day, there in the camp, all Isra'el made 'Omri, the commander of the army, king over Isra'el. <sup>17</sup> 'Omri and all Isra'el with him withdrew from Gib'ton and besieged Tirtzah. <sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that the city had been captured, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and burned down the royal palace over him, so that he died. <sup>19</sup> This came about because of the sins he committed in doing what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, in living as Yarov'am had lived, and in sinning by making Isra'el sin.<sup>20</sup> Other activities of Zimri and his conspiracy are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

<sup>21</sup> At this point the people of Isra'el divided into two factions. Half of the people went after Tivni the son of Ginat to make him king, while the other half followed 'Omri.<sup>22</sup> But the faction supporting 'Omri won out over that of Tivni the son of Ginat; so Tivni died, and 'Omri became king.

<sup>23</sup> It was in the thirty-first year of Asa king of Y'hudah that 'Omri began his reign over Isra'el, and he ruled for twelve years, six of them in Tirtzah.<sup>24</sup> He bought Mount Shomron from Shemer for 132 pounds of silver. On the mountain he built a city, which he named Shomron after Shemer, who had owned the mountain.

<sup>25</sup> 'Omri did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, outdoing all his predecessors in wickedness;<sup>26</sup> for he lived entirely in the manner of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, committing the sins with which he made Isra'el sin, thereby angering ADONAI the God of Isra'el with their worthless idols.<sup>27</sup> Other activities of 'Omri and the power he demonstrated are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.<sup>28</sup> Then 'Omri slept with his ancestors and was buried in Shomron, and Ach'av his son became king in his place.

<sup>29</sup> It was in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Y'hudah that Ach'av the son of 'Omri began his rule over Isra'el; Ach'av the son of 'Omri ruled twenty-two years over Isra'el in Shomron.<sup>30</sup> Ach'av the son of 'Omri did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, outdoing all his predecessors [in wickedness].<sup>31</sup> But then, as if it had been a trifling thing for him to commit the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, he took as his wife Izevel the daughter of EtBa'al king of the Tzidonim, and went and served Ba'al and worshipped him.<sup>32</sup> He erected an altar for Ba'al in the house of Ba'al, which he had built in Shomron.<sup>33</sup> Ach'av also set up the asherah; indeed, Ach'av did more to anger ADONAI the God of Isra'el, than all the kings of Isra'el preceding him.<sup>34</sup> It was during his time that Hi'el of Beit-El rebuilt Yericho. He laid its foundation at the cost of his firstborn son Aviram and erected its gates at the cost of his youngest son S'guv. This was in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken through Y'hoshua the son of Nun.

17 <sup>1</sup> Eliyahu from Tishbe, an inhabitant of Gil'ad, said to Ach'av, "As ADONAI the God of Isra'el lives, before whom I stand, there will be neither rain nor dew in the years ahead unless I say so." <sup>2</sup> Then the word of ADONAI came to him: <sup>3</sup> "Leave here, turn to the east, and hide in Vadi K'rit near the Yarden. <sup>4</sup> You are to drink from the stream, and I have ordered the ravens to feed you there." <sup>5</sup> So he went and acted according to the word of ADONAI — he went and lived in Vadi K'rit near the Yarden. <sup>6</sup> The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the stream. <sup>7</sup> After a while the stream dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

<sup>8</sup> Then this word of ADONAI came to him: <sup>9</sup> "Get up; go to Tzarfat, a village in Tzidon; and live there. I have ordered a widow there to provide for you." <sup>10</sup> So he set out and went to Tzarfat. On reaching the gate of the city, he saw a widow there gathering sticks. He called out to her, "Please bring a little water in a container for me to drink." <sup>11</sup> As she was going to get it, he called after her, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand." <sup>12</sup> She answered, "As ADONAI your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a pot and a little oil in the jug. Here I am, gathering a couple sticks of wood, so that I can go and cook it for myself and my son. After we have eaten that, we will die." <sup>13</sup> Eliyahu said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go; and do what you said; but first, use a little of it to make me a small loaf of bread; and bring it out to me. After that, make food for yourself and your son. <sup>14</sup> For this is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el, says: 'The pot of meal will not get used up, nor will there fail to be oil in the jug, until the day ADONAI sends rain down on the land.'" <sup>15</sup> She went and acted according to what Eliyahu had said; and she, he and her household had food to eat for a long time. <sup>16</sup> The pot of meal did not get used up, nor did there fail to be oil in the jug, in fulfillment of the word of ADONAI spoken through Eliyahu.

<sup>17</sup> A while later, the son of the woman whose house it was fell ill; his illness grew increasingly serious until his breathing stopped. <sup>18</sup> She said to Eliyahu, "What do you have against me, you man of God? Did you come to me just to remind me how sinful I am by killing my son?" <sup>19</sup> "Give me your son," he said to her. Taking him from her lap, he carried him into the room upstairs where he was staying and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup> Then he cried out to ADONAI: "ADONAI my God! Have you brought also this misery on the widow I'm staying with by killing her son?" <sup>21</sup> He stretched himself out on the child ADONAI: “ADONAI my God, please! Let this child’s soul come back into him!” <sup>22</sup> ADONAI heard Eliyahu’s cry, the child’s soul came back into him, and he revived. <sup>23</sup> Eliyahu took the child, brought him down from the upstairs room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Eliyahu said, “See? Your son is alive.” <sup>24</sup> The woman replied to Eliyahu, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of ADONAI that you speak is the truth.”

18 <sup>1</sup> A long time passed. Then, in the third year, the word of ADONAI came to Eliyahu: “Go, present yourself to Ach’av, and I will send rain down on the land.” <sup>2</sup> When Eliyahu went to present himself to Ach’av, the famine in Shomron had become severe. <sup>3</sup> Ach’av called ‘Ovadyah, who was in charge of the palace. Now ‘Ovadyah greatly revered ADONAI; <sup>4</sup> for example, when Izevel was murdering ADONAI’s prophets, ‘Ovadyah took a hundred prophets, hid them in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with food and water. <sup>5</sup> Ach’av said to ‘Ovadyah, “Go throughout the land, and check all the springs and vadis; maybe we can find grass somewhere, so that we can keep the horses and mules alive and not lose all the animals.” <sup>6</sup> So they divided between them the territory to be visited; Ach’av went one way by himself, and ‘Ovadyah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup> ‘Ovadyah was on the road when suddenly Eliyahu encountered him. ‘Ovadyah recognized him, fell on his face and said, “Is it really you, my lord Eliyahu?” <sup>8</sup> He answered, “Yes, it is I; go, tell your master, ‘Eliyahu is here.’” <sup>9</sup> ‘Ovadyah replied, “How have I sinned, that you would hand your servant over to Ach’av to kill me? <sup>10</sup> As ADONAI your God lives, there can’t be a single nation or kingdom where my master hasn’t sent to search you out; and in each kingdom or nation where they said, ‘He isn’t here,’ he made them take an oath that they hadn’t found you. <sup>11</sup> Now you say, ‘Go tell your master, “Eliyahu is here.”’ <sup>12</sup> But as soon as I leave you, the Spirit of ADONAI will carry you off to I don’t know where; so that when I come and tell Ach’av, and he can’t find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have revered ADONAI from my youth — <sup>13</sup> wasn’t my lord told what I did when Izevel killed ADONAI’s prophets, how I hid a hundred of ADONAI’s prophets by fifties in caves and supplied their food and water? <sup>14</sup> Now you say, ‘Go tell your master, “Look, Eliyahu is here.”’ Why, he’ll kill me!” <sup>15</sup> Eliyahu said,

“As ADONAI-Tzva’ot lives, before whom I stand, I will present myself to him today.”

<sup>16</sup> So ‘Ovadyah went, found Ach’av and told him; and Ach’av went to meet Eliyahu. <sup>17</sup> When Ach’av saw Eliyahu, Ach’av said to him, “Is it really you, you troubler of Isra’el?” <sup>18</sup> He answered, “I haven’t troubled Isra’el, you have, you and your father’s house, by abandoning ADONAI’s mitzvot and following the ba’alim. <sup>19</sup> Now order all Isra’el to assemble before me on Mount Karmel, along with the 450 prophets of Ba’al and the 400 prophets of the asherah who eat at Izevel’s table.”

<sup>20</sup> Ach’av sent word to all the people of Isra’el and assembled the prophets together on Mount Karmel. <sup>21</sup> Eliyahu stepped forward before all the people and said, “How long are you going to jump back and forth between two positions? If ADONAI is God, follow him; but if it’s Ba’al, follow him!” The people answered him not a word. <sup>22</sup> Then Eliyahu said to the people, “I, I alone, am the only prophet of ADONAI who is left, while Ba’al’s prophets number 450. <sup>23</sup> Let them give us two young bulls, and they can choose the bull they want for themselves. Then let them cut it in pieces and lay it on the wood but put no fire under it. I will prepare the other bull, lay it on the wood and put no fire under it. <sup>24</sup> Then, you, call on the name of your god; and I will call on the name of ADONAI; and the God who answers with fire, let him be God!” All the people answered, “Good idea! Agreed!”

<sup>25</sup> Then Eliyahu said to the prophets of Ba’al, “Choose one bull for yourselves, and prepare it first; because there are many of you. Then call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it.” <sup>26</sup> They took the bull that was given to them, prepared it and called on the name of Ba’al from morning till noon — “Ba’al! Answer us!” But no voice was heard; and no one answered, as they jumped around on the altar they had made. <sup>27</sup> Around noon Eliyahu began ridiculing them: “Shout louder! After all, he’s a god, isn’t he? Maybe he’s daydreaming, or he’s on the potty, or he’s away on a trip. Maybe he’s asleep, and you have to wake him up.” <sup>28</sup> So they shouted louder and slashed themselves with swords and knives, as their custom was, until blood gushed out all over them. <sup>29</sup> By now it was afternoon, and they went on ranting and raving until it was time for the evening offering. But no voice came, no one answered, no one paid any attention.

<sup>30</sup> Then Eliyahu said to all the people, “Come here to me.” All the people came up to him, as he set about repairing the altar of ADONAI that had been broken down. <sup>31</sup> Eliyahu took twelve stones, in keeping with the number of tribes of the sons of Ya'akov, to whom the word of ADONAI had come, saying, "Your name is to be Isra'el." <sup>32</sup> With the stones he built an altar in the name of ADONAI. Then he dug a trench around the altar large enough for half a bushel of grain. <sup>33</sup> He arranged the wood, cut up the bull and laid it on the wood. <sup>34</sup> Then he said, "Fill four pots with water, and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood." They did it. "Do it again," he said, and they did it again. "Do it a third time," he said, and they did it a third time. <sup>35</sup> By now the water was flowing around the altar, and it had filled the trench. <sup>36</sup> Then, when it came time for offering the evening offering, Eliyahu the prophet approached and said, "ADONAI, God of Avraham, Yitz'chak and Isra'el, let it be known today that you are God in Isra'el, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. <sup>37</sup> Hear me, ADONAI, hear me, so that this people may know that you, ADONAI, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back to you."

<sup>38</sup> Then the fire of ADONAI fell. It consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones and the dust; and it licked up the water in the trench. <sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, "ADONAI is God! ADONAI is God!" <sup>40</sup> Eliyahu said to them, "Seize the prophets of Ba'al! Don't let one of them escape!" They seized them; and Eliyahu brought them down to Vadi Kishon and killed them there.

<sup>41</sup> Then Eliyahu said to Ach'av, "Get up, eat, and drink, because I hear the sound of heavy rain." <sup>42</sup> Ach'av went up to eat and drink, while Eliyahu went up to the top of the Karmel. He bowed down to the ground and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup> "Now," he said to his servant, "go up, and look out toward the sea." He went up, looked, and said, "There's nothing there." Seven times he said, "Go again." <sup>44</sup> The seventh time, the servant said, "Now there's a cloud coming up out of the sea, no bigger than a man's hand." Eliyahu said, "Go up, and say to Ach'av, 'Prepare your chariot, and get down the mountain before the rain stops you!'" <sup>45</sup> A little later, the sky grew black with clouds and wind; and heavy rain began falling; as Ach'av, riding in his chariot, made for Yizre'el. <sup>46</sup> The hand of ADONAI was on Eliyahu; he tucked up his clothing and ran ahead of Ach'av to the entrance of Yizre'el.

19 <sup>1</sup> Ach'av told Izevel everything Eliyahu had done and how he had put all the prophets to the sword. <sup>2</sup> Then Izevel sent a messenger to say to

Eliyahu, “May the gods do terrible things to me and worse ones besides if by this time tomorrow I haven’t taken your life, just as you took theirs!” <sup>3</sup> On seeing that, he got up and fled for his life.

When he arrived in Be’er-Sheva, in Y’hudah, he left his servant there; <sup>4</sup> but he himself went a day farther into the desert, until he came to a broom tree. He sat down under it and prayed for his own death. “Enough!” he said. “Now, ADONAI, take my life. I’m no better than my ancestors.” <sup>5</sup> Then he lay down under the broom tree and went to sleep. Suddenly, an angel touched him and said to him, “Get up and eat!” <sup>6</sup> He looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on the hot stones and a jug of water. He ate and drank, then lay down again. <sup>7</sup> The angel came again, a second time, touched him and said, “Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you.” <sup>8</sup> He got up, ate and drank, and, on the strength of that meal, traveled forty days and nights until he reached Horev the mountain of God.

<sup>9</sup> There he went into a cave and spent the night. Then the word of ADONAI came to him; he said to him, “What are you doing here, Eliyahu?” <sup>10</sup> He answered, “I have been very zealous for ADONAI the God of armies, because the people of Isra’el have abandoned your covenant, broken down your altars and killed your prophets with the sword. Now I’m the only one left, and they’re coming after me to kill me too.” <sup>11</sup> He said, “Go outside, and stand on the mountain before ADONAI”; and right then and there, ADONAI went past. A mighty blast of wind tore the mountains apart and broke the rocks in pieces before ADONAI, but ADONAI was not in the wind. After the wind came an earthquake, but ADONAI was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup> After the earthquake, fire broke out; but ADONAI was not in the fire. And after the fire came a quiet, subdued voice. <sup>13</sup> When Eliyahu heard it, he covered his face with his cloak, stepped out and stood at the entrance to the cave. Then a voice came to him and said, “What are you doing here, Eliyahu?” <sup>14</sup> He answered, “I have been very zealous for ADONAI the God of armies; because the people of Isra’el have abandoned your covenant, broken down your altars and killed your prophets with the sword. Now I’m the only one left, and they’re after me to kill me too.”

<sup>15</sup> ADONAI said to him, “Go back by way of the Dammesek Desert. When you get there, anoint Haza’el to be king over Aram. <sup>16</sup> Also anoint Yehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Isra’el, and anoint Elisha the son of Shafat of Avel-M’cholah to be prophet after you. <sup>17</sup> Yehu will kill whoever escapes the sword of Haza’el, and Elisha will kill whoever escapes the sword of Yehu. <sup>18</sup> Still, I will spare seven thousand in Isra'el, every knee that hasn't bent down before Ba'al and every mouth that has not kissed him."

<sup>19</sup> So he left and found Elisha the son of Shafat. He was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he himself was behind the twelfth. Eliyahu went over to him and threw his cloak on him. <sup>20</sup> He left the oxen, ran after Eliyahu and said, "Please let me kiss my father and mother good-bye; then I will follow you." He answered, "Go; but return, because of what I did to you." <sup>21</sup> Elisha stopped following him. Then he took the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them, cooked their meat over the wooden yokes of the oxen and gave it to the people to eat. Then he got up, went after Eliyahu and became his servant.

20 <sup>1</sup> Now Ben-Hadad the king of Aram rallied his whole army; with him were thirty-two kings, besides horses and chariots. Then he marched on Shomron and laid siege to it. <sup>2</sup> He sent messengers inside the city to Ach'av king of Isra'el <sup>3</sup> to say to him, "Here is the message from Ben-Hadad: 'Your silver and gold are mine, also your wives and your best children are mine.'" <sup>4</sup> The king of Isra'el answered, "Just as you say, my lord, king; I am yours, along with everything I own."

<sup>5</sup> The messengers returned and said, "Here is Ben-Hadad's response: 'I sent you a message to hand over your silver, gold, wives and children to me. <sup>6</sup> But I am going to send my servants to you tomorrow around this time; they will ransack your house and the houses of your servants; and whatever they see that they like they will seize and remove.'" <sup>7</sup> Then the king of Isra'el summoned all the leaders of the land and said, "Please take notice! Do you see how this man is trying to make trouble? First he demanded my wives, children, silver and gold; and I denied him nothing." <sup>8</sup> All the leaders and all the people said to him, "Don't listen, and don't agree." <sup>9</sup> So he said to Ben-Hadad's messengers, "Tell my lord the king, 'I will do all that you asked of me the first time, but this I cannot do.'" The messengers left and brought word back to him.

<sup>10</sup> Ben-Hadad then sent this message to him: "May the gods do terrible things to me and worse ones as well if there's enough dust in Shomron to give each of my followers a handful!" <sup>11</sup> The king of Isra'el answered, "Tell him: 'He who is putting on his armor shouldn't boast as if he were taking it off!'" <sup>12</sup> It happened that Ben-Hadad received this message when he was drinking, he and his kings, in the field-barracks. He ordered his servants: "Take up your battle positions!" So they got ready to attack the city.

<sup>13</sup> At that moment a prophet approached Ach'av king of Isra'el and said, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Have you seen this vast army? I am going to give you victory over them today. Then you will know that I am ADONAI!'" <sup>14</sup> Ach'av asked, "Who will defeat them?" He answered, "This is what ADONAI says: 'The young men who serve the district governors.'" He asked, "Who will start the fighting?" and he answered, "You will." <sup>15</sup> He counted the district governors' young men; there were 232. After that, he counted all the people, all the people of Isra'el; there were 7,000.

<sup>16</sup> They set out at noon. Ben-Hadad was drinking himself senseless in the field-barracks, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who were his allies. <sup>17</sup> The district governors' men went out first. Ben-Hadad sent for information, and they reported, "Men have come out from Shomron." <sup>18</sup> He said, "Whether they have come out for peace or for war, take them alive." <sup>19</sup> So the district governors' men left the city, followed by the army; <sup>20</sup> and each one killed his man. Aram fled, and Isra'el pursued them. Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of the cavalry. <sup>21</sup> The king of Isra'el went out and attacked the horses and chariots, inflicting a massive defeat on Aram.

<sup>22</sup> Afterwards, the prophet approached the king of Isra'el and said to him, "Go, regroup your forces, and think carefully what to do, for next year at this time the king of Aram will renew his attack." <sup>23</sup> Meanwhile, the servants of the king of Aram said to him, "Their God is a God of the hills; that's why they were stronger than we were. But if we fight them on level ground, we will certainly be stronger than they are." <sup>24</sup> Also do this: remove all the kings from their commands, and put professional officers in their place. <sup>25</sup> Then recruit an army as big as the army you lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. We will attack them on level ground, and we will certainly be stronger than they." He heeded what they said and acted accordingly.

<sup>26</sup> At the same time the following year, Ben-Hadad mustered the army of Aram and went up to Afek to attack Isra'el. <sup>27</sup> The army of Isra'el, already mobilized and supplied, went to meet them; but the army of Isra'el, encamped opposite them, looked like two herds of goats; while Aram filled the land.

<sup>28</sup> At this point, a man of God approached and said to the king of Isra'el, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Because Aram said that ADONAI is a God of the hills but not a God of the valleys, I will hand over to you this entire huge army. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.'" "

<sup>29</sup> They remained in camp opposite each other for seven days. On the seventh day, the battle began; and the people of Isra'el killed 100,000 soldiers of Aram in a single day. <sup>30</sup> The rest fled to Afek, into the city; and the wall fell on 27,000 of the men who were left. Ben-Hadad fled into the city and took refuge in an inside room. <sup>31</sup> His servants said to him, "Here now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Isra'el are merciful kings. If it's all right with you, let's put sackcloth around our waists and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Isra'el. Maybe he will spare your life." "

<sup>32</sup> So they put sackcloth around their waists and ropes on their heads, went to the king of Isra'el and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please spare my life.'" And he answered, "He's still alive? He is my brother." <sup>33</sup> The men took this as a promising indication and seized on it to say, "Yes, Ben-Hadad is your brother." Then Ach'av said, "Go, and bring him here." Ben-Hadad went out to him, and Ach'av had him climb up into his chariot. <sup>34</sup> Ben-Hadad said to him, "I will return the cities my father took from your father. Also you can set up markets for trade in Dammesek, as my father did in Shomron." "If you put this covenant in writing," said Ach'av, "I will set you free." So he made a covenant with him and set him free.

<sup>35</sup> One of the members of the prophets' guild said to another one, by the word of ADONAI, "Hit me!" But the man refused to hit him. <sup>36</sup> Then he said to him, "Because you didn't listen to the voice of ADONAI, the moment you leave me, a lion will kill you." No sooner had he left him than a lion found him and killed him. <sup>37</sup> The prophet went to another man and said, "Hit me!" The man struck him a blow and wounded him. <sup>38</sup> The prophet left and waited for the king by the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes. <sup>39</sup> As the king passed by, he called out to the king and said, "Your servant was on his way into the thick of the fighting when someone turned, brought a man to me and said, 'Guard this man! If he is missing, you will pay for his life with yours; or else you will pay sixty-six pounds of silver.'" <sup>40</sup> But while your servant was busy with one thing and another, he disappeared." The king of Isra'el said to him, "So that is your sentence; you have pronounced it on yourself." <sup>41</sup> Quickly he removed the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Isra'el recognized him as one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup>

Then he said to the king, “Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says: ‘Because you have let escape the man I had given over to be destroyed, you will pay with your life for his life and with your people for his people.’” <sup>43</sup> The king of Isra’el returned home to Shomron resentful and depressed.

21 <sup>1</sup> A while later, an incident occurred involving Navot the Yizre’eli. He owned a vineyard in Yizre’el, right next to the palace of Ach’av king of Shomron. <sup>2</sup> Ach’av spoke to Navot and said, “Give me your vineyard, so that I can have it as my vegetable garden, because it’s close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard; or, if you prefer, I will give you its monetary value.” <sup>3</sup> But Navot said to Ach’av, “A<sub>DONAI</sub> forbid that I should give you my ancestral heritage!” <sup>4</sup> Ach’av went home resentful and depressed at what Navot the Yizre’eli had said to him, since he had said, “I won’t give you my ancestral heritage.” He lay down on his bed, turned his face away and refused to eat. <sup>5</sup> Izevel his wife went and said to him, “Why are you so depressed that you refuse to eat?” <sup>6</sup> He answered her, “Because I spoke to Navot the Yizre’eli and said to him, ‘Sell me your vineyard for money; or else, if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it’; but he answered, ‘I won’t give you my vineyard.’” <sup>7</sup> “Are you the king of Isra’el or not?” asked his wife Izevel. “Get up, eat some food, and cheer up! I will give you the vineyard of Navot the Yizre’eli.”

<sup>8</sup> So she wrote letters in Ach’av’s name, sealed them with his seal and sent the letters to the leaders and notables of the city where Navot lived. <sup>9</sup> In the letters she wrote, “Proclaim a fast, and give Navot the seat of honor among the people. <sup>10</sup> Have two good-for-nothing men sit opposite him, and have them accuse him publicly of cursing God and the king. Then take him outside and stone him to death.”

<sup>11</sup> The leaders and notables of the city he lived in did as Izevel had written in the letters she sent to them. <sup>12</sup> They proclaimed a fast and gave Navot the seat of honor among the people. <sup>13</sup> The two good-for-nothing men came in and sat opposite him, and these scoundrels publicly accused Navot, saying, “Navot cursed God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death, <sup>14</sup> then sent a message to Izevel, “Navot has been stoned to death.”

<sup>15</sup> When Izevel heard that Navot had been stoned to death, she said to Ach’av, “Get up, and take possession of the vineyard that Navot the Yizre'eli refused to sell you, because Navot is no longer alive; he is dead.”<sup>16</sup> When Ach'av heard that Navot was dead, he set out to go down to the vineyard of Navot the Yizre'eli, to take possession of it.

<sup>17</sup> But the word of ADONAI came to Eliyahu from Tishbe: <sup>18</sup> “Get up, go down to meet Ach'av king of Isra'el, who lives in Shomron. Right now he is in the vineyard of Navot; he has gone down there to take possession of it.

<sup>19</sup> This is what you are to say to him: ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “You have committed murder, and now you are stealing the victim’s property!”’ Also say to him, ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “In the very place where dogs licked up the blood of Navot, dogs will lick up your blood — yours!”’”

<sup>20</sup> Ach'av said to Eliyahu, “My enemy! You’ve found me!” He answered, “Yes, I have found you; because you have given yourself over to do what is evil from ADONAI’s perspective. <sup>21</sup> ‘Here,’ [says ADONAI,] ‘I am bringing disaster on you! I will sweep you away completely; I will cut off from Ach'av every male, whether a slave or free in Isra'el. <sup>22</sup> I will make your house like the house of Yarov'am the son of N'vat and like the house of Ba'sha the son of Achiyah for provoking my anger and leading Isra'el into sin.’ <sup>23</sup> ADONAI also said this about Izevel: ‘The dogs will eat Izevel by the wall around Yizre'el. <sup>24</sup> If someone from the line of Ach'av dies in the city, the dogs will eat him; if he dies in the countryside, the vultures will eat him.’”

<sup>25</sup> Truly, there was never anyone like Ach'av. Stirred up by his wife Izevel, he gave himself over to do what is evil from ADONAI’s perspective. <sup>26</sup> His behavior in following idols was grossly abominable; he did everything the Emori had done, whom ADONAI expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el.

<sup>27</sup> Ach'av, on hearing these words, tore his clothes, put sackcloth on himself and fasted. He slept in the sackcloth and went about dejectedly. <sup>28</sup> Then the word of ADONAI came to Eliyahu from Tishbe: <sup>29</sup> “Do you see how Ach'av has humbled himself before me? Since he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring this evil during his lifetime; but during his son’s lifetime I will bring the evil on his house.”

22 <sup>1</sup> For three years there was no war between Aram and Isra'el. <sup>2</sup> Then, in the third year, Y'hoshafat the king of Y'udah came down to the king of Isra'el. <sup>3</sup> The king of Isra'el said to his servants, “Are you aware that Ramot-Gil 'ad belongs to us; yet, we’re doing nothing to recover it from the king of Aram?” <sup>4</sup> He said to Y’hoshafat, “Will you go with me to attack Ramot-Gil’ad?” Y’hoshafat answered the king of Isra’el, “I’m with you all the way; think of my troops and horses as yours.” <sup>5</sup> But Y’hoshafat said to the king of Isra’el, “First, we should seek the word of ADONAI.”

<sup>6</sup> So the king of Isra’el assembled the prophets, about 400 men. “Should I attack Ramot-Gil’ad?” he asked them, “Or should I hold off?” They said, “Attack! Adonai will hand it over to the king.” <sup>7</sup> But Y’hoshafat said, “Besides these, isn’t there a prophet of ADONAI here that we can consult?” <sup>8</sup> The king of Isra’el said to Y’hoshafat, “Yes, there is still one man through whom we can consult ADONAI, Mikhay’hu the son of Yimlah; but I hate him, because he doesn’t prophesy good things for me, but bad!” Y’hoshafat replied, “The king shouldn’t say such a thing.”

<sup>9</sup> Then the king of Isra’el called an officer and said, “Quickly! Bring Mikhay’hu the son of Yimlah.” <sup>10</sup> Now the king of Isra’el and Y’hoshafat the king of Y’hudah were each sitting on his throne, dressed in their royal robes, on a threshing-floor at the entrance to the gate of Shomron; and all the prophets were there, prophesying in their presence. <sup>11</sup> Tzidkiyah the son of Kena’anah had made himself some horns out of iron and said, “This is what ADONAI says: ‘With these you will gore Aram until they are destroyed.’” <sup>12</sup> All the prophets prophesied the same thing: “Go up and attack Ramot-Gil’ad. You will succeed, for ADONAI will hand it over to the king.”

<sup>13</sup> The messenger who had gone to call Mikhay’hu said to him, “Here, now, the prophets are unanimously predicting success for the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them — say something good.” <sup>14</sup> But Mikhay’hu answered, “As ADONAI lives, whatever ADONAI says to me is what I will say.”

<sup>15</sup> When he reached the king, the king asked him, “Mikhay’hu, should we go up and attack Ramot-Gil’ad; or should we hold off?” He answered, “Go up, you will succeed, ADONAI will hand it over to the king.” <sup>16</sup> The king said to him, “How many times do I have to warn you to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of ADONAI?” <sup>17</sup> Then he said, “I saw all Isra’el scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd; and ADONAI said, ‘These men have no leader; let everyone go home in peace.’” <sup>18</sup> The king of Isra’el said to Y’hoshafat, “Didn’t I tell you that he wouldn’t prophesy good things about me, but bad?”

<sup>19</sup> Mikhay’hu continued: “Therefore hear the word of ADONAI. I saw ADONAI sitting on his throne with the whole army of heaven standing by him on his right and on his left. <sup>20</sup> ADONAI asked, 'Who will entice Ach'av to go up to his death at Ramot-Gil'ad?' One of them said, 'Do it this way,' and another, 'Do it that way.' <sup>21</sup> Then a spirit stepped up, stood in front of ADONAI and said, 'I will entice him.' <sup>22</sup> ADONAI asked, 'How?' and he answered, 'I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.' ADONAI said, 'You will succeed in enticing him. Go, and do it.' <sup>23</sup> So now ADONAI has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours; meanwhile, ADONAI has ordained disaster for you."

<sup>24</sup> Then Tzidkiyah the son of Kena 'anah came up, slapped Mikhay'hu in the face and said, "And how did the Spirit of ADONAI leave me to speak to you?" <sup>25</sup> Mikhay'hu said, "You'll find out the day you go into an inside room, trying to hide."

<sup>26</sup> The king of Isra'el said, "Seize Mikhay'hu, and take him back to Amon the governor of the city and Yo'ash the king's son. <sup>27</sup> Say, 'The king says to put this man in prison; and feed him only bread and water, and not much of that, until I return in peace.'" <sup>28</sup> Mikhay'hu said, "If you return in peace at all, ADONAI has not spoken through me!" Then he added, "Did you hear me, you peoples, all of you?"

<sup>29</sup> So the king of Isra'el and Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah went up to Ramot-Gil'ad. <sup>30</sup> The king of Isra'el said to Y'hoshafat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you, put on your robes." So the king of Isra'el disguised himself and went into battle. <sup>31</sup> Now the king of Aram had ordered the thirty-two chariot commanders, "Don't attack anyone of either high or low rank, only the king of Isra'el." <sup>32</sup> So when the chariot commanders saw Y'hoshafat they said, "This must be the king of Isra'el," and turned to attack him. But Y'hoshafat gave a yell, <sup>33</sup> so that the chariot commanders saw that he wasn't the king of Isra'el and stopped pursuing him. <sup>34</sup> However, one soldier shot an arrow at random and struck the king of Isra'el between his lower armor and his breastplate. So the king said to his chariot-driver, "Turn the reins, and take me out of the fighting; I'm collapsing from my wounds." <sup>35</sup> But the fighting grew fiercer that day; and they propped the king upright in his chariot facing Aram until he died, in the evening, with the blood streaming from his wound onto the floor of the chariot. <sup>36</sup> Around sundown, a cry spread through the ranks: "Every man to his own town! Every man to his own land!" <sup>37</sup> So the king died and was brought to Shomron, and they buried the king in Shomron. <sup>38</sup> They washed the chariot at the Pool of Shomron where the prostitutes bathed, and the dogs licked up his blood, in keeping with the word ADONAI had spoken.

<sup>39</sup> Other activities of Ach'av's reign, all his accomplishments, the ivory palace he built and all the cities he built are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>40</sup> So Ach'av slept with his ancestors, and Achazyah his son became king in his place.

<sup>41</sup> Y'hoshafat the son of Asa began his reign over Y'hudah in the fourth year of Ach'av king of Isra'el. <sup>42</sup> Y'hoshafat was thirty-five years old when he began to rule, and he ruled twenty-five years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was 'Azuvah the daughter of Shilchi.

<sup>43</sup> He lived in the manner of Asa his father and did not turn away from it, doing what was right from ADONAI's perspective; <sup>44(43b)</sup> although the high places were not taken away — the people still sacrificed and presented offerings on the high places.

<sup>45(44)</sup> Y'hoshafat made peace with the king of Isra'el.

<sup>46(45)</sup> Other activities of Y'hoshafat, all his power that he demonstrated and how he made war are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

<sup>47(46)</sup> He rid the land of the male and female cult-prostitutes remaining from the time of his father Asa.

<sup>48(47)</sup> There had previously been no king in Edom, but now a deputy was made king.

<sup>49(48)</sup> Y'hoshafat built some large "Tarshish" ships to go to Ofir for gold, but they didn't make the voyage, because they were wrecked at 'Etzyon-Gever. <sup>50(49)</sup> Achazyah the son of Ach'av suggested to Y'hoshafat that his men should go to sea with Y'hoshafat's men, but Y'hoshafat would not agree.

<sup>51(50)</sup> So Y'hoshafat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David his ancestor, and Y'horam his son became king in his place.

<sup>52(51)</sup> Achazyah the son of Ach'av began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron in the seventeenth year of Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah, and he ruled two years over Isra'el. <sup>53(52)</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, living in the manner of his father, his mother and Yarov'am the son of N'vat, by which he led Isra'el into sin. <sup>54(53)</sup> He also served Ba'al and worshipped him; and he made ADONAI the God of Isra'el angry, in keeping with everything his father had done.

M'lakhim Bet

2 KINGS

1 <sup>1</sup> After Ach'av's death Mo'av rebelled against Isra'el.

<sup>2</sup> When Achazyah fell through a latticed window of his upper room in Shomron and lay injured, he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, consult Ba'al-Z'vuv the god of 'Ekron, and ask whether I will recover from this injury." <sup>3</sup> But an angel of ADONAI said to Eliyahu from Tishbe, "Get up, and intercept the messengers of the king of Shomron, and ask them, 'Is it because there's no God in Isra'el that you're on your way to consult Ba'al-Z'vuv the god of 'Ekron?' <sup>4</sup> Therefore ADONAI says, "You will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will certainly die."'" Then Eliyahu left. <sup>5</sup> The messengers returned to Achazyah, and he asked them, "Why have you come back?" <sup>6</sup> They answered him, "A man came to meet us. He told us to go and return to the king who sent us, and tell him, 'Here is what ADONAI says: "Is it because there's no God in Isra'el that you're sending to consult Ba'al-Z'vuv the god of 'Ekron? Therefore you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will certainly die."'" <sup>7</sup> He asked them, "The man who came to meet you and told you these things, what kind of a man was he?" <sup>8</sup> "He was a hairy man," they answered him, "with a leather belt around his waist." He said, "It was Eliyahu from Tishbe."

<sup>9</sup> Then the king sent a commander of fifty to Eliyahu, together with his fifty men. Eliyahu was sitting at the top of a hill. The commander climbed up to him and said, "Man of God, the king says to come down." <sup>10</sup> Eliyahu answered the commander of fifty, "If I am in fact a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and burn you up, along with your fifty men." Fire came down from heaven, and it burned up him and his fifty men. <sup>11</sup> The king sent him another commander of fifty, together with his fifty men. He said to him, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down immediately!'" <sup>12</sup> Eliyahu answered them, "If I am in fact a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and burn you up, along with your fifty men." Fire came down from heaven, and it burned up him and his fifty men. <sup>13</sup> The king sent a third commander of fifty, with his fifty men. The third commander of fifty climbed up, approached Eliyahu and fell on his knees before him. He pleaded with him: “Man of God, please! Have some regard for my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours!”<sup>14</sup> I know that fire came down from heaven and burned up the two other commanders with their fifty men; but now, have some regard for my life.”<sup>15</sup> The angel of ADONAI said to Eliyahu, “Go down with him; don’t be afraid of him.” So he got up and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup> Eliyahu said to the king, “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘You sent messengers to consult Ba‘al-Z’vuv the god of ‘Ekron. Is it because there’s no God in Isra’el you can consult? Therefore, you will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will certainly die.’”<sup>17</sup> So he died, in keeping with the word of ADONAI spoken through Eliyahu.

Y’horam began to rule in place of him during the second year of Y’horam the son of Y’hoshafat king of Y’hudah, because he had no son.<sup>18</sup> Other activities of Achazyah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra’el.

2 <sup>1</sup> The time came for ADONAI to take Eliyahu up into heaven in a whirlwind. Eliyahu and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal, <sup>2</sup> when Eliyahu said to Elisha, “Please wait here, because ADONAI has sent me all the way to Beit-El.” But Elisha said, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Beit-El. <sup>3</sup> The guild prophets of Beit-El came out to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that ADONAI is taking your master away from you today?” “Yes, I know,” he answered; “say no more.”

<sup>4</sup> Eliyahu said to him, “Elisha, please wait here, because ADONAI has sent me to Yericho.” He replied, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Yericho. <sup>5</sup> The guild prophets of Yericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that ADONAI is taking your master away from you today?” “Yes, I know,” he answered; “say no more.”

<sup>6</sup> Eliyahu said to him, “Please wait here, because ADONAI has sent me to the Yarden.” He replied, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on. <sup>7</sup> Fifty of the guild prophets went and stood watching them from a distance, while they stood by the Yarden. <sup>8</sup> Then Eliyahu took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it; and the water divided itself to the left and to the right; so that they crossed on dry ground. <sup>9</sup> After they had crossed, Eliyahu said to Elisha, “Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken away from you.” Elisha said, “Please! Let a double share of your spirit be on me!” <sup>10</sup> He replied, “You have requested a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, you will get what you asked for; but if not, you won’t.”

<sup>11</sup> Suddenly, as they were walking on and talking, there appeared a fiery chariot with horses of fire; and as it separated the two of them from each other, Eliyahu went up into heaven in a whirlwind. <sup>12</sup> Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Isra’el!” Then he lost sight of him. Seizing his clothes, he tore them in half. <sup>13</sup> Then he picked up Eliyahu’s cloak, which had fallen off him. Standing on the bank of the Yarden, <sup>14</sup> he took the cloak that had fallen off Eliyahu, struck the water and said, “Where is ADONAI, the God of Eliyahu?” But when he actually did strike the water, it divided itself to the left and to the right; then Elisha crossed over.

<sup>15</sup> When the guild prophets of Yericho saw him in the distance, they said, “The spirit of Eliyahu does rest on Elisha.” Advancing to meet him, they prostrated themselves on the ground before him <sup>16</sup> and said to him, “Here now, your servants include fifty strong men. Please let them go and look for your master, in the event that the Spirit of ADONAI has taken him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley.” He answered, “Don’t send them.” <sup>17</sup> But they kept pressing him until finally, embarrassed, he said to send them. So they sent fifty men. For three days they searched, but they didn’t find him. <sup>18</sup> On returning to him where he was waiting in Yericho, he said to them, “I told you not to go, didn’t I?”

<sup>19</sup> The men of the city said to Elisha, “My lord can see that this is a pleasant city to live in; but the water is bad, so that the ground is causing miscarriages.” <sup>20</sup> “Bring me a new jug,” he said, “and put salt in it.” They brought it to him. <sup>21</sup> He went out to the source of the water, threw salt into it and said, “This is what ADONAI says: ‘I have healed this water; it will no longer cause death or miscarrying.’” <sup>22</sup> The water was healed and has remained healed to this day, in keeping with Elisha’s spoken word.

<sup>23</sup> Elisha left to go up to Beit-El. As he was on his way up the road, some boys came out of the town and began making fun of him. “Go on up, baldy! Go on up, baldy!” <sup>24</sup> He looked behind him, saw them and put a curse on them in the name of ADONAI; whereupon two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys.

<sup>25</sup> He went on from there to Mount Karmel and then returned to Shomron.

3 <sup>1</sup> Y'horam the son of Ach'av began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron during the eighteenth year of Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah, and he ruled for twelve years. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; but he was not as bad as his father and mother, because he got rid of Ba'al's standing-stone which his father had made. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, with which he had led Isra'el into sin; he never turned away from them.

<sup>4</sup> Mesha king of Mo'av was a sheep-breeder, and he used to send the king of Isra'el the wool of 100,000 lambs and of 100,000 rams as tribute. <sup>5</sup> But after Ach'av died, the king of Mo'av rebelled against the king of Isra'el. <sup>6</sup> Y'horam left Shomron and mustered all Isra'el. <sup>7</sup> He also went and sent this word to Y'hoshafat king of Y'hudah: "The king of Mo'av has rebelled against me. Will you join me in attacking Mo'av?" He answered, "I will join in the attack — I'm with you all the way; think of my people and horses as yours. <sup>8</sup> Which route should we take?" he added. "The road through the desert of Edom," answered Y'horam.

<sup>9</sup> So the king of Isra'el set out, along with the king of Y'hudah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout journey of seven days, there was no water for either the army or the animals following them. <sup>10</sup> "This is terrible!" exclaimed the king of Isra'el. "Has ADONAI called these three kings together only to hand them over to Mo'av?" <sup>11</sup> But Y'hoshafat said, "Isn't there a prophet of ADONAI here through whom we can consult ADONAI?" One of the servants of the king of Isra'el answered, "Elisha the son of Shafat is here, the one who used to pour water on Eliyahu's hands." <sup>12</sup> Y'hoshafat said, "The word of ADONAI is with him." So the king of Isra'el, Y'hoshafat and the king of Edom went down to consult him.

<sup>13</sup> Elisha said to the king of Isra'el, "What do you and I have in common? Go, consult your father's prophets and your mother's prophets!" But the king of Isra'el answered him, "No, because ADONAI has called these three kings together to hand them over to Mo'av." <sup>14</sup> Elisha said, "As ADONAI-Tzva'ot lives, before whom I stand, if I didn't respect the fact that Y'hoshafat the king of Y'hudah is here, I wouldn't even look in your direction or take notice of you. <sup>15</sup> But now, bring me a musician." As the musician played, the hand of ADONAI fell on Elisha; <sup>16</sup> and he said, "ADONAI says to dig until this valley is full of trenches. <sup>17</sup> For here is what ADONAI says: 'You won't see wind, and you won't see rain. Nevertheless the valley will be filled with water; and you will drink — you, your cattle and your other animals. <sup>18</sup> That's an easy thing to do, from ADONAI's perspective. He will also hand Mo'av over to you. <sup>19</sup> You will conquer every fortified city and every choice town, you will chop down every good tree, stop up every well and ruin every good field with stones." <sup>20</sup> The next morning, around the time for making the offering, water came from the direction of Edom, and the countryside was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup> When all Mo'av heard that the kings had come up to attack them, every man was summoned, from the youngest capable of bearing arms to older ones, and stationed on the border. <sup>22</sup> They rose early in the morning, when the sun was shining on the water. Mo'av, when they saw the water in the distance looking as red as blood, <sup>23</sup> said, "That's blood! The kings must have quarreled, and their soldiers killed each other. Mo'av! To the plunder!"

<sup>24</sup> When they arrived at the camp of Isra'el, Isra'el launched an attack, so that Mo'av fled before them. But they advanced on Mo'av and struck it. <sup>25</sup> They made ruins of the cities. Each man threw his stone on every good field, covering it. They stopped up all the wells. They chopped down all the good trees. Finally, all that remained was Kir-Hareset behind its stone wall, with the slingers surrounding and attacking it. <sup>26</sup> When the king of Mo'av saw that the fighting was too much for him, he took with him 700 men armed with swords and tried to break through to the king of Edom; but they couldn't do it. <sup>27</sup> Then he took his firstborn son, who was to have succeeded him as king, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. Following this, such great anger came upon Isra'el that they left him and went back to their own land.

4 <sup>1</sup> The wife of one of the guild prophets complained to Elisha. "Your servant my husband died," she said, "and you know that he feared ADONAI. Now a creditor has come to take my two children as his slaves." <sup>2</sup> Elisha asked her, "What should I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She answered, "Your servant has nothing in the house but a flask of oil." <sup>3</sup> Then he said, "Go, and borrow containers from all your neighbors, empty containers; and don't borrow just a few! <sup>4</sup> Then go in; shut the door, with you and your sons inside; and pour oil into all those containers; and as they are filled, put them aside." <sup>5</sup> So she left him and shut the door on herself and her sons. They brought her the containers while she poured. <sup>6</sup> When the containers were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container”; but he answered, “There isn’t another container.” Then the oil stopped flowing. <sup>7</sup> She came and told the man of God; and he said, “Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; then you and your sons can live on what’s left.”

<sup>8</sup> One day Elisha visited Shunem, and a well-to-do woman living there pressed him to stay and eat a meal. After this, whenever he came through, he stopped there for a meal. <sup>9</sup> She said to her husband, “I can see that this is a holy man of God who keeps stopping at our place. <sup>10</sup> Please, let’s build him a little room on the roof. We’ll put a bed and a table in it for him, and a stool and a candlestick. Then, whenever he comes to visit us, he can stay there.”

<sup>11</sup> One day Elisha came to visit there, and he went into the upper room to lie down. <sup>12</sup> He said to Geichazi his servant, “Call this Shunamit.” He called her; and when she arrived, <sup>13</sup> he said to him, “Tell her this: ‘You have shown us so much hospitality! What can I do to show my appreciation? Do you want me to say anything to the king for you? or to the commander of the army?’” She answered, “I’m happy living as I do, among my own people.” <sup>14</sup> He said, “What, then, is to be done for her?” Geichazi answered, “There’s one thing — she doesn’t have a son; and her husband is old. <sup>15</sup> Elisha said, “Call her.” After he called her, she stood in the doorway. <sup>16</sup> He said, “Next year, when the season comes around, you will be holding a son.” “No, my lord,” she answered. “Man of God, don’t lie to your servant!” <sup>17</sup> But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son the following year when the season came around, just as Elisha had said to her.

<sup>18</sup> When the child was old enough, he went out one day to be with his father, who was with the reapers. <sup>19</sup> Suddenly he cried out to his father, “My head! My head hurts!” He said to his servant, “Carry him back to his mother.” <sup>20</sup> When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he lay on her lap until noon; and then he died. <sup>21</sup> She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door on him and went out. <sup>22</sup> She called to her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants with a donkey. I must get to the man of God as fast as I can; I’ll come straight back.” <sup>23</sup> He asked, “Why are you going to him today? It isn’t Rosh-Hodesh and it isn’t Shabbat.” She said, “It’s all right.” <sup>24</sup> Then she saddled the donkey and ordered her servant, “Drive as fast as you can; don’t slow down for me unless I say so.”

<sup>25</sup> She set out and came to the man of God on Mount Karmel. When the man of God saw her in the distance, he said to Geichazi his servant, “Look, here comes that Shunamit. <sup>26</sup> Run now to meet her, and ask her, “Is everything all right with you? with your husband? with the child?” She answered, “Everything is all right.” <sup>27</sup> But when she reached the man of God on the hill, she grabbed his feet. Geichazi came up to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone. She is in great distress, but ADONAI has hidden from me what it is, he hasn’t told me.” <sup>28</sup> Then she said, “Did I ask my lord for a son? Didn’t I say not to deceive me?” <sup>29</sup> Then Elisha said to Geichazi, “Get dressed for action, take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, don’t greet him; if anyone greets you, don’t answer; and lay my staff on the child’s face.” <sup>30</sup> The mother of the child said, “As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” He got up and followed her. <sup>31</sup> Geichazi went on ahead of them and laid the staff on the child’s face, but there was no sound or sign of life. So he went back to Elisha and told him, “The child didn’t wake up.”

<sup>32</sup> When Elisha reached the house, there the child was, dead and laid on the bed. <sup>33</sup> He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to ADONAI. <sup>34</sup> Then he got up on the bed and lay on top of the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands. As he stretched himself out on the child, its flesh began to grow warm. <sup>35</sup> Then he went down, walked around in the house awhile, went back up and stretched himself out on the child again. The child sneezed seven times, then opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup> Elisha called Geichazi and said, “Call this Shunamit.” So he called her; and when she came in to him, he said, “Pick up your son.” <sup>37</sup> She entered, fell at his feet and prostrated herself on the floor. Then she picked up her son and went out.

<sup>38</sup> Elisha went back to Gilgal. At the time, there was a famine in the land. The guild prophets were sitting before him, and he said to his servant, “Put the big pot on the fire, and boil some soup for the prophets.” <sup>39</sup> One of them went out to the field to gather vegetables and came upon a wild vine, from which he filled the front of his cloak with wild squash. On returning he cut them up and put them into the stew; they didn’t know what they were. <sup>40</sup> Then they poured it out for the men to eat; but on tasting it, they cried, “Man of God! There’s death in that pot!” And they couldn’t eat it. <sup>41</sup> But he said, “Bring some flour.” He threw it in the pot, then said, “Pour it out for the people to eat.” This time there was nothing harmful in the pot.

<sup>42</sup> A man came from Ba‘al-Shalishah bringing the man of God twenty loaves of bread made from the barley firstfruits and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give this to the people to eat." <sup>43</sup> His servant said, "How am I to serve this to a hundred men?" But he said, "Give it to the people to eat; for ADONAI says that they will eat and have some left over." <sup>44</sup> So he served them, and they ate and had some left over, as ADONAI had said.

5 <sup>1</sup> Na'aman, commander of the king of Aram's army, was highly respected and esteemed by his master; because through him ADONAI had brought victory to Aram. But although he was a brave warrior, he also suffered from tzara'at. <sup>2</sup> Now on one of their raids into Isra'el's territory, Aram carried away captive a little girl, who became a servant for Na'aman's wife. <sup>3</sup> She said to her mistress, "I wish my lord could go to the prophet in Shomron! He could heal his tzara'at." <sup>4</sup> Na'aman went in and told his lord, "The girl from the land of Isra'el said such-and-such." <sup>5</sup> The king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Isra'el."

He set out, taking with him 660 pounds of silver, 6,000 pieces of gold and ten changes of clothes. <sup>6</sup> He brought the king of Isra'el the letter, which said, "When this letter reaches you, you will see that I have sent my servant Na'aman to you, so that you can heal his tzara'at." <sup>7</sup> When the king of Isra'el finished reading the letter, he tore his clothes. "Am I God, able to kill and make alive," he asked, "so that he sends me a man to heal of tzara'at? You can see that he is only seeking an excuse to quarrel with me." <sup>8</sup> But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Isra'el had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king: "Why did you tear your clothes? Just have him come to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Isra'el."

<sup>9</sup> So Na'aman came with his horses and chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house. <sup>10</sup> Elisha sent a messenger to him, who said, "Go, and bathe in the Yarden seven times. Your skin will become as it was, and you will be clean." <sup>11</sup> But Na'aman became angry and left, saying, "Here now! I thought for certain that he would come out personally, that he would stand, call on the name of ADONAI his God and wave his hand over the diseased place and thus heal the person with tzara'at. <sup>12</sup> Aren't Amanah and Parpar, the rivers of Dammesek, better than all the water in Isra'el? Why can't I bathe in them and be clean?" So he turned and went off in a rage. <sup>13</sup> But his servants approached him and said, "My father! If the prophet had asked you to do something really difficult, wouldn't you have done it? So, doesn't it make even more sense to do what he says, when it's only, 'Bathe, and be clean'?"

<sup>14</sup> So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Yarden, as the man of God had said to do; and his skin was restored and became like the skin of a child; and he became clean.

<sup>15</sup> Then, with his whole retinue, he returned to the man of God, went and stood before him, and said, “Well, I’ve learned that there is no God in all the earth except in Isra’el; therefore, please accept a present from your servant.” <sup>16</sup> But Elisha answered, “As ADONAI lives, before whom I stand, I will not accept it.” And despite his urging him to take it, he refused. <sup>17</sup> So Na‘aman said, “If you won’t take it, then please let your servant be given as much earth as two mules can carry; because from now on, your servant will offer neither burnt offerings nor sacrifices to other gods, but only to ADONAI.

<sup>18</sup> Except this, and may ADONAI forgive your servant for it: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon — when I bow down, may ADONAI forgive your servant for this.” <sup>19</sup> Elisha said to him, “Go in peace.”

Na‘aman had gone only a short distance from him, <sup>20</sup> when Geichazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, “Here, my master has made it easy on this Arami Na‘aman by not accepting from him what he brought. As ADONAI lives, I’ll run after him and get at least something from him.” <sup>21</sup> So Geichazi hurried off after Na‘aman. When Na‘aman saw someone running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him and asked, “Is everything all right?” <sup>22</sup> “Yes,” he replied. “My master sent me with this message: ‘Two young men have just now come to me, guild prophets from the hills of Efrayim. Would you be kind enough to give them a talent of silver [sixty-six pounds] and two changes of clothes?’” <sup>23</sup> “By all means, take two talents!” said Na‘aman, pressing him. He tied up the two talents of silver in two bags and gave them, with the two changes of clothes, to two of his servants, who carried them ahead of Geichazi. <sup>24</sup> On reaching the hill, he took the bags from them and put them away in the house. Then he let the men go, and they left. <sup>25</sup> He went in and stood before his master. Elisha asked, “Where have you been, Geichazi?” “Your servant hasn’t gone anywhere,” he said. <sup>26</sup> Elisha said to him, “Wasn’t my heart there with you when the man left his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to receive silver and clothing — and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and oxen and male and female slaves? <sup>27</sup> Therefore Na‘aman’s tzara‘at will cling to you and your descendants forever.” He left Elisha’s presence with tzara‘at as white as snow.

6 <sup>1</sup> The guild prophets said to Elisha, “As you can see, the place where we are living in order to be with you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup> Please allow us to go to the Yarden; each of us will collect a log there, and we’ll build a place there for us to live.” He answered, “Go ahead.” <sup>3</sup> But one of them said, “Please, won’t you come with your servants?” He answered, “All right, I will”; <sup>4</sup> so he went with them. When they arrived at the Yarden, they cut down trees; <sup>5</sup> but as one was felling a tree trunk, the head of his axe fell in the water. “Oh, no!” he cried. “My master, it was a borrowed one!” <sup>6</sup> The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” He showed him the place. Then Elisha cut a stick, threw it in there, and the iron axe-head floated to the surface. <sup>7</sup> “Lift it out,” he said. So he put out his hand and took it.

<sup>8</sup> Now the king of Aram went to war against Isra’el; and in consulting his servants he said, “I’ll set up my ambush camp in such-and-such a place.” <sup>9</sup> The man of God sent this message to the king of Isra’el: “Be careful not to go past such-and-such a place, because Aram will attack there.” <sup>10</sup> So the king of Isra’el sent men to the place the man of God had told him and warned him about, and he took special precautions there. This happened more than once or twice, <sup>11</sup> and it greatly upset the king of Aram. He called his servants and said to them, “Tell me which of you is betraying us to the king of Isra’el?” <sup>12</sup> One of his servants replied, “It’s not that, my lord, king. Rather, Elisha, the prophet who is in Isra’el, tells the king of Isra’el the words you speak privately in your own bedroom!” <sup>13</sup> He said, “Go and see where he is, so that I can send and bring him here.” They told him, “He’s in Dotan.”

<sup>14</sup> So he sent horses, chariots and a large army there; they came by night and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup> The servant of the man of God got up early in the morning; on going outside, he saw an army with horses and chariots surrounding the city. His servant said to him, “Oh, my master, this is terrible! What are we going to do?” <sup>16</sup> He answered, “Don’t be afraid — those who are with us outnumber those who are with them!” <sup>17</sup> Elisha prayed, “ADONAI, I ask you to open his eyes, so that he can see.” Then ADONAI opened the young man’s eyes, and he saw: there before him, all around Elisha, the mountain was covered with horses and fiery chariots. <sup>18</sup> When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to ADONAI, “Please strike these people blind”; and he struck them blind, as Elisha had asked. <sup>19</sup> Next, Elisha told them, “You’ve lost your way, and this isn’t even the right city. Follow me, and I’ll take you to the man you’re looking for.” Then he led them to Shomron.<sup>20</sup> On their arrival in Shomron, Elisha said, “ADONAI, open the eyes of these men, so that they can see.” ADONAI opened their eyes, and they saw: there they were, in the middle of Shomron.

<sup>21</sup> When the king of Isra’el saw them, he asked Elisha, “My father, should I attack them? Should I attack them?” <sup>22</sup> He answered, “Don’t attack them! You wouldn’t even attack prisoners you had captured with your own sword and bow, would you? So give them food to eat and water to drink, and let them return to their master.” <sup>23</sup> So he provided well for them; and after they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away; and they returned to their master. After that, no more raiding parties entered the land of Isra’el from Aram.

<sup>24</sup> But some time afterwards, Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army, went up and laid siege to Shomron. <sup>25</sup> At the time, there was a severe famine in Shomron; and they maintained their siege until a donkey’s head sold for eighty pieces of silver and half a pint of doves’ dung for five pieces of silver. <sup>26</sup> As the king of Isra’el was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, “Help, my lord, king!” <sup>27</sup> He said, “If ADONAI isn’t helping you, how do you expect me to help you? There isn’t any grain, and there isn’t any wine.” <sup>28</sup> Then the king asked her, “What’s troubling you?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give me your son, so that we can eat him today; and we’ll eat my son tomorrow.’” <sup>29</sup> So we boiled my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, ‘Give your son, so that we can eat him,’ but she has hidden her son.” <sup>30</sup> When the king heard what the woman said, he tore his clothes. At the time, he was passing by on the wall; and when the people looked, they saw him there with sackcloth against his skin. <sup>31</sup> Then he said, “May God do terrible things to me, and worse ones too, if the head of Elisha the son of Shafat remains on his body by day’s end.” <sup>32</sup> Elisha was sitting in his house, and the leaders were sitting there with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the leaders, “Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to remove my head? Look, when the messenger comes, close the door and keep it shut against him. You can hear his master’s footsteps following right behind him!” <sup>33</sup> While he was still speaking, the messenger arrived with this message from the king: “Here, this evil is from ADONAI. Why should I wait for ADONAI any longer?”

7<sup>1</sup> Elisha answered, “Listen to the word of ADONAI. Here is what ADONAI says: ‘Tomorrow, by this time, six quarts of fine flour will sell for only a shekel, and half a bushel of barley for a shekel [in the market] at the gate to Shomron.”<sup>2</sup> The servant on whose arm the king was leaning answered the man of God: “Why, this couldn’t happen even if ADONAI made windows in heaven!” Elisha answered, “All right, you yourself will see it with your own eyes; but you won’t eat any of it!”

<sup>3</sup> Now there were four men with tzara‘at at the entrance to the city gate, and they said to each other, “Why should we sit here till we die?”<sup>4</sup> If we say, ‘We’ll enter the city, then the city has been struck by the famine, so we’ll die there. And if we sit still here, we’ll also die. So let’s go and surrender to the army of Aram; if they spare our lives, we will live; and if they kill us, we’ll only die.’”<sup>5</sup> They got up during the twilight to go to the camp of Aram. But when they reached the outskirts of the camp of Aram, they saw no one!<sup>6</sup> For ADONAI had caused the army of Aram to hear the sound of chariots and horses; it sounded like a huge army; and they said to each other, “The king of Isra’el must have hired the kings of the Hitti and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us.”<sup>7</sup> So they jumped up and fled in the twilight, leaving their tents, horses, donkeys and the whole camp just as it was, and ran for their lives.<sup>8</sup> When these men with tzara‘at reached the outskirts of the camp, they entered one of the tents, ate and drank; then took some silver, gold and clothing; and went and hid it. Next they returned and entered another tent, took stuff from there, and went and hid it.<sup>9</sup> But finally they said to each other, “What we are doing is wrong. At a time of good news like this, we shouldn’t keep it to ourselves. If we wait even till morning, we will earn only punishment; so come on, let’s go and tell the king’s household.”<sup>10</sup> So they came and shouted to the gatekeepers of the city and told them the news: “We went to the camp of Aram, and no one was there, no human voice — just the horses and donkeys tied up, and the tents left in place.”<sup>11</sup> The gatekeepers called and told it to the king’s household inside.<sup>12</sup> Then the king got up in the night; he said to his servants, “I’ll tell you what Aram has done to us. They know that we’re hungry, so they’ve gone outside the camp and hidden in the countryside, saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we’ll take them alive and then get inside the city.’”<sup>13</sup> One of his servants answered, “I suggest letting some men take five of the remaining horses that are left in the city — they’re like everything else in Isra’el that remains, like everything else in Isra’el, practically finished — and we'll send and see.” <sup>14</sup> So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the army of Aram, saying, “Go, and see.” <sup>15</sup> They went after them all the way to the Yarden, and found the entire distance strewn with clothing and other articles Aram had thrown away in their haste. The messengers returned and told the king. <sup>16</sup> Then the people went out and ransacked the camp of Aram — with the result that six quarts of fine flour was sold for only a shekel and half a bushel of barley for a shekel, in keeping with what ADONAI had said.

<sup>17</sup> The king put the servant on whose arm he had leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him down in the gateway, so that he died, as the man of God had said he would, who spoke when the king came to him. <sup>18</sup> For the man of God had said to the king, “Tomorrow by this time six quarts of barley will sell for only a shekel and half a bushel of fine flour for a shekel [in the market] at the gate of Shomron”; <sup>19</sup> the servant had answered the man of God, “Why, this couldn't happen even if ADONAI made windows in heaven!” and Elisha had said, “All right, you yourself will see it with your own eyes; but you won't eat any of it!” <sup>20</sup> That is exactly what happened to him, because the people trampled him down in the gateway, so that he died.

8 <sup>1</sup> Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, “Move away, you and your household, and stay wherever you can; because ADONAI has called for a famine; and it will be on the land for seven years.” <sup>2</sup> The woman acted at once and did as the man of God had said — she went with her household and stayed in the land of the P'lishtim for seven years. <sup>3</sup> At the end of seven years the woman returned from the land of the P'lishtim and sought an audience with the king to claim her house and land. <sup>4</sup> The king was talking with Geichazi the servant of the man of God. “Tell me,” he said, “all the great things Elisha has done.” <sup>5</sup> Just as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead person to life, at that very moment the woman whose son he had restored to life came to the king with her claim for her house and land. Geichazi said, “My lord, king, this is the woman; and this is her son, the one Elisha restored to life.” <sup>6</sup> On being asked by the king, the woman verified it. At this, the king appointed a special officer and charged him, “Restore everything that belongs to her, including the income her fields have produced from the day she left them until now.”

<sup>7</sup> Elisha went to Dammesek. Ben-Hadad the king of Aram was ill; and he was told, “The man of God has come here.” <sup>8</sup> The king said to Haza’el, “Take with you a gift, go meet the man of God and consult ADONAI through him; ask if I will recover from this illness.” <sup>9</sup> Haza’el went to meet him, taking with him a gift that included everything good Dammesek had, forty camel-loads. He came, stood before him and said, “Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you; he asks, ‘Will I recover from this illness?’” <sup>10</sup> Elisha answered, “Go and say to him, ‘You will surely recover’ — even though ADONAI has shown me that he will surely die.” <sup>11</sup> Then the man of God fixed his gaze on him for so long that Haza’el became embarrassed; finally Elisha began to cry. <sup>12</sup> Haza’el asked, “Why is my lord crying?” He answered, “Because I know the disasters you will bring on the people of Isra’el — you will set their fortresses on fire, you will kill their young men with the sword, you will dash their little ones to pieces and rip their pregnant women apart.” <sup>13</sup> Haza’el said, “But what is your servant? Nothing but a dog! How could he do anything of such magnitude?” Elisha answered, “ADONAI has shown me that you will be king over Aram.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he left Elisha and returned to his master, who asked him, “What did Elisha say to you?” “He told me you would surely recover.” <sup>15</sup> The next day he took a blanket, dipped it in water and spread it on his face, so that he died; and Haza’el took his place as king.

<sup>16</sup> It was when Yoram the son of Ach’av king of Isra’el was in the fifth year of his reign that Y’horam the son of Y’hoshafat began his rule over Y’hudah. <sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he began to rule, and he ruled eight years in Yerushalayim. <sup>18</sup> He lived after the example of the kings of Isra’el, as did the house of Ach’av; because he had married Ach’av’s daughter; he did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective. <sup>19</sup> However, ADONAI was unwilling to destroy Y’hudah, because of his servant David; inasmuch as he had promised to give him and his children a lamp that would burn forever.

<sup>20</sup> During his time Edom revolted against Y’hudah and set up its own king. <sup>21</sup> In response, Yoram crossed to Tza’ir with all his chariots. At night he and his chariot commanders set out and attacked Edom who had surrounded him; then the people fled to their tents. <sup>22</sup> Nevertheless, since that day Edom has remained free of Y’hudah’s domination. Livnah revolted at the same time. <sup>23</sup> Other activities of Yoram and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah. <sup>24</sup> Yoram slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David, and Achazyah his son took his place as king.

<sup>25</sup> It was in the twelfth year of Yoram the son of Ach'av king of Isra'el that Achazyah the son of Y'horam king of Y'hudah began his reign. <sup>26</sup> Achazyah was twenty-two years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for one year in Yerusha-layim. His mother's name was 'Atalyahu the daughter of 'Omri king of Isra'el. <sup>27</sup> He lived after the example of the house of Ach'av; he did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, as had the house of Ach'av; for he was a son-in-law in the house of Ach'av.

<sup>28</sup> With Yoram the son of Ach'av he went to war against Haza'el king of Aram at Ramot-Gil'ad, and the Aramim wounded Yoram. <sup>29</sup> King Yoram returned to Yizre'el to be healed of the wounds which the Aramim had inflicted on him at Ramah while fighting Haza'el king of Aram. Achazyah the son of Y'horam, king of Y'hudah, went down to visit Yoram the son of Ach'av in Yizre'el, because he was not feeling well.

9 <sup>1</sup> Elisha the prophet summoned one of the guild prophets and said to him, "Prepare for traveling, take this flask of oil in your hand and go to Ramot-Gil'ad. <sup>2</sup> When you get there, look for Yehu the son of Y'hoshafat, the son of Nimshi. Enter, have him step away from his companions, and take him to an inside room. <sup>3</sup> Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, 'This is what ADONAI says: "I have anointed you king over Isra'el."' After that, open the door; and get away from there as fast as you can."

<sup>4</sup> So the young prophet left for Ramot-Gil'ad. <sup>5</sup> When he arrived, he found the senior army officers sitting there. He said, "I have a message for you, commander." Yehu asked, "For which one of us?" "For you, commander," he said. <sup>6</sup> Yehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on his head and said to him, "This is what ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: 'I have anointed you king over the people of ADONAI, over Isra'el. <sup>7</sup> You will attack the house of Ach'av your master, so that I can avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and of all the servants of ADONAI, blood shed by Izevel. <sup>8</sup> The entire house of Ach'av will perish; I will cut off from Ach'av every male, whether a slave or free in Isra'el. <sup>9</sup> I will make the house of Ach'av like the house of Yarov'am the son of N'vat and like the house of Ba'sha the son of Achiyah. <sup>10</sup> Moreover, the dogs will eat Izevel in the dumping-ground of Yizre'el, and there will be no one to bury her.'” Then he opened the door and fled.

<sup>11</sup> Yehu returned to the servants of his lord, and one of them said to him, “Is everything all right? Why did this meshugga come to you?” He answered them, “You know the kind and how they babble.” <sup>12</sup> They said, “You’re being evasive. Come on, tell us the truth.” Then he said, “This is exactly what he said to me and how he said it: ‘Here is what ADONAI says: “I have anointed you king over Isra’el.”’” <sup>13</sup> At this, they hurried each one to take his cloak and put it under Yehu at the top of the stairs. Then they blew the shofar and proclaimed, “Yehu is king!”

<sup>14</sup> Yehu the son of Y’hoshafat, the son of Nimshi, formed a conspiracy against Yoram. (At the time, Yoram was guarding Ramot-Gil’ad, he and all Isra’el, because of Haza’el king of Aram; <sup>15</sup> but Yoram himself had returned to Yizre’el to recover from the wounds Aram had inflicted on him when fighting Haza’el king of Aram.) “If you agree,” said Yehu, “then don’t allow anyone to leave town and take the news to Yizre’el.” <sup>16</sup> So Yehu, riding in a chariot, went to Yizre’el, for Yoram was laid up there. Achazyah king of Y’hudah had come down to visit Yoram.

<sup>17</sup> The lookout standing on the watchtower in Yizre’el saw Yehu’s troops approaching and said, “I see some troops coming.” Yoram said, “Have a horseman go to meet him and ask, “Are you coming in peace?”” <sup>18</sup> So a man on horseback went to meet him and said, “The king asks if you are coming in peace.” Yehu answered, “Peace? What business is that of yours? Turn around, and get behind me!” The watchman reported, “The messenger reached them, but he isn’t coming back.” <sup>19</sup> So he sent out a second man on horseback, who, on coming to him, said, “The king asks if you are coming in peace.” Yehu answered, “Peace? What business is that of yours? Turn around, and get behind me!” <sup>20</sup> The watchman reported, “He reached them, but he isn’t coming back. Also, it looks like the driving of Yehu Nimshi’s [grand] son — he’s driving like a maniac!” <sup>21</sup> “Harness my chariot!” ordered Yoram. They got it ready. Then Yoram king of Isra’el and Achazyah king of Y’hudah, each in his chariot, went out to meet Yehu. They met him in the field of Navot the Yizre’eli.

<sup>22</sup> When Yoram saw Yehu he said, “Are you coming in peace, Yehu?” He answered, “Peace? With your mother Izevel continuing all her cult prostitution and witchcraft? What a question!” <sup>23</sup> Yoram wheeled around and fled, shouting, “Treachery, Achazyah!” <sup>24</sup> Yehu drew his bow with all his strength and struck Yoram between the shoulder-blades; the arrow went through his heart, and he collapsed in his chariot. <sup>25</sup> “Pick him up,” said Yehu to Bidkar his servant, “and throw him into the field of Navot the Yizre‘eli; for remember how, when you and I were riding together after Ach’av his father, ADONAI pronounced this sentence against him: <sup>26</sup> ‘ADONAI says: “Yesterday I saw the blood of Navot and the blood of his sons.” ADONAI also says: “I will pay you back in this field.”’ Therefore, pick him up; and throw him into the field, in keeping with what ADONAI said.”

<sup>27</sup> But when Achazyah the king of Y’hudah saw this, he fled on the road past Beit-HaGan. Yehu pursued him and ordered, “Strike him too in his chariot!” [So they struck him] at the Gur ascent, near Yivle’am. He fled to Megiddo, but there he died. <sup>28</sup> His servants carried him in a chariot to Yerushalayim and buried him in his tomb with his ancestors in the City of David.

<sup>29</sup> It was in the eleventh year of Yoram the son of Ach’av that Achazyah had begun his rule over Y’hudah.

<sup>30</sup> When Yehu reached Yizre‘el, and Izevel heard of it, she put on eye make-up, fixed her hair and looked out the window. <sup>31</sup> As Yehu came through the city gate, she asked, “Are you here in peace, you Zimri, you murderer of your master?” <sup>32</sup> Looking up at the window he said, “Who is on my side? Who?” Two or three officers looked out toward him. <sup>33</sup> He said, “Throw her down!” So they threw her down. Some of her blood splashed onto the wall and the horses, and she was trampled underfoot. <sup>34</sup> He went in, ate and drank, and then said, “Deal with this accursed woman — bury her, because she’s a king’s daughter.” <sup>35</sup> They went to bury her but found no more of her than her skull, feet and hands. <sup>36</sup> So they came back and told him. He said, “This is what ADONAI said through his servant Eliyahu from Tishbe: ‘In the field of Yizre‘el the dogs will eat the flesh of Izevel; <sup>37</sup> Izevel’s corpse in the field of Yizre‘el will be like dung on the ground, unrecognizable as Izevel.’”

10 <sup>1</sup> There were seventy descendants of Ach’av in Shomron. Yehu wrote letters and sent them to Shomron to the rulers of Yizre‘el, to the leaders, and to the guardians of Ach’av’s sons. The letters said, <sup>2</sup> “You have with you your master’s sons, also chariots and horses, as well as fortified cities and armor. So, as soon as this letter reaches you, <sup>3</sup> choose the best and most suitable of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne and fight for your master's dynasty." <sup>4</sup> They were panic-stricken and said, "If the other two kings couldn't withstand him, how will we?" <sup>5</sup> So the administrator of the palace, the governor of the city, the leaders and the children's guardians sent this message to Yehu: "We are your servants. We will do everything you ask us to; we won't appoint anyone king. Do as you see fit."

<sup>6</sup> He wrote a second letter to them, which said, "If you are on my side, and if you are ready to obey my orders, then bring the heads of your master's sons to me in Yizre'el by this time tomorrow." Now the seventy sons of the king were with the prominent men who had raised them. <sup>7</sup> When the letter reached them, they seized the king's sons and killed them, all seventy of them, put their heads in baskets and sent them to Yehu in Yizre'el. <sup>8</sup> A messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." He said, "Leave them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning." <sup>9</sup> When morning came, he went out, stood before the people and said, "You are not responsible [for the deaths of these men]. Yes, I conspired against my master and killed him. But who killed all these?"

<sup>10</sup> Understand, then, that no part of ADONAI's word which ADONAI spoke concerning the dynasty of Ach'av falls to the ground; because ADONAI has done what he said through his servant Eliyahu." <sup>11</sup> So Yehu killed everyone who remained from the house of Ach'av in Yizre'el, all his leading men, his close friends and his cohanim, until not one of them was left alive. <sup>12</sup> Then he set out and went to Shomron.

On the way he reached a shearing shed for shepherds, <sup>13</sup> where he encountered relatives of Achazyah king of Y'hudah. "Who are you?" he asked. "We're relatives of Achazyah," they answered, "and we're going down to pay our respects to the families of the king and of the queen mother." <sup>14</sup> "Take them alive," said Yehu. They took them alive, forty-two men, slaughtered them and threw them into the shearing shed's pit; he spared not one of them.

<sup>15</sup> On leaving there, he happened upon Y'honadav the son of Rekhav coming toward him. He greeted him and said to him, "Are you wholeheartedly with me, as I am with you?" "Yes," answered Y'honadav. "If so, give me your hand." He gave him his hand, and Yehu took him up into the chariot. <sup>16</sup> He said, "Come with me, and see how zealous I am for ADONAI." So they had him ride in his chariot.

<sup>17</sup> On arriving in Shomron he put to death everyone that Ach'av still had in Shomron, until he had destroyed him, in keeping with the word of ADONAI which he had spoken to Eliyahu.

<sup>18</sup> Next, Yehu assembled all the people and said to them, "Ach'av served Ba'al in limited measure, but Yehu will serve him with full zeal. <sup>19</sup> Therefore summon all the prophets of Ba'al to me, all his worshippers and all his priests. None of them is to be missing, because I am going to offer a great sacrifice to Ba'al; whoever is missing will not remain alive." But Yehu was setting a trap, in order to destroy the worshippers of Ba'al. <sup>20</sup> Yehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Ba'al," and they did so. <sup>21</sup> Yehu sent throughout all Isra'el, and all the worshippers of Ba'al came, so that there was not one man left that didn't come. They entered the temple of Ba'al, and the temple of Ba'al was filled from one end to the other. <sup>22</sup> To the man in charge of the wardrobe he said, "Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Ba'al"; and he brought them clothes. <sup>23</sup> Yehu and Y'honadav the son of Rekhav entered the house of Ba'al and said to the worshippers of Ba'al, "Search to see that none of the servants of ADONAI is here with you, only worshippers of Ba'al." <sup>24</sup> Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

But Yehu had chosen eighty men to remain outside. He said, "If any of the men I am about to put in your hands escapes, it will be your life for his." <sup>25</sup> As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Yehu said to the guards and officers, "Go in, and kill them; don't let one of them get out." So they killed them with the sword; then, after the guards and officers had thrown their bodies outside, they went into the temple of Ba'al's inner shrine, <sup>26</sup> brought out the pillars in the temple of Ba'al and burned them. <sup>27</sup> Finally, they broke down Ba'al's standing-stone and demolished the temple of Ba'al, converting it into a latrine, which it still is today. <sup>28</sup> Thus Yehu rid Isra'el of Ba'al.

<sup>29</sup> However, Yehu did not turn away from the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, with which he had led Isra'el into sin, the gold calves that were in Beit-El and Dan. <sup>30</sup> ADONAI said to Yehu, "Because you did well in accomplishing what is right from my perspective, and have done to the house of Ach'av everything that was in my heart, your descendants down to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Isra'el." <sup>31</sup> But Yehu made no effort to live wholeheartedly according to the Torah of ADONAI the God of Isra'el and did not turn away from the sins of Yarov'am, with which he had led Isra'el into sin.

<sup>32</sup> It was during that period that ADONAI began to dismember Isra'el. Haza'el attacked them throughout the territory of Isra'el <sup>33</sup> east of the Yarden — all the land of Gil'ad, the Gadi, Re'uveni and M'nashi, from 'Aro'er by the Arnon River, including Gil'ad and Bashan.

<sup>34</sup> Other activities of Yehu, all his accomplishments and all his power are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>35</sup> Yehu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Shomron. Then Y'ho'achaz his son became king in his place. <sup>36</sup> Yehu ruled over Isra'el in Shomron for twenty-eight years.

11 <sup>1</sup> When 'Atalyah the mother of Achazyah saw that her son was dead, she set about destroying the entire royal family. <sup>2</sup> But Y'hosheva the daughter of King Yoram, sister of Achazyah, took Yo'ash the son of Achazyah and stole him away from among the princes who were being slaughtered. She took him and his nurse, sequestered them in a bedroom, and hid them from 'Atalyah, so that he was not killed. <sup>3</sup> He remained hidden with his nurse in the house of ADONAI for six years; during this time 'Atalyah ruled the land. <sup>4</sup> In the seventh year Y'hoyada summoned the captains of hundred-man platoons, of both the Kari and the guard. He brought them into the house of ADONAI, made an agreement with them and had them swear to it in the house of ADONAI. Then he showed them the king's son <sup>5</sup> and gave them this instruction: "Here is what you are to do: of you who come on duty on Shabbat, a third [normally] guards the royal palace, <sup>6</sup> a third is at the Sur Gate and a third is at the gate behind the guards. [The first third] is to continue guarding the palace and serve as a barrier, <sup>7</sup> while the other two groups of you who come on duty on Shabbat will guard the house of ADONAI, where the king is. <sup>8</sup> You are to surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who penetrates the ranks is to be killed. Stay with the king whenever he leaves or enters."

<sup>9</sup> The captains over hundreds did exactly as Y'hoyada the cohen ordered. Each took his men, those coming on duty on Shabbat and those going off duty on Shabbat, and came to Y'hoyada the cohen. <sup>10</sup> The cohen issued to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David's and were kept in the house of ADONAI. <sup>11</sup> The guards then took positions, each man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, alongside the altar, alongside [the exterior of] the house and around the king. <sup>12</sup> Then he brought out the king's son, crowned him, gave him [a copy of] the testimony and thus made him king; they anointed him, clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup> When 'Atalyah heard the shouting of the guard and the people, she entered the house of ADONAI where the people were, <sup>14</sup> looked and saw the king standing there on the platform, in keeping with the rule, with the leaders and trumpeters next to the king. All the people of the land were celebrating and blowing the trumpets. At this 'Atalyah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!" <sup>15</sup> Y'hoyada the cohen ordered the captains of hundreds, the army officers, "Escort her out past the ranks [of guards]; but anyone who follows her, kill with the sword." For the cohen had said, "She must not be put to death in the house of ADONAI." <sup>16</sup> So they took her by force and led her through the horses' entry to the royal palace, and there she was put to death.

<sup>17</sup> Y'hoyada made a covenant between ADONAI, the king and the people, that they would be ADONAI's people, and [a covenant] between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup> Then all the people of the land went to the house of Ba'al and broke it down; they completely smashed its altars and images and killed Mattan the priest of Ba'al in front of the altars.

Next, the cohen appointed officers over the house of ADONAI. <sup>19</sup> He took the captains of hundreds, the Kari, the guards and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of ADONAI, going by way of the gate of the guards to the royal palace. There he sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup> All the people of the land celebrated, and at last the city was quiet. That is how they killed 'Atalyah with the sword at the royal palace.

12 <sup>1(11:21)</sup> Y'ho'ash was seven years old when he began his reign. <sup>2(1)</sup> It was in the seventh year of Yehu that Y'ho'ash began to rule, and he ruled forty years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Tzivyah, from Be'er-Sheva. <sup>3(2)</sup> Y'ho'ash did what was right from ADONAI's perspective throughout the lifetime of Y'hoyada the cohen, who instructed him. <sup>4(3)</sup> Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and presented offerings on the high places.

<sup>5(4)</sup> Y’ho’ash said to the cohanim, “All the funds for sacred purposes which are brought to the house of ADONAI — the half-shekel tax, the taxes on persons in a man’s household, and all the offerings anyone voluntarily brings to the house of ADONAI — <sup>6(5)</sup> the cohanim are to receive from whoever personally makes contributions to them; and they are to use these funds to repair the damaged parts of the house, wherever damage is found. <sup>7(6)</sup> But twenty-three years into the reign of King Y’ho’ash, the cohanim had still not repaired the damaged places in the house. <sup>8(7)</sup> So King Y’ho’ash summoned Y’hoyada the cohen and the other cohanim and said to them, “Why Aren’t you repairing the damaged places in the house? Therefore, you are no longer to take money from those who contribute it personally to you; you must hand it over to be used for repairing the damage in the house.” <sup>9(8)</sup> The cohanim agreed not to receive money from the people, and they would no longer be responsible for repairing the damage to the house.

<sup>10(9)</sup> Then Y’hoyada the cohen took a chest, drilled a hole in its lid and set it by the altar, on the right, as one enters the house of ADONAI; and the cohanim in charge of the entry put in it all the money brought into the house of ADONAI. <sup>11(10)</sup> When they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king’s secretary and the cohen hagadol would come up, count the money found in the house of ADONAI and put it in bags. <sup>12(11)</sup> Then they would give the weighed-out money to those supervising the work in the house of ADONAI, who would use it to pay the carpenters and construction-workers doing the work in the house of ADONAI, <sup>13(12)</sup> on masons, stone-workers, timber, worked stone and everything else needed for repairing the damaged places in the house of ADONAI. <sup>14(13)</sup> But none of the money brought into the house of ADONAI was used to make silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets or other articles of gold or silver for the house of ADONAI; <sup>15(14)</sup> because they gave the money to those doing the work, thus restricting its use to repairing the damage in the house of ADONAI. <sup>16(15)</sup> Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the supervisors given the money to pay the workers, because they dealt honestly. <sup>17(16)</sup> Money from guilt offerings and sin offerings, however, was not brought into the house of ADONAI; it went to the cohanim.

<sup>18(17)</sup> Haza’el king of Aram went up and fought against Gat; and after capturing it, Haza’el made his decision to attack Yerushalayim. <sup>19(18)</sup> Y’ho’ash king of Y’hudah took all the consecrated articles that Y’hoshafat, Y’horam and Achazyah, his ancestors, kings of Y’hudah, had dedicated, as well as his own consecrated articles and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of ADONAI and of the royal palace, and sent them to Haza'el king of Aram, who then withdrew from Yerushalayim.

<sup>20(19)</sup> Other activities of Yo'ash and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

<sup>21(20)</sup> Then his servants got together, formed a conspiracy and murdered Yo'ash at Beit-Millo on the way down to Sila. <sup>22(21)</sup> His servants Yozakhar the son of Shim'at and Y'hozavad the son of Shomer struck him, so that he died. They buried him with his ancestors in the City of David, and Amatzyah his son took his place as king.

13 <sup>1</sup> It was in the twenty-third year of Yo'ash the son of Achazyah, king of Y'hudah, that Y'ho'achaz the son of Yehu began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron; he ruled for seventeen years. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; he followed the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin; and he never ceased committing those sins. <sup>3</sup> ADONAI's anger burned against Isra'el, and he kept handing them over to Haza'el king of Aram and Ben-Hadad the son of Haza'el. <sup>4</sup> But Y'ho'achaz pleaded to ADONAI, and ADONAI listened to him, because he saw the oppression the king of Aram was inflicting on Isra'el. <sup>5</sup> So ADONAI gave Isra'el a savior who freed them from the grip of Aram, so that the people of Isra'el could live in their tents, as they had before. <sup>6</sup> Despite that, instead of turning from the sins of the house of Yarov'am, who made Isra'el sin, they continued to live in this sinful way. Moreover, the asherah continued to stand in Shomron. <sup>7</sup> The king of Aram destroyed Y'ho'achaz's army, making them like chaff when grain is threshed, except for fifty horsemen, ten chariots and 10,000 foot soldiers.

<sup>8</sup> Other activities of Y'ho'achaz, all his accomplishments and his power are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>9</sup> Y'ho'achaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Shomron. Then Yo'ash his son took his place as king.

<sup>10</sup> It was in the thirty-seventh year of Yo'ash king of Y'hudah that Yo'ash the son of Y'ho'achaz began his rule over Isra'el in Shomron; he ruled for sixteen years. <sup>11</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective and did not turn from all the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin; on the contrary, he lived in this sinful way.

<sup>12</sup> Other activities of Yo'ash, all his accomplishments and his power in fighting Amatzyah king of Y'hudah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>13</sup> Yo'ash slept with his ancestors, and Yarov'am occupied his throne. Yo'ash was buried in Shomron with the kings of Isra'el.

<sup>14</sup> Elisha was now ill with the disease from which he would eventually die. Yo'ash the king of Isra'el came down to visit him and wept over him; he said, "My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Isra'el!" <sup>15</sup> Elisha said to him, "Bring a bow and arrows"; and he brought him a bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup> He said to the king of Isra'el, "Put your hand on the bow"; and he put his hand on it. Then Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands <sup>17</sup> and said, "Open the east window." He opened it. Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. He said, "ADONAI's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory against Aram! You will defeat Aram completely at Afek!" <sup>18</sup> He said, "Take the arrows"; and he took them. He told the king of Isra'el, "Strike the ground." He struck three times, then stopped. <sup>19</sup> The man of God became angry with him; he said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram completely. As it is, you will defeat Aram only three times."

<sup>20</sup> Elisha died, and they placed him in a burial cave. Now the raiding parties of Mo'av used to make yearly incursions into the land at the start of the year. <sup>21</sup> Once it happened that just as they were burying a man, they spotted a raiding party; so they threw the man's body into Elisha's burial cave; and the moment the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

<sup>22</sup> Haza'el king of Aram oppressed Isra'el throughout the lifetime of Y'ho'achaz; <sup>23</sup> but ADONAI was gracious, took pity on them and looked on them with favor, because of his covenant with Avraham, Yitz'chak and Ya'akov. He was not willing to destroy them, and to this day he has not banished them from his presence. <sup>24</sup> Haza'el king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son took his place as king. <sup>25</sup> Then Y'ho'ash the son of Y'ho'achaz captured from Ben-Hadad the son of Haza'el the cities which he had captured in war from Y'ho'achaz his father. Three times Yo'ash defeated him, thus recovering the cities of Isra'el.

14 <sup>1</sup> It was in the second year of Yo'ash son of Y'ho'achaz king of Isra'el that Amatzyah the son of Yo'ash king of Y'hudah began his reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Y'ho'adan, from Yerushalayim.<sup>3</sup> He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, although not like David his ancestor; he lived the same way as his father Yo'ash.<sup>4</sup> However, the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and offered on the high places.

<sup>5</sup> As soon as he had the kingdom firmly under his control, he put to death the servants of his who had murdered the king his father.<sup>6</sup> But he did not put the children of the murderers to death, because of what is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moshe, as ADONAI ordered when he said, "Fathers are not to be executed for the children, nor are children to be executed for the fathers; every person will be executed for his own sin."

<sup>7</sup> He slaughtered 10,000 men of Edom in the Salt Valley and captured Sela in the war, renaming it Yokte'el, as it is today.<sup>8</sup> Then Amatzyah sent messengers to Y'ho'ash the son of Y'ho'achaz, son of Yehu, king of Isra'el, with this challenge: "Come on, let's have it out face-to-face."<sup>9</sup> Y'ho'ash the king of Isra'el sent this reply to Amatzyah king of Y'hudah: "Once, in the L'vanon, the thistle sent a message to the cedar: 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But a wild animal passed by the thistle and squashed it.<sup>10</sup> True, you have defeated Edom, and now you're ambitious. So enjoy the glory, but stay home! Why provoke calamity, to your own ruin, yours and Y'hudah's too?"<sup>11</sup> But Amatzyah wouldn't listen. So Y'ho'ash king of Isra'el went up; and he and Amatzyah king of Y'hudah had it out face-to-face at Beit-Shemesh, which belongs to Y'hudah.<sup>12</sup> Y'hudah was defeated by Isra'el, and every man fled to his tent.<sup>13</sup> Y'ho'ash king of Isra'el took Amatzyah king of Y'hudah, the son of Y'ho'ash the son of Achazyah, prisoner at Beit-Shemesh. Then he went to Yerushalayim and demolished the wall of Yerushalayim between the Gate of Efrayim and the Corner Gate, a section 600 feet long.<sup>14</sup> He took all the gold and silver, all the articles he could find in the house of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace, and hostages; then he returned to Shomron.

<sup>15</sup> Other activities of Y'ho'ash that he did, his power and how he fought Amatzyah king of Y'hudah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.<sup>16</sup> Y'ho'ash slept with his ancestors and was buried in Shomron with the kings of Isra'el. Then Yarov'am took his place as king.

<sup>17</sup> Amatzyah the son of Yo'ash king of Y'hudah lived another fifteen years after the death of Y'ho'ash son of Y'ho'achaz, king of Isra'el.<sup>18</sup> Other activities of Amatzyah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

<sup>19</sup> Because of a conspiracy formed against him in Yerushalayim, Amatzyah fled to Lakhish; but they followed him to Lakhish and killed him there. <sup>20</sup> They brought his body back on horses, and he was buried in Yerushalayim with his ancestors in the City of David. <sup>21</sup> Then all the people of Y'hudah took 'Azaryah at the age of sixteen and made him king in place of his father Amatzyah.

<sup>22</sup> 'Azaryah recovered Eilat for Y'hudah and rebuilt it; after that the king [Amatzyahu] slept with his ancestors.

<sup>23</sup> It was in the fifteenth year of Amatzyah the son of Yo'ash, king of Y'hudah, that Yarov'am the son of Yo'ash, king of Isra'el, began to reign in Shomron; and he ruled for forty-one years. <sup>24</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; he did not turn from all the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

<sup>25</sup> He recovered the territory of Isra'el between the entrance of Hamat and the sea of the 'Aravah, in keeping with the word of ADONAI the God of Isra'el, which he spoke through his servant Yonah the son of Amitai, the prophet from Gat-Hefer. <sup>26</sup> For ADONAI saw how bitterly Isra'el had suffered, with no one left, either slave or free, and no one coming to Isra'el's aid. <sup>27</sup> ADONAI did not threaten to blot out the name of Isra'el from under heaven, but saved them through Yarov'am the son of Yo'ash.

<sup>28</sup> Other activities of Yarov'am, all his accomplishments, all his power, how he conducted war and how he recovered Dammesek and Hamat for Y'hudah in Isra'el are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>29</sup> Yarov'am slept with his ancestors the kings of Isra'el, and Z'kharyah took his place as king.

15 <sup>1</sup> It was in the twenty-seventh year of Yarov'am king of Isra'el that 'Azaryah the son of Amatzyah, king of Y'hudah, began his reign. <sup>2</sup> He was sixteen years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for fifty-two years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Y'kholyahu, from Yerushalayim. <sup>3</sup> He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything his father Amatzyah had done. <sup>4</sup> However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and offered on the high places.

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI struck the king, so that he had tzara'at until his dying day, so that he lived in a separate house, while Yotam the king's son ran the king's household and was regent over the people of the land.

<sup>6</sup> Other activities of 'Azaryah and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. <sup>7</sup> So 'Azaryah slept with his ancestors the kings of Isra'el, and they buried him with his ancestors in the City of David. Then Yotam his son took his place as king.

<sup>8</sup> It was in the thirty-eighth year of 'Azaryah king of Y'hudah that Z'kharyah the son of Yarov'am began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron; he ruled for six months. <sup>9</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, just as his ancestors had done; he did not turn from all the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

<sup>10</sup> Shalum the son of Yavesh formed a conspiracy against him. He struck him in the presence of the people and killed him; then he took his place as king.

<sup>11</sup> Other activities of Z'kharyah are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>12</sup> The word of ADONAI which he had spoken to Yehu was, "Your descendants down to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Isra'el"; and that is exactly what happened.

<sup>13</sup> Shalum the son of Yavesh began his reign in the thirty-ninth year of 'Uziah king of Y'hudah; he ruled in Shomron for only a month. <sup>14</sup> Menachem the son of Gadi went up from Tirtzah, came to Shomron, struck Shalum the son of Yavesh in Shomron and killed him. Then he took his place as king.

<sup>15</sup> Other activities of Shalum and the conspiracy he formed are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el

<sup>16</sup> From Tirtzah Menachem attacked Tifsach, all the people in it and its territory, because they had not opened their gates to him. So he sacked the city and ripped apart all its pregnant women.

<sup>17</sup> It was in the thirty-ninth year of 'Azaryah king of Y'hudah that Menachem the son of Gadi began his reign over Isra'el; he ruled ten years in Shomron. <sup>18</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; throughout his life he did not turn from the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

<sup>19</sup> Pul the king of Ashur invaded the land. Menachem gave Pul thirty-three tons of silver, so that he would confirm Menachem's hold on the kingdom. <sup>20</sup> He did this by taxing the wealthy men in Isra'el; from each he required one-and-a-quarter pounds of silver to give to the king of Ashur. Then the king of Ashur turned around and left the land.

<sup>21</sup> Other activities of Menachem and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el. <sup>22</sup> Menachem slept with his ancestors, and P'kachyah his son took his place as king.

<sup>23</sup> It was in the fiftieth year of 'Azaryah king of Y'hudah that P'kachyah the son of Menachem began his reign over Isra'el in Shomron; he ruled for two years. <sup>24</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; he did not turn from the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

<sup>25</sup> Pekach the son of Remalyahu, one of his commanders, conspired against him. With Argov, Aryeh and fifty men from Gil'ad, he assassinated him in the palace stronghold in Shomron. After killing him, he took his place as king.

<sup>26</sup> Other activities of P'kachyah and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

<sup>27</sup> It was in the fifty-second year of 'Azaryah king of Y'hudah that Pekach the son of Remalyah began to reign over Isra'el in Shomron; his reign lasted twenty years. <sup>28</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective; he did not turn from the sins of Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who made Isra'el sin.

<sup>29</sup> During the time of Pekach king of Isra'el, Tiglat-Pil'eser king of Ashur came and conquered 'Iyon, Avel-Beit-Ma'akhah, Yanoach, Kedes, Hatzor, Gil'ad, and the Galil — all the land of Naftali — and took them captive to Ashur.

<sup>30</sup> Hoshea the son of Elah conspired against Pekach the son of Remalyah, struck him, killed him and took his place as king in the twentieth year of Yotam the son of 'Uziah.

<sup>31</sup> Other activities of Pekach and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Isra'el.

<sup>32</sup> It was in the second year of Pekach the son of Remalyah, king of Isra'el, that Yotam the son of 'Uziah king of Y'hudah began his reign. <sup>33</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Yerusha the daughter of Tzadok. <sup>34</sup> He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything his father 'Uziah had done. <sup>35</sup> However, the high places were not taken away; and the people still sacrificed and offered on the high places.

He built the Upper Gate of the house of ADONAI.

<sup>36</sup> Other activities of Yotam and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah.

<sup>37</sup> It was during this period that ADONAI began sending against Y'hudah Retzin the king of Aram and Pekach the son of Remalyah.

<sup>38</sup> Yotam slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David his ancestor. Then Achaz his son took his place as king.

16 <sup>1</sup> It was in the seventeenth year of Pekach the son of Remalyah that Achaz the son of Yotam king of Y'hudah began his reign. <sup>2</sup> Achaz was twenty years old when he began to rule, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. But he did not do what was right from the perspective of ADONAI his God, as David his ancestor had done. <sup>3</sup> Rather, he lived in the manner of the kings of Isra'el; he even made his son pass through fire [as a sacrifice], in keeping with the abominable practices of the pagans, whom ADONAI had thrown out ahead of the people of Isra'el. <sup>4</sup> He also sacrificed and offered on the high places, on the hills and under any green tree.

<sup>5</sup> Then Retzin king of Aram and Pekach son of Remalyah, king of Isra'el, came up to fight against Yerushalayim. They put Achaz under siege, but they could not overcome him. <sup>6</sup> It was at that time that Retzin king of Aram recovered Eilat for Aram and drove the Judeans from Eilat; whereupon people from Edom came to Eilat to live, as they do to this day. <sup>7</sup> Then Achaz sent messengers to Tiglat-Pil' eser king of Ashur with this message: "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me from the king of Aram and the king of Isra'el, who are attacking me." <sup>8</sup> Achaz took the silver and gold that was in the house of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as a present to the king of Ashur. <sup>9</sup> The king of Ashur heeded him — the king of Ashur attacked Dammeseek and captured it; then he carried its people captive to Kir and killed Retzin.

<sup>10</sup> When King Achaz went to Dammeseek to meet Tiglat-Pil' eser king of Ashur and saw the altar that was in Dammeseek, he sent a drawing and model of the altar to Uriyah the cohen, with details of its construction and decoration. <sup>11</sup> Then Uriyah the cohen built an altar exactly according to the design King Achaz had sent from Dammeseek; Uriyah the cohen had it ready by the time King Achaz returned from Dammeseek. <sup>12</sup> When the king arrived from Dammeseek he saw the altar, and the king approached the altar and offered on it. <sup>13</sup> He offered his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured out his drink offering and splashed the blood of his peace offerings on the altar. <sup>14</sup> The bronze altar, which was before ADONAI, he brought from in front of the house, from between his own altar and the house of ADONAI, and put it on the north side of his own altar. <sup>15</sup> Then King Achaz instructed Uriyah the cohen as follows: “Henceforth, it is on the large altar that you are to offer the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, together with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering and their drink offerings; and you are to splash all the blood of the burnt offering against it and all the blood of the sacrifice. As for the bronze altar, I will take care of that.” <sup>16</sup> Uriyah the cohen acted in accordance with everything King Achaz ordered. <sup>17</sup> King Achaz removed the panels of the trolleys and took the basins off them; he took the Sea off the bronze oxen supporting it and set it on the stone pavement; <sup>18</sup> and, because of the king of Ashur, he removed from the house of ADONAI the colonnade used on Shabbat that had been built for it and the king’s entranceway outside it.

<sup>19</sup> Other activities of Achaz and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah. <sup>20</sup> Achaz slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Then Hizkiyahu his son took his place as king.

17 <sup>1</sup> It was in the twelfth year of Achaz king of Y’hudah that Hoshea the son of Elah began his reign over Isra’el in Shomron; he ruled for nine years. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, although he wasn’t as bad as the kings of Isra’el who had preceded him.

<sup>3</sup> Shalman’esar king of Ashur advanced against Hoshea, and Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute. <sup>4</sup> But the king of Ashur found that Hoshea was conspiring [against him] — he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt and not paid his tribute to the king of Ashur, as he had previously done every year. For this the king of Ashur imprisoned him, putting him in chains. <sup>5</sup> Then the king of Ashur invaded all the land, advanced on Shomron and put it under siege for three years. <sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Ashur captured Shomron. He carried Isra’el away captive to Ashur, resettling them in Halach, in Havor on the Gozan River and in the cities of the Medes.

<sup>7</sup> This came about because the people of Isra'el had sinned against ADONAI their God, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, out from under the domination of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They feared other gods <sup>8</sup> and lived by the customs of the nations that ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra'el and by those of the kings of Isra'el. <sup>9</sup> The people of Isra'el secretly did things that were not right, according to ADONAI their God. They built high places for themselves wherever they lived, from the watchtower to the fortified city. <sup>10</sup> They set up standing-stones and sacred poles for themselves on any high hill and under any green tree. <sup>11</sup> Then they would make offerings on all the high places, like the nations ADONAI had expelled ahead of them, and would do wicked things to provoke the anger of ADONAI; <sup>12</sup> moreover, they served idols, something ADONAI had expressly told them not to do. <sup>13</sup> ADONAI had warned Isra'el and Y'hudah in advance through every prophet and seer, "Turn from your evil ways; and obey my mitzvot and regulations, in accordance with the entire Torah which I ordered your ancestors to keep and which I sent to you through my servants the prophets." <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, they refused to listen but made themselves as stubborn as their ancestors, who did not put their trust in ADONAI their God. <sup>15</sup> Thus they rejected his laws; his covenant, which he had made with their ancestors; and the solemn warnings he had given them. Instead they pursued worthless things and became worthless themselves, imitating the nations around them, whom ADONAI had ordered them not to emulate. <sup>16</sup> They abandoned all the mitzvot of ADONAI their God. They made cast metal images for themselves, two calves. They made an asherah. They worshipped the whole army of heaven. They served Ba'al. <sup>17</sup> They had their sons and daughters pass through fire [as a sacrifice]. They used divination and magic spells. And they gave themselves over to do what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, thereby provoking him; <sup>18</sup> so that ADONAI, by now very angry with Isra'el, removed them from his sight. None was left except the tribe of Y'hudah alone. <sup>19</sup> (However, neither did Y'hudah obey the mitzvot of ADONAI their God; rather they lived according to the customs of Isra'el.)

<sup>20</sup> Yes, ADONAI came to despise all the descendants of Isra'el. He caused them trouble and handed them over to plunderers, until finally he threw them out of his sight. <sup>21</sup> He tore Isra'el away from the house of David. They made Yarov'am the son of N'vat king; and Yarov'am drew Isra'el away from following ADONAI and made them commit a great sin. <sup>22</sup> The people of Isra'el followed the example of all the sins that Yarov'am had committed and did not turn away from them, <sup>23</sup> until ADONAI removed Isra'el out of his sight, as he had said he would through all his servants the prophets. Thus Isra'el was carried away captive from their own land to Ashur, and it remains so to this day.

<sup>24</sup> The king of Ashur brought people from Bavel, Kutah, 'Ava, Hamat and S'farvayim and settled them in the cities of Shomron in place of the people of Isra'el; they took possession of Shomron and lived in its cities. <sup>25</sup> When they first came to live there, they did not fear ADONAI. Therefore ADONAI sent lions among them, which killed some of them. <sup>26</sup> So they said to the king of Ashur, "The nations you carried away and settled in the cities of Shomron are not familiar with the rules for worshipping the God of the land. Therefore he has sent lions among them; and they are there, killing them; because they're not familiar with the rules for worshipping the God of the land." <sup>27</sup> In response, the king of Ashur gave this order: "Take back one of the cohanim you brought from there. Have him go and live there, and have him teach them the rules for worshipping the God of the land." <sup>28</sup> So one of the cohanim they had carried away captive from Shomron came and lived in Beit-El, and he taught them how they should fear ADONAI.

<sup>29</sup> Nevertheless, every nation made gods of their own and put them in the temples on the high places which the Shomronim had made, every nation in the cities where they lived. <sup>30</sup> Thus the people from Bavel made Sukkot-B'not, those from Kutah made Nergal, those from Hamat made Ashima, <sup>31</sup> the 'Avim made Nivchaz and Tartak, and the S'farvim burned up their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adramelekh and 'Anamelekh the gods of S'farvayim. <sup>32</sup> So they feared ADONAI, while at the same time they appointed for themselves priests from among themselves to preside at the high places, and they would sacrifice for them in the temples on the high places. <sup>33</sup> They both feared ADONAI and served their own gods in the manner customary among the nations from which they had been taken away. <sup>34</sup> To this day they continue to follow their former [pagan] customs. They do not fear ADONAI. They do not follow the regulations, rulings, Torah or mitzvah which ADONAI ordered the descendants of Ya'akov, to whom he gave the name Isra'el, <sup>35</sup> with whom ADONAI had made a covenant and charged them, "Do not fear other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them. <sup>36</sup> On the contrary, you are to fear ADONAI, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm. Worship him, and sacrifice to him. <sup>37</sup> You are to observe forever the laws, rulings, Torah and mitzvah

which he wrote for you. You are not to fear other gods, <sup>38</sup> and you are not to forget the covenant I made with you. No, you must not fear other gods <sup>39</sup> but must fear ADONAI your God; then he will rescue you from the power of all your enemies.” <sup>40</sup> However, they didn’t listen, but followed their old [pagan] practices. <sup>41</sup> So these nations mixed fearing ADONAI with serving their carved idols; likewise their children; and to this day, their descendants do the same as their ancestors did.

18 <sup>1</sup> It was in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Isra’el, that Hizkiyahu the son of Achaz, king of Y’hudah, began his reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Avi the daughter of Z’kharyah. <sup>3</sup> He did what was right from ADONAI’s perspective, following the example of everything David his ancestor had done. <sup>4</sup> He removed the high places, smashed the standing-stones, cut down the asherah and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moshe had made; because in those days the people of Isra’el were making offerings to it, calling it N’chushtan. <sup>5</sup> He put his trust in ADONAI the God of Isra’el; after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Y’hudah, nor had there been among those before him. <sup>6</sup> For he clung to ADONAI and did not leave off following him, but obeyed his mitzvot, which ADONAI had given Moshe. <sup>7</sup> So ADONAI was with him. Wherever he went out to battle, he did well. He rebelled against the king of Ashur and refused to be his vassal. <sup>8</sup> He drove the P’lishtim back to ‘Azah and laid waste to their territory from the watchtower to the fortified city.

<sup>9</sup> It was in the fourth year of King Hizkiyahu, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Isra’el, that Shalman’esar king of Ashur advanced against Shomron and laid siege to it. <sup>10</sup> At the end of three years they captured it — that is, Shomron was captured in the sixth year of Hizkiyahu, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Isra’el. <sup>11</sup> The king of Ashur carried Isra’el away captive to Ashur and settled them in Halach, in Havor on the Gozan River and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>12</sup> This happened because they did not heed the voice of ADONAI their God, but violated his covenant, everything that Moshe the servant of ADONAI had ordered them to do, and would neither hear it nor do it.

<sup>13</sup> In the fourteenth year of King Hizkiyahu, Sancheriv king of Ashur advanced against all the fortified cities of Y'hudah and captured them. <sup>14</sup> Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah sent this message to the king of Ashur at Lakhish: "I have done wrong. If you will go away from me, I will pay whatever penalty you impose on me." The king of Ashur imposed on Hizkiyahu a penalty of ten tons of silver and a ton of gold. <sup>15</sup> Hizkiyahu gave him all the silver that could be found in the house of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace. <sup>16</sup> It was at that time that Hizkiyahu stripped the gold from the doors of the sanctuary of ADONAI and from the doorposts which Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah himself had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Ashur.

<sup>17</sup> From Lakhish the king of Ashur sent Tartan, Rav-Saris and Rav-Shakeh to King Hizkiyahu in Yerushalayim with a large army. They advanced and came to Yerushalayim. Upon arrival, they came and positioned themselves by the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, which is by the road to the Launderers' Field. <sup>18</sup> They summoned the king, but those answering the call were Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo'ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister. <sup>19</sup> Rav-Shakeh addressed them: "Tell Hizkiyahu: 'Here is what the great king, the king of Ashur, says: "What makes you so confident? <sup>20</sup> Do you think that mere spoken words constitute strategy and strength for battle? In whom, then, are you trusting when you rebel against me like this? <sup>21</sup> Now look! Relying on Egypt is like using a broken stick as a staff — when you lean on it, it punctures your hand. That's what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like for anyone who puts his trust in him. <sup>22</sup> But if you tell me, 'We trust in ADONAI our God,' then isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hizkiyahu has removed, telling Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, 'You must worship before this altar in Yerushalayim'? <sup>23</sup> All right, then, make a wager with my lord the king of Ashur: I will give you two thousand horses if you can find enough riders for them. <sup>24</sup> How then can you repulse even one of my master's lowest-ranked army officers? Yet you are relying on Egypt for chariots and riders! <sup>25</sup> Do you think I have come up to this place to destroy it without ADONAI's approval? ADONAI said to me, 'Attack this land, and destroy it!'"

<sup>26</sup> Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, Shevnah and Yo'ach said to Rav-Shakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it; don't speak with us in Hebrew while the people on the wall are listening." <sup>27</sup>

But Rav-Shakeh answered them, “Did my master send me to deliver my message just to your master and yourselves? Didn’t he send me to address the men sitting on the wall, who, like you, are going to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?” <sup>28</sup> Then Rav-Shakeh stood up and, speaking loudly in Hebrew, said: “Hear what the great king, the king of Ashur, says! <sup>29</sup> This is what the king says: ‘Don’t let Hizkiyahu deceive you, because he won’t be able to save you from the power of the king of Ashur. <sup>30</sup> And don’t let Hizkiyahu make you trust in ADONAI by saying, “ADONAI will surely save us; this city will not be given over to the king of Ashur.” <sup>31</sup> Don’t listen to Hizkiyahu.’ For this is what the king of Ashur says: ‘Make peace with me, surrender to me. Then every one of you can eat from his vine and fig tree and drink the water in his own cistern; <sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land with grain and wine, a land with bread and vineyards, a land with olive trees and honey; so that you can live and not die. So don’t listen to Hizkiyahu; he is only deluding you when he says, “ADONAI will save us.” <sup>33</sup> Has any god of any nation ever saved his land from the power of the king of Ashur? <sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamat and Arpad? Where are the gods of S’farvayim, Hena and ‘Ivah? Did they save Shomron from my power? <sup>35</sup> Where is the god of any country that has saved its country from my power, so that ADONAI might be able to save Yerushalayim from my power?’” <sup>36</sup> But the people kept still and didn’t answer him so much as a word; for the king’s order was, “Don’t answer him.”

<sup>37</sup> Then Elyakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo’ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister went to Hizkiyahu with their clothes torn and reported to him what Rav-Shakeh had said.

19 <sup>1</sup> On hearing it, King Hizkiyahu tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth and entered the house of ADONAI. <sup>2</sup> He sent Elyakim, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and the leading cohanim, covered with sackcloth, to Yesha’yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz. <sup>3</sup> They said to him, “This is what Hizkiyahu says: ‘Today is a day of trouble, rebuke and disgrace. Children are ready to be born, but there is no strength to bring them to birth. <sup>4</sup> Maybe ADONAI your God will hear all the words of Rav-Shakeh, whom his master the king of Ashur has sent to taunt the living God, and will rebuke the message which ADONAI your God has heard. So pray for the remnant that is left.”

<sup>5</sup> When King Hizkiyahu’s servants came to Yesha’yahu, <sup>6</sup> he said to them, “Tell your master that this is what ADONAI says: ‘Don’t be afraid of the words you heard the servants of the king of Ashur use to insult me. <sup>7</sup> I will put a spirit in him that will make him hear a rumor and return to his own land; then I will cause him to die by the sword in his own land.’”

<sup>8</sup> Rav-Shakeh returned and, having heard that the king of Ashur had left Lakhish, found him making war with Livnah. <sup>9</sup> Then, on hearing it said that Tirhakah king of Ethiopia was on his way to fight him, the king of Ashur sent messengers to Hiz-kiyahu, telling them, <sup>10</sup> “This is what you are to say to Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah: ‘Don’t let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying, “Yerushalayim will not be handed over to the power of the king of Ashur.” <sup>11</sup> You have heard what the kings of Ashur have done to all lands — they have completely destroyed them. So how will you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them? No, my ancestors destroyed them — Gozan, Haran, Retzef and the people of ‘Eden who were in Tel’asar. <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamat? the king of Arpad? the king of the city of S’farvayim, of Hena and ‘Ivah?’”

<sup>14</sup> Hizkiyahu took the letter from the messengers’ hands and read it. Then Hizkiyahu went up to the house of ADONAI and spread it out before ADONAI. <sup>15</sup> Hizkiyahu prayed as follows in the presence of ADONAI: “ADONAI God of Isra’el, who dwells above the k’ruvim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth. <sup>16</sup> Turn your ear, ADONAI, and hear! Open your eyes, ADONAI, and see! Hear the words that Sancheriv sent to taunt the living God. <sup>17</sup> It is true, ADONAI, that the kings of Ashur have laid waste the nations and their lands <sup>18</sup> and have thrown their gods into the fire. For those were non-gods, merely the product of people’s hands, wood and stone; this is why they could destroy them. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, ADONAI our God, please save us from his power — so that all the kingdoms on earth will know that you are ADONAI, God — you only.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Yesha’yahu the son of Amotz sent this message to Hizkiyahu: “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘You prayed to me against Sancheriv king of Ashur, and I have heard you.’ <sup>21</sup> Here is ADONAI’s answer concerning him:

‘The virgin daughter of Tziyon

despises you; she laughs you to scorn.

The daughter of Yerushalayim

shakes her head at you.

<sup>22</sup> Whom have you taunted and insulted?

Against whom have you raised your voice

and haughtily lifted your eyes?

The Holy One of Isra'el!

<sup>23</sup> “Through your messengers you taunted Adonai.

You said, “With my many chariots

I have ascended the mountain heights

even in the far reaches of the L'vanon.

I cut down its tall cedars

and its best cypresses.

I reached its remotest corners

and its best forests.

<sup>24</sup> I dug [wells] in foreign lands, and I drank the water.

The soles of my [soldiers'] feet

dried up all the rivers of Egypt.”

“Haven’t you heard? Long ago I made it;
in antiquity I produced it;
and now I am making it happen:
you are turning fortified cities
into heaps of ruins;

<sup>26</sup> while their inhabitants, shorn of power,
are disheartened and ashamed,
weak as grass, frail as plants,
like grass on the rooftops
or grain scorched by the east wind.

<sup>27</sup> “But I know when you sit, when you leave,
when you enter — and when you rage against me.

<sup>28</sup> And because of your rage against me,
because of your pride that has reached my ears,
I am putting my hook in your nose
and my bridle on your lips;
and I will make you return
by the way on which you came.

<sup>29</sup> “This will be the sign for you: this year, you will eat the grain that grows of itself; the second year, you will eat what grows from that; but in the third year, you will sow, reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>30</sup> “Meanwhile, the remnant

of the house of Y’hudah that has escaped

will again take root downward

and bear fruit upward;

<sup>31</sup> for a remnant will go out from Yerushalayim,

those escaping will go out from Mount Tziyon.

The zeal of ADONAI-Tzva’ot

will accomplish this.’

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore this is what ADONAI says concerning the king of Ashur:

‘He will not come to this city

or even shoot an arrow there;

he will not confront it with a shield

or erect earthworks against it.

<sup>33</sup> By the way he came he will return;

he will not come to this city,’

says ADONAI. <sup>34</sup> ‘For I will defend this city and save it, both for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.’”

<sup>35</sup> That night the angel of ADONAI went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of Ashur. Early the next morning, there they were, all of them, corpses — dead. <sup>36</sup> So Sancheriv king of Ashur left, went and returned to live in Ninveh.

<sup>37</sup> One day, as he was worshipping in the temple of Nisrokh his god, [his sons] Adramelekh and Shar'etzer struck him with the sword and escaped into the land of Ararat. So his son Esar-Hadon took his place as king.

20 <sup>1</sup> Around this time, Hizkiyahu became ill to the point of death. Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz, came and said to him, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not live.'" <sup>2</sup> Hizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall and prayed to ADONAI: <sup>3</sup> "I plead with you, ADONAI, remember now how I have lived before you truly and wholeheartedly, and how I have done what you see as good." And he cried bitter tears.

<sup>4</sup> Before Yesha'yahu had left the city's middle courtyard, the word of ADONAI came to him: <sup>5</sup> "Go back, and tell Hizkiyahu the prince of my people, that this is what ADONAI, the God of David your ancestor, says: 'I have heard your prayer and seen your tears, and I will heal you. On the third day, you are to go up to the house of ADONAI.' <sup>6</sup> I will add fifteen years to your life. Also I will rescue you and this city from the power of the king of Ashur; I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake.'" <sup>7</sup> Then Yesha'yahu said, "Prepare a fig-plaster." They brought it and laid it on the inflammation, so that he would recover.

<sup>8</sup> Hizkiyahu said to Yesha'yahu, "What sign will there be that ADONAI will heal me and that I will be able to go up to the house of ADONAI on the third day?" <sup>9</sup> Yesha'yahu said, "Here is the sign for you from ADONAI that ADONAI will do what he said: do you want the shadow [of the sundial] to go forward ten intervals or backward ten intervals?" <sup>10</sup> Hizkiyahu answered, "It's easy for the shadow to go down ten intervals. No, let the shadow return backward ten intervals." <sup>11</sup> Yesha'yahu called out to ADONAI, and he brought the shadow on the sundial of Achaz ten intervals backward after it had gone down that far.

<sup>12</sup> B'rodakh-Bal'adan the son of Bal'adan, king of Bavel, heard that Hizkiyahu had been ill, so he sent a letter and a gift to him. <sup>13</sup> Hizkiyahu listened to [the messengers] and showed them the building where he kept his treasures, including the silver, gold, spices and precious oils; also the building where he kept his armor; and everything in his treasury — there was nothing in his palace or in his entire domain that Hizkiyahu did not show them. <sup>14</sup> Then Yesha'yahu the prophet came to King Hizkiyahu and asked him, “What did these men say? Where did they come from?” Hizkiyahu answered, “They came from a distant country, Bavel.” <sup>15</sup> Yesha’yahu asked, “What have they seen in your palace?” “They have seen everything in my palace,” said Hizkiyahu. “There isn’t a thing among my treasures that I haven’t shown them.” <sup>16</sup> Yesha’yahu said to Hizkiyahu, “Hear what ADONAI says: <sup>17</sup> ‘The day will come when everything in your palace, along with everything your ancestors stored up until today, will be carried off to Bavel. Nothing will be left,’ says ADONAI. <sup>18</sup> ‘They will carry off some of your descendants, your own offspring; and they will be made eunuchs serving in the palace of the king of Bavel.’” <sup>19</sup> Hizkiyahu said to Yesha’yahu, “The word of ADONAI which you have just told me is good.” He thought, “Isn’t it, though, if peace and truth continue at least through my lifetime?”

<sup>20</sup> Other activities of Hizkiyahu, his power and how he built the pool and aqueduct to bring water into the city are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah. <sup>21</sup> Then Hizkiyahu slept with his ancestors, and M’nasheh his son took his place as king.

21 <sup>1</sup> M’nasheh was twelve years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-five years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Heftzibah. <sup>2</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, following the disgusting practices of the nations whom ADONAI had expelled ahead of the people of Isra’el. <sup>3</sup> For he rebuilt the high places Hizkiyahu his father had destroyed; he erected altars for Ba’al and made an asherah, as had Ach’av king of Isra’el; and he worshipped all the army of heaven and served them. <sup>4</sup> He erected altars in the house of ADONAI, about which ADONAI had said, “In Yerushalayim I will put my name.” <sup>5</sup> He erected altars for all the army of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of ADONAI. <sup>6</sup> He made his son pass through the fire [as a sacrifice]. He practiced soothsaying and divination and appointed mediums and persons who used spirit guides. He did much that was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, thus provoking him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He set the carved image for the asherah he had made in the house concerning which ADONAI had told David and Shlomo his son, “In this house and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Isra’el, I will put my name forever. <sup>8</sup> Also I will not have the feet of Isra’el wander any longer out of the land which I gave their ancestors — if only they will take heed to obey every order I have given them and live in accordance with all the Torah that my servant Moshe ordered them to obey.”<sup>9</sup> But they did not take heed; and M’nasheh misled them into doing even worse things than the nations ADONAI had destroyed ahead of the people of Isra’el.

<sup>10</sup> ADONAI spoke this message through his servants the prophets:<sup>11</sup> “Because M’nasheh king of Y’hudah has done these disgusting things; because he has done things more wicked than anything the Emori, who were there before him, did; also because with his idols he made Y’hudah sin;<sup>12</sup> therefore here is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el, says: ‘I am going to bring such calamity on Yerushalayim and Y’hudah that the ears of all who hear of it will tingle.<sup>13</sup> I will measure Yerushalayim with the same measuring cord that I used over Shomron, the same plumbline as for the house of Ach’av. I will scour Yerushalayim clean just as one scours a plate, scouring it and then turning it upside down.<sup>14</sup> I will abandon the remnant of my heritage, delivering them into the power of their enemies — they will become prey and plunder for all their enemies;<sup>15</sup> because they have done what is evil from my perspective and have provoked me to anger from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt to this very day.’”

<sup>16</sup> Moreover, M’nasheh shed so much innocent blood that he flooded Yerushalayim from one end to the other — this in addition to his sin through which he caused Y’hudah to sin by doing what is evil from ADONAI’s perspective.

<sup>17</sup> Other activities of M’nasheh, all his accomplishments and the sin he committed are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.<sup>18</sup> Then M’nasheh slept with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his own house, the Garden of ‘Uza; and Amon his son took his place as king.

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for two years in Yerushalayim. His mother’s name was Meshulemet the daughter of Harutz from Yotvah.<sup>20</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI’s perspective, as had M’nasheh his father.<sup>21</sup> He followed entirely the manner of life of his father, serving the idols that his father served and worshipping them.<sup>22</sup> He abandoned ADONAI, the God of his ancestors, and did not live in ADONAI’s way.

<sup>23</sup> Amon’s servants conspired against him and put the king to death in his own palace.<sup>24</sup> But the people of the land put to death all those who had been part of the conspiracy against King Amon. Then the people of the land made Yoshiyahu his son king in place of him.

<sup>25</sup> Other activities of Amon and all he accomplished are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. <sup>26</sup> Amon was buried in his tomb in the Garden of Uza, and Yoshiyahu his son took his place as king.

22 <sup>1</sup> Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for thirty-one years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Y'didah the daughter of 'Adayah from Botzkat. <sup>2</sup> He did what was right from ADONAI's perspective, living entirely in the manner of David his ancestor and turning away neither to the right nor to the left.

<sup>3</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Yoshiyahu, the king sent Shafan the son of Atzalyahu, the son of Meshulam, the secretary, to the house of ADONAI after instructing him, <sup>4</sup> "Go up to Hilkiyahu the cohen hagadol, and have him total the money that has been brought into the house of ADONAI, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people. <sup>5</sup> Then have them give it to the supervisors of the work being done in the house of ADONAI; they in turn are to use it to pay the laborers in the house of ADONAI to repair damaged places in the building — <sup>6</sup> the carpenters, construction-workers and stonemasons — and to purchase timber and worked stone for doing the repairs on the building." <sup>7</sup> However, they did not require an accounting from the supervisors given the money to spend, because they dealt honestly.

<sup>8</sup> Hilkiyahu the cohen hagadol said to Shafan the secretary, "I have found the scroll of the Torah in the house of ADONAI." Hilkiyah gave the scroll to Shafan, who read it. <sup>9</sup> Then Shafan the secretary went back to the king and gave the king this report: "Your servants have poured out the money found in the house and handed it over to the people supervising the work in the house of ADONAI." <sup>10</sup> Shafan the secretary also told the king, "Hilkiyah the cohen hagadol gave me a scroll." Then Shafan read it aloud before the king. <sup>11</sup> After the king had heard what was written in the scroll of the Torah, he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup> Then the king issued this order to Hilkiyah the cohen, Achikam the son of Shafan, 'Akhbor the son of Mikhayah, Shafan the secretary and 'Asayah the king's servant: <sup>13</sup> "Go; and consult ADONAI for me, for the people and for all Y'hudah in regard to what is written in this scroll which has been found. For ADONAI must be furious at us, since our ancestors did not listen to the words written in this scroll and didn't do everything written there that concerns us." <sup>14</sup> So Hilkiyahu the cohen, Achikam, Akhbor, Shafan and 'Asayah went to Huldah the prophet, the wife of Shalum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harchas, keeper of the wardrobe — she lived in the Second Quarter of Yerushalayim — and spoke with her. <sup>15</sup> She told them, “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says to tell the man who sent you to me <sup>16</sup> that ADONAI says this: ‘I am going to bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, every word in the scroll the king of Y’hudah has read; <sup>17</sup> because they have abandoned me and offered to other gods, in order to provoke me with everything they do. Therefore my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.’ <sup>18</sup> But you are to tell the king of Y’hudah, who sent you to consult ADONAI, that ADONAI the God of Isra’el also says this: ‘In regard to the words you have heard, <sup>19</sup> because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before ADONAI when you heard what I said against this place and its inhabitants — that they would become an object of astonishment and cursing — and have torn your clothes and cried before me, I have also heard you, says ADONAI. <sup>20</sup> Therefore I will gather you to your ancestors, you will go to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the calamity I am going to bring on this place.’” So they brought word back to the king.

23 <sup>1</sup> Then the king summoned all the leaders of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim, and they assembled with him. <sup>2</sup> The king went up to the house of ADONAI with all the men of Y’hudah, all those living in Yerushalayim, the cohanim, the prophets and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing everything written in the scroll of the covenant that had been found in the house of ADONAI. <sup>3</sup> The king stood on the platform and made a covenant in the presence of ADONAI to live following ADONAI, observing his mitzvot, instructions and regulations wholeheartedly and with all his being, so as to confirm the words of the covenant written in this scroll. All the people stood, pledging themselves to keep the covenant.

<sup>4</sup> Then the king ordered Hilkiyahu the cohen hagadol, the cohanim of the second rank and the doorkeepers to remove from the sanctuary of ADONAI all the articles that had been made for Ba‘al, for the asherah and for the entire army of heaven; and he burned them up outside Yerushalayim in the fields of Kidron and carried their ashes to Beit-El.

<sup>5</sup> He deposed the idolatrous priests the kings of Y’hudah had ordained to offer on the high places by the cities of Y’hudah and in the places surrounding Yerushalayim; he also deposed those who offered to Ba'al, the sun, the moon, the constellations and the whole army of heaven.

<sup>6</sup> He took the asherah from the house of ADONAI to Vadi Kidron outside Yerushalayim and burned it in Vadi Kidron, stamped the ashes to powder and threw the powder onto the burial-ground for the common people.

<sup>7</sup> He smashed the houses of the cult prostitutes that were in the house of ADONAI, where the women also wove garments for the asherah.

<sup>8</sup> He removed the cohanim from the cities of Y'hudah; then, from Geva to Be'er-Sheva, he desecrated the high places where the cohanim had been making offerings. He also smashed the High Places of the Gates that were at the entrance of the Gate of Y'hoshua the governor of the city, on the left as one enters the city. <sup>9</sup> But although the cohanim who had been at the high places did not come up to the altar of ADONAI in Yerushalayim, nevertheless they did share matzah with their kinsmen.

<sup>10</sup> He desecrated the Tofet fire pit in the Ben-Hinnom Valley, so that no one could cause his son or daughter to pass through fire [as a sacrifice] to Molekh.

<sup>11</sup> He confiscated the horses which the kings of Y'hudah had given to the sun, at the entrance to the house of ADONAI near the room of the officer N'tan-Melekh, in the side-courtyard; and he burned up the chariots of the sun.

<sup>12</sup> The king smashed the altars on the roof of the upper room of Achaz, which the kings of Y'hudah had made, and the altars which M'nasheh had made in the two courtyards of the house of ADONAI. He broke them into pieces and threw the rubble into Vadi Kidron.

<sup>13</sup> The king desecrated the high places facing Yerushalayim south of the Mount of Destruction, which Shlomo the king of Isra'el had built for 'Ashtoret the abomination of the Tzidonim, K'mosh the abomination of Mo'av and Milkom the abomination of the people of 'Amon. <sup>14</sup> He smashed the standing-stones, chopped down the sacred poles and covered their remains with human bones.

<sup>15</sup> He smashed the altar that was at Beit-El and the high place made by Yarov'am the son of N'vat, who caused Isra'el to sin. Yes, he smashed that altar and the high place; he burned the high place, stamped the ashes to powder, and burned up the asherah. <sup>16</sup> Then, as Yoshiyahu was turning around, he noticed the burial caves that were there on the mountain; so he sent and had the bones taken out of the burial caves and burned them on the altar, thus desecrating it, in keeping with the word of ADONAI which the man of God had proclaimed, foretelling that these things would happen. <sup>17</sup>Then he asked, “This monument here that I’m looking at, what is it?” The men of the city told him, “It marks the burial cave of the man of God who came from Y’hudah and foretold the very things you have done to the altar of Beit-El.” <sup>18</sup> He replied, “Let him be; no one is to move his bones.” So they left his bones undisturbed, along with the bones of the prophet who had come from Shomron.

<sup>19</sup> Yoshiyahu also removed all the shrines of the high places in the cities of Shomron, which the kings of Isra’el had made in order to provoke [ADONAI] to anger, and treated them the same as in Beit-El. <sup>20</sup> He put to death all the priests of those high places on the altars there, then burned human bones on them. Finally he returned to Yerushalayim.

<sup>21</sup> The king issued this order to all the people: “Observe Pesach to ADONAI your God, as written in this scroll of the covenant.” <sup>22</sup> For Pesach had not been so observed since the days when the judges ruled Isra’el — not during the times of any of the kings of Isra’el or of the kings of Y’hudah. <sup>23</sup> But in the eighteenth year of King Yoshiyahu this Pesach was observed to ADONAI in Yerushalayim.

<sup>24</sup> Yoshiyahu got rid of the mediums and the people using spirit guides, as well as the household gods, the idols and all the disgusting things spotted anywhere in Y’hudah and Yerushalayim. He did this in order to establish the words of the Torah written in the scroll Hilkiyahu the cohen had found in the house of ADONAI.

<sup>25</sup> No previous king was like him; because he turned to ADONAI with all his heart, with all his being and with all his power, in accordance with all the Torah of Moshe; nor did any king like him arise afterwards. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, ADONAI did not turn away from his fiercely raging, furious anger that burned against Y’hudah because of all the things M’nasheh had done to provoke him. <sup>27</sup> ADONAI said, “Just as I removed Isra’el, I will also remove Y’hudah out of my sight; and I will reject this city, which I chose, Yerushalayim, and the house concerning which I said, ‘My name will be there.’”

<sup>28</sup> Other activities of Yoshiyahu and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y’hudah.

<sup>29</sup> During his time Pharaoh N’khoh king of Egypt went up toward the Euphrates River to attack the king of Ashur. King Yoshiyahu went out to oppose him; but at Megiddo, Pharaoh spotted Yoshiyahu and killed him. <sup>30</sup>

His servants carried his dead body from Megiddo to Yerushalayim in a chariot and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Y'ho'achaz the son of Yoshiyahu, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

<sup>31</sup> Y'ho'achaz was twenty-three years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for three months in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu from Livnah. <sup>32</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything his ancestors had done. <sup>33</sup> Pharaoh N'khoh imprisoned him at Rivlah in the land of Hamat, so that he would not be able to rule in Yerushalayim. He also imposed a penalty on the land of three-and-a-quarter tons of silver and sixty-six pounds of gold. <sup>34</sup> Then Pharaoh N'khoh made Elyakim the son of Yoshiyahu king in place of Yoshiyahu his father and changed his name to Y'hoyakim. He also carried Y'ho'achaz off to Egypt, where he died. <sup>35</sup> Y'hoyakim remitted the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but in order to pay the money Pharaoh demanded, he had to levy a tax on the land. He taxed the people of the land, each according to his means, to pay the silver and gold to Pharaoh N'khoh.

<sup>36</sup> Y'hoyakim was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Z'vudah the daughter of P'dayah, from Rumah. <sup>37</sup> He did what was evil from the perspective of ADONAI, following the example of everything his ancestors had done.

24 <sup>1</sup> It was in Y'hoyakim's time that N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel invaded. Y'hoyakim became his vassal for three years, but then he turned against him and rebelled. <sup>2</sup> ADONAI sent against him raiding parties from the Kasdim, Aram, Mo'av and the people of 'Amon; he sent them against Y'hudah to destroy it, in keeping with the word of ADONAI which he had spoken through his servants the prophets. <sup>3</sup> Yes, it was at ADONAI's order that this happened to Y'hudah, in order to remove them from his sight because of the sins of M'nasheh and all he had done, <sup>4</sup> and also because of the innocent blood he had shed — for he had flooded Yerushalayim with innocent blood, and ADONAI was unwilling to forgive.

<sup>5</sup> Other activities of Y'hoyakim and all his accomplishments are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Y'hudah. <sup>6</sup> Then Y'hoyakim slept with his ancestors, and Y'hoyakhin his son took his place as king.

<sup>7</sup> The king of Egypt did not leave his own land any more, because the king of Bavel had captured all the territory of the king of Egypt between the Vadi of Egypt and the Euphrates River.

<sup>8</sup> Y'hoyakhin was eighteen years old when he began his reign, and he ruled in Yerushalayim for three months. His mother's name was N'chushta the daughter of Elnatan, from Yerushalayim. <sup>9</sup> He did what was evil from ADONAI's perspective, following the example of everything his father had done.

<sup>10</sup> It was then that the officers of N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel marched on Yerushalayim and laid siege to the city. <sup>11</sup> N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel himself went to the city while it was under siege; <sup>12</sup> and Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah went out to meet the king of Bavel — he, his mother, and his servants, princes and officers; and the king of Bavel took him captive in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup> He also carried away from there all the treasures in the house of ADONAI and the treasures in the royal palace. He cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Shlomo king of Isra'el had made in the temple of ADONAI, as ADONAI had said would happen. <sup>14</sup> He carried all Yerushalayim away captive — all the princes, all the bravest soldiers — 10,000 captives; also all the craftsmen and metalworkers. No one was left but the poorest people of the land.

<sup>15</sup> Y'hoyakhin he carried off to Bavel; likewise he carried off the king's mother, the king's wives, his officers and the main leaders of the land from Yerushalayim into captivity in Bavel. <sup>16</sup> All the strong men — 7,000 of them, as well as 1,000 craftsmen and metalsmiths, all of them strong and trained for war — the king of Bavel brought captive to Bavel.

<sup>17</sup> The king of Bavel made Matanyah, Y'hoyakhin's father's brother, king in place of Y'hoyakhin and changed his name to Tzidkiyahu. <sup>18</sup> Tzidkiyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for eleven years in Yerushalayim. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu, from Livnah. <sup>19</sup> He did what was evil from the perspective of ADONAI, following the example of everything Y'hoyakhin had done. <sup>20</sup> And it was because of ADONAI's anger that all these things happened to Yerushalayim and Y'hudah, until he had thrown them out of his presence.

Tzidkiyahu rebelled against the king of Bavel;

25 <sup>1</sup> so in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, N'vukhadnetzar king of Bavel marched against Yerushalayim with his entire army. He set up camp against it and built siege towers against it on every side. <sup>2</sup> The city remained under siege into the eleventh year of King Tzidkiyahu.

<sup>3</sup> On the ninth day of the [fourth] month, when the famine in the city was so severe that there was no food for the people of the land, <sup>4</sup> they broke through into the city. All the soldiers [fled] by night through the gate between the two walls, near the king's garden. Because the Kasdim were surrounding the city, the king took the route through the 'Aravah. <sup>5</sup> But the army of the Kasdim went in pursuit of the king and overtook him on the plains near Yericho; all his troops deserted him. <sup>6</sup> Then they took the king and brought him up to the king of Bavel in Rivlah, where they passed judgment on him. <sup>7</sup> They slaughtered his sons before his eyes. Then they put out Tzidkiyahu's eyes, bound him in chains and carried him off to Bavel.

<sup>8</sup> In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was also the nineteenth year of King N'vukhadnetzar, king of Bavel, N'vuzar'adan, the commander of the guard and an officer of the king of Bavel, entered Yerushalayim. <sup>9</sup> He burned down the house of ADONAI, the royal palace and all the houses in Yerushalayim — every notable person's house he burned to the ground. <sup>10</sup> The whole army of the Kasdim, who were with the commander of the guard, broke down the walls of Yerushalayim on every side. <sup>11</sup> N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard then deported the remaining population of the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Bavel and the rest of the common people. <sup>12</sup> But the commander of the guard left behind some of the poor people of the land to be vineyard-workers and farmers.

<sup>13</sup> The Kasdim smashed the bronze columns in the house of ADONAI, also the trolleys and bronze Sea that were in the house of ADONAI, and carried their bronze to Bavel. <sup>14</sup> They also took away the pots, shovels, snuffers, pans, and all the bronze articles that had been used for worship. <sup>15</sup> The commander of the guard took the censers, the sprinkling bowls, everything made of gold and everything made of silver. <sup>16</sup> The bronze in the two columns, the one Sea and the bases, all of which Shlomo had made for the house of ADONAI, was more than could be weighed. <sup>17</sup> The height of one column was thirty-one-and-a-half feet; on it was a capital of bronze five-and-a-quarter feet high, with netting and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze; the second column was similar, also with netting.

<sup>18</sup> The commander of the guard took [prisoner] S'rayah the chief cohen, Z'kharyah the second-ranking cohen and three doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup> From the city he took an official in charge of the soldiers, five close associates of the king who had been found in the city, the army commander's secretary in charge of military conscription, and sixty of the common people found in the city. <sup>20</sup> N'vuzar'adan the commander of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Bavel in Rivlah. <sup>21</sup> There in Rivlah, in the land of Hamat, the king of Bavel had them put to death. Thus Y'hudah was carried away captive out of his land.

<sup>22</sup> N'vukhadnetzar king of Babylon appointed G'dalyahu the son of Achikam, the son of Shafan, governor over the people remaining behind in the land of Y'hudah after he left. <sup>23</sup> When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Bavel had made G'dalyahu governor, they came to G'dalyahu in Mitzpah — Yishma'el the son of N'tanyah, Yochanan the son of Kareach, S'rayah the son of Tanchumet the N'tofati and Ya'azanyahu the son of the Ma'akhati — they and their men. <sup>24</sup> Taking an oath, G'dalyahu said to them, "Don't be afraid of the servants of the Kasdim. Just live in the land and serve the king of Bavel, and things will go well for you." <sup>25</sup> But in the seventh month Yishma'el the son of N'tanyah, the son of Elishama, of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated G'dalyah and the Judeans and Kasdim who were with him in Mitzpah. <sup>26</sup> In the wake of this, all kinds of people, great and small, as well as the army officers, set out and went to Egypt; because they were afraid of the Kasdim.

<sup>27</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Eveel-M'rodakh began his reign as king of Bavel; and in his first year he commuted the sentence of Y'hoyakhin king of Y'hudah and released him from prison. <sup>28</sup> He treated him with kindness and gave him a throne higher than those of the other kings there with him in Bavel. <sup>29</sup> So Y'hoyakhin no longer had to wear prison clothes; moreover, he was provided with food as long as he lived; <sup>30</sup> and he was granted a daily allowance by the king to spend on his other needs for as long as he lived.

Yesha'yahu

ISAIAH

1 <sup>1</sup> This is the vision of Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz, which he saw concerning Y'hudah and Yerushalayim during the days of 'Uziyahu, Yotam, Achaz and Y'chizkiyahu, kings of Y'hudah:

<sup>2</sup> "Hear, heaven! Listen, earth!

For ADONAI is speaking.

"I raised and brought up children,

but they rebelled against me.

<sup>3</sup> An ox knows its owner and a donkey its master's stall, but Isra'el does not know,

my people do not reflect.

<sup>4</sup> "Oh, sinful nation,

a people weighed down by iniquity, descendants of evildoers, immoral children!

They have abandoned ADONAI, spurned the Holy One of Isra'el, turned their backs on him!

<sup>5</sup> “Where should I strike you next,
as you persist in rebelling?

The whole head is sick,
the whole heart is diseased.

<sup>6</sup> From the sole of the foot to the head
there is nothing healthy, only wounds, bruises and festering sores that haven’t been dressed or bandaged or softened up with oil.

<sup>7</sup> “Your land is desolate, your cities are burned to the ground;
foreigners devour your land in your presence;
it’s as desolate as if overwhelmed by floods.

<sup>8</sup> The daughter of Tziyon is left like a shack in a vineyard, like a shed in a cucumber field,
like a city under siege.”

<sup>9</sup> If A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot had not left us a tiny, tiny remnant,

we would have become like S'dom,
we would have resembled 'Amora.

<sup>10</sup> Hear what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says, you rulers of S'dom!

Listen to God's Torah,

you people of 'Amora!

<sup>11</sup> "Why are all those sacrifices offered to me?" asks A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

"I'm fed up with burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fattened animals!

I get no pleasure from the blood of bulls, lambs and goats!

<sup>12</sup> Yes, you come to appear in my presence;

but who asked you to do this,

to trample through my courtyards?

<sup>13</sup> Stop bringing worthless grain offerings!

They are like disgusting incense to me!

Rosh-Hodesh, Shabbat, calling convocations —

I can't stand evil together with your assemblies!

<sup>14</sup> Everything in me hates your Rosh-Hodesh

and your festivals;

they are a burden to me —

I'm tired of putting up with them!

<sup>15</sup> “When you spread out your hands,

I will hide my eyes from you;

no matter how much you pray,

I won't be listening;

because your hands are covered with blood.

<sup>16</sup> “Wash yourselves clean!

Get your evil deeds out of my sight!

Stop doing evil, <sup>17</sup> learn to do good!

Seek justice, relieve the oppressed, defend orphans, plead for the widow.

<sup>18</sup> “Come now,” says ADONAI,

“let's talk this over together.

Even if your sins are like scarlet,

they will be white as snow;

even if they are red as crimson,
they will be like wool.

<sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good of the land;

<sup>20</sup> but if you refuse and rebel,
you will be eaten by the sword”;
for the mouth of ADONAI has spoken.

<sup>21</sup> How the faithful city has become a whore!
Once she was filled with justice, righteousness lodged in her;
but now murderers!

<sup>22</sup> Your silver is no longer pure,
your wine is watered down.

<sup>23</sup> Your leaders are rebels, friends of thieves.
They all love bribes and run after gifts.
They give no justice to orphans,
the widow’s complaint doesn’t catch their attention.

<sup>24</sup> “Therefore,” says the Lord, ADONAI-Tzva’ot, the Mighty One of Isra’el,

“I will free myself of my adversaries,
I will take vengeance on my enemies.

<sup>25</sup> But I will also turn my hand against you!

I will cleanse your impurities as with lye and remove all your alloyed base metal.

<sup>26</sup> I will restore your judges as at first and your advisers as at the beginning.

After that, you will be called the City of Righteousness, Faithful City.

<sup>27</sup> Tziyon will be redeemed by justice;

and those in her who repent, by righteousness.

<sup>28</sup> “Rebels and sinners together will be broken and those who abandon A<sub>DONAI</sub> will be consumed.

<sup>29</sup> You will be ashamed of the sacred oaks you desired, you will blush at the gardens you chose;

<sup>30</sup> for you will be like an oak whose leaf fades, like a garden without any water.

<sup>31</sup> The strong will be like tinder and [the idol’s] maker like a spark;

both will burn together,
and no one will put them out.”

2 <sup>1</sup> This is the word that Yesha‘yahu the son of Amotz saw concerning Y’hudah and Yerushalayim:

<sup>2</sup> In the acharit-hayamim
the mountain of ADONAI’s house will be established as the most important mountain.
It will be regarded more highly than the other hills,
and all the Goyim will stream there.

<sup>3</sup> Many peoples will go and say, “Come, let’s go up to the mountain of ADONAI, to the house of the God of Ya‘akov!
He will teach us about his ways,
and we will walk in his paths.”
For out of Tziyon will go forth Torah,
the word of ADONAI from Yerushalayim.

<sup>4</sup> He will judge between the nations and arbitrate for many peoples.
Then they will hammer their swords into plow-blades and their spears into pruning-knives;

nations will not raise swords at each other,
and they will no longer learn war.

<sup>5</sup> Descendants of Ya‘akov, come!

Let’s live in the light of ADONAI!

<sup>6</sup> For you have abandoned your people

the house of Ya‘akov.

Now they are filled from the east,

full of sorcerers, like the P’lishtim;

even the children of foreigners are enough for them!

<sup>7</sup> Their land is full of silver and gold;

They have no end of treasures.

Their land is full of horses;

They have no end of chariots.

<sup>8</sup> Their land is full of idols;

everyone worships the work of his hands,

what his own fingers have made.

<sup>9</sup> A person bows down, a man lowers himself —

don’t forgive them!

<sup>10</sup> Come into the rock, hide in the dust to escape the terror of A<sub>DONAI</sub>

and the glory of his majesty.

<sup>11</sup> The proud looks of man will be humiliated;

the arrogance of men will be bowed down;

and when that day comes,

A<sub>DONAI</sub> alone will be exalted.

<sup>12</sup> Yes, A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot has a day in store for all who are proud and lofty,

for all who are lifted high to be humiliated;

<sup>13</sup> for all cedars of the L'vanon that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of the Bashan;

<sup>14</sup> for all the high mountains,

for all the hills that are lifted up;

<sup>15</sup> for every high tower,

for every fortified wall;

<sup>16</sup> for every "Tarshish" ship,

for every luxurious vessel.

<sup>17</sup> The pride of man will be bowed down,

the arrogance of men will be humiliated,
and when that day comes,
A<sub>DONAI</sub> alone will be exalted.

<sup>18</sup>       The idols will be completely abolished.

<sup>19</sup>       People will enter cracks in the rocks and holes in the ground to escape the terror of A<sub>DONAI</sub>

and his glorious majesty,
when he sets out to convulse the earth.

<sup>20</sup>       On that day a man will take hold of his idols of silver and idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship,

and fling them away to the moles and bats!

<sup>21</sup>       Then they will enter the cracks in the rocks and the crevices in the cliffs

to escape the terror of A<sub>DONAI</sub>
and his glorious majesty,
when he sets out to convulse the earth.

<sup>22</sup>       Stop relying on man,

in whose nostrils is a mere breath — after all, he doesn't count for much, does he?

3<sup>1</sup> For see! The Lord, A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot, will remove from Yerushalayim and Y'hudah every kind of support —
all reserves of food and water;

<sup>2</sup> heroes and warriors, judges and prophets, diviners and leaders, <sup>3</sup> captains of fifty,
men of rank and advisers,
skillful magicians and expert enchanters.

<sup>4</sup> I will put children in authority;
capriciousness will govern them.

<sup>5</sup> People will oppress each other — everyone his friend, everyone his neighbor.
The young will be insolent toward their elders,
the insignificant arrogant toward the respected.

<sup>6</sup> A man will take hold of his brother in his father's house and say, “You have a coat, so rule us!

Take charge of this ruin!”

<sup>7</sup> But on that day, he will protest,

“I don’t have a remedy,

I lack food and clothing for my own house;

don’t put me in charge of people!”

<sup>8</sup> For Yerushalayim is ruined, and Y’hudah has fallen;

because their words and deeds defy ADONAI,

in open provocation of his glory.

<sup>9</sup> Their very look witnesses against them!

They parade their sin, like S’dom;

they don’t even try to hide it—all the worse for them! —

they bring evil on themselves.

<sup>10</sup> Say that it will go well with the righteous, that they will enjoy the fruit of their actions;

<sup>11</sup> but woe to the wicked, it will go badly with him;

for what he has done will be done to him.

<sup>12</sup> My people — children oppress them,

and women are ruling over them.

My people! Your guides lead you astray and obliterate the paths you should follow.

<sup>13</sup> ADONAI rises to accuse,

he stands to judge the peoples.

<sup>14</sup> ADONAI presents the indictment against the leaders and officers of his people:

“It is you who devour the vineyard;
in your houses is plunder taken from the poor.

<sup>15</sup> What do you mean by crushing my people and grinding down the faces of the poor?”

says Adonai Elohim-Tzva’ot.

<sup>16</sup> Moreover ADONAI says:

“Because Tziyon’s women are so proud, walking with their heads in the air and throwing seductive glances, moving with mincing steps and jingling their anklets —

<sup>17</sup> Adonai will strike the crown of the heads of Tziyon's women with sores, and A<sub>DONAI</sub> will expose their private parts.”

<sup>18</sup> On that day Adonai will take away their finery — their anklets, medallions and crescents, <sup>19</sup> their pendants, bracelets and veils; <sup>20</sup> their headbands, armlets, sashes, perfume bottles, amulets, <sup>21</sup> rings and nose-jewels; <sup>22</sup> their fine dresses, wraps, shawls, handbags, <sup>23</sup> gauze scarves, linen underclothes, turbans and capes. <sup>24</sup> Then, there will be instead of perfume, a stench;

instead of a belt, a rope;

instead of well-set hair, a shaved scalp;

instead of a rich robe, a sackcloth skirt;

and a slave-brand instead of beauty.

<sup>25</sup> Your men will fall by the sword and your warriors in battle.

<sup>26</sup> Her gates will lament and mourn;

ravaged, she will sit on the ground.

4 <sup>1</sup> On that day, seven women will grab hold of one man and say,

“We will supply our own food and wear our own clothes.

Just let us bear your name;

take away our disgrace.”

<sup>2</sup> On that day, Adonai's plant will be beautiful and glorious; and the fruit of the land will be the pride and splendor of Isra'el's survivors. <sup>3</sup> Those left in Tziyon and remaining in Yerushalayim will be called holy, and everyone in Yerushalayim written down for life.

<sup>4</sup> When Adonai washes away the filth of the women of Tziyon and cleanses Yerushalayim from the blood shed in it with a blast of searing judgment, <sup>5</sup> Adonai will create over the whole site of Mount Tziyon and over those who assemble there a smoking cloud by day and a shining, flaming fire by night; for the Glory will be over everything like a hupah. <sup>6</sup> A sukkah will give shade by day from the heat; it will also provide refuge and cover from storm and rain.

5 <sup>1</sup> I want to sing a song for someone I love,

a song about my loved one and his vineyard.

My loved one had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup> He dug up its stones and cleared them away, planted it with the choicest vines,

built a watchtower in the middle of it,

and carved out in its rock a winepress.

He expected it to produce good grapes,

but it produced only sour, wild grapes.

<sup>3</sup> "Now, citizens of Yerushalayim and people of Y'hudah, judge between me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup> What more could I have done for my vineyard that I haven't already done in it?

So why, when I expected good grapes,
did it produce sour, wild grapes?

<sup>5</sup>        "Now come, I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard:

I will remove its hedge,

and [its grapes] will be eaten up;

I will break through its fence,

and [its vines] will be trampled down.

<sup>6</sup>        I will let it go to waste:

it will be neither pruned nor hoed,

but overgrown with briars and thorns.

I will also order the clouds not to let rain fall on it."

<sup>7</sup>        Now the vineyard of Adonai-Tzva'ot

is the house of Isra'el, and the men of Y'hudah are the plant he delighted in.

So he expected justice,

but look — bloodshed! — and righteousness, but listen — cries of distress!

<sup>8</sup>       Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field,
until there's no room for anyone else,
and you live in splendor alone on your land.

<sup>9</sup>       Adonai-Tzva 'ot said in my ears,
“Many houses will be brought to ruin,
large, magnificent ones left empty;

<sup>10</sup>       for a ten-acre vineyard will produce only five gallons of wine, and seed from five bushels of grain will yield but half a bushel.”

<sup>11</sup>       Woe to those who get up early to pursue intoxicating liquor;
who stay up late at night,
until wine inflames them.

<sup>12</sup>       They have lutes and lyres, drums and flutes, and wine at their parties;

but they pay no attention to how Adonai works and never look at what his hands have made.

<sup>13</sup> For such lack of knowledge
my people go into exile;
this is also why their respected men starve
and their masses are parched from thirst.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore Sh'ol has enlarged itself and opened its limitless jaws — and down go their nobles and masses, along with their noise and revels.

<sup>15</sup> The masses are lowered, the nobles are humbled — proud looks will be brought down.

<sup>16</sup> But Adonai-Tzva'ot is exalted through justice,
God the Holy One is consecrated through righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> Then lambs will be able to feed
as if they were in their own pasture, and those wandering through will eat
from the ruined fields of the overfed.

<sup>18</sup> Woe to those who begin by pulling at transgression with a thread, but end by dragging sin along
as if with a cart rope.

<sup>19</sup> They say, “We want God to speed up his work,
to hurry it along, so we can see it!
We want the Holy One of Isra’el’s plan to come true right now, so we can be sure of it!”

<sup>20</sup> Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,
who change darkness into light
and light into darkness, who change bitter into sweet and sweet into bitter!

<sup>21</sup> Woe to those seeing themselves as wise, esteeming themselves as clever.

<sup>22</sup> Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, men whose power goes to mixing strong drinks,

<sup>23</sup> who acquit the guilty for bribes

but deny justice to the righteous!

<sup>24</sup>

Therefore, as fire licks up the stubble, and the chaff is consumed in the flame;
so their root will rot,
and their flowers scatter like dust;
because they have rejected the Torah
of ADONAI-Tzva'ot,
they have despised the word of the Holy One of Isra'el.

<sup>25</sup>

This is why ADONAI's anger blazed up against his people, why he stretched out his hand against them and struck them [so hard that] the hills shook,
and corpses lay like trash in the streets.
Even after all this, his anger remains,
his upraised hand still threatens.

<sup>26</sup>

He will give a signal to faraway nations, he will whistle for them to come from the ends of the earth;
and here they come, so fast! —

<sup>27</sup>

none of them tired or stumbling,
none of them sleeping or drowsy,
none with a loose belt,
none with a broken sandal-strap.

<sup>28</sup> Their arrows are sharp,
all their bows are strung,
their horses' hoofs are like flint,
and their [chariot] wheels like a whirlwind.

<sup>29</sup> They will roar like lions — yes, roaring like young lions, they growl and seize the prey and carry it off, with no one to rescue.

<sup>30</sup> On that day they will growl at them, like the sea when it growls —
and when one looks toward land, one sees darkness closing in;
the light is dissipated
in the obscuring overcast.

6 <sup>1</sup> In the year of King 'Uziah's death I saw Adonai sitting on a high, lofty throne! The hem of his robe filled the temple. <sup>2</sup> S'rafim stood over him, each with six wings — two for covering his face, two for covering his feet and two for flying. <sup>3</sup> They were crying out to each other,

“More holy than the holiest holiness is A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot!

The whole earth is filled with his glory!”

<sup>4</sup> The doorposts shook at the sound of their shouting, and the house was filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup> Then I said, “Woe to me! I [too] am doomed! — because I, a man with unclean lips, living among a people with unclean lips,

have seen with my own eyes

the King, A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot!”

<sup>6</sup> One of the s’rafim flew to me with a glowing coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. <sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with it and said, “Here! This has touched your lips.

Your iniquity is gone,

your sin is atoned for.”

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of Adonai saying, “Whom should I send?

Who will go for us?”

I answered, “I’m here, send me!”<sup>9</sup> He said, “Go and tell this people:

‘Yes, you hear, but you don’t understand.

You certainly see, but you don’t get the point!’

<sup>10</sup> “Make the heart of this people [sluggish with] fat, stop up their ears, and shut their eyes.

Otherwise, seeing with their eyes,
and hearing with their ears,
then understanding with their hearts,
they might repent and be healed!”

<sup>11</sup> I asked, “Adonai, how long?” and he answered, “Until cities become uninhabited ruins, houses without human presence,
the land utterly wasted;

<sup>12</sup> until ADONAI drives the people far away,
and the land is one vast desolation.

<sup>13</sup> If even a tenth [of the people] remain, will again be devoured.

“But like a pistachio tree or an oak,

whose trunk remains alive
after its leaves fall off,
the holy seed will be its trunk.”

7 <sup>1</sup> During the days of Achaz the son of Yotam, the son of ‘Uziah, king of Y’hudah, Retzin the king of Aram and Pekach the son of Remalyah, king of Isra’el, advanced on Yerushalayim to attack it but were unable to conquer it. <sup>2</sup> It was told to the house of David that Aram and Efrayim had become allies. Achaz’s heart began to tremble, as did the hearts of his people, like forest trees shaken by the wind.

<sup>3</sup> Then ADONAI said to Yesha‘yahu, “Go out now to meet Achaz, you and your son Sh’ar Yashuv, at the end of the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderers’ Field; <sup>4</sup> and say to him, ‘Take care to stay calm and unafraid; don’t be demoralized by these two smoldering stumps of firewood, by the blazing anger of Retzin and Aram or the son of Remalyah; <sup>5</sup> or because Aram, Efrayim and the son of Remalyah have been plotting against you, thinking, <sup>6</sup> “We will invade Y’hudah, tear it apart, divide it among ourselves and appoint the son of Tav’el as king there.”

<sup>7</sup> ““This is what Adonai ELOHIM says:

“It won’t occur, it won’t happen.

<sup>8</sup> For the head of Aram is Dammeseq,

and the head of Dammeseq Retzin.

In sixty-five years Efrayim will be broken and will cease to be a people.

<sup>9</sup> The head of Efrayim is Shomron, and the head of Shomron is the son of Remalyah.

Without firm faith,
you will not be firmly established.””””

<sup>10</sup> ADONAI spoke again to Achaz; he said, <sup>11</sup> “Ask ADONAI your God to give you a sign. Ask it anywhere, from the depths of Sh’ol to the heights above.” <sup>12</sup> But Achaz answered, “I won’t ask, I won’t test ADONAI.”

<sup>13</sup> Then [the prophet] said,

“Listen here, house of David!

Is trying people’s patience such a small thing for you that you must try the patience of my God as well?

<sup>14</sup> Therefore Adonai himself will give you people a sign:
the young woman will become pregnant, bear a son and name him ‘Immanu El [God is with us].

<sup>15</sup> By the time he knows enough
to refuse evil and choose good,
he will [have to] eat
curdled milk and [wild] honey.

<sup>16</sup> Yes, before the child knows enough

to refuse evil and choose good,
the land whose two kings you dread will be left abandoned.

<sup>17</sup>        ADONAI will bring the king of Ashur on you, your people and your father's house.
These will be days worse than any you've known since Efrayim broke loose from Y'hudah."

<sup>18</sup>        Yes, when that day comes,
ADONAI will whistle for the fly in the farthest streams of the Nile in Egypt and for the bee in the land of Ashur.

<sup>19</sup>        They will come and settle, all of them, in steep vadis and holes in the rocks and on all thorn bushes and brambles.

<sup>20</sup>        When that day comes, Adonai will shave—with a razor hired beyond the [Euphrates] River, that is, with the king of Ashur—
the head and the hair between the legs, and get rid of the beard as well.

<sup>21</sup> When that day comes, a man will raise a young cow and two sheep.

<sup>22</sup> Will they produce in abundance?
No, he will [have to] eat curdled milk.
Indeed, everyone left in the land will eat curdled milk and [wild] honey.

<sup>23</sup> When that day comes,
wherever there once were a thousand grapevines, worth a thousand pieces of silver,
there will be only briars and thorns.

<sup>24</sup> One will go there [to hunt] with bow and arrow, because all the land will be briars and thorns.

<sup>25</sup> You won't visit hills once worked with a hoe, for fear of the briars and thorns;
it will be good only for pasturing cattle and being trampled down by sheep.

8 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it in easily readable letters; 'Maḥer shalal, hash baz [the spoil hurries, the prey speeds along].'"

<sup>2</sup> I had it witnessed for me by reliable witnesses—Uriyah the cohen and Z'kharyahu the son of Y'verekhyahu. <sup>3</sup> Then I had sexual relations with my wife; she became pregnant and gave birth to a son; and ADONAI said to me,

“Name him Maher Shalal Hash Baz; <sup>4</sup> because before the child knows how to cry, ‘Abba!’ and ‘Eema!’, the riches of Dammesek and the spoil of Shomron will be carried off and given to the king of Ashur.” <sup>5</sup> ADONAI went on speaking and said more to me:

<sup>6</sup> “Since this people has rejected the gently flowing waters from Shilo’ach and takes joy in Retzin and the son of Remalyah;

<sup>7</sup> now Adonai will bring upon them
the mighty floodwaters of the [Euphrates] River—that is, the king of Ashur and his power.

It will rise above all its channels and overflow all its banks.

<sup>8</sup> It will sweep through Y’hudah, flooding everything and passing on.
It will reach even up to the neck,
and its outspread wings
will fill the whole expanse of the land.”

God is with us! [Hebrew: ‘immanu El]

<sup>9</sup> You may make an uproar, peoples;
but you will be shattered.
Listen, all of you from distant lands:

arm yourselves, but you will be shattered;

yes, arm yourselves,

but you will be shattered;

<sup>10</sup>       devise a plan, but it will come to nothing;

say anything you like, but it won't happen;

because God is with us [Hebrew: 'immanu El].

<sup>11</sup> For this is what ADONAI said to me, speaking with a strong hand, warning me not to live the way this people does:

<sup>12</sup>       “Don't regard as alliance what this people calls alliance, and don't fear what they fear or be awestruck by it;

<sup>13</sup>       but ADONAI-Tzva'ot — consecrate him!

Let him be the object of your fear and awe!

<sup>14</sup>       He is there to be a sanctuary.

But for both the houses of Isra'el

he will be a stone to stumble over,

a rock obstructing their way;

a trap and a snare

for the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

<sup>15</sup>       Many of them will stumble and fall, be broken and trapped and captured.

<sup>16</sup> “Wrap up this document, and confine its teaching to those I have instructed.”

<sup>17</sup> I will wait for A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

who is hiding his face

from the house of Ya‘akov;

yes, I will look for him.

<sup>18</sup> Meanwhile, I and the children whom A<sub>DONAI</sub> has given me will become for Isra’el signs and wonders

from A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot

living on Mount Tziyon.

<sup>19</sup> So when they tell you to consult those squeaking, squawking mediums and fortune-tellers;

[you are to answer],

“Shouldn’t a people seek their God?

Must the living ask the dead

<sup>20</sup> for teaching and instruction?”

For they will indeed give you this unenlightened suggestion.

<sup>21</sup>

Distressed and hungry
they will pass through the land;
and because of their hunger they will grow angry and curse by their king and by their God.
But whether they look up [to God]

<sup>22</sup>

or [down] at the earth,
they will see only trouble and darkness,
anguished gloom and pervasive darkness.

<sup>23(9:1)</sup>

But there will be no more gloom
for those who are now in anguish.
In the past the land of Z'vulun and the land of Naftali were regarded lightly;
but in the future he will honor the way to the lake, beyond the Yarden, Galil-of-the-Goyim.

9<sup>1(2)</sup>

The people living in darkness
have seen a great light;
upon those living in the land that lies in the shadow of death, light has dawned.

<sup>2(3)</sup>

You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy;

they rejoice in your presence
as if rejoicing at harvest time,
the way men rejoice
when dividing up the spoil.

<sup>3(4)</sup> For the yoke that weighed them down,
the bar across their shoulders,
and their driver's goad
you have broken as on the day of Midyan['s defeat].

<sup>4(5)</sup> For all the boots of soldiers marching and every cloak rolled in blood is destined for burning, fuel for the fire.

<sup>5(6)</sup> For a child is born to us, a son is given to us;
dominion will rest on his shoulders,
and he will be given the name
Pele-Yo'etz El Gibbor
Avi-'Ad Sar-Shalom

[Wonder of a Counselor, Mighty God,
Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace],

<sup>6(7)</sup> in order to extend the dominion and perpetuate the peace of the throne and kingdom of David, to secure it and sustain it through justice and righteousness henceforth and forever.

The zeal of Adonai-Tzva'ot
will accomplish this.

<sup>7(8)</sup> Adonai sent a word to Ya'akov, and it has fallen on Isra'el.

<sup>8(9)</sup> All the people know it,
Efrayim and the inhabitants of Shomron.

But they say in pride,
in the arrogance of their hearts,

<sup>9(10)</sup> “The bricks have fallen,
but we will rebuild with cut stone;
the sycamore-fig trees have been chopped down,

but we will replace them with cedars.”

<sup>10(11)</sup> So ADONAI has raised up Retzin’s foes against him and spurred on his enemies —

<sup>11(12)</sup> Aram from the east, P’lishtim from the west;

and they devour Isra’el with an open mouth.

Even after all this, his anger remains,

his upraised hand still threatens.

<sup>12(13)</sup> Yet the people do not turn to the one striking them, they don’t seek ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

<sup>13(14)</sup> Therefore ADONAI will cut off

Isra’el’s head and tail,

[tall] palm frond and [lowly] reed in a single day.

<sup>14(15)</sup> The old and the honored are the head, while prophets teaching lies are the tail.

<sup>15(16)</sup> For those leading this people lead them astray, and those led by them are destroyed.

<sup>16(17)</sup> Therefore Adonai takes no joy in their young men and has no compassion on their orphans and widows;

for everyone is ungodly and does evil,

every mouth speaks foolishly.

Even after all this, his anger remains,
his upraised hand still threatens.

<sup>17(18)</sup> For wickedness burns like fire,
it devours briars and thorns;
it sets the forest underbrush ablaze,
with clouds of smoke whirling upward.

<sup>18(19)</sup> The anger of ADONAI-Tzva'ot is burning up the land;
the people, too, are fuel for the fire —
no one spares even his brother.

<sup>19(20)</sup> The one on the right grabs but stays hungry,
the one on the left eats but is unfilled.
Everyone devours his own arm's flesh —

<sup>20(21)</sup> M'nasheh devours Efrayim;
and Efrayim, M'nasheh;
while together they oppose Y'hudah.
Even after all this, his anger remains,
his upraised hand still threatens.

10<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who enact unjust decrees and draft oppressive legislation

<sup>2</sup> to deprive the impoverished of justice and rob my people's poor of their rights, looting widows and preying on orphans!

<sup>3</sup> What will you do on the day of punishment, when calamity comes from afar?

To whom will you flee for help?

Where will you leave your wealth,

<sup>4</sup> so as not to squat among the prisoners or fall among the slain?

Even after all this, his anger remains,

his upraised hand still threatens.

<sup>5</sup> “Oh Ashur, the rod expressing my anger!

The club in their hands is my fury!

<sup>6</sup> I am sending him against a hypocritical nation, ordering him to march against a people who enrage me,

to take the spoil and the plunder

and trample them down like mud in the street.

<sup>7</sup> That is not what Ashur intends, that is not what they think;
rather, they mean to destroy,
to cut down nation after nation.

<sup>8</sup> For [their king] says,
‘Aren’t all my commanders kings?

<sup>9</sup> Hasn’t Kalno [suffered] like Kark’mish, Hamat like Arpad, Shomron like Dammeseek?

<sup>10</sup> Just as my hand reached the kingdoms of non-gods, with more images than in Yerushalayim and Shomron;

<sup>11</sup> so won’t I do to Yerushalayim and her non-gods
what I did to Shomron and her idols?’”

<sup>12</sup> Therefore when Adonai has done everything he intends to do to Mount Tziyon and Yerushalayim, “I will punish the king of Ashur for the boasting that comes from his proud heart and from reveling in his arrogant looks. <sup>13</sup> For he says,

“‘With my own strong arm I have done this,
and with my wisdom, because I’m so clever!
I erased the boundaries between peoples,
I plundered their stores for the future;

as a mighty man, I subjugated the inhabitants.

<sup>14</sup> My hand found the riches of the peoples like a nest;
and as one gathers abandoned eggs,
I gathered the whole earth!
Not one wing fluttered,
not one beak opened or let out a chirp!’”

<sup>15</sup> Should the axe glorify itself over the one who chops with it?
Should the saw magnify itself
over the one who moves it?
It’s as if a stick could wave
the hand that raises it up, or as if a wooden staff could lift
[a person, who is] not made of wood.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore the Lord, A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot, will send leanness to his well-fed ones;
and in place of his glory,
a fire will be kindled that will burn and burn.

<sup>17</sup> The light of Isra’el will become a fire and his Holy One a flame, burning and devouring his thorns and briars in a single day.

<sup>18</sup>       The glory of his forest and of his fertile land
he will consume body and soul,
like an invalid wasting away.

<sup>19</sup>       So few forest trees will remain that a child could list them.

<sup>20</sup>       On that day the remnant of Isra'el, those of the house of Ya'akov who escaped, will no longer rely on the man who struck them down, but will truly rely on A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
the Holy One of Isra'el.

<sup>21</sup>       A remnant will return,
the remnant of Ya'akov, to the mighty God.

<sup>22</sup>       For, although your people, Isra'el, are like the sand of the sea,

only a remnant of them will return.
Destruction is decreed, overflowing with justice.

<sup>23</sup> Adonai E<sub>LOHIM</sub>-Tzva'ot

will bring about this decreed destruction throughout all the land.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore Adonai E<sub>LOHIM</sub>-Tzva'ot says:

“My people living in Tziyon, don't be afraid of Ashur,
even when he strikes you with a stick and raises his staff against you,
the way it was in Egypt.

<sup>25</sup> For in but a little while, my fury will end;
and my anger will have destroyed them.”

<sup>26</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot will wield a whip against them, as he did when striking Midyan at the Rock of 'Orev; as his staff was over the sea, he will raise it, the way it was in Egypt.

<sup>27</sup> On that day his burden will fall from your shoulders and his yoke from your neck;
the yoke will be destroyed by your prosperity.

<sup>28</sup> He has come to ‘Ayat and passed through Migron.

He has stored his equipment at Mikhmas.

<sup>29</sup> They have crossed the pass,

then lodged at Geva.

Ramah is shaking,

Giv’at-Sha’ul has fled.

<sup>30</sup> Cry, shriek, Bat-Gallim!

Listen, Layish! Poor ‘Anatot!

<sup>31</sup> Madmenah is in flight,

The people of Gevim take cover.

<sup>32</sup> This very day he will stop at Nov;

and he will shake his fist

at the mountain of the daughter of Tziyon,

at the hill of Yerushalayim.

<sup>33</sup> See how Adonai E<sub>LOHIM</sub>-Tzva’ot

lops off the branches with terrible violence!

The ones standing highest are chopped down,

the lofty are laid low.

<sup>34</sup>

He will hack down the forest underbrush with an axe, and the L'vanon in its splendor falls.

11

<sup>1</sup> But a branch will emerge from the trunk of Yishai, a shoot will grow from his roots.

<sup>2</sup>

The Spirit of A<sub>DONAI</sub> will rest on him,
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the Spirit of counsel and power,
the Spirit of knowledge and fearing A<sub>DONAI</sub>—

<sup>3</sup>

he will be inspired by fearing A<sub>DONAI</sub>.
He will not judge by what his eyes see or decide by what his ears hear,

<sup>4</sup>

but he will judge the impoverished justly;
he will decide fairly for the humble of the land.
He will strike the land with a rod from his mouth and slay the wicked with a breath from his lips.

<sup>5</sup>

Justice will be the belt around his waist, faithfulness the sash around his hips.

<sup>6</sup>

The wolf will live with the lamb;

the leopard lie down with the kid;
calf, young lion and fattened lamb together,
with a little child to lead them.

<sup>7</sup> Cow and bear will feed together, their young will lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox.

<sup>8</sup> An infant will play on a cobra's hole,
a toddler put his hand in a viper's nest.

<sup>9</sup> They will not hurt or destroy anywhere on my holy mountain, for the earth will be as full of the knowledge of ADONAI
as water covering the sea.

<sup>10</sup> On that day the root of Yishai, which stands as a banner for the peoples —
the Goyim will seek him out, and the place where he rests will be glorious.

<sup>11</sup> On that day Adonai will raise his hand again, a second time, to reclaim the remnant of his people who remain

from Ashur, Egypt, Patros, Ethiopia, ‘Eilam, Shin’ar,
Hamat and the islands in the sea.

<sup>12</sup> He will hoist a banner for the Goyim, assemble the dispersed of Isra’el, and gather the scattered of Y’hudah from the four corners of the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Efrayim’s jealousy will cease—
those who harass Y’hudah will be cut off, Efrayim will stop envying Y’hudah, and Y’hudah will stop provoking Efrayim.

<sup>14</sup> They will swoop down on the flank of the P’lishtim to the west.
Together they will pillage the people to the east —
they will put out their hand over Edom and Mo’av, and the people of ‘Amon will obey them.

<sup>15</sup> ADONAI will dry up the gulf of the Egyptian Sea.
He will shake his hand over the [Euphrates] River to bring a scorching wind, dividing it into seven streams and enabling people to cross dryshod.

<sup>16</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant of his people who are still left from Ashur,
just as there was for Isra'el
when he came out from the land of Egypt.

12<sup>1</sup> On that day you will say:

“I thank you, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, because, although you were angry at me,
your anger is now turned away;
and you are comforting me.

<sup>3</sup> “See! God is my salvation.
I am confident and unafraid;
for Yah A<sub>DONAI</sub> is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation!”

<sup>3</sup> Then you will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation.

<sup>4</sup> On that day you will say,
“Give thanks to A<sub>DONAI</sub>! Call on his name!

Make his deeds known among the peoples, declare how exalted is his name.

<sup>5</sup> Sing to ADONAI, for he has triumphed—
this is being made known throughout the earth.

<sup>6</sup> Shout and sing for joy,
you who live in Tziyon;
for the Holy One of Isra'el is with you in his greatness!”

13 <sup>1</sup> This is a prophecy about Bavel, which Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz saw:

<sup>2</sup> Hoist a banner on a high mountain,
shout to [the invaders];
beckon them to enter the Nobles' Gate.

<sup>3</sup> “I have ordered my holy ones, summoned my heroes, eager and bold,
to execute my anger.”

<sup>4</sup> Listen! A tumult on the mountains —
it sounds like a vast multitude!
Listen! The uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathering together!

A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot is mustering an army for war.

<sup>5</sup> They come from a distant land,

from beyond the horizon.

It's A<sub>DONAI</sub>, with the weapons of his rage, to lay waste to all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> Howl! for the Day of A<sub>DONAI</sub> is at hand, destruction coming from Shaddai.

<sup>7</sup> This is why every arm will hang limp and everyone's courage melt away.

<sup>8</sup> They will be gripped by panic, seized with pain and agony, writhing like a woman in labor,

looking aghast at each other, faces aflame.

<sup>9</sup> Here comes the Day of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, full of cruelty, rage and hot fury,

to desolate the earth and destroy the sinners in it.

For the stars, the constellations in the sky,
will no longer give their light;
the sun will be dark when it rises;
and the moon will no longer shine.

<sup>11</sup> “I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their iniquity.
I will end the arrogance of the proud and humble the insolence of tyrants.

<sup>12</sup> I will make humans rarer than gold, scarcer than Ofir’s pure gold.

<sup>13</sup> This is why I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken from its place at the wrath of ADONAI-Tzva’ot
on the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>14</sup> Then, like a hunted gazelle, like sheep with no one to gather them,
everyone will head back to his own people;
everyone will flee to his own land.

<sup>15</sup> Anyone found will be pierced through;

anyone caught will fall by the sword,

<sup>16</sup>        their babies dashed to pieces before their eyes, their houses looted, their wives raped.

<sup>17</sup>        I will stir up against them the Medes, who cannot be tempted by silver or bought off with gold.

<sup>18</sup>        Their bows will tear young men to pieces, they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb,
their eye will not spare children.”

<sup>19</sup>        Thus Bavel, that jewel of kingdoms, the pride and glory of the Kasdim, will be like S’dom and ‘Amora
when overthrown by God.

<sup>20</sup>        It will never again be inhabited, never lived in through all generations.
Arabs will not pitch tents there nor shepherds bring their flocks.

<sup>21</sup>        But wildcats will lie there, their houses will be full of owls,

ostriches will live there,
and wild goats will dance there.

<sup>22</sup> Jackals will howl in their palaces and wild dogs in their temples of delight.

Its time is close at hand,
its days will not last long.

14 <sup>1</sup> For ADONAI will have compassion on Ya‘akov — he will once again choose Isra’el and resettle them in their own land, where foreigners will join them, attaching themselves to the house of Ya‘akov. <sup>2</sup> Peoples will take and escort them to their homeland, and the house of Isra’el will possess them in the land of ADONAI as male and female slaves. They will take their captors captive and rule over their oppressors. <sup>3</sup> Then, when ADONAI gives you rest from your suffering and trouble and from the hard service imposed on you, <sup>4</sup> you will take up this taunt-song against the king of Bavel:

“At last the oppressor is stilled, his arrogance is ended!

<sup>5</sup> ADONAI has broken the staff of the wicked,
the scepter of the rulers,

<sup>6</sup> which furiously struck down peoples with unceasing blows, angrily beating down nations with relentless persecution.

The whole earth is at rest and quiet.

They break into song.

<sup>8</sup> The cypresses rejoice over you,

with the cedars of the L'vanon —

‘Now that you are laid low,

no one comes to cut us down.’

<sup>9</sup> “Sh’ol below is stirred up to meet you when you come.

It awakens for you the ghosts of the dead

who were leaders on earth;

it makes all the kings of the nations arise from their thrones.

<sup>10</sup> They all greet you with these words:

‘Now you are as weak as we are,

you have become like us!

<sup>11</sup> Your pride has been brought down to Sh’ol with the music of your lyres, under you a mattress of maggots,

over you a blanket of worms.’

<sup>12</sup> “How did you come to fall from the heavens, morning star, son of the dawn?

How did you come to be cut to the ground, conqueror of nations?

<sup>13</sup> You thought to yourself, ‘I will scale the heavens,

I will raise my throne above God’s stars.

I will sit on the Mount of Assembly far away in the north.

<sup>14</sup> I will rise past the tops of the clouds,

I will make myself like the Most High.’

<sup>15</sup> “Instead you are brought down to Sh’ol, to the uttermost depths of the pit.

<sup>16</sup> Those who see you will stare at you, reflecting on what has become of you:

‘Is this the man who shook the earth,

who made kingdoms tremble,

<sup>17</sup> who made the world a desert,

who destroyed its cities,

who would not set his prisoners free?’

<sup>18</sup> “All other kings of the nations, all of them, lie in glory, each in his tomb.

<sup>19</sup> But you are discarded, unburied,
like a loathed branch,
clothed like the slain who were pierced by the sword,
then fall to the stones inside a pit,
like a corpse to be trampled underfoot.

<sup>20</sup> You will not be joined with those kings in the grave, because you destroyed your own land,
you have brought death to your own people.
The descendants of evildoers will be utterly forgotten.

<sup>21</sup> Get ready to slaughter his sons
for the iniquity of their fathers;
so they won't arise, take over the earth and cover the world with their cities.”

<sup>22</sup> “I will arise against them,”
says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.
“I will cut off from Bavel name and remnant, offshoot and offspring,” says ADONAI.

<sup>23</sup> “I will make it a haunt for hedgehogs, it will become a swampy waste,
I will sweep it with the broom of destruction,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot.

<sup>24</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot has sworn,
“Just as I thought it, it will occur;
just as I planned it, so it will be.

<sup>25</sup> I will break Ashur in my land,
I will trample him down on my mountains.
Then his yoke will fall off them,
his burden be removed from their shoulders.”

<sup>26</sup> This is the program planned for all the earth,
this is the hand stretched out over all the nations.

<sup>27</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot has made his decision.

Who is there that can stop him?

He has stretched out his hand.

Who can turn it back?

<sup>28</sup> In the year that King Achaz died, this prophecy came:

<sup>29</sup> Do not rejoice, P’leshet, any of you, that the rod which struck you is broken;

for out of the snake's root will come a viper,
and his offspring will be a flying fiery serpent.

<sup>30</sup> While the firstborn of the poor graze and the needy lie down in safety,
I will kill off your root with famine and slaughter the rest of you.

<sup>31</sup> Howl, gate! Cry, city!
Melt away, P'leshet, all of you!
For a smoke is coming from the north,
with not a straggler in its ranks.

<sup>32</sup> And what is one to answer the messengers of the nation?
That A<sub>DONAI</sub> founded Tziyon, and there the poor of his people will find refuge.

15 <sup>1</sup> This is a prophecy about Mo'av:

The night 'Ar is sacked, Mo'av is ruined.
The night Kir is sacked, Mo'av is ruined.

<sup>2</sup> He went up to the temple,

to Dibon and to the high places, to weep.

On N'vo and Meidva Mo'av is howling, every head shaved bald, every beard cut off.

<sup>3</sup> In the streets they wear sackcloth;
on their roofs and in their squares,
everyone howls and weeps profusely.

<sup>4</sup> Heshbon and El'aleh cry out,
they are heard as far as Yachatz.
Mo'av's best troops cry aloud,
as their courage faints away.

<sup>5</sup> My heart cries out for Mo'av!
Its fugitives flee to Tzo'ar,
a calf three years old.
They ascend the slope of Luchit, weeping as they go;
on their way to Horonayim,
they utter heartrending cries.

<sup>6</sup> The waters of Nimrim are desolate,
the grass is dried up, the new growth fails, nothing green is left.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore they carry away their wealth,
everything they have put aside,
across the Vadi of the Willows.

<sup>8</sup> For the cry has circulated throughout Mo'av's territory — its howling has reached Eglayim, its howling has reached Be'er-Elim.

<sup>9</sup> For the waters of Dimon are full of blood, yet I have worse in store for Dimon — a lion for those who escape from Mo'av and for those who remain in its land.

16 <sup>1</sup> Send lambs for the ruler of the land from the crags toward the desert to the mountain of the daughter of Tziyon.

<sup>2</sup> The daughters of Mo'av at the fords of the Arnon are like fluttering birds pushed from the nest.

<sup>3</sup> “Give [us] counsel! Decide [to help]!
Make your shadow [over us]
like night in the middle of noonday.

Hide [our] outcasts! Don't betray [our] fugitives!

<sup>4</sup> Let our outcasts live with you!

Protect Mo'av from the attacks of robbers!"

For when the extorting ends, the spoiling ceases, and those trampling on the land are destroyed,

<sup>5</sup> a throne will be set up by grace, and on it, in the tent of David,

will sit an honest judge,

seeking justice and pursuing righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> We have heard about Mo'av's pride, how very proud they are;

about their haughty arrogance,

their insolence and bravado.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore Mo'av will wail for Mo'av —

they will all wail!

You will sigh, stricken by grief,

for the raisin-cakes of Kir-Hareset.

<sup>8</sup> For the grainfields of Heshbon are withering, also the vineyards of Sibmah, whose red grapes overpowered rulers of nations —

once they reached as far as Ya‘zer and trailed out into the desert;
their spreading branches even crossed the sea.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore I will weep for Sibmah’s vine

as I weep for Ya‘zer;

I will water you with my tears,

Heshbon and El‘aleh;

because the shouts of battle are falling on your summer fruits and harvest;

<sup>10</sup> gladness and joy are removed from the fruitful fields.

No revelry in the vineyards,

no happy shouting,

no one treading grapes in the wine presses —

I have silenced the vintage-cheers.

<sup>11</sup> This is why my heart throbs like a lyre for Mo‘av,

and everything in me

for Kir-Heres.

<sup>12</sup> Even when Mo'av is seen growing weary of worshipping on the high places and entering their sanctuaries to pray,
they will have accomplished nothing.

<sup>13</sup> This is the word ADONAI spoke against Mo'av in the past. <sup>14</sup> But now ADONAI has said, "Within three years [and not a day more], as if a hired worker were keeping track of the time, the glory of Mo'av will be brought into contempt, despite its large population; and the surviving remnant will be few and feeble."

17 <sup>1</sup> This is a prophecy about Dammešek:

"Dammešek will soon stop being a city;
it will become a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup> The cities of 'Aro'er will be abandoned, given over to flocks lying down undisturbed.

<sup>3</sup> Efrayim will have no defenses, Dammešek will cease to rule, and Aram's survivors will share the fate of Isra'el's finest sons,"
says ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

<sup>4</sup> "When that day comes, Ya'akov's glory will wane, and his full body grow thin,

<sup>5</sup> as when the harvester collects the standing grain, reaping the ears of grain with his arm;
yes, as when they glean the grain
in the Refa'im Valley.

<sup>6</sup> Yet gleanings will be left,
as when beating an olive tree —
two or three olives at the very top, four or five on its fruitful branches,” says ADONAI, the God of Isra'el.

<sup>7</sup> On that day, a person will heed his Maker and turn his eyes toward the Holy One of Isra'el.

<sup>8</sup> He will pay no heed to the altars made with his own hands,
he will not turn toward what his fingers made,
the sacred poles and standing-stones for sun-worship.

<sup>9</sup> When that day comes, his strong cities, which others abandoned when Isra'el advanced,
will be like abandoned woods and forests;

they will be laid waste.

<sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten the God who saved you, failed to remember the Rock of your strength;
so you plant pagan-style gardens and set out vine-cuttings for a foreign god.

<sup>11</sup> Though you make them grow on the day you plant them, and in the morning your seedlings flower;
the crop will vanish the day disease comes,
a day of incurable pain.

<sup>12</sup> Oh, the terror-stricken uproar of many peoples, roaring like the roar of the seas,
and the rushing about of nations,
rushing and surging like wild, wild waters!

<sup>13</sup> Yes, the nations will roar like the mighty ocean, but he will rebuke them, and far will they flee, driven like chaff by a mountain wind,
like whirling dust in advance of the storm.

<sup>14</sup> As evening falls, you can see terror;
before sunrise, they have ceased to be.

This is the lot of those who plunder us,
the fate of those who prey on us.

18<sup>1</sup> Woe to the land of whirring wings

beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;

<sup>2</sup> they send ambassadors by sea,

across the water in papyrus-reed boats!

Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and bronzed, to a people feared far and near,

to a strong and conquering nation

whose land is divided by rivers!

<sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world,

you who live on the earth:

when a banner is hoisted on the mountains, look!

When the shofar is blown, listen!

<sup>4</sup> For ADONAI has said this to me:

“I will look on from my place and do nothing, like heat shimmering in the sun,

like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

<sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when the flowering is over, and the bud becomes a ripening grape,

he will cut off the branches with pruning-knives,
lop off the twigs and take them away.

<sup>6</sup> They will all be left to the vultures in the mountains and to the wild animals in the fields;
the vultures will feed on them in summer,
and the wild animals of the fields in winter.

<sup>7</sup> At that time tribute will be brought to ADONAI-Tzva'ot
from a nation tall and bronzed, from a people feared far and near,
from a strong and conquering nation
whose land is divided by rivers,
to the place where the name of Adonai-Tzva'ot lives, Mount Tziyon.

19 <sup>1</sup> This is a prophecy about Egypt:

Look! ADONAI is riding a swift cloud,
on his way to Egypt.

Before him Egypt's idols tremble,

Egypt's courage melts within them.

<sup>2</sup> "I will incite Egypt against Egypt, brother will fight against brother, friend against friend, city against city,
kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>3</sup> The courage of Egypt will ebb away within it,
I will reduce its counsel to confusion.
They will consult idols and mediums, ghosts and spirits.

<sup>4</sup> I will hand over the Egyptians to a cruel master.
A harsh king will rule them," says the Lord, ADONAI-Tzva'ot.

<sup>5</sup> The water will ebb from the sea,
the river will be drained dry.

<sup>6</sup> The rivers will become foul,
the canals of Egypt's Nile will dwindle and dry up,
the reeds and rushes will wither.

<sup>7</sup> The river-plants on the banks of the Nile and everything sown near the Nile will dry up, blow away and be no more.

<sup>8</sup> Fishermen too will lament,
all who cast hooks in the Nile will mourn,
those who spread nets on the water lose heart.

<sup>9</sup> The linen-workers will be in despair, along with the weavers of white cotton;

<sup>10</sup> the spinners will be crushed,
the hired workers dejected.

<sup>11</sup> The princes of Tzo'an are utter fools,
Pharaoh's wisest counselors give stupid advice.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I'm a sage, descended from kings of old."

<sup>12</sup> Where are they, then, those sages of yours?

Let them tell you, so all can know what ADONAI-Tzva'ot has planned against Egypt!

<sup>13</sup> The princes of Tzo'an have been fooled,

the princes of Nof have been duped,

Egypt's clan chiefs have led her astray.

<sup>14</sup> ADONAI has mixed up their minds with a spirit that distorts judgment,

so they make Egypt stagger in whatever she does,

like a drunk staggering in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup> Nobody in Egypt

will find work to do —

neither head nor tail,

neither [tall] palm frond nor [lowly] reed.

<sup>16</sup> On that day Egypt will be like women trembling with fear, because ADONAI-Tzva'ot is shaking his fist at them. <sup>17</sup> Just mentioning the land of Y'hudah to the Egyptians will throw them into panic; they will be afraid because of what ADONAI-Tzva'ot has planned for them.

<sup>18</sup> On that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Kena'an and swear loyalty to ADONAI-Tzva'ot; one of them will be called the City of Destruction.*

<sup>19</sup> On that day there will be an altar to ADONAI in the middle of the land of Egypt, as well as a standing-stone for ADONAI at its border. <sup>20</sup> It will be a sign and witness to ADONAI-Tzva'ot in the land of Egypt; so that when they cry out to ADONAI for help because of the oppressors, he will send them a savior to defend and rescue them.

<sup>21</sup> ADONAI will make himself known to Egypt;

on that day, the Egyptians will know ADONAI.

They will worship him with sacrifices and offerings,

they will make vows to ADONAI and keep them.

<sup>22</sup> Yet ADONAI will strike Egypt, both striking and healing, so they will return to ADONAI.

He will listen to their prayers, and he will heal them.

<sup>23</sup> On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Ashur.

Ashur will come to Egypt and Egypt to Ashur,

and Egypt will worship with Ashur.

<sup>24</sup> On that day Isra'el will be a third partner with Egypt and Ashur, a blessing here on earth;

<sup>25</sup> for ADONAI-Tzva'ot has blessed him:

“Blessed be Egypt my people,

Ashur the work of my hands and Isra'el my heritage.”

20 <sup>1</sup> In the year that Sargon the king of Ashur sent his commander-in-chief to attack Ashdod, he captured it. <sup>2</sup> It was at that time that A<sub>DONAI</sub>, speaking through Yesha'yahu the son of Amotz, said, "Go and unwind the sackcloth from around your waist, and take your sandals off your feet." So he did it, going about unclothed and barefoot. <sup>3</sup>In time, A<sub>DONAI</sub> said,

"Just as my servant Yesha'yahu has gone about unclothed and barefoot for three years as a sign and portent against Egypt and Ethiopia,

<sup>4</sup> so will the king of Ashur lead away

the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, unclothed and barefoot,

with their buttocks exposed, to the shame of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> They will be dismayed and ashamed because of Ethiopia their hope and Egypt their pride.

<sup>6</sup> On that day, the people living along this coast will say,

'Look what happened to the people to whom we fled for help, hoping they would rescue us from the king of Ashur!

How will we escape now?’”

21 <sup>1</sup> A prophecy about the coastal desert:

Like whirlwinds sweeping over the Negev, it comes from the desert, from a fearsome land.

<sup>2</sup> A dire vision has been shown to me:
the betrayer betrays, and the spoiler spoils.

‘Eilam, advance! Madai, lay siege!

I will end all groaning.

<sup>3</sup> This is why my insides are racked with pain;
I am seized by pangs, like a woman in labor;
wrenched by what I hear,
aghast at what I see.

<sup>4</sup> My mind reels, shuddering assails me.

The twilight I longed for terrifies me.

<sup>5</sup> They set the table, light the lamps, eat and drink —

“Get going, princes! Oil the shields!”

<sup>6</sup> For this is what Adonai said to me:

“Go, post a watchman to report what he sees!

<sup>7</sup> If he sees the cavalry, horsemen in pairs, riders on donkeys, riders on camels,
he must be on alert, on full alert!”

<sup>8</sup> He calls out like a lion: “My lord,
I stand on the watchtower all day long,
I stay at my post all night.”

<sup>9</sup> Then, as they appeared — the cavalry, horsemen in pairs — he spoke these words:
“She has fallen! She has fallen — Bavel!
All the carved images of her gods lie shattered on the ground.”

<sup>10</sup> My people, who have been threshed, grain trodden down on my threshing-floor:
I am telling you what I have heard from A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot, the God of Isra’el.

<sup>11</sup> A prophecy about Dumah:
Someone is calling to me from Se‘ir:
“Watchman, how much longer is it night?
Watchman, how much longer is it night?”

<sup>12</sup> The watchman answers:

“Morning is coming, but also the night.

If you want to ask, ask! Come back again!”

<sup>13</sup> A prophecy about Arabia:

You caravans of D’danim will camp in the desert growth of Arabia.

<sup>14</sup> Bring water to the thirsty, you who live in Teima, greet the fugitives with food;

<sup>15</sup> because they are fleeing the sword, the drawn sword, the bent bow and the press of battle.

<sup>16</sup> For this is what Adonai has told me: “Within a year [and not a day more], as if a hired worker were keeping track of the time, the glory of Kedar will come to an end. <sup>17</sup> Few of Kedar’s valiant archers will be left.” ADONAI the God of Isra’el has spoken.

22 <sup>1</sup> A prophecy about the Valley of Vision:

Tell me what is wrong with you,

that you have all gone up on the roofs.

<sup>2</sup> You city full of noise, confusion and boisterous excitement, your slain did not fall to the sword,

nor did they die in battle.

<sup>3</sup> All your leaders fled together and were captured without the use of a bow;
all from you who were found were captured,
even though they had fled far away.

<sup>4</sup> This is why I said, “Don’t look at me, leave me alone to weep bitterly,
don’t try to comfort me
over the destruction of my people.”

<sup>5</sup> For it is a day of panic, trampling and confusion
from Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva’ot
in the Valley of Vision.
With walls crashing down,
they cry for help to the mountains.

<sup>6</sup> ‘Eilam picks up the quivers, with cavalry and horsemen,
and Kir uncovers the shields.

<sup>7</sup> In time, your choicest valleys are overrun by chariots,

and the cavalry take their posts by the gate;
<sup>8</sup> thus is Y'hudah's protection removed.

That day you looked for the armor
in the House of the Forest

<sup>9</sup> You saw how many breaches there were in the City of David,
you collected water from the lower pool,

<sup>10</sup> you surveyed the houses in Yerushalayim, tearing some down to fortify the wall.

<sup>11</sup> You also built a reservoir between the two walls for the water from the Old Pool;
but you didn't look to Him who made these things;
you had no respect for Him who fashioned them long ago.

<sup>12</sup> That day Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva'ot called on you to weep and mourn,
to shave your heads and wear sackcloth;

<sup>13</sup> but instead, one sees joy and celebrating, killing of oxen, slaughtering of sheep, eating of meat, drinking of wine —

“Let’s eat and drink now,

because tomorrow we’ll be dead!”

<sup>14</sup> Then Adonai-Tzva’ot revealed himself in my ears: “You will not atone for this iniquity until you die.” This is what Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva’ot says.

<sup>15</sup> Thus says Adonai ELOHIM-Tzva’ot: “Go and find that steward, Shevna, administrator of the palace, and ask him:

<sup>16</sup> ‘What do you own here,

and who gave you the right to cut yourself a tomb here?

Why do you get such an eminent tomb?

Why are you carving a resting-place for yourself in the rock?”’

<sup>17</sup> Look, strong man! ADONAI is about to throw you out! He will grab you,

<sup>18</sup> roll you up, and toss you around like a ball in the open country.

There you will die, with your fancy chariots,

you disgrace to your master’s palace!

<sup>19</sup> “I will remove you from your office,

I will snatch you from your post.

<sup>20</sup> When that day comes, I will summon my servant Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu.

<sup>21</sup> I will dress him in your robe, gird him with your sash of office,
and invest him with your authority.
He will be a father to the people living in Yerushalayim and to the house of Y'hudah.

<sup>22</sup> I will place the key of David's house on his shoulder;
no one will shut what he opens;
no one will open what he shuts.

<sup>23</sup> "I will fasten him firmly in place like a peg, so that he will become a seat of honor for his clan. <sup>24</sup> They will hang on him all the weight of his clan, descendants and offspring, as well as all the vessels of small capacity, from pitchers to cups. <sup>25</sup> When that day comes, the peg fastened firmly in place will give way; it will be cut down and fall, and the weight that was on it will be cut off." For ADONAI has said it.

23 <sup>1</sup> A prophecy about Tzor:

Howl, you "Tarshish" ships,

because the harbor is destroyed!

On returning from Kittim,
they discover they cannot enter it.

<sup>2</sup> Silence, you who live on the coast,
you who have been enriched
by the merchants of Tzidon crossing the sea.

<sup>3</sup> By the great water the grain of Shichor,
the harvest of the Nile, brought you profits.
She was marketplace for the nations.

<sup>4</sup> Shame, Tzidon, for the sea speaks;
the fortress of the sea says,
“I no longer have labor pains or bear children, yet I have raised neither boys nor girls.”

<sup>5</sup> When the report reaches Egypt, they will be in anguish at the fate of Tzor.

<sup>6</sup> Cross over to Tarshish!
Howl, you who live on the coast!

<sup>7</sup> Is this your boisterous city, whose feet long ago in antiquity carried her off to found distant colonies?

<sup>8</sup>       Who planned this against Tzor,
the city that once bestowed crowns,
whose merchants are princes,
whose traders are honored throughout the earth?

<sup>9</sup>       ADONAI-Tzva 'ot planned it to break the pride of all the arrogant, to humiliate all those who are honored everywhere on earth.

<sup>10</sup>       People of Tarshish!
Nothing restricts you now.
You can flow freely over your land
just like the Nile River.

<sup>11</sup>       He has stretched out his hand against the sea,
he has shaken kingdoms;
ADONAI has ordered that Kena'an's fortresses be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>       He has said, "Exult no more, oppressed virgin daughter of Tzidon.

Arise, cross to Kittim;
even there you will find no rest.”

<sup>13</sup> Look at the land of the Kasdim!

This was the people who did not exist
when Ashur destined it for desert creatures.

They erected their siege towers and tore down her palaces,
so that it has been made a ruin.

<sup>14</sup> Howl, you “Tarshish” ships, because your fortress is destroyed.

<sup>15</sup> When that day comes, Tzor will be forgotten for seventy years, the lifetime of a king. After seventy years, its fate will be the same as that of the prostitute in this song:

<sup>16</sup> “Take a lyre, walk the city,

you poor, forgotten whore!

Play sweetly, sing all your songs, so that they will remember you!”

<sup>17</sup> After seventy years are over ADONAI will remember Tzor. She will receive her wages again and prostitute herself to all the world’s kingdoms on the face of the earth. <sup>18</sup>But her merchandise and profits will be dedicated to ADONAI; they will not be stored up or hoarded, because her profits will be for those living in A<sub>DONAI</sub>'s presence, so that they can eat their fill and wear fine clothing.

24<sup>1</sup> Look! A<sub>DONAI</sub> is stripping and destroying the land, turning it upside down and scattering its inhabitants —

<sup>2</sup> cohen and commoner, slave and master, maid and mistress, buyer and seller, lender and borrower, creditor and debtor.

<sup>3</sup> The land will be completely stripped, completely plundered,

for A<sub>DONAI</sub> has spoken this word.

<sup>4</sup> The land fades and withers,

the world wilts and withers,

the exalted of the land languish.

<sup>5</sup> The land lies defiled under its inhabitants;

because they have transgressed the teachings,

changed the law

and broken the everlasting covenant.

Therefore a curse is devouring the land,
and its inhabitants are punished for their guilt.
It is why those living there waste away,
and the people left are few.

<sup>7</sup> The new wine fails, the vines wilt,
all the revelers sigh,

<sup>8</sup> the happy sound of tambourines ceases,
the shouts of merrymakers are stilled,
the joy of the lyre ends.

<sup>9</sup> They no longer sing as they drink their wine, strong liquor tastes bitter to those drinking it.

<sup>10</sup> The city of chaos is shattered, every house closed up; no one can enter.

<sup>11</sup> In the streets they are crying over the wine;
all joy has faded, cheer has left the land.

<sup>12</sup> In the city, only desolation, its gates are battered beyond repair.

<sup>13</sup> Around the earth, among the peoples,
it will be as when beating an olive tree,

as when gleaning the grapes at the end of the harvest.

<sup>14</sup> They lift their voices, singing for joy, shouting from the west to honor A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>15</sup> So in the east, honor A<sub>DONAI</sub>;

in the coastlands, honor the name of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

the God of Isra'el.

<sup>16</sup> From the farthest part of the earth

we have heard them sing,

“Glory to the Righteous One!”

But, I say, I'm wasting away,

I am wasting away!

Woe to me! Traitors betray!

Oh, how the traitors betray and betray!

<sup>17</sup> Terror, pit and trap are upon you,

you who are living on earth.

<sup>18</sup> He who flees at the sound of terror will fall into the pit.

He who climbs up out of the pit will be caught in the trap.

For the windows above have been opened,
and the earth's foundations shake.

<sup>19</sup> The earth cracks and breaks open,
the earth crumbles to pieces,
the earth trembles and totters.

<sup>20</sup> The earth staggers to and fro like a drunk, sways back and forth like a watchman's shelter;
its transgression weighs heavy upon it;
it will fall and not rise again.

<sup>21</sup> When that day comes, ADONAI will punish the armies of the high heaven on high,
and the kings of the earth here on earth.

<sup>22</sup> They will be assembled like prisoners in a dungeon and shut up in prison to be punished many years.

<sup>23</sup> Then the moon will be confused and the sun ashamed, for ADONAI-Tzva'ot will rule on Mount Tziyon and in Yerushalayim,
with his glory manifest to the rulers of his people.

25 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI, you are my God.

I exalt you, I praise your name.

For you have accomplished marvels,
[fulfilled] ancient plans faithfully and truly.

<sup>2</sup> For you have made a city a heap of stones, turned a fortified city into rubble, made the foreigners' fortress
a city that will never be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore mighty peoples glorify you,
the city of ruthless nations fears you.

<sup>4</sup> For you have been a refuge for the poor,
a refuge for the needy in distress,
shelter from the storm,
shade from the heat —
for the blast from the ruthless was like a storm that could destroy a wall.

<sup>5</sup> Like desert heat, you subdue
the foreigners' uproar;
like heat subdued by a cloud's shadow,
the song of the ruthless dies away.

<sup>6</sup> On this mountain ADONAI-Tzva'ot will make for all peoples
a feast of rich food and superb wines, delicious, rich food and superb, elegant wines.

<sup>7</sup> On this mountain he will destroy the veil which covers the face of all peoples,
the veil enshrouding all the nations.

<sup>8</sup> He will swallow up death forever.
Adonai ELOHIM will wipe away
the tears from every face, and he will remove from all the earth
the disgrace his people suffer.
For ADONAI has spoken.

<sup>9</sup> On that day they will say,
“See! This is our God!
We waited for him to save us.
This is ADONAI; we put our hope in him.
We are full of joy, so glad he saved us!”

<sup>10</sup> For on this mountain

the hand of ADONAI will rest.

But Mo'av will be trampled down where they are,
like straw trampled into a pile of manure.

<sup>11</sup> They will spread out their hands in Mo'av, like a swimmer using his hands to tread water;
but their pride will be humbled and sunk,
no matter how clever the strokes of their hands.

<sup>12</sup> Your high, fortified walls he will level, strike to the ground, lay in the dust.

26 <sup>1</sup> On that day this song will be sung in the land of Y'hudah:

“We have a strong city!

He has built walls and ramparts for our safety.

<sup>2</sup> Open the gates! Let the righteous nation enter,
a nation that keeps faith!

<sup>3</sup> “A person whose desire rests on you you preserve in perfect peace, because he trusts in you.

<sup>4</sup> Trust in ADONAI forever, because in Yah A<sub>DONAI</sub>

is a Rock of Ages.”

<sup>5</sup> For he has humbled those in high places, levelling the lofty city,

levelling it to the ground,

laying it in the dust.

<sup>6</sup> It is trampled underfoot by the feet of the poor,

by the footsteps of the needy.

<sup>7</sup> The way of the righteous is level;

Righteous One, you smooth the path for the righteous.

<sup>8</sup> Following the way of your judgments,

we put our hope in you.

The desire of all our soul is to remember you and your name.

<sup>9</sup> My soul desires you at night,

my spirit in me seeks you at dawn;

for when your judgments are here on earth,

the people in the world learn what righteousness is.

<sup>10</sup> Even if pity is shown to the wicked,

he still doesn't learn what righteousness is.

In a land of uprightness he will still act wrongly and fail to see the majesty of ADONAI.

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI, you raised your hand,

but they still didn't see.

Yet with shame they will see your zeal for the people.

Yes, fire will destroy your enemies.

<sup>12</sup> ADONAI, you will grant us peace;

because all we have done, you have done for us.

<sup>13</sup> ADONAI our God, other lords

besides you have ruled us,

but only you do we invoke

by name.

<sup>14</sup> The dead will not live again,

the ghosts will not rise again;

for you punished and destroyed them, wiped out all memory of them.

<sup>15</sup> You enlarged the nation, ADONAI,

you enlarged the nation;

and thus you glorified yourself;
you extended all the frontiers of the country.

<sup>16</sup>        A<sub>DONAI</sub>, when they were troubled, they sought you.

When you chastened them,
they poured out a silent prayer.

<sup>17</sup>        As a pregnant woman about to give birth cries out and writhes in her labor pains, so we have been at your presence, A<sub>DONAI</sub> — <sup>18</sup>        we have been pregnant and been in pain.

But we, as it were, have given birth to wind;
we have not brought salvation to the land,
and those inhabiting the world have not come to life.

<sup>19</sup>        Your dead will live, my corpse will rise;
awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust;
for your dew is like the morning dew,
and the earth will bring the ghosts to life.

<sup>20</sup>        Come, my people, enter your rooms, and shut your doors behind you.

Hide yourselves for a little while until the wrath is past.

<sup>21</sup> For see! A<sub>DONAI</sub> emerges from his place to punish those on earth for their sin.
Then the earth will reveal the blood shed on it and no longer conceal its slain.

27 <sup>1</sup> On that day A<sub>DONAI</sub>, with his great, strong, relentless sword,
will punish Livyatan the fleeing serpent,
the twisting serpent Livyatan;
he will slay the sea monster.

<sup>2</sup> On that day, a pleasant vineyard — sing about it!

<sup>3</sup> “I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, guard it.
Moment by moment I water it.
So that no harm will come to it,
I guard it night and day.

<sup>4</sup> I have no anger in me.
If it gives me briars and thorns, then, as in war, I will trample it down and burn it up at once;

<sup>5</sup> unless it takes hold of my strength, in order to make peace with me,
yes, to make peace with me.”

<sup>6</sup> The time is coming when Ya‘akov will take root;
Isra’el will bud and flower,
and fill the whole world with a harvest.

<sup>7</sup> [ADONAI] will not strike Isra’el, as he did others who struck Isra’el;
he will not kill them,
as he did the others.

<sup>8</sup> Your controversy with her is fully resolved
by sending her [into exile].
He removes her with a rough gust of wind
on a day when it’s blowing from the east.

<sup>9</sup> So the iniquity of Ya‘akov is atoned for by this,
and removing his sin produces this result:
he chops up all the altar stones like chalk — sacred poles and sun-pillars stand no more.

<sup>10</sup>

For the fortified city is alone, abandoned and deserted, like the desert.
Calves graze and lie down there, stripping its branches bare.

<sup>11</sup>

When its harvest dries up, it is broken off;
women come and set it on fire.
For this is a people without understanding.
Therefore he who made them will not pity them,
he who formed them will show them no mercy.

<sup>12</sup>

On that day A<sub>DONAI</sub> will beat out the grain between the Euphrates River and the Vadi of Egypt;
and you will be gathered, one by one,
people of Isra'el!

<sup>13</sup>

On that day a great shofar will sound.
Those lost in the land of Ashur will come,
also those scattered through the land of Egypt;
and they will worship A<sub>DONAI</sub>
on the holy mountain in Yerushalayim.

28<sup>1</sup> Woe to the haughty crown of Efrayim's drunks, to the fading flower of its proud splendor,

located at the head of the rich valley

belonging to people overcome by wine!

<sup>2</sup> Adonai has someone strong and powerful.

He comes like a hailstorm, a destructive tempest,

like a flood of water, rushing, overwhelming;

with his hand he hurls them to the ground.

<sup>3</sup> The haughty crown of Efrayim's drunks

is trampled underfoot;

<sup>4</sup> and the fading flower of its proud splendor,

located at the head of the rich valley,

is like the first ripe fig of summer —

whoever sees it picks and eats it.

<sup>5</sup> On that day, ADONAI-Tzva'ot

will be a glorious crown,

a brilliant diadem

for the remnant of his people.

<sup>6</sup> He will also be a spirit of justice for whoever sits as a judge, and a source of strength for those repelling enemy attacks at the gate.

<sup>7</sup> But there are others reeling from wine, stagging about because of strong liquor;
cohen and prophet reel from strong liquor,
they are confused by wine.
Led astray by strong liquor,
they err in their visions and stumble when judging.

<sup>8</sup> All tables are covered with vomit and feces, not a single place is clean.

<sup>9</sup> Can no one be taught anything?
Can no one understand the message?
Must one teach barely weaned toddlers,
babies just taken from the breast,

<sup>10</sup> so that [one has to use nursery rhymes]? —
Tzav la-tzav, tzav la-tzav,
kav la-kav, kav la-kav
z'eir sham, z'eir sham

[Precept by precept, precept by precept,
line by line, line by line,
a little here, a little there].

<sup>11</sup> So with stammering lips, in a foreign accent,
[A<sub>DONAI</sub>] will speak to this people.

<sup>12</sup> He once told this people, “It’s time to rest, the exhausted can rest, now you can relax” —
but they wouldn’t listen.

<sup>13</sup> So now the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub> for them comes “precept by precept, precept by precept,
line by line, line by line,
a little here, a little there,”
so that when they walk, they stumble backward, and are broken, trapped and captured!

<sup>14</sup> So listen to the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, you scoffers, composing taunts for this people in Yerushalayim:

<sup>15</sup> Because you said, “We made a covenant with death, we made a contract with Sh’ol.

When the raging flood passes through,

it will not touch us.

For we have made lies our refuge and hid ourselves in falsehoods” —

<sup>16</sup> therefore here is what Adonai ELOHIM says:

“Look, I am laying in Tziyon a tested stone, a costly cornerstone,
a firm foundation-stone;
he who trusts will not rush here and there.

<sup>17</sup> I will make justice the plumbline and righteousness the plumb-bob;
hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
water will overflow the hiding place,

<sup>18</sup> your covenant with death will be annulled, and your contract with Sh’ol will not stand.
When the raging flood passes through,
you will be trampled down by it.

<sup>19</sup> As often as it passes through, it will take you,
for it will pass through every morning,
day after day, night after night;

understanding the message will be sheer terror.”

<sup>20</sup> For, [as the saying goes,]

“The bed is too short for a person to stretch, and the blanket too narrow [to protect him from cold]
even if he crams himself in.”

<sup>21</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> will arise, as at Mount P’ratzim, and storm with rage, as in the Giv’on Valley;

so he can do his deed, his strange deed,
and perform his task, his alien task.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, now, stop your scoffing, or your bonds will be further tightened;

for I have heard from Adonai E<sub>LOHIM</sub>-Tzva’ot that destruction is decreed for the whole land.

<sup>23</sup> Listen and hear my voice;

pay attention, and hear what I say:

<sup>24</sup> Does a farmer sowing keep plowing forever?

Does he never stop breaking up and harrowing his land?

<sup>25</sup> No — when he finishes levelling it,

he scatters his dill-seed, sows his cumin, puts wheat in rows, barley where it belongs,

and plants buckwheat around the edges;

<sup>26</sup> because his God has taught him this,
has given him instruction.

<sup>27</sup> Dill must not be threshed with a sledge or cartwheels driven over cumin;
rather, dill one beats with a stick and cumin with a flail.

<sup>28</sup> When crushing grain for bread,
one doesn't thresh it forever;
one drives the horse and cart wheels over it but doesn't crush it to powder.

<sup>29</sup> This too comes from A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot — his counsel is wonderful, his wisdom great.

29<sup>1</sup> Woe to Ari'el [fireplace on God's altar, lion of God] —

Ari'el, the city where David encamped!

Celebrate the feasts for a few more years,

<sup>2</sup> but then I will bring trouble to Ari'el.

There will be mourning and moaning,

as she becomes truly an ari'el for me.

<sup>3</sup> I will encamp all around you, besiege you with towers and mount siege-works against you.

<sup>4</sup> Prostrate, you will speak from the ground;
your words will be stifled by the dust;
your voice will sound like a ghost in the ground,
your words like squeaks in the dust.

<sup>5</sup> But your many foes will become like fine powder,
the horde of tyrants like blowing chaff,
and it will happen very suddenly.

<sup>6</sup> You will be visited by ADONAI-Tzva'ot with thunder, earthquakes and loud noises, whirlwinds, tempests, flaming firestorms.

<sup>7</sup> Then, all the nations fighting Ari'el, every one at war with her,
the ramparts around her, the people that trouble her will fade like a dream, like a vision in the night.

<sup>8</sup> It will be like a hungry man dreaming he's eating;
but when he wakes up, his stomach is empty;

or like a thirsty man dreaming he's drinking;
but when he wakes up, he is dry and exhausted — it will be like this for the horde of all nations fighting against Mount Tziyon.

<sup>9</sup> If you make yourselves stupid, you will stay stupid!

If you blind yourselves, you will stay blind!

You are drunk, but not from wine;

you are staggering, but not from strong liquor.

<sup>10</sup> For ADONAI has poured over you a spirit of lethargy;

he has closed your eyes (that is, the prophets) and covered your heads (that is, the seers).

<sup>11</sup> For you this whole prophetic vision has become like the message in a sealed-up scroll.

When one gives it to someone who can read and says,

“Please read this,” he answers, “I can’t, because it’s sealed.”

<sup>12</sup> If the scroll is given to someone who can’t read with the request, “Please read this,” he says, “I can’t read.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Adonai said:

“Because these people approach me with empty words, and the honor they bestow on me is mere lip-service;

while in fact they have distanced their hearts from me,
and their ‘fear of me’ is just a mitzvah of human origin —

<sup>14</sup>       therefore, I will have to keep shocking these people with astounding and amazing things, until the ‘wisdom’ of their ‘wise ones’ vanishes, and the ‘discernment’ of their ‘discerning ones’ is hidden away.”

<sup>15</sup>       Woe to those who burrow down deep to hide their plans from ADONAI!
They work in the dark and say to themselves,
“Nobody sees us, nobody knows us.”

<sup>16</sup>       How you turn things upside down! —
Is the potter not better than the clay,
Does something made say of its maker,
“He didn’t make me”?
Does the product say of its producer,
“He has no discernment”?

<sup>17</sup>       In but a little while the L’vanon will be turned into a fruitful field,

and the fruitful field regarded as a forest.

<sup>18</sup>

On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book, and out of gloom and darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.

<sup>19</sup>

The humble will again rejoice in ADONAI
and the poor exult in the Holy One of Isra'el,

<sup>20</sup>

for the tyrant is now nothing, the scoffer is finished, and all alert to do evil are cut off —

<sup>21</sup>

those whose words make a man out to be a sinner, those who set traps for the arbitrator at the city gate, and those who groundlessly deny justice to the one in the right.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, here are the words of ADONAI, who redeemed Avraham, concerning the house of Ya'akov:

“Ya'akov will no longer be ashamed,
no longer will his face grow pale.

<sup>23</sup>

When his descendants see the work of my hands
among them, they will consecrate my name.
Yes, they will consecrate the Holy one of Ya'akov and stand in awe of the God of Isra'el.

<sup>24</sup> Those whose spirits stray will come to understand, and those who complain will learn their lesson.

30 <sup>1</sup> “Woe to the rebellious children,” says ADONAI.

“They make plans, but the plans are not mine;
they develop alliances, but not from my Spirit,
in order to pile sin upon sin.

<sup>2</sup> They go down to Egypt but don't consult me, seeking refuge in Pharaoh's protection, seeking shelter in Egypt's shadow.

<sup>3</sup> But Pharaoh's protection will bring you shame, shelter in Egypt's shadow will lead to disgrace.

<sup>4</sup> Though his princes are at Tzo'an,
and his envoys have reached Hannes,

<sup>5</sup> they all are disappointed with a people that doesn't help them, who give no assistance and no advantage,
only disappointment and disgrace.”

<sup>6</sup> A prophecy about the animals in the Negev:

In a land of trouble and anguish,
of lionesses and roaring lions,
of vipers and poisonous flying serpents,
they carry their riches on donkeys' backs and their treasures on camels' humps to a people who will not help them.

<sup>7</sup> For Egypt's help is worthless, pointless;
so I call her "Arrogance Doing Nothing."

<sup>8</sup> Now go, inscribe it on a tablet, write it for them in a scroll, so that on the final day it will be a witness forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup> For this is a rebellious people;
they are lying children, children who refuse to hear the Torah of ADONAI.

<sup>10</sup> They say to the seers, "Do not see!"
to those who have visions, "Do not tell us the visions you have as they really are;
but flatter us, fabricate illusions!"

<sup>11</sup> Get out of the way! Leave the path!

Rid us of the Holy One of Isra'el!"

<sup>12</sup> Therefore here is what the Holy One of Isra'el says:

"Because you reject this word,
trust in extortion and rely on deceit,

<sup>13</sup> this sin will become for you a crack bulging out high on a wall, showing signs it is ready to fall;
then suddenly, all at once, it breaks."

<sup>14</sup> He will break it like a clay pot, ruthlessly shattering it into pieces so tiny not even a potsherd remains for taking fire from the fireplace or scooping water from the cistern.

<sup>15</sup> For this is what Adonai ELOHIM,
the Holy One of Isra'el, says:
"Returning and resting is what will save you;
calmness and confidence will make you strong — but you want none of this!

<sup>16</sup>       ‘No!’ you say, ‘We will flee on horseback!’

Therefore you will surely flee.

And, ‘We will ride on swift ones!’

So your pursuers will be swift.

<sup>17</sup>       A thousand will flee at the threat of one,

you all will flee at the threat of five,

until you are left isolated,

like a flagstaff on a mountaintop,

like a banner on a hill.”

<sup>18</sup>       Yet Adonai is just waiting to show you favor,

he will have pity on you from on high;

for Adonai is a God of justice;

happy are all who wait for him!

<sup>19</sup>       People in Tziyon, who live in Yerushalayim, you will weep no more.

At the sound of your cry, he will show you his grace;

on hearing it, he will answer you.

<sup>20</sup>       Though Adonai may give you but bread and water, and not very much of that;

your teacher will no longer hide himself,
but with your own eyes you will see your teacher.

<sup>21</sup> With your ears you will hear a word from behind you:
“This is the way; stay on it, whether you go to the right or the left.”

<sup>22</sup> You will treat as unclean your silver-covered idols and your cast metal images plated with gold;
you will throw them away, like menstrual cloths;
you will say to them, “Get out of here!”

<sup>23</sup> Then he will give you rain for the seed
you use to sow your land;
and the food that comes from the ground
will be rich and abundant.
When that day comes, your cattle will graze in spacious pastures.

<sup>24</sup> The oxen and donkeys that work the land will eat a tasty mixture,
winnowed free of chaff,
spread by pitchfork and shovel.

On every high mountain and lofty hill will be streams and flowing brooks, on a day of great slaughter,
when the towers fall.

<sup>26</sup> Moreover, the light of the moon will be as bright as the light of the sun;
and the light of the sun will be seven times stronger, like the light of seven days [in one], on the day ADONAI binds up the wounds of his people and heals the bruise caused by the blow.

<sup>27</sup> Here comes the name of ADONAI from afar, his anger burning, in thick rising smoke.
His lips are full to the brim with fury,
his tongue a consuming fire.

<sup>28</sup> His breath is like a racing torrent that rises up to the neck,
to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction,
and put a bridle in the peoples' mouths to lead them astray.

<sup>29</sup> Your song will be like one that is sung on a night when a holy feast is kept,

and your hearts will be happy,
as if walking to the sound of the flute, to the mountain of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
to the Rock of Isra'el.

<sup>30</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> will make his glorious voice heard, and he will reveal his arm descending with furious anger in a flaming firestorm, with cloudbursts, tempests and hailstones.

<sup>31</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub>'s voice will terrify Ashur,
as with his scepter he strikes them down.

<sup>32</sup> Every sweep of the punishing rod that A<sub>DONAI</sub> imposes on him will be to tambourines and lyres,
as he brandishes his arm against them in battle.

<sup>33</sup> For the Tofet fire pit has long been ready, prepared for the king, made large and deep,
with plenty of wood and blazing with fire;
like a stream of sulfur, A<sub>DONAI</sub>'s breath sets it aflame.

31<sup>1</sup> Woe to those going down to Egypt expecting help — relying on horses;

trusting in chariots, because they have many,
and in the strength of their cavalrymen — but not looking to the Holy One of Isra'el, not consulting ADONAI.

<sup>2</sup> But he too is wise and can bring disaster, and he does not take back his words;

he will rise against the house of evildoers and against the help of those who do wrong.

<sup>3</sup> Now the Egyptians are men and not God,

and their horses flesh and not spirit.
So when ADONAI stretches out his hand,
both he who helps will stumble,
and he who is helped will fall;
both will perish together.

<sup>4</sup> For here is what ADONAI says to me:

“As a lion or lion cub growls at its prey and isn't frightened away by the shouts of hordes of shepherds called out against him — their voices do not upset him — so likewise A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot will descend to fight on Mount Tziyon, on its hill.

<sup>5</sup> Like hovering birds, A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot will protect Yerushalayim.
In protecting it, he will rescue it;
in sparing it, he will save it.

<sup>6</sup> People of Isra'el! Return to him to whom you have been so deeply disloyal!

<sup>7</sup> For on that day everyone will discard his idols of silver and idols of gold, which you made for yourselves
with your own sinful hands.

<sup>8</sup> Then Ashur will fall by a sword not of mortals, a sword, not of humans, will devour him;
he will flee before the sword,
and his young men will be put to forced labor.

<sup>9</sup> His rock, out of terror, will pass away, and his panicked officers will desert the standard.”

So says A<sub>DONAI</sub>, whose fire is in Tziyon, whose furnace is in Yerushalayim.

32<sup>1</sup> There is coming a king who will reign justly and princes who will rule uprightly.

<sup>2</sup> A man will be like a refuge from the wind, like protection from a storm,
like streams of water on arid ground,
like a rock cliff shading a weary land.

<sup>3</sup> The eyes of those seeing will not be closed,
the ears of those hearing will pay close attention.

<sup>4</sup> The minds of the impetuous will learn to weigh carefully, the tongues of the stutterers will speak readily and clearly.

<sup>5</sup> The mean person will no longer be called generous,
or the miserly said to be noble;

<sup>6</sup> for the mean person will speak meanness, his heart planning evil, so that he can act godlessly, spreading error concerning A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
as he lets the hungry go on starving and deprives the thirsty of drink.

<sup>7</sup>       The mean person's means are mean —
he devises wicked devices to ruin the poor and needy with lies,
even when their cause is just.

<sup>8</sup>       But the generous person devises generous things, and his generosity will keep him standing.

<sup>9</sup>       You women who are so complacent, listen to me!
Overconfident women, pay attention to my words!

<sup>10</sup>      In a year and a few days more,
you overconfident women will shudder,
because the vintage will fail,
the harvest will not come.

<sup>11</sup>      Tremble, you complacent women!
Shudder, you overconfident women!
Strip bare, wear sackcloth to cover yourselves.

<sup>12</sup>      Beat your breasts in mourning for the pleasant fields and fruitful vines,

<sup>13</sup>      for the land of my people, producing thorns and briars, for all the happy homes in the joyful city.

<sup>14</sup> For the palace will be abandoned,
the crowded city deserted, ‘Ofel and fortress wastelands forever,
a delight for wild donkeys and a pasture for flocks —

<sup>15</sup> till the Spirit is poured out on us from above, and the desert becomes a fertile field,
with the fertile field regarded as a forest.

<sup>16</sup> Then justice will dwell in the desert, and righteousness abide in the fertile field.

<sup>17</sup> The effect of righteousness will be peace;
the result of righteousness, quiet trust forever.

<sup>18</sup> My people will live in a peaceful place,
in secure neighborhoods and tranquil dwellings.

<sup>19</sup> Just as the forest will surely come down,
the city will surely be laid low.

<sup>20</sup> Happy are you who sow by all streams, letting oxen and donkeys roam freely.

33<sup>1</sup> Woe, destroyer, yourself undestroyed!

Woe, betrayer, yourself unbetrayed!

When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed;
when you tire of betraying, they will betray you.

<sup>2</sup>        A<sub>DONAI</sub>, show us mercy;

we have waited for you.

Be their arm every morning,
and our salvation in time of trouble.

<sup>3</sup>        At the sound of the tumult, the peoples wander off;

when you exalt yourself, the nations are scattered.

<sup>4</sup>        Your spoil is gathered as if stripped by shearer-worms;

they run over it like a swarm of locusts.

<sup>5</sup>        A<sub>DONAI</sub> is exalted, for he dwells on high;

he has filled Tziyon with justice and right.

<sup>6</sup>        He will be the stability of your times, a wealth of salvation, wisdom and knowledge, and fear of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, which is his treasure.

<sup>7</sup>        Hear their brave men crying out for help!

The envoys of peace weep bitterly.

<sup>8</sup>        The highways are deserted, there are no travelers.

He has broken the covenant, despised the cities;
he has no regard for human life.

<sup>9</sup> The land is mourning and wilting away.

The L'vanon is withering with shame.

The Sharon has become like the 'Aravah.

Bashan and Karmel have been shaken bare.

<sup>10</sup> “Now I will arise,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

“Now I will exalt and lift myself up.

<sup>11</sup> You conceive chaff and give birth to stubble, your breath is a fire devouring you.

<sup>12</sup> The peoples will be as if burned into lime, like thorns cut off to burn in the fire.

<sup>13</sup> You living far off, hear what I have done!

You who are near, acknowledge my strength!”

<sup>14</sup> The sinners in Tziyon are frightened;

trembling has seized the ungodly.

“Who of us can live with the devouring fire?

Who of us can live with eternal burning?”

<sup>15</sup> He whose life is right and whose speech is straight,

he who scorns getting rich by extortion,
he who shakes his hands free of bribes, stops his ears against talk of bloodshed and shuts his eyes against looking at evil.

<sup>16</sup> Such a person will live on the heights, his refuge a fortress among the cliffs,
his food and water in steady supply.

<sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the king in his beauty, they will gaze on a land stretching into the distance.

<sup>18</sup> Your mind will meditate on the terror:
“Where is the man who did the counting?
Where is the man who did the weighing?
Where is the man who numbered the towers?”

<sup>19</sup> You will not see the intransigent people, that people whose language is so obscure,
whose stuttering speech you cannot understand.

<sup>20</sup> Look at Tziyon, the city of our festivals;
your eyes will see Yerushalayim a secure abode,
a tent that will not be removed,

whose pegs will never be pulled out and whose guy-ropes will not be cut.

<sup>21</sup> But there in his splendor A<sub>DONAI</sub> will be with us, in a place of rivers and broad streams.
But no boat with oars will go there,
no majestic ship will pass by.

<sup>22</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> is our judge, A<sub>DONAI</sub> is our lawgiver,
A<sub>DONAI</sub> is our king. He will save us.

<sup>23</sup> For your ropes are hanging loose, not holding the mast, not spreading the sail.
Then the plunder shared out is so huge that even the lame get part of the spoil.

<sup>24</sup> No inhabitant will say, "I am ill";
the people living there will be forgiven their sin.

34<sup>1</sup> Come close, you nations, and listen!

Pay close attention, you peoples!

Let the earth hear, and everything in it;
the world, with all it produces.

<sup>2</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> is angry at every nation, furious with all their armies;
he has completely destroyed them,
handed them over to slaughter.

<sup>3</sup> Their slain will be thrown out,
the stench will rise from their corpses,
the mountains will flow with their blood.

<sup>4</sup> The whole host of heaven will decompose,
the heavens themselves be rolled up like a scroll;
all their array will wither away like a withering grape-leaf that falls from a vine or a withered fig from a fig tree.

<sup>5</sup> “For my sword has drunk its fill in heaven;
now it descends on Edom to judge them,

the people I have doomed to destruction.”

<sup>6</sup>       There is a sword that belongs to A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

It is filled with blood, gorged with fat, filled with the blood of lambs and goats,
gorged with the fat of the kidneys of rams.

For A<sub>DONAI</sub> has a sacrifice in Botzrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

<sup>7</sup>       The wild oxen will fall with them,

the young bulls with the strong, mature ones.

Their land will be drunk with blood and their dust made greasy with fat.

<sup>8</sup>       For A<sub>DONAI</sub> has a day of vengeance, a year of requital for fighting with Tziyon.

<sup>9</sup>       Its streams will be changed to tar, its dust to sulfur, its land burning tar

<sup>10</sup>       that will not be quenched night or day;

its smoke will rise forever.

In all generations it will lie waste;

no one will pass through it ever again.

Horned owl and hawk will possess it, screech owl and raven will live there;
he will stretch over it the measuring line of confusion and the plumbline of the empty void.

<sup>12</sup> Of its nobles, none will be called to be king, and all its princes will be nothing.

<sup>13</sup> Thorns will overgrow its palaces, nettles and thistles its fortresses;
it will become a lair for jackals,
an enclosure for ostriches.

<sup>14</sup> Wildcats and hyenas will meet there;
and billy-goats call to each other;
Lilit [the night monster] will lurk there and find herself a place to rest.

<sup>15</sup> There the hoot owl will nest, lay her eggs, hatch and gather her young in its shade.
There the vultures will assemble,
every one with its mate.

<sup>16</sup> Consult the book of A<sub>DONAI</sub> and read it:

not one of these will be missing,

none will be lacking a mate.

For by his own mouth he gave the order, and by his Spirit he brought them together.

<sup>17</sup> It is he who cast the lot for them,

his hand measured out their shares.

They will possess it forever,

and live there through all generations.

35 <sup>1</sup> The desert and the dry land will be glad;
the 'Aravah will rejoice and blossom like the lily.

<sup>2</sup> It will burst into flower, will rejoice with joy and singing,

will be given the glory of the L'vanon,

the splendor of Karmel and the Sharon.

They will see the glory of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

the splendor of our God.

<sup>3</sup> Strengthen your drooping arms,

and steady your tottering knees.

<sup>4</sup> Say to the fainthearted, "Be strong and unafraid!

Here is your God; he will come with vengeance;
with God's retribution he will come and save you."

<sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped;

<sup>6</sup> then the lame man will leap like a deer,
and the mute person's tongue will sing.

For in the desert, springs will burst forth, streams of water in the 'Aravah;

<sup>7</sup> the sandy mirage will become a pool,
the thirsty ground springs of water.

The haunts where jackals lie down will become a marsh filled with reeds and papyrus.

<sup>8</sup> A highway will be there, a way, called the Way of Holiness.

The unclean will not pass over it, but it will be for those whom he guides — fools will not stray along it.

<sup>9</sup> No lion or other beast of prey will be there, traveling on it.

They will not be found there,
but the redeemed will go there.

<sup>10</sup> Those ransomed by ADONAI will return and come with singing to Tziyon,
on their heads will be everlasting joy.
They will acquire gladness and joy,
while sorrow and sighing will flee.

36 <sup>1</sup> It was in the fourteenth year of King Hizkiyahu that Sancheriv king of Ashur advanced against all the fortified cities of Y'hudah and captured them. <sup>2</sup> From Lakhish the king of Ashur sent Rav-Shakeh to Hizkiyahu in Yerushalayim with a large army. He positioned himself by the aqueduct from the Upper Pool, which is by the road to the Launderers' Field. <sup>3</sup> Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo'ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister went out to meet him.

<sup>4</sup> Rav-Shakeh addressed them: "Tell Hizkiyahu: 'Here is what the great king, the king of Ashur, says: "What makes you so confident? <sup>5</sup> I say: do mere words constitute strategy and strength for battle? In whom, then, are you trusting when you rebel against me like this? <sup>6</sup> Look! Relying on Egypt is like using a broken stick as a staff — when you lean on it, it punctures your hand. That's what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like for anyone who puts his trust in him. <sup>7</sup> But if you tell me, 'We trust in ADONAI our God,' then isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hizkiyahu has removed, telling Y'hudah and Yerushalayim, 'You must worship before this altar'? <sup>8</sup> All right, then, make a wager with my lord the king of Ashur: I will give you two thousand horses if you can find enough riders for them. <sup>9</sup> How then can you repulse even one of my master's lowest-ranked army officers? Yet you are relying on Egypt for chariots and riders! <sup>10</sup> Do you think I have come up to this land to destroy it without ADONAI's approval? ADONAI said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it!'"'"

<sup>11</sup> Elyakim, Shevnah and Yo'ach said to Rav-Shakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it; don't speak to us in Hebrew while the people on the wall are listening." <sup>12</sup> But Rav-Shakeh answered, "Did my master send me to deliver my message just to your master and yourselves? Didn't he send me to address the men sitting on the wall, who, like you, are going to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?" <sup>13</sup> Then Rav-Shakeh stood up and, speaking loudly in Hebrew, said: "Hear what the great king, the king of Ashur, says! <sup>14</sup> This is what the king says: 'Don't let Hizkiyahu deceive you, because he won't be able to save you. <sup>15</sup> And don't let Hizkiyahu make you trust in ADONAI by saying, "ADONAI will surely save us; this city will not be given over to the king of Ashur." <sup>16</sup> Don't listen to Hizkiyahu.' For this is what the king says: 'Make peace with me, surrender to me. Then every one of you can eat from his vine and fig tree and drink the water in his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land with grain and wine, a land with bread and vineyards. <sup>18</sup> Beware of Hizkiyahu; he is only deluding you when he says, "ADONAI will save us." Has any god of any nation ever saved his land from the power of the king of Ashur? <sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamat and Arpad? Where are the gods of S'farvayim? Did they save Shomron from my power? <sup>20</sup> Where is the god of any of these countries that has saved its country from my power, so that ADONAI might be able to save Yerushalayim from my power?'" <sup>21</sup> But they kept still and didn't answer him so much as a word, for the king's order was, "Don't answer him."

<sup>22</sup> Then Elyakim the son of Hilkiyahu, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and Yo'ach the son of Asaf the foreign minister went to Hizkiyahu with their clothes torn and reported to him what Rav-Shakeh had said.

37 <sup>1</sup> On hearing it, King Hizkiyahu tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth and entered the house of ADONAI. <sup>2</sup> He sent Elyakim, who was in charge of the household, Shevnah the general secretary and the leading cohanim, covered with sackcloth, to Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz. <sup>3</sup> They said to him, "This is what Hizkiyahu says: 'Today is a day of trouble, rebuke and disgrace. Children are ready to be born, but there is no strength to bring them to birth. <sup>4</sup> Maybe ADONAI your God will hear the words of Rav-Shakeh, whom his master the king of Ashur has sent to taunt the living God, and will rebuke the message which ADONAI your God has heard. So pray for the remnant that is left.”

<sup>5</sup> When King Hizkiyahu’s servants came to Yesha’yahu, <sup>6</sup> he said to them, “Tell your master that this is what ADONAI says: ‘Don’t be afraid of the words you heard the servants of the king of Ashur use to insult me. <sup>7</sup> I will put a spirit in him that will make him hear a rumor and return to his own land; then I will cause him to die by the sword in his own land.’”

<sup>8</sup> Rav-Shakeh returned and, having heard that the king of Ashur had left Lakhish, found him making war with Livnah. <sup>9</sup> Then he heard it said that Tirhakah king of Ethiopia was on his way to fight him. On hearing this, the king of Ashur sent messengers to Hizkiyahu, after ordering them, <sup>10</sup> “This is what you are to say to Hizkiyahu king of Y’hudah: ‘Don’t let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying, “Yerushalayim will not be handed over to the power of the king of Ashur.” <sup>11</sup> You have heard what the kings of Ashur have done to all lands — they have completely destroyed them. So how will you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them? No, my ancestors destroyed them — Gozan, Haran, Retzef and the people of ‘Eden who were in Tel’asar. <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamat? the king of Arpad? the king of the city of S’farvayim, of Hena and ‘Ivah?’” <sup>14</sup> Hizkiyahu took the letter from the messengers’ hands and read it. Then Hizkiyahu went up to the house of ADONAI and spread it out before ADONAI. <sup>15</sup> This is the prayer that Hizkiyahu prayed to ADONAI: <sup>16</sup> “ADONAI-Tzva’ot, God of Isra’el, who dwells above the k’ruvim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth. <sup>17</sup> Turn your ear, ADONAI, and hear! Open your eyes, ADONAI, and see! Hear all the words that Sanheriv sent to taunt the living God. <sup>18</sup> It is true that the kings of Ashur have laid waste all the countries and their lands <sup>19</sup> and have thrown their gods into the fire. For those were non-gods, merely the products of people’s hands, wood and stone; this is why they could destroy them. <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, ADONAI our God, save us from his power — so that all the kingdoms on earth will know that you are ADONAI — you only.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Yesha’yahu the son of Amotz sent this message to Hizkiyahu: “ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘You prayed to me against Sanheriv king of Ashur.’ <sup>22</sup> Here is ADONAI’s answer concerning him:

“ ‘The virgin daughter of Tziyon

despises you; she laughs you to scorn.

The daughter of Yerushalayim

shakes her head at you.

<sup>23</sup> Whom have you taunted and insulted?

Against whom have you raised your voice

and haughtily lifted your eyes?

The Holy One of Isra'el!

<sup>24</sup> “ ‘Through your servants you taunted Adonai.

You said, “With my many chariots

I have ascended the mountain heights

even in the far reaches of the L'vanon.

I cut down its tall cedars

and its best cypress trees.

I reached its remotest heights

and its best forests.

<sup>25</sup> I dug [wells] and drank the water.

The soles of my [soldiers'] feet

dried up all the rivers of Egypt.”

<sup>26</sup> “‘Haven't you heard? Long ago I made it;

in antiquity I produced it;
and now I am making it happen:
you are turning fortified cities
into heaps of ruins,

<sup>27</sup> while their inhabitants, shorn of power,
are disheartened and ashamed,
weak as grass, frail as plants,
like grass on the rooftops
or grain scorched by the east wind.

<sup>28</sup> “ ‘But I know when you sit, when you leave,
when you enter — and when you rage against me.

<sup>29</sup> And because of your rage against me,
because of your pride that has reached my ears,
I am putting my hook in your nose
and my bridle on your lips;
and I will make you return
by the way on which you came.

<sup>30</sup> “ ‘This will be the sign for you [people of Isra’el]: this year, you will eat the grain that grows of itself; the second year, you will eat what grows from that; but in the third year, you will sow, reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup> “ ‘Meanwhile, the remnant
of the house of Y’hudah that has escaped
will again take root downward
and bear fruit upward;

<sup>32</sup> for a remnant will go out from Yerushalayim,
those escaping will go out from Mount Tziyon.
The zeal of A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva’ot
will accomplish this.’

<sup>33</sup> “Therefore this is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says concerning the king of Ashur:

“ ‘He will not come to this city
or even shoot an arrow there;
he will not confront it with a shield
or erect earthworks against it.

<sup>34</sup> “ ‘By the way he came he will return;
he will not come to this city,’

says A<sub>DONAI</sub>. <sup>35</sup> ‘For I will defend this city and save it, both for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.’ ”

<sup>36</sup> Then the angel of A<sub>DONAI</sub> went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of Ashur. Early the next morning, there they were, all of them, corpses — dead. <sup>37</sup>So Sancheriv king of Ashur left, went and returned to live in Ninveh.

<sup>38</sup> One day, as he was worshipping in the temple of Nisrokh his god, his sons Adramelekh and Shar'etzer struck him with the sword and escaped into the land of Ararat. So his son Esar-Hadon took his place as king.

38 <sup>1</sup> Around this time Hizkiyahu became ill to the point of death. Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amotz, came and said to him, "Here is what ADONAI says: 'Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not live.'" <sup>2</sup> Hizkiyahu turned his face toward the wall and prayed to ADONAI : <sup>3</sup> "I plead with you, ADONAI, remember now how I have lived before you truly and wholeheartedly, and how I have done what you see as good." And he cried bitter tears.

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of ADONAI came to Yesha'yahu: <sup>5</sup> "Go and tell Hizkiyahu that this is what ADONAI, the God of David your ancestor, says: 'I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; therefore I will add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup> Also I will rescue you and this city from the power of the king of Ashur; I will defend this city. <sup>7</sup> The sign for you from ADONAI that ADONAI will do what he said is <sup>8</sup> that I will cause the shadow of the sundial, which has started going down on the sundial of Achaz, to go backward ten intervals.'" So the sun went back ten intervals of the distance it had already gone down.

<sup>9</sup> After Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah had been ill and had recovered, he wrote the following:

<sup>10</sup> "I once said: 'In the prime of life

I am going off to the gates of Sh'ol.

I am being deprived of living out the full span of my life.'

<sup>11</sup> "I said, 'I will never again see Yah,

Yah in the land of the living;

I will look on human beings no more or be with those who live in this world.

<sup>12</sup> My home is uprooted and taken away from me like a shepherd's tent.

Like a weaver, I have rolled up my life;

he cuts me off from the loom.

Between day and night you could finish me off.

<sup>13</sup> I try to be strong like a lion till morning, but still my illness breaks all my bones —

between day and night you could finish me off.

<sup>14</sup> I make little chattering sounds like a swallow,

I moan aloud like a dove,

My eyes are weary with looking upward.

Adonai, I am overwhelmed; guarantee my life!'

<sup>15</sup> "What is there that I can say?

He has spoken to me and acted!

I will go humbly all my years, remembering how bitter I was.

<sup>16</sup> Adonai, by these things people live;

in all these is the life of my spirit.

You're restoring my health and giving me life—

<sup>17</sup> though instead of peace, I felt very bitter.

You desired my life and preserved it from the nothingness pit;
for you threw all my sins behind your back.

<sup>18</sup> “Sh’ol cannot thank you, death cannot praise you;
those descending to the pit cannot hope for your truth.

<sup>19</sup> The living, the living—they can thank you,
as I do today;
fathers will make their children know about your faithfulness.

<sup>20</sup> ADONAI is ready to save me;
hence we will make our stringed instruments sound
all the days of our life in the house of ADONAI.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Yesha‘yahu said, “Have them take a fig-plaster and apply it to the inflammation, and he will recover.” <sup>22</sup> Hizkiyahu asked, “What sign will there be that I will be able to go up to the house of ADONAI?”

39 <sup>1</sup> M’rodakh-Bal’adan the son of Bal’adan, king of Bavel, heard that Hizkiyahu had been ill and had recovered, so he sent a letter and a gift to him. <sup>2</sup> Hizkiyahu was pleased with the gifts and showed the messengers all of the building where he kept his treasures, including the silver, gold, spices and precious oils; also all of the building where he kept his armor; and everything in his treasury — there was nothing in his palace or in his entire domain that Hizkiyahu did not show them. <sup>3</sup>Then Yesha'yahu the prophet came to King Hizkiyahu and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from?" Hizkiyahu answered, "They came to me from a distant country, Bavel." <sup>4</sup> Yesha'yahu asked, "What have they seen in your palace?" "They have seen everything in my palace," said Hizkiyahu. "There isn't a thing among my treasures that I haven't shown them." <sup>5</sup> Yesha'yahu said to Hizkiyahu, "Hear what ADONAI-Tzva'ot says: <sup>6</sup> 'The day will come when everything in your palace, along with everything your ancestors stored up until today, will be carried off to Bavel. Nothing will be left,' says ADONAI. <sup>7</sup> 'They will carry off some of your descendants, your own offspring; and they will be made eunuchs serving in the palace of the king of Bavel.'" <sup>8</sup> Hizkiyahu said to Yesha'yahu, "The word of ADONAI which you have just told me is good"; because he thought, "At least peace and truth will continue during my lifetime."

40 <sup>1</sup> "Comfort and keep comforting my people," says your God.

<sup>2</sup> "Tell Yerushalayim to take heart; proclaim to her that she has completed her time of service, that her guilt has been paid off,

that she has received at the hand of ADONAI

double for all her sins."

<sup>3</sup> A voice cries out:

"Clear a road through the desert for ADONAI!

Level a highway in the 'Aravah for our God!

<sup>4</sup> Let every valley be filled in,

every mountain and hill lowered,

the bumpy places made level and the crags become a plain.

<sup>5</sup> Then the glory of A<sub>DONAI</sub> will be revealed;

all humankind together will see it,

for the mouth of A<sub>DONAI</sub> has spoken.”

<sup>6</sup> A voice says, “Proclaim!”

And I answer, “What should I proclaim?”

“All humanity is merely grass,

all its kindness like wildflowers:

<sup>7</sup> the grass dries up, the flower fades,

when a wind from A<sub>DONAI</sub> blows on it.

Surely the people are grass!

<sup>8</sup> The grass dries up, the flower fades;

but the word of our God will stand forever.”

<sup>9</sup> You who bring good news to Tziyon, get yourself up on a high mountain;

you who bring good news to Yerushalayim, cry out at the top of your voice!

Don’t be afraid to shout out loud!

Say to the cities of Y'hudah,

“Here is your God!

<sup>10</sup> Here comes Adonai ELOHIM with power,

and his arm will rule for him.

Look! His reward is with him,

and his recompense is before him.

<sup>11</sup> He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering his lambs with his arm, carrying them against his chest,

gently leading the mother sheep.”

<sup>12</sup> Who has counted the handfuls of water in the sea, measured off the sky with a ruler, gauged how much dust there is on the earth, weighed the mountains on scales, or the hills in a balance?

<sup>13</sup> Who has measured the Spirit of ADONAI?

Who has been his counselor, instructing him?

<sup>14</sup> Whom did he consult, to gain understanding?

Who taught him how to judge, taught him what he needed to know, showed him how to discern?

<sup>15</sup>       The nations are like a drop in a bucket, they count like a grain of dust on the scales.
The islands weigh as little as specks of dust.

<sup>16</sup>       The L'vanon would not suffice for fuel or its animals be enough for burnt offerings.

<sup>17</sup>       Before him all the nations are like nothing.
He regards them as less than nothing.

<sup>18</sup>       With whom, then, will you compare God?
By what standard will you evaluate him?

<sup>19</sup>       An image made by a craftsman, which a goldsmith overlays with gold,
for which he then casts silver chains?

<sup>20</sup>       A man too poor to afford an offering chooses a piece of wood that won't rot, then seeks out a skilled artisan to prepare an image that won't fall over.

<sup>21</sup>       Don't you know? Don't you hear?
Haven't you been told from the start?

Don't you understand how the earth is set up?

<sup>22</sup>

He who sits above the circle of the earth—
for whom its inhabitants appear like grasshoppers — stretches out the heavens like a curtain, spreads them out like a tent to live in.

<sup>23</sup>

He reduces princes to nothing,
the rulers of the earth to emptiness.

<sup>24</sup>

Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely their stem taken root in the ground,
when he blows on them, they dry up,
and the whirlwind carries them off like straw.

<sup>25</sup>

“With whom, then, will you compare me?
With whom am I equal?” asks the Holy One.

<sup>26</sup>

Turn your eyes to the heavens!
See who created these things!
He brings out the army of them in sequence,
summoning each by name.
Through his great might and his massive strength,
not one of them is missing.

27

Why do you complain, Ya‘akov;
why do you say, Isra’el,
“My way is hidden from ADONAI, my rights are ignored by my God”?

28

Haven’t you known, haven’t you heard that the everlasting God, ADONAI, the Creator of the ends of the earth,
does not grow tired or weary?
His understanding cannot be fathomed.

29

He invigorates the exhausted,
he gives strength to the powerless.

30

Young men may grow tired and weary, even the fittest may stumble and fall;

31

but those who hope in ADONAI will renew their strength, they will soar aloft as with eagles’ wings;
when they are running they won’t grow weary,
when they are walking they won’t get tired.

41<sup>1</sup> “Keep silence before me, coastlands!

Let the peoples replenish their strength!

Let them approach; then let them speak.

Let us assemble for judgment.”

<sup>2</sup>       Who has raised from the east one who is just and called him to be in his service?

He hands nations over to him and subjects kings to him;

his sword reduces them to dust,

his bow to driven straw.

<sup>3</sup>       He pursues them, passing on unscathed, hardly touching the path with his feet.

<sup>4</sup>       Whose work is this? Who has brought it about?

He who called the generations from the beginning,

“I, ADONAI, am the first;

and I am the same with those who are last.”

<sup>5</sup>       The coastlands have seen and became afraid.

The ends of the earth have trembled.

They have approached, and now they have come.

<sup>6</sup>       Every one helps his fellow workman, everyone says to his brother, “Be strong!”

<sup>7</sup> The woodworker encourages the goldsmith, the polisher encourages the hammerer;
he says of the soldering, “Yes, that’s good,”
then puts nails in [the idol] to keep it from moving.

<sup>8</sup> “But you, Isra’el, my servant;
Ya‘akov, whom I have chosen,
descendants of Avraham my friend,

<sup>9</sup> I have taken you from the ends of the earth, summoned you from its most distant parts and said to you, ‘You are my servant’ —
I have chosen you, not rejected you.

<sup>10</sup> Don’t be afraid, for I am with you;
don’t be distressed, for I am your God.
I give you strength, I give you help,
I support you with my victorious right hand.

<sup>11</sup> All those who were angry with you will be disgraced, put to shame;
those who fought against you will be destroyed, brought to nothing.

<sup>12</sup> You will seek them but not find them,
those who contended with you;
yes, those who made war with you will be brought to nothing, nothing at all.

<sup>13</sup> For I, ADONAI, your God, say to you, as I hold your right hand,
'Have no fear; I will help you.

<sup>14</sup> Have no fear, Ya'akov, you worm, you men of Isra'el!
I will help you," says ADONAI;
"Your redeemer is the Holy One of Isra'el.

<sup>15</sup> "I will make you into a threshing-sledge, new, with sharp, pointed teeth,
to thresh the mountains and crush them to dust,
to reduce the hills to chaff.

<sup>16</sup> As you fan them, the wind will carry them off, and the whirlwind will scatter them.
Then you will rejoice in ADONAI,
you will glory in the Holy One of Isra'el.

<sup>17</sup> “The poor and needy look for water in vain;
their tongues are parched with thirst.

I, ADONAI, will answer them.

I, the God of Isra’el, will not leave them.

<sup>18</sup> I will open up rivers on the barren hills and wells down in the broad valleys.

I will turn the desert into a lake and dry ground into springs.

<sup>19</sup> I will plant the desert with cedars, acacias, myrtles and olive trees;
In the ‘Aravah I will put cypresses together with elm trees and larches.

<sup>20</sup> Then the people will see and know, together observe and understand that the hand of ADONAI has done this,
that the Holy One of Isra’el created it.

<sup>21</sup> “Present your case,” says ADONAI, “Produce your arguments,” says Ya‘akov’s king.

<sup>22</sup> Bring out those idols!

Have them foretell the future for us,
tell us about past events,
so that we can reflect on them
and understand their consequences.

Or tell us about events yet to come,

<sup>23</sup> state what will happen in the future,
so that we can know you are gods.

At least, do something, either good or bad — anything, to make us awestruck and fearful!

<sup>24</sup> You can't! — because you are less than nothing.

Whoever chooses you is an abomination!

<sup>25</sup> “I roused someone from the north,
and he has come from the rising sun;
he will call on my name.

He will trample on rulers as if they were mud,
like a potter treading clay.”

<sup>26</sup> Who said this at the start, so we could know, or foretold it, so we could say, “He's right”?
In fact, no one said it; no one foretold it —

the fact is, nobody hears what you say.

<sup>27</sup> I am the first to declare it to Tziyon,
to send Yerushalayim a messenger with good news.

<sup>28</sup> But when I look around, there is no one — not a single one can give counsel, who, when I ask, can give an answer.

<sup>29</sup> Look at them all! What they do is nothing!
Their idols are so much wind and waste.

42 <sup>1</sup> “Here is my servant, whom I support, my chosen one, in whom I take pleasure.
I have put my Spirit on him;
he will bring justice to the Goyim.

<sup>2</sup> He will not cry or shout;
no one will hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>3</sup> He will not snap off a broken reed or snuff out a smoldering wick.
He will bring forth justice according to truth;

<sup>4</sup> he will not weaken or be crushed until he has established justice on the earth, and the coastlands wait for his Torah.”

<sup>5</sup>        Thus says God, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who created the heavens and spread them out,
who stretched out the earth and all that grows from it,
who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk on it:

<sup>6</sup>        “I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, called you righteously,
I took hold of you by the hand,
I shaped you and made you a covenant for the people,
to be a light for the Goyim,

<sup>7</sup>        so that you can open blind eyes,
free the prisoners from confinement,
those living in darkness from the dungeon.

<sup>8</sup>        I am A<sub>DONAI</sub>; that is my name.
I yield my glory to no one else,
nor my praise to any idol.

<sup>9</sup>        See how the former predictions come true;
and now new things do I declare — before they sprout I tell you about them.”

<sup>10</sup> Sing to A<sub>DONAI</sub> a new song!

Let his praise be sung from the ends of the earth
by those sailing the sea and by everything in it,
by the coastlands and those living there.

<sup>11</sup> Let the desert and its cities raise their voices, the villages where Kedar lives;
let those living in Sela shout for joy;
let them cry out from the mountaintops!

<sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to A<sub>DONAI</sub>
and proclaim his praise in the coastlands.

<sup>13</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> will go out like a soldier, like a soldier roused to the fury of battle;
he will shout, yes, he raises the battle cry;
as he triumphs over his foes.

<sup>14</sup> “For a long time I have held my peace,
I have been silent, restrained myself.
Now I will shriek like a woman in labor, panting and gasping for air.

<sup>15</sup> I will devastate mountains and hills, wither all their vegetation, turn the rivers into islands and dry up the lakes.

<sup>16</sup>       The blind I will lead on a road they don't know, on roads they don't know I will lead them;
I will turn darkness to light before them,
and straighten their twisted paths.
These are things I will do without fail.

<sup>17</sup>       Those who trust in idols, who say to statues, 'You are our gods,'
will be repulsed in utter shame.

<sup>18</sup>       Listen, you deaf! Look, you blind! — so that you will see!

<sup>19</sup>       Who is as blind as my servant,
or as deaf as the messenger I send?
Who is as blind as the one I rewarded, as blind as the servant of A<sub>DONAI</sub>?"

<sup>20</sup>       You see much but don't pay attention;
you open your ears, but you don't listen.

<sup>21</sup>        A<sub>DONAI</sub> was pleased, for his righteousness' sake, to make the Torah great and glorious.

<sup>22</sup>        But this is a people pillaged and plundered, all trapped in holes and sequestered in prisons.
They are there to be plundered, with no one to rescue them;
there to be pillaged, and no one says, "Return them!"

<sup>23</sup>        Which of you will listen to this?
Who will hear and give heed in the times to come?

<sup>24</sup>        Who gave Ya'akov to be pillaged, Isra'el to the plunderers?
Didn't A<sub>DONAI</sub>, against whom we have sinned,
in whose ways they refused to walk,
he whose Torah they did not obey?

<sup>25</sup>        This is why he poured on him his blazing anger as well as the fury of battle—it wrapped him in flames, yet he learned nothing;
it burned him, yet he did not take it to heart.

43 <sup>1</sup> But now this is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says, he who created you, Ya'akov,

he who formed you, Isra'el:

“Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you;

I am calling you by your name; you are mine.

<sup>2</sup> When you pass through water, I will be with you;

when you pass through rivers, they will not overwhelm you;

when you walk through fire, you will not be scorched—

the flame will not burn you.

<sup>3</sup> For I am ADONAI, your God,

the Holy One of Isra'el, your Savior—

I have given Egypt as your ransom,

Ethiopia and S'va for you.

<sup>4</sup> Because I regard you as valued and honored, and because I love you.

For you I will give people, nations in exchange for your life.

<sup>5</sup> Don't be afraid, for I am with you.

I will bring your descendants from the east,

and I will gather you from the west;

<sup>6</sup> I will say to the north, 'Give them up!'

and to the south, ‘Don’t hold them back!

Bring my sons from far away,

and my daughters from the ends of the earth,

<sup>7</sup> everyone who bears my name,

whom I created for my glory —

I formed him, yes, I made him.’”

<sup>8</sup> Bring forward the people who are blind but have eyes, also the deaf who have ears.

<sup>9</sup> All the nations are gathered together, and the peoples are assembled.

Who among them can proclaim this and reveal what happened in the past?

Let them bring their witnesses to justify themselves,

so that others, on hearing, can say, “That’s true.”

<sup>10</sup> “You are my witnesses,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

“and my servant whom I have chosen,

so that you can know and trust me and understand that I am he — no god was produced before me,

nor will any be after me.

<sup>11</sup> I, yes I, am ADONAI;

besides me there is no deliverer.

<sup>12</sup> I have declared, saved and proclaimed — not some alien god among you.

Therefore you are my witnesses,” says ADONAI. “I am God.

<sup>13</sup> Since days began, I have been he.

No one can deliver from my hand.

When I act, who can reverse it?”

<sup>14</sup> Here is what ADONAI, your redeemer,

the Holy One of Isra’el, says:

“For your sake I have sent [an army] to Bavel and knocked down the fleeing Kasdim, all of them;

their songs of triumph are now lamentations.

<sup>15</sup> I am ADONAI, your Holy One,

the Creator of Isra’el, your King.”

<sup>16</sup> Here is what ADONAI says,

who made a way in the sea,

a path through the raging waves;

<sup>17</sup> who led out chariot and horse,

the army in its strength—

they lay down, never to rise again, snuffed out and quenched like a wick:

<sup>18</sup> “Stop dwelling on past events and brooding over times gone by;

<sup>19</sup> I am doing something new;

it’s springing up—can’t you see it?

I am making a road in the desert,

rivers in the wasteland.

<sup>20</sup> The wild animals will honor me,

the jackals and the ostriches;

because I put water in the desert,

rivers in the wasteland,

for my chosen people to drink,

<sup>21</sup> the people I formed for myself,

so that they would proclaim my praise.

<sup>22</sup> But you haven’t called on me, Ya‘akov;

because you have grown weary of me, Isra'el.

<sup>23</sup> You have not brought me sheep for your burnt offerings, you have not honored me with your sacrifices.
I didn't burden you by requiring grain offerings.
or weary you by demanding frankincense.

<sup>24</sup> You have not spent money to buy me sweet cane or filled me with the fat of your sacrifices.
Instead, you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your crimes.

<sup>25</sup> I, yes I, am the one who blots out your offenses for my own sake;
I will not remember your sins.

<sup>26</sup> Remind me when we're in court together — tell your side, make the case that you are right.

<sup>27</sup> Your first father sinned, and your spokesmen rebelled against me.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore I repudiated the officials of the sanctuary, delivered Ya'akov to the curse of destruction,
and subjected Isra'el to scorn.

44<sup>1</sup> “Now listen, Ya‘akov my servant,

Isra’el whom I have chosen:

<sup>2</sup> Thus says ADONAI, who made you, formed you in the womb, and will help you:

‘Don’t be afraid, Ya‘akov my servant,

Yeshurun, whom I have chosen.

<sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground;

I will pour my Spirit on your descendants,

my blessing on your offspring.

<sup>4</sup> They will spring up among the grass like willows on the riverbanks.

<sup>5</sup> One will say, “I belong to ADONAI.”

Another will be called by the name of Ya‘akov.

Yet another will write that he belongs to ADONAI.

and adopt the surname Isra’el.’”

<sup>6</sup> Thus says ADONAI, Isra’el’s King and Redeemer, ADONAI-Tzvaot:

“I am the first, and I am the last;

besides me there is no God.

<sup>7</sup> Who is like me? Let him speak out!

Let him show me clearly what has been happening
since I set up the eternal people;
let him foretell future signs and events.

<sup>8</sup> Don't be frightened, don't be afraid—didn't I tell you this long ago?

I foretold it, and you are my witnesses.
Is there any God besides me?
There is no other Rock—I know of none.”

<sup>9</sup> All idol-makers amount to nothing;

their precious productions profit no one;
and their witnesses, to their own shame,
neither see nor understand.

<sup>10</sup> Who would fashion a god or cast an image that profits no one anything?

<sup>11</sup> All involved will be ashamed,

but more than anyone else, the people who made them.
Let them all be assembled, let them stand up;

let them fear and be shamed together.

<sup>12</sup>       A blacksmith makes a tool over burning coals;
with his strong arm he shapes it with hammers.
But when he gets hungry, his strength fails;
if he doesn't drink water, he grows tired.

<sup>13</sup>       A carpenter takes his measurements, sketches the shape with a stylus, planes the wood, checks it with calipers,
and carves it into the shape of a man;
and, since it is honored like a man,
of course it has to live in a house.

<sup>14</sup>       He goes to chop down cedars;
he takes an evergreen and an oak;
he especially tends one tree in the forest,
plants a pine for the rain to nourish.

<sup>15</sup>       In time, when it's ready for use as fuel, he takes some of it to keep himself warm and burns some more to bake bread.
Then he makes a god and worships it,

carves it into an idol and falls down before it.

<sup>16</sup>        So half of it he burns in the fire;
with that half he roasts meat and eats his fill;
he warms himself; says, “It feels so good,
getting warm while watching the flames!”

<sup>17</sup>        With the rest of the log he fashions a god, a carved image, then falls down before it;
he worships it and prays to it.
“Save me,” he says, “for you are my god!”

<sup>18</sup>        Such people know nothing, understand nothing.
Their eyes are sealed shut, so that they can’t see;
their hearts too, so they can’t understand.

<sup>19</sup>        Not one thinks to himself or has the knowledge or the discernment to say, “I burned half of it in the fire,
baked bread on its coals, roasted meat and ate it.
Should I now make the rest an abomination?
Should I prostrate myself to a tree trunk?”

<sup>20</sup>        He is relying on ashes!

A deceived heart has led him astray;
so that now he won't save himself, just won't say,
"This thing in my hand is a fraud!"

<sup>21</sup> "Keep these matters in mind, Ya'akov, for you, Isra'el, are my servant.
I formed you, you are my own servant;
Isra'el, don't forget me.

<sup>22</sup> Like a thick cloud, I wipe away your offenses;
like a cloud, your sins.
Come back to me, for I have redeemed you."

<sup>23</sup> Sing, you heavens, for A<sub>DONAI</sub> has done it!
Shout, you depths of the earth!
Mountains, break out into song,
along with every tree in the forest!
For A<sub>DONAI</sub> has redeemed Ya'akov;
he glorifies himself in Isra'el.

<sup>24</sup> Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says, your Redeemer, he who formed you in the womb:
"I am A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who makes all things, who stretched out the heavens all alone,

who spread out the earth all by myself.

<sup>25</sup> I frustrate false prophets and their omens,
I make fools of diviners,
I drive back the sages
and make their wisdom look silly.

<sup>26</sup> I confirm my servants' prophecies and make my messengers' plans succeed.
I say of Yerushalayim: 'She will be lived in,'
of the cities of Y'hudah, 'They will be rebuilt;
I will restore their ruins.'

<sup>27</sup> I say to the deep sea, 'Dry up!
I will make your streams run dry.'

<sup>28</sup> I say of Koresh, 'He is my shepherd, he will do everything I want.
He will say of Yerushalayim,
"You will be rebuilt,"
and of the temple,
"Your foundation will be laid."'"

45<sup>1</sup> Thus says A<sub>DONAI</sub> to Koresh, his anointed, whose right hand he has grasped,

so that he subdues nations before him and strips kings of their robes,
so that doors open in front of him,
and no gates are barred:

<sup>2</sup> “I will go ahead of you, levelling the hills,

shattering the bronze gates,
smashing the iron bars.

<sup>3</sup> I will give you treasures hoarded in the dark,

secret riches hidden away,
so that you will know that I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, calling you by your name,
am the God of Isra’el.

<sup>4</sup> It is for the sake of Ya‘akov my servant,

yes, for Isra’el my elect,
that I call you by your name and give you a title, although you don't know me.

<sup>5</sup> I am A<sub>DONAI</sub>; there is no other;

besides me there is no God.

I am arming you, although you don't know me,

<sup>6</sup> so that those from the east and those from the west will know that there is none besides me —

I am A<sub>DONAI</sub>; there is no other.

<sup>7</sup> I form light, I create darkness;

I make well-being, I create woe;

I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, do all these things.

<sup>8</sup> “Heavens above, rain down justice;

let the clouds pour it down.

Let the earth open,

so that salvation springs up,

and justice sprouts with it.

I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, have created it.”

<sup>9</sup> Woe to anyone who argues with his maker, like potsherds lying on the ground!

Does the clay ask the potter, “What are you doing?”

or, “What’s this you’re making, that has no hands?”

<sup>10</sup> Woe to him who asks a father,

“Of what are you the father?”

or who asks a woman,

“To what are you giving birth?”

<sup>11</sup> Thus says ADONAI,

the Holy One of Isra’el, his Maker:

“You ask for signs concerning my children?

You give orders concerning the work of my hands?

<sup>12</sup> I am the one who made the earth!

I created human beings on it!

I — my hands — stretched out the heavens, and directed all their number.

<sup>13</sup> I am stirring up Koresh to righteousness,

I am smoothing out all his paths.

He will rebuild my city;

and he will free my exiles,

taking neither ransom nor bribe,”

says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.

14

Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

“The earnings of Egypt, the commerce of Ethiopia, and men of stature from S’va will come over to you and become yours;
they will come in chains and follow you.
They will prostrate themselves before you;
they will pray to you:
‘Surely God is with you; there is no other,
other gods are nothing.’”

15

Truly, you are a God who hides himself,
God of Isra’el, Savior!

16

The idol-makers will be ashamed,
disgraced, all of them;
they will go dishonored together.

17

But Isra’el, saved by A<sub>DONAI</sub> with an everlasting salvation,
you will never, ever, be ashamed or disgraced.

18

For thus says A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who created the heavens, God, who shaped and made the earth,

who established and created it not to be chaos,
but formed it to be lived in:

“I am A<sub>DONAI</sub>; there is no other.

<sup>19</sup> I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness.

I did not say to the descendants of Ya‘akov,

‘It is in vain that you will seek me.’

I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, speak rightly; I say what is true.

<sup>20</sup> Assemble, come and gather together,

you refugees from the nations!

Those carrying their wooden idols are ignorant,

they pray to a god that cannot save.

<sup>21</sup> Let them stand and present their case!

Indeed, let them take counsel together.

Who foretold this long ago, announced it in times gone by?

Wasn’t it I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>?

There is no other God besides me,

a just God and a Savior;

there is none besides me.

<sup>22</sup> Look to me, and be saved,

all the ends of the earth!

For I am God;

there is no other.

<sup>23</sup> In the name of myself I have sworn,

from my mouth has rightly gone out,

a word that will not return —

that to me every knee will bow and every tongue will swear <sup>24</sup> about me that only in ADONAI

are justice and strength.”

All who rage against him

will come to him ashamed,

<sup>25</sup> but all the descendants of Isra’el will find justice and glory in ADONAI.

46 <sup>1</sup> Bel bows down, N’vo stoops low;

their idols are borne by animals, beasts of burden.

The loads you yourselves were carrying are now burdening tired animals.

<sup>2</sup> They stoop and bow down together;

they cannot save the burden,
but themselves go into captivity.

<sup>3</sup> “Listen to me, house of Ya‘akov,
all who remain of the house of Isra’el:
I have borne you from birth,
carried you since the womb.

<sup>4</sup> Till your old age I will be the same —
I will carry you until your hair is white.
I have made you, and I will bear you;
yes, I will carry and save you.

<sup>5</sup> To whom will you liken me and equate me?
With whom will you compare me, as if we were similar?”

<sup>6</sup> They squander the gold from their bags and weigh silver on a scale;
they hire a goldsmith to make a god,
before which they fall down and worship!

<sup>7</sup> It is borne on shoulders and carried,
then set in its place; and there it stands.
From its place it does not move.

If one cries to it, it cannot answer or save anyone from his troubles.

<sup>8</sup> Remember this, and stand firm.

Keep it in mind, you rebels.

<sup>9</sup> “Remember things that happened at the beginning, long ago — that I am God, and there is no other;

I am God, and there is none like me.

<sup>10</sup> At the beginning I announce the end, proclaim in advance things not yet done;

and I say that my plan will hold,

I will do everything I please to do.

<sup>11</sup> I call a bird of prey from the east,

the man I intended, from a distant country.

I have spoken and will bring it about;

I have made a plan, and I will fulfill it.

<sup>12</sup> Listen to me, you stubborn people,

so far from righteousness:

<sup>13</sup> I am bringing my justice nearer,

it is not far away;
my salvation will not be delayed,
I will place my salvation in Tziyon for Isra'el my glory.

47<sup>1</sup> “Come down, and sit in the dust, you virgin daughter of Bavel!

Sit on the ground, not on a throne, daughter of the Kasdim!

No longer are you to be called dainty and delicate.

<sup>2</sup> Take the millstones, and grind meal;

take off your veil, strip off your skirt, uncover your legs, wade through the streams.

<sup>3</sup> Your private parts will be exposed;

yes, your shame will be seen.

I am going to take vengeance,

and no one will stand in my way.”

<sup>4</sup> Our Redeemer! ADONAI-Tzva'ot is his name,

the Holy One of Isra'el!

<sup>5</sup> “Sit there speechless, go into darkness, you daughter of the Kasdim!

For you will no longer be called the mistress of kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup> I was angry with my people,

I desecrated my own possession and gave them over to you.

But you showed them no mercy;

you made your yoke very heavy,

even upon the aged.

<sup>7</sup> You said, ‘I will be mistress forever.’

so you didn’t consider these things or think about the consequences.

<sup>8</sup> Now hear this, you lover of luxuries, lolling at ease and saying to yourself,

‘I am important, and no one else!

I will never be a widow or know the loss of children.’

<sup>9</sup> But both will come over you in an instant, in a single day loss of children and widowhood;

they will utterly overwhelm you,
despite your many occult practices and powerful spells to prevent it.”

<sup>10</sup>       You were at ease in your wickedness, you thought, “No one sees me.”
Your “wisdom” and “knowledge” perverted you,
as you thought to yourself,
“I am important, and no one else.”

<sup>11</sup>       Yet disaster will befall you, and you won’t know how to charm it away;
calamity will come upon you,
and you won’t be able to turn it aside;
ruin will overcome you,
suddenly, before you know it.

<sup>12</sup>       So for now, keep on with your powerful spells and your many occult practices;
from childhood you have been working at them;
maybe they will do you some good,

maybe you will inspire terror!

<sup>13</sup>       You are worn out with all your consultations —

so let the astrologers and stargazers,

the monthly horoscope-makers,

come forward now and save you from the things that will come upon you!

<sup>14</sup>       Look, they will be like straw!

The fire will consume them.

They will not save even themselves from the power of the flame.

It will not be coals for warming oneself, not a fire to sit beside!

<sup>15</sup>       So much for your [wizards], with whom you have worked all your life!

Each will wander off in his own direction,
and nobody will save you.

48<sup>1</sup> Listen to this, house of Ya‘akov, called by the name of Isra’el,
who have come from the spring of Y’hudah, who swear by the name of ADONAI and invoke the God of Isra’el! —
it is not sincerely or justifiably

<sup>2</sup> that they call themselves people of the holy city or rely on the God of Isra’el —
ADONAI-Tzva’ot is his name:

<sup>3</sup> “I announced things that happened at the beginning, long ago;
they issued from my mouth, I proclaimed them.
Then suddenly I acted, and they occurred.

<sup>4</sup> Because I knew that you were stubborn, your neck an iron sinew, your forehead bronze,

<sup>5</sup> I announced it to you long ago;
before it occurred, I proclaimed it to you;
so that you could not say, ‘My idol did it;

my carved image, my statue, gave the order for it.'

<sup>6</sup>        You have heard and seen all this,

so why won't you admit it?

"Now I am announcing new things to you,

secret things you have not known,

<sup>7</sup>        created now, not long ago;

before today, you did not hear them:

so you can't say, 'I already know about them.'

<sup>8</sup>        No, you haven't heard, and you haven't known;

these things have not reached your ears before.

For I knew how treacherous you were — you were called a rebel from the womb.

<sup>9</sup>        Yet for the sake of my own reputation

I am deferring my anger;

for the sake of my praise I am patient with you,

so as not to cut you off.

<sup>10</sup>       "Look, I have refined you,

but not [as severely] as silver;

[rather] I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

<sup>11</sup> For my sake I will do it, for my own sake.

I will not let [my reputation] be tarnished;

I will not yield my glory to anyone else.

<sup>12</sup> “Listen to me, Ya‘akov;

Isra’el, whom I have called:

I am he who is first;

I am also the last.

<sup>13</sup> My hand laid the foundation of the earth,

my right hand spread out the heavens;

when I summoned them,

at once they rose into being.

<sup>14</sup> “All of you, assemble and listen:

which of you has foretold what is coming?

ADONAI’s friend will do his will against Bavel, using his arm against the Kasdim.

<sup>15</sup> It is I who have spoken,

I have summoned him,

I have brought him,
and he will succeed.

<sup>16</sup> “Come close to me, and listen to this:
since the beginning I have not spoken in secret, since the time things began to be, I have been there;
and now Adonai ELOHIM has sent me and his Spirit.”

<sup>17</sup> Thus says ADONAI, your Redeemer,
the Holy One of Isra’el:
“I am ADONAI, your God, who teaches you for your own good,
who guides you on the path you should take.

<sup>18</sup> If only you would heed my mitzvot!
Then your peace would flow on like a river,
and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Your descendants would be numerous as the sand, your offspring countless as its grains.
Their name would never be cut off or destroyed from my presence.”

<sup>20</sup> Get out of Bavel! Flee the Kasdim!

With shouts of joy announce it, proclaim it!

Send the news out to the ends of the earth!

Say, “A<sub>DONAI</sub> has redeemed his servant Ya‘akov.”

<sup>21</sup> They weren’t thirsty when he led them through the deserts, he made water flow from the rock for them —
he split the rock, and out gushed the water.

<sup>22</sup> But there is no peace, says A<sub>DONAI</sub>, for the wicked.

49<sup>1</sup> Coastlands, listen to me;

listen, you peoples far away:

A<sub>DONAI</sub> called me from the womb;

before I was born, he had spoken my name.

<sup>2</sup> He has made my mouth like a sharp sword while hiding me in the shadow of his hand;
he has made me like a sharpened arrow
while concealing me in his quiver.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, “You are my servant,
Isra’el, through whom I will show my glory.”

<sup>4</sup> But I said, “I have toiled in vain, spent my strength for nothing, futility.”

Yet my cause is with A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
my reward is with my God.

<sup>5</sup>        So now A<sub>DONAI</sub> says —
he formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Ya‘akov back to him,
to have Isra’el gathered to him, so that I will be honored in the sight of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
my God having become my strength —

<sup>6</sup>        he has said, “It is not enough that you are merely my servant
to raise up the tribes of Ya‘akov and restore the offspring of Isra’el.
I will also make you a light to the nations,
so my salvation can spread to the ends of the earth.”

<sup>7</sup>        Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
the Redeemer of Isra’el, his Holy One, says to the one despised,
whom the nations detest, to the servant of tyrants:
“When kings see you, they will stand up;

princes too will prostrate themselves,
because of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Isra'el, who has chosen you.”

<sup>8</sup> Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

“At the time when I choose, I will answer you;
on the day of salvation, I will help you.
I have preserved you, and I have appointed you to be the covenant for a people, to restore the land and distribute again
its ruined inheritances to their owners,

<sup>9</sup> to say to the prisoners, ‘Come out!’

to those in darkness, ‘Show yourselves!’
They will feed along the paths,
and all the high hills will be their pastures.

<sup>10</sup> They will be neither hungry nor thirsty;

neither scorching wind nor sun will strike them;
for he who has mercy on them will lead them
and guide them to springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> I will turn all my mountains into a road,

my highways will be raised up.

<sup>12</sup> There they come, some from far away,
some from the north, some from the west,
and some from the land of Sinim.”

<sup>13</sup> Sing, heaven! Rejoice, earth!
Break out in song, you mountains!
For ADONAI is comforting his people, having mercy on his own who have suffered.

<sup>14</sup> “But Tziyon says, ‘ADONAI has abandoned me,
Adonai has forgotten me.’

<sup>15</sup> Can a woman forget her child at the breast, not show pity on the child from her womb?
Even if these were to forget,
I would not forget you.

<sup>16</sup> I have engraved you on the palms of my hands, your walls are always before me.”

<sup>17</sup> Your children are coming quickly, your destroyers and plunderers are leaving and going.

<sup>18</sup> Raise your eyes, and look around:

they are all gathering and coming to you.

ADONAI swears: “As surely as I am alive, you will wear them all like jewels, adorn yourself with them like a bride.”

<sup>19</sup> For your desolate places and ruins and your devastated land
will be too cramped for those living in it;
your devourers will be far away.

<sup>20</sup> The day will come when the children born when you were mourning will say to you, “This place is too cramped for me!
Give me room, so I can live!”

<sup>21</sup> Then you will ask yourself,
“Who fathered these for me?
I’ve been mourning my children, alone,
as an exile, wandering to and fro;
so who has raised these?
I was left alone, so where have these come from?”

<sup>22</sup> Adonai ELOHIM answers:

“I am beckoning to the nations, raising my banner for the peoples.

They will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

<sup>23</sup> Kings will be your foster-fathers, their princesses your nurses.

They will bow to you, face toward the earth,
and lick the dust on your feet.

Then you will know that I am A<sub>DONAI</sub> — those who wait for me will not be sorry.”

<sup>24</sup> But can booty be wrested from a warrior?
Can a victor’s captives be freed?

<sup>25</sup> Here is A<sub>DONAI</sub>’s answer:

“Even a warrior’s captives will be snatched away,
and the booty of the fearful will be freed.

I will fight those who fight you,
and I will save your children.

<sup>26</sup> I will feed those oppressing you with their own flesh;
they will be drunk on their own blood as with wine.

Then everyone will know that I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Ya‘akov.”

50 <sup>1</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

“Where is your mother’s divorce document which I gave her when I divorced her?

Or: to which of my creditors

did I sell you?

You were sold because of your sins;

because of your crimes was your mother divorced.

<sup>2</sup> Why was no one here when I came?

Why, when I called, did nobody answer?

Is my arm too short to redeem?

Have I too little power to save?

With my rebuke I dry up the sea;

I turn rivers into desert, their fish rot for lack of water and they die of thirst;

<sup>3</sup> I dress the heavens in black to mourn and make their covering sackcloth.”

<sup>4</sup>        Adonai ELOHIM has given me the ability to speak as a man well taught,

so that I, with my words, know how to sustain the weary.

Each morning he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.

<sup>5</sup>        Adonai ELOHIM has opened my ear, and I neither rebelled nor turned away.

<sup>6</sup>        I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard;

I did not hide my face

from insult and spitting.

<sup>7</sup>        For Adonai ELOHIM will help.

This is why no insult can wound me.

This is why I have set my face like flint, knowing I will not be put to shame.

<sup>8</sup>        My vindicator is close by;

let whoever dares to accuse me appear with me in court!

Let whoever has a case against me step forward!

<sup>9</sup> Look, if Adonai ELOHIM helps me, who will dare to condemn me?

Here, they are all falling apart like old, moth-eaten clothes.

<sup>10</sup> “Who among you fears ADONAI?

Who obeys what his servant says?

Even when he walks in the dark,

without any light,

he will trust in ADONAI’s reputation and rely on his God.

<sup>11</sup> But all of you who are lighting fires and arming yourselves with firebrands:

go, walk in the flame of your own fire,

among the firebrands you lit!

From my hands this [fate] awaits you:

you will lie down in torment.

51 <sup>1</sup> “Listen to me, you pursuers of justice, you who seek ADONAI:

consider the rock from which you were cut,
the quarry from which you were dug —

<sup>2</sup> consider Avraham your father and Sarah, who gave birth to you;
in that I called him when he was only one person,
then blessed him and made him many.

<sup>3</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> will comfort Tziyon, will comfort all her ruined places,
will make her desert like ‘Eden,
her ‘Aravah like the garden of A<sub>DONAI</sub>.
Joy and gladness will be there,
thanksgiving and the sound of music.

<sup>4</sup> “Pay attention to me, my people!
My nation, listen to me!
For Torah will go out from me;
I will calm them with my justice
as a light for the peoples.

<sup>5</sup> My righteousness is at hand,
my salvation goes out,
my arms will judge the peoples.

The coastlands are putting their hope in me,
trusting in my arm.

<sup>6</sup> “Raise your eyes toward the skies,
look at the earth below.

The skies will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like clothing.
Those living on it will die like flies;
but my salvation will be forever,
and my justice will never end.

<sup>7</sup> “Listen to me, you who know justice, you people who have my Torah in your heart:
don’t be afraid of people’s taunts,
don’t be upset by their insults.

<sup>8</sup> For the moth will eat them up like clothing, the worm will eat them like wool;
but my justice will be forever,
and my salvation for all generations.”

<sup>9</sup> Awake! Awake! Arm of ADONAI, clothe yourself with strength!

Awake, as in days of old,

as in ancient generations!

Wasn't it you who hacked Rahav to pieces,

you who pierced the sea monster? <sup>9</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Wasn't it you who dried up the sea,

the waters of the great deep;

you who made the sea bottom a road

for the redeemed to cross?

<sup>11</sup> Those ransomed by A<sub>DONAI</sub> will return

and come with singing to Tziyon;

on their heads will be everlasting joy.

They will acquire gladness and joy,

while sorrow and sighing will flee.

<sup>12</sup> "I, yes I, am the one who comforts you!

Why are you afraid of a man, who must die;

of a human being, who will wither like grass?

<sup>13</sup> You have forgotten A<sub>DONAI</sub>, your maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth.

Instead, you are in constant fear all day because of the oppressor's rage,
as he prepares to destroy!

But where is the oppressor's rage?

<sup>14</sup>       The captive will soon be set free;
he will not die and go down to Sh'ol;
on the contrary, his food supply will be secure.

<sup>15</sup>       For I am ADONAI your God,
who stirs up the sea, who makes its waves roar —
ADONAI-Tzva'ot is my name.

<sup>16</sup>       I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand,
in order to plant the skies [anew], lay the foundations of the earth [anew]
and say to Tziyon, 'You are my people.'"

<sup>17</sup>       Awake! Awake! Stand up, Yerushalayim!
At ADONAI's hand you drank the cup of his fury;
you have drained to the dregs
the goblet of drunkenness.

There is no one to guide her among all the sons she has borne.
Not one of all the children she raised is taking her by the hand.

<sup>19</sup> These two disasters have overcome you — yet who will grieve with you? — plunder and destruction, famine and sword;
by whom can I comfort you?

<sup>20</sup> Your children lie helpless at every street corner, like an antelope trapped in a net;
they are full of ADONAI's fury,
the rebuke of your God.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, please hear this in your affliction, you who are drunk, but not with wine;

<sup>22</sup> this is what your Lord ADONAI says, your God, who defends his people: “Here, I have removed from your hand
the cup of drunkenness,
the goblet of my fury.

You will never drink it again.

<sup>23</sup> I will put it in the hands of your tormentors, who said to you, ‘Bend down, so we can trample you,’
and you flattened your back on the ground like a street for them to walk on.”

52 <sup>1</sup> Awake! Awake, Tziyon!
Clothe yourself with your strength!
Dress in your splendid garments,
Yerushalayim, the holy city!
For the uncircumcised and the unclean will enter you no more.

<sup>2</sup> Shake off the dust! Arise!
Be enthroned, Yerushalayim!
Loosen the chains on your neck,
captive daughter of Tziyon!

<sup>3</sup> For thus says ADONAI:
“You were sold for nothing,
and you will be redeemed without money.”

<sup>4</sup> For thus says Adonai ELOHIM:

“Long ago my people went down to Egypt to live there as aliens,
and Ashur oppressed them for no reason.

<sup>5</sup>        So now, what should I do here,” asks A<sub>DONAI</sub>, “since my people were carried off for nothing?
Their oppressors are howling,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
“and my name is always being insulted, daily.

<sup>6</sup>        Therefore my people will know my name;
therefore on that day they will know that I, the one speaking — here I am!”

<sup>7</sup>        How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, proclaiming shalom, bringing good news of good things, announcing salvation and saying to Tziyon, “Your God is King!”

<sup>8</sup>        Listen! Your watchmen are raising their voices, shouting for joy together.
For they will see, before their own eyes,
A<sub>DONAI</sub> returning to Tziyon.

<sup>9</sup> Break out into joy! Sing together, you ruins of Yerushalayim!

For ADONAI has comforted his people,

he has redeemed Yerushalayim!

<sup>10</sup> ADONAI has bared his holy arm

in the sight of every nation, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

<sup>11</sup> Leave! Leave! Get out of there!

Don't touch anything unclean!

Get out from inside it, and be clean,

you who carry ADONAI's temple equipment.

<sup>12</sup> You need not leave in haste,

you do not have to flee;

for ADONAI will go ahead of you, and the God of Isra'el will also be behind you.

<sup>13</sup> "See how my servant will succeed!

He will be raised up, exalted, highly honored!

<sup>14</sup> Just as many were appalled at him, because he was so disfigured that he didn't even seem human and simply no longer looked like a man, <sup>15</sup> so now he will startle many nations;

because of him, kings will be speechless.
For they will see what they had not been told,
they will ponder things they had never heard."

53<sup>1</sup> Who believes our report?

To whom is the arm of A<sub>DONAI</sub> revealed?

<sup>2</sup> For before him he grew up like a young plant,
like a root out of dry ground.

He was not well-formed or especially handsome;
we saw him, but his appearance did not attract us.

<sup>3</sup> People despised and avoided him,
a man of pains, well acquainted with illness.
Like someone from whom people turn their faces,
he was despised; we did not value him.

<sup>4</sup> In fact, it was our diseases he bore, our pains from which he suffered;

yet we regarded him as punished,
stricken and afflicted by God.

<sup>5</sup> But he was wounded because of our crimes, crushed because of our sins;
the disciplining that makes us whole fell on him,
and by his bruises* we are healed.

<sup>6</sup> We all, like sheep, went astray;
we turned, each one, to his own way;
yet A<sub>DONAI</sub> laid on him
the guilt of all of us.

<sup>7</sup> Though mistreated, he was submissive —
he did not open his mouth.
Like a lamb led to be slaughtered,
like a sheep silent before its shearers,
he did not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup> After forcible arrest and sentencing,
he was taken away;
and none of his generation protested his being cut off from the land of the living for the crimes of my people, who deserved the punishment themselves.

<sup>9</sup> He was given a grave among the wicked;
in his death he was with a rich man.

Although he had done no violence and had said nothing deceptive,

<sup>10</sup> yet it pleased A<sub>DONAI</sub> to crush him with illness, to see if he would present himself as a guilt offering.
If he does, he will see his offspring;
and he will prolong his days;
and at his hand A<sub>DONAI</sub>'s desire will be accomplished.

<sup>11</sup> After this ordeal, he will see satisfaction.
“By his knowing [pain and sacrifice],
my righteous servant makes many righteous;
it is for their sins that he suffers.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will assign him a share with the great,
he will divide the spoil with the mighty,
for having exposed himself to death and being counted among the sinners, while actually bearing the sin of many and interceding for the offenders.”

54<sup>1</sup> “Sing, barren woman who has never had a child!

Burst into song, shout for joy,
you who have never been in labor!

For the deserted wife will have more children than the woman who is living with her husband,” says ADONAI.

<sup>2</sup> Enlarge the space for your tent, extend the curtains of your dwelling;
do not hold back, lengthen your cords,
make your tent pegs firm.

<sup>3</sup> For you will spread out to the right and the left,
your descendants will possess the nations and inhabit the desolated cities.

<sup>4</sup> Don’t be afraid, for you won’t be ashamed;
don’t be discouraged, for you won’t be disgraced.
You will forget the shame of your youth,
no longer remember the dishonor of being widowed.

<sup>5</sup> For your husband is your Maker,

A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot is his name.

The Holy One of Isra'el is your Redeemer.

He will be called the God of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> has called you back like a wife abandoned and grief-stricken;

“A wife married in her youth cannot be rejected,” says your God.

<sup>7</sup> “Briefly I abandoned you,

but with great compassion I am taking you back.

<sup>8</sup> I was angry for a moment and hid my face from you;

but with everlasting grace

I will have compassion on you,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub> your Redeemer.

<sup>9</sup> “For me this is like Noach’s flood.

Just as I swore that no flood like Noach’s would ever again cover the earth,

so now I swear that never again will I be angry with you or rebuke you.

<sup>10</sup> For the mountains may leave and the hills be removed,
but my grace will never leave you,
and my covenant of peace will not be removed,”
says A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who has compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup> “Storm-ravaged [city], unconsolated,
I will set your stones in the finest way,
lay your foundations with sapphires,

<sup>12</sup> make your windows shine with rubies, your gates with garnet, your walls with gemstones.

<sup>13</sup> All your children will be taught by A<sub>DONAI</sub>;
your children will have great peace.

<sup>14</sup> In righteousness you will be established, far from oppression, with nothing to fear;
far from ruin, for it will not come near you.

<sup>15</sup> Any alliance that forms against you will not be my doing;
whoever tries to form such an alliance will fall because of you.

<sup>16</sup>

It is I who created the craftsman who blows on the coals and forges weapons suited to their purpose;
I also created the destroyer to work havoc.

<sup>17</sup>

No weapon made will prevail against you.
In court you will refute every accusation.
The servants of ADONAI inherit all this;
the reward for their righteousness is from me,”
says ADONAI.

55 <sup>1</sup> “All you who are thirsty, come to the water!

You without money, come, buy, and eat!
Yes, come! Buy wine and milk without money—it’s free!

<sup>2</sup>

Why spend money for what isn’t food,
your wages for what doesn’t satisfy?
Listen carefully to me, and you will eat well,
you will enjoy the fat of the land.

<sup>3</sup>

Open your ears, and come to me;
listen well, and you will live—

I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
the grace I assured David.

<sup>4</sup> I have given him as a witness to the peoples, a leader and lawgiver for the peoples.

<sup>5</sup> You will summon a nation you do not know, and a nation that doesn't know you will run to you,
for the sake of ADONAI your God,
the Holy One of Isra'el, who will glorify you."

<sup>6</sup> Seek ADONAI while he is available, call on him while he is still nearby.

<sup>7</sup> Let the wicked person abandon his way and the evil person his thoughts;
let him return to ADONAI,
and he will have mercy on him;
let him return to our God,
for he will freely forgive.

<sup>8</sup> "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways," says ADONAI.

<sup>9</sup> "As high as the sky is above the earth are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

<sup>10</sup> For just as rain and snow fall from the sky and do not return there, but water the earth, causing it to bud and produce,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

<sup>11</sup> so is my word that goes out from my mouth—
it will not return to me unfulfilled;
but it will accomplish what I intend,
and cause to succeed what I sent it to do.”

<sup>12</sup> Yes, you will go out with joy,
you will be led forth in peace.
As you come, the mountains and hills
will burst out into song, and all the trees in the countryside will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup> Cypresses will grow in place of thorns, myrtles will grow instead of briars.
This will bring fame to ADONAI
as an eternal, imperishable sign.

56 <sup>1</sup> Here is what ADONAI says:

“Observe justice, do what is right, for my salvation is close to coming,
my righteousness to being revealed.”

<sup>2</sup> Happy is the person who does this, anyone who grasps it firmly,
who keeps Shabbat and does not profane it,
and keeps himself from doing any evil.

<sup>3</sup> A foreigner joining ADONAI should not say, “ADONAI will separate me from his people”;
likewise the eunuch should not say,
“I am only a dried-up tree.”

<sup>4</sup> For here is what ADONAI says:
“As for the eunuchs who keep my Shabbats, who choose what pleases me
and hold fast to my covenant:

<sup>5</sup> in my house, within my walls,
I will give them power and a name greater than sons and daughters;

I will give him an everlasting name that will not be cut off.

<sup>6</sup> “And the foreigners who join themselves to A<sub>DONAI</sub> to serve him, to love the name of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
and to be his workers,
all who keep Shabbat and do not profane it,
and hold fast to my covenant,

<sup>7</sup> I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer;
their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar;
for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

<sup>8</sup> Adonai E<sub>LOHIM</sub> says,
he who gathers Isra’el’s exiles:
“There are yet others I will gather, besides those gathered already.”

<sup>9</sup> All you wild animals, come and devour, yes, all you animals in the forest!

<sup>10</sup> [Isra'el's] watchmen are, all of them, blind;
they don't know anything.

They are all dumb dogs, unable to bark,
lying there dreaming, loving to sleep.

<sup>11</sup> Greedy dogs, never satisfied — such are the shepherds, unable to understand;
they all turn to their own way,
each one intent on his own gain:

<sup>12</sup> “Come, I'll get some wine, we'll fill up on good, strong liquor!
Tomorrow will be like today;
in fact, it will be even better!”

57 <sup>1</sup> The righteous person perishes, and nobody gives it a thought.
Godly men are taken away,
and no one understands that the righteous person is taken away from the evil yet to come.

<sup>2</sup> Yes, those who live uprightly will have peace as they rest on their couches.

<sup>3</sup> “But you, you witches’ children, come here, you spawn of adulterers and whores!

<sup>4</sup> Whom are you making fun of?
At whom are you laughing and sticking out your tongue?
Aren’t you rebellious children,
just a brood of liars?

<sup>5</sup> You go into heat among the oak trees, under every spreading tree.
You kill the children in the valleys
under the cracks in the rocks.

<sup>6</sup> Your place is among the smooth stones in the vadi;
these, these are what you deserve;
you pour out drink offerings to them,
you offer grain offerings to them.
Should I calmly ignore these things?

<sup>7</sup> You set up your bed on a high, lofty mountain;
you also went up there to offer sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup> Behind door and doorpost you set up your [lewd] memorial;

then, far from me, you uncovered your bed, climbed up on it and opened it wide,
made an agreement with some of them,
whose bed you loved when you saw their hand beckoning.

<sup>9</sup>        You went to the king with scented oil;
you added to your perfumes;
you sent your envoys far away,
even down to Sh'ol.

<sup>10</sup>        Though worn out by so much travel, you did not say, 'All hope is gone';
rather, finding your strength renewed,
you did not grow weak.

<sup>11</sup>        Of whom have you been so afraid,
so fearful that you lied?
But me you don't remember,
you don't give me a thought!
I have held my peace so long that you no longer fear me.

<sup>12</sup>        I will expose your [so-called] 'righteousness'; and what you have done won't help you.

<sup>13</sup> When you cry, will those [idols] you gathered rescue you?

The wind will carry them all away,

a puff of air will take them off.

But whoever takes refuge in me will possess

the land and inherit my holy mountain.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he will say,

“Keep building! Keep building! Clear the way!

Remove everything blocking my people's path!”

<sup>15</sup> For thus says the High, Exalted One who lives forever, whose name is Holy:

“I live in the high and holy place

but also with the broken and humble, in order to revive the spirit of the humble and revive the hearts of the broken ones.

<sup>16</sup> For I will not fight them forever or always nurse my anger;

otherwise their spirits would faint before me,

the creatures I myself have made.

It was because of their flagrant greed that I was angry and struck them;
I hid myself and was angry,
but they continued on their own rebellious way.

<sup>18</sup> I have seen their ways, and I will heal them;
I will lead them and give comfort to them and to those who mourn for them —

<sup>19</sup> I will create the right words:
‘Shalom shalom to those far off and to those nearby!’ says ADONAI;
‘I will heal them!’”

<sup>20</sup> But the wicked are like the restless sea — unable to be still,
its waters toss up mud and dirt.

<sup>21</sup> There is no shalom, says my God, for the wicked.

58 <sup>1</sup> Shout out loud! Don’t hold back!

Raise your voice like a shofar!

Proclaim to my people what rebels they are,

to the house of Ya‘akov their sins.

<sup>2</sup> “Oh yes, they seek me day after day and [claim to] delight in knowing my ways.

As if they were an upright nation that had not abandoned the rulings of their God, they ask me for just rulings and [claim] to take pleasure in closeness to God,

<sup>3</sup> [asking,] ‘Why should we fast, if you don’t see?
Why mortify ourselves, if you don’t notice?’

“Here is my answer: when you fast, you go about doing whatever you like,
while keeping your laborers hard at work.

<sup>4</sup> Your fasts lead to quarreling and fighting, to lashing out with violent blows.
On a day like today, fasting like yours will not make your voice heard on high.

<sup>5</sup> “Is this the sort of fast I want,
a day when a person mortifies himself?
Is the object to hang your head like a reed and spread sackcloth and ashes under yourself?

Is this what you call a fast,

a day that pleases A<sub>DONAI</sub>?

<sup>6</sup> “Here is the sort of fast I want — releasing those unjustly bound, untying the thongs of the yoke, letting the oppressed go free,

breaking every yoke,

<sup>7</sup> sharing your food with the hungry,

taking the homeless poor into your house,

clothing the naked when you see them, fulfilling your duty to your kinsmen!”

<sup>8</sup> Then your light will burst forth like the morning, your new skin will quickly grow over your wound;

your righteousness will precede you,

and A<sub>DONAI</sub>’s glory will follow you.

<sup>9</sup> Then you will call, and A<sub>DONAI</sub> will answer;

you will cry, and he will say, “Here I am.”

If you will remove the yoke from among you, stop false accusation and slander,

<sup>10</sup> generously offer food to the hungry and meet the needs of the person in trouble;

then your light will rise in the darkness,

and your gloom become like noon.

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI will always guide you;

he will satisfy your needs in the desert,

he will renew the strength in your limbs;

so that you will be like a watered garden,

like a spring whose water never fails.

<sup>12</sup> You will rebuild the ancient ruins, raise foundations from ages past,

and be called “Repairer of broken walls,

Restorer of streets to live in.”

<sup>13</sup> “If you hold back your foot on Shabbat from pursuing your own interests on my holy day;

if you call Shabbat a delight,

ADONAI’s holy day, worth honoring;

then honor it by not doing your usual things or pursuing your interests or speaking about them.

<sup>14</sup> If you do, you will find delight in A<sub>DONAI</sub> —

I will make you ride on the heights of the land and feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Ya‘akov,
for the mouth of A<sub>DONAI</sub> has spoken.”

59 <sup>1</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub>’s arm is not too short to save, nor is his ear too dull to hear.

<sup>2</sup> Rather, it is your own crimes that separate you from your God;
your sins have hidden his face from you,
so that he doesn’t hear.

<sup>3</sup> For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with crime;
your lips speak lies,
your tongues utter wicked things.

<sup>4</sup> No one sues with just cause, no one pleads honestly in court,
they trust in empty words
and say worthless things;

they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

<sup>5</sup> They hatch viper eggs and spin spiderwebs;

whoever eats their eggs dies,

and the crushed egg hatches a snake.

<sup>6</sup> Their webs are useless as clothing, their deeds are useless for wearing;

their deeds are deeds of wickedness,

their hands produce violence.

<sup>7</sup> Their feet run to evil,

they rush to shed innocent blood,

their thoughts are thoughts of wickedness,

their paths lead to havoc and ruin.

<sup>8</sup> The way of shalom they do not know, their goings-about obey no law,

they make devious paths for themselves;

no one treading them will ever know shalom.

<sup>9</sup> This is why justice is far from us, and righteousness doesn't catch up with us;

we look for light, but see only darkness,
for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

<sup>10</sup> We grope for the wall like the blind;
like people without eyes we feel our way;
we stumble at noonday as if it were dusk,
we are in dark places like the dead.

<sup>11</sup> We growl, all of us, like bears and moan pitifully like doves;
we look for justice, but there is none;
for salvation, but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup> For our crimes multiply before you,
our sins testify against us;
for our crimes are present with us;
and our sins, we know them well:

<sup>13</sup> rebelling and denying ADONAI, turning away from following our God,
talking about oppression and revolt,
uttering lies which our hearts have conceived.

<sup>14</sup> Thus justice is repelled, righteousness stands apart, at a distance;
for truth stumbles in the public court,
and uprightness cannot enter.

<sup>15</sup> Honesty is lacking,
he who leaves evil becomes a target.
A<sub>DONAI</sub> saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.

<sup>16</sup> He saw that there was no one,
was amazed that no one interceded.
Therefore his own arm brought him salvation,
and his own righteousness sustained him.

<sup>17</sup> He put on righteousness as his breastplate, salvation as a helmet on his head;
he clothed himself with garments of vengeance and wrapped himself in a mantle of zeal.

<sup>18</sup> He repays according to their deeds — fury to his foes, reprisal to his enemies;
to the coastlands he will repay their due;

<sup>19</sup> in the west they will fear the name of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, and likewise, in the east, his glory.

For he will come like a pent-up stream, impelled by the Spirit of A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>20</sup> “Then a Redeemer will come to Tziyon, to those in Ya‘akov who turn from rebellion.”
So says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>21</sup> “And as for me,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>, “this is my covenant with them:
my Spirit, who rests on you,
and my words which I put in your mouth will not depart from your mouth or from the mouth of your children, or from the mouth of your children’s children,
now or ever,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

60 <sup>1</sup> “Arise, shine [Yerushalayim], for your light has come,
the glory of A<sub>DONAI</sub>
has risen over you.

<sup>2</sup> For although darkness covers the earth and thick darkness the peoples;
on you ADONAI will rise;
over you will be seen his glory.

<sup>3</sup> Nations will go toward your light and kings toward your shining splendor.

<sup>4</sup> Raise your eyes and look around:
they are all assembling and coming to you;
your sons are coming from far off,
your daughters being carried on their nurses' hips.

<sup>5</sup> Then you will see and be radiant, your heart will throb and swell with delight;
for the riches of the seas will be brought to you,
the wealth of nations will come to you.

<sup>6</sup> Caravans of camels will cover your land, young camels from Midyan and 'Eifah,
all of them coming from Sh'va, bringing gold and frankincense,
and proclaiming the praises of ADONAI.

All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered for you,
the rams of N'vayot will be at your service;
they will come up and be received on my altar,
as I glorify my glorious house.

<sup>8</sup> “Who are these, flying along like clouds, like doves to their dovecotes?

<sup>9</sup> The coastlands are putting their hope in me, with the ‘Tarshish’ ships in the lead,
to bring your children from far away,
and with them their silver and gold,
for the sake of ADONAI your God,
the Holy One of Isra’el, who glorifies you.

<sup>10</sup> Foreigners will rebuild your walls, their kings will be at your service;
for in my anger I struck you,
but in my mercy I pity you.

<sup>11</sup> Your gates will always be open,
they will not be shut by day or by night,
so that people can bring you the wealth of nations, with their kings led in procession.

<sup>12</sup> For the nation or kingdom that won't serve you will perish;
yes, those nations will be utterly destroyed.

<sup>13</sup> "The glory of the L'vanon will come to you, cypresses together with elm trees and larches, to beautify the site of my sanctuary —
I will glorify the place where I stand.

<sup>14</sup> The children of your oppressors will come and bow low before you,
all who despised you will fall at your feet,
calling you the city of ADONAI, Tziyon of the Holy One of Isra'el.

<sup>15</sup> "In the past you were abandoned and hated, so that no one would even pass through you;
but now I will make you the pride of the ages,
a joy for many generations.

<sup>16</sup> You will drink the milk of nations,
you will nurse at royal breasts and know that I, ADONAI, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Ya‘akov.

<sup>17</sup> “For bronze I will bring you gold, for iron I will bring you silver,

bronze in place of wood,

and iron in place of stones.

I will make shalom your governor and righteousness your taskmaster.

<sup>18</sup> Violence will no longer be heard in your land, desolation or destruction within your borders;

instead, you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

<sup>19</sup> “No more will the sun be your light by day, nor will moonlight shine on you;

instead ADONAI will be your light forever and your God your glory.

<sup>20</sup> No longer will your sun go down;

your moon will no longer wane;

for ADONAI will be your light forever;

your days of mourning will end.

<sup>21</sup>

All your people will be tzaddikim;
they will inherit the land forever;
they will be the branch I planted,
my handiwork, in which I take pride.

<sup>22</sup>

The smallest will grow to a thousand,
the weakest will become a mighty nation.
I, ADONAI, when the right time comes,
will quickly bring it about.”

61<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of Adonai ELOHIM is upon me, because ADONAI has anointed me to announce good news to the poor.

He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted;

to proclaim freedom to the captives,

to let out into light those bound in the dark;

<sup>2</sup> to proclaim the year of the favor of ADONAI

and the day of vengeance of our God;

to comfort all who mourn,

<sup>3</sup> yes, provide for those in Tziyon who mourn, giving them garlands instead of ashes,

the oil of gladness instead of mourning,

a cloak of praise instead of a heavy spirit,

so that they will be called oaks of righteousness planted by ADONAI, in which he takes pride.

<sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins, restore sites long destroyed;

they will renew the ruined cities, destroyed many generations ago.

<sup>5</sup> Strangers will stand and feed your flocks, foreigners plow your land and tend your vines;

<sup>6</sup> but you will be called cohanim of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, spoken of as ministers to our God.

You will feed on the wealth of nations, and revel in their riches.

<sup>7</sup> Because of your shame, which was doubled, and because they cried, “They deserve disgrace,” therefore in their land what they own will be doubled, and joy forever will be theirs.

<sup>8</sup> “For I, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, love justice;

I hate robbery for burnt offerings.

So I will be faithful to reward them and make an eternal covenant with them.”

<sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be known among the nations, their offspring among the peoples;

all who see them will acknowledge that they are the seed A<sub>DONAI</sub> has blessed.

<sup>10</sup> I am so joyful in A<sub>DONAI</sub>!

My soul rejoices in my God,
for he has clothed me in salvation,
dressed me with a robe of triumph,
like a bridegroom wearing a festive turban,
like a bride adorned with her jewels.

<sup>11</sup> For just as the earth brings forth its plants, or a garden makes its plants spring up,
so ADONAI, God, will cause victory and glory to spring up before all nations.

62 <sup>1</sup> For Tziyon's sake I will not be silent, for Yerushalayim's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out brightly and her salvation like a blazing torch.

<sup>2</sup> The nations will see your vindication and all kings your glory.

Then you will be called by a new name which ADONAI himself will pronounce.

<sup>3</sup> You will be a glorious crown in the hand of ADONAI, a royal diadem held by your God.

<sup>4</sup> You will no longer be spoken of as ‘Azuvah [Abandoned] or your land be spoken of as ‘Sh’mamah [Desolate]; rather, you will be called Heftzi-Vah [My-Delight-Is-In-Her] and your land Be‘ulah [Married].

For ADONAI delights in you,
and your land will be married —

<sup>5</sup> as a young man marries a young woman, your sons will marry you;
as a bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
your God will rejoice over you.

<sup>6</sup> I have posted watchmen on your walls, Yerushalayim;
they will never fall silent,
neither by day nor by night.

You who call on ADONAI,
give yourselves no rest;

<sup>7</sup> and give him no rest till he restores Yerushalayim and makes it a praise on earth.

<sup>8</sup> ADONAI has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm:

“Never again will I give your grain to your enemies as food;

nor will strangers drink your wine,

for which you worked so hard;

<sup>9</sup> but those who harvest the grain will eat it with praises to ADONAI;

those who gathered the wine will drink it in the courtyards of my sanctuary.”

<sup>10</sup> Go on through, go on through the gates, clear the way for the people!

Build up a highway, build it up!

Clear away the stones!

Raise a banner for the peoples!

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI has proclaimed to the end of the earth,

“Say to the daughter of Tziyon,

‘Here, your Salvation is coming!

Here, his reward is with him,

and his recompense is before him.’”

They will call them The Holy People,
The Redeemed of ADONAI.
You will be called D'rushah [Sought-After],
'Ir Lo Ne'ezvah [City-No-Longer-Abandoned].

63<sup>1</sup> Who is this, coming from Edom, from Botzrah with clothing stained crimson,
so magnificently dressed,
so stately in his great strength?
“It is I, who speak victoriously,
I, well able to save.”

<sup>2</sup> Why is your apparel red,
your clothes like someone treading a winepress?

<sup>3</sup> “I have trodden the winepress alone;
from the peoples, not one was with me.
So I trod them in my anger,
trampled them in my fury;
so their lifeblood spurted out on my clothing,
and I have stained all my garments;

<sup>4</sup> for the day of vengeance that was in my heart and my year of redemption have come.

<sup>5</sup> I looked, but there was no one to help, and I was appalled that no one upheld me.
Therefore my own arm brought me salvation,
and my own fury upheld me.

<sup>6</sup> In my anger I trod down the peoples, made them drunk with my fury,
then poured out their lifeblood on the earth.”

<sup>7</sup> I will recall the grace of A<sub>DONAI</sub> and the praises of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, because of all that A<sub>DONAI</sub> has granted us and his great goodness toward the house of Isra’el, which he bestowed on them in keeping with his mercy,
in keeping with the greatness of his grace.

<sup>8</sup> For he said, “They are indeed my people, children who are not disloyal.”
So he became their Savior.

<sup>9</sup> In all their troubles he was troubled;
then the Angel of His Presence saved them;

in his love and pity he redeemed them.

He had lifted them up and carried them throughout the days of old.

<sup>10</sup>       However, they rebelled, they grieved his Holy Spirit;
so he became their enemy
and himself fought against them.

<sup>11</sup>       But then his people remembered
the days of old, the days of Moshe:
“Where is he who brought them up from the sea with the shepherds of his flock?
Where is he who put his Holy Spirit right there among them,

<sup>12</sup>       who caused his glorious arm to go at Moshe’s right hand?
He divided the water ahead of them,
to make himself an eternal name;

<sup>13</sup>       he led them through the deep like a sure-footed horse through the desert;

<sup>14</sup> like cattle going down into a valley

the Spirit of ADONAI had them rest.

This is how you led your people,
to make yourself a glorious name.”

<sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven; and see from your holy, glorious dwelling.

Where are your zeal and your mighty deeds,
your inner concern and compassion?

Don’t hold back, <sup>16</sup> for you are our father.

Even if Avraham were not to know us,
and Isra’el were not to acknowledge us,
you, ADONAI, are our father,

Our Redeemer of Old is your name.

<sup>17</sup> ADONAI, why do you let us wander from your ways and harden our hearts, so that we do not fear you?

Return, for the sake of your servants,
the tribes who are your possession.

<sup>18</sup> Your holy people held your sanctuary such a short time, before our adversaries trampled it down.

<sup>19</sup>

For so long we have been like those you never ruled, like those who were not called by your name!

<sup>(64:1)</sup>

We wish you would tear open heaven and come down,
so the mountains would shake at your presence!

64<sup>1(2)</sup> It would be like fire kindling the brush, and the fire then makes the water boil.

Then your enemies would know your name,
the nations would tremble before you!

<sup>2(3)</sup>

When you did tremendous things that we were not expecting,
we wished that you would come down,
so that the mountains would shake at your presence!

<sup>3(4)</sup>

No one has ever heard,
no ear perceived, no eye seen,
any God but you.

You work for him who waits for you.

<sup>4(5)</sup>

You favored those who were glad to do justice,
those who remembered you in your ways.
When you were angry, we kept sinning;

but if we keep your ancient ways, we will be saved.

<sup>5(6)</sup> All of us are like someone unclean, all our righteous deeds like menstrual rags;
we wither, all of us, like leaves;
and our misdeeds blow us away like the wind.

<sup>6(7)</sup> No one calls on your name or bestirs himself to take hold of you, for you have hidden your face from us
and caused our misdeeds to destroy us.

<sup>7(8)</sup> But now, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, you are our father;
we are the clay, you are our potter;
and we are all the work of your hands.

<sup>8(9)</sup> Do not be so very angry, A<sub>DONAI</sub>!
Don't remember crime forever.
Look, please, we are all your people.

<sup>9(10)</sup> Your holy cities have become a desert,
Tziyon a desert, Yerushalayim a ruin.

<sup>10(11)</sup> Our holy, beautiful house, where our ancestors used to praise you,

has been burned to the ground;
all we cherished has been ruined.

<sup>11(12)</sup> ADONAI, after all this,

will you still hold back?

Will you still stay silent and punish us past endurance?

65<sup>1</sup> “I made myself accessible to those who didn’t ask for me,

I let myself be found by those who didn’t seek me.

I said, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’

to a nation not called by my name.

<sup>2</sup> I spread out my hands all day long to a rebellious people who live in a way that is not good,

who follow their own inclinations;

<sup>3</sup> a people who provoke me to my face all the time, sacrificing in gardens and burning incense on bricks.

<sup>4</sup> They sit among the graves and spend the night in caverns;

they eat pig meat
and their pots hold soup made from disgusting things.

<sup>5</sup> They say, ‘Keep your distance, don’t come near me, because I am holier than you.’
These are smoke in my nose,
a fire that burns all day!

<sup>6</sup> See, it is written before me;
I will not be silent until I repay them;
I will repay them to the full,

<sup>7</sup> your own crimes and those of your ancestors together,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

“They offered incense on the mountains and insulted me on the hills.
First I will measure out their wages and then repay them in full.”

<sup>8</sup> Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:
“As when juice is found in a cluster of grapes, and people say, ‘Don’t destroy it,

there is still some good in it,’
so I will do likewise for the sake of my servants, and not destroy them all.

<sup>9</sup> I will bring forth descendants from Ya‘akov, heirs of my mountains from Y’hudah;
my chosen ones will possess them,
and my servants will live there.

<sup>10</sup> The Sharon will be a pasture for flocks, the Akhor Valley a place for cattle to rest,
for my people who have sought me.

<sup>11</sup> “But as for you who abandon A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Gad, a god of luck, and fill bowls of mixed wine for Meni, a god of destiny —

<sup>12</sup> I will destine you to the sword, you will all bow down to be slaughtered;
because when I called, you did not answer;
when I spoke, you did not hear
, but did what was evil from my point of view and chose what did not please me.”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what Adonai ELOHIM says:

“My servants will eat, while you go hungry;
my servants will drink, while you go thirsty.

My servants will rejoice,
while you will be ashamed.

<sup>14</sup> Yes, my servants will sing for joy from their hearts, but you will cry out from the pain in your heart and howl from an anguished spirit.

<sup>15</sup> My chosen will use your name as a curse —
‘May Adonai ELOHIM strike you dead!’
But to his servants he will give another name.

<sup>16</sup> Thus someone on earth who blesses himself will bless himself by the God of truth, and someone on earth who swears an oath will swear by the God of truth;
for past troubles will be forgotten,
hidden from my eyes.

<sup>17</sup> “For, look! I create new heavens and a new earth;

past things will not be remembered,
they will no more come to mind.

<sup>18</sup>        So be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating;
for look! I am making Yerushalayim a joy,
and her people a delight.

<sup>19</sup>        I will rejoice in Yerushalayim and take joy in my people.
The sound of weeping will no longer be heard in it,
no longer the sound of crying.

<sup>20</sup>        No more will babies die in infancy, no more will an old man die short of his days —
he who dies at a hundred will be thought young,
and at less than a hundred thought cursed.

<sup>21</sup>        They will build houses and live in them, they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup>        They will not build and others live there, they will not plant and others eat;

for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen will themselves enjoy
the use of what they make.

<sup>23</sup> They will not toil in vain or raise children to be destroyed, for they are the seed blessed by ADONAI;
and their offspring with them.

<sup>24</sup> Before they call, I will answer;
while they are still speaking, I will hear.

<sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion eat straw like an ox
(but the serpent — its food will be dust).
They will not hurt or destroy anywhere on my holy mountain,”
says ADONAI.

66<sup>1</sup> “Heaven is my throne,” says ADONAI,

“and the earth is my footstool.

What kind of house could you build for me?

What sort of place could you devise for my rest?

<sup>2</sup>        Didn't I myself make all these things?

This is how they all came to be,"

says ADONAI.

"The kind of person on whom I look with favor is one with a poor and humble spirit, who trembles at my word.

<sup>3</sup>        Those others might as well kill a person as an ox, as well break a dog's neck as sacrifice a lamb,
as well offer pig's blood as offer a grain offering,
as well bless an idol as burn incense.

Just as these have chosen their ways and enjoy their disgusting practices,

<sup>4</sup>        so I will enjoy making fools of them,
and bring on them the very things they fear.

For when I called, no one answered;
when I spoke, they did not hear.

Instead they did what was evil in my sight
and chose what did not please me."

5

Hear the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
you who tremble at his word:
“Your brothers, who hate you and reject you because of my name, have said: ‘Let A<sub>DONAI</sub> be glorified,
so we can see your joy.’
But they will be put to shame.”

6

That uproar in the city,
that sound from the temple,
is the sound of A<sub>DONAI</sub> repaying his foes what they deserve.

7

Before going into labor, she gave birth;
before her pains came, she delivered a male child.

8

Who ever heard of such a thing?
Who has ever seen such things?
Is a country born in one day?
Is a nation brought forth all at once?
For as soon as Tziyon went into labor,
she brought forth her children.

9

“Would I let the baby break through and not be born?” asks A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

“Would I, who cause the birth, shut the womb?” asks your God.

<sup>10</sup> Rejoice with Yerushalayim!

Be glad with her, all you who love her!

Rejoice, rejoice with her,
all of you who mourned for her;

<sup>11</sup> so that you nurse and are satisfied

by her comforting breast, drinking deeply and delighting
in the overflow of her glory.

<sup>12</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> says, “I will spread shalom over her like a river, and the wealth of nations

like a flooding stream;

you will nurse and be carried in her arm
and cuddled in her lap.

<sup>13</sup> Like someone comforted by his mother,

I will comfort you;
in Yerushalayim
you will be comforted.”

<sup>14</sup> Your heart will rejoice at the sight, your bodies will flourish like newly sprouted grass.
It will be known that the hand of A<sub>DONAI</sub>
is with his servants; but with his enemies, his fury.

<sup>15</sup> For — look! — A<sub>DONAI</sub> will come in fire, and his chariots will be like the whirlwind,
to render his anger furiously,
his rebuke with blazing fire.

<sup>16</sup> For A<sub>DONAI</sub> will judge all humanity with fire and with the sword, and those slain by A<sub>DONAI</sub> will be many.

<sup>17</sup> “Those who consecrate and purify themselves in order to enter the gardens,
then follow the one who was already there,
eating pig meat, reptiles and mice,
will all be destroyed together,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

“For I [know] their deeds and their thoughts.

“[The time] is coming when I will gather together all nations and languages. They will come and see my glory,<sup>19</sup> and I will give them a sign. I will send some of their survivors to the nations of Tarshish, Pul, Lud (these are archers), Tuval, Greece and more distant coasts, where they have neither heard of my fame nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory in these nations;<sup>20</sup> and they will bring all your kinsmen out of all the nations as an offering to ADONAI — on horses, in chariots, in wagons, on mules, on camels — to my holy mountain Yerushalayim,” says ADONAI, “just as the people of Isra’el themselves bring their offerings in clean vessels to the house of ADONAI.<sup>21</sup> I will also take cohanim and L’vi’im from them,” says ADONAI.

<sup>22</sup> “For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I am making will continue in my presence,” says ADONAI, “so will your descendants and your name continue.

“Every month on Rosh-Hodesh

and every week on Shabbat,

everyone living will come to worship in my presence,” says ADONAI.

“As they leave, they will look on the corpses of the people who rebelled against me.

For their worm will never die,

and their fire will never be quenched;

but they will be abhorrent to all humanity.”

[“Every month on Rosh-Hodesh

and every week on Shabbat,
everyone living will come
to worship in my presence,” says ADONAI.]

Yirmeyahu

JEREMIAH

1 <sup>1</sup> These are the words of Yirmeyahu the son of Hilkiyahu, one of the cohanim living in ‘Anatot, in the territory of Binyamin. <sup>2</sup> The word of ADONAI came to him during the days of Yoshiyahu the son of Amon, king of Y’hudah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. <sup>3</sup> It also came during the days of Y’hoyakim the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah, continuing until the eleventh year of Tzidkiyahu the son of Yoshiyahu, king of Y’hudah, right up until the time Yerushalayim was carried away captive, in the fifth month.

<sup>4</sup> Here is the word of ADONAI that came to me:

<sup>5</sup> “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you;

before you were born, I separated you for myself.

I have appointed you to be a prophet to the nations.”

<sup>6</sup> I said, “Oh, Adonai ELOHIM, I don’t even know how to speak! I’m just a child!” <sup>7</sup>But ADONAI said to me, “Don’t say, ‘I’m just a child.’”

“For you will go to whomever I send you, and you will speak whatever I order you.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be afraid of them,

for I am with you, says ADONAI,

to rescue you.”

<sup>9</sup> Then ADONAI put out his hand and touched my mouth, and ADONAI said to me,

“There! I have put my words in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup>

Today I have placed you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and to tear down,
to destroy and to demolish,
to build and to plant.”

<sup>11</sup> The word of ADONAI came to me, asking, “Yirmeyahu, what do you see?” I answered, “I see a branch from an almond tree [Hebrew: shaked]. <sup>12</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, “You have seen well, because I am watching [Hebrew: shoked] to fulfill my word.”

<sup>13</sup> A second time the word of ADONAI came to me, asking, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a caldron tilted away from the north, over a fire fanned by the wind.” <sup>14</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, “From the north calamity will boil over onto everyone living in the land, <sup>15</sup> because I will summon all the families in the kingdoms of the north,” says ADONAI,

“and they will come and sit, each one, on his throne at the entrance to the gates of Yerushalayim, opposite its walls, all the way around,
and opposite all the cities of Y’hudah.

<sup>16</sup>

I will pronounce my judgments against them
for all their wickedness in abandoning me, offering incense to other gods
and worshipping what their own hands made.

<sup>17</sup>

“But you, dress for action; stand up and tell them everything I order you to say.

When you confront them, don't break down;
or I will break you down in front of them!

<sup>18</sup> For today, you see, I have made you into a fortified city, a pillar of iron,
a wall of bronze against the whole land — against the kings of Y'hudah, against its princes, against its cohanim and the people of the land.

<sup>19</sup> They will fight against you,
but they will not overcome you,
for I am with you," says ADONAI,
"to rescue you."

2 <sup>1</sup> The word of ADONAI came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Go and shout in the ears of Yerushalayim that this is what ADONAI says:

'I remember your devotion when you were young;
how, as a bride, you loved me;
how you followed me through the desert,
through a land not sown.

<sup>3</sup> "'Isra'el is set aside for ADONAI, the firstfruits of his harvest;

all who devour him will incur guilt;
evil will befall them,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>4</sup> Hear the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, house of Ya‘akov and all families in the house of Isra’el;

<sup>5</sup> here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

“What did your ancestors find wrong with me to make them go so far away from me, to make them go after nothings and become themselves nothings?

<sup>6</sup> They didn’t ask, ‘Where is A<sub>DONAI</sub>, who brought us out of the land of Egypt,
who led us through the desert,
through a land of wastes and ravines,
through a land of drought and death-dark shadows, through a land where no one travels and where no one ever lived?’

<sup>7</sup> I brought you into a fertile land to enjoy its fruit and all its good things;
but when you entered, you defiled my land and made my heritage loathsome.

<sup>8</sup> The cohanim didn't ask, 'Where is A<sub>DONAI</sub>?'

Those who deal with the Torah did not know me,
the people's shepherds rebelled against me;
the prophets prophesied by Ba'al and went after things of no value.

<sup>9</sup> "So again I state my case against you," says A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
"and state it against your grandchildren too.

<sup>10</sup> Cross to the coasts of the Kittim and look;
send to Kedar and observe closely;
see if anything like this has happened before:

<sup>11</sup> has a nation ever exchanged its gods
(and theirs are not gods at all!)?
Yet my people have exchanged their Glory for something without value.

<sup>12</sup> Be aghast at this, you heavens!
Shudder in absolute horror!" says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>13</sup> "For my people have committed two evils:
they have abandoned me,

the fountain of living water,
and dug themselves cisterns, broken cisterns,
that can hold no water!

<sup>14</sup> “Is Isra’el a slave, born into serfdom?

If not, why has he become plunder?

<sup>15</sup> The young lions are roaring at him —

how loudly they are roaring!

They desolate his country, demolishing and depopulating his cities.

<sup>16</sup> The people of Nof and Tachpanches feed on the crown of your head.

<sup>17</sup> “Haven’t you brought this on yourself

by abandoning ADONAI your God

when he led you along the way?

<sup>18</sup> If you go to Egypt, what’s in it for you?

Drinking water from the Nile?

If you go to Ashur, what’s in it for you?

Drinking water from the [Euphrates] River?

<sup>19</sup> Your own wickedness will correct you, your own backslidings will convict you;

you will know and see how bad and bitter
it was to abandon Adonai your God, and how fear of me is not in you,”
says Adonai Elohim-Tzva’ot.

<sup>20</sup> “For long ago I broke your yoke;
when I snapped your chains, you said, ‘I won’t sin.’
Yet on every high hill, under every green tree,
you sprawled and prostituted yourself.

<sup>21</sup> But I planted you as a choice vine of seed fully tested and true.
How did you degenerate into a wild vine for me?

<sup>22</sup> Even if you scrub yourself with soda and plenty of soap,
the stain of your guilt is still there before me,” says Adonai Elohim.

<sup>23</sup> “How can you say, ‘I am not defiled,
I have not pursued the ba’alim’?

Look at your conduct in the valley, understand what you have done.

You are a restive young female camel,
running here and there,

<sup>24</sup> wild, accustomed to the desert, sniffing the wind in her lust —

who can control her when she's in heat?

Males seeking her need not weary themselves,
for at mating season they will find her.

<sup>25</sup> “Stop before your shoes wear out,

and your throat is dry from thirst!

But you say, ‘No, it's hopeless!

I love these strangers, and I'm going after them.’

<sup>26</sup> Just as a thief is ashamed when caught, so is the house of Isra'el ashamed —

they, their kings, their leaders, their cohanim and their prophets,

<sup>27</sup> who say to a log, ‘You are my father,’ and to a stone, ‘You gave us birth.’

For they have turned their backs to me instead of their faces.

But when trouble comes, they will plead,
‘Rouse yourself and save us!’

<sup>28</sup> Where are your gods that you made for yourselves?

Let them rouse themselves,
if they can save you when trouble comes.

Y’hudah, you have as many gods
as you have cities!

<sup>29</sup> Why argue with me? You have all rebelled against me!” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>30</sup> “In vain have I struck down your people.

They would not receive correction.

Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a marauding lion.

<sup>31</sup> You of this generation,

look at the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub>:

Have I been a desert to Isra’el?

or a land of oppressive darkness?

Why do my people say, 'We're free to roam,
we will no longer come to you'?

<sup>32</sup> Does a girl forget her jewellery, or a bride her wedding sash?

Yet my people have forgotten me,
days beyond numbering.

<sup>33</sup> You are so clever in your search for love that the worst of women can learn from you!

<sup>34</sup> Right there on your clothing is the blood of the innocent poor, although you never caught them breaking and entering.

Yet concerning all these things,

<sup>35</sup> you say, 'I am innocent;
surely he's no longer angry at me.'
Here, I am passing sentence on you, because you say, 'I have done nothing wrong.'

<sup>36</sup> You cheapen yourself when you change course so often — you will be disappointed by Egypt too,

just as you were disappointed by Ashur.

<sup>37</sup>

Yes, you will leave him too,
with your hands on your heads [in shame].
For ADONAI rejects those in whom you trust;
from them you will gain nothing.”

3<sup>1</sup> [ADONAI] says:

“If a man divorces his wife,
and she leaves him and marries another man,
then if the first one marries her again,
that land will be completely defiled.
But you prostituted yourself to many lovers,
yet you want to return to me?” says ADONAI.

<sup>2</sup>

“Raise your eyes to the bare hills, take a look:
where have you not had sex?
You sat by the roadsides waiting for them
like a nomad in the desert.
You have defiled the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

<sup>3</sup>

For this reason the showers have been withheld,

there has been no rain in the spring;
still you maintain a whore's brazen look and refuse to be ashamed.

<sup>4</sup> Didn't you just now cry to me,
'My father, you are my friend from my youth'? —

<sup>5</sup> [thinking,] 'He won't bear a grudge forever, will he?
He wouldn't maintain it right to the end.'
You say this, but you keep doing evil things, you just do whatever you want."

<sup>6</sup> In the days of Yoshiyahu the king, ADONAI asked me, "Have you seen the things that backsliding Isra'el has been doing? She goes up on every bare hill and under every green tree and prostitutes herself there. <sup>7</sup> I said that after she had done all these things, she would return to me; but she hasn't returned. Meanwhile, her unfaithful sister Y'hudah has been watching. <sup>8</sup> I saw that even though backsliding Isra'el had committed adultery, so that I had sent her away and given her a divorce document, unfaithful Y'hudah her sister was not moved to fear — instead she too went and prostituted herself. <sup>9</sup> The ease with which Isra'el prostituted herself defiled the land, as she committed adultery with stones and with logs. <sup>10</sup> Yet in spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Y'hudah has not returned to me wholeheartedly; she only makes a pretense of it," said ADONAI.

<sup>11</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, "Backsliding Isra'el has proved herself more righteous than unfaithful Y'hudah. <sup>12</sup> Go and proclaim these words toward the north:

"Return, backsliding Isra'el," says ADONAI.

"I will not frown on you, for I am merciful," says ADONAI.

“I will not bear a grudge forever.

<sup>13</sup> Only acknowledge your guilt, that you have committed crimes against ADONAI your God, that you were promiscuous with strangers
under every green tree, and that you have not paid attention to my voice,” says ADONAI.

<sup>14</sup> “Return, backsliding children,” says ADONAI;
“for I am your master.
I will take you, one from a city,
two from a family, and bring you to Tziyon.

<sup>15</sup> I will give you shepherds
after my own heart,
and they will feed you with knowledge and understanding.”

<sup>16</sup> “And,” says ADONAI, “in those days, when your numbers have increased in the land, people will no longer talk about the ark for the covenant of ADONAI — they won’t think about it, they won’t miss it, and they won’t make another one. <sup>17</sup> When that time comes, they will call Yerushalayim the throne of ADONAI. All the nations will be gathered there to the name of ADONAI, to Yerushalayim. No longer will they live according to their stubbornly evil hearts. <sup>18</sup> In those days, the house of Y'hudah will live together with the house of Isra'el; they will come together from the lands in the north to the land I gave your ancestors as their heritage."

<sup>19</sup> "I thought that I would like to put you among the sons [with inheritance rights] and give you a pleasant land, the best heritage of all the nations. I thought that you would call me 'My father' and never stop following me. <sup>20</sup> But like a faithless woman who betrays her husband, you, house of Isra'el, have betrayed me," says ADONAI.

<sup>21</sup> A sound is heard on the heights,
the house of Isra'el crying, pleading for mercy,
because they have perverted their way and forgotten ADONAI their God.

<sup>22</sup> "Return, backsliding children, and I will heal your backsliding."

"Here we are, we are coming to you, for you are ADONAI our God.

<sup>23</sup> Indeed the hills have proved a delusion, likewise the orgies on the mountains.
Truly the salvation of Isra'el is in ADONAI our God.

<sup>24</sup> But from our youth the shameful thing [idolatry] has devoured the fruit of our ancestors' work, their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup>

Let us lie down in our shame,
let our disgrace cover us,
for we have sinned against A<sub>DONAI</sub> our God,
both we and our ancestors,
from our youth until today;
we have not paid attention to the voice of A<sub>DONAI</sub> our God.”

4<sup>1</sup>

“Isra’el, if you will return,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>, “yes, return to me; and if you will banish your abominations from my presence without wandering astray again;

<sup>2</sup>

and if you will swear, ‘As A<sub>DONAI</sub> lives,’ in truth, justice and righteousness;
then the nations will bless themselves by him,
and in him will they glory.”

<sup>3</sup>

For here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says to the people of Y’hudah and Yerushalayim: “Break up your ground that hasn’t been plowed, and do not sow among thorns.”

<sup>4</sup> “People of Y’hudah and inhabitants of Yerushalayim, circumcise yourselves for A<sub>DONAI</sub>, remove the foreskins of your heart!
Otherwise my fury will lash out like fire, burning so hot that no one can quench it,
because of how evil your actions are.

<sup>5</sup> “Announce in Y’hudah, proclaim in Yerushalayim; say: ‘Blow the shofar in the land!’
Shout the message aloud: ‘Assemble!
Let us go to the fortified cities!’

<sup>6</sup> Set up a signal toward Tziyon, head for cover without delay.
For I will bring disaster from the north,
yes, dire destruction.

<sup>7</sup> A lion has risen from his lair,
a destroyer of nations has set out, left his own place to ruin your land,
to demolish and depopulate your cities.”

<sup>8</sup> So wrap yourselves in sackcloth, lament and wail, for ADONAI's fierce anger has not turned away from us.

<sup>9</sup> "When that day comes," says ADONAI,
"the king's heart will fail him,
likewise the princes';
the cohanim will be appalled and the prophets stupefied."

<sup>10</sup> Then I said, "Oh, Adonai ELOHIM! Surely you have sadly deceived this people and Yerushalayim by saying, 'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our very throats!"

<sup>11</sup> "At that time it will be said of this people and of Yerushalayim:
'A scorching wind from the desert heights is sweeping down on my people.'
It is not coming to winnow or cleanse;

<sup>12</sup> this wind of mine is too strong for that.
Now I will pass sentence on them."

<sup>13</sup> Here he comes, like the clouds, his chariots like the whirlwind,

his horses faster than eagles!

Woe to us, we are doomed!

<sup>14</sup> Wash the evil from your heart, Yerushalayim, so that you can be saved.

How long will you harbor within yourselves your evil thoughts?

<sup>15</sup> For a voice is announcing the news from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Efrayim:

<sup>16</sup> “Report it to the nations, proclaim about Yerushalayim:
‘[Enemies] are coming from a distant country, watching and shouting their war cry against the cities of Y’hudah.’

<sup>17</sup> Like guards in a field they surround her, because she has rebelled against me,” says ADONAI.

<sup>18</sup> “Your own ways and your actions have brought these things on yourselves.
This is your wickedness, so bitter!
It has reached your very heart.”

<sup>19</sup> My guts! My guts! I'm writhing in pain!

My heart! It beats wildly — I can't stay still! — because I have heard the shofar sound;
it's the call to war.

<sup>20</sup> The news is disaster after disaster!

All the land is ruined!
My tents are suddenly destroyed,
my tent curtains in an instant.

<sup>21</sup> How long must I see that signal and hear the shofar sound?

<sup>22</sup> “It is because my people are foolish —

they do not know me; they are stupid children, without understanding, wise when doing evil;
but they don't know how to do good.”

<sup>23</sup> I looked at the land — it was unformed and void — and at the sky — it had no light.

<sup>24</sup> I looked at the mountains, and they shook —

all the hills moved back and forth.

<sup>25</sup> I looked, and there was no human being;

all the birds in the air had fled.

<sup>26</sup> I looked, and the fertile fields were a desert, all the land's cities were razed to the ground at the presence of A<sub>DONAI</sub>, before his burning anger.

<sup>27</sup> For here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

“The whole land will be desolate
(although I will not destroy it completely).

<sup>28</sup> Because of this, the land will mourn and the sky above be black;
for I have spoken, I have decided,
I will not change my mind, I will not turn back.”

<sup>29</sup> At the noise of the horsemen and archers, the entire city flees —
some plunge into thickets; others climb rocks;
all cities are deserted; no one lives there.

<sup>30</sup> And you, who are doomed to be plundered, what do you mean by putting on crimson,
decking yourselves with jewels and gold,

enlarging your eyes with eye make-up?

You beautify yourself in vain —

your lovers despise you, they seek your life!

<sup>31</sup> For I have heard a sound like a woman in labor, in anguish giving birth to her first child.

It is the sound of the daughter of Tziyon gasping for breath as she spreads her hands:

“Woe to me! Everything in me is so weary before the killers.”

5<sup>1</sup> “Roam the streets of Yerushalayim look around, observe and ask in its open spaces:

if you can find anyone (if there is anyone!)

who acts with justice and seeks the truth,

I will pardon her.

<sup>2</sup> And though they say, ‘As A<sub>DONAI</sub> lives,’

the fact is that they are swearing falsely.”

<sup>3</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub>, your eyes look for truth.

You struck them, but they weren’t affected;

you [nearly] destroyed them,

but they refused correction.

They made their faces harder than rock, refusing to repent.

<sup>4</sup> My reaction was, “These must be the poor, the foolish, not knowing the way of A<sub>DONAI</sub>
or the rulings of their God.

<sup>5</sup> I will go to the prominent men,
and I will speak to them;
for they know the way of A<sub>DONAI</sub> and the rulings of their God.”

But these had completely broken the yoke and torn the harness off.

<sup>6</sup> This is why a forest lion kills them, why a desert wolf can plunder them,
why a leopard guards their cities —
all who leave are torn to pieces — because their crimes are many,
their backslidings keep increasing.

<sup>7</sup> “Why should I forgive you?

Your people have abandoned me
and sworn by non-gods.

When I fed them to the full,
they committed adultery,
thronging to the brothels.

<sup>8</sup> They have become like well-fed horses, lustful stallions, each one neighing
after his neighbor's wife.

<sup>9</sup> Should I not punish for this?" asks ADONAI.
"Should I not be avenged on a nation like this?"

<sup>10</sup> Go through her rows [of vines], and destroy them (but don't destroy them completely):
strip away her branches,
they do not belong to ADONAI.

<sup>11</sup> "For the house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah have thoroughly betrayed me," says ADONAI.

<sup>12</sup> They have denied ADONAI, they have said, "He won't do anything, calamity will not strike us,

we will see neither sword nor famine.

<sup>13</sup> The prophets are merely wind,
they do not have the word;
the things that they are predicting will happen only to them.”

<sup>14</sup> Therefore ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot says:

“Because you people speak this way,
I will make my words fire in your mouth, [Yirmeyahu,] and this people wood;
so that it will devour them.

<sup>15</sup> I will bring on you, house of Isra’el, a distant nation,” says ADONAI, “an enduring nation, an ancient nation,
a nation whose language you do not know —
you will not understand what they are saying.

<sup>16</sup> Their quiver is like an open grave,
they are all mighty warriors.

<sup>17</sup> They will eat up your harvest and your bread, they will eat up your sons and your daughters,

they will eat up your flocks and your herds,
they will eat up your vines and your fig trees;
with the sword they will beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust.

<sup>18</sup> But even in those days,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>,

“I will not completely destroy you.

<sup>19</sup> And when your people ask, ‘Why has A<sub>DONAI</sub> our God done all these things to us?’

you are to give them this answer:

‘Just as you abandoned me and served strange gods in your own land,

so likewise you will serve strangers in a land that is not your own.’

<sup>20</sup> Announce this in the house of Ya‘akov, proclaim it in Y’hudah; say:

<sup>21</sup> ‘Hear this, stupid, brainless people, who have eyes but do not see,

who have ears but do not hear:

Don't you fear me? — says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

Won't you tremble at my presence?

I made the shore the limit for the sea;

by eternal decree it cannot pass.

Its waves may toss, but to no avail;

although they roar, they cannot cross it.

<sup>23</sup> But this people has a rebellious, defiant heart;

they have rebelled and gone!

<sup>24</sup> They don't say to themselves,

“Let's fear A<sub>DONAI</sub> our God, who gives the fall and spring rains in season,

who reserves us the weeks assigned for harvest.”

<sup>25</sup> Your crimes have overturned nature's rules, your sins have kept back good from you.’

<sup>26</sup> “For among my people there are wicked men, who, like fowlers, lie in wait and set traps to catch their fellow human beings.

<sup>27</sup> Their houses are as full of fraud

as a cage full of birds.

They grow rich and great, <sup>28</sup> sleek and bloated;
they excel in acts of wickedness
but do not plead on behalf of the orphan, thus enabling his cause to succeed;
nor do they judge in favor of the poor.

<sup>29</sup> “Should I not punish for this?” asks A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

“Should I not be avenged on a nation like this?

<sup>30</sup> A shocking and horrifying thing has happened in the land:

<sup>31</sup> The prophets prophesy lies,

the cohanim obey the prophets,

and my people love it that way.

But what will you do at the end of it all?

6 <sup>1</sup> “Head for cover, people of Binyamin, get out of Yerushalayim!

Blow the shofar in T’koa, light the beacon on Beit-Hakerem.

For disaster threatens from the north,

with great destruction.

<sup>2</sup> Although she is beautiful and delicate,
I am cutting off the daughter of Tziyon.”

<sup>3</sup> Shepherds advance on her with their flocks;
all around her they pitch their tents,
each grazing his own plot of pasture.

<sup>4</sup> “Prepare for war against her!
Get up! Let’s attack at noon!”
“Woe to us! for the day is waning, evening shadows are lengthening.”

<sup>5</sup> “Get up! Let’s attack at night!
Let’s destroy her palaces!”

<sup>6</sup> For ADONAI-Tzva’ot says this:
“Cut down her trees, and raise a siege-ramp against Yerushalayim!
This is the city to be punished;
in her there is nothing but oppression.

<sup>7</sup> Just as a cistern keeps its water fresh,
so she keeps her wickedness fresh!
Violence and destruction are heard within her,

always before me sickness and wounds.

<sup>8</sup> Accept correction, Yerushalayim, or I will be estranged from you and turn you into a desolate waste,

a land without inhabitants.”

<sup>9</sup> Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot:

“They will glean the remnant of Isra’el as thoroughly as in a vineyard —

one last time, like a grape-picker, pass your hand over the vines.”

<sup>10</sup> To whom should I speak? Whom should I warn?

Who will listen to me?

Their ears are dull, they can’t pay attention.

For them the word of ADONAI has become unattractive, an object of scorn.

<sup>11</sup> This is why I am full of ADONAI’s fury;

I am weary of holding it back.

“Pour it out on the children in the street and on the groups of young men gathered;

for husbands and wives will be taken together,
seniors as well as the very old.

<sup>12</sup> Their homes will be turned over to others, their fields together with their wives.

Yes, I will stretch out my hand against those who are living in the land,” says ADONAI.

<sup>13</sup> “For from the least to the greatest of them,
all are greedy for gains;
prophets and cohanim alike,
they all practice fraud —

<sup>14</sup> they dress the wound of my people,
but only superficially,
saying, ‘There is perfect shalom,’
when there is no shalom.

<sup>15</sup> “They should be ashamed of their detestable deeds,
but they are not ashamed at all;
they don’t know how to blush.
Therefore when others fall,

they too will fall;
when I punish them,
they will stumble,” says ADONAI.

<sup>16</sup> Here is what ADONAI says:

“Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask about the ancient paths,
‘Which one is the good way?’
Take it, and you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, ‘We will not take it.’

<sup>17</sup> I appointed sentinels to direct them:

‘Listen for the sound of the shofar.’
But they said, ‘We will not listen.’

<sup>18</sup> So hear, you nations; know, you assembly, what there is against them.

<sup>19</sup> Hear, oh earth! I am going to bring disaster on this people;
it is the consequence of their own way of thinking;
for they pay no attention to my words;

and as for my Torah, they reject it.

<sup>20</sup>

What do I care about incense from Sh'va or sweet cane from a distant land?
Your burnt offerings are unacceptable,
your sacrifices don't please me."

<sup>21</sup> Therefore thus says ADONAI:

"I will put obstacles in the way of this people that they will stumble over — fathers and sons, neighbors and friends, all will perish together."

<sup>22</sup> Here is what ADONAI says:

"A people is coming from the land of the north,
a great nation will be aroused from the ends of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>

They will take hold of bow and spear;
they are cruel; they have no compassion:
their noise as they ride on horses
is like the roaring sea;
and they are equipped for battle against you, daughter of Tziyon.

<sup>24</sup>       ‘We have heard the news,
and our hands fall limp;
anguish has seized us,
pain like a mother’s in childbirth.’”

<sup>25</sup>       Don’t go into the countryside, don’t walk out on the road;
for the sword of the enemy is spreading terror in every direction.

<sup>26</sup>       Daughter of my people, put on sackcloth, roll in ashes,
mourn as if for an only son,
wail most bitterly;
for suddenly the destroyer
will come upon us.

<sup>27</sup>       “I have made you a refiner and tester of my people, to know and test how they behave.

<sup>28</sup>       All of them are total rebels, spreading slanderous gossip;
they are bronze and iron, [inferior metals,]

all of them corrupt.

<sup>29</sup>

The bellows blast away;

and though the lead is consumed by the fire,

in vain has the smelter refined,

for the wicked have not been separated.

<sup>30</sup>

They are called ‘rejected silver,’

because ADONAI has rejected them.”

7 <sup>1</sup> This word came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI: <sup>2</sup> “Stand at the gate of the house of ADONAI and proclaim this word: ‘Listen to the word of ADONAI, all you from Y’hudah who enter these gates to worship ADONAI! <sup>3</sup> Here is what ADONAI-Tzva’ot, the God of Isra’el, says: “Improve your ways and actions, and I will let you stay in this place. <sup>4</sup> Don’t rely on that deceitful slogan, ‘The temple of ADONAI, the temple of ADONAI — these [buildings] are the temple of ADONAI.’ <sup>5</sup> No, but if you really improve your ways and actions; if you really administer justice between people; <sup>6</sup> if you stop oppressing foreigners, orphans and widows; if you stop shedding innocent blood in this place; and if you stop following other gods, to your own harm; <sup>7</sup> then I will let you stay in this place, in the land I gave to your ancestors forever and ever. <sup>8</sup> Look! You are relying on deceitful words that can’t do you any good. <sup>9</sup> First you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, offer to Ba’al and go after other gods that you haven’t known. <sup>10</sup> Then you come and stand before me in this house that bears my name and say, ‘We are saved’ — so that you can go on doing these abominations! <sup>11</sup> Do you regard this house, which bears my name, as a cave for bandits? I can see for myself what’s going on,” says ADONAI. <sup>12</sup> “Go to the place in Shiloh that used to be mine, that used to bear my name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Isra’el. <sup>13</sup> I spoke to you again and again, but you wouldn’t listen. I called you, but you wouldn’t answer. Now,” says ADONAI, “because you have done all these things, <sup>14</sup> I will do to the house that bears my name, on which you rely, and to the place I gave you and your ancestors, what I did to Shiloh; <sup>15</sup> and I will drive you out of my presence, just as I drove out all your kinsmen, all the descendants of Efrayim.”

<sup>16</sup> “So you, [Yirmeyahu,] don’t pray for this people! Don’t cry, pray or intercede on their behalf with me; because I won’t listen to you. <sup>17</sup> Don’t you see what they are doing in the cities of Y’hudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim? <sup>18</sup> The children gather the wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and, just to provoke me, they pour out drink offerings to other gods! <sup>19</sup> Are they really provoking me,” asks ADONAI, “or are they provoking themselves, to their own ruin?”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, here is what Adonai ELOHIM says: “My anger and fury will be poured out on this place, on men, animals, trees in the fields and produce growing from the ground; and it will burn without being quenched.”

<sup>21</sup> Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot, the God of Isra’el: “You may as well eat the meat of your burnt offerings along with that of your sacrifices. <sup>22</sup> For I didn’t speak to your ancestors or give them orders concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>23</sup> Rather, what I did order them was this: ‘Pay attention to what I say. Then I will be your God, and you will be my people. In everything, live according to the way that I order you, so that things will go well for you.’ <sup>24</sup> But they neither listened nor paid attention, but lived according to their own plans, in the stubbornness of their evil hearts, thus going backward and not forward. <sup>25</sup> You have done this from the day your ancestors came out of Egypt until today. Even though I sent you all my servants the prophets, sending them time after time, <sup>26</sup> they would not listen or pay attention to me, but stiffened their necks; they did worse than their ancestors. <sup>27</sup> So tell them all this; but they won’t listen to you; likewise, call to them; but they won’t answer you.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, say to them,

‘This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of ADONAI their God.

They won’t take correction; faithfulness has perished;

it has vanished from their mouths.

Cut off your hair, and throw it away,
take up a lament on the bare hills,
for ADONAI has rejected and abandoned
the generation that rouses his anger.’

<sup>30</sup> “For the people of Y’udah have done what is evil from my perspective,” says ADONAI; “they have set up their detestable things in the house which bears my name, to defile it. <sup>31</sup> They have built the high places of Tofet in the Ben-Hinnom Valley, to burn their sons and daughters in the fire, something I never ordered; in fact, such a thing never even entered my mind! <sup>32</sup> Therefore, the days are coming,” says ADONAI, “when it will no longer be called either Tofet or the Ben-Hinnom Valley, but the Valley of Slaughter — they will put the dead in Tofet, because there will be no space left [anywhere else]. <sup>33</sup> The corpses of this people will become food for the birds in the air and the wild animals; no one will frighten them away. <sup>34</sup> Then in the cities of Y’udah and the streets of Yerushalayim I will silence the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of bridegroom and bride; because the land will be reduced to ruins.

8<sup>1</sup> “At that time,” says ADONAI, “[these enemies] will remove the bones of the kings of Y’hudah, the bones of his princes, the bones of the cohanim, the bones of the prophets and the bones of the inhabitants of Yerushalayim from their graves.<sup>2</sup> They will spread them out, exposed to the sun, the moon and the entire army of heaven, whom they loved, served, walked after, sought after and worshipped. The bones will not be collected or reburied but will be left lying on the ground like dung.<sup>3</sup> All the survivors of this evil family who remain wherever I have driven them will prefer death to life,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot.<sup>4</sup> “You are to tell them that ADONAI says:

‘If a person falls, doesn’t he get up again?

If someone goes astray, doesn’t he turn back?

<sup>5</sup> Why do these people keep backsliding?

Why is their backsliding so persistent?

They cling to deceit and refuse to return!

<sup>6</sup> I listened attentively but they spoke nothing right.

No one repents of his wickedness, saying, “What have I done!”

Each runs off in his own direction, like a horse plunging headlong into battle.

<sup>7</sup> Storks in the sky know their seasons;

doves, swallows and cranes their migration times;

but my people do not know the rulings of ADONAI!

<sup>8</sup>

“How can you say, “We are wise;
ADONAI’s Torah is with us,” when in fact the lying pen of the scribes has turned it into falsehood?

<sup>9</sup>

The wise are put to shame,
alarmed, entrapped.
They have rejected the word of ADONAI, so what wisdom do they have?

<sup>10</sup>

“Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who take them over;
for from the least to the greatest,
all are greedy for gains;
prophets and cohanim alike
all practice fraud —

<sup>11</sup>

they dress the wound of the daughter of my people,
but only superficially,
saying, “There is perfect shalom,”
when there is no shalom.

<sup>12</sup>

They should be ashamed

of their detestable deeds,
but they are not ashamed at all,
they don't know how to blush.
So when others fall, they too will fall;
when I punish them, they will stumble,'
says ADONAI.

<sup>13</sup> “‘I will put an end to them,’ says ADONAI.

‘There are no grapes on the vine,
and no figs on the fig tree;
the leaf has withered; and what I have given them will pass from their possession.’”

<sup>14</sup> “Why are we sitting still? Assemble!

Let's enter the fortified cities and meet our doom there!
For ADONAI our God has doomed us;
he has given us bitter water to drink,
because we have sinned against ADONAI.

<sup>15</sup> When we look for peace, nothing good comes;
when we seek a time of healing, instead there is terror.”

<sup>16</sup> From Dan can be heard the snorting of his horses;
when his stallions neigh, the whole land trembles.
For they come devouring the land and all in it,
the city and those who dwell there.

<sup>17</sup> “Yes, now I am sending snakes among you, vipers that no one can charm,
and they will bite you,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>18</sup> My grief has no cure, I am sick at heart.

<sup>19</sup> Listen to my people’s cry of distress

out of a distant land:

“Is A<sub>DONAI</sub> no longer in Tziyon?

Is her king no longer there?”

“Why do they provoke me with their idols and their futile foreign gods?”

<sup>20</sup> “The harvest has passed, the summer is over, and still we are not saved.”

<sup>21</sup> The daughter of my people is broken, and it’s tearing me to pieces;

everything looks dark to me,

horror seizes me.

<sup>22</sup> Has Gil'ad exhausted its healing resin?

Is no physician there?

If there is, then why is the daughter of my people so slow to recover her health?

<sup>23(9:1)</sup> I wish my head were made of water and my eyes were a fountain of tears, so that I could cry day and night
over the slain of the daughter of my people!

9<sup>1(2)</sup> I wish I were out in the desert, in some travelers' lodge —
then I could get away from my people and distance myself from them!

“Indeed they are all adulterers, a band of traitors is what they are.

<sup>2(3)</sup> They bend their tongues, their 'bow' of falsehood, and hold sway in the land, but not for truth.
For they go from evil to evil,
and me they do not know,”

says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>3(4)</sup> Everyone, be on guard against your neighbor, don't trust even a brother;
for every brother is out to trick you,
and every neighbor goes around gossiping.

<sup>4(5)</sup> Everyone deceives his neighbor,
no one speaks the truth;
they have taught their tongues to lie,
they wear themselves out with sinning.

<sup>5(6)</sup> “You inhabit a world of deceit;
deceitfully they refuse to know me,”
says A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

<sup>6(7)</sup> “Therefore,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot, “I will refine them and test them.
What else can I do with the daughter of my people?

<sup>7(8)</sup> Their tongues are sharpened arrows;
with their mouths they speak deceit —
they say nice words to their neighbors, while inwardly plotting against them.

<sup>8(9)</sup> Should I not punish them for these things?” asks A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

“Should I not take vengeance on such a nation?”

<sup>9(10)</sup> I weep and wail for the mountains and lament over the desert pastures, because they have been burned up;
no one passes through;
they no longer hear the sound of cattle;
the birds and wild animals have fled, are gone.

<sup>10(11)</sup> “I will make Yerushalayim a heap of ruins, turn it into a lair for jackals,
and make the cities of Y’hudah desolate,
with no one living there.”

<sup>11(12)</sup> Who is wise enough to understand this?
To whom has the mouth of A<sub>DONAI</sub> spoken,
so that he can proclaim it?
Why has the land perished and been laid waste like a desert, so that no one passes through?

<sup>12(13)</sup> A<sub>DONAI</sub> answers:

“Because they abandoned my Torah,

which I set before them,

and neither listened to what I said

nor lived accordingly,

<sup>13(14)</sup> but have lived by their own hearts’ stubbornness and by the ba‘alim, as their ancestors taught them —

<sup>14(15)</sup> therefore,” says ADONAI-Tzva’ot,

the God of Isra’el:

“I will feed this people bitter wormwood and give them poisonous water to drink.

<sup>15(16)</sup> I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known.

I will send the sword after them until I have wiped them out.”

<sup>16(17)</sup> Thus says ADONAI-Tzva’ot:

“Mark this, then summon the mourning women,

so that they will come;

send for those who are best [at mourning],

so that they will come:

<sup>17(18)</sup>

‘Have them hurry and wail for us, so our eyes will be wet from crying,
and our eyelids gush with tears.’

<sup>18(19)</sup> For the sound of wailing is heard from Tziyon:

‘We are utterly ruined,
we are completely ashamed,
because we have left the land,
and our homes have been torn down!’”

<sup>19(20)</sup> You women, hear the word of A<sub>DONAI</sub>!

Let your ears receive the words from his mouth.
Teach your daughters how to wail,
have each teach her friend how to lament:

<sup>20(21)</sup> “Death has come up through our windows, it has entered our palaces,

it has cut down children in the streets and young people in the public places.”

<sup>21(22)</sup> Say: “Here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

‘The corpses of people are scattered like dung in an open field, like sheaves left behind by the reaper with no one to gather them.’”

<sup>22(23)</sup> Here is what ADONAI says:

“The wise man should not boast of his wisdom,
the powerful should not boast of his power,
the wealthy should not boast of his wealth;

<sup>23(24)</sup> instead, let the boaster boast about this:

that he understands and knows me — that I am ADONAI, practicing grace, justice and righteousness in the land;
for in these things I take pleasure,” says ADONAI.

<sup>24(25)</sup> “The days are coming,” says ADONAI, “when I will punish all those who have been circumcised in their uncircumcision — <sup>25(26)</sup> Egypt, Y’hudah, Edom, the people of ‘Amon and Mo’av, and all those living in the desert who cut the edges [of their beard]:

“For although all the Goyim are uncircumcised, all the house of Isra’el have uncircumcised hearts.”

10 <sup>1</sup> Hear the word ADONAI speaks to you, house of Isra’el!

<sup>2</sup> Here is what ADONAI says:

“Don’t learn the way of the Goyim, don’t be frightened by astrological signs,
even if the Goyim are afraid of them;

<sup>3</sup>       for the customs of the peoples are nothing.

They cut down a tree in the forest;
a craftsman works it with his axe;

<sup>4</sup>       they deck it with silver and gold.

They fix it with hammer and nails,
so that it won’t move.

<sup>5</sup>       Like a scarecrow in a cucumber patch, it cannot speak.

It has to be carried,
because it cannot walk.

Do not be afraid of it —
it can do nothing bad;
likewise it is unable to do anything good!”

<sup>6</sup>       There is no one like you, ADONAI!

You are great, and your name is great and mighty.

<sup>7</sup> Who would not fear you, king of the nations?

For it is your due! — since among all the wise of the nations and among all their royalty,

there is no one like you.

<sup>8</sup> One and all they are boorish and stupid;
the teaching of their nothings is a piece of wood!

<sup>9</sup> Silver is beaten into plates,
then imported from Tarshish.
Gold from Ufaz is worked by a craftsman and shaped by the hands of a goldsmith.
They are clothed in blue and purple,
all the work of skillful men.

<sup>10</sup> But ADONAI, God, is the true God,
the living God, the everlasting king.
At his anger, the earth trembles;
the nations cannot endure his fury.

<sup>11</sup> “This is what you must say to them:
‘The gods that did not make heaven and earth will perish from earth and from under heaven.’”

<sup>12</sup> God made the earth by his power, established the world by his wisdom spread out the sky by his understanding.

<sup>13</sup> When he thunders, the waters in heaven roar, he raises clouds from the ends of the earth,
he makes the lightning flash in the rain and brings the wind out from his storehouses.

<sup>14</sup> At this, everyone is proved stupid, ignorant, every goldsmith put to shame by his idol!
The figures he casts are a fraud;
there is no breath in them;

<sup>15</sup> they are nothings, ridiculous objects;
when the day for their punishment comes, they will perish.

<sup>16</sup> Ya‘akov’s portion is not like these,
for he is the one who formed all things.
Isra’el is the tribe he claims as his heritage;
ADONAI-Tzva’ot is his name.

<sup>17</sup> You who are living under the siege, gather your belongings off the ground,

<sup>18</sup> for here is what A<sub>DONAI</sub> says:

“At this time I am slinging away

the inhabitants of the land;

I will distress them,

so that they will feel it.”

<sup>19</sup> Woe to me because of my wound!

My injury is incurable!

I used to say, “It’s only an illness,

and I can bear it.”

<sup>20</sup> But now my tent is ruined,

all its cords are severed;

my children have left me and are no more;

there is no one to set up my tent again,

no one to raise its curtains.

<sup>21</sup> The shepherds have become stupid,

they have not consulted A<sub>DONAI</sub>.

This is why they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered.

Listen! A noise! It's coming closer!

A great uproar from the land to the north,
to make the cities of Y'hudah desolate, a place for jackals to live.

<sup>23</sup>     ADONAI, I know that the way of humans is not in their control, humans are not able to direct their steps as they walk.

<sup>24</sup>     ADONAI, correct me, but in moderation, not in your anger, or you'll reduce me to nothing.

<sup>25</sup>     Pour out your anger on the nations that do not acknowledge you, also on the families
that do not call on your name.
For they have consumed Ya'akov — consumed him and finished him off, and laid waste to his home.

11 <sup>1</sup> Here is the word that came to Yirmeyahu from ADONAI: <sup>2</sup> “Listen to the words of this covenant; then speak to the people of Y'hudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim; <sup>3</sup> tell them that ADONAI the God of Isra'el says: ‘A curse on anyone who does not pay attention to the words of this covenant, <sup>4</sup> which I enjoined on your ancestors at the time that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of that iron-smelter. I said, “Listen to my voice,

and carry out all my orders;

then you will be my people,

and I will be your God;

<sup>5</sup> so that I can fulfill the oath that I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey,

as it is today.”””

Then I responded, “Amen, ADONAI.”

<sup>6</sup> ADONAI said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Y’udah and in the streets of Yerushalayim: ‘Listen to the words of this covenant, and obey them. <sup>7</sup> For I solemnly warned your ancestors at the time when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; and until this day I have frequently warned them, “Listen to my voice!” <sup>8</sup> But they have not listened or paid attention; instead, each one has lived according to the stubbornness of his own evil heart. For this reason I have brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I ordered them to obey, but which they did not obey.’”

<sup>9</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, “The men of Y’udah and the people living in Yerushalayim have formed a conspiracy. <sup>10</sup> They have returned to the sins of their ancestors, who refused to hear my words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them. The house of Isra’el and the house of Y’udah have broken my covenant which I made with their ancestors.” <sup>11</sup> Therefore ADONAI says, “I am going to bring on them a disaster which they will not be able to escape; and even if they cry to me, I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Y’udah and the people living in Yerushalayim will go and cry to the gods to whom they are making offerings; but they will not save them at all in their time of trouble. <sup>13</sup> For you have as many gods, Y'hudah, as you have towns; and you have erected as many altars for sacrificing to that shameful thing, Ba'al, as there are streets in Yerushalayim.

<sup>14</sup> “So you, [Yirmeyahu,] don't pray for this people! Don't cry or pray on their behalf, because I won't listen to them when they cry to me because of their troubles. <sup>15</sup> What right does my beloved have to be in my house, when she has behaved so shamelessly with so many? Offerings of consecrated meat can no longer help, because it is when you are doing evil that you are happy.”

<sup>16</sup>       A<sub>DONAI</sub> once called you an olive tree, beautiful, full of leaves and good fruit.

Now with the roar of a violent storm,

he has set it on fire;

and its branches will be consumed.

<sup>17</sup>       For A<sub>DONAI</sub>-Tzva'ot, who planted you, has decreed evil for you.

“It is because of the evil which the house of Isra'el and the house of Y'hudah did to themselves, provoking me with their offerings of incense to Ba'al.”

<sup>18</sup>       A<sub>DONAI</sub> made this known to me, and then I knew — you showed me what they were doing.

<sup>19</sup>       But I was like a tame lamb led to be slaughtered;

I did not know that they were plotting schemes against me —

“Let’s destroy the tree with its fruit, we’ll cut him off from the land of the living,
so that his name will be forgotten.”

<sup>20</sup> ADONAI-Tzva’ot, righteous judge, tester of motives and thoughts,

I have committed my cause to you;

so let me see your vengeance on them.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, here is what ADONAI says concerning the men from ‘Anatot who seek your life and who tell you, “Stop prophesying in the name of ADONAI, or we will kill you ourselves” — <sup>22</sup> this is what ADONAI-Tzva’ot says: “I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters will die by famine. <sup>23</sup> None of them will remain, for I will bring disaster on the men from ‘Anatot when the year comes for them to be punished.”

12 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI, although you would be in the right

if I were to dispute with you, nevertheless I want to discuss some points of justice with you:

Why do the wicked prosper?

Why do the treacherous all thrive?

<sup>2</sup> You planted them, and they took root;

they grow, and they bear fruit.

You are near in their mouths,

though far from their hearts.

<sup>3</sup> But, ADONAI, you know me and see me;

you test my devotion to you;

drag them away like sheep to be slaughtered,

and set them apart for the day of slaughter.

<sup>4</sup> How long must the land mourn and the grass in all the fields wither?

The wild animals and birds are consumed because of the wickedness of those who live there;

for they say, “He will not see how we end up.”

<sup>5</sup> If racing men on foot exhausts you, how will you compete against horses?

You may feel secure in a land at peace,

but how will you do in the Yarden’s thick brush?

<sup>6</sup> For even your own brothers and your father’s family are betraying you;

they are in full cry after you.

Despite all their nice speech, don’t believe them.

<sup>7</sup> “I have abandoned my house,

I have rejected my heritage,

I have given my heart’s beloved over to the hands of her foes.

<sup>8</sup> For me, my heritage has become like a lion in the forest —

she roared out against me;

so now I hate her.

<sup>9</sup> For me, my heritage is like a speckled bird of prey — other birds of prey surround her and attack her.

Go, gather all the wild animals,

and bring them to devour her.

<sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled my plot of land,

they have turned my desirable property into a desert waste.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, they have made it a waste;

wasted, it mourns to me;

the whole land is wasted, because nobody really cares.”

<sup>12</sup>

On all the desert’s bare hills plunderers have come;
yes, the sword of ADONAI devours the land from one end to the other;
nothing alive is safe.

<sup>13</sup>

They sowed wheat and reaped thorns,
they wore themselves out and gained nothing.
So be ashamed of your [tiny] harvest,
the result of ADONAI ‘s fierce anger.

<sup>14</sup> Here is what ADONAI says: “As for all my evil neighbors who encroach on the heritage I gave to my people Isra’el as their possession, I will uproot them from their own land, and I will uproot Y’hudah from among them. <sup>15</sup> Then, after I have uprooted them, I will take pity on them again and bring them back, each one to his inheritance, each one to his own land. <sup>16</sup> Then, if they will carefully learn my people’s ways, swearing by my name, ‘As ADONAI lives,’ just as they taught my people to swear by Ba‘al, they will be built up among my people. <sup>17</sup> But if they refuse to listen, then I will uproot that nation, uproot and destroy it,” says ADONAI.

13 <sup>1</sup> ADONAI said to me, “Go, buy yourself a linen loincloth, and wrap it around your body; but don’t soften it in water.” <sup>2</sup> So I bought a loincloth, as ADONAI had said, and put it on.

<sup>3</sup> Then the word of ADONAI came to me a second time: <sup>4</sup> “Take the loincloth you bought and are wearing, get up, go to Parah, and hide it there in a hole in the rock.” <sup>5</sup> So I went and hid it in Parah, as ADONAI had ordered me.

<sup>6</sup> A long time afterwards, ADONAI said to me, “Get up, go to Parah, and recover the loincloth I ordered you to hide there.” <sup>7</sup> So I went to Parah and dug up the loincloth; but when I took it from the place where I had hidden it, I saw that it was ruined and useless for anything. <sup>8</sup> Then the word of ADONAI came to me: <sup>9</sup> “Here is what ADONAI says: ‘This is how I will ruin what makes Y’hudah so proud and Yerushalayim so very proud: <sup>10</sup> I will ruin this evil people, who refuse to hear my words and live according to their own stubborn inclinations, who go after other gods to serve and worship them. They will be like this loincloth, which is useless for anything. <sup>11</sup> For just as a loincloth clings to a man’s body, I made the whole house of Isra’el and the whole house of Y’hudah cling to me,’ says ADONAI, ‘so that they could be my people, building me a name and becoming for me a source of praise and honor. But they would not listen. <sup>12</sup> So you are to tell them, “This is what ADONAI the God of Isra’el says: ‘Every bottle is filled with wine.’” Then when they ask you, “Don’t we already know that every bottle is filled with wine?” <sup>13</sup> you are to answer them, “This is what ADONAI says: ‘I am going to fill all the inhabitants of this land — including the kings sitting on the throne of David, the cohanim, the prophets and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim — with drunkenness. <sup>14</sup> Then I will smash them one against another, even fathers and sons together,’ says ADONAI ‘I will show neither pity nor compassion, but I will destroy them relentlessly.’””

<sup>15</sup> Listen and pay attention; don’t be proud!

For ADONAI has spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Give glory to ADONAI your God

before the darkness falls,

before your feet stumble

on the mountains in the twilight, and, while you are seeking light,

he turns it into deathlike shadows and makes it completely dark.

<sup>17</sup>

But if you will not hear this warning,
I will weep secretly because of your pride;
my eyes will weep bitterly, streaming with tears,
because ADONAI's flock is carried away captive.

<sup>18</sup>

Tell the king and the queen mother, “Come down from your thrones, for your magnificent crowns are falling from your heads.”

<sup>19</sup>

The cities of the Negev are besieged,
and no one can relieve them;
all of Y'hudah is carried into exile, completely swept into exile.

<sup>20</sup>

Raise your eyes, and you will see them coming from the north.
Where is the flock once entrusted to you,
the sheep that were your pride?

<sup>21</sup>

When he sets over you as rulers
those you trained to be allies, what will you say? Won't pains seize you like those of a woman in labor?

<sup>22</sup> And if you ask yourself,
“Why have these things happened to me?”

it is because of your many sins that your skirts are pulled up and you have been violated.

<sup>23</sup> Can an Ethiopian change his skin?
or a leopard its spots?

If they can, then you can do good,
who are so accustomed to doing evil.

<sup>24</sup> “So I will scatter them like chaff that flies away in the desert wind.

<sup>25</sup> This is what you get,” says A<sub>DONAI</sub>,
“the portion I measure out to you, because you have forgotten me
and trusted in the lie.

<sup>26</sup> I myself will lift your skirts above your face, and your privates will be exposed.

<sup>27</sup> On the hills and in the fields,

I have seen your abominations — your adulteries, your lustful neighings your shameless prostitution.
Woe to you, Yerushalayim!
You refuse to be purified!
Won't you ever allow it?"

14<sup>1</sup> The word of A<sub>DONAI</sub> that came to Yirmeyahu concerning the drought:

<sup>2</sup>        "Y'hudah is mourning, her gates are languishing;
they sit on the ground in gloom;
Yerushalayim sends up a cry of anguish.

<sup>3</sup>        Her nobles send their servants for water;
they go to the cisterns but find no water,
so they return with empty jars.
Ashamed and dismayed, they cover their heads.

<sup>4</sup>        Because of the ground, which is cracked, since it has not rained in the land,
the farmers are ashamed;
they cover their heads.

<sup>5</sup>        The doe in the countryside, giving birth, abandons her young for lack of grass.

<sup>6</sup>       The wild donkeys standing on the bare heights gasp for air like jackals; their eyes grow dim from trying to spot any vegetation.”

<sup>7</sup>       Although our crimes witness against us, take action, ADONAI, for your name’s sake;
for our backslidings are many;
we have sinned against you.

<sup>8</sup>       You, hope of Isra’el, its savior in time of trouble,
why should you be like a stranger in the land,
like a traveler turning aside for the night?

<sup>9</sup>       Why should you be like a man in shock, like a champion unable to save?
You, ADONAI, are right here with us;
we bear your name — don’t leave us!

<sup>10</sup>       Here is what ADONAI says to this people:
“They so love to wander,

they don't restrain their feet;

so ADONAI does not want them.

Now he will remember their crimes,

and he will punish their sins.”

<sup>11</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, “Don't pray for this people or for their welfare. <sup>12</sup> When they fast, I will not hear their cry; when they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Rather, I will destroy them with war, famine and disease.” <sup>13</sup> Then I said, “ADONAI, God! The prophets are telling them, ‘You won't see war, and you won't have famine; but I will give you secure peace in this place.’” <sup>14</sup> ADONAI replied, “The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I didn't send them, order them or speak to them. They are prophesying false visions to you, worthless divinations, the delusions of their own minds. <sup>15</sup> Therefore,” ADONAI says, “concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, whom I did not send, yet they say, ‘There will be neither war nor famine in this land’ — it will be war and famine that will destroy those prophets. <sup>16</sup> And the people to whom they are prophesying will be thrown out into the streets of Yerushalayim because of the famine and war, with no one to bury them — them, or their wives, or their sons, or their daughters — because I will pour their own wickedness out upon them. <sup>17</sup> You are to give them this message:

‘Let my eyes stream with tears night and day, unceasingly, because the virgin daughter of my people has been severely broken;

she has been dealt a crushing blow.

<sup>18</sup> If I go out in the field,

I see those slain with the sword.

If I enter the city,
I see the victims of famine.
Meanwhile, prophets and cohanim
ply their trade in the land, knowing nothing.’”

<sup>19</sup> Have you rejected Y’hudah completely?

Is Tziyon loathsome to you?
Why have you struck us irreparably?
We looked for peace, but to no avail;
for a time of healing, but instead found terror!

<sup>20</sup> We confess our rebellion, A<sub>DONAI</sub>, also the crimes of our ancestors;
yes, we have sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup> For your name’s sake, do not spurn us;
do not dishonor your glorious throne.
Remember your covenant with us;
do not break it.

<sup>22</sup> Among the nations’ idols,
can any make it rain?
Can the skies, of themselves,

send showers?

Aren't you the one,

ADONAI, our God?

Don't we look to you?

For you do all these things.

15 <sup>1</sup> Then ADONAI said to me, “Even if Moshe and Sh'mu'el were standing in front of me, my heart would not turn toward this people! Drive them out of my sight, get them out of here! <sup>2</sup> And when they ask you where they should go, tell them that this is what ADONAI says:

‘Those destined for death — to death!

Those destined for the sword — to the sword!

Those destined for famine — to famine!

Those destined for captivity — to captivity!’

<sup>3</sup> “I will assign them four kinds [of scourges],” says ADONAI, “the sword to kill, dogs to drag away, birds in the air and wild animals to devour and destroy. <sup>4</sup> I will make them an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of M'nasheh the son of Hizkiyahu king of Y'hudah, because of what he did in Yerushalayim.

<sup>5</sup> “Who will take pity on you, Yerushalayim?

Who will grieve for you?

Who will turn aside

to ask about your welfare?

You have rejected me,” says ADONAI.

“You are heading backward.

So I am stretching out my hand against you;
tired of sparing you, I am destroying you.

<sup>7</sup> With a winnowing fork I am scattering them to the wind at the gates of the land;
I am bereaving them, destroying my people,
because they will not return from their ways.

<sup>8</sup> Their widows increase in number more than the sand of the seas;
At midday I am bringing the destroyer on the mothers of young men, causing anguish and terror
suddenly to fall upon her.

<sup>9</sup> The mother of seven sons grows faint, panting in despair;
her sun has gone down while it’s still daytime;
she is left disgraced and bewildered.
And the rest of them I will give to the sword, to their enemies,” says ADONAI.

<sup>10</sup>

Woe to me, mother, that you gave me birth,
a man who is the object of strife and controversy throughout the land!
I neither lend nor borrow,
yet all of them curse me.

<sup>11</sup> ADONAI said, “I promise to release you for good, I promise to make your enemies appeal to you when calamity and trouble come.

